PREFACE

THE College feel that an apology is due to the subscribers to the Biographical Register for the delay in the issue of the second volume. This delay is mainly due to the extension of the work beyond the limits originally proposed. Dr Peile had intended to bring the Register to a close at about the year 1870, but in view of the publication of the Annual List of living Members of the College, past and present, with their addresses, which appeared for the first time at the Quatercentenary Celebration in 1905, it was thought advisable to continue the work down to that year: so that the Biographical Register and the Annual Lists together might constitute a complete roll of all the known Members of the College from the foundation of "God's House" to the present day. Opportunity has been taken to correct certain inaccuracies which had occurred in Dr Peile's manuscript of the first volume, and an index has been prepared by Mr J. A. Venn to the entire work, which contains some ten thousand five hundred entries.

That the completion of the work was at all possible is due in the first place to Mr J. A. Venn, of Trinity College, who, at the request of the College, kindly undertook to complete the second volume and see it through the press: and secondly to the wide knowledge which Mr Tithecott, our college butler, possesses of the careers of old Members of the College. Mr J. A. Venn has most whole-heartedly devoted himself to this work for the last two years, and the authorities of the College feel they owe him deep thanks. Mr Tithecott's zeal for noticing and recording any news connected with the College has been of the greatest use to Mr Venn. But there have been other helpers. Dr Venn, whose Biographical Register of Gonville and Caius College was the model upon which Dr Peile based his work, has placed his great experience at the disposal of his son. Mr G. B. Routledge, the Rev. Canon Foster, F.S.A., and the Rev. J. E. Auden, M.A., have kindly supplied many facts not previously known. We also owe our thanks to Mrs Baines for communicating a pedigree of the Baines family, whose close connexion with the College dates from 1571 to the present day. Finally, we thank many Members of the College for their kindness in furnishing information about their own careers or those of their friends.

BIOGRAPHICAL REGISTER

CHRIST'S COLLEGE

It will be observed that between 1 July 1665 and 8 March $166\frac{5}{6}$, there are only three entries. The cause was the plague which was prevalent in August: and on 10 Oct. the exercises in the Schools were discontinued by Grace of the Senate. On Dec. 8 the Colleges were declared by the V.C. to be free of infection: on March 15 it was announced that no one had died of plague at Cambridge for six weeks, and that all who return will be received. (Cooper, Annals, 3. 517.) But it will have been seen that many men matriculated very late. The reason was that there was no matriculation between July 1665 and 30 March 1667. In the spring of 1666 work recommenced. Commencement seems to have been held and degrees conferred. But the plague returned: and on Aug. 3 Stourbridge fair was prohibited: the Colleges apparently dispersed earlier than their wont. See note by John Covel, praelector for the year, under Sam. Fortrey (page 8).

Onely, Richard:

Matric^{d}. from Magd. Hall, Oxford, 1663, aged 17: B.A. 1667: incorporated at Cambridge and M.A. (Christ's), 1672. Son of Humphrey Onely of Yoxall, Staffs.: his brother Humphry, B.A., was at Ch. Ch. 1674. Vicar of Colton, Staffs. 15 Nov. 1706: resigned May 1708. The name at Christ's, now and in the next century, is spelt Onely: elsewhere at Cambridge, and generally at Oxford, it is Onley.

Wood, Laurence:

Matric^{d}. from Brasenose, Oxford 30 March 1666: B.A. 1669: incorporated at Cambridge and M.A. (Christ's) 1672. The third of these names in the College: one $158\frac{0}{1}$, the second B.A. $160\frac{4}{5}$: all three of Cheshire. Son of John of Landwich (?), plebeius. Ordained (as M.A. of Christ's) priest, Lichfield, 1673 Aug. Rector of St Bridget's, Chester, $168\frac{7}{8}$–1710; vicar of St John, Chester 1689–1710, when he died aged 63. (Ormerod-Helsby, 1. 315.)

Gardiner, Robert:

Matric^{d}. from Queen's, Oxford 18 March $166\frac{4}{5}$, aged 17: B.A. 1668: incorporated at Cambridge and M.A. (Christ's) 1672. Son of Ri. Gardiner of Kellet, Lancs.

Bowes, Robert: son of Francis, eques auratus: born at Durham. School: "Coniscleuiae" [Coniscliffe], under Mr Robinson. Admitted fellow-commoner under Dr Widdrington 1 Feb. $166\frac{5}{6}$. Age 16.

Matrd. 16 March $166\frac{7}{5}$. Admitted at Gray's Inn 2 April 1668. Second son of Sir Francis of Thornton Hall. Succeeded his brother Francis (admitted 1664) in 1697. Gave £5. 7*s*. 6*d*. to the Chapel in 1702. Died unmarried: buried 4 April 1734. (Surtees, 3. 383.)

Bretton, Joshua: son of John: born at Dullingham, Cambs. School: Thurlow, Suff., under Mr Holmes. Admitted pensioner under Mr Eede 8 March $166\frac{5}{6}$. Age 16.

B.A. $16\frac{69}{70}$; M.A. 1673. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1670 May: priest, Norwich, $167\frac{4}{5}$: and instituted (same time) to the rectory of Elvedon or Eldon, Suff., patron, John Bretton (? his father). Died 1689, aged 39, and buried at Elvedon.

Baynes, William: admitted as Baines: son of Robert: born at Merwith [? Mewith Head], Bentham, Yorks. School: Sedbergh, under Mr Fell. Admitted pensioner under Mr Stanford 9 March $166\frac{5}{6}$. Age 16.

B.A. (Baynes) $16\frac{69}{70}$. Ordained deacon (Baynes), York, Dec. 1670. One of these names vicar of Aberford near Tadcaster: died there before Nov. 1712.

Fish, Thomas: son of Phatuel: born at Staveley, Yorks. School: York, under Mr Langley. Admitted sizar under Mr Covel 26 March 1666.

B.A. $16\frac{69}{70}$; M.A. 1673. Brother of Henry (1658). Ordained deacon, London, 1670 Sept.; priest, Chichester, 1673. Rector of Ringstead St Andrew (presented by the College) 24 July 1673–87. Obtained 21 May 1677 a dispensation to hold also his father's rectory of Staveley, Yorks., distant 46 miles (Lambeth Register). Rector also of Foston, Yorks. (probably in Lamplugh's time, 1686–91, for which the institutions are wanting) till his death 31 Dec. 1701. Buried in chancel of Ringstead church.

Belasyse, Henry: admitted as Bellasis: son of Richard, miles: born at Biddick House, Durham. School: Haughton [Houghton], under Mr Caunt. Admitted fellow-commoner under Dr Widdrington 29 March 1666.

Matricd. 6 July 1667. Admitted at the Middle Temple 1 April 1668. Son of Ri. Belasyse of Potto, Yorks. and of Margaret Lambton of Lambton, Durham. Sir Henry Belasyse of Potto, and afterwards of Brancepeth Castle: M.P. for Durham, in the parliaments of 1, 4 and 9 Anne. General of the British Army in Flanders. Governor of Berwick on Tweed. Married (1) Dorothy Jenkins of Grimston, (2) Fleetwood Shuttleworth of Forcet. Gave £5. 7*s*. 6*d*. to the Chapel in 1702. Died 16 Dec. 1717: buried in Westminster Abbey. (Surtees, 1. 203.)

Rayne, Edward: son of Richard: born at Gainford, Durham. School: Coniscliffe, under Mr Robinson. Admitted sizar under Dr Widdrington 3 April 1666. Age 16.

Matricd. 6 July 1667. Second son of Ri. Rayne of Snow Hall, Gainford, by his wife Isabel Stoddart. Pedigree in Surtees, 4. 15. Seems to have died childless, as the third brother John succeeded his father at Snow Hall "one of the loveliest spots in the valley of the Tees" (Surtees).

Secker, George: son of Thomas: born at Grantham. School: Grantham, under Mr Siston. Admitted sizar under Mr Eede 17 April 1666. Age 15.

M.B. 1672. Brother of George (1664).

Wilson, Ralph: son of Thomas: born at Stotely [probably Shotley], Northumb^{d}. School: Newcastle. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Stanford 21 April 1666. Age 15.

Matric^{d}. 30 Mar. 1667. Perhaps B.A. 1675. One Ralph Wilson was under-usher of Newcastle School on 24 March 1674 with a stipend of £33. 6*s.* 8*d.* (Brand, Newcastle, 1. 93): if this be the same man, he was appointed before his graduation, which was for some reason long deferred.

Maurice, Henry: admitted as Morrice: son of William: born at Stortford. School: Stortford, under M^{r} Leigh. Admitted, "aevo multo maturior," sizar under M^{r} Stanford 21 April 1666. Age 16.

B.A. (Maurice) $16\frac{69}{70}$; M.A. 1673. Ordained deacon, London, 1672 Dec. Rector of Tyringham, Bucks. 22 Oct. 1675–99 (Lipscombe, 4. 380, has 1679 wrongly). Chaplain to the Earl of St Alban [sic], and as such had license 23 April 1681 to hold (with Tyringham) the rectory of Buckworth, Hunts., distant 16 miles (Lambeth Register). Buried at Tyringham 20 April 1699. Not to be confused with the contemporary Hen. Maurice, D.D. of Jesus, Oxford, Lady Margaret Professor.

Brook, Thomas: son of William: born at Hoytown [? Hoyland], Yorks. School: Hipperholme [near Halifax], under M^{r} Doughty. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Eede 24 April 1666. Age 16.

Matric^{n}. not found. One Tho. Brooke of Dodworth (near Barnsley) gent., died 1712 aged 63: buried at Doncaster church (Hunter, S. Yorks, 1. 47).

Miller, Richard: son of Edward: born in Cambridge. School: (1) Cambridge, (2) Huntingdon, (3) Bury. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Covel 26 April 1666. Age 15.

B.A. $16\frac{69}{70}$; M.A. 1673. One of these names rector of Felsham, Suff. 2 Jan. $16\frac{79}{80}$. One was rector of South Runcton, Norf. 1690–1702, when he died (Blomefield, 4. 139).

Watson, Richard: son of Robert: born at Frendesbury [Frindsbury], Kent. School: West Malling, under M^{r} Rob. Whittle. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Stanford 27 April 1666. Age 16.

Admitted at Gray's Inn 7 May 1668. Another Ri. Watson was admitted 21 June 1667: whom see. Each graduated: one (possibly this one) was LL.B. 1671: the other was B.A. $167\frac{0}{1}$: it is impossible to decide.

Dunning, Edward: son of Shadrach: born at Northallerton. School: Sigston [? Siggesthorne, near Hornsea], under M^{r} Smelt. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Eede 28 April 1666. Age 14.

B.A. $16\frac{69}{70}$. Ordained deacon, York, 1671 June; priest, 1672 June. Curate of Givendale (near Pocklington) 19 June 1674: also at Bishop Wilton (near Givendale) 24 June.

Glascock, Thomas: son of Edward, born at Kelvedon, Essex. School: "silvis ustis" [Brentwood], under M^{r} Bernard. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Covel 9 May 1666. Age 16.

B.A. 1669 Mids. Second son of Edward of Brises, Kelvedon (admitted 1638).

Nowell, William: son of Charles: born at Capleside, Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Will. Briggs. Admitted sizar to D^{r} Carr (surety M^{r} Stanford) 14 May 1666. Age 16.

B.A. $16\frac{69}{70}$; M.A. 1674. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1670 May. Rector of Berwick, Sussex, 24 Jan. $167\frac{2}{3}$–94. Also vicar of Fittleworth 26 Sept. 1677; rector of Brightling 10 Dec. 1681; vicar of Alciston 3 June 1686; but he held Berwick through his life. Died before Jan. $169\frac{4}{5}$. (There is a pedigree of the Nowells of Capleside in Whitaker, Whalley, 2. 113: but this one does not appear.)

Young, Edward: son of William: born at Giggleswick. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Briggs. Admitted sizar to D^{r} Carr (surety M^{r} Stanford) 14 May 1666. Age 15.

B.A. $16\frac{69}{70}$. Buried (Younge B.A.) at Great St Andrew's 10 April 1670.

Myers, Josiah: born at Lakeland [Lawkland], Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Briggs. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Stanford 14 May 1666. Age 16.

Matric^{d}. 6 July 1667, as Josias. Josiah Myres, "literatus, Chr. Coll.," ordained deacon, York, Sept. 1668: priest, Lincoln, 1670 Aug. Rector of Easedon (? Easton, now combined with Stoke, North and South), Lincs. 8 Aug. 1670—at the age of 20, if the dates be right!

Poynton, John: son of Edward: born at Little Huckley [Hucklow in Hope], Derbs. School: Hope, under M^{r} Croasdale. Admitted sizar to M^{r} Burnet (surety M^{r} Eede) 15 May 1666. Age 17.

B.A. $16\frac{69}{70}$. Edward (the father) died 1674 and was buried at Hope. John was ordained deacon, Lichfield, 1670 May; priest, Ely, $167\frac{0}{1}$ March. Died, probably, at Hope in his father's lifetime, leaving books as a bequest to his brother Elias, admitted 1674. (Rev. F. J. Poynton of Kelston.)

Alcock, John: son of Walter: born at Gateside [Gateshead]. School: Newcastle, under M^{r} Oxley, "novi indefessus seminator seculi" (Covel). Admitted sizar under M^{r} Covel 15 May 1666. Age 15.

B.A. $16\frac{69}{70}$; M.A. 1673. Ordained deacon, York, 1670 Dec.: priest, 1672 Sept. Perhaps vicar of Billingham, Durham later than 1681–1703, when he died (Surtees, 3. 146).

Eliot, Philip: son of Philip, "nomine et praenomine insignitus patrio": born at Hunsdon, Herts. School: "Staffordiae" [Stortford], under M^{r} Leigh. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Stanford 17 May 1666. Age 16.

B.A. (Elliot) $16\frac{69}{70}$. Philip (the father) was rector of Hunsdon 20 July 1644: and was one of the Herts. ministers who petitioned in 1646 for church government according to the Covenant (Urwick, 124). He seems to have been unconformable in 1661, and resigned Hunsdon: but returned in 1666 and held it till 1686 (?). One of the family to which belonged John Eliot, "the apostle to the Indians" and Philip his brother, one of the pilgrim-fathers (ib. 680). The young Philip is not found in any list of emigrants.

North, Oliver: son of Oliver: born at Teston, Kent. School: Tonbridge, under M^{r} Wase. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Bainbridge 18 May 1666. Age 16.

B.A. $16\frac{69}{70}$; M.A. 1673. Son of Oliver ($163\frac{2}{3}$), vicar of Teston. Vicar of West Farleigh, Kent, 1675. Rector of Iden, Sussex, 8 July 1692. Died 1726.

Saes, William: son of William: born at Bishop's Castle, Salop. School: Edgeton, under M^{r} Hay. Admitted sizar to D^{r} Pepper (surety M^{r} Covel) 24 May 1666. Age 16.

Probably Says: matriculation not found.

Smith, John: son of John, born at Milton, Derbs. School: Repton, under M^{r} Ullock. Admitted a sizar: and pupil of M^{r} Standish (surety M^{r} Stanford) 28 May 1666. Age 17.

B.A. $16\frac{69}{70}$. Ordained (John Smith, Christ's College) deacon, Lichfield, 1671 Sept.: priest, Worcester, 1676 Sept. Curate of Caulk (Worc. Reg.). One Joh. Smith B.A., vicar of Leasby (? Lowesby), Leics. 10 May 1672: vicar of Tilton (adjacent) 3 June 1673. One (B.A.) rector of Wishaw, Warwick 6 June 1695.

Heathcote, Gilbert: admitted as Hethcot: son of Michael: born at Buxton. School: Bakewell, under M^{r} Beardmore. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Stanford 11 June 1666. Age 18.

B.A. (Heathcott) $16\frac{69}{70}$; M.A. 1673. Identified, in D.N.B., with Sir Gilbert, Sheriff and Lord Mayor of London, knighted 1702, one of the founders of the Bank of England, and (in 1694) elected one of its first Board of Directors: M.P. for Helston 1714, for New Lymington 1722, for St Germans 1727: baronet $173\frac{2}{3}$: who died in London 1733, aged 82, and was buried at Normanton, Ruts., which he had bought from the Mackworths. If his age be given rightly, he was born in 1651. The age does not exactly correspond: and there seems to be no doubt that this Sir Gilbert was eldest son of Gilbert of Chesterfield, alderman and thrice mayor.

Another Gilbert was admitted here [no facts about him given] in 1681: but he is too young.

There is another Gilbert Heathcote "M.A. of Christs" (so described in Brady's Records of Cork, 2. 115) and said there to be son of the Parliamentary Captain, Gilbert, and grandson of George of Brampton who was brother of Gilbert, the alderman of Chesterfield, from whom the knightly family descended. This Irish Gilbert was curate of Youghal 1683: Chancellor of Cloyne, 1685–93, when he was deprived. He married about 1680 Sarah, daughter of Sir Ri. Kennedy of Mount Kennedy, co. Wicklow. So far, Brady: did he take the "M.A. of Christ's" from the Graduati Cant. without further enquiry? or is he wrong about the parentage and does he assume that Gilbert the Chancellor of Cloyne was a son of the familiar Parliamentarian Gilbert? If so, the rest of his account may be correct. The Gilbert of 1681 is too young to be the husband of Sarah Kennedy.

Leake, Samuel: "sesquicubitalis": son of Edward: born at Loughborough. School: Loughborough, under M^{r} Somerville. Admitted sizar to M^{r} Halliwell (surety M^{r} Stanford) 13 June 1666. Age 18.

B.A. 1669 Mids. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1668 Aug. [sic]: priest, York, 1671 Sept. Licensed to lecture in Ashbourne, Derbs. 20 Oct. 1671. (The vicar of Rolleston, Notts. 12 Aug. 1682 is more probably Sam. Leake M.A. (Joh.) 1661.) He died still lecturer of Ashbourne June 1689. For the history of the lectureship (founded 1632) see Cox, Derbs. Churches, 2. 398: the "able pious learned painfull and orthodox preacher" was to give two sermons or Divinity Lectures every week.

Knolles, John: or Knowles: son of John: born at Chester. School: Chester, "renatum obstetricante parturientibus Musis magistro Liptrot." Admitted sizar to M^{r} Burnet (surety M^{r} Eede) 15 June 1666. Age, nearly 17.

B.A. (Knowles) $16\frac{69}{70}$. Ordained deacon, Glos., $16\frac{69}{70}$ Feb. On 17 Dec. 1670 he petitioned for priest's orders within six weeks, having been chosen by the inhabitants of Stony Stratford for their minister and being then above 24 [sic]. Ordained priest, Ely, $167\frac{0}{1}$ March. One John Knolles, P.C. of Bidston, Chesh. 1674–9 (Ormerod-Helsby, 2. 469). A M^{r} Knowles appears as vicar of Helpstone in the Bishop's vis^{n}. 1675 and in the Audit Book 1678–9: gone before 1682 when Tho. Ixem is appointed. The father (John) may have been the Socinian chaplain of the garrison at Chester who had a controversy with Sam. Eaton the orthodox Independent of Duckenfield, and chaplain before Knolles (Halley, 2. 85).

Goring, William: son of John: born at Kingston, Staffs. School: Repton. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Eede 18 June 1666. Age 17.

Matric^{n}. not found. Brother of Thomas (1664). Married Sarah, daughter and coheir of Humphry Gilbert of Frodley, and had a large family, who mostly died young or unmarried. His eldest son, Henry, bapt^{d}. 21 July 1687, married and had issue (Staffs. Vis^{n}. 1663–4, with note at end of Vis^{n}. book).

Thompson, George: son of George, armiger: born at Lee, Kent. School: Lee, under M^{r} Watkins. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Eede 18 June 1666. Age 17.

Matric^{d}. July 1667. Admitted at Lincoln's Inn 8 Aug. 1667 (as Geo. Tompson).

Turner, John: son of Methusaleh: born at Cheapside, London ("ibidem eundem salutavit patriarcham primo quo potuit vagitu"). School: St Paul's, under D^{r} Crumbleam [Crumbleholme]. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Eede 18 June 1666. Age, nearly 17.

B.A. $16\frac{69}{70}$; M.A. 1673, incorporated, Oxford, 1675. On 5 April 1670 the King recommended John Turner to be elected to the first vacancy, whatever county it be: and he got it. He was elected before Mids. 1673, succeeding Mich. Stanford. Ordained priest, London, 1673 Dec. Was praelector for the large year 1673–4, and a careless one; but he wrote good Latin. His last payment was in Mich^{s}. 1681, and he left the College considerably in debt, probably not (as was sometimes the case) for pupils, of whom he had none after 1675: there is an entry in the Order-book 20 Feb. $168\frac{1}{2}$. "Agreed then by the Master and Fellows that M^{r} Turner have a year more allowed toward the payment of his £51 [or ? £50] bond which if he does not pay in that time, then we whose names are here subscribed doe promise and engage ourselves joyntly and severally to pay it within 2 months after the time expired, counting from the date hereof": this is signed by Tho. Lynford, Tho. Fairmedow, Edw. Finch and John Isham: and in $168\frac{2}{3}$ M^{r} Lynford paid £40 to the College. From the preface to some of his books, it would seem that he was settled in London: in 1684 he describes himself as Hospitaller of S^{t} Thomas, Southwark, and in 1698 as lecturer of Christ Church, London: possibly he was rector of Postling, Kent 2 Feb. $168\frac{6}{7}$, presented by the Archbishop: possibly vicar of Navestock, Essex 3 June 1689–1700 and later: possibly rector of Benington (? Benenden near Cranbrook), Kent 30 Oct. 1701; presented by John Turner, gent.

Author: A discourse concerning the Messias with a large preface on the Trinity, 1675. Animadversions on the doctrine of Transubstantiation, preached before the Lord Mayor 19 Oct. 1679: another (9 Sept.) Thanksgiving for the discovery of the Popish plot: The Middle way between Necessity and Freedom, at St Mary's, 1683. Two discourses demonstrating the unlawfulness of the marriage of cousins-german, 1682. The Soldiers Catechism, 1684 with a preface to Sir Geo. Jefferies, Lord Chief Justice. The true time of our Saviour's passover, 1684. A resolution of 3 matrimonial cases, 1684: and also An argument in defence of the marriage of an Uncle with the daughter of his half-brother by the father's side. Two sermons (1) on the "occasion of Her Majestie's happy conception" 29 Jan. 1687, and (2) on the birth of a Prince 17 June 1688. A vindication of infant baptism, 1695: A discourse of Fornication with an Appendix concerning concubinage 1698 (see Cole MSS.): and others which as Wood candidly says (Fasti, 2. 350) "being too many to be here set down shall for brevity's sake be omitted."

Crisp, Henry: son of Henry, of London: born at Hamburg. School: St Paul's. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Eede 18 June 1666. Age 16.

Matric^{d}. from Magdalene 30 March 1667. Admitted at the Inner Temple 21 Nov. 1666. Possibly grandson of Sir Nicholas Crispe of Hammersmith who built the house afterwards called La Trappe. A family of this name (with more than one Henry) was seated at Birchington: but I cannot identify this one.

Monoux, Lewis: son of Humphry (dominus): born at Kimbley [Kimberley], Norfolk. School: Stickson [Strixton] "10 miles E. of Northampton." Admitted fellow-commoner under D^r^ Widdrington 20 June 1666. Age 16.

Matric^d^. 6 July 1667. Admitted at Gray's Inn 7 Feb. $166\frac{7}{8}$. Third son of Sir Humphry (matric^d^. 1617) of Wotton, Beds. and of Mary Wodehouse, daughter of Sir Thomas, of Kimberley: brother of George (1663). Lewis Monoux Esq., of Sandy, Beds. Married his first cousin Lucy, daughter of Sir Philip Wodehouse of Kimberley: father of Louis, adm^d^. 1720. See pedigree under Sir Humphry (1617).

Ellison, Robert: son of Robert: born at Newcastle. School: Berwick. Admitted pensioner under D^r^ Widdrington 23 June 1666 "mediis dirae pestis incendiis." Age not given.

Matric^n^. not found. Son of Rob. Ellison (Sheriff of Newcastle 1644 and M.P. who died 1677: see Brand, Newcastle, 1. 298) and of Elizabeth, daughter of Cuthbert Gray of Newcastle and of Backworth (Hodgson, II. iii. 347).

Lynford, Thomas: admitted as Linford: son of Samuel: born in Cambridge. School: (1) Newark, under M^r^ Leeds: (2) Bury [M^r^ Leeds]. Admitted sizar "optimae spei tyro" under D^r^ Widdrington 16 July 1666. Age, nearly 16.

B.A. (Lynford) $167\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1674, incorporated, Oxford, 1676; D.D. 1689. Ordained deacon, London, $167\frac{3}{4}$ March: curate at Fen Drayton 1674. Vicar of Great Ellingham, Norfolk, $167\frac{4}{5}$, patron, Tho. Cockayne of Sunning: resigned it, 1676. Elected Fellow before Mids. 1675, in place of D^r^ Carr, King Edw. Fellow: see under Tho. Montagu (1668). Took a large number of pupils from 1676—he received D^r^ Widdrington's in 1675, and took up his connexion with the North—down to Mich. 1685; Tho. Lovett, and (later) Tho. Waterhouse, being his chief competitors. Rector of St Edmund the King, Lombard Street, 18 Dec. 1685–1724, patron, King James II, whose expectations he must have disappointed: he vacated his Fellowship Xmas 1686. On 25 Nov. 1689 he had license as "clerk of St Benet Gracechurch St." and as "lately the ingenious praevaricator of Cambridge," to marry Eliz. Dillingham of St Giles in the Fields. Prebendary of Westminster 6 May 1700, and Sub-dean 1723: he had been Chaplain in ordinary to the King and Queen: he "was inveterate against Popery and a believer in the Plot by the Papists: no wonder to see him Chaplain to King William III" (Cole). Archdeacon of Barnstaple, 9 Sept. 1709. In 1714 he bore the cost of casing with stone the front of the Great Gateway: and in 1715–17 he also paid for the casing of the front between the gateway and Hobson Street: this portion remains untouched to the present day: it dates the introduction of sash-windows into the College. He died 11 August 1724, aged about 74. A good portrait in oils was given by a M^r^ Larner (? Joh. 1685) to the Master "to be hanged at the Lodge": it has subsequently been placed in the combination-room. (Letter from Anna Maria Jenen to the Master 8 Feb. $174\frac{4}{5}$.)

Author: some sermons, preached before the Lord Mayor 1679 and $168\frac{8}{9}$: one on Primitive Christianity revived, 1709: an "accession sermon" 12 Dec. 1714 before George I.

Brome, James: admitted as Broome: son of Will.: born in Cambridge. School: (1) Newark, under M^r^ Leeds: (2) Bury [M^r^ Leeds]. Admitted sizar under D^r^ Widdrington 16 July 1666.

B.A. (Brome) $167\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1677. Ordained deacon, London, 1672 Sept.; priest, 1673 Dec.: curate at St Peter Paup. Presented by Ja. Brockman to the vicarage of Newington near Folkestone 15 Jan. $167\frac{3}{4}$ (Lamb. Reg^r^.): rector of Cheriton 6 June 1679 (2 June 1676 according to the record of Institutions at the Record Office)–1719, when he died. Chaplain to the Cinque Ports. Author: Travels over England Scotland and Wales, 1700: an authentic version (as stated in the preface) of travels which had been published 1694 as the Travels of M^r^ R. Rogers over England and Wales. Travels through Portugal and Spain, 1712. Also published (1693) a Treatise of the Roman ports and roads in Kent, by Will. Somner, dedicated to Henry, Visc^t^. Sidney. (D.N.B.) His son, James, was admitted 1697: and his grandson, James, 1739.

Mead, John: son of Thomas, armiger: born at Wendon Lofts, Essex. School: Elmdon, under M^r^ Howorth. Admitted fellow-commoner under D^r^ Widdrington 23 July 1666. Age 15.

Matric^n^. not found. M.A. (per lit. reg.) 1669. Admitted at Gray's Inn 14 June 1669. Son of Thomas Mead of Lofts (admitted 1636) and grandson of Sir John, cousin of Joseph Mead. Married Jane, daughter of Will. Wardour; by whom he had a son John, who died an infant, and two daughters, Jane and Margaret, coheiresses, who sold Lofts to Ri. Chamberlain of London (Morant, 2. 594).

Here comes a note by John Covel, the Praelector: who says that in August 1665 the University went into exile. The cold winter, or God's mercy, repressed the plague. But in the spring of 1666 the alarm again began: the University again fled: among the rest M^r^ Covel "uno vel altero pupillorum manipulo stipatus." In consequence the two pupils (presumably one "manipulus") who follow are entered in a wrong place.

Fortrey, Samuel: son of Samuel, armiger: born at Hogginton [Oakington], Cambs. School: Oakington, under M^r^ Shafto "literis magis quam fortuna celebris" (? Ant. Shafto adm^d^. 1655). Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Bainbridge, 2 July 1666. Age 15.

Matric^d^. 6 July 1667. Born 24 Feb. $165\frac{1}{2}$; eldest son of Sam. Fortrey of Richmond, Surrey (Clerk of the deliveries of H.M.'s Ordinance in the Tower of London: author of England's Interest and Improvement: D.N.B.) and of Theodora Josceline. Of Byall Fen in Mepal, Esq.: J.P. for Hunts. and Isle of Ely. Captain of Militia, Isle of Ely. Married 1683 Eliz., daughter of Walter Bigg, merchant, of London. Died 10 Feb. 1688, aged 38: buried at Mepal (Genealogist, 3. 298).

Fortrey, William: "Daedalus alter" [why?]: son of Samuel, armiger. [Birthplace and school as Samuel above.] Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Bainbridge 2 July 1666. Age 14 [sic].

Matric^d^. 6 July 1667. Brother of Samuel. Born 22 Feb. 1653 (Nichols, II. ii. 446). Married Anne Whalley of Norton, by whom he had two sons, William and James, and four daughters. Died 1722: buried at Norton.

Reynoldson, —: admitted sizar under M^r^ Eede 1 Dec. 1666. [No more.]

Matric^n^. not found. One Tho. Reynoldson of Christ's College, with no degree, ordained deacon, York, 1667 Sept.

Stackhouse, Ambrose: son of Hugh: born at Giggleswick. School: Giggleswick, under M^r^ Briggs. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Stanford 4 March $166\frac{6}{7}$. Age 17.

B.A. $167\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1674. Curate of Quatt, Salop. Ordained priest, Worcester, 1676. Rector of Quatt, 1 Dec. 1677: buried there 16 Sept. 1695, when he was succeeded by Thomas Littleford (whom see). Had a son, Hugh, admitted at Pembroke, Oxford in 1701, aged 17.

Brockwell, Robert: son of Thomas: born at Richmond, Yorks. School: Richmond, under Mr John Parvin(g). Admitted sizar under Mr Stanford 4 March $166\frac{6}{7}$. Age 20: "maturus juvenis Musas Cantabrigienses osculatus est," says the Praelector.

But his matricn. not found.

Delaval, William: son of William, "generosae tum indolis tum prosapiae juvenis": born at Seaton Delaval, Northumberland. School: Newcastle, under Mr Oxley, "venerandus senex." Admitted pensioner under Dr Widdrington 4 March $166\frac{6}{7}$. Age 16.

B.A. $167\frac{0}{1}$. Will., the father, was probably second son of Sir John Delaval of Distington by his second wife, Elizabeth, daughter of Sir Geo. Selby: he married Mary, daughter of Hen. Widdrington of Blackheddon. Great-nephew of his tutor and distant cousin of John Delaval (of Seaton Delaval) admitted 1672 (Kimber, 3. 177).

Perkins, James: son of John: born at Isle Abbots, Somerset. School: Ilminster, under Mr Goodenough. Admitted sizar under Mr Eede 12 March $166\frac{6}{7}$. Age, nearly 17.

B.A. $167\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1674. Elected fellow before May 1676 on the death of James Leigh: last payment, Mids. 1680. He was Junior Dean 1679–80. Ordained deacon, London, 1673 Sept.: priest, Norwich, 1675 Dec. when he was licensed to Little Ellingham near Attleborough. Perhaps he is the Ja. Perkins, M.A., presented to the rectory of Warehorne St Matthew, Kent, 16 April 1680: where however his successor came in Dec. 1681.

Amherst, Geoffrey: son of John: born in London, "emporium Trinobantum." School: Tonbridge, under Mr Wade. Admitted fellow-commoner under Dr Widdrington 26 March 1667. Age 17.

Born 11 Jan. $16\frac{49}{50}$, son of John Amherst, Bencher of Gray's Inn by his wife Mary Kirkby of London. Admitted at Gray's Inn 1 June 1666: barrister and Bencher. M.P. for Bletchingley 1689–90. Of Cowfold, Sussex, in 1695: also of Riverhead, Kent. Married Elizabeth, daughter of Henry Yate of Warnham, Sussex: had six sons (of whom the eldest, Geoffrey, was admitted 1695) and four daughters. Died Aug. 1713 and buried at Pembury, Kent. (Foster, Gray's Inn: Collins, 8. 167.)

Web[be], Jessop: admitted at Sidney Sussex 9 June 1664. Admitted at Christ's sizar under Mr Stanford 16 March $166\frac{6}{7}$. Age 19. [Son of Edw. Webbe Surgeon (deceased) of Cambridge. Educated at the Perse School for 6 years under Mr Griffin and Mr Rickes: admitted at Sidney "vergente iam anno aetatis 16" under Edm. Matthews, S.T.B.]

B.A. $166\frac{7}{8}$. Ordained priest, Ely, $167\frac{1}{2}$ March. Vicar of Gorleston, Suffolk, 10 April 1673, presented by Sir Humphry Bedingfield; also rector of Welborne, Norfolk, 14 April, presented by Francis Clifford; this he resigned in 1688. He was also rector of Little Brandon which for a time was united with Welborne (Blomefield, 1. 701) 2 Feb. 1674–1710 and of North Tuddenham (distant about two miles) 1687–1710. Married Anne, daughter of Robert Hitch of Melbourne, Cambs.: by whom he had five daughters. Buried at Tuddenham 16 Jan. $171\frac{0}{1}$, where he seems to have resided.

Hart, William: son of William: born at Lynn. School: Lynn, under Mr Bell. Admitted sizar under Mr Covel 22 March $166\frac{6}{7}$. Age not given [but born 1650].

B.A. $167\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1674. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1673 May: licensed to Hillington: priest, London, 1673 Dec.: curate of St Vedast. Rector of Walpole St Peter 5 Oct. 1682 till 1725: when presumably he died.

Wormell, Samuel: son of Bartholomew: born at Lynn. School: Lynn, under M^{r} Bell. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Stanford 27 March 1667. Age 16.

B.A. $167\frac{0}{1}$. One Bart. Wormell was minister of Stocking Pelham perhaps under the Commonwealth and till 1667: if he be the father of Samuel he was probably at Lynn later than 1651 (Urwick, 764). Samuel was ordained deacon, Ely, $167\frac{1}{2}$ March. Probably the man who appears as rector of Turwicke [Terwick, St Peter], Sussex 3 May 1679–1719, when he died.

Dison, John: son of John: born at Leeds. School: Leeds. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Halliwell 1 April 1667. Age 17.

B.A. $167\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1674. Ordained deacon, York, 1671 June: priest, not till 1692 May. Perhaps the "M^{r} Dison, school-master of Drighlin[g]ton for 24 years, dyed of apoplexy, buried at Burstall 2 Nov. 1701" (Northowram Register, 106).

Crosedale, Heber: son of Henry: born at Macclesfield (Chesh.) "ingenio vere masculo, iustique penderis indole iuvenis." Educated at Hope, Derbs. by his father. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Covel 4 April 1667. Age 17.

B.A. $167\frac{0}{1}$. A M^{r} Crosedale, perhaps the father, was master of Macclesfield school, before 1656 and as late as 1664: possibly he was afterwards vicar of Hope, and finished his son's education there. A M^{r} Crosedale was master of Wirksworth before 1669: this seems too early for the son in spite of his ability. (See St John's Adm^{n}. Book, part 2.)

Pashler, Oliver: son of William: born at Moldsworth [near Kimbolton]. School: Huntingdon. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Brookesbank 9 April 1667. Age 17.

B.A. $167\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1674. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1671 June: priest, Lincoln, 1671 Sept.: licensed to preach in the diocese. Vicar of Buckingham 2 Aug. 1672 (aged apparently 22). Chaplain to the Earl of Danby: as such had license to be also rector of St Mary's, Bedford 10 Aug. 1681. Buried at the parish church Buckingham 25 Feb. 1724 (Lipscombe, 2. 574).

Hauxley, Henry: [father not given]: born at Milton, Derbs. School: [Repton], under M^{r} Ullock. Admitted sizar to M^{r} Halliwell, tutor M^{r} Stanford 18 April 1667. Age 16.

B.A. $167\frac{0}{1}$. Ordained deacon, Peterborough, $167\frac{1}{2}$ March: priest, 1676 Sept.

Leeson, Daniel: admitted as Lesson: [father not given: and no further facts]. Admitted under M^{r} Stanford (sizar to M^{r} Standish) 18 April 1667.

B.A. (Leeson) $167\frac{0}{1}$. Ordained priest, Lincoln, 1671 Sept.: licensed to preach in the diocese. One Dan. Leeson (M.A.—but none discoverable) rector of Normanton 31 July 1694: died before December 1697.

Brice, John: son of Francis, gentleman: born at York. School: York, under M^{r} Langley. Admitted pensioner under D^{r} Widdrington 19 April 1667. Age 17.

Matric^{n}. not found.

Shipphardson, John: son of John: born at Bishop-Wearmouth. Educated privately by M^{r} Broughton. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Stanford 20 April 1667. Age 17.

Matric^{d}. 6 July 1667. Perhaps the John Shipperdson who married in 1669 Elizabeth, daughter of Ra. Smith of West Rainton, Durham: and left three daughters: living in 1713 (Surtees, 1. 115).

Drake, John: son of Michael: born at Pickworth, Lincs. School: Gainsborough, under Mr John Cooke. Admitted sizar under Mr Eede 1 May 1667. Age 17.
"Drake, a schollar of C. C." buried at Great St Andrew's 24 March $166\frac{8}{9}$.

Banks, Robert: son of Robert: born at Giggleswick. School: Giggleswick. Admitted under Dr Carr (sizar to Mr Stanford) 3 May 1667. Age 17. Admitted afterwards a pensioner.
B.A. $167\frac{0}{1}$ Mids.; M.A. 1675. Son of Robert Banks of Beck Hall, Giggleswick, who married Mary, daughter of John Frankland of Rathmell. Apparently rector of Thrybergh, near Rotherham, 29 June 1671–78: rector of Hooton Roberts (adjacent) 9 Aug. 1678: vicar of Conisbrough (adjacent) 12 Mar. $16\frac{79}{80}$–81. Vicar of Holy Trinity, Hull 6 May 1689–$171\frac{4}{5}$. Married Margaret, daughter of Robert Thornton rector of Birkin, near Ferry Bridge. Prebendary of Southwell 26 Feb. $168\frac{8}{9}$–95. Prebendary of York (Stillington) 8 May 1695 till his death $171\frac{4}{5}$ (Pryme's Diary, 187). Author of a sermon on Ps. cxix. 136, 20 Sept. 1699 to a Society for the reformation of manners. (Cole.)

Sturges, John: son of Thomas, described by the praelector as "tenellum quin bellum flosculum": born at Leicester. School: Leicester, under Mr Thomas. Admitted sizar under Mr Covel 9 May 1667. Age 15.
B.A. $167\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1674. Ordained priest, Peterborough, $167\frac{5}{6}$ Feb. Licensed to preach in Lichfield diocese 27 Aug. 1678: at St Mary, Huntingdon 3 Nov. 1679. Vicar of Kimbolton 18 Sept. 1684–92: of Hartford All Sts., 1 Oct. 1684–89. Rector of Ripton Regis 9 Jan. $168\frac{90}{90}$–1725: also rector of Glatton with Holme 6 Jan. $169\frac{0}{1}$, patron, Joh. Sherard. Archdeacon of Huntingdon 17 Nov. 1720. Died 1725. His son John was admitted 1701.

Thompson, William: son of Christopher: born at Petinton [Pittington], Durham. School: Houghton-le-Spring, under Mr Caunt. Admitted sizar under Dr Widdrington 16 May 1667. Age 17.
B.A. 1670 Mids.; M.A. 1674. One of these names vicar of Grindon, Durham, 1678–99. Vicar of Kelloe, Durham 1699–1735, when he died (Surtees, 1. 67: 3. 76). Others possible.

England, Richard: son of George: born at Thornton, Yorks. School: South Dalton, under Mr Calix [sic: probably Callis]. Admitted sizar under Dr Widdrington 12 June 1667. Age not given.
B.A. $167\frac{0}{1}$. Probably Master of Buntingford School, before 1691, and still there in 1721 (Admn. book)—unless another England succeeded him. His son Thomas admitted 1698 was educated at Buntingford by his father.

Beech, John: [father not given]: born at Bucknall, Staffs. School: "Barhumbley" [Barthomley], Chesh., under Mr Cawdray. Admitted under Mr Stanford (sizar to Dr Carr). Age not given.
B.A. $167\frac{0}{1}$. His master was Zach. Cawdray, ejected from his fellowship at St John's 1649, and rector of Barthomley 1649–84. Ordained deacon (as student of Christ's College), Lichfield, $16\frac{69}{70}$ Feb.

Gippes, Thomas: son of Richard: born at Horringsheath [Horringer], Suff. School: Bury St Edmunds ("Villa Faustini"), under (1) Mr Stephens: (2) Mr Leeds. Admitted pensioner under Mr Covel 18 June 1667. Age 16.
No sooner had he entered (in Covel's language) this "amplum Mundi diversorium" than he was grievously afflicted by "rachitis": "rudis hic et nuperrimus (si Glissonio fides) mortalium aggressor diu detinuit...morte tantum non affecit." However he had a "vegetus animus": and eventually came to Cambridge where "nectar bibit academicum, cibosque philosophiae robustiores et vere masculo exhibendos stomacho carpit." He was third son of Ri. Gipps of Horringer by his wife, Martha Seaman of Yarmouth, baptized at Horringer 26 March 1650 [sic]. He was not buried there (see Horringer Register, ed. Sydenham Hervey).

Watson, Richard: son of John: born at Melmerby, Yorks. School: Melmerby, under M^r^ Dickenson. Admitted sizar under D^r^ Widdrington 21 June 1667. Age 16.

Probably B.A. 1670 Mids. "Iam philosophiae incumbit," says Covel having had opened to him at school the door of the Attic and Roman languages. See under Ri. Watson, adm. 27 April 1666.

Roberts, Philip: son of Thomas: born at Curry-Mallet, Somerset. School: Bishop's Lydeard, under M^r^ Henry Squib. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Eede 26 June 1667 ("magistro Eede panem et potum, mantelium etiam et cultrum administrat," says Covel). Age 17.

His labours were not crowned by any degree: nor is his matric^n^. found.

Cowper, Thomas: son of John: born at Clifton, Yorks. School: Shawel [? Leics.], under M^r^ Palmer. Admitted under M^r^ Covel (sizar to D^r^ Rob. Pepper) 27 June 1667. Age 18.

Matric^n^. not found.

Lambert, Hamamael: son of Francis: born in Fleet Street, London. School: Charterhouse. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Covel 28 June 1667. Age 18.

B.A. 1670 Mids.; M.A. 1674. Ordained (Hanameel, as signed by himself in the London Register) deacon (date not found); licensed to Abberton, Essex: priest, London, 1671 Sept. Licensed to Peldon, Essex, 20 June 1672.

Comer, Jonathan: [father not given]: born at Broadclyst [Broad Clist], Devon. School: Broad Clist, under D^r^ Copleston. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Covel 1 July 1667. Age 17.

B.A. 1670 Mids. Ordained deacon, Exeter, 1670 Sept.: priest, 1671 June. The Comers were an old family of Milverton—then of Fitzhead—Somerset: the father may have been a clergyman in Devon. Rector of Dunkerton, Somerset, 15 Dec. 1675–77: of Babcary, Somerset (patron, Ra. Stawell, miles) 19 Sept. 1677. Died there before April 1729 (Weaver, Somerset Incumbents).

Brooke, William: son of William: born at Eddercliff in the parish of Bustall [Birstall], York. School: Hippram [Hipperholme] near Halifax, under M^r^ Doughty. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Brookesbank 2 July 1667. Age 17.

Matric^n^. not found: unless he be the Will. Brookes matric^d^. (Emm.) 8 July 1669.

Swindels, William: son of John: born "in Cestrensi quodam oppido Stopport" [Stockport]. School: Manchester, under M^r^ Wickins. Admitted under M^r^ Covel (sizar to D^r^ Pepper) 2 July 1667 ("Doct^ris^. Pepper mensae adstat"). Age 18.

B.A. (Swindell) 1670 Mids.

Marrow, Samuel: "aurea stella" (Covel), son of Edward, armiger: born at Ratcliffe, Notts. Educated by John Wodehouse. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^r^ Stanford 8 July 1667. Age 15.

Matric^n^. not found. Son of Edw. Marrow (or Marowe) of Berkeswell, Warw. by his wife Anna, daughter of Sir Tho. Grantham of Goltho, Lincs.: the manor was in the possession of the Marows from 1556 (Dugdale, Warws. 718). Edw., his father, third son of a Sir Edward, was born 1606: and had an elder brother Samuel.

More, Robert: son of James: born at Mansfield Woodhouse, Notts. School: Loughborough: an eager pupil, but "pinguiori Minerva" (Covel). Admitted sizar under Mr Stanford 20 Sept. 1667. Age 16.

B.A. 167½. The last registered by John Covel, a florid but useful Praelector for two years.

Brimble, John: son of Geoffrey: born in London. School: Peterborough, under Mr Smith. Admitted under the Master (sizar to Mr Lovett) 15 Nov. 1667. Age 17.

Admitted at St John's 1 June 1668: matricd. thence 13 July.

Walker, James: son of James: born at Southwark. School: Shenley [? Bucks. or Herts.], under Mr Cudworth, of Christ's [probably Jeremiah]. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mr Stanford, 28 Nov. 1667. Age 15.

Matricd. 16 Mar. 166⅞. M.A. (per lit. reg.) 1669. Admitted at the Middle Temple 9 July 1669.

Newstead, Richard: son of Richard: born at Fotheringham [-hay?], Northants. School: private, at Northampton. Admitted sizar under Mr Eede 24 Aug. 1667. Age 17.

Hawksworth, Walter: [father not given]: born at Anderby [Ainderby], Yorks. School: Northallerton, under Mr Smelt. Admitted pensioner under Mr Eede 31 Dec. 1667. Age 18.

Matricd. 16 March 166⅞. Probably admitted at Lincoln's Inn, as son of Richard, late of Northallerton, 25 May 1668. Not to be found among the Hawksworths of Hawksworth (Dugdale, Yorks. 1665: see also Hunter, F.M.G. 972). If Sir Richard of Hawksworth (died 1657) had a son Richard, as well as the Walter who carried on the main line, such Richard might be the father of our Walter: who would then be first cousin of the Walter created a baronet 1678. But this Richard is hypothetical.

Ladler, William: son of John: [no further facts]. Admitted pensioner (afterwards fellow-commoner) under Mr Covel, 25 Jan. 166⅞. Age not given.

Matricd. 13 July 1668. M.A. (per lit. reg.) 1671. Possibly son of John Ladler (1641), vicar of Gateshead 1661–79.

Sye, Nicholas: son of Nicholas: born at Newark. School: Newark, under Mr Parr. Admitted sizar under Mr Stanford 25 Jan. 166⅞. Age 16.

B.A. 167½; M.A. 1694 [sic]. One Nic. Sye (but M.A.) rector of Laceby, Lincs. 1 March 167⅞, patron, the Hon. Nic. Sanderson: rector of Wintringham (also M.A.) 24 Feb. 168⁰₁, patron, Viscᵗ. Castleton. His wife, Mary, was buried there, 29 June 1716, and a daughter, Anne, later in the same year: one son Nicholas died an infant. Nicholas himself was buried at Wintringham 29 Sept. 1723.

How, Richard: son of Thomas: born at Stapleford, Essex. School: Felstead, under Mr Glascock. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mr Stanford 26 Feb. 166⅞. Age 17.

Matricd. 16 Mar. 166⅞. Perhaps the Richard How of Felstead admitted at the Inner Temple 13 May 1670.

Bradley, Henry: son of Oliver: born at Littlebank, Giggleswick. School: Giggleswick, under Mr Briggs. Admitted at Magdalene 11 June 1667 under Mr Quadring: at Christ's, sizar under Mr Stanford 6 March 166⅞. Age 18.

B.A. 1670 Mids. Ordained deacon, Lichfield, 1671 Sept. Vicar of Great Ness ("alias Strainge") Salop 12 April 1676. Buried there 9 July 1706.

Stalham, John: son of John: born at Terling, Essex. School: Felstead, under M^r^ Glascock. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Eede, 21 March 166$\frac{7}{8}$. Age 18.
Matric^n^. not found. Son of John Stalham, vicar of Terling, matric^d^. 1617.

Paley, Thomas: son of Thomas: born at Giggleswick. School: Giggleswick, under M^r^ Briggs. Admitted under M^r^ Stanford (sizar to D^r^ Carr) 13 April 1668. Age 16.
B.A. 167$\frac{1}{2}$. I cannot trace the connexion of this man with the subsequent members of the College, who belonged to Longcliff, near Giggleswick: the family had been long settled in the neighbourhood: see Robert (1616).

Choice, Sampson: son of John: born at Uppingham. School: Uppingham, under M^r^ Meares. Admitted under the Master, sizar to M^r^ [James] Leigh 14 April 1668. Age 18.
B.A. 167$\frac{1}{2}$; M.A. 1675. Ordained priest, Peterborough, 1681 May. The father John Choice was perhaps of Whittington Grange, Leics.: where a family of that name (containing Sampsons) was settled (Nichols, 4. 884).

Montague, Thomas: admitted as Mountague: son of James: born at Laccham, Wilts. Educated privately at Notting [Knotting], Beds., by M^r^ Scriven. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Smithson, 15 Apr. 1668. Age 18.
B.A. (Mountague) 167$\frac{1}{2}$; M.A. 1675, incorp^d^. Oxford 1680. Sixth son of James of Laccham, the third son of the first Earl of Manchester (mat. 158$\frac{2}{3}$): his elder brother, Edward (whom see), adm^d^. 1665: a still elder, James, was at Sidney 1653: on 20 July 1675 the King sent a mandate that Tho. Montague was to have the next Fellowship. When D^r^ Carr's Fellowship was vacant in 1675, the King (forgetful that he had recommended Montague) gave Tho. Lynford a mandate on July 14. On July 22 came the repeated order to take Montague! But the society had lost no time and had elected Lynford. Thomas Montague was rector of Burton Latimer 8 July 1676 and of Everdon, Northants. 1683. Died at Burton, where he resided, 20 Jan. 171$\frac{8}{9}$ aged 68: M.I. in chancel. He built the existing rectory-house, and planted elms still standing. He made quaint entries in the parish-register (Rev. W. B. Jacques, rector).

Thyrkill, Anthony: son of Francis: born at Ryhell, Ruts. Educated by M^r^ Scriven of [K]notting [see Tho. Montague above: was he his sizar?]. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Smithson 16 April 1668. Age 19.
B.A. (Thirkil) 1671 Mids. Ordained deacon, Peterborough, 1671 Dec. (as B.A. Christ's): priest 1678 Sept. Vicar of Mundon, near Maldon, Essex, 5 May 1691: died before April 1703.

Burnett, William: son of William: born in Essex. School: Northallerton, under M^r^ Smelt. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ [James] Leigh 18 April 1668. Age 17.
Matric^d^. 13 July 1668. Perhaps a relation of Thomas Burnett (1655), the Fellow, and (later) Master of the Charterhouse, who was born at Croft-on-Tees and educated at Northallerton.

Burnett, Robert: son of John: born at Hurworth [near Croft], Durham. School: Northallerton, under M^r^ Smelt. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Leigh 18 April 1668. Age 18.
B.A. 167$\frac{1}{2}$; M.A. 1675. Perhaps younger brother of Tho. Burnett (1655). Ordained deacon, Chichester, 1673 May.

Urwen, Thomas: [father not given]: born at Morpeth. School: Morpeth, under M^r^ Lumsdaile [? Lumsden]. Admitted pensioner under D^r^ Widdrington 23 April 1668. Age, almost 17.

B.A. 167½; M.A. 1675. One Thomas Urwen, son of Will., was admitted at the Middle Temple 4 May 1668; i.e. about the time when our man was admitted here: if he be the same, he changed his course in life, as he is probably the Tho. Urwen, vicar of Warden, Northumberland, 1704–30, when he died, aged 80 (Hodgson, III. iii. 407).

Gilbert, Joshua: son of Michael: born at Aldbrought [Aldborough near Boroughbridge]. School: Leeds, under M^r^ Gilbert, his brother [Michael, of 1658]. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Lovett 28 April 1668. Age 20.

B.A. 1671 ad Bapt. Son of Michael (1621), vicar of Aldborough (1629–77): Michael, his brother, was head-master of Leeds school, 1662–90. Joshua was ordained deacon, York, 1671 June.

Lowe, James: son of John: born at Teuxbury [? Duxbury near Chorley], Lancs. School: Rivington [also near Chorley], Lancs. under M^r^ Briers. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Smithson 9 May 1668. Age 20.

Matric^n^. not found. The will of John Lowe of Duxbury was proved at Chester 1670 (E. Axon, Esq.).

Jones, Philip: son of Philip: born in Southwark. School: (1) Southwark, under M^r^ Augur: (2) Merchant Taylors' [11 Sept 1667], under M^r^ Goad. Admitted under M^r^ Lovett (sizar to M^r^ Stanford) 13 May 1668. Age 19.

B.A. 1671 Mids. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1671 June.

Penning, Nicholas: son of Nicholas: born in London. School: Elmdon, Essex, under M^r^ Howorth. Admitted pensioner under D^r^ Widdrington 14 May 1668. Age 16.

Matric^n^. not found. Fourth son of Nic. Penning, gent., of London: admitted at Lincoln's Inn 28 May 1668. A pedigree of the family in the Essex Visitation of 1612: but no special abode indicated: members of it in Suffolk more than Essex.

Pye, John: son of John: born at Morpeth. School: Morpeth, under M^r^ Lumbsden. Admitted at Trin. Hall 3 June 1665: at Christ's pensioner under D^r^ Widdrington 20 May 1668. Age 20.

B.A. 166⅝; M.A. 1672. Son of John (adm^d^. 1633), rector of Morpeth 1646. Ordained priest, Ely, 1671 June. Rector of Morpeth, as B.A., in March 167½: see Hodgson (II. ii. 393) who gives a note from the Stamfordham church-book: "John Pye of Morpeth exchanges with Ra. Fenwick of Stamfordham, 1672: returns and dies at Morpeth 1691." It would seem that this was also the rector of Bothal, near Morpeth, 1685–91, in which year he died. (Ib. II. ii. 149.)

Jackson, Leonard: son of Richard: born at Whittington, Lancs. School: (1) Lancaster, under M^r^ Holden: (2) Kirkby Lonsdale, under M^r^ Garthwaite for a few months. Admitted sizar under M^r^ [Chris.] Bainbridge [who held his Fellowship till Mids. 1669] 20 May 1668. Age 17.

B.A. 167½; M.A. 1677. Born 21 April 1650, of Jane the second wife of Richard (mat^d^. 1619) rector of Halton, then of Whittington near Kirkby Lonsdale: half-brother of Francis (1649). Ordained deacon, Chichester, 1673 May: priest, York, 1676 May. Rector of Claughton in Lonsdale, Lancs. 5 Sept. 1678: held it till 1681, when according to Croston-Baines (5. 534) he died: but he pretty certainly is the same who resigned the vicarage of Sheriff Hutton before April 1700: and on 3 Feb. of the same year he became rector of Tatham near Wennington. Added a steeple to the church tower 1722. Died 1734: or 1726 (Croston-Baines, 5. 555) when at all events he ceased to be rector, Robert Jackson succeeding. (Information from B. N. North, Esq., Kirkby Lonsdale.)

Stephenson, Henry: son of Thomas: born at Hutton, Cumberland. School: Blencowe. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Covel 25 May 1668. Age 19.

B.A. 167$\frac{1}{2}$. Probably vicar of Brigham, near Cockermouth 27 Nov. 1673, being then 24 years old as appears from the parish register. He died 19 Jan. 170$\frac{4}{5}$: M.I. in churchyard states that "He in his lifetime oft would say, While watching, Lord take me away": from which it may be inferred that he was an invalid. (Rev. Canon J. T. Pollock, vicar.)

Cooke, Robert: son of Thomas: born at Bottisham, Cambs. School: Bottisham, under M^{r} Tucker. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 1 June 1668. Age 16.

B.A. 167$\frac{1}{2}$; M.A. 1675. Ordained deacon, Chichester, 1673 May. Perhaps the rector of Newmarket, 25 Oct. 1677: who died 1681, aged 30.

Forster, Mark: son of Edward: born at Bourne, Cambs. School: Wainfleet, Lincs., under M^{r} Gibbs. Admitted under M^{r} Leigh, sizar to D^{r} Hen. More 2 June 1668. Age 18.

B.A. 167$\frac{1}{2}$. Son of Edw. Forster (1627), vicar of Bourne 1639–61. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 167$\frac{3}{4}$ March, when he was licensed to be "usher at King's Lynn and to read divine service" at St Nicholas: priest, 167$\frac{4}{5}$ Feb.: and instituted to rectory of Clenchwarton, near Lynn 1 March 167$\frac{4}{5}$, on presentation by Gervase Needham. Rector of North Lynn 31 Jan. 1711 (Blomefield, 4. 624). Died 17$\frac{1}{2}\frac{9}{0}$ aged 70.

Hall, Philip: son of Matthew: born at Leventhorp in the parish of Swillington, Yorks. School: Leeds, under M^{r} Gilbert [Michael adm. 1658]. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 5 June 1668. Age 17.

Greening, John: son of Thomas: born at Basford, Notts. School: Basford (private), under M^{r} Harris. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Stanford, 25 June 1668. Age 18.

Matric^{n}. not found.

Tench, Robert: B.A. of Oxford. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Bainbridge, 1 July 1668. Age not given.

M.A. 1668. Matric^{d}. at Jesus College, Oxford 21 March 165$\frac{8}{9}$; B.A. (Hart Hall) 1665. Rector of Llanwrin, Montgomery, 1676: cursal canon of St Asaph 1691: Prebendary (Meliden) 21 Apr. 1693. Died 1701, and buried at Llanwrin.

Langley, Thomas: son of Samuel: born at Swetnam, Warw. [probably Swettenham, Cheshire]. School: Tamworth, under M^{r} Antrobus. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Leigh 4 July 1668. Age 17.

B.A. 167$\frac{1}{2}$, incorp^{d}. Oxford 1681; M.A. 1675. Baptised 19 Sept. 1651, son of Sam. Langley, formerly Fellow (see vol. I. p. 464) who removed to Tamworth, when ejected from Swettenham in 1660. Ordained deacon, Lichfield, 1674 June; priest, 1677 Sept. Vicar of Aston-Cantlow, Warw. 1679: and of Kingsbury, 31 Jan. 168$\frac{9}{1}$. His son, John, was at Balliol, Oxford. Buried at Aston Cantlow 14 May 1705 (Rev. F. A. Applewhaite, vicar).

Harding, Walter: son of George: of Staffs. School: Tamworth, under M^{r} Antrobus. Admitted under M^{r} Leigh (sizar to D^{r} Hen. More) 4 July 1668. Age 18.

Smith, Stephen: [father not given]: of Essex. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Covel 7 July 1668. Age 17.

Matric^{n}. not found. Perhaps Stephen, son of Stephen Smith of Blackmore, Essex, admitted at the Middle Temple 6 June 1671.

Nollard, Samuel: [no facts]. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Covel 7 July 1668. Age not given.

Matric^d^. 14 Dec. 1668: not here in 1670.

Storer, John: son of John: born at Beckenham, Kent. School: private, under his father. Admitted under M^r^ Leigh (sizar to the Master) 8 July 1668. Age 16.

Matric^n^. not found. Son of John Storer, M.A. (Emm.) at one time lecturer at Beckenham: afterwards rector of Stowmarket; which he resigned before 1662, and kept a school at Highgate. Admitted (as son of John Storer of Highgate, gent. [sic]), at the Middle Temple 2 Feb. 1671.

Turner, John: son of Gregory: born in Suffolk. School: Bury, under M^r^ Leeds. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Bainbridge 8 July 1668. Age 19.

B.A. 167$\frac{1}{2}$. Born at Brockford, near Wetheringsett. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 167$\frac{2}{3}$ Jan.: licensed to Wherstead, Suff.: priest, 16$\frac{7\,9}{8\,0}$.

Garnet, Thomas: son of Edward: born at Kirkby Lonsdale. School: Kirkby Lonsdale, under M^r^ Garthwaite. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Fairmedow 9 July 1668. Age 17.

B.A. 167$\frac{1}{2}$. Ordained deacon, York, 1672 Sept.: priest, 1673 Sept. One of these names was rector of Farthingstone, near Weedon (patron, Bp. of Lincoln) after 1689; and buried there 10 Sept. 1714 (Bridges, 1. 64).

B.A. 1671 Mids. Possibly one of the Slingers of Little Hutton, Yorks. One Ri. Slinger was eldest son of James of Northallerton; who died 1658 and left Richard £150 (Yorksh. Wills, 9. 139).

Comyns, Robert: admitted as Cummin: [father not given]. School: Northallerton, under M^r^ Smelt. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Fairmedow 23 July 1668. Age not given.

B.A. (Commyns) 1674. One of these names second son of Joh. Comyns of Dagenham, Essex, by Sarah Barlow of Barlow, Suffolk (Vis^n^. 1664).

Hatch, Morryson: son of Joseph: born at Brent-pellum [-Pelham], Essex. School: Stortford, under (1) M^r^ Leigh, (2) M^r^ Cudworth. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Leigh, 4 Aug. 1668. Age 16.

Matric^d^. 14 Dec. 1668.

Jenison, William: son of Ralph: born at Newcastle. School: (1) Newcastle, (2) Berwick, under M^r^ Webb. Admitted pensioner under D^r^ Widdrington 6 August 1668. Age 16.

Matric^d^. 14 Dec. 1668. Admitted, as third son of Ralph of Elswick, Newcastle, at Lincoln's Inn 11 June 1670. Ralph, the father, was knighted at Whitehall 1677: was J.P. and D.L.: married Barbara, sister of Sir Fra. Bowes of Thornton. William resided at Benwell, and was Town-clerk of Newcastle; married (1) Mary Ellison of Newcastle, (2) Barbara Reed of Chirton: was buried at St Nicholas, Newcastle 20 Jan. 171$\frac{1}{2}$. His son Will. was admitted 1692: and his nephew, Ralph in 1691.

Sawrey, Miles: admitted as Milo: son of William: born at Hawkshead. School: Hawkshead, under M^r^ Bordley. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Leigh 8 Sept. 1668. Age 20.

Matric^n^. not found. One Miles Sawrey master of Hawkshead school 1 Aug. 1671–72 (Croston-Baines, 5. 622).

Matricd. 14 Dec. 1668. Joseph, son of Gascoyne Weld (admitted 1634): grandson of Bishop Jos. Hall: admitted at the Middle Temple 5 June 1673. Lived at Bracon-Ash (Blomefield, 3. 58).

Harvey, John:

Matricd. pen. 6 July 1667. Probably, John Harvey of Thurleigh, Beds., son of John (adm. 1626) by his wife Elizabeth; baptised 27 Jan. $16\frac{4}{5}\frac{9}{0}$; a major in the army, who died and was buried at Thurleigh 1715, the last heir male of the elder branch of the Hervey family. John Hervey of Ickworth, first Earl of Bristol, records in his diary for 1699 how he went to Thurleigh in that year to see his cousin "Major John Hervey, a very honest ingenious gentleman" to arrange for the purchase of the home of their common ancestors. Further negotiations were carried on for this purpose till 1707: but they came to nothing. (See W. M. Harvey, Hundred of Willey, Beds. 510.) This John Harvey left by his will, dated 5 May 1713, a messuage in the parish of St Mary, Bedford, "being a corner house in Cawdell Street, near the Church," to his wife, and after her death to trustees "for the maintenance of some poor scholar of Christ's College, to be born in Thurleigh" or, in default of such, in Bedfordshire: see under the father (vol. I. p. 375), who left £5 a year to the University of Cambridge: this was limited by the son to what was probably his own College. No settlement having been made by the father's executors, Major Harvey had paid £5 annually till 1706: in his will seven years later he declared his grant to be in satisfaction of his father's intention. His executors in 1715 refused to make a settlement or to pay the arrears from 1706: but the heirs-at-law seem to have been complaisant, and a decree was made in Chancery that £150 (£50 for arrears) should be paid to a Master in Chancery and by him invested in land. Nine acres of land at Stanningfield, Suffolk were purchased, the income to be employed by the College according to Major Harvey's will.

Sanders, Henry: son of Henry: born at Stortford. School: Stortford, under (1) Mr Leigh, (2) Mr Cudworth. Admitted pensioner under Mr Leigh 30 Jan. $166\frac{8}{9}$. Age 17.

B.A. $167\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1676. Ordained priest, London, 1680 June. Perhaps rector of Nettleswell, Essex (patron, Rob. Pygot, armiger) 12 Oct. 1680. Died 1716.

Spark, Richard: son of William, gent.: born at Blackawton, Devon. School: Exeter, under Mr Witnall. Admitted at [Trin. Coll.] Oxford [22 June 1666] aged 20: kept 12 terms there. Admitted at Christ's, pensioner, under Mr Covel 22 Feb. $166\frac{8}{9}$. Age 22.

B.A. $16\frac{6}{7}\frac{9}{0}$; M.A. 1673. Rector of North Leigh, Devon, 1676–1700 (Al. Ox. 1394).

More, James: son of James: born at Middleton, Westmoreland. School: Kirkby Lonsdale, under Mr Garthwaite. Admitted sizar (afterwards pensioner) under Mr Fairmedow, 1 March $166\frac{8}{9}$. Age 15.

Matricd. 5 April 1669. Perhaps son of Ja. More (or Moore) admitted 1623.

Spateman, John: son of Samuel: born at Derby. School: Derby, under Mr Stones. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lovett 15 March $166\frac{8}{9}$. Age 14.

B.A. $167\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1676. Ordained deacon, Lichfield, 1673 Sept.: priest, 1674 June. At Burton on Trent, but the dates unknown. Rector of Yoxall, Staffs. 29 Aug. 1705, where he died 16 Aug. 1728, aged 75. Married Mary, daughter of John Noble of Chorley, by whom he had six sons and six daughters. In his will (proved 13 Nov. 1728) he mentions estates at Osmaston, Derbs. and Stranshall near Uttoxeter: left £10 to the poor of Burton on Trent, his "first preferment"; £10 to the poor of St Werbergh, Derby, where he was born: £80 to the poor of Yoxall. Not in the Spateman pedigree (Hunter, F.M.G. 1058) though Samuels abound therein. His son, Walter, was at Magdalen, Oxford 1705.

Warren, Thomas: son of John: born at Kenton, Suffolk. School: Eye, under M^{r} Browne. Admitted pensioner under D^{r} Widdrington 16 March 166$\frac{8}{9}$. Age not given.

Matric^{d}. 5 April 1669. One of these names was vicar of Darsham, Suffolk, 1683–1706: but possibly of St Catharine's (M.A. 1673).

Ford, Thomas: son of William: born at Ford-green, Staffs. School: Audlem, Chesh., under M^{r} Coulton. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett, 20 March 166$\frac{8}{9}$. Age 18.

B.A. (Forde) 167$\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1676. Baptised 19 Feb. 165$\frac{2}{3}$, son of Will. Ford and Ellen Rowley. Ordained deacon, London, 1673 Sept.: priest, 1676 Sept. Vicar of Wymondley, Herts. 9 Nov. 1676: also of St Ippolyt's 16 March 168$\frac{5}{6}$: had license not to reside 4 Sept. 1689. Died before 1710. His eldest brother, Hugh, joined the Quakers, and suffered therefor. (Foster, Lancs. pedigrees.)

Dell, John: son of William: born at Yevelden [Yielden], Beds. School: St Paul's, under M^{r} Crumbleholme. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Leigh 1 April 1669. Age 16.

B.A. 167$\frac{2}{3}$, incorp^{d}. Oxford, 13 July 1675; M.A. 1676. Son of William Dell, the intruded Master of Caius 1649–60 (who lived much at his rectory of Yielden during his Mastership), the advocate of the establishment of Universities in all great towns throughout England (Venn, 3. 93–99). John Dell was ordained deacon, Peterborough, 1674 June; priest, Lincoln, 1685 Sept.: when he was licensed to Stow, Bucks. Rector of Tilbrook, Beds. (near Yielden) 30 June 1691. Perhaps the rector of Woodford, Northants., who was buried at Northill, Beds. 4 Sept. 1707 (Bridges, 2. 268).

Waterhouse, Thomas: son of Jonas: born at Bradford. School: Bradford. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Fairmedow 2 April 1669. Age 17.

B.A. 167$\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1676, incorporated Oxford, 1680. His father Jonas was a clerk, of Bradford where he was minister under the Commonwealth: in 1662 he did not conform: but retained so much right over the living that with the Dowager Lady Maynard in 1667 he presented Abr. Brooksbank of Christ's: Jonas died 1716 aged 90. Ordained deacon and priest, London, 1676 May. Elected Fellow before Xmas 1675 on the death of John Andrewes. Senior Taxor 1685: Junior Proctor 1690. A careless Praelector. Took a considerable number of pupils from 1680 to about 1695, when Daniel Duckfield's reign began. On Chris. Bainbridge's death he was presented to Clipston 18 March 169$\frac{8}{9}$: where he was buried 19 March 170$\frac{7}{8}$ (Bridges, 2. 21). The Waterhouses were very numerous in the West Riding, especially about Halifax. Two brothers admitted under Thomas (Benjamin in 169$\frac{1}{2}$ and David, 1698) were born at Wakefield. John, admitted 1628, was a cousin about five degrees removed.

Oldroyd, Joshua: son of Joseph [or Joshua]: born at Duesbury [Dewsbury], Yorks. School: Thornhill, under M^{r} Wisson. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Fairmedow 2 April 1669. Age 16.

B.A. 167$\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1676. Ordained priest, York, 1680 Sept. Vicar of Birstall 11 Aug. 1680: died before August 1681.

Allen, Thomas: admitted as Allein: son of John: born at Snasholm [?], Yorks. School: Kirkby Lonsdale, under M^r^ Garthwaite. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Fairmedow 5 April 1669. Age 18.

Matric^d^. July 1671: B.A. (Allen) 167$\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1676. Ordained deacon, York, 1673 Sept. 21; priest, Sept. 28.

One of these names was rector of Thornton, Bucks. 3 Sept. 1709.

Allen, Cuthbert: admitted as Allein: son of John: born at Snasholm [?], Yorks. Brother of John, above. School: same. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Fairmedow 5 April 1669. Age 16.

Metcalfe, Peter: son of Francis: born at Leeds. School: Leeds, under M^r^ Gilbert. Admitted sizar (afterwards pensioner) under M^r^ Lovett 6 April 1669. Age 16.

B.A. 1672 Mids. Said in Lambeth Register 1681 to have been ordained deacon at York "nine years ago": but I did not find his name. On 26 Feb. 168$\frac{0}{1}$ he was presented to the rectory of Foot's Cray, Kent, and petitioned to be ordained priest by the Bishop of Lincoln, or any other bishop.

Browne, William: son of Francis: born at Eye, Suffolk. School: Eye, under M^r^ Browne. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Covel 6 April 1669. Age 17.

Matric^d^. (Magd.) 9 July 1670: B.A. (Magd.) 167$\frac{2}{3}$. One Will. Browne, B.A., was vicar of Adlingfleet, Yorks. 7 Aug. 1693: died vicar before Aug. 1710.

Palgrave, Nathaniel: son of John, eques auratus: born at "Burningham" [? Burnham], Norfolk. School: Holt, under M^r^ Bainbridge. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Lovett 7 April 1669. Age 18.

Matric^d^. pen. from Emm. 9 July 1670: B.A. (Emm.) 167$\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1676. Rector of Bayfield, Norfolk 29 April 1674, patron John Jermy: held it till 1705 (Blomefield, 5. 899): same day rector of Letheringsett: to which his successor, according to Blomefield (ib. 939) came in 1745! Also rector of Hackford, near Attleborough, 1689–1706 (ib. 4. 390).

Bainbridge, Nicholas: son of Cuthbert: of Durham [Dunelmensis]. School: Holt, under M^r^ Bainbridge [? Ri. (1655)]. Admitted sizar (later pensioner) under M^r^ Covel 7 April 1669. Age 17.

Matric^d^. pen. 6 July 1671: M.B. 1674; M.D. 1681.

Hall, Charles: son of Richard: born at Barlow Lees, Derbs. School: Wirksworth, under M^r^ Crosdale. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Smithson 7 April 1669. Age 16.

B.A. 167$\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1676. Baptised 3 March 165$\frac{1}{2}$; son of Richard Hall of Barlow Lees, by his wife Mary, daughter and coheir of Will. Fox of Harrich, Lincs. (Hunter, F.M.G. 567). Rector of Kettlethorpe 24 July 1690, on the deprivation of Ri. Hall a non-juror: patron, Tho. Hall, Esq. Prebendary of Lincoln (Wilton Paynshall) 25 April 1700 on the death of Dean Fuller; and on the death of Dean Campion next year, Hall was obliged to resign to make room for the Dean, third in order, to be made a canon. (Le Neve, 2. 232.) He married Eliz. Skoles of Leeds (Hunter) by whom he had four sons of whom Gilbert was adm^d^. 1711. Died before Sept. 1728, when his son Gilbert was presented by Cha. Hall of Harrington. Ri. Hall his predecessor gave to the church in 1690 a silver paten with the inscription ΔΙΣΚΟC ΑΓΙΟC—the name used in the Eastern Church—to which the non-jurors made overtures. [Inform^n^. from Rev. James Bell, rector.] The vicar of Inningham (? Ingham), Lincs. 27 Dec. 1710, was probably a younger man.

Hackett, Thomas: son of Thomas: of Derbyshire. School: Ashby-de-la-Zouch, under Mr Shaw. Admitted at Emmanuel [date left blank] then at Christ's, sizar, under Mr Stanford 15 April 1669. Age not given.

But he either never came or he returned to Emmanuel, where he was B.A. $167\frac{0}{1}$: M.A. (Queens') 1680.

Boston, Laurence: [father not given]: born at Toynton All Saints, Lincs. Educated by Mr Robotham. Admitted sizar under Dr Widdrington 16 April 1669. Age 18.

B.A. $167\frac{2}{3}$. Perhaps son of Laurence Boston of 1635. Librarian, 1669. Possibly rector of Mablethorpe, Lincs. 16 Oct. 1675, presented by Robert, Earl of Lindsey. Rector of Halton Holgate near Spilsby 5 May 1691: but he did not reside there, and signed only once: he died before Feb. $169\frac{2}{3}$: but was not buried there. It is possible that the rector of Halton was the elder Laurence.

Armitstead, Hugh: [so admitted: but only a Christopher matriculated]: son of Christopher: born at Giggleswick. School: Giggleswick, under Mr Briggs. Admitted under Mr Lovett (sizar to Dr Carr) 17 April 1669. Age 18.

B.A. (Christopher) $167\frac{2}{3}$. There may have been both a Hugh (unmatricd.) and a Christopher (admission omitted): but it is less likely.

Bateson, John: admitted as Baitson: son of George: born at Bollen [? Bolton-by-Bolland], Lancs. School: Sedbergh, under Mr Fell. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 17 April 1669. Age 18.

Matricd. 8 July 1669. See Rob. Bateson (1653).

Drake, William: son of William: born at Barnoldswick-Coates, Yorks. School: Erby [Earby near Skipton], under Mr Rakes. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lovett 20 April 1669. Age 17.

Matricd. 8 July 1669. Admitted at Gray's Inn 9 Feb. $16\frac{89}{70}$. Son of Will. Drake of Barnoldswick by his wife Mary Stillington of Belfield. Married Abigail Yates of Stanley House, Lancs. Had two sons, William, who succeeded him, and Francis. Buried at Thornton 1687 (Hunter, F.M.G. 1155).

Leigh, Samuel: son of Ralph: born at Westwood, Staffs. School: Wirksworth, under Mr Crosedale. Admitted sizar under Mr Covel 22 April 1669. Age 19.

Matricd. 8 July 1669.

Waterhouse, —: [no facts: probably came into residence later]. Admitted sizar under Mr Fairmedow 23 April 1669.

B.A. (Thomas) 1674 Mids. Not the same as Tho. Waterhouse admitted above April 2. Ordained, as of Christ's, deacon, York, 1675 Sept.: priest, 1676 Sept. Probably rector of Hemingbrough near Howden, Yorks. 19 March $167\frac{7}{8}$. Vicar of Misson near Bawtry, Notts. 19 Nov. 1680: where he seems never to have resided: a new vicar, J. Foss, appears in 1716. Misson was long held together with the neighbouring parish of Everton. (Informn. from Rev. F. W. Keene, vicar.)

Audley, Hugh: son of Robert: born at Warden, Beds. School: Knotting, Beds., under Mr Scriven. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lovett 30 April 1669. Age 17.

Matricd. 8 July 1669. Perhaps akin to Hugh Audley, the "notorious moneylender," who died 1662 (D.N.B.).

Brooke, John: son of Thomas: born at Dodsworth, Yorks. School: Bradford, under Mr Sturdy. Admitted under Mr Fairmedow (sizar to Dr Carr) 30 April 1669. Age 17.

B.A. $167\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1676. Born 3 Jan. 1651: fifth son of Tho. Brooke of Dodsworth, gent., by his wife Jane Beighton, of Beighton. Ordained priest, York, 1677 Dec. Licensed to the cure of Woolley (?) in the parish of Royston in the West Riding 25 April 1682. Rector of High Hoyland 20 Jan. $168\frac{7}{8}$: and apparently again presented 3 June 1695. Married Anne, daughter of Will. Oates of North Denby, Yorks. (Yorks. Arch. Journal, 12. 40). Made collections for West Riding genealogies. Purchased Field Head, where he died of a paralytic stroke 27 Nov. 1725 aged 73 (Hunter, S. Yorks. 2. 365; and F.M.G. 765).

His nephew, Thomas, admitted $168\frac{7}{8}$.

Raven, William: son of John: born at Croxton, Leics. [sic]. School: Ockam [Oakham], under M^{r} Love. Admitted under M^{r} Covel (sizar to M^{r} Bainbridge) 5 May 1669. Age 18.

B.A. 1672 Mids. It was probably his father, of the Inner Temple, who gave £15 to the New Building; and had from the College a lease of Croxton Parsonage (in Norfolk) 1640: but I do not find him as a member of the College. There are four leases, beginning 1615 and ending 1658: the first may be to an earlier John Raven.

Noton, Thomas: son of William: born at Wirksworth, Derbs. School: Wirksworth, under M^{r} Crosedale. Admitted under M^{r} Covel (sizar to M^{r} Bainbridge) 6 May 1669. Age 18.

B.A. $167\frac{2}{3}$.

Weddell, John: son of John: born at Widdington [? Wigginton], Yorks. School: Bradford, under M^{r} Sturdy. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Fairmedow 11 May 1669. Age 16.

Matric^{d}. 8 July 1669. Admitted at Lincoln's Inn 8 Feb. $167\frac{0}{1}$. Son of John of Bradford. A member of a family of lawyers, of Bradford stock, who were great moneylenders and thereby acquired much property in the neighbourhood of Bradford. John, the father, was according to Oliver Heywood (Diaries, 3. 191) "as great an attorney as any in the country, raised to a great estate of late, and hath built a sumptuous new house near the church." He died suddenly in London, 20 June 1672. His son John married in 1680 Jane, daughter of Sir Thomas Jones, Justice of the King's Bench, a man who according to Macaulay never except on one occasion "shrank from any drudgery however cruel or servile." By her he had two sons, Edward and Charles of Wallow Hall, Bolland, Yorks. He was alive in 1697. A Weddell pedigree (Hunter, F.M.G. 1259) does not contain these names.

Wheatley, John: son of Thomas: born at "Emby" [sic: probably Emlay, near Huddersfield]. School: Flucton [perhaps Flockton near Wakefield], under M^{r} Wigglesworth. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Leigh 21 May 1669. Age 16.

B.A. $167\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1678. Probably sixth son of Tho. Wheatley, a colonel in the King's army who married Elizabeth, daughter of Tho. Oldfield of Wadland (Hunter, S. Yorks. 2. 386). Ordained deacon, York, 1673 May: priest, 1678 Sept.: licensed to preach in the diocese 5 July 1678.

Nicholson, John: son of William: born at Richmond. School: Richmond, under M^{r} Parvin. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Leigh 21 May 1669. Age 19.

B.A. $167\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1697. Ordained deacon, York, 1673 May: subscription for priest's orders on 19 July 1674 made in the register, but crossed out.

Shilton, John: son of Joseph: born at Shistock [Shustoke], Warw. School: Burton on Trent, under M^{r} Hazard [Michael, adm. 1662]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Stanford 26 May 1669. Age 15.

B.A. 1672 Mids. Succeeded his former master at his former school if he be the Mr Shilton who was head-master of Burton in and before 1697—gone before 1708 (St John's Adm. book).

Midford, William: son of Robert: born at Midford, Northumbd. Taught at home by Mr Spinck, afterwards in Scotland. Admitted pensioner under Dr Widdrington 28 May 1669. Age not given.

Matricn. not found. Resided till Lady Day 1671. Robert, the father, aged 3 in 1615, was then heir to his grandfather Robert (Visitations in Genealogist, 2. 122). He married Philadelphia Wharton of Gillingwood. Their son, William, was ordained deacon, Ely (as Mitford), 167$\frac{9}{1}$ March. Rector of Elsdon, Northumbd. 1674–1715: died and buried there (Hodgson, II. ii. 47 and 51).

Curtoys, John: [father not given]: born at Wilford, Notts. School: Nottingham, under Mr Birch. Admitted sizar under Mr Stanford 5 June 1669. Age 16.

B.A. 167$\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1676. Son of Leonard Curtoys (rector of Wilford for 33 years, died 1685). Ordained priest, York, 1674 June: curate of Norton, Lincs. Perhaps vicar of Saxby (as Curtis) 1 July 1676. Instd. to Norton 20 April 1687: resigned 1692. Rector of Clay Coton, Northants. 1692, and died 1697, aged 44. His wife Elizabeth died 1717 and was buried at Wilford. (Information from Rev. A. Curtois, of Lincoln.)

Barker, Richard: son of Robert: born at Bolton [probably Bolton-le-sands], Lancs. School: Warton [near Carnforth], under Mr Holder. Admitted under Mr Fairmedow (sizar to Mr Burnet) 15 June 1669. Age 19.

Matricn. not found.

Corlas, William: son of Henry: born at Newsam [? Newsome near Huddersfield], Yorks. School: Sedbergh, under Mr Fell. Admitted under Mr Lovett (sizar to Mr Burnet) 15 June 1669. Age not given.

B.A. 167$\frac{2}{3}$. Ordained deacon, York, 1674 June: priest, London, 1677 June. Rector of Newton Kyme, Yorks. 2 Aug. 1677–1682. Rector of Long Marston 3 March 168$\frac{1}{2}$. Married Dorothy, daughter of Bryan Dickinson, Feb. 16$\frac{8\,9}{9\,0}$ (Northowram Register, 46). Died at Marston before May 1694.

Burnet, Henry: son of William: born at Lowton [Loughton], Essex. School: "Thames" [sic: ? Thames-Ditton, Surrey]. Admitted pensioner 15 June 1669 [tutor not given]. Age 17.

Perhaps a Styleman. Matricn. not found.

Massey, Samuel: [father not given]: born at Thistleton, Ruts. School: Harborough. Admitted sizar under Mr Andrewes 16 Feb. $16\frac{69}{70}$. Age 15.
B.A. $167\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. not found: but ordained deacon, Lincoln, as Sam. Massey, M.A. of Christ's, 1679 June, and licensed to Weedon Pinckney, Northants.

Boteler, Thomas: son of Robert: born in London. School: Felstead, under Mr Glascock. Admitted pensioner under Mr Leigh 25 Feb. $16\frac{69}{70}$. Age 17.
Matricd. 9 July 1670. Admitted at Lincoln's Inn 18 May 1672.

Hatton, Richard: son of George: born at Chowbent, Lancs. Taught by Mr Tayler. Admitted at Trinity College 18 April 1668, according to letters testimonial. Admitted at Christ's sizar under Mr Leigh 27 Feb. $16\frac{69}{70}$. Age 21.
B.A. $167\frac{1}{2}$; M.A. 1676. Probably vicar of Deane, near Bolton, Lancs. 4 Dec. 1672: patron, the Crown: Chowbent is some miles south of Deane. According to Croston-Baines (3. 130) he did not renounce the Covenant, and his institution did not take place till 22 Nov. 1673: and he was twice inducted, for the second time 6 Dec. 1673. He appointed a Nonconformist like himself to the chapel of Horwich whence in later years trouble arose. He died 1712. See Halley, Nonconformity in Lancs., 2. 160.

Sym[m], John: B.A., admitted pensioner under Mr Burnet 18 March $16\frac{69}{70}$. He was B.A. (Sidney) 1648, and brought letters testimonial. A Tho. Symm (perhaps by error for John) appears M.A. (Christ's) 1670, in Cat. Graduatorum, 1659–1800. One John Symm (or Symmes), clerk, was rector of Goxhill in Holderness 11 Feb. $166\frac{1}{2}$–1689: and being chaplain to Christopher, Duke of Albemarle had license from Lambeth 21 March $16\frac{69}{70}$ ("having given testimonials of conformity and of good life, and been examined by Mr Tho. Tomkins domestic chaplain") to hold also the rectory of Langton near New Malton, distant 20 miles: instituted 29 March 1670. Poulton's statement that John Symm vacated Goxhill by death is wrong. He vacated Langton as a non-juror 1690. His successor and son-in-law, Tho. Watson (B.A. Pet. 1685) was instituted June 14: and Mary Watson died at Langton Nov. 1693. John Symmes was living in 1696. His wife Ursula was buried at Goxhill 12 Sept. 1668. She had three sons at a birth, who all died. (Information from Rev. A. Hippisley Smith, vicar of Langton.)

Knight, Isaac: son of Ralph, miles: born at Langhorn [sic], Yorks. Taught by M[r] Bernard. Admitted pensioner under M[r] Stanford 30 March 1670. Age 17.

B.A. 167$\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1677. Probably of Langold in the parish of Letwell, near Rotherham (Hunter, S. Yorks. 1. 299). His mother was Faith, daughter of Will. Dickinson, vicar of Rotherham. Received under his father's will in 1689 the advowson of Warsop, Notts. and the right to £1000, due from the exchequer. Married Ela, daughter of Sir Joh. Robinson of Denston, Suff. who died 1767 aged 84. He died 13 Sept. 1721 aged 68, leaving a son Ralph, of Langold (died s.p.), and a daughter Elizabeth who married D[r] Henry Gally, afterwards Gally-Knight.

Shelmerdine, William: admitted as Shezmerdine: [father not given]: of Derbs. Admitted pensioner under M[r] Stanford 2 April 1670. Probably a descendant of Tho. Shelmerdine (mat. 1618), and father of Daniel (1652): vicar of Crich and of Matlock, who died after 1662.

Matric[n]. not found. There was a John Shelmerdine, B.A. of Magdalene, 1678.

Holt, William: [father not given]: born at Kino[u]lton, Notts. School: Ashby-de-la-Zouch. Admitted sizar under M[r] Andrewes 6 April 1670. Age not given.

B.A. 167$\frac{3}{4}$. Buried ("Sir Hoult") at Great St Andrew's 26 March 1675.

Frost, Thomas: son of Thomas: born at Cowledge [Cowlinge], Suff. School: Bury, under M[r] Leedes. Admitted sizar under M[r] Fairmedow 6 April 1670. Age 18.

B.A. 167$\frac{3}{4}$. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1674 June: and licensed to Rougham, near Bury. Appointed Mich. 1675 usher of the Grammar School, King's Lynn. His time there was short. "M[r] Thomas Frost was buried Oct. 5[th], 1675" (Register of St Margaret's Church: inform[n]. from R. S. Harper).

Neale, John: son of George: born at Leeds. School: Flockton [near Wakefield], under M[r] Wigglesworth. Admitted pensioner under M[r] Fairmedow 18 April 1670. Age 14.

George, the father, was M.D. of Leeds, and married Eliz., daughter of Francis Jackson, alderman of Leeds. The son seems to have followed his father's steps and practised medicine at Doncaster for 50 years: he married (1) a Miss Copley of Batley: (2) a Miss Washington of Adwick: died 23 Nov. 1731, aged 77 (which nearly agrees): buried at Doncaster: M.I.: called therein Medicinae Doctor: not obtained at Cambridge or at Oxford. (Hunter, S. Yorks. 1. 45.)

Rigby, Edward: son of Edward: born at Preston, Lancs. School: Preston, under M[r] More. Admitted pensioner under D[r] Widdrington 21 April 1670. Age 16.

Matric[d]. 8 July 1670. Admitted at Gray's Inn 7 June 1670: second son and heir apparent of Edward, Serjeant-at-law and Reader of Gray's Inn, a man of note (1627–86) who sat for Preston in three parliaments; he was son of Alexander Rigby, the Parliamentarian general. His second wife was Anne Molyneux of Teversall, whose brother John was at Christ's in 1640 and her nephew, Francis, in 1672. Edward, the younger, was M.P. for Preston, 1701, and died 1708: unless this be a grandson of the original Edward. (Fishwick, Preston, 373, 378.) One Edw. Rigby was admitted at Douai 1689. (Douai Diaries, 84.)

Theobald, Francis: eldest son of Sir Francis, knight: born in Suffolk. School: Thetford, under M[r] Keen. Admitted fellow-commoner under M[r] Andrewes 26 April 1670. Age 16.

Matric^{n}. not found. Admitted at Gray's Inn 26 Nov. 1670: eldest son of Sir Francis of Barking St Mary, near Needham, Suffolk, by his wife Anne Nightingale of Newport, Essex. Sir Francis, the father, was sheriff of Suffolk 1664: and was knighted 1669. (Le Neve's Knights, in Harl. Soc., 222.)

Peppen, William: son of George: born at Ringshall, Suffolk. School: Bury, under M^{r} Leedes. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Andrewes 26 April 1670. Age 16.

B.A. 167$\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1677. Son of George, rector of Ringshall: born at Westbrook in Ringshall, near Needham. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 167$\frac{4}{5}$ Feb.: licensed to Ringshall as curate to his father: priest, 1677 Sept.: licensed to Cotton St Andrew, of which he was rector between 1697 and 1702, while resident at Stoke Ash. Rector of Stoke Ash 1678–1710, where he died 2 March 17$\frac{09}{10}$. Patron of Ringshall, to which he presented his son Will. Peppen B.A. (Trin.) 170$\frac{4}{5}$ on 16 March 170$\frac{7}{8}$. His widow Margaret was buried by her husband in the chancel 9 Sept. 1719. (Information from Rev. E. C. J. Bowen, rector.)

Killingbeck, Thomas: son of Richard: born at Barrowby, Yorks. School: Bradford, under M^{r} Sturdy. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Fairmedow 30 April 1670. Age 17.

Matric^{d}. 8 July 1670. Possibly grandson of Edward (1613) of Allerton Grange. One of these names was curate of St Nicholas Chapel, Lynn, 1682. (Blomefield, 4. 596.)

Ixem, John: [father not given]: born at Richmond [no further facts]. Admitted at St John's 20 May 1668: at Christ's 9 May 1670, pensioner under M^{r} Stanford. Age not given.

B.A. 167$\frac{1}{2}$. Born at Well, Richmondshire, son of John Ixem, clerk (admitted here 1636). School: Layton, under M^{r} Bromehead: aged 17 in 1668. Perhaps brother of Thomas (son of a John) admitted 1674.

Milles, Walter: son of Walter: born in London. School: Charterhouse. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Andrewes 19 May 1670. Age 16.

M.B. (Mills) 1675; M.D. 1680. F.R.S. 1682., F.R.C.P. 1683. Of Salisbury Court. Died 7 Jan. 172$\frac{5}{6}$. (Munk, 1. 426.)

Pooley, —: [no facts at all]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Fairmedow 26 May 1670.

B.A. (Zachary Pooley) 1673 Mids. Son of Robert (clerk): born at Rockland St Peter's, Norfolk, 1650.

Ordained deacon, Norwich, 167$\frac{3}{4}$ March; licensed as curate to his father at Rockland. Rector of Westfield 21 March 168$\frac{3}{4}$–1703. Vicar of Rockland 1694–1703, presented by Frances Pooley—perhaps his mother. (Blomefield, 1. 324: 5. 1232.)

Boteler, William: son of Oliver, armiger: born at Clapham, Beds. School: Burntwood [Brentwood], under M^{r} Bernard. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Fairmedow 3 June 1670. Age 17.

Matric^{n}. not found. M.A. (per lit. reg.) 1671. Eldest son of Oliver of Harrold, Beds., who died 1657 aged 33. Brother of James (1672). Baptised at Harrold, 25 Jan. 165$\frac{3}{4}$. Died 13 Dec. 1702, aged 50. Buried beside his father within the altar-rails at Harrold: apparently unmarried (W. M. Harvey, Hundred of Willey, 337).

Hilton, James: son of Joseph: born at Eye, Suffolk. School: Eye, under M^{r} Browne. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Stanford (surety D^{r} More) 7 June 1670. Age 16.

Matric^{d}. 8 July 1670. "Ja. Hilton, scholar" buried at Great St Andrew's 14 Dec. 1673.

Warren, John: son of Robert: born at Exeter. School: Exeter, under M^{r} Withman. Admitted pensioner under D^{r} Widdrington 7 June 1670. Age 16.

B.A. 167$\frac{3}{4}$. Not, I think, ordained at Exeter: one John Warren B.A. ordained priest, Lincoln, 168$\frac{0}{1}$ Feb.: but there were several John Warrens B.A. about this time.

Briarley, James: son of James: born at Nantwich, Cheshire. School: Bunbury, under M^{r} Hoole. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Leigh 9 June 1670. Age 22.

B.A. 167$\frac{3}{4}$. "M^{r} James Brerely of Manchester, Batchelor of Arts, buried 12 May 1682" (Manchester Parish-register, communicated by E. Axon, Esq.)

Gaylard, John: admitted as Gillard: matr. Gaylard: [father not given]: of Devon. School: Exeter, under M^{r} Withnam (sic). Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Fairmedow 10 June 1670. Age 22.

B.A. (Galard) 167$\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1677. Probably vicar of Selworthy, Somerset, 16 June 1692, died before June 1724. (Weaver, Somerset Incumbents, 433.) John Gaylard (of Emm., B.A. 1711) vicar of Winsford 1714, was perhaps his son.

Widdrington, Thomas: son of Michael: born at Morpeth. School: Morpeth, under M^{r} Lumsden. Admitted pensioner under D^{r} Widdrington 13 June 1670. Age 16.

B.A. 167$\frac{3}{4}$. Michael was bailiff of Morpeth 1654 (Hodgson, II. ii. 451). In 1654 he bought a house at Morpeth from the Pyes: which house was sold in 1690 by Tho. Widdrington, gent., of Morpeth—probably our man. (ib.) I cannot connect the Morpeth Widdringtons with any branch of the family which had so many representatives here.

Newton, Thomas: son of Laurence: born at Kirkby, Notts. School: Nottingham, under M^{r} Birch. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Smithson 14 June 1670. Age 15.

B.A. 167$\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1677. Ordained deacon, London, 1676 May. One of these names occurs as rector of Finedon, Northants. in 1686—not there in 1688. Perhaps the same was appointed by the Crown (in the vacancy of the Archbishopric) to the rectory of Nunburnholme near Pocklington, Yorks. 21 Nov. 1687: there till the beginning of 1694 when he died: buried there 21 Jan. (described as M.A. of Christ's). (W. C. Morris, Nunburnholme, 114.)

Farmor, Richard: son of Richard: born at Repton, Derbs. School: Repton, under M^{r} Sedgwick. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Stanford 23 June 1670. Age 17.

Matric^{d}. 17 Dec. 1673: B.A. 167$\frac{3}{4}$. Ordained deacon, Lichfield, 1675 Sept.

Smith, Solomon: son of William: born at Coventry. School: Coventry, under M^{r} Franklin. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Fairmedow 23 June 1670. Age 17.

Matric^{d}. Dec. 1673: B.A. 167$\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1677. Ordained deacon, Lichfield, 1676 Oct.: priest, 1679 Oct.

Teonge, Henry: son of Henry: born at Alcester, Warw. Taught at home by his father. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Fairmedow 23 June 1670. Age 16.

B.A. 1673 Mids. Son of Henry Teonge, admitted 1639, rector of Alcester and Spernall (whom see), by his wife Jane. Ordained deacon, Oxford, 1673 Dec.: priest, Worcester, 1676. Vicar of Congleton, Warw. 1675–83. Used to take the duty at Spernall during his father's absences in the Mediterranean. (D.N.B. under his father.)

Bernard, John: son of Nathanael: born at Langford, Somerset. School: Martock, under Mr Berry. Admitted pensioner under Mr Andrewes 28 June 1670. Age 18.

Possibly B.A. 1672 Mids.: but more likely this was John Barnard, adm. 1669. One of these names (but perhaps a younger man) was vicar of Ludford St Peter's, near Louth, Lincs. 30 July 1701, and also of Kelstern (adjacent) 13 May 1702: he did not reside at Ludford, where no trace of him appears: save that he signs the transcripts to 1738; and of Kelstern 1702–38 with a gap 1705–1710 incl. "The Rev. John Barned [sic] was buryed, October 26th 1739" at Ludford (Rev. C. W. Foster, of Timberland).

Caesar, John: son of John: born at Reed, Herts. School: Hitchin, under Mr Draper. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 2 July 1670. Age 15.

B.A. 1673 Mids. Ordained deacon and priest, London, 1677 Sept. Admitted by the Archbishop Master of the public school of Croydon 11 June 1681. Chaplain of Whitgift's Hospital 1681–1711. Vicar of Croydon 18 Jan. $168\frac{8}{9}$: died 10 March $17\frac{19}{20}$, and buried there. He was chaplain to Scroop, Lord Bridgwater, as appears from the preface to an assize-sermon 1708 (J. C. Steinman, Croydon, 71 and 146).

Nevill, Charles: [no facts given]. Admitted pensioner under Mr Andrewes 30 June 1670; having been previously admitted at Ch. Ch., Oxford 17 May 1669, as appeared from letters testimonial. Age not given.

Probably never came into residence: he does not appear in the "study rents": and he was B.A. (Ch. Ch.) $167\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1675. Rector of Evenlode, Worcs. 1692: and of Dowdswell, Glos. 1702 (Al. Ox. 1057).

Nichols, Charles: [no facts given]. Admitted sizar under Mr Andrewes 15 Aug. 1670.

Matricn. not found. Three other Nicholses admitted in five years: Joseph (Yorks.) 1671, John (doubtful) 1673, and Nathaniel (Beds.) 1675.

Cryer, Benjamin: son of Samuel: born at Castleton, Derbs. School: "Wexworth" [Wirksworth], under Mr Crosedale. Admitted pensioner under Mr Andrewes 22 Aug. 1670. Age 18.

B.A. $167\frac{4}{5}$. Sam. Cryer was minister of Castleton in 1650 according to the report of the Parliamentary Commissioners: formally instituted in 1662: so doubtless conformed (Cox, Derbs. Churches, 2. 131): his name is on a fine carved pew in the church (ib.).

Slinger, Nicholas: son of Tempest, armiger: born in Yorkshire. School: Clitheroe, under Mr Cawcroft. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lovett 2 Sept. 1670. Age not given.

Matricn. not found. Eldest son of Temple Slinger of Catlow, Yorks., J.P., by his wife Millicent, daughter of John Bradhill of Portfield, Lancs.: aged 13, Aug. 1665 (Dugdale Visn. 1665, p. 55). John, probably third son, admitted 1674.

Barnwell, William: son of William: born in London. Taught by Dr Narsbit. Admitted pensioner under Mr Leigh 8 Sept. 1670. Age 16.

Matricd. from Sidney 15 Dec. 1670. B.A. (Sidney) $167\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1678. One of these names rector of Ampthill, Beds. 18 March $168\frac{3}{4}$, patron, the Crown by lapse. One was rector of Watton, Herts. 1 July 1697.

Morton, Joseph: son of John: born at Marchington, Staffs. School: Derby, under Mr Osburne. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lovett 9 Sept. 1670. Age 16.

B.A. (Moreton) $167\frac{4}{5}$. Ordained (Morton) deacon, Lichfield, 1677 Aug.

Allyn, John: son of John: born in London. School: Harborough, under Mr Berry. Admitted pensioner under Mr Andrewes 10 Sept. 1670. Age not given.

Matricn. not found: not in "Study-rents."

Wildman, Thomas: son of Hugh: born at Giggleswick. School: Giggleswick. Admitted at Magdalene 9 April 1670: at Christ's sizar under Mr Lovett 24 Sept. 1670. Age 20.

B.A. (Wildeman) 1673 Mids. Ordained deacon, York, 1674 June: priest, Sept. Probably vicar of Carleton near Skipton 1684–91, when he died.

Arthington, Henry: eldest son of Henry, armiger: born at Arthington, Yorks. School: York. Admitted fellow-commoner under Dr Widdrington 30 Sept. 1670. Age not given.

M.A. (per lit. reg.) 1671. Henry the father, J.P. and D.L., married Mary, daughter of Lord Fairfax. Probably the son was the M.P. for Aldborough, Yorks. in 1678 (Yorks. Genealogist, 1. 44). He died childless 21 Feb. $168\frac{1}{2}$, leaving his first cousin Cyril his heir: see M.I. in Thoresby-Whitaker, Leeds, p. 7.

Midgeley, Joseph: son of Ralph: born at Bresey [? Brearley], Yorks. School: "Riptoniae in eodem agro" [Ripon], under Mr Oxley [Charles]. Admitted sizar under Dr Widdrington 30 Sept. 1670. Age not given.

B.A. $167\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1678. Ordained deacon, York, 1678 Sept.: priest, $168\frac{1}{2}$ March. P.C. of Thirsk 15 Jan. $168\frac{1}{2}$. Married Sarah, daughter of John Pybus of Thirsk. Died 24 June 1704, aged 49. Second cousin of Robert (1671) and of Jonathan (1689): see under Jonathan (1616): all of the family of Midgeley of West Brearley, Yorks. A brother, Robert, together with Jonathan (1689) and Samuel, brother of Robert (1671) "whose ancestors had long lived as gentlemen" received grant of arms 29 June 1709. (See Genealogist, N.S. 21. 271.)

Travers, Elias: son of Thomas: born at Plymouth. School: Penzands [Penzance], Cornwall, under Mr Welstead. Admitted pensioner under Mr Stanford 7 Nov. 1670. Age 19.

M.A. (per lit. reg.) 1675. He appears as Mr Lovett's pupil, for one term only—Lent 1671.

Foster, Edmund: [father not given]: born at Hoddesdon, Herts. M.A. of Queen's, Oxford. Admitted pensioner under Dr Widdrington 29 Nov. 1670. Age not given.

M.A. (Forster) (per lit. reg.) 1671. Not found in Foster's Al. Ox. One Edm. Foster was vicar of Elmdon, Essex, 25 Feb. $166\frac{8}{9}$–1679, when he died.

Hall, Ralph: son of James: born at Bulwell, Notts. School: Mansfield, under Mr Samson. Admitted sizar under Mr Smithson 1 Dec. 1670. Age 19.

B.A. $167\frac{4}{5}$. Ordained deacon, York, 1675 May. Vicar of Saxelby, Leics. 8 Oct. 1685.

Biddulph, Michael: son of Theophilus, eques auratus: born in London. School: [St Paul's], under "vir admodum doctissimus," Mr Crumbleholme. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mr Andrewes 2 Dec. 1670. Age 16.

Matricd. 6 July 1671. Probably Sir Michael, second baronet, of Westcombe, Kent. Married (1) Henrietta Maria, daughter of Col. Roger Witley of Cheshire: (2) Eliz., daughter of Will. D'Oyley Esq. Died 20 April 1718. (Hasted, 1. 18).

Cooke, Shadrach: son of Simon: born in London. School: private, under Mr Wells. Admitted sizar under Mr Andrewes 13 Dec. 1670. Age 15.

B.A. $167\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1678. Ordained deacon, London, 1676 Dec. One of these names was rector of Tanfield, Yorks. (dio. Chester) Aug. 1682. Afterwards moved southward, if the same man was the vicar of Faversham, Kent (presented by the Dean and Chapter), 19 July 1715. One of the six-Preachers in the Cathedral Oct. 1719. Chaplain to the Bishop of St Asaph. Licensed to hold Sittingbourne as well as Faversham 13 Jan. $172\frac{1}{2}$. Died 1724 (Hasted). According to Cole he was "lecturer at Islington" in 1689, then vicar of Faversham. "Formerly a non-juror till the death of a lady who supported him better than the Islington lectureship which he lost: after which he was very opportunely convinced by Dr Higden's arguments to an advantageous compliance. Buried at east end of Islington churchyard. Author of Exhortation to firmness and constancy in true religion, a sermon at Islington on Mark viii. 38, 2 Feb. 1689: Religious Fear of God and his judgments considered and recommended, Faversham 8 Dec. 1721: Legal Obedience the duty of a subject; at Archdeacon's Visitation at Sittingbourne, 1718."

Tiffen, William:

Not found in any College or University record; but in the Peterborough Registry there appears Will. Tiffin, M.A. of Christ's College, ordained priest, Peterborough, 1677 Sept. One of these names was vicar of Sharnbrook, Beds. 1677–1706: no record of his burial there. (Harvey, Hundred of Willey, 469.)

Browne, Francis: son of Thomas: born at Levenham [Lavenham], Suffolk. School: Felstead, under Mr Glascock. Admitted pensioner under Mr Fairmedow 11 Jan. $167\frac{0}{1}$. Age 17.

B.A. $167\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1678. Ordained deacon and priest, Norwich, 1679 Dec. Rector of Elmswell 22 Dec. 1679. He was thrice married (to a Mabel, a Martha, and an Elizabeth) by whom he had numerous children. His successor, Sam. Gall "took possession of the rectory" 30 Jan. $172\frac{4}{5}$: but there is no record of Browne's death or burial. (Rev. J. Hipwell, rector.)

Clagett, Nicholas: son of Nicholas: born at Bury St Edmunds. School: Bury, under Mr Leeds. Admitted sizar under Dr Widdrington 12 Jan. $167\frac{0}{1}$. Age 16.

B.A. $167\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1678; D.D. (com. reg.) 1705. Son of Nich. Clagett of Merton, Oxford who was ejected from the lectureship of St Mary's, Bury, 1662, and died next year. William (of Emm.) succeeded his father in the lectureship and in 1680 Nicholas succeeded his brother William and remained there 46 years. Rector of Little Thurlow, Suffolk, about 1683: in 1707 had license to hold Hitcham (distant 10 miles) as well. Archdeacon of Sudbury 14 June 1699, and remained so till his death 30 Jan. $172\frac{6}{7}$. His son—the third Nicholas—of Trinity—was Bishop of Exeter 1742–6. Author: A Persuasive to peaceableness and obedience, 1683: Truth defended and Boldness in Error rebuked, 1710 (against Whiston on prophecy). (D.N.B.)

Musters, Charles: son of John, eques auratus: born in London. School: Westminster, under Dr Busby. Admitted pensioner under Mr Andrewes 16 Jan. $167\frac{0}{1}$. Age 16.

Matricd. 13 April 1671. Younger son of Sir John Musters of Hornsey; brother of John Musters, of Colwick Hall, Notts., two of whose sons were admitted here—Munday (1694) and Thomas ($169\frac{4}{5}$). In 1702 gave five guineas to beautify the Chapel.

Gurnall, William: son of William: born at Lavenham, Suffolk. School: Felstead, under Mr Glascock. Admitted pensioner under Mr Andrewes 19 Jan. $167\frac{0}{1}$. Age 16.

Matricd. 13 April 1671. Buried at Great St Andrew's 28 July 1674.

Leaves, John: son of John: born at Pinchbeck, Lincs. School: Lincoln, under Mr Johnson. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lovett 10 March $167\frac{0}{1}$. Age 16.

LL.B. 1676. Probably akin to William (also son of John and born at Pinchbeck) admitted 1650. One Mr Leaves was Head-master of Crewkerne school, before $168\frac{4}{5}$ (see under Tho. Slade) and there in $170\frac{6}{7}$ (see St John's Admn. book, 2. 183).

Nowell, Charles: son of Charles: born at Cappleside [Capelside] in the parish of Giggleswick. School: Giggleswick, under Mr Briggs. Admitted at Trinity Hall 1670: at Christ's sizar under Mr Lovett 23 March $167\frac{0}{1}$. Age 18.

Brother of Will. Nowell admitted 1666. I suspect that he had the Grace of the House for B.A. $167\frac{2}{3}$, though he does not occur in the Registry list. In the College B.A. Commencement-book there are two Mr Nowells B.A. one $167\frac{2}{3}$ one $167\frac{3}{4}$, the second is Robert, who does not appear in the Admission-book, but is in the Univ. Registry as B.A.: the fact that the Commencement-book has two names proves that there is not in this case (as often) a confusion of Christian names. In the pedigree of Nowells of Capelside (Whitaker, Whalley, 2. 113) an earlier Will. Nowell occurs as son of Chris. of Capelside who died 1627. A brother Charles was drowned on the day of his marriage.

B.A. $167\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1677. Like William (his brother ?) he was beneficed in Sussex: though ordained deacon, York, 1674 Sept. Vicar of Bishopstone, Sussex 8 July 1679: vicar of Seaford 1682–90.

Radcliff, Alexander: son of Alexander: born at Legh [Leigh], Lancs. School: Leigh, under Mr Richardson. Admitted pensioner under Mr Andrewes 29 March 1671. Age 15.

Matricd. 13 April 1671. Admitted at the Inner Temple 26 Jan. $167\frac{4}{5}$. "Aged 8 in 1664 when he is entered in Dugdale's Visitation of Lancs. as son of Alex. of Leigh. Raines (MSS. xii. 413) says he died young. The father died 1700: and his younger son Thomas succeeded to the Leigh estate" (Ernest Axon, Esq.).

Croston, Richard: son of Henry: of Lancs. School: Manchester, under Mr Wickens. Admitted sizar 29 March 1671. Age 22.

Matricd 13 April 1671. Probably migrated, and was B.A. (Emm.) $167\frac{4}{5}$. Probably one of the Crostons of Heath Charnock, Lancs. (see Croston-Baines, 4. 122): Henry was perhaps son of John Croston, of Heath Charnock and Bury, who married Sarah, daughter of Jeremy Waterhouse of Crosshill, Halifax (Croston-Baines). Head-master of Preston grammar-school 6 Dec. 1680 at a salary of £30 and the profits of a close adjoining the school. A year later though he had taken Orders he was allowed to retain his office, and (with the consent of the mayor) to preach sermons. A non-juror in 1689: and ceased to be master (Fishwick, Preston, 209). One Richard Croston, clerk of Whittle-le-woods in the parish of Leyland, married at Chorley, Mary Wilson 27 Dec. 1701: he was buried 18 Feb. $171\frac{4}{5}$, and left £20 to Heapy Chapel (Leyland Registers).

Scroggs, John: son of John: born at Al[d]bury, Herts. School: Stortford, under Mr Cudworth. Admitted pensioner under Mr Leigh 8 April 1671. Age 15.

Matricd. 6 July 1671. Admitted, heir-apparent of John Scroggs, at Gray's Inn 1 May 1672. Baptised 20 Aug. 1654 [sic]. Eldest son of John Scroggs (1612–1692) by his wife Eliz., daughter of Sir Will. Lytton. Married a Miss Mead: by whom he had a son Thomas, with whom the direct line ended. Died before his father: buried at Aldbury 8 Jan. 1685 (Cussans, I. ii. 162).

Stoc(k)ton, Thomas: son of Thomas: born at Chowbent [near Atherton], Lancs. School: Atherton, under Mr Taylor. Admitted sizar under Mr Leigh 19 April 1671. Age 16.

B.A. (Stockton) $167\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1678.

Lyndsey, Samuel: son of Peter: born in London. School: Brentwood, under Mr Bernard. Admitted pensioner under Mr Andrewes 20 April 1671. Age 17.

Matricn. not found. Probably akin to the Sam. Linsey, or Lindsey, admitted 1657, but of Langton-on-Swale.

Hardcastle, Thomas: son of William: born at Laverton [near Kirkby Malzeard], Yorks. School: Ripon, under Mr Oxley. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lovett 21 April 1671. Age 16.

B.A. $167\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1678. The father, Will. Hardcastle "of Larton [Laverton] in the county of York, gent." was required 22 July 1647 "to settle the rectory of Coverham, and the chappel thereto belonging for ever: for which he is to be allowed out of his second payment" for compounding for his estate (Shaw, 2. 489). Thomas, the son, was ordained deacon, London, $168\frac{3}{4}$ Feb.: priest, 1685 Dec.

Armitage, John: son of Robert: born at Radwell, Yorks. School: [Leeds], under Mr Gilbert. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 1 May 1671. Age 19.

B.A. $167\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1681. One John Armitage, M.A., ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1690, licensed to Fen Stanton, Hunts.: priest, London, $169\frac{3}{4}$ Mar.

Forster, John: son of George: born at Holbeck, Yorks. School: [Leeds], under Mr Gilbert. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 1 May 1671. Age 16.

B.A. $167\frac{4}{5}$. Ordained deacon, York, $167\frac{5}{6}$ Feb.: priest, 1680 Dec. Robert Fish, admitted $171\frac{0}{1}$ was educated at Stokesley, Yorks. under a John Forster: one signs the register as curate of Stokesley—but not before Dec. 1717. He was buried there, 1718 or 1719, the 25th of some unspecified month; Rob. Fish took a marriage for him 13 Nov. 1718. (Rev. Robert Fisher, rector.)

Hemingway, Joshua: son of Henry: born at Halifax. School: Drig[h]lington, under Mr Baskervi [sic: probably Baskerville]. Admitted sizar under Mr Fairmedow 6 May 1671. Age 18.

Matricd. 4 July 1672. B.A. $167\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1678. Probably a cousin of Joshua Hemingway (1684), whose father was Samuel: see Bradford Antiquary, 1. 252.

Brown, Thomas: son of Michael: born at Hornby, Lancs. School: Kendal, under Mr Jackson. Admitted sizar under Dr Carr (surety Mr Lovett) 8 May 1671. Age 19.

B.A. (Browne) $167\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1678. Three Tho. Browns admitted in four years: this one, one in 1673 (matd. 3 July 1673) and one in 1674, matricd. 15 Dec.: I cannot trace any one of them with any certainty. Another (probably) was B.A. $168\frac{0}{1}$, another was admitted 1685: both equally untraceable.

Sandys, John: admitted as Sands: son of Samuel: born at "Fornesfields [probably Furness Fells] near Hauxed" [Hawkshead], Lancs. School: Hawkshead, under Mr Bordeley. Admitted sizar under Mr Stanford (surety Mr Lovett) 15 May 1671. Age 18.

Admitted sizar at St John's 21 Oct. 1671: B.A. $167\frac{4}{5}$ (St John's); M.A. 1678. Perhaps one of the family of Graythwaite Hall. Probably the Joh. Sandys, M.A., rector of Doddinghurst, Essex (patron, Henry Luther, armiger) 14 Nov. 1683–99, when he died.

Jennings, Jonathan: eldest son of Edmund, eques auratus: born at Ripon. School: Ripon, under Mr Oxley. Admitted fellow-commoner under Dr Widdrington 19 May 1671. Age 16.

Matricd. 6 July 1671. Nephew of Jonathan, admitted 1650, and eldest son of Sir Edm. Jennings of Ripon, by his wife Margaret, daughter of Sir Edw. Barkham of Tottenham High Cross. Admitted at Gray's Inn 6 June 1671. Resided in College till Mich^{s}. 1672.

Grange, Francis: admitted as Grainge: son of John: born at Ripon. School: Ripon, under M^{r} Oxley. Admitted sizar under D^{r} Widdrington 20 May 1671. Age 16.

B.A. (Graing) 1674; M.A. (Grange) 1678.

Scot, George: son of George: born at Warlaby, Richmond. School: Coxwold, under M^{r} Parkes. Admitted pensioner under D^{r} Widdrington 20 May 1671. Age not given.

B.A. (Scott) 167$\frac{4}{5}$. Probably son of George Scott (1649) rector of Oswaldkirk 1663.

Clarke, William: son of William: born in London. School: Stourbridge, Worcs. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Andrewes 23 May 1671. Age 15.

Matric^{n}. not found: and not in Study-rents.

Pretty, John: son of William: born at Fairsley [Fazeley, near Tamworth], Staffs. School: Tamworth, under M^{r} Ant(h)robus. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Andrewes 31 May 1671. Age 16.

B.A. 167$\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1678. Rector of Farley, Hants.: as chaplain to the Duke of Bolton licensed to hold also Thruxton, Hants. 2 April 1709. Apparently also rector of Middleton (? in Winchester diocese) 30 Dec. 1724 (Genealogist, N.S. 6. 124): died before June 1729 (ib. 7. 116).

Harding, Randle: admitted as Randolphus: son of Randolphus: born at Minshull, Cheshire. Taught by M^{r} Coulton. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Leigh 3 June 1671. Age 19.

B.A. (Randle Hardinge) 167$\frac{4}{5}$.

Hardy, Richard: son of Richard: born at Widdington [?], Lancs. School: Kirby [? Kirkby-Ireleth], Lancs. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Fairmedow 5 June 1671. Age not given.

B.A. (Hardey) 1677 Mids. One Ri. Hardy instituted to rectory of North Meols, near Southport, 15 Nov. 1688, on the presentation of Edw. Fleetwood, who four years before presented Hen. Rycroft (adm. 165$\frac{6}{7}$). Died intestate 1708 (Croston-Baines, 5. 285).

Hatkill, Thomas: son of Richard: born at Settle, Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Briggs. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 8 June 1671. Age 19.

Matric^{d}. 27 March 1672: but does not appear in Study-rents.

Dowbiggin, Thomas: son of Thomas: born at "Iua" [or "Ina," ? miscopied for Ince], Lancs. School: Thrisk [Thirsk], under M^{r} Wildman. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 9 June 1671. Age 20.

B.A. 167$\frac{4}{5}$. Ordained deacon, York, 1675 Sept.: priest, 1680 June. Rector of Birkby, near Northallerton, 14 Aug. 1701. Died there before Aug. 1721.

Brown, Matthew: son of Matthew: born at Holcom[be] in the parish of Bury, Lancs. Educated by M^{r} Richardson. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 12 June 1671. Age 18.

Matric^{n}. not found: not in Study-rents.

Wolferston, Humphry: son of Hersy: born at Clifton, Staffs. School: Repton, under M^{r} Sedgwick. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Andrewes 14 June 1671. Age 19.

Matric^{n}. not found. One Hercy Wolferston of Statfold, Staffs. married Mary, daughter of Ra. Egerton of Betley (Burke, L.G. 1541, ed. 1871). He was son of a Humphry. But he died 1636 (ib.). Our Humphry must have been a cadet of the same family: but he is not traceable either in Staffs. Vis^{n}. 1663 or in Burke.

Cave, Roger: baronet: [father not given]: born at Stanford Hall, Northants. [No more.] Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Burnet 17 June 1671. Age 16.

Matric^{n}. not found. Son of Sir Thomas (1641), first baronet who died 1670, by his wife Penelope, daughter of Visc^{t}. Wenman: probably grandson of Thomas admitted 1595–6, who died 1666. Sat for Coventry in the Oxford Parliament, 1680, and again, at Westminster 1685. Married (1) Martha, daughter of John Brown of Eydon, Northants., Clerk of Parliament: (2) Mary, daughter of Sir Will. Bromley of Baginton: had children by both. Died 1703: succeeded in the baronetcy by his eldest son Thomas (Bridges, Northants. 1. 580).

Delves, John: son of William: born at Knut[s]ford, Cheshire. School: Tamworth, under M^{r} Ant(h)robus. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 20 June 1671. Age 16.

B.A. $167\frac{4}{5}$. Second son of Will. Delves: his elder brother, William, admitted 29 Sept. A pedigree of the Delves family of Doddington in Ormerod-Helsby, 3. 522: but these are not therein.

Swyre, John: son of Samuel: born at Skipton, Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Briggs. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Bolton (surety M^{r} Lovett) 26 June 1671. Age not given.

B.A. (Swyer) $167\frac{4}{5}$. A family of this name at Cononley in Craven (see Morant-Whitaker, 48): but this one does not occur in the pedigree. John was baptised 2 July 1651, and was short-lived: in the Skipton parish-register occurs "on Feb. 20 $167\frac{5}{6}$, John Swire, Batch. of Arts of Xt's. Coll. in Cambridge, a very hopefull young man: Sonne to Sam. Swire of Skipton. Ch.: iij^{s}. 4^{d}. Mista senium [corr. to senum] et Iuvenū densantur funera" [then in English characters in the published transcript] ὃν θέλει θέος θνήσκει —a bad reminiscence of Menander's ὃν οἱ θεοὶ φιλοῦσιν, ἀποθνήσκει νέος. (Information from T. W. Edmondson, of New York.)

Shaw, Robert: son of Robert: born at Knutsford. School: Tamworth, under M^{r} Ant(h)robus. Admitted sizar to D^{r} More (surety M^{r} Lovett). Age 19.

B.A. 1674; M.A. 1678. Ordained deacon, Worcester, 1681 Oct.; priest, Dec.; to be Head-master of Lichfield grammar-school. Father of Peter Shaw, M.D., Physician in ordinary to George II and George III (D.N.B.). M.I. in St Mary's Church, Lichfield, to Rob. Shaw, M.A., who died 1704.

Midgley, Robert: son of Samuel: born in the parish of Addle [near Leeds]. School: Newton, under M^{r} Hartley. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Smithson (surety M^{r} Lovett) 27 June 1671. Age 16.

M.B. 1676; M.D. 1687. See under Jos. Midgley (1670). Not the B.A. $167\frac{3}{4}$ of St John's—another man, who never "removed to Christ's" (D.N.B.). Cand. R.C.P. 1687. (Munk, 1. 476.) Resided in the parish of Bassishaw, London: licenser of the Press 1686 and later. Married (1) Isabella Neale of Leeds, who died $170\frac{6}{7}$: (2) Mary, daughter of Admiral Sir Geo. Cox. Died 16 Oct. 1723. Author: A new treatise of Natural Philosophy, freed from the intricacies of the Schools (1687): The History of the War of Cyprus (1687), a translation of Graziani's Latin history of the conquest of Cyprus by the Turks: Popery Banished (1689). The question of his share in the Letters by a Turkish Spy 8 vols. 1687–93 of which he was "editor" is carefully discussed in D.N.B. "Midgley certainly owned the copyright of the work previously to 27 Dec. 1693, and that he acquired it, as at least joint author, is a view in which Hallam has received vigorous support." "The chief permanent interest of the once well known letters [the 26th edition was published in 1770] is that they inaugurated a new species of literary composition"—viz. the description of England as if by a foreigner.

Hartley, Robert: admitted at Trinity College 20 June 1668: at Christ's sizar under M^{r} Lovett 29 June 1671. Age not given.

B.A. 1671 Mids. Ordained deacon, York, 1671 Sept.: priest, 1672 Sept. Admitted to the cure of Farnley and of Bramley, Leeds, 29 June 167$\frac{2}{3}$. Chaplain of Burnley, Lancs. before 1679: buried there 9 Feb. 168$\frac{7}{8}$ (Whitaker, Whalley, 2. 169). He bequeathed by his will "20/0 to the curate of Burnley for ever, if he shall read Morning Prayer in the church every morning, except he be hindered upon urgent occasions, or sick, or impotent; the occasion to be judged of, and allowed, by two of the neighbouring ministers, if any dispute arise." (ib.)

Stansfield, Ely: son of Josiah: born at Halifax. School: Birstall, under M^{r} Noble. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Fairmedow 30 June 1671. Age 16.

B.A. 167$\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. not found. Fifth son of Josias (1619–1702) of Breck in Sowerby near Halifax. Ordained deacon, London, 1689 July: priest, Dec. Rector of Newark 2 June 1702: and prebendary of Southwell (Woodburgh) —as Eli Stansfield—at the same time. Died before April 1719, leaving one son, who left no issue.

The family of Stansfield are said to have been settled at Stansfield Hall near Todmorden from the time of the Conquest (Burke, H.C. 4. 60).

Nichols, Joseph: son of Joseph: born at Haighouse [sic], Yorks. School: Drighlington, under M^{r} Baskerville. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Leigh 30 June 1671. Age 17.

Matric^{d}. 8 April 1674. Ordained priest, York, 1681. Perhaps curate in charge of Baslow, Derbs. 1681. (Cox, Derbs. churches, 2. 55.)

Holdsworth, John: son of John: born at Birstall, Yorks. School: Birstall, under M^{r} Noble. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Fairmedow 30 June 1671. Age 18.

Matric^{n}. not found. Probably the John Holdsworth, admitted 20 Feb. 1672 at Frankland's Academy at Rathmell. Was preaching at Topcliffe Hall 1682. Ordained minister 4 Sept. 1689, when he had been 12 years a preacher. Minister at Cleckheaton, Yorks., W.R. Died there 15 Dec. 1711, and buried at Birstall (Northowram Register, 257: information from Ernest Axon, Esq.).

Hepworth, Thomas: son of Thomas: of Yorkshire. School: Thornhill [near Dewsbury], under M^{r} Wilson. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Leigh 30 June 1671. Age 17.

B.A. 167$\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1678. Ordained deacon, York, 1677 Sept.: priest, 1681 May. Vicar of Birstall 18 Aug. 1681 (patron, the Archbishop). Died vicar before July 1701.

Sewell, John: son of John: born in London. School: (1) Westminster: (2) private, under M^{r} Litter [? Litler]. Admitted pensioner under D^{r} Widdrington 1 July 1671. Age 15.

Matric^{d}. 6 July 1671. Admitted at the Inner Temple, "of Chr. Coll. Camb. gent." 27 Aug. 1672. John Sewell, second son of Thomas of Great Henny, Essex, had a son John (perhaps our man), who died single: he would be great-uncle of Hardwick Sewell, admitted fellow-commoner 1733 (Morant, Essex, 2. 273).

Bastard, John: son of Otho: born at Exeter. School: Exeter, under M[r] Wittenhall. Admitted pensioner under M[r] Leigh 1 July 1671. Age 17.
B.A. 167$\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1678.

Lancashire, Thomas: admitted as Lancashier: son of James: born at Manchester. School: Manchester, under M[r] Wiggins. Admitted pensioner under M[r] Andrewes 6 July 1671. Age 16.
B.A. (Lancashire) 167$\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1678. Ordained deacon, London, 1677 Sept. James, the father, died July 1677, apparently in poor circumstances. Thomas was the eldest of four sons. In 1678 he was commissary of the Court of Proprietors, Priory and Peculiar of Snaith, Yorks. Vicar of Mattersey, Notts. 18 Sept. 1680–85. Vicar of Harworth, Notts. 12 March 168$\frac{4}{5}$: where he made his will 27 Sept. 1718, naming his lands at Collyhurst in the parish of Manchester; prebendary of Southwell (Norwell) 170$\frac{4}{5}$; (South Muskham) 26 Sept. 1706. Died before December 1718. He gave £5 to the beautifying of the Chapel—received 1704.

Russell, —: [no Christian name, or facts]. Admitted pensioner under M[r] Andrewes 7 July 1671.
In 1673 there is a similar entry "— Russell." Between these two, on 25 April 1672 there is the admission of Edward, son of Sir Fra. Russell of Chippenham. The two may be brothers of Edward (he had several): or this first entry may be Edward himself, if he delayed his residence. One only was in residence at Mich[s]. 1672 (Study-rents).

Delves, William: son of William: born at Knut[s]ford. School: Knutsford, under M[r] Turner. Admitted pensioner under M[r] Lovett 29 Sept. 1671. Age 18.
Matric[d]. 14 Dec. 1671. Elder brother of Joh. Delves: see entry on June 20.

Harrison, James: son of Peter ("egregius nuper huius Coll. socius et ornamentum"): born at Cheadle, Cheshire. School: Charterhouse, under M[r] Watson. Admitted pensioner under M[r] Lovett 27 Nov. 1671. Age 17.
A John Harrison was matriculated 14 Dec. 1671: probably there was but one man: if there were two, John, like James, took no degree. The James Harrison, B.A., ordained at London May 1676 was probably of Oxford.

Young, Ralph: son of Richard: born at Methwold, Norfolk. School: Thetford, under M[r] Keene. Admitted sizar under M[r] Andrewes 5 Dec. 1671. Age 16.
B.A. 167$\frac{5}{6}$. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1677 Sept.: licensed to Trunch: priest 1678 Sept. Curate of Northwold. Vicar of Lakenheath 27 Dec. 1683: died 1689 (MS. Tanner, 2. 1182).

Felstead, Thomas: son of Thomas: born in Cambridge. School: Perse, under M[r] Griffith. Admitted sizar under M[r] Fairmedow 18 Dec. 1671. Age 15.
B.A. 167$\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1679. Thomas, the father, was alderman of Cambridge where he married Dorothy, daughter of Rob. Ball (Genealogist, 3. 296). The son was ordained deacon, London, 1677 June: priest, Norwich, 1680 June. Rector of Bodney, Norf. 15 Feb. 168$\frac{9}{1}$–90. Rector of Christ Church, Southwark, and prebendary of St Paul's (Oxgate) 16 Oct. 1691: held it till his death in 1711 (Hennessy, 42). According to the Genealogist (ut supra) he was "Minister at St Austin's, London" in 1684: but I do not find him.

Langley, Thomas:
Matric[d]. pensioner 14 Dec. 1671. Perhaps B.A. (Peterhouse) 167$\frac{5}{6}$. One of these names, of North Grimston, Yorks., gave five guineas to the fund for the Chapel in 1708: he was a tenant of the Master, D[r] Covel who was Chancellor of York diocese.

Ellis, Thomas:
B.A. 1674 Mids. Ordained deacon, York, 1674 Dec.: priest, 168$\frac{9}{1}$ Feb.

Oldfield, Joshua:
Born 1656, son of John: born at Carsington, Derbs.: and taught by his father, who was ejected thence in 1662. Said to have studied both at Lincoln, Oxford and at Christ's—though he is not found in the books of either college—but not to have graduated from dislike to subscription. Received presbyterian ordination 18 March 1687 at Mansfield and was pastor of congregations at Oxford (1691), Coventry (1694), London (1699), where he also had an "academy": he settled this first at Southwark, then in Hoxton Square, where it had high repute. Intimate with Locke. D.D. of Edinburgh 1709. Died in London 8 Nov. 1729. (D.N.B.)

Watson, Edward: admitted as Wattson: son of Daniel: born at Burton on Trent. School: Burton, under M^{r} Hazard. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 10 Jan. $167\frac{1}{2}$. Age 16.
B.A. (Watson) $167\frac{5}{6}$. Brother of Daniel, admitted 1669. Buried at Great St Andrew's 31 Aug. 1678.

Villiers, Isaac: son of Thomas: born at Barnes, Middlesex. School: Repton. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 10 Jan. $167\frac{1}{2}$. Age 17.
Matric^{d}. 4 July 1672. Resided till Lady Day 1673. In Staffs. Visitation, 1663, Edw. Villers of Hanbury, Staffs. had a second son Thomas Villers who married Dorothy, daughter of Will. Wase of Datchet, Bucks. Their third son was Isaac Villers.

Church, John: son of John: born at Hertford. School: Islington, under M^{r} Singleton. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 2 Feb. $167\frac{1}{2}$. Age 16.
B.A. $167\frac{5}{6}$. Ordained deacon, London, 1676 May: priest, 1677 Sept. Vicar of Navestock, Essex, 16 Jan. $168\frac{8}{9}$: resigned before 8 June 1689. Rector of Middleton St Nicholas, Sussex, 1689. Vicar of Pagham 13 Nov. 1701. Died 23 Feb. $171\frac{0}{1}$: buried at Pagham.

Thomson, Robert: son of Christopher: born at Sheldon [? Shildon], Durham. School: [Houghton-le-Spring], under M^{r} Caunt. Admitted sizar under D^{r} Widdrington 29 Feb. $167\frac{1}{2}$. Age 16.
B.A. (Thompson) 1675 Mids.; M.A. 1679. One (M.A.) curate of Croxdale, Durham 1681–2 (Surtees, 4. 122).

Ferris, Benjamin: admitted as Ferrisse: son of Samuel: born at Baverly [? Beverley], Yorks. School: Felstead, under M^{r} Glascock. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Leigh 7 March $167\frac{1}{2}$. Age 17.
B.A. (Ferris) $167\frac{5}{6}$. Ordained deacon, London, 1676 May. Vicar of Prittlewell, Essex, 1 June 1678, succeeding Sam. Phillibrowne (1665); presented by Tho. Barrington and wife, Henry St John and wife, and Daniel Finch and Essex his wife (Newcourt, 2. 474). Died childless April 1683: will proved 9 May 1683 by his widow, Margaret (Benton, Hist. of Rochford Hundred).

Chappell, Richard: son of William: born at Broad Clist, Devon. School: Broad Clist, under M^{r} Coppleton. Admitted pensioner under D^{r} Widdrington 20 March $167\frac{1}{2}$. Age not given.
Matric^{n}. not found: not in Study-rents.

Shaw, James: son of James: born at Torton [Turton, in Bolton parish], Lancs. School: Fielding, under M^{r} Wiggen [? Wigan, under M^{r} Fielding]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 22 March $167\frac{1}{2}$. Age 18.
B.A. $167\frac{5}{6}$. One James Shaw was minister of Hindley Chapel, after 1662 and before 1698; and died within those limits of time: stated to have been a non-conformist at his death (E. Axon, Esq. from Documents relating to Hindley, p. 13). Administration at Chester 1690 of James Shaw of Hindley.

Molyneux, Francis: admitted as Mollyneux: son of John Francis, bart.: born at Teversall, Notts. School: Laughton-[en-le-Morthen], Yorks., under Mr Broomhead. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mr Fairmedow 1 April 1672. Age not given.

Matricd. (Mulloynex) 4 July 1672: M.A. (per lit. reg.) 1675. Son of John (admitted 1640) third baronet, by his wife Lucy, daughter of Alex. Rigby of Middleton, Lancs. Admitted at Gray's Inn 11 July 1673. Succeeded to the baronetcy 1691. Gave £10 to the Chapel in 1702. Married Diana, daughter of John Howe of Langar Castle, Notts.: had seven sons (of whom John and Charles were admitted here) and three daughters. Died 12 March 1742, aged 87. His brother, John, admitted 1677.

Lund, Henry: son of Robert: born at Svostrop [probably Scosthorpe near Malham], Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under Mr Briggs. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett, 2 April 1672. Age 17.

B.A. 1675 Mids.; M.A. 1684, incorporated, Oxford, 14 July 1684. Ordained deacon, York, 1676 May: priest, 1677 Sept.

Larden, Richard: admitted wrongly as Lardell: son of William: of Cheshire. School: Bunbury, under Mr Hoole. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 5 April 1672. Age 18.

Matricd. and B.A. (Larden) $167\frac{5}{6}$. Administration of property of Richard Larden of Tarvin at Chester 1684.

Simcoe, William: admitted as Symcoe: son of George: of Cheshire. School: Bunbury, under Mr Hoole. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 5 April 1672. Age 19.

Matricd. 19 Jan. $167\frac{4}{5}$: B.A. (Simcoe) $167\frac{5}{6}$. Vicar of Long Horsley, Northumberland 1692: presented by Charles, Duke of Somerset. Died intestate 18 June 1714: administration to his widow Jane, 14 Sept. Therefore, he was not collated to Woodhorn (as Hodgson says, II. ii. 91) nor did he die in 1766 aged 97: the vicar of Woodhorn was another Simcoe—perhaps the man admitted 1713. (Information from J. Ross Robertson of Toronto.)

Leigh, John: son of Thomas: born at Stortford. School: Stortford, under Mr [Nic.] Cudworth. Admitted pensioner under his brother Mr James Leigh 6 April 1672. Age 15.

B.A. $167\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1679. Fourth and last of the sons of the Head-master of Stortford (admd. 1614) who came to this College. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1679 June; licensed to cure of Gilston, Herts.: priest, London, 1679 Dec. Vicar of Stanstead Mountfichet, Essex, 16 Oct. 1682—till his death. Prebendary of Lincoln (Welton Beckhall) 3 July 1683: died before May 1691 (Le Neve, 2. 227). Apparently he succeeded another John Leigh as rector of Willoughby near Alford, Lincs. 25 Nov. 1682. The brothers were all short-lived.

Cookson, Timothy: son of Bryan: born at Sattle [Settle], Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under Mr Briggs. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 12 April 1672. Age 18.

B.A. $167\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1683. Ordained deacon, York, 1677 Sept.: priest, 1678 Sept. Born 1654, younger son of Bryan of Settle (1610–$168\frac{5}{6}$). Pedigree in Thoresby-Whitaker, Leeds, p. 136.

Fowler, Thomas: son of Thomas: born at Faringdon, Berks. Educated by his father. Admitted pensioner under Mr Smithson 12 April 1672. Age 17.

B.A. $167\frac{5}{6}$. One of these names, and B.A., ordained priest, Lincoln, $167\frac{8}{9}$ March, as rector of Sheepy, Leics. (near Atherstone). His successor, if Nichols (4. 930) be right, was appointed 1710.

Wheeldon, John: [no facts given]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Smithson 12 April 1672.

Matric^{n}. not found. One Joh. Wheledon "lit[eratus] coll. Christi" was ordained deacon, London, 1680 June: and is probably entered by error as "John Wheel [sic] lit. Coll. Christi," priest, 1682 June. He never appears in Study-rents: but his account of himself seems to imply some residence: perhaps he paid nothing as being M^{r} Smithson's personal servant.

Dalton, Marmaduke: eldest son of William, eques auratus: born at Hauxwell, [Haukswell], Yorks. School: Bury St Edmunds, under M^{r} Leedes. Admitted fellow-commoner under D^{r} Widdrington 16 April 1672. Age not given.

Born 19 Aug. 1655. Matriculated 13 Dec. 1672: resided till Lady Day 1673. Son of Sir Will. Dalton of Haukswell (admitted 1647) by his wife Elizabeth, daughter of Sir Marmaduke Wyvill: brother of Darcy (1688). Succeeded his father in 1675. Knighted 1676. Married Barbara, daughter of the Hon. Henry Bellasis: by whom he had three daughters. Drowned 19 Feb. 1680: buried at Haukswell (Hunter, F.M.G. 914).

Hindle, Nathaniel: son of Henry: born at Halifax. School: Halifax, under M^{r} Doughty. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Fairmedow 23 April 1672. Age not given.

B.A. 1676 Mids. Ordained (as a student of Divinity), deacon, Norwich, 167$\frac{3}{4}$ March; licensed to Trunch: priest, 167$\frac{4}{5}$ Feb.; licensed to Beeston St Lawrence. Vicar of Ludham 7 Aug. 1675. Vicar of Hickling 2 Sept. 1681–1706 (Blomefield, 5. 860). Rector of Potter-Heigham 1699 (ib. p. 865): these places are all near together.

Reynardson, Joseph: admitted as Rhenolson: son of Abraham, eques auratus. Born at Totnam [Tottenham], Midds. School: Felstead, under M^{r} Glascock. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Andrewes 24 April 1672. Age 16.

Matric^{n}. not found. The father was a Sir Abraham Reynardson of London (Le Neve's Knights) knighted 5 July 1660: unless this were the grandfather. Other members of the family were London merchants (Foster, Marriage Licenses).

Russell, Edward: son of Francis, baronet: born at Chipnam [Chippenham], Cambs. School: Perse, under M^{r} Griffith. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Fairmedow 25 April 1672. Age not given.

Matric^{d}. 4 July 1672. Baptised 12 Oct. 1654 at Chippenham, sixth son of Sir Francis Russell, one of Cromwell's creations, who died 1664. His mother was Catharine, daughter of John Wheatley of Catsfield, Sussex. Resided till Mich^{s}. 1674, for the last year as "Russell senior" in the Study-rents: but Russell junior (presumably the one admitted 1673) never appears. See — Russell (1671).

Rawdon, Edward: son of George, baronet: born at Lisbon [Lisburn], co. Antrim. School: Kilkenny, under M^{r} Jones. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Lovett 25 April 1672. Age 16.

Matric^{d}. 4 July 1672. Resided till Lady Day 1675. Admitted at the Middle Temple 2 Feb. 167$\frac{4}{5}$. Eldest son of Sir George Rawdon by his second wife Dorothy, eldest daughter of the second Lord Conway, whom he married in 1654: the connexion with Christ's is doubtless through the mother or, rather, her sister Anne, Lady Conway, More's friend. Sir George served with distinction during the Irish Rebellion, and after the Restoration; when he built and settled down at Moira and was very influential in Ulster till his death in 1684. Edward, the son, and his brother John both died before their father (1684), who was succeeded by his third son, Arthur, educated at Dublin (D.N.B. under his father).

Rawdon, John: [birth, education &c., the same as Edward]. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^r^ Lovett 25 April 1672. Age 15.

Matric^d^. 13 Dec. 1672. Resided till Mich. 1674. Second son of Sir George. See under Edward. Died before 1684.

Fish, Henry: son of Humphry: born at Northill, Beds. School: Sutton [? Sutton All Saints, near Potton], under M^r^ Spalding. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Leigh 25 April 1672. Age 16.

Matric^n^. not found. Resided till Mich^s^. 1674. Son of Humphry Fish (1645) of Ickwell, Beds.: last of the Beds. family of this name: which I cannot connect with the Yorkshire branch, also largely represented here. Admitted at Gray's Inn 25 March 1674.

Dalton, Samuel: son of John: born at Nottingham. School: private, at Mackworth, Derbs., under M^r^ Ogdell [Ogden], (vol. I. p. 519). Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Lovett 1 May 1672. Age 17.

Not found in Study-rents. Probably Samuel Dalton of Derby, admitted at the Inner Temple 19 May 1674: Mackworth, where the "silenced" M^r^ Ogden had his school, is close to Derby. John may have been a cadet of the Hauckswell family, many of whom were here.

Jenison, Matthew: son of Matthew: born at Newark. School: Repton. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Leigh 13 May 1672. Age not given.

Resided till Mich. 1674. Admitted at Lincoln's Inn 18 Nov. 1674. Probably the Matt. Jenison who in 1717 gave six roods of land in the manor of Southwell for the use of the poor in the township of Upton (Bailey, Annals of Notts. 3. 1121).

Jenison, John: son of Matthew: born at Newark. School: Repton. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Leigh 13 May 1672. Age not given.

B.A. $167\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1679. Brother of Matthew. Ordained priest, Lincoln, 1688 Aug. 4: and rector of Sedgebrook, Lincs. 6 Aug. Died at Sedgebrook 29 Dec. 1714 aged 59. M.I. in the church: "Memoria iusti est benedicta."

Procter, Anthony: son of John: born at Newcastle. School: "Coopin" [?], under M^r^ Garthwaite [a M^r^ Garthwaite was head-master of the school, Newcastle, before 1677]. Admitted pensioner under D^r^ Widdrington 21 May 1672. Age 18.

B.A. 1675. Was he nephew of the Ant. Procter (son of Anthony) of Newcastle, admitted 1654? It is impossible to distinguish the history of this man from that of Ant. Proctor, admitted next year: and there was a third (of St John's) B.A. 1668. Perhaps curate of All Saints, Newcastle 1697–1703, at latest (Brand, 1. 392). Probably one of the three was a member of Frankland's Academy at Rathmell, admitted 7 April 1670: dead before 1698. One was ordained priest, York, $16\frac{8}{9}\frac{9}{0}$ March. One was master of Kirkby Stephen school before 1684 and up to 1693 at least (see St John's Admission book). One was rector of Dean, Cumberland, 1688–1705 (Whellan, 352).

Roos, John: son of Henry: born at Sne[i]nton, Notts. School: Nottingham, under M^r^ Birch. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Fairmedow 29 May 1672. Age 16.

B.A. $167\frac{5}{6}$. The father was, probably, an elder of the Nottingham (voluntary) Association (see Shaw, 2. 453) after 1656. The son was ordained deacon, York, 1677 Sept.: priest, 1679 June. Rector of Widmerpool, Notts. 18 Nov. 1680: and died before Sept. 1704. The John Roos (M.A.) who became rector of Brant Broughton, Lincs. 29 April 1689, can hardly be the same: but I cannot find another with whom to identify him.

Lee, Thomas: matric^{d}. John, but ? by a copyist's error: son of Henry: born at Burton on Trent. School: Ashby-de-la-Zouch, under M^{r} Shaw. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 6 June 1672. Age 15.

B.A. (Thomas) 167$\frac{5}{6}$. Thomas Lee of Christ's was ordained deacon, Lichfield, 1677 Sept. but licensed to read prayers 30 Aug. [sic] 1677.

Bradshaw, Robert: son of John: born at Brighmate [Breightmet, near Bolton], Lancs. School: Bolton, under M^{r} Shaftoe. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 17 June 1672. Age 17.

B.A. 167$\frac{5}{6}$. Probably rector of Brereton near Sandbach, Cheshire, 1683: if so, he exchanged it soon for Thurstaston, in Wirral, Feb. 168$\frac{3}{4}$. Died 1689 (Ormerod-Helsby, 2. 510; 3. 94).

Seddon, Thomas: son of Robert: born at Kersl[e]y [near Bolton], Lancs. School: Chowbent, under M^{r} Taylor. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 17 June 1672. Age 17.

B.A. 167$\frac{5}{6}$. Probably son of Rob. Seddon (1646) the "silenced minister" of Langley: who wandered for some years in Lancashire, finally settling at Bolton. Thomas, the son, settled in the South: he was rector of East Wittering, near Chichester 10 Oct. 1679: and also vicar of Sidlesham, a neighbouring parish, 7 May 1680. Died 1688. Not to be confounded with Tho. Seddon, an Oxonian, Canon of Hertford about the same time.

Rolle, Amos: son of John: born at Yettington [? Yelverton], Devon. School: Tiverton, under M^{r} Hume. Admitted pensioner under D^{r} Widdrington 22 June 1672. Age 18. Become fellow-commoner, 26 June 1675.

B.A. 167$\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1679.

Mallabarr, John: son of William: born at Newcastle. School: Newcastle, under (1) M^{r} Oxley, (2) M^{r} Garthwaite. Admitted sizar under D^{r} Widdrington 24 June 1672. Age 19.

B.A. 167$\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1679. Ordained deacon, London, 1678 May: priest, Lincoln, 167$\frac{8}{9}$ March, curate of "Kilshull" (perhaps Kelshall, Herts.). Vicar of Great Gidding, Hunts. 12 April 1697–171$\frac{4}{5}$: also vicar of Winwick, on the presentation of Ralph, Earl Montague, May 1697; had leave of non-residence there, August 1697.

Boteler, James: second son of Oliver, armiger: born at Harrold, Beds. School: Brentwood, under M^{r} Bernard. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Fairmedow 25 June 1672. Age 16.

Matric^{d}. (Butler) 4 July 1672; M.A. (per lit. reg.) 1675. Brother of William (1670). Buried in the chancel of Harrold church with his wife Judith: he died 8 Jan. 1690 (? 169$\frac{0}{1}$) in the 36th year of his age: she died 4 May 1712. Near them lie a son James (aged 27) and a daughter (aged 30): they were a short-lived race: Oliver (the father) was 33 when he died. (Harvey, Hundred of Willey, 337: pedigree at p. 10.)

Fortescue, John: son of Thomas: born at Sperhall [Spernall], Warw. Taught by M^{r} Grove. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Fairmedow 29 June 1672. Age 18.

Matric^{n}. not found: his name in Study-rents till Mich. 1673, but without charge.

Benson, Harvey: son of William: born in London. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Briggs. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 1 July 1672. Age, nearly 16.

Matric^{d}. 4 July: resided till Lady Day 1675.

Delaval, John: son of Ralph, baronet: born at Seaton-Delaval, Northumb^{d}. School: not given. Admitted pensioner under D^{r} Widdrington 3 July 1672. Age not given.

Matric^{n}. not found: resided till Mich. 1675. Sir Ralph (created a baronet 1660) married Anne, daughter of Alexander, Earl of Leven. Sir John, their fifth son, succeeded his eldest brother Sir Robert, who died 1682 (Kimber, 3. 176).

Greatorex, Isaac: admitted as Greatricks: [no facts given]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Fairmedow 3 July 1672.

B.A. (Greatorex) 167$\frac{5}{6}$. Ordained deacon (Greatorex), Lichfield, 1676 May: licensed to be chaplain of Turnditch, Duffield.

Durham, William: admitted as Durrham: son of Robert: born at Hucklow, Derbs. School: Wirksworth, under M^{r} Crosedale. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Andrewes 23 Aug. 1672. Age not given.

B.A. (Durham) 167$\frac{6}{7}$. Ordained deacon, Lichfield, 1677 Sept.: priest, Lincoln, 1687 May; curate of Brampton, Derbs. (Not the rector of St Mildred, Bread Street (Davy), who was of Oxford and incorp^{d}. at Cambridge 1676.)

Layton, Thomas: admitted as Laton: son of Robert, eques auratus: born at Sexow [Sexhowe in Cleveland], Yorks. Taught by M^{r} Denton at Newton Grange [called East Newton, near York, in St John's Adm^{n}. book]. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 7 Sept. 1672. Age 15.

Matric^{d}. (Layton) 13 Dec. 1672. A Rob. Layton born 1625, was son of Robert of West Layton, Yorks. (Dugdale, Vis^{n}. 1665). Appears (without charge) for three half-years: perhaps only in residence one term. Tho. Laton, son of Sir Robert, was buried at Hutton Rudby, 7 Oct. 1678 (Ord, Cleveland, 473).

Pudsey, Ambrose: son of Ambrose, armiger: born at Bolton Hall, Yorks. School: not given. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 7 Sept. 1672. Age not given.

Matric^{d}. 13 Dec. 1672. Son of Ambrose Pudsey and his wife Jane, daughter of Sir Tho. Davison of Blakiston, Durham. The father, Ambrose, was Colonel of a regiment of foot for the wapentakes of Staincliffe and Ewcrosse: died before 1680. Admitted 14 Nov. 1682 at Gray's Inn as of Bolton and Barforth (which latter he sold). Sheriff of Yorks. 1683 and 1693. Married Elizabeth, daughter of Henry Marsden of Winnington by whom he had five sons (the second an Ambrose who succeeded him) and three daughters. He was one of the "Gentlemen Justices" who made answer to the interrogations respecting the election to Parliament in 1688. His answer at Skipton 14 Aug. was "I shall give my vote for such persons as are of untainted loyalty. I always lookt upon those laws which punished men for meer conscience to be severe, and am desirous to live friendly with all men." To this answer the King could take no exception. Buried at Bolton 7 May 1716 (Genealogist N.S. 20. 20).

Bradley, Stephen: son of Edward: born at Alcester, Warwick. Taught by M^{r} [Hen.] Teonge [rector of Alcester, adm. 1639]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Fairmedow 28 Sept. 1672. Age 16.

B.A. 167$\frac{6}{7}$. Ordained priest, Worcester, 167$\frac{4}{5}$ March: licensed to cure of Harrington.

Lyddell, George: son of Thomas, eques auratus: born at Ravensworth Castle, Durham. School: Morpeth, under M^{r} Spinck. Admitted pensioner under D^{r} Widdrington 21 Oct. 1672. Age 17.

Matric^{d}. 13 Dec. 1672. Born 21 May 1655: son of Sir Thomas Lyddell (164$\frac{9}{1}$) of Ravensworth by his wife Anna, daughter of Sir Henry Vane of Raby Castle. He was placed in 1669 (the first pupil at the Academy) under the care of Ri. Frankland at Rathmell—a fact which D^{r} Widdrington did not know, or did not mention. He was alive in 1697. Died unmarried (Surtees, 2. 213).

Batt, Michael: son of Michael: born at Monkton-Deverell, Wilts. School: Salisbury, under Mr Taylor. Admitted at Lincoln College, Oxford 1671 [14 July]: at Christ's, sizar under Mr Andrewes 18 Nov. 1672. Age 18.

B.A. $167\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1678. Ordained priest, Norwich, $167\frac{7}{8}$ Feb.: licensed to Ellingham, Norfolk. Rector of Mannington 10 Oct. 1678. Preacher at St James', Bury St Edmunds, ca. 1686–1703. Rector of Chelmsford 22 May 1696. Author of a Visitation Sermon on 1 Cor. iv. 21, preached 5 May 1686.

Robartes, Charles: son of John, Lord Robartes of Truro: born at Landibrook [Lanhydrock, near Bodmin]. School: not given. Admitted nobleman ("nobilis accepit hospes") under Mr Lovett 26 Nov. 1672. Age not given.

Matricd. 19 March $167\frac{2}{3}$. Youngest son of John, second Lord Robartes of Truro, by his second marriage: brother of Francis (1663): and half brother of John (1648) of Robert (1648) and of Hender (1650). Died unmarried. (Burke, Ext. Bar. 444.)

Cudworth, John: son of Ralph: born in Cambridge. School: Stortford, under Mr [Jer.] Cudworth. Admitted pensioner under Mr Andrewes 24 Dec. 1672. Age 16.

B.A. $167\frac{6}{7}$; M.A. 1680. Son of the Master by his wife Damaris Andrewes: his tutor was his half-brother. Elected Fellow before Xmas 1678 succeeding Tho. Burnet. Ordained deacon and priest, Lincoln, (at Buckden) 15 July 1684. Was Greek lecturer 1687 and 1688, and was at least occasionally resident: he had one pupil in 1680 and one in 1692: but he probably sat lightly on the College. Senior Dean 1690. His father left him copyhold lands in Suffolk which he enjoyed from 1688. His fellowship was declared void 27 Jan. $169\frac{7}{8}$ "by reason of his having an estate," i.e. freehold lands at Southwold, Bedingfield, Reddington and Allington, I presume after his mother's death. He resided at Southwold, where he spent his time bemoaning his lot and complaining of his relatives—other Cudworths. He died 9 Sept. 1726, leaving to his nephew Francis Cudworth Masham, an estate of £500 a year. From information received from J. Cudworth Whitebrook, Esq., I gather that toward the end of his life he was of doubtful sanity.

Jackson, Thomas: son of Thomas: born at Leeds. School: Leeds, under Mr Gilbert. Admitted pensioner under Mr Fairmedow 4 March $167\frac{2}{3}$. Age 16.

B.A. $167\frac{6}{7}$. Ordained deacon, London, $167\frac{7}{8}$ Feb. One of these names was vicar of Albury, Herts. 1693, till his death before April 1724. (Cussans I. ii. 169.)

Morrice, Robert: admitted as Morris: son of Robert: born at Barley, Yorks. School: Leeds, under Mr Gilbert. Admitted pensioner under Mr Fairmedow 4 March $167\frac{2}{3}$. Age 16.

Matricd. and B.A. 1676 Mids. (as Morrice).

Maude, Jonathan: also spelt Mawde: [no facts given]. Admitted 7 March $167\frac{2}{3}$. [Tutor &c. not given.]

B.A. (Mawde) $167\frac{6}{7}$; M.A. 1680. Ordained deacon, York, 1680 Sept. He probably belonged to the Halifax family. A Jonathan Maude died at Halifax 1 Aug. 1686. Also a Doctor Jonathan Maude of Halifax died in 1684 (Hunter, F.M.G. 625): he had a son John who entered Oxford 1670: and he may have sent another (this Jonathan) to Cambridge.

Power, Henry: son of John: born at Halifax. School: Pontefract, under Mr Swift. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 9 April 1673. Age 17.

Matricd. 8 April 1674. Probably a relative, perhaps nephew, of Hen. Power (1641), physician of Halifax.

Pinney, John: admitted as Penny: son of John: born at Bettescomb [Bettiscombe], Somerset [Dorset]. School: Axminster, under Mr Barber. Admitted pensioner under Mr Andrewes 9 April 1673. Age not given.

Matricn. not found. Born 1654, son of John Pinney, clerk, of Broadwinsor, brother of Azariah Pinney: not given in the Pinney pedigree in Burke. The father was a Puritan, who accepted the Parliamentary conditions and was appointed vicar of Broadwinsor: he was ejected in 1661. A son, Azariah, joined the Monmouth rebellion, was ransomed from personal servitude, went to Nevis and became a successful sugar planter there. John Pinney (the father) died at Bettiscombe in 1705. His son, our man, died 1679. M.I. to the two in Bettiscombe Church. (Information from the Rev. Frank Penny.)

Anger, John: [no facts of any kind given].

Hall, Edmund: son of Martin: [but the birth-place not given]. Educated for four years at Edinburgh University. Admitted pensioner under Dr Widdrington 14 April 1673. Age not given.

Matricn. not found. Perhaps uncle of Edward and Martin Hall admitted $169\frac{6}{7}$: they were of Apsley Guise, Beds. Appears as Mr Hall, i.e. a fellow-commoner, before Lady Day 1675: when he ceased to reside.

Buck, John: son of John: born at Darnbrook. School: Horton [Halton] Gill [in Littondale, Craven], under Mr Hargrave. Admitted sizar under Mr Bolton 14 April 1673. Age 19.

Matricd. 3 July 1673.

Proctor, Anthony: son of Thomas: born at Tawler [?], Yorks. School: Hardicker [? Hardwick, near Pontefract], Yorks. Admitted sizar to Mr Turner (surety Mr Lovett) 14 (?) April 1673. Age not given.

B.A. 1676 Mids. See under Ant. Procter (1672).

Winn, Richard: son of Richard, armiger: born in London. School: St Paul's, under (1) Mr Crumbleholme, (2) Mr Gale. Admitted pensioner under Mr Andrewes 26 April 1673. Age 17.

Matricn. not found. Resided till about June 1676. Admitted at the Inner Temple 3 Oct. 1676—unless he be the man of the same name admitted there 4 Dec. 1673—this one was of St Martin in the Fields. One of these I take to be the Ri. Wynn who was Serjeant-at-law 1710, and M.P. for Boston 1708–22: possibly he was also eldest son of Ri. Wynne, of Guisborough, Yorks. who died 1653 and left to his eldest son Richard £700 either at the age of 25, or when he shall have served his apprenticeship and be made a freeman of the City of London: his third son John to have £100 on like conditions (Yorksh. Wills, 9. 66). He gave £21. 10*s.* to the beautifying of the Chapel in 1702.

Nichols, John: [no facts given]. Admitted 26 April 1673. [Status and tutor omitted.]

B.A. $167\frac{6}{7}$; M.A. 1681. One John Nichols was vicar of "Dichalling" [Ditchling], Sussex 20 July 1692. One, perhaps the same, was vicar of Sheldwick, near Faversham, Kent, 1703–14: rector of Fordwich, Canterbury, 1714 (Arch. Cant. 18. 300).

Brunning, Benjamin: son of Benjamin: born at Ipswich. School: Woodbridge. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 2 May 1673. Age not given.

B.A. $167\frac{6}{7}$; M.A. 1681. The father, I presume, was the Ben. Brunning, Fellow of Jesus, who was rector of Great Waldingfield, Suffolk (Norw. Regr.), and ejected from Ipswich in 1662 (Calamy-Palmer, 2. 428). Benjamin, the son, was ordained deacon, Norwich, 1679 Dec.: priest, $16\frac{79}{80}$ March. Presented by Dean Honywood to the vicarage of Edwinstowe, Notts. 5 April 1680: resigned $168\frac{0}{1}$. Vicar of St Mary-le-Wigford, Lincoln, 2 May 1681: which he ceded before 6 March 1685. After this he does not reappear in the Lincoln diocese. I suppose that it was the father who was buried in Ipswich parish church, with his wife and daughter, in 1688 (Clarke, Ipswich, 305).

Peach, John: son of William: born at "oppidum Cestrense" [Chichester], Sussex. School: not given. Admitted, after keeping four terms at New Inn Hall (Novi Hospitii Aula), Oxford, pensioner under M^{r} Andrewes 4 May 1673. Age not given.

Matric^{n}. not found: not in Study-rents. He possibly came to Cambridge for a while, but before he was of standing for a degree returned to Oxford; where John Peche, son of Will. of Chichester, gent., matriculated 22 March $167\frac{1}{2}$; B.A. 1675; M.A. 1678: admitted (as Pechey) licentiate of the College of Physicians 1684 (Munk, 1. 433: Al. Ox. 1135).

Staples, Samuel: son of Samuel: born at Willesley, Derbs. School: Ashby-de-la-Zouch, under M^{r} Shaw. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Andrewes 29 May 1673. Age 17.

Matric^{n}. not found. Sam. Staples, the father, was admitted 1649. The son was admitted at Gray's Inn 23 June 1675, as of Nottingham, gent.

Ferne, Joseph: admitted as Fearn: son of George: born at Fairfield, Derbs. School: Ashby-de-la-Zouch, under M^{r} Shaw. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Andrewes 29 May 1673. Age 19.

B.A. (Ferne) $167\frac{6}{7}$; M.A. 1680. Ordained (as Jos. Ferne of Hope) deacon, Lichfield, 1677 Sept.: priest, 1679 June. Probably curate of Baslow, Derbs. 1678–81. Rector of Matlock 1688–1716, when he died. (Cox, Derbs. churches, 2. 526.)

Willson, Edmund: son of Nicholas: of Norfolk. School: Holt, under M^{r} Bainbridge. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 29 May (?) 1673. Age 18.

Matric^{n}. not found: not in Study-rents.

Foxcroft, Richard: son of Edward: born at Thornton, Yorks. School: Kirkby Lonsdale. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 29 May (?) 1673. Age 16.

B.A. $167\frac{7}{8}$. Ordained deacon, York, 1679 June: priest, $168\frac{0}{1}$ Feb. Possibly one of Ri. Frankland's pupils from 20 June 1674: but he cannot have been absent from Cambridge more than a year. Perhaps rector of Hoole, Lancs.: presented in 1686 by James II: held it till 1701 when he resigned. (Croston-Baines, 4. 138.)

Brown, Thomas: son of John: of Yorkshire. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Briggs. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 29 May (?) 1673. Age 16.

Matric^{d}. 3 July 1673. See Tho. Brown of 1671 (page 35).

Allgood, Bartholomew: son of Lansler [sic=Lancelot]: born at Haxum [Hexham], Northumberland. Educated at Hexham by M^{r} Rechell [Ritschell, vicar]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 7 June 1673. Age 17.

B.A. 1676 Mids. Younger brother of Major (1659), and son of Lancelot, the bailiff of Hexham. Ordained priest, Norwich, 1677 Sept. Presented to Wiggenhall St Garmond [Germans], Norfolk, 4 Sept. 1677. Rector of Ashwicken, near Lynn, 26 Jan. $16\frac{79}{80}$–1716 (Blomefield, 4. 472).

Munford, Richard: son of Augustine: born in London. School: Hackney, under M^{r} Batchelour. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 12 June 1673. Age 16.

Matric^{n}. not found: neither does he appear in Study-rents.

Baxter, Edward: son of Edward: born at Carl(e)ton, Lincs. School: Lincoln. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Smithson 13 June 1673. Age 20. A fellow-commoner 26 June 1675.

B.A. 1676 Mids. Ordained deacon, London, 1676 Sept.: priest, York, $168\frac{0}{1}$ Feb. Rector of Dinnington near Rotherham 28 Feb. $168\frac{0}{1}$.

Hearn, —: [no facts at all].

Goodwin, Samuel: son of Samuel: born at Little Eaton, Derbs. School: Derby, under M^{r} Matthews. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett. [No date, or age, given.]

Matric^{d}. 8 April 1674. Perhaps son of Sam. Goodwin ($163\frac{8}{9}$). One Sam. Goodwin, clerk, curate of St Mary, Whitechapel 14 Dec. 1674. One rector of Stone, Kent Aug. 1681, collated by the Bishop: but perhaps of Wadham, Oxford. (Al. Ox. 585.)

Midford, —: [no facts at all].

Perhaps a brother of Will. Midford, admitted 1669. A — Midford appears in Study-rents among M^{r} Fairmedow's pupils till Lady Day 1675.

Wood, —: [no facts at all].

Russell, —: [no Christian name, or other facts]. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Fairmedow 16 Oct. 1673.

See — Russell, admitted 1671.

Edgley, William: son of William: born "foronovii" [Newmarket], in the Suffolk quarter of the town. School: Bradley, Suffolk, under M^{r} Billingsley. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Andrewes 1 Nov. 1673. Age 16.

B.A. (Edgely) $167\frac{7}{8}$; M.A. (Edgley) 1682. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1679 Dec.: priest, Norwich, $168\frac{2}{3}$ March. Probably rector of Stradishall, Suffolk 1701. Died 1733, and was buried there.

Cudworth, Charles:

First found in the Lambeth Register 30 July 1681 where he describes himself as M.A. of Christ's College, [aged] over 24 years, and as being "by the locall statutes of the College obliged to be in full Orders, petitions his Grace for his licence or faculty whereby he may be enabled to receive the Holy Orders of Deacon and Priest at one and the same time from any Bishop." The petition was granted. There is no record of any Cha. Cudworth as M.A., or of Christ's, still less as a Fellow, who alone could be bound in this matter by the statutes. The simplest explanation is that this Cha. Cudworth made a false representation. He may be a son of the Master and admitted between Mich. 1677 and Mich. 1678 for which time the Adm. Book is blank: but he never graduated. If he was not ordained, he cannot be the son of D^{r} Cudworth, of immoral life, who applied (as recorded by Bishop Sherlock) for a prebend of Westminster, and was refused. But he is probably the Cha. Cudworth who appears in India in 1683. This is his record. "Factory Records, Kasinbazar III. Diary for Aug. 1683: Sunday, 19th: M^{r} Cha. Cudworth arrived from Maulda, who is ordered to reside. Diary for Feb. $168\frac{3}{4}$: M^{r} Cha. Cudworth was married to the widow M^{rs} Mary Prickman, daughter of M^{r} Cole deceased, and formerly wife to M^{r} Jonathan Prickman, second of Maulda: the marriage was solemnised by M^{r} Joh. Hayes after the manner of the Church of England. (Undated, but probably 12 Feb.) Diary for March $168\frac{3}{4}$: Wednesday 19: M^{r} Cha. Cudworth, 3rd of Council, departed this life last night about midnight, having been a long time sick of a flux." A M^{r} John Haynes (?) married his widow (J. C. W.). Presumably this Charles is the brother of Damaris, Lady Masham, Ralph's daughter, of whom

John Locke heard at Oates, while living there with Lady Masham and to whom he wrote 27 April 1683 (see King's Life and Correspondence of Locke, 2. 17), beginning "Tho' you are got quite to the other side of the world, yet you ceese not to make new acquaintance here: and the character you have left behind you makes your acquaintance to be sought after to the remotest parts of the earth." Locke continues that he has observed Lady Masham to speak of her brother "with more tenderness and concern than all the rest of the world": and as she is so good a judge he feels that her brother's friendship is not the least favour she has done him. It should be noted, however, that the name of the brother is not given by Locke: Mr Fox Bourne (Life of Locke, 1. 474) says it was written to Thomas Cudworth, "a son of the Master," I do not know on what evidence. He adds "Young Cudworth was a Fellow of Christ's College, who at the close of 1679 had obtained a seven years dispensation, extended in 1686 for another seven years in order that he might visit and reside in India." Now a Thomas Cudworth was Fellow but only from 1685 to 1687: he was son, not of Ralph, but of John, the girdler, of London, Ralph's brother; therefore cousin, not brother, to Damaris Masham: therefore Locke's letter is certainly not to him. It is possible that Ralph also had a son Thomas: he may have been the Thomas M.A. 1682 (whom see, page 70): there is evidence from the Study-rents that there were two Cudworths in residence at the same time: see under Tho. Cudworth, page 64. I have been unable to find the dispensations in the Cal. Dom. State Papers to which Mr Fox Bourne alludes: but whatever they be, they cannot alter the facts given above. I think there can be little doubt that Locke wrote to Charles Cudworth: Lady Masham may have had insight into the real character of a brother, who on other evidence seems to have been quite unsatisfactory. A Rob. Cudworth, son of Charles, was admitted in 1699: it is natural to guess that he was a posthumous son of this Charles: if so he was barely 15 at admission: whereas the age given is 17: but that proves little.

Atkinson, —: [no Christian name or facts given]. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 12 Feb. $167\frac{3}{4}$.

B.A. (Peter Atkinson) $167\frac{8}{9}$. Ordained deacon, York, 1678 Dec.: priest, $16\frac{79}{80}$ March. Perhaps the Peter Atkinson B.A. licensed to preach at Dunsby near Bourne, Lincs. 6 May 1684.

Pybus, Robert: son of John: born at Thrisk [Thirsk], Yorks. School: St Paul's, under Mr Gale ("doctor celeber"). Admitted pensioner under Mr Andrewes 18 Feb. $167\frac{3}{4}$. Age 17.

B.A. $167\frac{7}{8}$. John Pybus of Thirsk (1623–73) married Anne Wilson, also of Thirsk. Their third son, Robert, was born Aug. 1654 [sic]. Died Nov. 1683. (Hutchins, Dorset, 2. 237.)

Nightingale, Robert: son of Thomas, baronet: born at Great Bookham, Surrey. School: Stortford, under (1) Mr Cudworth, (2) Mr Conway. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mr Leigh 11 March $167\frac{3}{4}$. Age 16.

Robert Nightingale, son of Sir Thomas, of Langley, Essex, was admitted at Gray's Inn 14 Nov. 1676. Grandson (?) of the Sir Thomas who was created 1628 and built Clavering Park (so Morant).

Crompton, John: admitted as Crumpton: [father not given]: born in London. School: St Paul's, under (1) Mr Crumbleholme "ὁ μακαρίτης, ὁ πάνυ" [he died 1672], (2) Mr Gale. Admitted sizar under Mr Turner 28 March 1674. Age not given.

B.A. (Crompton) $167\frac{7}{8}$. Probably the John Crompton, of Christ's, of 20 years' practice in physic, said to be of 12 years' standing, who received the degree of Dr in Physic (Lambeth) 26 Nov. 1701 (Lamb. Regr.).

Browne, Edward: son of John: born at Milton, Leics. School: Milton, under M^r^ Daffey. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Andrewes 1 April 1674. Age 18.

B.A. $167\frac{7}{8}$. One of these names resigned the rectory of Waltham-on-the-Wolds, Leics. before May 1692. One was vicar of Thorpe Arnold, 16 June 1693. One was vicar of "Hanningdown alias West Wycombe" Bucks. 20 Feb. $171\frac{7}{8}$.

Sumpner, Samuel: [father not given]: born at Black Notley, Essex. School: Felstead, under M^r^ Glascock. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Lovett 16 April 1674. Age 18.

B.A. $167\frac{7}{8}$.

Fenton, William: son of William: born at Leeds. School: Leeds, under M^r^ Gilbert. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Lovett 25 April 1674. Age 17.

Matric^d^. 9 July 1674: resided till June or Mich. 1675.

Ixem, Thomas: son of John: born at Burton-Lazars, Leics. School: Laughton-[en-le-Morthen], Yorks., under M^r^ Bromhead. Admitted sizar under D^r^ More (surety M^r^ Lovett) 28 April 1674. Age 17.

B.A. $167\frac{7}{8}$. Perhaps son of John Ixem, admitted 1636 (who was beneficed for a short time in Northants.), and brother of John (1670). Tho. Ixem (described as M.A., probably by error) was ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1679 June, and licensed to cure of Clavering, Essex: priest, 1681 Dec., licensed to Great Munden. Vicar of Helpston 1682–1702. Rector of Folkingham, Lincs. (patron Ri. Wynn, armiger, perhaps the man admitted 1673) 10 Nov. 1702: buried there 3 March $172\frac{0}{1}$.

Naylour, Charles: son of Charles: born at Wakefield. School: Wakefield, under M^r^ Baskerville. Admitted pensioner [tutor not given] 1 May 1674. Age 15.

Matric^d^. (Nailour) 9 July 1674: resided till Mich. 1676.

Ward, Richard: son of John: born at Sheering, Essex. School: Stortford, under M^r^ Conway. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Leigh 8 May 1674. Age 16.

B.A. $167\frac{7}{8}$; M.A. 1681. Ordained deacon, London, 1678 Dec.: priest, London, 1680 Dec. Rector of Ingoldsby in succession to Mich. Selby who was buried Jan. $168\frac{4}{5}$: presented by D^r^ Henry More $168\frac{4}{5}$: died rector before March $172\frac{3}{4}$: but seems not to have resided later than 1707. He was also rector of Belton, six miles distant, 14 Dec. 1710–1724 (Turnor's Grantham, p. 98) by dispensation from Lambeth, on the presentation of Dame Alice Brownlow. Author: Life of Henry More: but the life contains nothing which bears on the life of the writer.

Iver, Elnathan: son of George: born at Brandford [Brentford], Midds. School: Thistleworth [Isleworth], under M^r^ Willis. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Turner 9 May 1674. Age 18.

B.A. 1677 Mids. One E. Ivor ordained priest, Chichester, 1708 Sept. Vicar of Ditchling, Sussex 10 Aug. 1715–1721, when he died. Also vicar of Wivelsfield 1718 till his death. Will dated 19 June 1721: apparently unmarried, as he mentions only three sisters. Desired to be buried at the N.W. side of the church "in the out-bounds of the rock, with as little company and charge as possible." Died 30 July 1721, age 66. M.I. outside west door of the church: but in the parish register he is given as buried Oct. 2 (probably by error for Aug. 2). (Inform^n^. from Rev. F. C. Norton, vicar.) Whether he was ordained late in life, or only deferred his priest's orders to the age of 53 cannot be decided.

Legard, Zachary: son of Robert: born at Scarborough. Educated at Helmsley by his brother Charles [of Sidney]. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Lovett 9 May 1674. Age 16.

B.A. 1680. Ordained deacon, York, 1680 Sept.: priest, 1682 June. I cannot connect him with the Legards of Ganton, Yorks., E.R. (pedigree in Genealogist, N.S. 22): but two sons of Sir John of Ganton, Thomas and William, were admitted here April 1677.

Lancaster, Timothy: "Colonus Trinitoniensis qui plura desiderat" [no more facts]. Admitted sizar [tutor not given] 20 May 1674.

Matric^{n}. not found, here or elsewhere. B.A. 1674 Mids., having kept his terms before admission here. "Trinitoniensis" seems formed on the analogy of Oxoniensis: so perhaps he was of Trin. Coll. Dublin: the last words, and the absence of further data (which it would be natural to give, if of Trin. Coll. Cambridge) point the same way. Possibly he was vicar of "Aykesgarth" [Aysgarth, Yorks.], March 168$\frac{2}{3}$ on the presentation of Trinity College, Cambridge.

Willey, Edward: son of Edward: born at Hulme [?], Yorks. School: Danby [Wiske], under M^{r} Smelt. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 22 May 1674. Age 18.

B.A. 167$\frac{7}{8}$; M.A. 1681. Ordained deacon, York, 1678 Sept.: priest, 1679 Sept. Vicar of Sherriff Hutton (north of York) 15 April 1700. Buried there, at the age of 81 [sic] after an incumbency of 34 years [sic], 10 Dec. 1735: "God grant that we may live and dye like him" is added to the entry in the register.

Ward, James: son of William: born at Settle. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Briggs. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 23 May 1674. Age 19.

B.A. 167$\frac{7}{8}$. Ordained deacon, York, 1678 Sept.: priest, 168$\frac{2}{3}$ March.

Bernard, Daniel: admitted as Barnard: son of Daniel: born at Burntwood [Brentwood], Essex. School: Brentwood, under M^{r} Bernard, his father. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 26 May 1674. Age 17.

Matric^{d}. (Bernard) 9 July 1674. Seems to have resided till Lady Day 1675, and his name is in Study-rents, without charge, for a year longer. Daniel, the father, was licensed to teach grammar at South Weal(d), Essex in 1661.

Golty, Samuel: son of Richard: born at Hutton, Essex. School: Brentwood, under M^{r} Bernard. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 26 May 1674. Age 16.

B.A. 167$\frac{7}{8}$. Richard, the father, was minister of Hutton near Brentwood in 1648 and rector of Bradwell 24 June 1673. A Sam. Golty, rector of St Clement's, Ipswich, and of Dennington till his death in 1683, was of St Catharine's and possibly uncle of our Samuel: who was ordained deacon, London, 1679 Dec.

Park, Laurence: son of John: born at Waberthwaite, Cumberland. School: Kendal, under M^{r} Jackson. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 28 May 1674. Age 21.

B.A. 1678 Mids. One of these names was rector of Barton St Andrew, Norfolk, 1689–1716: and also vicar of Wiggenhall St Mary, till his death in 1716. (Blomefield, 4. 52, 767.) The praelector (John Turner) gives the following incoherent account of M^{r} Park's entrance at (and, apparently, his first exit from) Cambridge. "Academiam pauper adiit, sed tempore quo diuit(is), (at end of line) haereditatem (? verb omitted) eodem animo quo theatrum ille qui ideo venerat tantum ut exiret, nam natus annos 21 et quod excurrit, quod erat opinor temporis non plane nihil, saltem si anni tam longi sunt in Borea degentibus quam sunt miliaria, quum sizatoribus dedisset nomen sponsore magistro Lovett, eosdem calceos itineris utriusque comites mira celeritate domum repertavit." He finally declared for life in the south!

Slinger, John: [no facts given]. Admitted 30 May 1674.

Perhaps third son of Tempest Slinger of Catlow, Yorks., and brother of Nic. Slinger admitted 1670. Not found in Study-rents.

Barwick, William: [no facts given]. Admitted 30 May 1674.

Matric^{d}. pensioner 9 July 1674: B.A. $167\frac{7}{8}$. Ordained deacon, York, 1678 Dec.

Bean, John: [father not given]: born at West Stanley [near Wakefield], Yorks. Taught by M^{r} Wright. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 30 May 1674. Age not given.

B.A. (Beane) $167\frac{7}{8}$. Ordained deacon, York, 1679 June: priest, Sept. Rector of Brandsby near Gilling, Yorks. 1682; which he held till his death more than 50 years later. He was buried 15 Nov. 1733, and Ann, presumably his wife, on 26 December of the same year. Baptisms of one daughter (Anna) and four sons, John, George, William and Thomas, occur between 1694 and 1705 (Rev. W. M. Scott, vicar).

Poynton, Ellis: or Elias: son of Edward: born at Little Huckley [Hucklow, in Hope parish], Derbs. School: Dronfield, under M^{r} Mason. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Andrewes 1 June 1674. Age 18.

B.A. (Elias) 1677 Mids. Brother of John, admitted 1666: the father Edward, died 1674, and was buried at Hope. Ordained (Elias) deacon, Lichfield, 1677 Sept.: priest, York, 1681 Sept. Vicar of Alveton, Staffs. 2 Jan. $169\frac{2}{3}$, presented by Geo. Rodney of Bridges. Vicar of Rocester, Staffs. 4 July 1698. Married Alice, daughter of Tho. Pendleton, and had many children. Died 20 April 1699 "deservedly lamented" (M.I. in Rocester church). His widow died Sept. 1701. (Rev. F. J. Poynton of Kelston, Bath.)

Sedgwick, —: [no Christian name or father]. [Admitted at Magdalene.] At Christ's sizar 5 June 1674.

B.A. (Ri. Sedgswicke) 1674 Mids. Instituted, as of Christ's College (see Baker, Northants. 1. 29), rector of Little Billing, 9 June 1718, patron, George Dixon: buried there 15 Sept. 1737.

Scruton, Richard: [father not given]: born in Scruton, Richmondshire. School: Bishop Wearmouth, under M^{r} Broughton. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Andrewes 5 June 1674. Age not given.

B.A. $167\frac{7}{8}$; M.A. 1681. Rector of Middleton St George, Durham 1690–3 (Surtees, 3. 224).

Grey, Ralph: [father not given, nor birthplace]. School: Houghton-[le-Spring, Durham], under M^{r} Caunt. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Andrewes 5 June 1674. Age 16.

B.A. $167\frac{7}{8}$; M.A. 1686. One Ra. Grey, son of Ralph of Bradford near Bamburgh, and of Eliz. Burrell, was born Dec. 1656 (Bateson, Northumb^{d}. 1. 305). Ordained priest, Lincoln, $168\frac{0}{1}$ Feb. According to Davy Ra. Grey was curate of All Saints, Newcastle, 1686: but Brand does not give him. Ralph the elder was son of John (himself third son of Sir Ralph of Chillingham) who bought Bradford of Thomas Bradford, a Colonel in the Parliamentarian army, killed in Ireland.

Purchas, Thomas: son of Benjamin: born at Richmond. School: "Mask" [Marske], under M^{r} Sedgwick. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 5 June 1674. Age 16.

B.A. $167\frac{7}{8}$; M.A. 1681. Ordained deacon, York, $168\frac{2}{3}$ March; priest, $168\frac{3}{4}$ Feb. Of Langton near Richmond. Married 27 Dec. 1682 Catharine Thornton of East Newton, Yorks. (Hunter, F.M.G. 768).

Fawcet, John: son of Giles: born at Marrich Abbot [near Richmond], Yorks. School: Marske, under Mr Sedgwick. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 5 June 1674. Age 18.

B.A. (Fawcitt) 1677 Mids.; M.A. 1681. Ordained deacon, York, 1677 July: priest, 1681 May.

Lakeland, Richard: [father not given]: born at Stainforth [near Settle], Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under Mr Briggs. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 8 June 1674. Age 19.

B.A. 1677 Mids.

Sylvester, Nicholas: son of James: born at Twyford, Staffs. [? Derbs.] School: Tamworth, under Mr Antrobus. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 10 June 1674. Age 17.

B.A. $167\frac{7}{8}$. Ordained deacon, York, 1680 June: priest, 1681 May. One of these names rector of Shirland 1681–8. (Cox, Derbs. Churches, 4. 477.)

Hankey, Henry: son of "Ericius" [John Turner (praelector) writes "Ericius," by mistake for Henricus]: born at Knutsford, Cheshire. School: Tamworth, under Mr Antrobus. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 10 June 1674. Age 16.

B.A. $167\frac{7}{8}$ (Hen. Hankey). Ordained deacon (Henry), Worcester, Dec. 1679; and curate of Tamworth. Probably the Henry Hankey B.A. who was rector of Wanstead, Essex, 26 Nov. 1689. Died there before July 1707.

Marley, Philip: admitted as Morley: son of Cuthbert: born at Winston, Durham. School: Brignall, under Mr Jo(h)nson. Admitted pensioner under Mr Andrewes 20 June 1674. Age 17.

B.A. (Marley) $167\frac{7}{8}$. Son of Cuthbert Marley (1640) afterwards rector of Winston (1660–72). The last of his name at the College.

Man, John: [no facts given]. Admitted sizar under Mr Andrewes 20 June 1674. Age not given.

B.A. (Mann) $167\frac{7}{8}$.

White, Robert: son of Thomas: born at Bondon [?], Durham. School: Durham, under Mr Battersby. Admitted sizar under Mr Andrewes 27 June 1674. Age 17.

B.A. 1677 Mids.

Blanchard, Richard: son of Richard: born at York. School: "Potington" [Pocklington], "institutus quantum eius indoles ferebat," under Mr Ellison. Admitted pensioner under Dr Widdrington 29 June 1674. Age 15.

Matricd. 9 July 1674: resided till Mich. 1675. Admitted at the Inner Temple 18 Nov. 1675. His son William born at "Akam" [? Acklam], Yorks. was admitted 1706.

Webster, Robert: [probably Joseph]: son of Henry: born at Bourningham [? Birmingham], Warwick. School: Bourningham, under Mr Brokesley. Admitted sizar under Mr Fairmedow 29 June 1674. Age 17.

Robert Webster is not elsewhere found: but Joseph Webster was matricd. July 1677: B.A. 1677 Mids.: ordained deacon, Lichfield, 1679 Sept.

Jackson, Samuel: son of Charles: born at Oxton, Notts. School: Oxton, under Mr Birch. Admitted sizar under Mr Fairmedow 1 July 1674. Age 18.

Probably never resided.

Daniel, Samuel: son of John: born at Hartshorn, Derbs. School: Repton, under Mr Litherland. Admitted sizar under Mr Andrewes 3 July 1674. Age 20.

B.A. $167\frac{7}{8}$; M.A. 1683. Ordained deacon, Lichfield, 1678 Sept.: priest, Lincoln, 1680 June. Vicar of Rothley, Leics. 25 June 1691–1734. Chaplain to the Earl of Burlington: as such licensed to hold also Cossington (patron Tho. Babington) 3 Aug. 1704. Died 30 Oct. 1735, aged 82; and buried in the church at Rothley. (Rev. Ri. Burton, vicar.)

Blaickley, John: admitted as Blakelay: [matric^{d}. Blackley]: [father not given]: born at Hanworth. School: Merchant Taylors', under D^{r} Goad. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 4 July 1674. Age 16.

B.A. (Blaickley) $167\frac{7}{8}$; M.A. 1681. Ordained deacon (Blaickley), London, 1678 Sept.: priest, 1681 May.

Ward, Roger: son of Northcoate: born at Skipton. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Briggs. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 4 July 1674. Age 14.

Matric^{d}. 24 March $167\frac{4}{5}$: resided till Mich. 1675. One Roger Ward was apprenticed to Tho. Dealtry, apothecary of York in 1677: admitted into the Merchants' Company 1685. Married 1697 Eliz. Bolton of St Belfry's, York. Will proved by his widow 1714 (Yorks. Arch. Journal, 2. 115).

Cleaveland, William: son of William: born at Oldbury, Salop. School: "Laterdini" [probably Leintwardine, Hereford], under M^{r} Lloyd. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 7 July 1674. Age 17.

B.A. $167\frac{7}{8}$; M.A. 1681. Son of Will. Cleveland, brother of John, the poet, and rector of Oldbury who died 1666. Ordained deacon, Worcester, March $167\frac{7}{8}$; curate of Buildwas. Married Elizabeth, daughter of John Rogerson of Bridgnorth. Rector of Upton Cressett, near Bridgnorth, 1681. Vicar of Dudley, Worcs. 1684. Died there 5 June 1721. (Nichols' Hinckley, 135.)

Harrison, —: [no facts given]. Admitted 7 July 1674.

Probably Rob. Harrison, B.A. 1677 Mids.; M.A. 1682. Born at Hadleigh, Suffolk, about 1657. Ordained deacon, London, 1678 Dec.; priest, Norwich, 1682 Dec. One Rob. Harrison M.A. rector of Great Horkesley, Essex 29 Aug. 1683–1733, when he died. Two others possible, beneficed one in Leics. (but probably of Magd. Hall, Oxford): the other in Cheshire.

Fetherstone, George: son of William: born near Carlisle. School: Holt, Norfolk, under M^{r} Bainbridge. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 8 July 1674. Age 16.

B.A. $167\frac{7}{8}$; M.A. 1682. Born at Alston in Cumberland. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1678 Sept., and licensed to Foardam [Fordham], Cambs.: priest, 1680 June. Rector of Bintree, Norfolk 1688–1721 (Blomefield, 4. 372). Is he also the Geo. Fetherstonehaugh (as given by Blomefield) rector of North Creake, who died 1721 (ib. 4. 378)?

Smelt, Leonard: son of Leonard: born at Kirkby Fleetham. School: Northallerton, under M^{r} Smelt. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Leigh 23 Sept. 1674. Age 16.

Resided till Lady Day 1677. Admitted at Gray's Inn 6 May 1675. Eldest son of Leonard of Kirkby Fleetham by his wife Anne, daughter of John Wastell of Scorton: and first cousin of Thomas, admitted 1663. Inherited under his grandfather's will £20 yearly from 17 to 25, to pay for his education (Yorksh. Wills, ix. 166). M.P. for Northallerton 1713, 1714, 1722 and 1727. Married Grace, daughter of Sir Will. Franklin (or Frankland) of Thirkleby, son of Sir Henry, admitted 1626. Dissipated his property, and disinherited his eldest son. His second son, William, was father of Leonard Smelt, the engineer (see D.N.B.).

Smelt, John: son of Leonard: born at Kirkby Fleetham. School: Northallerton, under M^{r} Smelt. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Leigh 23 Sept. 1674. Age 15.

Brother of Leonard. Resided till Lady Day 1677. Admitted at Gray's Inn

6 May 1675. I do not know in what relation these two Smelts stood to their school-master Tho. Smelt, who was not himself of Christ's, but sent here his two sons, Lucas in 1660 and Thomas in 1664, and many other pupils. Possibly he was uncle of Leonard Smelt, senior, who was of Sidney.

Danby, John: son of Thomas: born at Keighley, Yorks. School: Bingley, under M^{r} Rawson. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Leigh 23 Sept. 1674. Age 17.

B.A. 167$\frac{8}{9}$. Thomas, the father, was vicar of Keighley 1660–75. John, the son, was ordained deacon, York, 1679 Dec.

Danby, Thomas: son of Thomas: born at Keighley, Yorks. School: Bingley, under M^{r} Rawson. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Leigh 23 Sept. 1674. Age 14.

B.A. 167$\frac{8}{9}$. Brother of John (above). Ordained deacon, York, 168$\frac{1}{2}$ March: priest, 168$\frac{3}{4}$ Feb. One Tho. Danby rector of Shawell, Leics. 8 July 1692, but removed 1696, it is supposed through some defect in his title (Nichols, 4. 340). He was presented by one Thomas Pryor, patron for this turn only. One of these names was vicar of Preston, Northants. 29 April 1720.

Parkes, Christopher: son of Christopher: born at Bolton on Swale. School: Thornton, under M^{r} Parkes. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Leigh 23 Sept. 1674. Age 16.

Matric^{d}. 15 Dec. 1674. Buried at Great St Andrew's ("Parkes, scholar") 17 April 1676.

Percevale, Robert (or John): son of John, baronet: born at Kinsale, Ireland. Taught "sub informatore non uno." Admitted fellow-commoner under D^{r} Widdrington 15 Oct. 1674. Age 16.

Matric^{d}. as John Percevale, 15 Dec. 1674. Admitted at Lincoln's Inn 5 Feb. 167$\frac{6}{7}$. Sir John of Tickenham, Somerset, and of Burton, County Cork married Catharine, daughter of Rob. Southwell of Kinsale;—a man (says R. Widdrington) "tam literis quam in litteratos amore celeberrimus": Sir John was sent over to Ireland in 1653 to arrange for the transportation of Roman Catholics into Connaught: afterwards he was sworn of Charles II's privy council. Robert (born 8 Feb. 1657) was murdered by an unknown hand in the Strand 5 June 1677 and buried at Lincoln's Inn. John, the next brother, succeeded his father in the Baronetcy (Collins' Peerage, 7. 382). Only one was resident here—and that for the half-year ending Lady Day 1675.

Norwich, Joseph: son of John, baronet: born at Brampton, Northants. School: Harborough. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 30 Oct. 1674. Age 19.

Resided till Lady Day 1678. Third (and youngest) of the sons of Sir John Norwich (1629), of Brampton, who succeeded him, at this College: the only son of his second wife, Mary, daughter of Ri. Atkins of Cheshunt. He is not found in the pedigree in Bridges (Northants. 2. 282), but is given by Nichols (Leics. II. ii. 519). He was born 1655, and was alive, unmarried, in 1682.

Audley, Robert: son of Robert, armiger: born "Biggleswerthi" [probably Biggleswade], Beds. School: Scriven-Knotting [? now Knotting], Beds. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 30 Oct. 1674. Age 17.

B.A. 167$\frac{8}{9}$.

Read, Jonathan: [father not given]: born at Ely. School: Huntingdon. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Fairmedow 6 Nov. 1674. Age 17. [Appears in the Admission Book after Tim. Caryl (Carrell) admitted 24 March 167$\frac{4}{5}$.]

Matric^{d}. 8 July 1675: B.A. 1678. Ordained deacon, Peterborough, 1680 Sept. One Jonathan Read was rector of North Cray, Kent 1701; died 1709. (Hasted, 1. 159.)

Hammatt, John:
Admitted at St Edmund's Hall, Oxford, 25 June 1674, aged 16, son of John of Taunton, Somerset, plebeius: B.A. 1678; M.A. (Christ's) 1681. Vicar of Stantonbury, Bucks. 1679. Rector of Emmington, Oxford 1684. Rector of Clist St George, Devon 1695 (Al. Ox.).

Heye, Robert: son of John: born at Skipton. School: Burnsall. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 15 Jan. $167\frac{4}{5}$. Age 16.
B.A. $167\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. 1684. Master of Burnsall School, in Wharfdale 1682 (or –3) till 19 Jan. $169\frac{4}{5}$, when he died aged 36. A long inscription in Burnsall church by his son John Heye of Skierholme (Morant-Whitaker, Craven, 505)—with the usual reference to the Sparta which he adorned.

Bicknell, Edward: son of John: born at Milverton, Somerset. School: Milverton. Admitted at Oxford: then at Christ's pensioner under M^{r} Turner 8 Feb. $167\frac{4}{5}$. Age 23.
B.A. $167\frac{4}{5}$. Admitted at St Edmund's Hall, Oxford, 6 March $166\frac{7}{8}$, aged 17. Vicar of Bradford, Somerset, 31 May 1682; presented by Edm. Parker of Berrington, Devon. Held it till his death in 1711. Buried there 8 May. (Weaver, Somerset Incumbents, 315.)

Brown, Charles: son of Edmund: born at Thistleworth [Isleworth], Midds. School: Isleworth. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Turner 8 March $167\frac{4}{5}$. Age 23.
Matric^{n}. not found. Probably never resided.

Eskrigg, Robert: son of Robert: born at Eskrigg, Lancs. School at Kirkby [? Lonsdale]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 16 March $167\frac{4}{5}$. Age 17.
B.A. $167\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. 1682. One M^{r} Eskrigg was ordained priest, Peterborough, 1681 Feb. One of these names vicar of Ravenstone, Bucks. 20 Dec. 1680, patron, Heneage, Lord Finch of Daventry, whose son Edward was at Christ's, 1677–9. Had license of non-residence April 1693. Buried there 27 Sept. 1721 (Lipscombe, 4. 320). Also P.C. of Weston Underwood 15 April 1684–92 (ib. 404).

Nightingale, Wilfrid: eldest son of Wilfrid, armiger: born at Kneesworth, Cambs. School: St Neots. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 22 March $167\frac{4}{5}$. Age not given.
Matric^{d}. 8 July 1675. Buried at Great St Andrew's 13 March $167\frac{5}{6}$.

Caryl, Timothy: son of Sampson: born in Surrey. Educated "mediocriter" at Kingston. Admitted sizar under D^{r} Widdrington 24 March $167\frac{4}{5}$. Age 16.
B.A. $167\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. 1682. Vicar of St Mary, Nottingham, 25 Oct. 1693–98. Prebendary of Southwell (Rampton) 20 June 1695. Admitted to second mediety of rectory of Cotgrave 2 May 1698 (to the first mediety on June 30): patron, Evelyn, Lord Kingston, who was admitted at Christ's in 1683: possibly he was Caryl's pupil. Buried at Southwell 19 Sept. 1721.

Rutland, Simon: son of Simon: born at Stortford, Herts. School: Stortford. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 2 April 1675. Age 16.
M.B. 1680. Practised medicine at Brentwood. Died of smallpox 21 May 1682 on his 23rd birthday: buried at Stortford: M.I. given by Chauncy (Herts. 1. 330).

Bugg, James: son of James: of Suffolk. School: Ely. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Fairmedow 16 April 1675. Age 17.
Resided till Mich. 1676. Presumably the Ja. Bugg son of Ja. Bugg of Lakenheath by his wife Frances Rowley: "of the city of Ely aged 25 unmarried" in 1684 (Cambs. Visitation given in Genealogist, 3. 240). He had a brother Francis younger by one year. In the College Acc^{ts}., Mich^{s}. 1698 there is a charge "to Bug for his book against the Quakers, as other Colleges, 10/0": and a year later "Fra. Bugg the reformed Quaker" gets 17/0: perhaps he was the author of the book, but in Lowndes Francis' earliest work is given as of 1700, The Pilgrim's Progress from Quakerism to Christianity and in 1705 he is credited with The Mystery of the little Whore unfolded.

Brown, Walter: son of William: of Yorks. Admitted 20 April 1675: with the following sarcasm by Ra. Widdrington: "horam unam vel alteram Cantabrigiae, si pote, sine fructu collocaturus ideo tantum Christi Collegium ingressus est ut exiret, aetatis suae 20: solvit tamen Collegio 10*s.* 0*d.*"

I have nowhere else met with Walter Brown.

Freeman, John: son of John: born at Wilby, Northants. School: Strixton. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Fairmedow 6 May 1675. Age 16.

Matric^{d}. 8 July 1675.

Wilkson, Roger: [father not given]: born at Prestiff [? Pentrich, to the east, or Parwich to the west of Wirksworth], Derbs. School: Wirksworth, under M^{r} Crosedale. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Turner 10 May 1675. Age 18.

Matric^{d}. (Wilkson) 8 July 1675: but there is no other trace of him.

Ashwell, Nathaniel: son of Nicholas: born in London. Educated at Earl's Colne, Essex. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Turner 21 May 1675. Age 19.

B.A. 1678 Mids.; M.A. 1706. Born in Ludgate Street, London (Norwich Reg^{r}.). Ordained deacon, London, 1679 Sept.: priest, Norwich, 1680 June. Rector of Offton and Little Bricett, Suffolk, 31 Aug. 1681. Rector of Peldon, Essex, 12 Sept. 1690: gone before June 1725 (Morant, 2. 419). Nicholas, the father, was perhaps vicar of Assington, Suff. up to 1683, and vicar of Earl's Colne, 1683–90.

Isham, John: third son of Justinian, baronet, "vir ab omnibus ingenii doctrinaeque praesidiis instructissimus." Of Northants. [Lamport]. Admitted pensioner (afterwards fellow-commoner) under D^{r} More 29 May 1675. Age 15.

Matric^{d}. 8 July 1675. M.A. 1679. Sir Justinian (1627) sent his two eldest sons (by his second wife) Thomas and Justinian to Ch. Ch., Oxford to be followed by later generations: John and his sixth brother Henry ($168\frac{4}{5}$) came to Cambridge. John was elected Fellow (succeeding John Turner) before Xmas 1681: his last payment was at Mich^{s}. 1685: in the Study-rents he appears till 1686: Adam Wall mentions that he continued Fellow without being in Holy Orders: that the question of his position was raised at the time appears from a memorandum in the Order Book, signed by himself: "If M^{r} Isham do not preach a Hawford Preacher's course by Midsummer next, or give notice to the College, he will forfeit the place and another may be nominated": 19 Oct. 1683. On 20 Nov. 1685 he was admitted at the Inner Temple. He was Under Secretary of State when Lord Nottingham was in office: many of his letters are preserved at Lamport: he had to do as Commissioner with the settlement of estates in Ireland. He married Frances, daughter of Sir Ri. Ashfield, and had two sons and one daughter. In 1702 he gave £50 to the Chapel fund. Died 1746, aged 86.

Fyge, Thomas: son of Thomas, pharmacopola: born in London. School: Stafford, under M^{r} Taylor. Admitted [no tutor given] a pensioner 3 June 1675. Age 15.

Matric^{d}. 8 July 1675: resided as a pupil of M^{r} Lovett till Lady Day 1676. Valentine Figge (or Fyge) also an apothecary [? grandfather] of Christ Church, London was married 10 Oct. 1626 to Marg. Blake, spinster.

Armitstead, James: admitted as Armstead: son of William: born in London. School: Giggleswick. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 15 June 1675. Age 16.

B.A. (Armitstead) $167\frac{8}{9}$. There were Armitsteads at Stainforth, at Langcliff, at Clapham, and at Long Preston—all near Settle. William, the father, was probably a member of one of these families who had gone up to London.

Sandeforth, Miles: (Milo Sandforth): son of George: born at Wakefield. School: Giggleswick. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 15 June 1675. Age 16.

B.A. (Sandeforth) $167\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. 1682. Probably vicar of Hooton Pagnell, near Doncaster 1691, where he rebuilt the parsonage-house. Died there 1696. (Hunter, S. Yorks. 2. 146.)

Nicholls, Nathaniel: son of Edward: born in Beds., but "Hybernus si genus reputamus." School: Kimbolton. Admitted pensioner under Mr Fairmedow 16 June 1675. Age 17.

B.A. $167\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. 1682: one of these names (Nichols) but no College, B.D. (com. reg.) 1728—but probably of Pembroke, Oxford; and son of Nathaniel of Kidderminster.

Choyce, John: son of Richard: of Derbs. School "Ripponi" [probably Repton]. Admitted sizar under Mr Turner 17 June 1675. Age 17.

B.A. $167\frac{8}{9}$. Perhaps the John Choyce rector of Manby, Lincs. 11 Oct. 1704, presented by John Goodrick, armiger: resided there and died: was buried 22 Feb. $172\frac{0}{1}$: his wife and a daughter were buried within six months of his death. A MS. sermon preached by him on Easter Sunday 1716 survives at the rectory. (Rev. F. H. Hall, rector.)

Wright, Alexander: son of Thomas, M.D.: born at Peterborough. School: Peterborough. Admitted sizar under Mr Fairmedow 17 June 1675. Age 16.

B.A. $167\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. 1682. Probably the man who (as B.A.) was instituted vicar of Great Grimsby 29 June 1681, patron Sir Henry Heron. His signature does appear in the registers of St James: but they are mutilated during his incumbency. Held it till 1690: not buried there.

Rayner, John: son and heir of John, armiger: born at [East] Drayton, Notts. School: Markham. Admitted fellow-commoner under Dr Widdrington 17 June 1675. Age 13.

Matricd. 8 July 1675: B.A. 1678 Mids. Admitted at Gray's Inn 12 May 1677. Son of John Rayner of East Drayton and of Mary Goodwin of Rawmarsh, Yorks. Married Ann, daughter of Sir Will. Hickman. (Hunter, F.M.G. 160.)

Landen, Benet (Benedictus): [no facts given]. Admitted pensioner 17 June 1675.

Matricn. not found. A pupil of Mr Lynford, but probably for one term only. There is a pedigree of Landens of Dalby, Lincs. (Maddison, 602) to which this Benet may have belonged: but it does not come far enough: there was a Benet of Dalby admitted at the Middle Temple in 1604—apparently the same who died before 1653 (Maddison) leaving a son Edward—possibly the father of our man.

Birch, Samuel: son of Samuel, of Lancashire. Educated at Markham, Notts. by his father, the vicar. Admitted sizar under Dr Widdrington 17 June 1675. Age not given.

B.A. $167\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. 1682. Perhaps of the Birch family of Ardwick, Manchester, in which Samuel is a common name: one Samuel was living in Manchester 1683 (given by Hunter, F.M.G. 1140, but no sons given). One was vicar of Basford near Nottingham 12 May 1682: resigned before May 1707: the same probably rector of Adbolton 26 March 1691. One Samuel was "of Nottingham town," clerk; his son Sam. was matric^{d}. at Merton, Oxford 1711. Aged 17.

Birch, John: son of Samuel: of Lancashire. Educated at Markham, Notts. by his father. Admitted sizar under D^{r} Widdrington 17 June 1675. Age not given.

B.A. $167\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. 1682. Younger brother of Samuel, above. Ordained deacon, York, 1681 Sept.: priest, $168\frac{2}{3}$ March. One of these names was rector of All Saints, South Elmham, up to 1705–6, when a Sam. Birch succeeded him: one (perhaps the same) was rector of Houghton Conquest, Beds. 29 Oct. 1706. One was vicar of Wantage, Berks. in 1692.

Pilkington, Thomas: son of Lionel, baronet: born in Kent. School: York. Admitted pensioner under D^{r} Widdrington 18 June 1675. Age not given.

Transferred by D^{r} Widdrington to M^{r} Lyndford in October: resided till Lady Day 1676. Second son of Sir Lyon (as given by Hunter, S. Yorks. 2. 394) of Stainby, Yorks., by his wife Amy, daughter of Thomas Eggleton of Grove, Bucks. His grandmother was Phœbe Moyle of Buckwell, Kent. He died without issue (Kimber, 3. 353).

Perman, George: son of George: of Hunts. School: (1) Grantham: (2) Newark. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Standish 24 June 1675. Age not given.

B.A. $167\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. 1682. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1681 Sept.: licensed to Ruskington: priest, 1682 June: licensed to Owersby. Vicar of Owersby 24 July 1682, patron, Sir John Monson.

Lodge, Henry: son of Henry: of Yorks. School: Giggleswick. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 26 June 1675. Age 20.

Matric^{n}. not found.

Graham, Richard: admitted as Grahme: eldest son of Richard, baronet: born at Norton Conyers, Richmondshire. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lynford 27 Sept. 1675. Age 13.

Matric^{d}. 15 Dec. 1675: resided till Mich. 1677. Son of Sir Richard ($165\frac{2}{3}$)—created a baronet by Charles II in 1662—by his wife Eliz., daughter of Col. Chichester Fortescue: "egregiae indolis adolescens." Died in the lifetime of his father: who was succeeded by his third son Reginald (Kimber, 2. 270).

Luck, William: son of Richard, M.D.: born at Newcastle. School: (1) Newcastle: (2) Charterhouse: (3) Bury St Edmunds. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lynford 27 Sept. 1675. Age not given.

Matric^{d}. 6 July 1676: resided till Mich. 1678. Admitted at the Inner Temple 23 Nov. 1677. His father, Richard, was one of the last "town's physicians" at Newcastle, appointed 4 Nov. 1664 (Brand, 2. 363): the next appointment recorded is that of Henry Atherton (of Christ's) in 1682.

Morehouse, Nehemiah:

Matric^{d}. sizar Dec. 1675: B.A. $167\frac{9}{80}$; M.A. 1683. Born at Castleford, W.R., Yorks., about 1657 (Norwich Register): his father, the rector, was silenced in 1662 but afterwards conformed. (Calamy-Palmer, 2. 599.) Ordained deacon and priest, Norwich, 1680 June.

At this point—the last entry of the academical year 1674–5, the first Admission book abruptly closes, though only half full. It contains nothing more, except at a few pages from the end a memorandum dated 12 May 1671 concerning James Everard the manciple.

For some reason, Thomas Lynford, praelector for the year 1676–7, copied out into the new book the entries already made by D^r^ Widdrington in the old one from 15 Oct. 1674 (beginning with Rob. Percevale) down to 27 Sept. 1675 (Will. Luck). Except in one case no new facts are added (but there are some more exquisite terms in the phraseology).

This second book contains the entries from 15 Oct. 1674 to 21 June 1859. It is less well kept than the first: and has numerous blank spaces for one or even two years, where the praelector had wholly neglected his duty. The first of these is the year 1675–6. The list of members admitted in it can be recovered from the University matriculation and graduation lists; but imperfectly: the whole number is but fifteen, which is far below the average of the admissions at this date. It is not creditable to Lynford that he did not take the trouble to insert the entries for the missing year 1675–6, which he could with ease have recovered, and that he passes from Mich. 1675 to Mich. 1676 without any indication of a blank.

Farrer, Henry:

Matric^d^. pensioner 1676 July: a pupil of M^r^ Waterhouse: B.A. $16\frac{79}{80}$, incorp^d^. Oxford, 13 Dec. 1682; M.A. (Christ's) 1683. Son of William of Eawood, Yorks. (Al. Ox. 486): ordained deacon, York, 1683 Dec.: priest, 1684 May. Rector of Hemsworth near Wakefield 1685: died there before July 1718. His son, John, was matric^d^. from Univ. Coll., Oxford, 30 Oct. 1706, aged 18: succeeded his father at Hemsworth.

Whelpdall, John:

Matric^d^. sizar 1676 July: a pupil of M^r^ Lynford: B.A. $16\frac{79}{80}$. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, $168\frac{9}{1}$ Feb.: licensed to curacy of Markfield, Leics. Perhaps rector of Hareby, Lincs. 13 Nov. 1696, patron John Bryan. Rector of Roughton, Lincs. 12 May 1704: also of Scrivelsby (contiguous); patron (of both), Louis Dymoke.

One of the same names (possibly the same man) was rector of Vange All Saints, under the Langdon Hills, Essex 6 April 1685: resigned before December 1704.

Reeve, Ralph:

Matric^d^. sizar 1676 July: resided till Lady Day 1680 but took no degree. A pupil of M^r^ Lovett. One Ralph Reeve was chaplain of Kirkby in the parish of Walton on the Hill, near Liverpool 1689–1722 (Croston-Baines, 5. 111).

Parkinson, John:

Matric^d^. sizar 1676 July: a pupil of M^r^ Lovett: B.A. $16\frac{79}{80}$. On 7 Oct. 1680 one Joh. Parkinson received £7. 10*s*. as usher at Giggleswick school. In Oct. 1684 he seems to have been (at least, acting) head-master; and on 4 April 1685 his father, Robert, received for him "in full" £13. 10*s*. On 12 June 1685 John Armitstead became head-master. (Extracts from Governor's Minute book in Yorkshire Schools (A. F. Leach) 2. 282.)

Hodgson, Aaron: also spelt Hodson.

Matric^d^. sizar (Hoddson) 1676 July: a pupil of M^r^ Waterhouse (as Hodgson in Study-rents): B.A. (Hodgson) $16\frac{79}{80}$; M.A. (Hudson) 1683. Ordained priest, London (Hodgson), $168\frac{5}{6}$ Feb.

Browne, James:

Matric^d^. sizar 1676 July. Not found elsewhere.

Pighells, John:
Matric^{d}. sizar 1676 July. A pupil of M^{r} Waterhouse till Mich. 1677.

Carr, Robert:
Matric^{d}. sizar 1676 July: a pupil of M^{r} Lovett: B.A. $16\frac{79}{80}$. Probably one of the many Carrs from Giggleswick School. Ordained deacon, York, $16\frac{79}{80}$ March: priest, 1681 May. One Robert Carr was instituted rector of Kirkby in Cleveland: died rector of Kirkby with Broughton before July 1727, when he was succeeded by Ri. Carr, M.A. (possibly admitted here 1680).

Armitstead, Anthony:
Matric^{d}. sizar 1676 July: pupil of M^{r} Lovett: B.A. $168\frac{0}{1}$. Ordained deacon, York, $168\frac{0}{1}$ Feb.: priest, 1681 Sept.

The four who follow first appear at Christ's as Graduates.

Wray, George:
B.A. $16\frac{79}{80}$. Earlier history unknown: matric^{n}. not found. Ordained deacon, York, 1682 June.

Clapham, Thomas:
B.A. $16\frac{79}{80}$. Matriculated sizar (Trin. Hall), 16 March $167\frac{5}{6}$. Ordained deacon, York, 1680 Sept.: priest, 1682 Sept. Rector of Newton Kyme, near Tadcaster, Yorks. 8 March $169\frac{1}{2}$, patron Tho. Fairfax, Baron Cameron. Died there before April 1725.

Lloyd, John:
B.A. $16\frac{79}{80}$; M.A. 1683. Son of Tho. Lloyd, born at Halton, Flint, and educated at Eton: matric^{d}. from King's 6 July 1676: migrated to Christ's in 1679 where he was a pupil of M^{r} Lovett (4 July 1679). Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1681 Sept.: priest, 1682 June: licensed to Taplow, Bucks. One of these names was rector of Wickenby, Lincs. 5 March $169\frac{9}{0}$: presented by Sir Tho. Barnardiston: again (the same name) 4 April 1709, presented by Sir Tho. Willoughby. One was vicar of Ashby, Lincs. 13 June 1715: gone before Aug. 1719.

Drake, John:
M.B. 1681. He appears in Study-rents as a pupil of M^{r} Lynford before Mich^{s}. 1679. At Lady Day 1681 he appears as "M^{r}" Drake.

Here the Admission book reopens after Mich. 1676.

Molyneux, John: [no facts given]. Admitted a pensioner [date not given] 1676, and resided as such for some weeks when he became a fellow-commoner [before Oct. 15].
Matric^{d}. as fellow-commoner July 1677, and resided as pupil of M^{r} Fairmedow till Mich. 1678. Probably he was the second son of Sir John Molyneux (1640) of Teversall, Notts.; and brother of Francis (1672). Admitted at Gray's Inn 7 March $167\frac{3}{4}$. According to Kimber (1. 64) he died unmarried. One of these names was admitted at Douai April 1694 (Douai Diaries, 86).

Rolles, Daniel: son of Samuel, "theologo-medicus": born in London. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 13 Oct. 1676. Age not given.
Matric^{d}. 1677 July: resided (as a fellow-commoner under M^{r} Lynford) till Mich. 1679: Samuel, the father, was perhaps minister of Isleworth in 1649 (Shaw, 2. 537). One of the same names is given by Calamy (2. 235) as ejected minister of Dunton, Bucks. and described as well known about London. Probably he took to medicine: hence the peculiar description in the entry.

Thompson, Thomas: son of Henry: born at Socbridge, Westm^{d}. [Sockbridge, a hamlet near Penrith, south of the Lowther]. School: Durham, under M^{r} Bathersby (Battersby). Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 12 March 167$\frac{6}{7}$. Age 20.

Not found here: but he may have resided as sizar without room rent. One of these names was Master of Ripon school 1685 (Yorks. Records XXVII. p. lxxiv): there is no graduate of either Cambridge or Oxford at a suitable time. One vicar of Aldbrough, Yorks. 1715.

Heckstall, Abraham: son of Abraham: [birthplace not given]. School: Nottingham, under M^{r} [Jer.] Cudworth [who had left Bishop Stortford in 1673]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lynford 11 April 1677. Age 19.

Matriculated 1680 Dec.: i.e. just before admission to his degree. B.A. 168$\frac{0}{1}$. Ordained deacon, York, 1681 Sept.: priest, 1683 June. Vicar of Ruddington, Yorks. 23 Dec. 1683: licensed to preach in the diocese the same day. Not found in the parish register.

Rolleston, Alfred: son of John: born in London. School: Nottingham, under M^{r} Cudworth. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lynford 11 April 1677. Age 16.

B.A. 168$\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1684. Ordained deacon, York, 1684 Sept.: licensed to Carburton in Edwinstowe 22 Sept. 1684.

Daniel, John: son of John: born at Huntshorne [Hartshorn], Derbs. School: Repton, under M^{r} Litherland. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 4 April 1677. Age 19.

B.A. 168$\frac{0}{1}$. Brother of Samuel, admitted 1674. Probably vicar of Croxall, Derbs. 24 April 1690–1728: patron, the Crown (Cox, Derbs. Churches, 3. 357).

Gippes, Syliard: son of Valentine: born at Horningsheath, Suffolk. School: Bury St Edmunds, under M^{r} Leeds. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lynford [—] April 1677. Age 17.

Matric^{d}. 1677 Dec. Son of Valentine and Jane Gippes of Horringer (alias Horningsheath) baptised (as Sulyard) 20 March 16$\frac{8}{6}\frac{9}{0}$. Admitted at the Middle Temple 8 Dec. 1677. Buried (as Sylliard) at Horringer 3 June 1680 (Gage, Suffolk, 513). For the Gippes family see Horringer Registers, pp. 309–12 (S.H.A.H.).

Legard, Thomas: son of John, baronet: born at Ganton, Yorks. School: (1) Bury, under M^{r} Leeds: (2) at home. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lynford 23 April 1677. Age 16.

Matric^{d}. 1677 July: resided till Mich. 1679. Second son of Sir John Legard of Ganton (created 29 Dec. 1660 by Charles II) by his second wife Frances, daughter and coheiress of Sir Tho. Widdrington (1617). Bapt^{d}. at Ganton 20 June 1660. Will proved at York 4 April 1688 (Genealogist, 22. 116).

Legard, William: son of John, baronet: born at York. School: Bury, under M^{r} Leeds. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lynford 23 April 1677. Age 14.

B.A. 168$\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1684. Brother of Thomas (above). Ordained priest, Worcester, Dec. 1686. Vicar of Tardebigge, near Bromsgrove 1686–1705. I do not know whether he is the vicar of "Galmpton" [Ganton], E.R., Yorks. of which his elder brother Sir John was patron Sept. 1691: resigned in 1700. Left children, who all died s.p. (Kimber, 2. 139).

Gerard, Joseph: son of Joshua: born at Stockhold [Stockport], Cheshire. School: Stockport, under M^{r} [Sam.] Needham [head-master of Stockport school]. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 5 May 1677. Age 19.

B.A. 1680. Vicar of Tarvin, Cheshire, 7 June 1680. Died vicar 8 Jan. 170$\frac{8}{9}$ (Ormerod-Helsby, 2. 311). Had two brothers here, John (1677) and Joshua (1688). The father is perhaps the Joshua Gerard of Witneth, administration of whose property was granted 1691 (Index to Cheshire Wills).

Lyster, Charles: son of Nicholas: born at Rigton [?], Yorks. School: Leeds, under M^{r} Gilbert. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 5 May 1677. Age 16.
Matric^{d}. 1677 Dec.: resided till Lady Day 1681.

Wood, Robert: son of Robert: of Yorks. Educated by M^{r} Wood. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Waterhouse 5 May 1677. Age not given.
Matric^{d}. 1677 Dec.: appears in Study-rents but without charge till Mich. 1678.

Battey, —: [no facts given]. Admitted sizar 11 May 1677.
Matric^{n}. not found.

Cudworth, Thomas: son of John: born in London. School: Merchant Taylors', under D^{r} Goad. Admitted pensioner ("litteris abunde institutus") under M^{r} Lynford 30 May 1677. Age 15.
B.A. $168\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1685. Second son of John Cudworth, girdler, a very wealthy man (died 1675), and of Mary (?) Bushell: nephew of Ralph, the Master. Admitted at the Inner Temple 23 April 1683. Elected Fellow, in succession to Edw. Finch, probably early in 1685: first payment Mich. 1685: last, Mich. 1687. He seems to have lived in London, possibly practising law. He made his will 31 March 1726 as Tho. Cudworth of London, gent., "being in good health of body and of sound and disposing mind." His health soon gave way for the will was proved 2 May in the same year. (Information from J. Cudworth Whitebrook, Esq.) He left his property to Wyan Cudworth, son of his brother Samuel. In the Mich. Audit 1688 there appears "From M^{r} Cudworth, M^{r} Tho. Cudworth's gift, £9. 13*s*. 4*d*.": but whether the gift be from this Thomas, or from his cousin, Ralph's son (whom see) I cannot determine: probably this one.

Finch, Edward: fifth son of Heneage, Baron Finch. Admitted nobleman ("nobilis accessit hospes") under M^{r} Lovett 8 June 1677. Age 14.
Matric^{d}. 1677 July; M.A. 1679. Admitted at the Inner Temple 23 April 1683. Born 1663, fifth son of Heneage, Baron Finch of Daventry, afterwards Earl of Nottingham; and nephew of Sir John, the benefactor. He contributed 23 Oct. 1677 as a freshman to the verses on the marriage of the Princess Mary of York with the Prince of Orange. He was elected a Fellow, succeeding John Perkins, before Mids. 1680: his last payment was at Mich. 1684: but he appears in the Study-rents later. M.P. for the University 1689: but changing his course of life, he was ordained deacon, York, 8 Sept. 1695; priest, 15 Sept. I cannot find that he held any living on his ordination: but he became Prebendary of York (Wetwang) 26 April 1704 and was rector of Kirkby in Cleveland 15 Feb. $170\frac{4}{5}$. On 1 March $170\frac{6}{7}$ he became rector of Wigan. Prebendary of Canterbury 8 Feb. $17\frac{0}{10}$. At Wigan he showed want of tact by displacing the Mayor and Corporation from a gallery in the church, built for them 20 years before, in order to put an organ there. The Corporation went to law with the rector: but a decision was given against them 10 June 1712 (Croston-Baines, 4. 280). Finch resigned the living in $171\frac{3}{4}$, and removed to York, retaining his canonry there (as well as that of Canterbury) till his death. Resided in the Close and interested himself in musical matters: he was a composer of some merit. Married Mary, third daughter of D^{r} Nicholas Stanley. He had estates at Knapton, Yorks., at Belton, Ruts., and at Owston, Leics. Died 14 Feb. $173\frac{7}{8}$ aged 75: buried in the south choir aisle of York Cathedral. M.I. and medallion. His younger brother Henry, admitted 1679, was afterwards Dean of York.

Butler, Ralph: son of Thomas, armiger: born at Kirkland, Lancs. School: private, under Mr Harding. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lynford 11 June 1677. Age not given.

Matricn. not found: not in Study-rents.

Wilson, John: son of Henry: born at Kirkby Lonsdale. School: Kirkby, under Mr Farrer. Admitted sizar under Mr Lynford 4 June 1677. Age 17.

B.A. $168\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1684. Ordained deacon, Norwich, $168\frac{2}{3}$ Jan. Rector of Ringstead St Andrew, presented by the College, 3 Feb. $168\frac{6}{7}$–1719, when he died Oct. 3 and was buried in the chancel of the church. Probably also vicar of the neighbouring parish of Sedgeford 1692–1703: and vicar of Hunstanton 1703–19 (Blomefield, 5. 1277, 1325).

Cotton, William: son of William: born at Broughton [Astley], Leics. Educated by Mr Seagrave. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lynford 20 June 1677. Age not given.

B.A. $168\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1684. Perhaps re-admitted 24 June 1681. The father, William, admitted 1639, was rector of Broughton Astley, till his death in 1682. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1684 May: licensed to Broughton Astley: vicar of Great Ashby, Leics. 6 June 1684 apparently till 1714. Probably also rector of Broughton Astley 25 Jan. $169\frac{1}{2}$ on the presentation of Sir Will. Halford: his sister Mary married Sir Richard Halford of Wistow: he died at Broughton 1714. (Nichols, Leics. 4, 51 and 724).

Blythe, —: [no facts given]. Admitted fellow-commoner [no date].

Probably the same as the Edw. Blythe, matricd. fellow-commoner 3 July 1679: the name is (in Mr Lynford's list of pupils) without charge from this time till Mich. 1679 after which the charge begins.

Holdsworth, Jude: son of John: born at Middleham, Yorks. School: Bedale, under Mr Nicholson. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lynford 27 June 1677. Age 17.

B.A. $168\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1684. "Unanimously chosen into Dr Covel's Fellowship" 10 Oct. 1682: his last payment was on Lady Day 1694. Had a steadily increasing number of pupils from 1685 to 1693, when he had 55. Appointed 6 March $169\frac{0}{1}$, steward under new conditions, viz. of giving a bond of £500 to the College, for the due performance of his duties. Minister of Trinity Church, Cambridge 1691–3 (MS. Cole, 19. 100 a). Rector of Reed, Herts. 31 Oct. 1693: also vicar of Northamstead Chapel (a hamlet belonging to Barkway—now called Nuthampstead) 19 June 1694. Died, ? at Reed, 1718 (Newcourt, 1. 803, and 862). A Jude Holdsworth (perhaps his son—but the admissions for that year are wanting) was scholar 1713, B.A. 1718.

Featley, —: [no facts given]. Admitted sizar 28 June 1677. [Tutor not mentioned.]

Probably the Henry Featley who matriculated as a sizar 12 March $167\frac{8}{9}$: B.A. $168\frac{0}{1}$. Ordained deacon, York, 1681 Sept.: priest, 1689 Dec. Perhaps Henry, eldest son of John Fairclough, vulgo Featley, of Newark, by his wife Elizabeth, daughter of Henry Cam, alderman: baptised at Newark 7 Sept. 1660: married Hannah —: by whom he had six sons and five daughters: buried at Newark 23 April 1711. A pedigree of the family in which Faircloughs and Featleys exchange perplexingly, given by Maddison (Lincs. pedigrees, 340). Henry's grandfather was precentor and prebendary of Lincoln and chaplain to Charles I: while a Henry, in the same generation, was ejected from Thorpe, Notts.

Gerard, John: son of Joshua: born at Stockport, Cheshire. School: Stockport, under Mr Needham. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lovett 30 June 1677. Age 17.

B.A. $168\frac{0}{1}$. Younger brother of Joseph (1677) and elder brother of Joshua (1688).

Bennet, Robert: son of Gervase, armiger: born at Snelston, Derbs. School: Barton, Staffs. under Mr Alkin. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mr Smithson 2 July 1677. Age 17.

Matricn. not found. There is no evidence that he resided. Admitted as Rob. Bennet of Snelson, Derbs. at the Inner Temple 26 Jan. $16\frac{79}{80}$. Married Mary Overend of Pocklington. Died 7 April 1746: Buried at Bossall. (Hunter, F.M.G. 945.)

Nuthall, William: son of Henry: born at Spex[h]all, Suffolk. School: Hal[e]sworth, under Mr Bacon. Admitted sizar under Mr Lynford 3 July 1677. Age not given.

B.A. 1680 Mids. Born about 1657. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1680 June: priest, 1681 May. Vicar of Wenhaston near Halesworth, Suffolk, up to 1707. Vicar of Ilketshall St Andrew, 1685–1727: and of Flixton 1695–1727 (Suckling, 1. 118, 206).

Theakstone, —: admitted as Theckstone [no facts given]. Admitted sizar 4 July 1677 [tutor not mentioned].

B.A. (John Theakston), 1682 Mids. Ordained priest, York, 1682 Sept. Vicar of Bramham near Tadcaster, probably between 1685 and 1691, a blank period in the York Register. Died vicar before Aug. 1717.

Cooke, Edward: son of Edward: born at Dublin. Educated for some years at Trinity College, Dublin. Admitted, as of corresponding standing at Cambridge, pensioner under Mr Lovett 11 July 1677. Age not given.

Resided till Lady Day 1680, but took no degree. Admitted at the Middle Temple 14 May 1680. Possibly the Recorder of Berwick, whose son Edward, the antiquary, was admitted here 1728. One Edw. Cook, barrister-at-law, died 1733 (Gent. Mag. for 1733, p. 101).

Gibson, William: son of William: born at Laughton, Lincs. School: Kelham [near Newark], under Mr Gibson. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 11 Sept. 1677. Age 16.

B.A. $168\frac{1}{2}$; M.A. 1685. Perhaps vicar of Cammeringham, Lincs. 31 May 1695, patron, Rob. Tyrwhitt, armiger: buried there 1 Feb. $170\frac{4}{5}$ (Rev. W. W. Smith, vicar).

Clay, John: son of Robert: of Notts. School: Kelham [as above], under Mr Gibson. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 11 Sept. 1677. Age 15.

Resided 1678–9: matricn. not found.

Rushworth, —: [no facts given]. Admitted pensioner 19 Sept. 1677 [tutor not mentioned].

Matricd. (Will. Rushforth) 20 Sept. 1677: but does not appear in the Study-rents and perhaps never resided.

Collin, William:

Matricd. pensioner 1677 July. Resided as pupil of Mr Lovett between Easter 1677 and Easter 1678.

Coston, Francis: perhaps Casten.

Matricd. sizar (Costen) 1677 July: a pupil of Mr Lovett, probably from the beginning of 1677: B.A. $16\frac{79}{80}$. Perhaps of Ipswich, where a branch from a Durham family began with one Leonard Coston or Caston. Ordained (as Coston) deacon, Norwich, $16\frac{79}{80}$: priest, London, 1681 May. Vicar (Costyn) of Haddenham, Bucks. 8 June 1689. Buried there 2 Nov. 1731 (Lipscombe, 2. 213). There is a curious memorandum by him in a new parish register, printed by Lipscombe (with so many typographical errors as to be in places unintelligible) addressed to his successor as "planctus gemitusque incumbentis": in which he asks pardon for damage suffered by the living in his incumbency. The people of Cuddington (an adjacent village) would not pay their tithe, "et in hac re se contra me unanimiter iunxerunt." He ends "vale, vir erudite, molestus enim esse nolo, verbum enim sat sapienti."

Cammell, Thomas:

Matric^{d}. pensioner 1677 July: but admitted before Mich. 1676 (Study-rents). Was a pupil of M^{r} Lovett, and in residence Lady Day 1677. B.A. $167\frac{9}{80}$; M.A. 1683. Was born at Attleborough: possibly son of Tho. Cammell ($164\frac{4}{5}$) who was rector of Worlingham 1661. Ordained deacon, Norwich, $167\frac{9}{80}$ March: priest, 1680 June. Rector of Withersdale, Suffolk, 7 July 1680. Afterwards rector of Holbrook, where he died 1735.

Perkins, William:

Matric^{d}. pensioner (Pyrkins) 1677 Dec. Pupil of M^{r} Lynford. B.A. (Perkins) $168\frac{1}{2}$; M.A. 1685. Son of Will. and Faith Perkins: baptised at Bourne 20 April 1660. Probably ordained priest, Lincoln, 1684 May. Perhaps the rector of Colsterworth, Lincs. 5 June 1690–1720, whose son William (1710) was educated at home by his father. Rector of Boothby-Pagnell, as well as of Colsterworth 19 May 1692. Died 17 June 1720, and buried at Colsterworth.

Clough, Jonathan:

Matric^{d}. sizar 1677 Dec. Pupil of M^{r} Lovett. B.A. $167\frac{9}{80}$; M.A. 1683, incorporated, Oxford 1683. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1683 Dec. Rector of St Giles, Blaston, Leics. 21 March $168\frac{6}{7}$, patron, the Crown. Rector of Great Casterton near Stamford 1687. Chaplain to the Marquis of Annandale: as such, licensed 22 Feb. $171\frac{0}{1}$ to hold also one mediety of Hallaton, Leics. distant 11 miles. Died 1728. (See Nichols, Leics. 2. 602.)

White, Thomas:

B.A. 1680 Mids.; M.A. 1684: matric^{n}. not found. One Tho. White M.A. was vicar of Longdon, Staffs. 18 July 1693. One was rector of Nailston, Leics. 21 May 1721, patron, the Crown. Chaplain to Bishop Hoadly. Rector of Aylston, Ruts., where he died and was buried, 1735 (Nichols, Leics. 4. 806).

Brown, Thomas:

B.A. 1680 Mids. Perhaps "Brown junior," who appears as a pupil of M^{r} Waterhouse in 1679.

Elcocke, Ephraim:

B.A. 1680 Mids. Matric^{n}. not found. One of the same names admitted at Brasenose, Oxford, in 1638, was of Chester.

Hampton, Charles:

D.D. 1677. Was matriculated at Exeter, Oxford 13 Feb. $164\frac{8}{9}$: B.A. $165\frac{1}{2}$; M.A. 1654; and D.D. (Christ's) 1677. Son of Will. Hampton, rector of Bletchingley, Sussex. Charles petitioned 17 Feb. $167\frac{6}{7}$ to succeed his father at Bletchingley: granted: also petitioned the same day, as chaplain to Lord Paget of Beaudesert, to hold with it the rectory of Worth, distant 12 miles: also granted. Died 2 June 1704 aged 74.

The entries of another year, Oct. 1677–Oct. 1678 are omitted in the Admission book. Eleven leaves (nos. 6–16) are left blank—an unnecessary number. Possibly there was some intention of inserting the missing entries for Oct. 1675–Oct. 1676 in this place. As before I give the names as far as recoverable from the lists of matriculations and degrees, and from the book of Study-rents. The number for the year is only 20, viz. six matriculations in July, nine in December, and five admissions between October and December. Doubtless several are missing.

Hudson, Samuel:
Matric^{d}. pensioner 1678 July. A pupil of M^{r} Lovett. M.B. 1683.

Munford, Samuel:
Matric^{d}. pensioner 1678 July. Pupil of M^{r} Lovett. M.B. 1683; M.D. 1694.

Metcalfe, George:
Matric^{d}. sizar 1678 July. Pupil of M^{r} Waterhouse. B.A. 1682 Mids. Possibly one of the Metcalfes of Northallerton: a George Metcalfe came from there in 1607, and his son Will. in 1654: but he had no son George. Second master of Leeds grammar school 1684–98.

Stroud, George:
Matric^{d}. sizar 1678 July. A pupil of M^{r} Lynford. B.A. $168\frac{1}{2}$; M.A. 1685. Appears in Study-rents from before Mich. 1678 to Mich. 1682 when he is B.A.: and always with no charge to his name. He was ordained deacon, Lincoln, $168\frac{4}{5}$ March: priest, 1685 Sept.: licensed to cure of St Michael, Stamford.

Not the Sir George Strode of Etchingham, Kent, admitted f.-c. at Caius 12 April 1678, and given by Venn (1. 459) as B.A. (Christ's) $168\frac{1}{2}$.

Carter, John:
Matric^{d}. sizar (as Corker, by miscopying) 1678 July. A pupil of M^{r} Lynford. B.A. (Carter) $168\frac{1}{2}$. Born at Bedale 1660 or 1661. Ordained deacon (Carter), Norwich, 1683 June. Perhaps the John Carter who was rector of Rushmere, Suffolk 1714–42 (Suckling, 1. 290).

Silverwood, Benjamin:
Matric^{d}. sizar 1678 July. A pupil of M^{r} Lynford. B.A. (Sylverwood, but as Smallwood in Richardson's index; probably, by a mere miswriting) 1681 Mids.: in the York Register he is entered as of Emmanuel: and he does not appear in the Study-rents as B.A.: he may have migrated after graduation. Ordained deacon, York, $168\frac{1}{2}$ March: priest, Lincoln, $168\frac{4}{5}$ March: licensed to Corringham, Lincs. Vicar of Upton, Lincs. 17 April 1690.

Horton, Thomas:
Matric^{d}. pensioner 1678 Dec. Pupil of M^{r} Waterhouse. M.B. 1683. Probably fourth son of Joshua Horton, of Horton near Bradford, by his wife Martha Binns of Rushworth, Bingley, Yorks.: born 26 Nov. 1660; practised physic in London: married a daughter of D^{r} Watmough of London; died 4 March 1694 and buried at St Thomas, Southwark. (Kimber, 3. 198.)

Brunsell, Henry:
Matric^{d}. pensioner 1678 Dec. Pupil of M^{r} Lovett. In residence from the beginning of 1678—but must have kept some terms elsewhere. B.A. $16\frac{79}{80}$; M.A. 1683. Perhaps son of Sam. Brunsell, Canon of Lincoln and rector of Bingham, Notts. 1649–88 or of his brother Henry, rector of Clayworth, Notts. 1660 and Canon of Southwell. Ordained deacon, York, 1682 Sept. Rector of Kelsall, Herts. 1683–8 (Chauncy, 1. 170). Rector of Bingham, Notts. 29 March 1688 succeeding Samuel: died rector 5 Dec. 1707 aged 49 (Thoroton-Throsby, 1. 278) and buried at Bingham.

Michel, Samuel:

Matric^{d}. pensioner 1678 Dec. Pupil of M^{r} Lovett. Resided to the end of the Mich^{s}. quarter 1679, after which he disappears.

Veale, Samuel:

Matric^{d}. pensioner 1678 Dec. Pupil of M^{r} Waterhouse: in residence before Mich^{s}. 1678: B.A. 168$\frac{1}{2}$. There were Veales in Glos. and in Devon, many of whom were at Oxford: but I cannot connect him with any: one Sam. Veale (possibly his father) of Exeter, Oxford born at Iddesleigh, Devon (incorporated at Cambridge as M.A. 1649) was vicar of St Teath, Cornwall 1661 (Al. Ox. 1540). William and Charles Veale, sons of Walter, rector of Iddesleigh, were admitted at St John's, Cambridge 167$\frac{4}{5}$ and 1679 respectively.

Foster, Robert: also spelt Forster.

Matric^{d}. sizar 1678 Dec. Pupil of M^{r} Lovett. B.A. (Forster) 168$\frac{1}{2}$. Resided till Mich^{s}. 1683. Probably one of M^{r} Austin's three poor scholars (order of 7 Feb. 168$\frac{1}{2}$) and chosen by D^{r} More. The money (£15) for this short-lived charity was paid annually from the Exchequer for two years (I think) only. (History of Christ's, 201.)

Man, John:

Matric^{d}. sizar 1678 Dec. Pupil of M^{r} Lynford. B.A. 168$\frac{1}{2}$.

Backler, Samuel:

Matric^{d}. sizar 1678 Dec. A pupil of M^{r} Lynford: in residence in 1676. B.A. 16$\frac{79}{80}$; M.A. 1683. Not son (but possibly nephew) of Sam. Backler the ejected minister of Whatfield, Suffolk: he had a son Samuel born 1661 who died an infant. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1683 June: licensed to Newnham, Herts. Vicar of Newnham (near Ashwell) 1684–1713. Vicar of Ashwell 26 June 1713: patron, the Bishop of London: gone before Nov. 1720. His son Sam. was admitted 17$\frac{09}{10}$: born at Ashwell. Before 1688 James Everard was educated at Ashwell by a M^{r} Backler.

Thompson, Christopher:

Matric^{d}. sizar 1678 Dec. Pupil of M^{r} Lynford. B.A. 168$\frac{1}{2}$; M.A. 1686. Possibly vicar of Pittington, Durham, where there were two of these names in succession, the first in 1662, the second gone before 1717. One Chris. Thompson, M.A., was rector of Escrick, Yorks. 1706, presented by Mary Thompson in absence of her son Beilby of Escrick: died before Aug. 1708: there was a Chris. Thompson, of Jesus, M.A. 1703.

Parkes, Parson:

Matric^{d}. sizar 1678 Dec. Pupil of M^{r} Lovett. B.A. 168$\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1693. Ordained deacon, York, 1685 Sept. Rector of Stapleford Tany [Tawney], Essex, 25 Dec. 1691, patron, Fra. Thompson. Died before March 1732. A correspondent of Strype (J.E.B.M.).

Woodhouse, John:

Matric^{d}. sizar 1678 Dec. A pupil of M^{r} Waterhouse. Resided from Mich^{s}. 1678 to Lady Day 1680. Was he the John Woodhouse, son of Chris. of Berkhamsted, matric^{d}. at Lincoln, Oxford 1676 but took no degree? If he was, and if he migrated from Christ's to Queens', Cambridge, he would be of sufficient standing to be the M.B. (Queens') 1681, M.D. (com. reg.) 1705, who practised at Nottingham, where his son John was buried 1708. (Godfrey, Bingham, 39.)

Williams, Theodore:

Matric^{d}. sizar 1678 Dec. Pupil of M^{r} Waterhouse. B.A. 168$\frac{1}{2}$; M.A. 1685. Ordained deacon, York, 1684 Dec.: priest, 1693 June: curate of Addle [Adel] near Leeds, 12 June 1693.

Here the Admission book begins again with the year 1678–9.

Short, Samuel: son of John: born "apud aedes Cranburienses" [Cranbury] in the parish of Islington, Midds. School: Islington, under M^{r} Singleton. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lynford, [—] Oct. 1678. Age 16. Afterwards fellow-commoner 28 June 1681.

Matric^{d}. 1679...and seems not to have resided till after Mich^{s}. of that year. M.A. (per lit. reg.) 1683. Admitted at the Inner Temple 22 Sept. 1681, third son of John Short of Cranbury.

Knowsley, John: son of John: born at Scarborough. School: Thornton [? Thornton Dale, Pickering], Yorks., under M^{r} Parkes. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lynford [—] Oct. 1678. Age 16.

B.A. 168$\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1686. Possibly grandson of John Knowsley (161$\frac{0}{1}$), Fellow, and afterwards rector of Tansor, Northants.

Powell, Thomas: son of Robert, D.D., Chancellor of St Asaph: born at Park, Salop. School: Eton, under M^{r} Roswell. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 4 Nov. 1678. Age 16.

Resided till Mich^{s}. 1680. Admitted at Lincoln's Inn 30 Nov. 1680. Robert, the father was admitted here 1644, and died 1683. Robert, adm^{d}. 1680, was a brother.

Bowtell, William: son of James: born at Shalford, Essex. School: Felstead, under M^{r} Glascock. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Waterhouse 6 Nov. 1678. Age 17.

B.A. 168$\frac{2}{3}$.

Jackson, Robert: son of Robert: born at Coates Hall, Derbs. School: Wakefield, under M^{r} Baskerville. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 20 Nov. 1678. Age 15.

B.A. 168$\frac{2}{3}$. Ordained deacon, York, 1684 Sept. One Rob. Jackson, B.A., vicar of Beighton, Derbs. 19 June 1690. Perhaps the same was rector of Adel, Yorks. 27 Aug. 1702: described as M.A. (but there was no Rob. Jackson M.A. at either Cambridge or Oxford at this time). Died there 1730. Grandfather of Dean Cyril Jackson.

Cudworth, Thomas:

M.A. (per lit. reg.) 1682. The only trace of him (apart from this record at the University Registry) is that Tho. Cudworth son of John, the M.A. and Fellow of 1685, is called M^{r} Tho. Cudworth junior. Thomas (senior) may have been a son of Ralph the Master. The registers of Great St Andrew's 1641–1661 are missing: and there is a blank in the Admission Book from Mich. 1677 to Mich. 1678: this Thomas may have been admitted during that time, and not matriculated; and then have obtained his degree of M.A. by mandate before the proper time. See under Charles Cudworth, page 49. A "M^{r} Cudworth" appears in the Study-rents in a perplexing way, among Lynford's pupils. He first is "Cudworth" only (Lady Day 1679) about the middle of the list: at Mich^{s}. he is "M^{r} Cudworth" in the same place and rises by degrees to the top of the list. He occurs till Lady Day 1685. He cannot be either of the Fellows, John, Ralph's son, or Thomas, John's son: nor can he be the Charles Cudworth who was in India 1683 and died there 1684. I conclude that he is this Thomas, possibly admitted 1677–8, fellow-commoner in 1679 and (Hon.) M.A. 1682: but the history is strange: Thomas, Ralph's son, seems to have no claim to any special privilege.

Maye, Joseph:

Admitted at Exeter College, Oxford, 7 Dec. 1666, son of Joseph of St Austell, Cornwall: B.A. $167\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. (Christ's) 1680. Ordained deacon, Exeter, 1671 June; priest, 1673 May. Rector of St Ewe, Cornwall 1679; of St Grade 1680. His son, Joseph, reverted to Exeter, Oxford in 1696.

Barrett, Arthur:

Admitted at Merton College, Oxford 14 Nov. 1661, son of Will., of Maidstone, Kent, aged 18. B.A. 1666; M.A. (Christ's) 1680. Rector of Sutton Waldron, Dorset, 1676: of Caundle Bishop, 1680. (Al. Ox.)

Berrow, Richard: son of John: born at Rickmersworth [Rickmansworth], Herts. Educated in the "vicus" Camberwell, Surrey, by M^r^ Ballow. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Lovett 11 Jan. $167\frac{8}{9}$. Age 16.

B.A. $168\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1686. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1685 June: priest, 1687 Dec.: licensed to curacy of Ingoldsby. Rector of Gravenhurst, Beds. 21 April 1698. Another (perhaps, but there is no other graduate at either University) became vicar of East Malling, Kent 16 Sept. 1699: gone in 1705.

Baines, John: son of Ralph: born at Crommack [up in the hills, north of Austwick near Giggleswick], Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under M^r^ Briggs. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Lynford 8 March $167\frac{8}{9}$. Age 21.

Appears on the list of Lynford's pupils three half years Mich. 1680–Mich. 1681 inclusive—but no charge against him: matric^n^. not found. Perhaps never resided.

Pope, Roger: son of Richard: born at Southwark. School: Eton, under M^r^ Roswell. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Lovett 20 March $167\frac{8}{9}$. Age 17. Next year became fellow-commoner.

Resided till Lady Day 1681: matric^n^. not found.

Nurse, George: son of George: born at Lincoln. School: Lincoln, under M^r^ Bromsgrove. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Lovett 3 April 1679. Age 17.

B.A. $168\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1686. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1684 Dec.; curate of Kimpton, Leics.: priest, 1685 Sept.; curate of Stow in Lindsey. The father, George, was possibly of Christ Church, Oxford (1652). A brother Peter, matriculated from St John's in the same year as George (the younger) from Christ's, was Canon of St David's and chaplain to Queen Anne.

Botcher, John: son of George: born at Broad Clist, Devon. School: Broad Clist, under D^r^ Coppleston. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Perkins 4 April 1679. Age 17.

Matric^d^. $167\frac{8}{9}$ March. Appears first at Mich^s^. as a pupil of M^r^ Lynford: and resided till Mich^s^. 1681.

Tub(b)ing, John: son of Philip: born at Hindringham, Norfolk. School: Burnham Thorpe, under M^r^ Tubbing. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Lovett 24 April 1679. Age 18.

B.A. $168\frac{2}{3}$. Philip Tubbin (agricola) sent a son, Peter, to St John's 19 Feb. $166\frac{6}{7}$: but the son was born at Thorpe, Suffolk. John was ordained deacon, Norwich, 1683 June, in his 23rd year. He educated Tho. Lumb and Will. Franklin (1683) at Cawston: but whether as master of a grammar school, or private tutor, is uncertain.

Casse, Richard: son of George: born at Brampton Green, Yorks. School: Knaresborough, under M^r^ Armitage. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Waterhouse 2 May 1679. Age 18.

B.A. $168\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1686. Ordained deacon, York, 1684 Dec. Curate of Little Owsden [? Owston] 22 Dec. 1684.

Covel, John: son of William: born at Lartingford, Norfolk. School: Bury St Edmunds, under M^r^ Leeds. Admitted sizar under D^r^ Covel 7 May 1679. Age 16.

Matric^{d}. 3 July 1679. Resident till Lady Day 1682. Probably John, son of Will. Covel of Horringer [Horningsheath], probably nephew of John Covel, the future Master: baptised March $166\frac{2}{3}$. Admitted at the Inner Temple 13 Feb. $168\frac{1}{2}$. Probably town-clerk of Bury, 1689. Heir to the Horringer property. Buried May 1694. (S. H. A. Hervey, Horringer Register, 294.)

Browne, Henry: son of Thomas: born at Lilbourne, Northants. School: [Clay?] Coton, under M^{r} Booth. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 7 May 1679. Age 18.

B.A. $168\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1686. One Henry Browne, M.A., ordained deacon, London, $169\frac{9}{0}$ Feb.: priest, 1700 May: probably the same was rector of Theydon Mount, Essex 28 May 1700: died there before Jan. $172\frac{8}{9}$.

Fox, Thomas: son of Cornelius: born at Corpstead [Corpusty], Norfolk. School: Holt, under M^{r} Bainbridge. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 13 May 1679. Age 18.

B.A. $168\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1686. According to the Norwich Register he was born at Saxthorpe which is near Corpusty. Ordained deacon, Norwich, $168\frac{3}{4}$. Probably rector of Aldby, where he was buried 17 Oct. 1715, aged 56. He held it with Wickmere.

Shaw, —: [no facts given]. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lynford 15 May 1679. Matric^{n}. not found. Never resided, so far as the Study-rents show.

Willis, Thomas: eldest son of Richard, baronet: born at Waltham, Essex. School: [?Chipping] Campden, Glos. under M^{r} Tailour. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Lynford 17 May 1679. Age 17.

Son of Sir Richard (1631), and of Alice Fox of Waltham Abbey. In the Essex Visitation, 1664, he is given "aet. 3." He appears in the list of M^{r} Lynford's pupils Mich. 1679; with no charge against him: not later. Was he the M.A. of Clare 1683? His full name was Tho. Fox Willis. Succeeded his father, and according to Burke (Extinct Baronetage) he died unmarried, 1701, aged 89 (misprint for 39).

Hill, Joshua: son of Thomas: born at Wilsden [near Bradford], Yorks. School: Erby [Earby near Skipton], under M^{r} Rakes. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 20 May 1679. Age 17.

B.A. $168\frac{2}{3}$. May be the Joshua Hill, ordained deacon, Lichfield, $169\frac{7}{8}$ March (and licensed to the Chapel of Brear in the parish of Halifax) with the note "doctrina et scientia leniter eruditus ideoque non nisi propter penuriam ecclesiae sive capellae approbatus." Perhaps he laboured there for a long time with some success, as one Joshua Hill B.A. (no other either at Cambridge or Oxford) was ordained priest, York, 1716 Sept.

Rigby, Charles: third son of Edward, Serjeant-at-law: born at Preston, Lancs. School: Preston, under M^{r} Walmsley. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lynford 21 May 1679. Age 18.

Matric^{n}. not found. In residence till Lady Day 1681. Admitted at Gray's Inn 7 March $167\frac{3}{4}$, where his father (who practised at Preston) had been Reader. Younger brother of Edward (1670).

Fairfax, William: son of William: born at Steeton, Yorks. School: Wakefield, under M^{r} Baskerville. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Waterhouse 21 May 1679. Age 17.

Matric^{n}. not found. Resided up to Lady Day 1680. Son of Will. Fairfax of Steeton (who was son of Sir William) and of Catharine, daughter of Rob. Stapleton of Wighill: baptised in Steeton chapel 21 Nov. 1664 [sic]. The father died 1673. The son was buried at Bolton Percy 20 June 1694 (Genealogist, 6. 615). A "Fairfax, junior"—otherwise unknown—appears in Waterhouse's list for three half years up to Mich. 1680, but without charge; probably did not come into residence.

Beale, George: eldest son of Henry: born at Knottingley near Ferrybridge, Yorks. School: Wakefield, under M[r] Baske[r]ville. Admitted pensioner under M[r] Waterhouse 21 May 1679. Age 18.

Matric[n]. not found. Probably never resided. Admitted at Gray's Inn 26 Nov. 1679, as of Darrington, Yorks. Henry Beale of Knottingley was the second husband of Eliz. Carleill of Sewerby, born 1633. (Hunter, F.M.G. 351.)

Armitstead, John: son of Thomas: born at Long Preston, Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under M[r] Briggs. Admitted sizar under M[r] Lovett 23 May 1679. Age 19.

B.A. $168\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1688. Probably the Head-master of Giggleswick School, 12 June 1685–1712, when he died (Morant-Whitaker, Craven, 169.)

Pendock, Thomas: son of Philip: born at Tollerton, Notts. Educated there by M[r] Allsopp [probably John Allsopp (1664) rector]. Admitted pensioner under M[r] Lovett 24 May 1679. Age 17.

Matric[d]. 3 July 1679. Resident till Mich. 1681. Thoroton (p. 85) gives his home as Torlaston. His mother was Jane, daughter of Nic. Charlton of Chilwick.

Margerison, Richard: son of James: born at Hunsworth, Yorks. School: Bradford, under M[r] Woods. Admitted sizar under M[r] Waterhouse 26 May 1679. Age 16.

B.A. $168\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1690. Ordained deacon, York, 1684 Sept.: licensed to Haworth Chapel, in Bradford: priest, Lincoln, 1687 Dec.; curate of Everton, Beds. with Tetworth, Hunts. Vicar of Mirfield, Yorks., where he died (vicar) before May 1716.

Deane, Andrew: son of Richard: of Westmoreland. School: Holt, Norfolk, under M[r] Bainbridge. Admitted sizar under M[r] Lovett 29 May 1679. Age 16.

Matric[d]. July 1681: B.A. $168\frac{2}{3}$. Born at Dufton near Appleby (Norw. Register). Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1683 Dec.

Firmin, Thomas: son of John: born at Harden [Hawkedon; so in Norwich Register], Suffolk. School: Bury, under M[r] Leeds. Admitted sizar under M[r] Lynford 3 June 1679. Age 18.

B.A. $168\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1686. His father was rector of Stanstead: and he was baptised at Hawkedon July 1660. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1683 Dec. Probably rector of Sudbourne All S[ts], with Orford St Bartholomew (contiguous). Died 1720 (Davy). He was probably akin to Tho. Firmin, "philanthropist" (D.N.B.), who was born at Ipswich 1632.

Exon, Joseph: son of John: born at Diseworth. School: Repton, under M[r] Litherland. Admitted sizar under M[r] Lovett 4 June 1679. Age 17.

Matric[d]. 3 July 1679. Buried at Great St Andrew's, Cambridge, 1 May 1682.

Hall, Henry: son of Anthony: born at Thirsk. School: Thirsk, under M[r] Wildman. Admitted sizar under M[r] Lovett 9 June 1679. Age 17.

B.A. $168\frac{2}{3}$. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, $168\frac{3}{4}$ Feb.: curate of Wexham St Mary, near Slough, Bucks. One of these names went out as emigrant minister to Maryland, receiving the £20 bounty for his voyage 11 Jan. $169\frac{7}{8}$. (Fothergill, Emigrant Ministers to America, p. 32.)

Finch, Henry: son of Heneage, Baron Finch of Daventry, Chancellor of England: born at Kensington. Educated by (1) Dr Sharpe: (2) Mr Moore. Admitted fellow-commoner ("pro ordinis dignitate") under Mr Lovett 9 June 1679. Age 15.

Matricd. 3 July 1679; M.A. 1682. Sixth son of Heneage Finch, first Earl of Nottingham: brother of Edward ($167\frac{7}{8}$) and of Robert ($168\frac{6}{7}$). By order of 14 March $168\frac{2}{3}$ he was "accepted" as one of the first two Fellows of the Finch and Baines foundation (Tho. Lovett, see Vol. I. p. 595, being the other) on the nomination of his eldest brother Daniel, second Earl of Nottingham: he vacated the Fellowship 6 Dec. 1692. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1689 Dec. wrongly described as Fellow of Corpus. Prebendary of Ely (second stall) 1690–92, which he resigned, and Tho. Lovett, his tutor, was appointed: seventh stall 1692–1714 (?). Rector of Winwick, Lancs. Prebendary of York (Wetwang) 5 June 1695, which he resigned 1704. Dean of York 1702–28. Died 8 Sept. 1728 aged 64: buried in S. choir aisle: M.I. and medallion. He left the bulk of his property to his "dearest friend and brother" Edward: also left £100 to "beautify" our Hall, and £200 to buy a living.

Williams, John: son of Thomas: born at North Myms [Mimms], Herts. School: Ainsbury [? Alconbury], Hunts., under Mr Mathews. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lynford 26 May 1679. Age 18.

Matricn. not found. Resided up to Mich. 1681. John Williams, son of Thomas, late of Lincoln's Inn, deceased, was admitted at Lincoln's Inn 12 Feb. $167\frac{7}{8}$.

Sparrow, John: son of John: born at Hunningham [Sible Hedingham], Essex. School: Felstead, under Mr Glascock. Admitted pensioner under Mr Waterhouse 16 June 1679. Age 17.

Matricd. 3 July 1679: resided till Lady Day 1682. Not the John Sparrow, B.A. (Cath.) 1685. Admitted at Gray's Inn 27 Nov. 1680. Born July 1662, son of John of Sparrows, Sible Hedingham, by his wife Anne, daughter of Will. Harrington of Wallasses, Gt Maplestead. Barrister, Michs. 1686. Married Elizabeth, daughter of Sam. Clarkson of Langham Lodge, Essex, by whom he had one daughter Elizabeth, married to Henry Summers of Colchester. Died 27 March $172\frac{0}{1}$. (Morant, I. 289.)

Cullum, Thomas: second son of Thomas, baronet: born at Hawstead, Suff. School: Bury, under Mr Leeds. Admitted fellow-commoner under Dr Covel [—] June 1679. Age not given.

Matricd. (Cullam) 3 July 1679: resided till Lady Day 1682. Admitted at the Middle Temple 30 June 1684. Grandson of Sir Tho. Cullum, alderman and sheriff (1647) of London, knighted at the Restoration "as a recompence of his great zeal." Son of Sir Thomas (1628–80) second baronet, of Hawstead, by his wife Dudley, daughter of Sir Henry North. Died unmarried 22 Dec. 1700, aged 38: buried at Hawstead: M.I., which implies that he was a musician: "quam primum cantus caelicolarum audit, voce haud minus divina ipsa (anima) cantabat." His brother, Sir Dudley Cullum (who died s. p. 1720) gave in 1703 £10. 10*s.* to the Chapel fund in memory of him. James Cullum, of the same family, admitted 1773, three generations later.

Cooke, Moses: son of Moses: born at Little Hadham, Herts. School: Stortford, under Mr Conway. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lovett 25 June 1679. Age, not quite 14.

B.A. $168\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1686. One of the first four Buntingford scholars (Bp. Ward's foundation) in 1682. Ordained deacon, London, 1686 May: priest, Lincoln, $168\frac{7}{8}$ March: curate of Graffham, Hunts. Rector of Sible Hedingham, Essex (of which his father bought the advowson) 15 April 1690–1733: "where he built a very good parsonage-house of brick, laid out a handsome garden, and in all respects greatly adorned and improved the parish" (Morant, 2. 191). Also vicar of Gestingthorpe 10 Feb. $170\frac{4}{5}$–1733 (ib. 309): when he died.

Was he the Moses Cooke, son of Moses, cordwainer, of St Giles in the Fields, admitted at the Middle Temple 22 Nov. 1688?

Place, Benjamin: son of Christopher: born at Clapham, Yorks. School: Lancaster, under M^{r} Holden. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 28 June 1679. Age 20.

Matric^{n}. not found. Place, senior (Ben.), and junior (Tim.) appear in the list of Lovett's pupils (without charge) Mich. 1680 and Lady Day 1681, after which both disappear. Ben. Place (no degree) was ordained priest, Ely, 1696 Sept. Vicar of Hacconby, Lincs. 14 Oct. 1698, patron, the Bishop. Vicar of Ashby Puerorum, Lincs. 6 Aug. 1715 (patron, the Bishop): vacant before June 1717. Rector of Greetham near Horncastle 8 Aug. 1715.

Chris. Place, the father, vicar of Clapham and buried there 1679, was charged as "a man of profane and ungodly conversation, oftimes most shamefully drunk, and a horrible swearer." (Bradford Antiquary, 1. 246.) Perhaps he was son of Christopher Plesse [sic] admitted pensioner 1609.

Place, Timothy: son of Christopher: born at Clapham, Yorks. School: Lancaster, under M^{r} Holden. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 28 June 1679. Age 19.

See under Ben. (above). Matric^{n}. not found. No degree recorded: but one Tim. Place, B.A., was ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1683 Dec.: licensed to Little Gidding.

Warner, Samuel: [no facts given]. Admitted fellow-commoner under D^{r} Covel 1 July 1679.

Matric^{n}. not found. Resided till Mich^{s}. 1681.

Dickins, Thomas: [no facts given]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 2 July 1679.

Perhaps never resided here. Matric^{d}. (Sidney) as pensioner 8 July 1680. B.A.—as Dicken—(Sidney) $168\frac{2}{3}$.

Dickins, John: [no facts given]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 2 July 1679.

B.A. (Dickin) $168\frac{2}{3}$. Resided till Lady Day 1683, always appearing as Dickins. Probably brother of Thomas (above).

Roberts, Marmaduke: [no facts given]. Admitted sizar under Dom^{s}. [John] Cudworth, 2 July 1679.

Matric^{n}. not found. Does not appear in the Study-rents and probably never resided. One Marm. Roberts (? father) died rector of Aswardby, Lincs. before April 1680.

Lloyd, John: son of Thomas: born at Halton, Flints. School: Eton, under M^{r} Rosewell. Admitted at King's, 6 July 1676; at Christ's, pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 4 July 1679. Age 19.

B.A. $16\frac{7}{8}\frac{9}{0}$; M.A. 1683. One John Lloyd, B.A., ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1681 Sept.: priest, 1682 June. One rector of Wickenby, Lincs. 15 March $169\frac{9}{0}$, patron, Sir Tho. Barnardiston; and again (same name) 4 April 1709: patron, Sir Tho. Willoughby. One John Lloyd, vicar of Ashby (Magistorum), Leics. 13 June 1715: vacant before Aug. 1719.

Terrey, Thomas: son of Thomas: born in Cambridge. School: Ainsbury (?), under Mr Mathews. Admitted sizar under Mr Fairmedow 25 July 1679. Age 16.

B.A. 168$\frac{3}{4}$. Resident till Lady Day 1685.

Clarke, Thomas: admitted as Clark: eldest son of Richard: born at Norwich. School: Norwich, under Mr Burton. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lynford 5 Nov. 1679. Age not given.

B.A. (Clarke) 168$\frac{3}{4}$. Brother of Christopher (afterwards Archdeacon) Clarke, admitted 1687. Seems to have resided till Michs. 1685. Admitted at Gray's Inn 4 Aug. 1684. Barrister, 1692: Bencher, 1715: Treasurer, 1731.

Shaw, John: son of John, clerk: born at Rotherham. School: Rotherham, under Mr Farrer. Admitted pensioner under Mr Waterhouse 14 Nov. 1679. Age not given.

Matricu. not found. Son of the well-known John Shaw (1623), vicar of Rotherham and of Hull. Died unmarried, aged 20, and was buried at Rotherham, Jan. 1683 (Hunter, S. Yorks. 2. 24). His sister and heiress Margaret, was the wife of Elkanah Rich (Eastwood, Ecclesfield, 473).

Corney, Edward:

Matricd. sizar 167$\frac{8}{9}$ March. Pupil of Mr Lynford; so far as the Study-rents show, he resided only between Michs. 1678 and Michs. 1679. As he was B.A. 16$\frac{79}{80}$, he must have been admitted and kept terms elsewhere. Ordained deacon, York, 16$\frac{79}{80}$ March: priest, 1680 Sept. One of these names vicar of Owston, W.R., Yorks. 7 Aug. 1686, patron, Joh. Adams, Esq.: died 1687: described (M.I.) as "fidelis vicarius"; but no age given. (Hunter S. Yorks. 2. 479.)

Blythe, Edward:

Matricd. fellow-commoner, 1679 July. See under [—] Blythe 1677. Appears in the list of Mr Lynford's pupils for the half-year ending Lady Day 1678 to Mich. 1679 inclusive: but no charge against him: perhaps he never resided. One Edward Blythe of "Strancson alias Stroxton," Lincs. (Stroxton, near Grantham) was admitted at Gray's Inn 1 April 1678: his grandmother was Mary, daughter of Anthony Eyre of Rampton (see Ant. Eyre, adm. 1650).

Plumpton, Henry:

Matricd. sizar 1679 July. Pupil of Mr Waterhouse. B.A. 168$\frac{1}{2}$. Ordained deacon, York, 1682 June: priest, 1683 June. A pedigree of Plumpton of Plumpton in Genealogist N.S. 22. 42: but he is not found there.

Backwell, Richard: son of Edward, armiger: born at Parson's Green, Middlesex. Educated by Mr Maurice. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mr Lovett 3 Jan. 16$\frac{79}{80}$. Age 16.

Resided till Lady Day 1683. First son (by his second wife, Mary, daughter of Ri. Leigh of Warwick) of Edw. Backwell (d. 1683) "alderman, a celebrated London goldsmith, and the principal founder of the banking system in England" (D.N.B.) to whom, when Charles II "closed the exchequer" in 1672, £295,995 was owing from the King.

Ri. Backwell was admitted at the Inner Temple 17 April 1676 as "of the City of London"—unless that be a kinsman: Lipscombe (Bucks. 4. 376) makes him of Gray's Inn. He married but had no children: died 26 April 1731.

The "Mr Maurice" (above) was doubtless Henry Maurice, rector of Tyringham, Bucks. 1675-9. Tyringham was acquired by John Backwell (son of Edward by his first marriage to Alice Brett) who married Elizabeth, only daughter of Sir Will. Tyringham. Edward Backwell was buried there.

Lane, Edward: [no facts given]. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 3 Jan. $16\frac{79}{80}$.

Matric^{n}. not found. Probably never resided.

Stringer, Josias: [father not given]: born at Hilton, Staffs. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Waterhouse 16 Jan. $16\frac{79}{80}$. Age not given.

Matric^{n}. not found. Probably never resided.

Selby, William: son of Michael: born at Riseley, Beds. School: Kimbolton, under M^{r} Taylor. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lynford 11 March $16\frac{79}{80}$. Age not given.

B.A. $168\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1687. Probably son of Mich. Selby ($16\frac{29}{30}$) rector of Ingoldsby who died $168\frac{4}{5}$. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1684 Sept.: licensed to Ingoldsby: priest, 1686 May: still at Ingoldsby. Probably rector of Elton on the Hill, Notts. 29 Jan. $168\frac{6}{7}$ and buried there 9 Sept. 1720 (Godfrey, Hundred of Bingham, 168).

Beardsley, John: son of John: born at Castle Donington, Leics. School: Derby, under M^{r} Mathews. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 17 March $16\frac{79}{80}$. Age not given.

B.A. $168\frac{3}{4}$. Ordained deacon and priest, Lincoln, 1684 Sept.: curate of Cole Orton, Leics.

Standish, Robert: son of Robert: [birthplace not given]. School: Lavington [Lenton], Lincs. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 19 March $16\frac{79}{80}$. Age not given.

B.A. $168\frac{3}{4}$. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1685 Sept.: licensed to Ruskington. Probably related, but not very nearly, to the Newark family of Standish, to which Thomas (the Fellow 1653–1714) belonged: not in Maddison's pedigree (Lincs. pedigrees, 919).

Christmas, John: son of John: born at Sudbury, Suffolk. Educated by M^{r} Chapman [perhaps Edmund or Ambrose, each of whom was ordained to a Suffolk curacy and beneficed in this year]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett [date not given]. Age not given.

B.A. 1683 Mids. Vicar of East Cornard, Suffolk, 1686, till 1689, according to Davy. But in 1687 he joined the Church of Rome (East Anglian, 1. 116): and was admitted at Douai (16 July 1690).

Battell, William: son of William: born at Holden [probably Howden, E.R.], Yorks. School: Holden [Howden], under M^{r} Reinolds. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Waterhouse 10 April 1680. Age 15.

Matric^{d}. sizar 8 July 1680: probably migrated, and graduated at Peterhouse, B.A. $168\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1686. A M^{r} Battell was Master of Hertford School in 1690 and not before 1685. Perhaps minor canon of St Paul's $169\frac{1}{2}$–$169\frac{7}{8}$, when he resigned.

Hardcastle, John: son of Thomas: born at Leeds. School: Leeds, under M^{r} Gilbert. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 14 April 1680. Age 18.

B.A. $168\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1693. Ordained deacon, London, $168\frac{3}{4}$ Feb.: priest, 1685 Dec.

Trickett, Samuel: son of Samuel: born at Norton in Scarsdale, Derbs. School: not given. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 15 April 1680. Age 17.

B.A. $168\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1687. Son of Samuel (admitted 1652), vicar of Norton. Ordained priest, Lincoln, 1688 June: then curate of Norton. Rector of Nuthall, Notts., which he resigned on being instituted to rectory of Aston, near Sheffield, 18 May 1694 (Hunter, S. Yorks. 2. 166).

Street, William: eldest son of William: born at Hallaton, Leics. School: Harborough, under Mr Berry. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lynford 21 April 1680. Age not given.

Son of Will. Street (1650). Matricn. not found. Resided till Michs. 1681. Admitted at Gray's Inn 2 Dec. 1681. According to Nichols (Leics. 2. 602), he was born 1656: if so he came up old. Died 1697 when his brother Berkeley succeeded to the property (ib.).

Every, Simon: son of Henry, baronet: born at Eggington, Derbs. School: Repton, under Mr Litherland. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lynford 26 April 1680. Age 17.

B.A. 168¾; M.A. 1687. Third son of Sir Henry Every (1646) by his wife Vere Herbert: called after his grandfather the first baronet. Grandfather and father were strong Royalists. Elected Fellow Sept. (? 7) 1687 succeeding Henry More. A letter (which has been preserved) from his father on 1 Nov. 1687 bids him "remember with what reputation Dr More lived in the College and make it your endeavour that as you succeed in his place so in his repute." Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1688 June; priest, August. Resided in College as Fellow for 16 years, but seemingly not of much mark: was junior Dean and catechist in 1689: he had one pupil, called Walker: but Waterhouse, and then Duckfield, swept the field. Junior Proctor 1699. He was presented to Navenby 23 March 170⅔—having passed it two years earlier when Rob. Bevin, a young man, was appointed. Resigned his fellowship before April 1704. By the death of his two elder brothers, Henry and John, without issue, he succeeded to the Baronetcy 1 July 1729: but he did not resign Navenby: after 1730 the register is always signed by curates, of whom his sons John and Simon were two. Married Mary, daughter of Joshua Clarke, rector of Somerby: had five sons, Henry (admitted 1726), John (1726), Simon (1730) and two others. Died 12 Jan. 1753 after holding Navenby for fifty years, aged 90. His wife died at Navenby 12 Aug. 1725, apparently after child-birth.

I have been shewn by Miss E. M. Every a curious MS. commonplace book, which belonged to John Every of Chardstock (? adm. 1648, uncle of this Simon); it contains also entries by Simon to whom it passed. There is a curious page dealing with his meals in College in Nov. 1693 of which I give part "Friday 3rd Nov. dine in the Hall: at night noe supper....Sunday 5 of Nov. my exceed(ings) in my Chamber. Monday 6 Nov. not anything at noone: at night half a raw chicken. Tuesday ye 7 nothing at noone, at night nothing.... Friday 10th. din: in the Hall, at night noe supper. Saturday din. in the Hall: at night with Mr Waterhs: on Stinking Mutton. Sunday 12: di: in Hall, at night pig's head with Smith."

Waite, George: son of William: born at Milton [near Repton], Derbs. School: Repton, under Mr Litherland. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 26 April 1680. Age 18.

B.A. 168¾; M.A. 1693. His father was a yeoman: the family were still at Milton two centuries later. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1684 Sept.: licensed to chapel of Blackfordby, Leics. Licensed to preach at Walton on Trent 4 Oct. 1686. Master of the school of Little Appleby on the boundary of Derbs. and Leics. 1705–25, when he died, 22 July, aged 65. (Nichols, Leics. 4. 438.) His son George was admitted at Trinity, Oxford, 1713, aged 15.

Merry, Thomas: son of William: born in London. School: Westminster. Admitted pensioner under Mr Cudworth 7 May 1680. Age 18.

Matricd. as Edward 19 July 1681: B.A. (Tho. Merrye) 168¾; M.A. 1687: no Thomas matricd. Probably Edward is due to miscopying: but there may have been two men.

Mackworth, Humphry (Onufrius): son of Thomas, baronet. Born at Normanton, Ruts. School: not given. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Lynford 11 May 1680. Age not given.

Matric^{n}. not found. Resided till Mich^{s}. 1682. Son of Sir Thomas of Normanton, third baronet, by his wife Anne, daughter of Humphry Mackworth of Betton, Salop. Nephew of Gustavus (admitted 1650). Died unmarried (Kimber, 1. 156). For his cousin, another Humphry, "a noted projector," see D.N.B. The connexion between the College and the Mackworths was perhaps due to the marriage of the widow of Alex. More of Grantham with Sir Thomas (the first baronet, 1619) of Normanton.

Hayton, William: [father not given]: of Derbs. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lynford 11 May 1680. Age not given.

Matric^{n}. not found. Probably never resided.

Backwell, Barnaby: son of Edward, armiger: born at Crislowe [Creslow], Bucks. Educated by M^{r} Maurice. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Lovett 24 May 1680. Age not given.

Matric^{n}. not found: resided till Mich. 1681. Brother of Richard above, whom see: named after his grandfather, Barnaby Backwell of Temple Dasset. Creslow, near Aylesbury, was perhaps one of the farms acquired by Edward by foreclosing. Admitted at the Inner Temple 6 Feb. 1682. He died unmarried 21 Feb. 1731, and was buried at Tyringham.

Backwell, Leigh: son of Edward, armiger: born at Parson's Green, Midds. Educated by M^{r} Maurice. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Lovett 24 May 1680. Age not given [but not more than 14].

Matric^{n}. not found: resided till Mich. 1681. Third brother, see Richard and Barnaby, above; called after his maternal grandfather Ri. Leigh. He is not given in the pedigree (Lipscombe, Bucks. 4. 376): perhaps he died young.

Farrer, Richard: son of Joseph: born at Kirkby Lonsdale. School: Kirkby, under M^{r} Farrer, his brother. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 27 May 1680. Age not given.

Matric^{n}. not found. Resided till Mich^{s}. 1682. Possibly the "Ri. Farrer, gent." matric^{d}. at Univ. Coll., Oxford 8 July 1684: B.A. 1688; M.A. 169$\frac{0}{1}$: no further facts given.

Wigg, William: son of William: born at Stainbridge, Beds. School: Hockcliffe, under M^{r} Stackhouse [rector, admitted here 1656]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 28 May 1680. Age not given.

Matric^{d}. 1681 July. M.B. 1685.

Carr, Richard: son of George: born at Giggleswick. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Briggs. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 29 May 1680. Age not given.

B.A. 168$\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1689. Perhaps the Ri. Carr who taught three weeks (during a vacancy) at Giggleswick before June 1685, for £2. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1685 Sept.; licensed to All Saints, Huntingdon: priest, 168$\frac{5}{6}$ Feb.; licensed to Wotton, Lincs. One Ri. Carr, M.A., rector of Kirkby cum Broughton, Yorks. 5 July 1727: gone in 1728 (Graves, Cleveland, 241).

Hargreaves, Thomas: son of John: born at Gisborne, Yorks. School: Erby [Earby], under M^{r} Rakes. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 29 May 1680: afterwards pensioner. Age not given. M.B. (Hargraves) 1685.

Lawson, Thomas: son of Laurence: born at Giggleswick. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Briggs. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 31 May 1680. Age not given.

Probably never resided. Name entered in Study-rents for a year, without charge.

Pyke, William: son of Richard: born at Claverley, Salop. Educated by Mr Guest. Admitted sizar under Mr Waterhouse 1 June 1680. Age not given.

Matricn. not found: name entered for a half-year without charge. Probably never resided.

Wolfall, Thomas: son of Thomas: born at Tonstall, Lancs. School: Garstang, under Mr Harding. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 14 June 1680. Age not given.

Matricd. 8 July 1680: resided till Lady Day 1681.

Jackson, John: son of Robert: born at Camfield [?], Lancs. School: Sedbergh, under Mr Wharton. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 14 June 1680. Age not given.

Matricd. 8 July 1680. Resided till Lady Day 1681. One of these names died vicar of Skipwith, Yorks. before Oct. 1713.

Hale, William: [no facts given]. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lovett 18 June 1680.

B.A. 168$\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1687. Possibly second son of William Hale of King's Walden, Herts., M.P. for Herts., by his wife Mary, daughter of Sir Jeremiah Elwes of Roxby, Lincs.: born 17 Feb. 1663. (Berry, Herts. Genealogies, 34.)

Tatham, Edmund: [admitted as William: no facts given]. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lynford 18 June 1680.

Matricd. (Edmund) 3 April 1682. B.A. (Edmund) 1684 Mids.; M.A. 1694. Probably nephew of Edmund Tatham (1654) vicar of Tonstall 1664–1699: viz. son of his elder brother Richard. One Edm. Tatham ordained priest, York, 1684 Dec., succeeded the elder Edmund at Tonstall 21 June 1699, on the presentation of John Bonett. Died (probably intestate) in 1718. Another was vicar of Newport, Essex, 24 Feb. 170$\frac{2}{3}$: and of Quendon 29 Mar. 1707: held both till 1735, when he died: perhaps of St John's, M.A. 1700. If there was also a Will. Tatham admitted here, perhaps he was a son of John Tatham of Pontefract, deceased, admitted at Lincoln's Inn 23 April 1678. One—and only one—appears in Study-rents, till Michs. 1681: after that date he probably became a sizar.

Carter, Thomas: [no facts given]. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lynford 18 June 1680.

Matricn. not found: resided till Lady Day 1681. Perhaps Tho. Carter, son of William of Gilling, Yorks., admitted at Gray's Inn 24 June 1680.

Waldron, John: son of George, armiger: [birthplace not given]. School: [Felstead], under Mr Glascock. Admitted pensioner under Mr Waterhouse 3 July 1680. Age 16.

Matricn. not found: resided till Lady Day 1681. Admitted at Gray's Inn 13 June 1680 as son of George Waldron of Stapleford Abbotts, Essex; who married Amy, daughter and heiress of Fra. Stonard of Knowles Hill where a younger brother Francis Waldron (admitted 1681) was born. According to Morant (1. 178) their son George (not John) was at Christ's, died 15 May 1681, aged 17 years and 2 months; and has M.I. in Stapleford Abbotts church. It seems likely that George is a mistake for John.

Wightman, Robert: nothing recorded except that he was admitted pensioner: it must have been at some time between July and September 1680.

Appears for Study-rents first at Mich. 1681 as a pupil of Mr Cudworth: afterwards he was transferred to Mr Lovett. Buried at Great St Andrew's 11 June 1683. A family of this name at Hinckley, Leics.—with a branch at Peckleton—pedigree in Nichols, 4. 876.

Carter, Martin: son of Martin: born at Shalford, Essex. School: Felstead, under Mr Glascock. Admitted pensioner under Mr Waterhouse 11 Sept. 1680. Age 16.

Matricn. not found: resided till Mich. 1682. Admitted, as of Great Saling, son of Martin of Shalford, at Lincoln's Inn 22 Jan. 1681. Martin Carter, the grandfather, came from Lincs. to Shalford. His son Martin, of Queens' College and of Gray's Inn, bought Saling Hall: married Elizabeth, daughter of Ant. Wolmer of Lincs. Martin the third, our man, married "Mary Westwood or Butler" (Morant, 2. 411). "An accomplished gentleman, of singular learning...greatly improved the house and gardens at Saling Hall in 1699." But he sold it in 1717 to Hugh Raymond.

Scoles, Nathaniel: son of Jeremiah: born at Salford, Lancs. Educated by Mr Barrow. Admitted sizar under Mr Waterhouse 11 Sept. 1680. Age 16.

Matricn. not found. Resided, if at all, for half a year only. Jeremiah Scoles was ejected in 1662 from Norton, Derbs.: afterwards a nonconformist minister at Manchester. Nathaniel became a pupil of Mr Frankland (at Natland) 4 April 1684. According to Urwick (Cheshire, 233) he was a pastor at Newton, then at Macclesfield where he died 10 Oct. 1702, aged 37. Matthew Henry writes of him (Tong's Life of M. Henry, 279) that he was "a very ingenious man, a florid preacher, and very serious and affectionate in all his performances. He met with affliction in his marriage, which occasioned some unevenness in his temper: but he was a man of true piety and integrity. He died of a palsy in complication with other distempers. His afflictions had broken his spirit very much." (Urwick, as above.)

Collins, William: admitted as Collin: of Herts. Admitted sizar under Mr Lynford 17 Sept. 1680. Age not given.

B.A. (Collins) $168\frac{4}{5}$. Probably the Collins who was one of Mr Austin's three poor scholars to be paid out of the Exchequer: appointed 7 Feb. $168\frac{1}{2}$ "for the Master," together with Oxley "for Dr Widdrington" and Sir Foster for Dr More (?): these three alone sign the order. See under Rob. Foster (1678).

Wykes, Aquila: admitted as Wyke [the praelector, Tho. Waterhouse, writes Aquilas, with hesitation: the s is a later addition]: son of Aquila: born in London. Educated at Harding [in Herts.]. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lynford 25 Oct. 1680. Age not given.

B.A. (Wykes) $168\frac{4}{5}$.

Powell, Robert: son of Robert, D.D. and Chancellor of St Asaph: born at Parke, Salop. Educated at home by Mr Taylor. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lovett 22 Nov. 1680. Age 14.

Rob. Powell, the father (adm. 1644) oscillated between Cambridge and Oxford; but was never at Christ's. The son was admitted at Lincoln's Inn 30 Nov. 1680. Resided here till Lady Day 1682. One of these names was B.A. (Queens') $168\frac{4}{5}$, M.A. 1688: he matricd. from there 15 Dec. 1683, having probably migrated from Christ's.

White, John:

Matricd. sizar 1680 July: B.A. $168\frac{3}{4}$. One John Wright [sic J. A. V.], son of Thomas, clerk, of Little Hendred, Berks. admitted at the Middle Temple 24 Oct. 1683.

Fournesse, Samuel: eldest son of Joseph: born at Ovenden near Halifax. [School not given.] Admitted pensioner under Mr Waterhouse 26 Feb. $168\frac{0}{1}$. Age 18.

Resided till the summer of 1682. Probably the man mentioned by Oliver Heywood in his Diary, "Mr Saml ffurnesse and Jane Breatcliffe, Sept. 26 [1682] unknown to Relations tho' for main consenting" (Northowram Register, p. 45). Also somewhat later "Sam. ffourness of Ovendon, bur. 23 Feb. $168\frac{7}{8}$, a young man dispatcht with Intemperance" (ib. p. 72).

Driffield, Christopher: son of Christopher: born at Ripon. School: Ripon, under M^{r} Loop. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 30 March 1681. Age 16.

Resided till Lady Day 1684. Christopher, son and heir of Christopher of Gray's Inn, admitted there 21 June 1682. M^{r} Chris. Driffield, barrister of Ripon, married at York Minster 10 Jan. $169\frac{6}{7}$ to Mary, daughter of Tho. Fairfax, Esq., of York and Sledmere. Married again in 1702, on Nov. 4 to Anne Carpenter of Beverley. Will dated 21 May 1721, proved 3 July 1724 by his widow Anne (Yorks. Arch. Journal, 2. 115).

Massam, John: [no facts]. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 30 March 1681. Probably never resided here. Perhaps B.A. (Peterhouse) $168\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1688.

Yates, Francis: son of William: born at Dunnington [Donington], Salop. [School, not given.] Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Waterhouse 5 April 1681. Age 15.

Apparently kept the Mich. Term 1682 or the Lent Term 1683, but no more. One "Yeates, literatus," of Christ's College, was ordained deacon, Glos., 1686: priest, 1687. A Francis Yates was incumbent of St Nicholas, Whitehaven, 1693, and rector of Moresby 1711–20. Another, of the same name, was at Moresby 1728–35 (Jefferson, Cumberland, 2. 68, 381).

Lambert, Josias: son of Thomas: born at Hubberholme, Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Briggs. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 9 April 1681. Age not given.

Does not appear in the Study-rents. Probably the father Thomas was the son of John Lambert of Cold Coniston in Craven; drowned in 1694 while riding between Long Preston and Settle (Whitaker-Morant, Craven, 256).

Pye, Charles: son of John: born at Morpeth. School not given. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lynford 18 April 1681. Age not given.

B.A. $168\frac{4}{5}$. Perhaps son of John Pye (1633) rector of Morpeth; and younger brother of John (1668). Ordained deacon, Durham, 1685 Sept. Rector of Meldon (about seven miles from Morpeth) 1695–1726. Collected many papers concerning the living of Meldon, which came into the hands of the Rev. James Raine, a succeeding rector. Buried at Morpeth 27 Nov. 1726. (Hodgson, Northumberland, II. ii. 10.)

Fenwick, Richard: son of Arthur: born at Appleby, Westmoreland. School not given. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lynford 18 April 1681. Age not given.

Transferred to M^{r} Lovett, under whom he resided till Lady Day 1684, but took no degree.

Heathcote, Gilbert: [no facts given]. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Waterhouse 22 April 1681.

Only one Heathcote is found in the Study-rents, and he is doubtless Ralph (admitted 8 July). See under Gilbert, admitted 1666. If dates be right, neither can be the banker and Lord Mayor of London, Sir Gilbert, "the grave Sir Gilbert" who "holds it for a rule that every man in want is knave or fool" (Pope). But probably each belonged to one of the Derbyshire families: among whom Gilberts and Ralphs are plentiful.

Forster, James: youngest son of George: born at Bolam, Westmoreland [?]. School not given. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lynford 25 April 1681. Age not given. Became a pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 30 June 1682.

B.A. $168\frac{4}{5}$. Ordained deacon, Carlisle, $168\frac{5}{6}$ Feb. One J. Forster curate of Alnwick 1687–92. Vicar of Lesbury and of Shilbottle 1688–1712. Married 1689 to Mary Claxton. Buried 12 Aug. 1712 (Bateson, Northumb^{d}. 2. 442).

Hoe, John: eldest son of John: born at Nottingham. School: Nottingham, under Mr Cudworth. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 28 April 1681. Age not given.

B.A. $168\frac{4}{5}$. Ordained deacon, London, $168\frac{5}{6}$ Feb. A pedigree of the family of Hoo of Paul's Warden is in Berry's Herts. Genealogies, 148.

Lowther, William: son and heir of William, armiger: born at Swillington, Yorks. School: Berwick, under Mr Atkinson. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lynford 17 May 1681. Age not given. Became fellow-commoner 13 Oct. 1682.

Admitted at Gray's Inn 14 Dec. 1682, having probably kept the term at Cambridge. Eldest son of Sir Will. Lowther of Garforth, and eventually of Swillington, High Sheriff for Yorks., and M.P. for Pontefract, by his wife Catherine Harrison of Dancer's Hill, Herts. Candidate for Parliament in 1688 (see under Welbury Norton, vol. I. p. 529): elected for Pontefract in room of his father. High Sheriff 1697. Created a baronet 5 March 1715. Married in 1691 Annabella, daughter of Banister, Lord Maynard, sister of Banister, admitted 1694. Died 6 March 1729, leaving a son Sir William, second baronet.

Brooksbank, Abraham: son of William: born at Thornton, Yorks. School not given. Admitted sizar under Mr Waterhouse 23 May 1681. Age not given.

Not found in the Study-rents. Perhaps nephew of Abraham Brooksbank, the Fellow, and vicar of Bradford. If so, his birthplace may be the Thornton near Bradford.

Stillington, Thomas: son of Thomas, armiger: born at Kelfield, Yorks. School: Rotherham, under Mr Farrer. Admitted pensioner under Mr Waterhouse 30 May 1681. Fellow-commoner April 1682.

M.A. (per lit. reg.) 1683. Resided till Mich. 1684. Son of Thomas of Kelfield by his wife Dorothy, daughter of Jos. Micklethwayte M.D. of York. His son Joseph, of Kelfield was admitted 1721. I cannot fit this history into a pedigree (dateless) given by Foster, Yorks. Visitations, 633.

Charleton, John: son of James: born at Holton, Lancs. School: Manchester, under Mr Barrow. Admitted sizar under Mr Waterhouse 3 June 1681. Age not given.

Not found in Study-rents.

Lees, John: [father not given]: of Lancs. Educated at Stopworth [? Stockport] by Mr Needham. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 3 June 1681. Age not given.

B.A. $168\frac{4}{5}$. Ordained deacon (Leese), York, 1685 Sept.: priest, Lincoln, 1688 June. Curate of Normanton.

Jervase, John: son of Alexander: born at Darnel [Darnall, near Sheffield], Yorks. School: Sheffield, under Mr Bayly. Admitted sizar under Mr Waterhouse 20 June 1681. Age not given.

Not found in Study-rents.

Hill, John: [father not given]: born at Thistlethwaite [Isleworth], Midds. School, not given. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lovett 22 June 1681. Age not given.

Not in Study-rents. One John Hill, son of Roland, late of London, merchant, admitted at the Inner Temple 7 Jan. $168\frac{3}{4}$.

Cotton, William: [no facts given]. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lovett 24 June 1681.

Not found in Study-rents. Possibly he is the son of Will. Cotton (1639) rector of Broughton Astley, Leics., admitted 1677 and now re-admitted: see page 65.

Heathcote, Ralph: son of Ralph: born at Sta[ve]ley, Derbs. School: [Repton], under M^{r} Litherland. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Waterhouse 8 July 1681. Age 17.

B.A. 168$\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1688, incorporated, Oxford, 1693. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 20 Feb. 168$\frac{6}{7}$: priest, 27 Feb. King Edward Fellow by mandamus of James II at the end of 1686 or beginning of 1687, succeeding John Isham. He was junior Dean 1688, Praelector 1690, but held few offices, and had no pupils: he was Taxor in the University 1691. He married Eliz. West of Aston 1695: and his fellowship was vacant before 4 July. Rector of Staveley 1695–1710 (succeeding his father), and of Morton 4 Nov. 1710. Had lands at Doncaster, Kimberworth, Gainsborough, Chesterfield and Newbold. Will proved 13 April 1739 (Hunter, F.M.G. 474). His namesake Ralph "divine and miscellaneous writer" (D.N.B.) was born at Barrow-on-Soar in 1721: and was, I think, grandson of our Ralph.

There is a direct line of Ralphs, all of some note, down to the great-great-grandson: (1) Ralph, the rector of Staveley from 1661 to 1716. (2) Ralph, the Fellow of Christ's, rector of Staveley and Morton 1663–1739. (3) Ralph, of Jesus, rector of Norton and vicar of Sileby, 1697–1755. (4) Ralph, D.D., Fellow of Jesus, vicar of Sileby and rector of Sawtrey, the "divine and miscellaneous writer" (1721–95). (5) Ralph, plenipotentiary at Cologne, 1752–1800.

Miller, Nicholas: son of Nicholas: born in London. School: Hertford, under M^{r} Howard. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lynford 8 July 1681. Age 18.

Resided till Mich. 1682. The father is perhaps Nic. Miller of Reigate, who married 3 Dec. 1661 at All Hallows, London Wall, Mary Franklin of Sandon, Herts., spinster "about 24 and at her own disposal, although her mother will not consent." (London Marriage Licenses, 923.)

Oxley, Thomas: [father not given]: born at Chicknall [Chignall St James], Essex. School: [Felstead], under M^{r} Glascock. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lynford 12 Sept. 1681. Age not given.

Charged in Study-rents up to Lady Day 1682. Son of Amor (1635) rector of Chignall St James with Mashbury, Essex, and grandson of Thomas (1597). One of M^{r} Austin's poor scholars, by order 7 Feb. 168$\frac{1}{2}$. The last of the Oxleys admitted here.

Poole, —: [no facts given]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lynford 17 Sept. 1681. B.A. (Henry Poole) 168$\frac{3}{4}$.

Wardour, William: son of William, armiger: born in London. Educated at home under M^{r} Leeds. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Lynford 10 Oct. 1681. Age 17.

M.A. (per lit. reg.) 1682. Admitted at Lincoln's Inn, 29 Oct. 1683: son of Will. Wardour of Westminster, second son of Sir Edward, also of Westminster, M.P. for Malmesbury. Will. Wardour of Lincoln's Inn, bachelor, aged 21, married at St Bride's on 9 Sept. 1685, Anne Sophia Rodd of St Andrew, Holborn, aged 22 (Foster, London Marriage Licenses, 1414).

Atkins, Richard: eldest son of Edward, Baron Atkins of the King's Bench: born in London. School: Burntwood [Brentwood], under M^{r} Barnard. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Lynford 2 Nov. 1681. Age 15.

Resided till Mich. 1682. Born 20 June 1666 (Davy). Admitted at Lincoln's Inn 8 Nov. 1682, as son of Sir Edward Atkins, of Norwich, Baron of the Exchequer. Married a daughter of Sir [—] Kinsay. Died 1717 (Davy). Father of Richard (1714).

Waldron, Francis: son of George, armiger: born at Knowls Hill, Essex. School: Felstead, under M^r^ Glascock. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Waterhouse 16 Nov. 1681. Age not given.

Brother of John, admitted 1680. Seems to have resided between Mich. 1682 and Mich. 1684. Admitted as Fra. Stonard Waldron at Gray's Inn 26 Nov. 1687. His grandfather was Fra. Stonard.

Barber, John: [no facts given]. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Waterhouse 16 Nov. 1681.

Seems to have resided till Mich. 1682.

Tyrrell, Charles: son of Charles: born at Shoobury [Shoebury], Essex. School: Felstead, under Mr Glascock. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Waterhouse 23 Nov. 1681. Age 15.

B.A. $168\frac{5}{6}$. Admitted at Gray's Inn 30 Oct. 1685 as son of Charles, clerk, of Sutton—near Shoebury, 1665–96. One Cha. Tyrell (more probably the father, who was B.A. (St John's) 1661) was rector of Canewdon, Essex, 16 Dec. 1692 till his death in 1696 (Newcourt, 2. 121), described as M.A., but none such at Cambridge or Oxford. One of these names was a Master at Bury (Donaldson, p. 41).

Boylston, Joseph: son of John, D.D.: born at Derby. School: Repton, under M^r^ Litherland. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Lovett 9 Dec. 1681. Age not given.

B.A. $168\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1689. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, $169\frac{0}{1}$ March: licensed to Gransden, Herts. [sic]. The father was admitted here 1626, B.A. $16\frac{2\,9}{3\,0}$, afterwards of Jesus College.

Sparke, John:

Matric^d^. sizar 1681 July. One John Sparke, usher in Giggleswick school, received, 31 March 1683, £3. 10*s.*: and again in 1684 £1. 10*s.* for three weeks' teaching in an interregnum. One John Sparke, clerk, vicar of Long Preston (near Settle) 19 Nov. 1703—presented by Christ Church, Oxon, but not given in Al. Ox. Possibly the same man who was instituted to the vicarage of Bolton-le-Sands, Lancs. 18 Nov. 1690 (Croston-Baines, 5. 509).

Clayton, William:

Matric^d^. sizar 1681 July. B.A. $168\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1687. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, $168\frac{5}{8}$ Feb.: licensed to Taplow, Bucks. A M^r^ Clayton was Master of Bradford grammar school about 1693; gone 1710.

Sagar, Joshua:

Matric^d^. sizar 1681 Dec.: B.A. $168\frac{1}{2}$. Son of John Sagar of Bradford: baptised 6 Jan. 1655. He was a cousin of Ralph Thoresby of Leeds. On 9 June 1683 he entered Frankland's Academy, then established at Calton after the removal from Natland. In spite of the Presbyterian atmosphere of the Academy, he was ordained deacon, York, 1690 Dec.: priest, 1692 Sept. But eventually he settled as minister of a Presbyterian congregation at New Chapel, Wakefield. Married in 1693 Baptista Poole. Died 28 March 1710, and was buried at "a burying place near Woodkirk (? Tingley) Mar. 31, aged about 44: a worthy useful man, a very great loss" (Northowram Reg^r^. 251). His son Joseph became a Canon of Salisbury, and died 1759 (Hunter, F.M.G. 148). Author: Dissertatio Philosophica inauguralis de immateriali mentis humanae natura, Edinb. 1713. Edited by John Stirling. One of these names, but probably another man, was rector of Nuthall, Notts. 12 July 1694.

Ellis, Charles:

B.A. (Trin.) $168\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. (Christ's) 1688. Elected Fellow (succeeding, I think, Tho. Lynford) before 30 Sept. 1686 when he was appointed custos cistae. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 22 May 1687: priest, 29 May. In 1687 he was Junior Dean and catechist. In 1689 he was Bunting preacher. He held no office later: he seems to have gone out of residence in 1691 and from that time Dan. Duckfield and others sign for him in the Dividend-book. In Dec. 1695 and Dec. 1697 he was in London (notes by Dr Covel). He died before 29 March 1700.

Stephenson, William: son of William: born at Rother[h]am. School: Rotherham, under Mr Farrer. Admitted sizar under Mr Waterhouse 1 March $168\frac{1}{2}$. Age not given.

B.A. $168\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1689. Ordained deacon, York, 1689 Sept.: priest, $169\frac{0}{1}$ March. The father was probably the vicar of Laxton, Notts. (of Queen's Coll., Oxford), benefactor to Brampton school in Cumberland (Carlisle, 2. 700) who died before $169\frac{4}{5}$. William, the son, was probably rector of Rawmarsh, near Rotherham, 5 Oct. 1693. One of these names was vicar of Rudston near Bridlington 11 June 1717.

Handforth, William: admitted as Handford. Admitted at St John's (as Handforth) 29 June 1679, as stated in his letters testimonial: at Christ's sizar under Mr Lovett 2 March $168\frac{1}{2}$.

B.A. (Handforth) $168\frac{2}{3}$. Born at Newton, Cheshire, son of Will. Handforth (status not given): educated at Stockport under Mr Needham. He was admitted at St John's 17 (not 29) June. (St John's Adm. book.)

Forman, John: admitted at Sidney 3 July 1679: at Christ's, sizar under Mr Lynford 3 March $168\frac{1}{2}$.

B.A. $168\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1686, incorpd., Oxford, 1691. One of the first four Buntingford Scholars 1682: and he had the full value of it, residing till Lady Day 1686, when he is given as M.A. [Second son of John Forman "aromatopola sive grocer" born at Elham, Kent: educated there for three years under Mr Perne, for two years under Mr Crew and Mr Cross: then at Merchant Taylors' School, under Dr John Goad for one year. Admitted at Sidney, aged 16, sizar under Mr Goodlad, then Mr Sam. Richardson (Sidney Admn. Book).]

Thackeray, Elias: son of Thomas: born at Hampswait [Hampsthwaite, near Knaresborough]. Educated by Mr Armitage [? at Horton near Bradford]. Admitted sizar under Mr Waterhouse 27 March 1682. Age not given.

B.A. $168\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. (Jesus) 1709. Rector of Haukswell, Yorks. 27 Nov. 1711: died there 4 June 1737, aged 71: M.I., which recounts his many virtues (Whitaker, Richmondshire, 1. 325).

Nowers, Beaupré: son of Francis: born in London. School: St Paul's, under Dr Gale. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lovett 28 March 1682. Age not given.

B.A. $168\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1690. Son of Francis Nowers of Pluckley, Kent, and of Hester, daughter of Isaac Bargrave, D.D., dean of Canterbury. Exhibitioner of St Paul's 1681–9. Elected Fellow 28 Oct. 1687 succeeding Tho. Cudworth. Died 10 Nov. 1690 aged 25: buried at St Margaret's, Westminster, of which his grandfather had formerly been minister, and where his mother was buried. An eulogistic inscription ("formerly visible") is printed in The Pauline July 1891, according to which he died "tanquam satis sibi gloriaeq[ue]: amicis licet patriaeq[ue] vixerat parum."

Forster, Samuel: son of Nathaniel: born at Allington, Wilts. School: Salisbury, under Mr Taylour. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 1 April 1682. Age not given.

B.A. $168\frac{6}{7}$; M.A. 1690. His father, Nathaniel, was admitted 1634: he was rector of Allington, ejected and restored. Ordained priest, Salisbury (at St George's, Windsor), 15 June 1690. Rector of Welby, near Grantham, 18 March $169\frac{1}{2}$—the living was in the gift of the prebendaries of Grantham Australis and Borealis at Salisbury, alternately. He lived there continuously: every page of the register is signed by him till 20 April 1730. He was buried 4 June of the same year. (Rev. E. F. Quarrington, rector.) The Master (of the same names) of the Free School, Buckingham, 1709–15 (Lipscombe, 2. 584) and vicar of Swanbourne, Bucks. 24 July 1715, was perhaps M.A. of Lincoln, Oxford, 1692.

Pope, William: no facts given, except that he was admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 1 April 1682 "et praematuro fato succubuit."

He was buried at Great St Andrew's 22 April.

Mathewman, Richard: son of Richard: born at Brampton, Derbs. School: [probably Wakefield], under M^{r} Baskerville. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 1 April 1682. Age not given.

B.A. $168\frac{5}{6}$. His father Richard was admitted 1651.

Lortie, Andrew: son of Andrew: born at [La] Rochelle, France. Educated there. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 18 April 1682. Age not given.

B.A. $168\frac{5}{6}$. Ordained deacon, London, $168\frac{8}{9}$ Feb. Rector of Barton, Notts. 5 Jan. $169\frac{1}{2}$. Another of the same names was D.D. (per lit. reg.) 1683 and became rector of Paglesham, Essex, 7 May in the same year: the same—or perhaps a third (no degree or college given) was ordained deacon, London, 20 Feb. $168\frac{1}{2}$.

Gurnall, John: son of William: born at Lavenham, Suffolk. School: Felstead, under M^{r} Glascock. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 20 April 1682. Age 17.

B.A. $168\frac{5}{6}$. The father was Minister of Lavenham 1645 in the Twelfth division of the Suffolk Presbyteries (Shaw, 2. 429). The son was curate of Brockley, Suffolk 1691–8: died 1700.

Haines, James: son of Hezekiah: born at Copford, Essex. School: Felstead, under Mr Glascock. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Waterhouse 17 May 1682. Age not given.

He resided till Lady Day 1685, but took no degree. He died a bachelor (Morant, 2. 195). Hezekiah, father of James, was a Major-General in the Civil War: and married Anne Bushell, widow of a Turkey-merchant. His father, John, bought Copford manor and estate (ib.). Hezekiah Haines, B.A. at Sidney 1706, was son of John of Copford, Essex; and nephew of James.

Jones, Edward: son of Benjamin: born at Hertford. School: Hertford. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lynford 23 May 1682. Age not given.

B.A. $168\frac{5}{6}$.

Wallis, William: son of William: born at Newcastle. Educated by M^{r} Cogging. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lynford 27 May 1682. Age not given.

Resided till Mich. 1684. One Will. Wallis of River Green, Northumberland was admitted at Gray's Inn 11 Feb. $168\frac{1}{2}$. Perhaps B.A. (Clare) $168\frac{6}{7}$; M.A. 1692. Ordained deacon, London, 1687 May: licensed to Billesdon, Leics. Perhaps rector of Wistow, Leics. 21 Aug. 1695–1714: rector of Norton by Galby 10 Aug. 1714: buried there 11 Jan. 1725, aged 62. He seems to have signed as vicar of Kilby, Leics. in 1694 and 1696 (Nichols, II. 2. 878): but no institution or cession appears.

Walker, John: son of William: born at Kirkum [Kirkham], Lancs. Educated by M^{r} Kawcroft [?]. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 29 May 1682. Age not given.

Resided till Lady Day 1683. One John Walker of Priesthall, near Kirkham, admitted at Gray's Inn 29 Jan. $168\frac{5}{6}$. One joined Ri. Frankland's Academy (at Attercliff) 26 Jan. $168\frac{7}{8}$.

Wilkinson, Christopher: son of John: born at Horton, Yorks. School: Horton, under M^{r} Armitage. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 29 May 1682. Age not given.

B.A. $168\frac{5}{6}$.

Metcalfe, Matthew: son of Matthew: born at Apperset [-said], Yorks. School not given. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 7 June 1682. Age not given.

Brother of Michael, originally of Oxford, then M.A. (Christ's) 1676, and by this time rector of Little Thurrock in Essex. He seems not to have resided.

Berrow, John: son of John: born at Rickmansworth, Herts. School: Camberwell, under M^{r} Ballow. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 9 June 1682. Age not given.

B.A. $168\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1689. Brother of Richard ($167\frac{8}{9}$). Ordained deacon, Salisbury, 1689 Sept.: priest, 1690 Sept. Vicar of Inglesham (presented by the Bishop of Salisbury), Wilts. 1704–18, when he died. Subscriber to Ford's Articuli [J.E.B.M.]. The father was probably of Corpus, Oxford, and vicar of Watford 1675 (Al. Ox.). Capell, son of John, born at Watford, and admitted 1700, may be a third son.

Catlyn, John: son of John: born at Hull. School: Hull, under M^{r} Pell. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 13 June 1682. Age not given.

B.A. $168\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1690. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1688 June: licensed to curacy of Lower Church [St Mary's] in Hull: priest, York, $16\frac{8}{9}\frac{9}{0}$ March.

Drake, Thomas: [no facts given]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 19 June 1682. Age not given.

Appears in the list of Waterhouse's pupils in Mich. 1682, with no charge against him: does not reappear. Perhaps the Thomas Drake, son of Robert Drake of Cambridge, admitted at Gray's Inn 29 May 1682.

Sharpe, John: son of John: of Yorks. School: Wibsey [near Bradford], Yorks., under M^{r} Lunn. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 19 June 1682. Age not given.

B.A. $168\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1689. One John Sharpe, B.A., ordained priest, Lincoln, $168\frac{6}{7}$ March: and instituted vicar of Alford, Lincs., patron, the Crown. But another John Sharpe, of Christ's, was licensed to practise medicine, 1689. Either might be the John Sharpe M.A., of Christ's, given by Cole, as chaplain of the forces at New York: probably the same who emigrated as minister to the Leeward Islands 27 Feb. $170\frac{0}{1}$ (Fothergill, Emigrant Ministers to America, p. 54). Preached at Trinity church, New York, 13 Aug. 1706 a sermon from Job xiv. 14 on the death of Lady Catherine Cornbury, wife of the Governor of New York.

Askew, Richard: son of John: born at Kirkby Lonsdale. School: Kirkby, under M^{r} Farrer. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lynford 22 June 1685. Age not given.

B.A. $168\frac{5}{6}$.

Coe, Robert: son of William: born at Horsham, Sussex. School: Horsham, under D^{r} Nesbit. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Waterhouse 30 June 1682. Age not given.

B.A. $168\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1689; M.D. 1696. Recommended by Hen. Halliwell (see vol. I. p. 577) to Henry More, in a letter 20 May 1686, as a son of an old friend, for a Fellowship: but did not get one. The letter is No. 37 in a collection (MS.) of letters written to Dr More, belonging to the Dean of Westminster.

Meriton, John: son of George: born at Kirby Wiske, Yorks. School: [Kirby], under Mr Smelt. Admitted sizar under Mr Lynford 30 June 1682. Age not given.

B.A. $168\frac{5}{6}$. George, the father, was a "legal and miscellaneous writer," 1634–1711 (D.N.B.), an attorney at Northallerton, who married Mary Palliser of Kirby Wiske: he wrote an Abridgment of the Irish Statutes and several dialect-books, including a poem The Praise of Yorkshire Ale. "Removed into Ireland where he was said to be made a Judge" (Ra. Thoresby, 1703). George, elder brother of John, was admitted at St John's 1678 and died at Cambridge 1680. John is not mentioned in his father's will 26 Sept. 1701, and proved by a younger brother, Luke, in 1711. (Genealogist, N.S. 23. 165.) Another John Meriton (of Caius, B.A. $168\frac{2}{3}$)—perhaps a cousin—was rector of Boughton, Norfolk, succeeding his father, Henry.

Halles, William: son of John: born at Glaston, Ruts. School: Peterborough, under Mr Smith. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 4 July 1682. Age 15.

B.A. $168\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1689. One of the first appointed Finch and Baines scholars. Will. Halls, B.A., ordained priest, Lincoln, 1689 Sept.: licensed to Taplow, Bucks.

Domet(t), Samuel: son of John: born at Hawkhurst, Kent, "inter Durotriges." Educated by Mr Barber. Admitted sizar under Mr Waterhouse 4 July 1682. Age not given.

B.A. (Domett) $168\frac{5}{6}$.

Carter, John: son of Ralph: born at Redmire, Richmond. School: Bedale, under Mr Rob. Nicholson (Pemb. Hall). Admitted at Pembroke 3 July 1680: at Christ's sizar under Mr Holdsworth 13 Oct. 1682. Age not given.

B.A. $168\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1694. Ordained deacon, York, $168\frac{4}{5}$ March: curate of Bedale, March 16.

Bagl(e)y, George: son of Samuel, incumbent of Haselbeech, Northants. School: Gilsborough, under Mr Chapman. Admitted sizar under Mr Lynford 27 Oct. 1682. Age 18.

B.A. (Bagley) $168\frac{6}{7}$. One Geo. Bagley occurs as vicar of Desborough, Northants. in 1695 (Bridges, 2. 27): also rector of Isham, where he occurs 1719 (ib. 110).

Waterhouse, Jeremiah: [father not given]: of Yorks. School: Sheffield, under Mr Balg[u]y. Admitted at St John's under Mr Billers "vir clarissimus" 9 May 1681: at Christ's sizar under Mr Waterhouse 3 Nov. 1682. Age not given.

B.A. $168\frac{4}{5}$. Admitted at St John's as born at Bradfield, but father not given. Ordained deacon, York, 1685 Sept.; priest, $16\frac{8}{9}\frac{9}{0}$ March. Curate of Bolsterstone, Yorks. 1685–1704 (Hunter, Hallamshire, 478).

Marshall, William: son of Thomas: born at Lynn. School: Lynn, under Mr Horne. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 23 Nov. 1682. Age 15.

B.A. $168\frac{6}{7}$. One Will. Marshall, B.A., ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1687 May, and licensed to Stamford: he may be of St John's, B.A. 1683: a second, B.A., ordained 1688 Sept.—described as curate of Gt Harborough, dio. Lichfield, licensed to Kirkby Mallory, Leics.: a third, ordained 1 Sept. 1689, licensed to Roughton, Lincs.; priest 1691 Sept.; licensed to Marston. One of these may be of St Alban Hall, Oxford, B.A. 1686. But any one of the three might be our man: as to age, the last seems most natural. One had license to serve the cure of Hougham with Marston, Lincs. 14 June 1693. Finally, one Will. Marshall was ordained priest, Norwich, 29 May 1697, and described in the register as born at Lynn, and aged 24: he was probably vicar of East Reedham, Norfolk, 1697–1701 (Blomefield, 3. 835): but if the age be right, he cannot be our man.

Ridley, — :

In Great St Andrew's register occurs "Ridley a scholar of Christe College, buried July the 10th, 1682." He appears as a pupil of M^{r} Waterhouse in the Study-rents for Lady Day and Mich. 1682—in each case with no charge against him.

Wells, William:

Matric^{d}. pensioner 1682 July: but never appears in Study-rents. Possibly son of Will. Wells admitted $16\frac{4}{5}\frac{9}{0}$.

Hall, Henry:

Matric^{d}. sizar 1682 Dec. It would seem likely that this was Hen. Hall admitted 1679 and only now matriculated: but two men graduated as B.A. one in $168\frac{2}{3}$ and one in $168\frac{3}{4}$. Strangely, neither can be found in the Study-rents. One Henry Hall, son of Henry of Poplar, Midds., gentleman, deceased, was admitted at the Middle Temple, 19 Nov. 1680.

Littleford, Thomas:

M.A. 1688. Son of John of Baninghall [?], Salop: matric^{d}. at Magdalen Hall, Oxford, $16\frac{6}{7}\frac{9}{0}$, aged 16: B.A. 1673; M.A. (from Christ's) 1688. Appointed Rhetorick Lecturer Oct. 1688, but he does not appear in the Study-rents, and probably did not reside in College: so it is impossible to say how long he remained. He signs, immediately after the Fellows in the first set of entries in the "Scholars' Book" 21 June 1689. According to Foster, Al. Ox. 918, he was rector of Hughley, Salop, in 1686, i.e. before he came to Cambridge: and of Quatt in 1695. Perhaps he was connected with the Wolrych family of Dudmaston and Quatt.

From this point there is definite evidence who were scholars of the College, supplied by the so-called "Scholars' Book": which contains the declaration required from all beneficiaries of the College of assent to the Declaration against Transubstantiation, drawn up by Act of Parliament Charles II, 30: beginning

I, A. B., do solemnly and sincerely in the presence of God, profess, testifye, and declare, that I doe believe that in the sacrament of the Lord's Supper there is not any Transubstantiation of Bread and Wine into the Body and Bloud of Christ, at or after the Consecration thereof by any person whatsoever: And that the Invocation or Adoration of the Virgin Mary, or any other Saint, and the Sacrifice of the Mass, as they are now used in the Church of Rome, are Superstitious and Idolatrous.....

The book dates from Covel's time—the first signatures being affixed on 21 June 1689 by nine existing Fellows, by Tho. Littleford (above) and by 29 scholars, and by the remaining Fellows and scholars, then existing, at various dates down to November 1689. Each Fellow and scholar signed from December 1689 on his admission. From this time therefore we have the names of all scholars in their own handwriting. From 18 Nov. 1690 it is further stated that the scholars "did take the Oathes [required from a scholar] and subscribe the Declaration before written," and the book may properly be called a "Scholars' Book."

The first undergraduate (according to admission at the College) who signed is Thomas Oliver, below.

Oliver, Thomas: son of Thomas: born in London. School: Christ's Hospital ("orphanotrophis Eccl. Xti"), under M^{r} Munford. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 5 Jan. 168$\frac{2}{3}$. Age near 15.

B.A. 168$\frac{6}{7}$. Subscribed the Declaration against Transubstantiation in the Scholars' Book 6 July 1689, and resided till Mich. 1689. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1689 Sept.; licensed to Gretford, Lincs.: priest, London, 1691 Dec. One Tho. Oliver, B.A., was vicar of Wolfhamcote, Warw. 23 May 1703: vicar of Penn, Staffs. 1709: and of Dudley, Worcs. 1721: but he may be an Oxonian.

Brooksbank William: son of Abraham: born at Bradford. School: Reading, under M^{r} Gostwick. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 9 Jan. 168$\frac{2}{3}$. Age 14.

B.A. 168$\frac{6}{7}$; M.A. 1690. Appears in Scholars' Book 9 July 1689: resided till Mich. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1689 Dec.; licensed to Kegworth: priest, London, 1691. Licensed 16 Nov. 1694 to teach in a grammar school at New Brentford, Essex: another appointment made six months later. (Lond. Reg.)

Moore, Williamson: son of Thomas: born at Shipton [?], Lincs. School: Newark, under M^{r} Twells (Twelves). Admitted sizar under M^{r} Holdsworth 8 March 168$\frac{2}{3}$. Age 17.

B.A. 168$\frac{6}{7}$. Son of Thomas Moore of Stubton (S.E. of Newark) by his wife Susanna, daughter of Tho. Williamson of Allington. Library keeper 30 Sept. 1684. He had a testimonial 13 Sept. 1688 from D^{r} Covel and eight Fellows. Curate at Fulbeck, Lincs. to Tho. Williamson, rector of the same, who attested the fact 17 Sept. (Canon C. W. Foster.) Afterwards rector of Carlton Scroop, but described as of Stubton in 1710. Married Jane — of Grantham, and had two sons, Edward (of Sleaford) and Richard. Died 1724. (Lincs. pedigrees, 689.)

Lomb[e], Thomas: son of Edward: born at Caston [Cawston], Norfolk. School: Cawston, under M^{r} Tubing. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett April 1683. Age 18.

B.A. 168$\frac{6}{7}$. Admitted at the Middle Temple 15 May 1683. Died 4 Oct. 1687, and buried at Cawston: the family was long settled in and about Norwich. Sir Tho. Lombe the introducer of silk-throwing machinery into England (see D.N.B.) was born at Norwich 1685.

Franklyn, William: son of William: born at Fring [near Docking, N.W. Norfolk], Norfolk. School: Ca[w]ston, under M^{r} Tubing. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 13 April 1683. Age 15.

B.A. (Francklin) 168$\frac{6}{7}$.

Slany, Griffith: son of Edward: born at Drayton, Salop. School: Drayton, under M^{r} Ra. Saxon. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Waterhouse 5 May 1683. Age 17.

Matric^{d}. 1686 April: B.A. 168$\frac{6}{7}$. A pedigree of Slaneys of Hatton Grange, Salop, in Burke, Hist. Commoners, 4. 503, contains neither of these.

Russell, —: [no facts given]. Admitted sizar 8 May 1683.

No one of this name in Study-rents.

Pierrepont, Evelyn: admitted as Pierpoint: son of Robert: brother of William, Earl of Kingston: born at Dean, Wilts. School: Winchester (Ventae Belgarum), under M^{r} Harris. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Cudworth 19 May 1683. Age not given.

Seems to have resided till Mich. 1684. Third son of Robert of Thoresby, Notts., and of Eliz. Evelyn of West Dean, Wilts. M.P. for Retford (East) 1689 and again in 1690: but succeeded in 1690 his brother William as fifth Earl of Kingston-upon-Hull. One of the Commissioners for the union with

Scotland 1706. Created Marquis of Dorchester, 23 Dec. 1706: and Duke of Kingston 1715. Keeper of the Privy Seal 1716–18. President of the Council 1719–20, when he became again Lord Keeper. Married (1) Lady Mary Fielding by whom he was the father of Lady Mary Wortley Montagu: (2) Lady Isabella Bentinck. Died at Arlington Street 5 March 1726 and buried at Holme Pierrepont, Notts. A staunch Whig, and member of the Kitcat Club. Thus described by Macky in 1705: "He hath a very good estate, is a very fine gentleman, of good sense, well-bred and a lover of the ladies; intirely in the interest of his country [!]: makes a good figure, is of a black complexion, well made, not forty years old." A catalogue of his library published 1727. Portrait by Sir Godfrey Kneller (D.N.B.). First cousin (once removed) of Robert (admitted 1653). The pedigree is as follows:

Duckfield, Daniel: son of John: born at Buntingford. School: Stortford, under M^{r} Leigh [? Thomas, adm^{d}. 1650]. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 22 May 1683. Age 16.

B.A. 168$\frac{6}{7}$; M.A. 1690. Son of John, rector of Aspeden, near Buntingford (? son of Daniel B.A. 1604, and vicar of Childerditch) by his wife Joyce, daughter of D^{r} John Lightfoot, of Christ's and Master of Cath. Hall. Elected Fellow, in the place of D^{r} Widdrington, who died 10 June 1688, very speedily, for he signs an order 23 June, three days before Cudworth's death. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1689 May. He began to take pupils in 1691—and in 1694 he had 69, while the other fellows had 22 among them. In 1701 (probably earlier) he was vicar of Newton, Cambs. In his last year 1702 (when the whole number of undergraduates had fallen considerably) he had nearly the whole College. He died, it would seem suddenly, between 25 March and 1 May 1702, aged only 35—a heavy loss to the College. His dividend for Lady Day 1702 was paid at Mich. to his administrator M^{r} John Baines, the College cook. His pupils passed over chiefly to M^{r} Withers, but M^{r} Burton and M^{r} Sherwill also profited.

There are six letters of Duckfield to J. Strype among the Baumgartner Papers: see Catalogue of MSS., Univ. Lib., Cambridge, v. 147. John Lightfoot left many of his papers, including a Concordance and sermons, also a journal to his son-in-law John, Daniel's father: these papers John Duckfield passed over to Strype before 1 Oct. 1679 (ib. 13). On 12 Oct. 1693 Daniel asks Strype for a sight of some of these:—he refers also to a Targum on the Chronicles, translated by M^{r} (? Sam) Clark, and asks whether it be recoverable —or any letters between Lightfoot and Clark (ib. 47). On 10 Jan. 169$\frac{5}{6}$ he writes that everything but money is ready for the publication of the Targum (ib. 17). In later letters he explains the cause of delay in returning the journal to Strype—also certain papers which Strype desired, which on 12 June 1697 he had just recovered and forwarded by carrier: he leaves the question of recompense to Strype (ib. 20). Lastly on 4 Mar. $169\frac{8}{9}$ he thanks Strype for the Latin edition (? that of Lensden, published at Utrecht) of his grandfather's works (ib. 68).

Raper, Philip: son of Philip: born at Bedale, Yorks. School: Bedale, under M^{r} Nicholson. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Holdsworth 2 June 1683. Age 17.
B.A. (Rapier) $168\frac{6}{7}$.

Arderne, Ralph: [no facts given]. Admitted a pensioner [June 1683].
He resided as Arden till Mich. 1685 as a pupil of M^{r} Lynford: then he was transferred to M^{r} Holdsworth, on whose list his name appears for a year, but without charge: probably he had gone out of residence. Perhaps son or nephew of James Ardern (1653), D.D., and Dean of Chester, whose father was a Ralph.

Trotter, Thomas: son of Gilbert: born at Helmeden [?], Durham. School: Kirkby Ravensworth, under M^{r} Coates. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 9 June 1683. Age 16.
B.A. $168\frac{6}{7}$; M.A. 1693. Ordained deacon, London, 1692 May.

Coker, Thomas: son of William: born at "Worth inter Durotriges" [probably Worth-Matravers, Dorset]. School: Frampton [Dorset], under M^{r} Slade. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Waterhouse 13 June 1683. Age not given.
Seems to have resided till Mich. 1687: perhaps B.A. (St John's) $168\frac{6}{7}$; he does not appear in the Johnian admission-book. Two pedigrees of Cokers in Hutchin's Dorset: but these two are not in either.

Dunning, John: son of John: born at Netherbury, Dorset. School: Frampton, under M^{r} Slade. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse [probably 13 June] 1683. Age 17.
M.B. 1688.

Robinson, John: son of William: born at Winnington [Wymington], Beds. School: Knotting, Beds., under M^{r} Scriven. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse [—] 1683. Age 17.
B.A. $168\frac{6}{7}$. One John Robinson, B.A., ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1687 May: licensed to Little Houghton, Hunts.: priest, Sept.: no other likely at either University. One (B.A.) under-master at Appleby School, Leics. 1707–8.

Sober, Henry: son of Thomas: born at Richmond. School: Richmond, under M^{r} Parvin[g]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett [—] 1683. Age 22.
Resided till Mich. 1686.

Richardson, Adrian: [no facts given]. Admitted pensioner [—] 1683.
Son of Richard, clerk: born at Brixworth, Northants. Admitted at Trinity College, Oxford $168\frac{9}{1}$. Age 16 (Al. Ox. 1253). Not found at Christ's in the Study-rents: but B.A. $168\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1688. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1687 May: licensed to Lockington, Leics.: priest, London, $168\frac{8}{9}$ Feb. Vicar of Brixworth 4 Aug. 1700: buried there 12 Feb. $170\frac{3}{4}$: M.I. written by his father "filio unico et dilectissimo" (Bridges, 2. 83). The father was of Emmanuel and vicar of Brixworth 1663–99, when he removed to Lamport.

Brockden, James: son of Richard: born at Norwich. School: Norwich, under M^{r} Burton. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 14 Sept. 1683. Age not given.
B.A. $168\frac{7}{8}$.

Markham, Robert: son of Robert, baronet: born at Sedgebrook, Lincs. School: Charterhouse, under Mr Walker. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lynford 3 Oct. 1683. Age not given.

Resided till Mich. 1684. Born 13 Feb. 1667, second son of Sir Rob. Markham of Sedgebrook (whose father was created a baronet by Charles I in 1642) and of Mary, daughter of Sir Tho. Widdrington (matd. 1617). Admitted at the Middle Temple 16 May 1685. Died on board the Kempthorne Indiaman in the Bay of Bengal 25 Aug. 1690 (Genealogist, 4. 253).

Lister, Thomas: Son of John, armiger: born at Westby, near Gisborne, Yorks. Educated, "non procul inde" by Mr Sagar [? Joshua, B.A. 1681]. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mr Waterhouse 3 Nov. 1683. Age 17.

Resided till Mich. 1685. Of Arnoldsbiggin in the parish of Gisborne. Married Elizabeth, daughter of John Parker of Extwistle in the parish of Whalley, Lancs.: had six sons and one daughter. Buried at Gisborne 1706, age 40 (Morant-Whitaker, Craven, 54).

Shute, Samuel: [no facts given]. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mr Waterhouse, 12 Dec. 1683. Age not given.

Not found in Study-rents. Son of Benjamin, of Cornhill, London. See pedigree in vol. I. p. 32. Admitted at the Middle Temple 23 Nov. 1683. Joined the army, and rose to the rank of Lieut.-Colonel: serving under Marlborough. Governor of Massachusetts 1716–27, where he was involved in continuous disputes with the assembly: these are fully discussed in the article in D.N.B. Shute seems to have been generally in the right, but unable to carry out his view. He returned to England in 1723 and on the death of George I he was not reappointed. Lived quietly in England till his death in 1742.

Bateson, Peter: son of Peter: born at Knaresborough. School: Knaresborough, under Mr Blanchard. Admitted sizar under Mr Lynford 22 Jan. $168\frac{3}{4}$. Age not given.

B.A. $168\frac{7}{8}$. According to the Norwich Register he was born about 1668 at "Bunowbigg" [Boroughbridge], Yorks., W.R. Had a testimonial from Dr Cudworth and the Fellows 7 June 1688 (three weeks before the Master's death). Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1688 June: licensed to Stroxton near Grantham under Will. Parkins, rector: priest, Norwich, 1693 June. Vicar of St Mary Magdalene, Wiggenhall, 1697 to 1720 (Blomefield, 4. 760): rector of North Lynn, later than 1711, perhaps 1720, till 1729 (ib. 624).

Ewens, Christopher: son of Christopher: born at Broadwindsor, Dorset. School: Ilminster, under Mr Hunt. Admitted sizar under Mr Waterhouse 13 Feb. $168\frac{3}{4}$. Age 18.

B.A. $168\frac{7}{8}$. Ordained deacon, Oxford, $16\frac{8\,9}{9\,0}$ March.

Fountaine, Brigge: eldest son of James: born at Sall, Norfolk. School: St Paul's, under Dr Gale. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lovett 22 March $168\frac{3}{4}$. Age not given.

Perhaps resided till Mich. 1685. Son of James of the Inner Temple, and admitted there 7 July 1685. The pedigrees of Fountaine and of Brigge (Blomefield, 3. 522, and 4. 422) are not very clear or (perhaps) quite correct. Apparently, a James Brigge (temp. Edw. VI) married a Mary Stuteville: they had a daughter and heiress Mary Brigge of Sall who married John Fountaine (1601–71) Serjeant-at-law: they had a son Brigge Fountaine who married Joanna Henley and died 1661 leaving James and Andrew. James of the Inner Temple, married Anne Slany of London (possibly akin to Griffith Slany p. 91) and had Brigge, our man: Andrew served in three Parliaments of Charles II and had also a son Brigge, who died 1746 and was buried at Narford. Brigge Fountaine of Christ's seems to have lived at Sall: it does not appear that he was married: according to Blomefield, he "died without issue at the Poppinjay in Norwich in Apr. 1729, and left his estate to his sister Dorothy, widow of John Repps, Esq., of Mateshall."

Powell, Richard: son of Richard: born at Bramham, Leeds. School: Leeds, under M^{r} Gilbert. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 12 April 1684. Age not given.

B.A. 168$\frac{7}{8}$. There was another Ri. Powell B.A. (Jesus) 1686: he must be the Ri. Powell ordained at Lincoln May 1687 and afterwards rector of Grainsby, Lincs. Perhaps our man was vicar of Stillingfleet, Yorks. 12 June 1696, and died rector before June 1705.

Spencer, William: [father not given]: born in Virginia. School: Nor[t]hill, Beds. Admitted pensioner under D^{r} Luke 16 April 1684. Age not given. Fellow-commoner 23 July 1686.

He seems to have transferred himself, first to M^{r} Lynford, then on M^{r} Lynford's departure, to M^{r} Holdsworth, under whom he resided till Mich. 1687. The first of the trans-atlantic members of the College, of whom there were several in the next century.

Carr, Thomas: son of William: born in Sussex. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 22 April 1684.

B.A. 168$\frac{8}{9}$. Possibly the father was rector of Jevington, Sussex; who may be the William Carr (born at Stackhouse, near Settle) admitted 1657.

Hemingway, Joseph: [but probably Joshua]: son of Samuel: of Yorks. School: Halifax, under M^{r} Doughty. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 23 April 1684. Age not given.

B.A. (Joshua) 168$\frac{7}{8}$. Probably cousin of Joshua, son of Henry, born at Halifax, and admitted 1671. Ordained priest, London, 168$\frac{8}{9}$ Feb. Joshua Hemingway, B.A. (the cousin was M.A. 1678) was vicar of Egmanton, Notts. 19 Feb. 169$\frac{4}{5}$–1706. Vicar of Orston, Notts. (presented by Dean and Chapter of Lincoln) 15 March 170$\frac{5}{6}$. He was constantly at feud about money matters with his brother Samuel, a solicitor, of Idle and Boldshay. Each took mortgages. (See letters in Bradford Antiquary, 1. 252.) Married Mary Maltby of Orston 3 March 171$\frac{8}{9}$. Died before Nov. 1736 when Fra. Stevenson was instituted.

Tatham, Thomas: son of Christopher: born at Ranthmell [Rathmell near Settle], Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Briggs. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Holdsworth 28 April 1684. Age not given.

Resided till Mich. 1685, perhaps a little longer. One Thomas Tatham, born at Otterburn (some six miles east of Rathmell) was incumbent of Colne, Lancs. 1694–170$\frac{8}{9}$: and vicar of Almondbury, near Huddersfield, 26 March 1706, where he died before June 1716 (see Whitaker, Whalley, 2. 248).

Carr, Richard: [father not given]: born at Stackhouse, Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Briggs. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 2 May 1684. Age not given.

Perhaps son of Thomas of Stackhouse near Settle by his first marriage (1660) to Jane Taylor: and half-brother of John (1707) and James 171$\frac{1}{2}$. He survived his admission only five months: his death is recorded in the register of Great St Andrew's, but according to Ely Ep. Records, 263, he was actually buried ("Carr a schollar of X^{t}. Coll.") at St Benet, 30 Oct. 1684.

Armitstead, Daniel: [father not given]: born at Stainforth [near Settle], Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under Mr Briggs. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 2 May 1684. Age not given.
B.A. $168\frac{7}{8}$.

Powell, John: son of James: born at Llanvefe [? Llanvapley], Monmouth. School not given. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 4 May 1684. Age not given.
B.A. $168\frac{7}{8}$.

Turner, William: eldest son of Henry: born at Bury St Edmunds. School: Bury. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lynford, 7 May 1684. Age not given.
There is no evidence that he resided. His father was alderman 1681. Admitted at Gray's Inn 3 July 1684. Active in business at Bury, and prospered. Bought Horsecroft of the Lucas family 1706. Alderman 1709, 1723. Died Nov. 1734 aged 67: M.I. in St Mary's church. Succeeded at Horsecroft by his son Henry (S.H.A.H.).

Dunn, Henry: admitted as Dun: [father not given]: born at Richmond. School: [North] Allerton, under Mr Smelt. Admitted sizar under Mr Lynford 9 May 1684. Age 18.
B.A. (Dunn) $168\frac{7}{8}$. Ordained priest, York, $169\frac{2}{3}$ March.

Highgate, Robert: son of Nicholas: born in London. School: Ware, under Mr Burgoine. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lynford 14 May 1684. Age 17.
Transferred to Mr Holdsworth. Resided till Mich. 1687.

Smith, Laurence: eldest son of Kenelm [no more facts]. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lynford 14 May 1684. Age 16.
Transferred to Mr Holdsworth: resided under him till Lady Day 1687. Admitted at the Inner Temple 25 March 1686, as son of Kenelm Smith, citizen and leatherseller. Perhaps one of the Smiths of Hatherton, Staffs. (Burke, Ext. Bar. 492).

Stafford, Christopher: son of Robert: of Yorks. Educated by Mr Tomlinson. Admitted sizar under Mr Lynford 23 May 1684. Age 16.
B.A. $168\frac{7}{8}$; M.A. 1691. Subscribed in the Scholars' Book 21 June 1689 and soon after went out of residence. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1691 Sept.: licensed to Godmanchester. One Chris. Stafford was rector of Bothel, Northumberland 1691–1736: gave £10 to the poor and £80 to the school of Bothel. (Hodgson, II. ii. 149.)

Newton, —: [no facts at all]. Admitted sizar under Mr Waterhouse 23 May 1684. Age not given.
B.A. (Will. Newton) $168\frac{7}{8}$. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1690 Dec. One of these names was rector of Taxall, Cheshire, 8 June 1708–1726, when he died (Ormerod-Helsby, 3. 783): but this might be (as a matter of time) Will. Newton M.A. (Magd.) 1677, or M.A. (Jesus) 1705.

Peartree, William: son of Edward: born at Hindergham [Hindringham, near Walsingham], Norfolk. School not given. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 24 May 1684. Age 17.
B.A. $168\frac{7}{8}$. Son of Edward (admitted 1649) vicar of Hindringham. Probably curate of Toftrees, Norfolk, 1706 (Blomefield, 3. 869): rector of Wissingset (Whissonsett) in 1714 (ib. 5. 1090).

Bevin, Robert: son of Robert: born at "Chefnin" [? Chevening, near Sevenoaks], Kent. School: [St Paul's], under Dr Gale. Admitted sizar under Dr Luke 3 June 1684. Age not given.
B.A. $168\frac{7}{8}$; M.A. 1691. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1688 Dec.: priest, 1689 May. Elected fellow 23 Oct. 1688, succeeding Dr Luke, his tutor. He was Junior Dean and Catechist in 1691: praelector in 1693, and kept the Admission book carefully: Senior Dean in 1700. On 30 April 1701 he was presented to Navenby (which Every and Duckfield seem to have declined) and he was instituted on July 2: but he was still in residence at Cambridge in Feb. $170\frac{1}{2}$, enjoying his year of grace. He had less than a year at Navenby: he died before 16 Feb. 1703.

In 1695 he disputed a ruling of the Master that Sir Ward a northern candidate was inadmissible for a Fellowship because the statutable number of northern Fellows was complete and there could be no more than that number. Covel asked him to make good his protest or to withdraw it. Bevin accordingly appealed to Eachard, V.-C. There is a large bundle of papers thereon in the "Visitors' Box."

Hodder, George: son of George: of Dorset. School: not given. Admitted sizar under Mr Waterhouse 5 June 1684. Age not given.

B.A. $168\frac{7}{8}$.

Cheek, Robert: [father not given]: of Dorset. Admitted sizar under Mr Waterhouse 5 June 1684. Age not given.

He is charged for rooms till Lady Day 1688: but took no degree at Christ's. One Rob. Cheek was B.A. (St John's) $168\frac{7}{8}$: if the same, why was he still resident here? The name is not found in the Johnian Admission-book.

Hull, Peter: [no facts given]. Admitted pensioner under Mr Waterhouse 27 June 1684.

He does not appear in the Study-rents.

Drake, Joshua: son of John: born at Pethworth [perhaps Pickworth, near Folkingham], Lincs. School: not given. Admitted sizar under Mr Waterhouse 10 Sept. 1684. Age 18.

B.A. $168\frac{8}{9}$. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 6 Jan. $169\frac{0}{1}$: licensed to curacy of Malden, [?] Beds.: ordained priest at the same time; with the comment "necessitate exigente"—which admits of many explanations. He was instituted to the vicarage of Swinderby on the presentation of Daniel Disney, armiger, 30 Aug. 1692.

Hale, Charles: son of Thomas: born in London. School: St Albans, under Dr James. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lovett 16 Oct. 1684. Age 15.

Resided till Mich. 1685. Admitted at the Middle Temple 24 July 1680 as of St Martin's in the Fields. Gave £10 to the College 18 Feb. $171\frac{5}{6}$: the purpose is not clear.

Brasier, John: son of John: born at Colchester. School: Felstead, under Mr Glascock. Admitted pensioner under Mr Waterhouse 13 Jan. $168\frac{4}{5}$. Age 17.

B.A. $168\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. 1692. Subscribed in the Scholars' Book 6 July 1689: resided till Lady Day 1692. Ordained deacon, London, 1691 Dec.: priest, 1692 May. Rector of Great Holland, Essex (patron, Mary Thurston, widow), 25 May 1692–1726. Chaplain to the Duke of Schomberg and Leinster and (as such) licensed to hold also the rectory of Easthorpe, Essex (patron, Ann Green, widow) 25 June 1703. Died before Feb. $172\frac{5}{6}$ (Morant, 2. 181).

Mason, Elias: son of Richard: born at Newark, Notts. School: Newark, under Mr Twelvs [Twells]. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lynford — Feb. $168\frac{4}{5}$. Age 17.

Transferred to Mr Holdsworth; and resided under him till Lady Day 1688; but took no degree.

Town(e), William: son of John: born at Lincoln. School: Newark, under Mr Twells. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lynford — Feb. $168\frac{4}{5}$. Age 17.
Resided till Mich. 1685. Probably brother of John, admitted $168\frac{7}{8}$.

Slade, Thomas: son of William: born at West Chin[n]ock, Somerset. School: Crewkan [Crewkerne], under Mr Leevs [Leaves]. Admitted sizar under Mr Waterhouse 6 Feb. $168\frac{4}{5}$. Age not given. Afterwards a pensioner.
B.A. $16\frac{8}{90}$.

Welham, Isaac: son of Isaac: born at Thornton, Norfolk. School: (1) Thetford, under Mr Kein [Keene]: (2) Russingall [perhaps miswriting for Rippingale], under Mr Bug[ge]. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lovett 10 Feb. $168\frac{4}{5}$. Age 18.
B.A. $168\frac{8}{9}$. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1693 June: priest, 1694 June: said to have been born at Thornton, Suffolk (perhaps Thorington, near Halesworth) and aged 26 in 1693.

Isham, Henry: sixth son of Justinian, baronet: born at Lamport, Northants. School: Grantham, under Mr Walker. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mr Lynford 14 March $168\frac{4}{5}$. Age 16.
Transferred to Mr Holdsworth 1685. M.A. 1689: resided till the end of the year, as appears from Study-rents. Died and buried at Lamport 11 Jan. $16\frac{8}{90}$: the last of the Ishams who belonged to this College: Thomas and Justinian his elder brothers, and the sons of Justinian, were members of Christ Church: but John (the third son) was here in 1675. The connexion had been a long one and important to the College: other families connected with the Ishams by marriage sent their sons here.

Bellis, Robert: son of John: born at Berrow [Barrow], Cheshire. School: Miccletrafford [Mickle Trafford], under Mr Robinson. Admitted sizar under Mr Waterhouse 24 March $168\frac{4}{5}$. Age 16.
B.A. $168\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. 1696. Vicar of Ince, Cheshire 1691–1724, when he died. Had three sons here, Samuel (1712), John (1715) and Robert (1721): had also three daughters—all by his first wife Sarah, grand-daughter of Peter Holt of Bridge Hall, Bury, Lancs., whom he married at Ince 7 Jan. $169\frac{1}{2}$: she died in child-bed June 1706. He married (2) on 30 July 1708, Dorothy Allen of Redvales, Bury, who died in September: (3) in 1713 Margaret Wilbram, of Chester, who was buried 20 May 1721. There are brasses in the church to the first two wives with inscriptions by the husband, who wrote Latin verse. He was buried himself 3 May 1724: aged 55: M.I. (Information from Rev. F. G. Slater, vicar.)

Tully, William: son of Isaac: born at Danby, Yorks. School: Blankney, Lincs., under Mr Hutton. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lynford 29 April 1685. Age 18.
Transferred to Mr Holdsworth: resided under him till Lady Day 1687. Admitted at the Inner Temple (as son of Isaac, of Lincoln, gent.) 22 May 1685.

Burnett, Edward: son of Samuel: born at Hert[ing]fordbury. School: Grantham, under (1) Mr Walker: (2) his father who succeeded Mr Walker there. Admitted sizar under Mr Lynford 1 May 1685. Age 16.
M.B. 1690, as pupil of Mr Holdsworth.

Raper, John: son of John: born at How[e], Yorks. School: Tanfield [Durham: between Ripon and Bedale: or ? Yorks.], under Mr Hutchinson. Admitted sizar under Mr Waterhouse 4 May 1685. Age 16.
B.A. $168\frac{8}{9}$. Perhaps brother of Philip (admitted 1683). Ordained deacon, York, 1689 Sept.

Lupton, Geoffrey [Galfridus]: no facts given. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 8 May 1685.

B.A. 168$\frac{8}{9}$. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1689 Sept. Licensed to Holme, Hunts.: priest, 1690 Sept.

Lees, Samuel: [no facts given]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 19 May 1685.

B.A. 168$\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. 1702. Perhaps eldest son of Sam. Lees of Conisbrough, Yorks., admitted 1661: whom see. Ordained priest, York, 1693 June. Curate of Treeton, near Rotherham, 12 June. Probably rector of Heanor, Derbs. 16 Sept. 1698–1735, when he died. Another of these names was rector of Southery, Norfolk, 1705: buried there 24 Jan. 1737: see Blomefield, 4. 166. Had a son, Samuel, and daughters, Rebecca and Patience.

Long, Charles: [no facts given]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 23 May 1685.

B.A. (Longe) 168$\frac{8}{9}$; (perhaps) M.A. (Long) 1709. One Cha. Long, B.A., ordained priest, Salisbury, 7 June 1696: licensed to Charminster with Stretton, Dorset.

Mitford, George: son of Humphry: born at Mitford, Northumberland. School: Durham, under M^{r} Battersby. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lynford 2 June 1685. Age 17.

B.A. 168$\frac{8}{9}$: second in the list of Bachelors. Transferred to M^{r} Holdsworth, 1685. Subscribed in the Scholars' Book 9 July 1689 but not in Study-rents at Mich. Probably nephew of Will. Midford, also born at Midford or Mitford, and admitted 1669, afterwards rector of Elsdon. His mother was Frances, daughter of Sir George Vane of Long Newton, Durham. (Burke, Commoners, 2. 284.) Ordained deacon, York, 1692 May.

Brown, —: [no facts given]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lynford 8 June 1685.

B.A. (Thomas Browne) 168$\frac{8}{9}$.

More, James: admitted as Moor: [father not given]: born in London. School: [Merchant Taylors'], under M^{r} Goad. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Waterhouse 18 June 1685. Age not given.

B.A. (More) 168$\frac{8}{9}$. Probably James More, son of William, grocer, of London, admitted at the Inner Temple 10 Feb. 168$\frac{7}{8}$.

Errington, Thomas: son of Richard: born at Modbury, Devon. Educated by his father. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lynford 25 June 1685. Age not given.

Transferred to M^{r} Holdsworth: resided till Lady Day 1686.

Cuthbert, Thomas: son of Thomas: born in London. School: Burnet [? Barnet], Herts., under M^{r} Lovell. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 1 July 1685. Age 18. Afterwards fellow-commoner.

Admitted at the Inner Temple, son of Tho. Cuthbert of Hadley, Midds. 13 June 1685. He appears in Study-rents only for the half-year ending Mich. 1685—and without charge. One Tho. Cuthbert of All Hallows, Lombard Street, aged 26, married in 1695 Judith Davis also of Lombard Street aged 25. (Marriage licenses, 370.)

Young, Alexander: son of James: born in Middlesex. School: Felstead [under M^{r} Glascock]. Admitted pensioner under D^{r} Luke 2 July 1685. Age 16.

Transferred before Lady Day 1687 to M^{r} Waterhouse. His father lived in St Laurence Jewry, and was a merchant and clothworker: he was the youngest of four sons. B.A. (15th in list) 168$\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. 1692; B.D. 1703. Elected Fellow in the place of Beaupré Nowers 15 Nov. 1690. Ordained deacon and priest, Lincoln, 1691 Sept. Junior Dean 1692: Praelector 1694: Bunting Preacher 1695: Senior Dean 1701. On 15 May 1705 he was presented to Caldecot, vacant by the death of Mr Bunchley: perhaps he resided as he signs the Order Book but rarely. On 26 July 1707 he was presented to Clipston, where Mr Waterhouse had died: vacated his Fellowship 1708. On 22 April 1713 he was presented to the rectory of Wickhambreux, Kent. On 17 Feb. $172\frac{8}{9}$ he had a dispensation from Lambeth to hold also East Church, Kent, distant 20 miles: and he was instituted thereto March 5. He died 21 March 1755, aged 86.

Richardson, Philip: [father not given]: of Suffolk. [School: not given.] Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 4 July 1685. Age not given.

B.A. $168\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. 1693. From the Norwich Register it appears that he was born at North Cove near Beccles, about 1668. He was ordained deacon at Lincoln (probably for Norwich) 1691 June: for he was licensed to North Cove, perhaps as curate to his father: priest, Norwich, 1695 Sept. Rector of Kirkley, near Lowestoft, 1697–1748 (Suckling, 1. 269)—when, I suppose, he died.

Lardner, John: son of Thomas: born in London. Educated there. Admitted sizar under Mr Lynford 9 July 1685. Age not given.

M.B. (com. reg.) 1690. Resided as a pupil of Mr Holdsworth till Mich. 1688: his name (with no charge against it) remains on the list till Mich. 1691. Probably brother of James Lardner admitted 1688—if he be the "James Lardner of St Bennet, Gracechurch, clerk" who "alleged the consent of the mother (a widow) of 'Hannah Moore of the town of Leicester, spinster, above 21' to her marriage with John Lardner of St Bennet Gracechurch, London, bachelor, 25" on 9 Feb. $169\frac{3}{4}$—and if so John was son of Thomas an apothecary.

Wilbore, Philip: son of Philip, armiger: born at Foxon [Foxton], Cambs. School: Huntingdon, under Mr Matthews. Admitted sizar under Mr Lynford 9 July 1685. Age not given.

Resided till Mich. 1688, as a pupil of Mr Holdsworth. Son of Philip and Susan Wilbore: bapd. 1 Sept. 1665 at Foxton, where the family was settled for at least three generations: a "Mr Phelippe Welbore, gent." was buried there 18 March $161\frac{5}{6}$.

White, Thomas: [no facts given]. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mr Lovett 14 July 1685.

Resided till Lady Day 1687. Possibly Thomas White, son of John of Cotgrave, Notts., who was admitted at Gray's Inn 22 July 1685: or another of the same names, son of Thomas of Cheeseworth near Horsham, admitted 9 Nov. 1685.

Fish, Robert: son of Robert: born at Thindon, Northants. School: Kimbolton, under Mr Trot. Admitted pensioner under Mr Waterhouse 14 July 1685. Age 17.

B.A. $16\frac{8}{9}\frac{9}{0}$. Subscribed in the Scholars' Book 2 Nov. 1689. One Rob. Fish was ordained deacon, Lincoln, $169\frac{2}{3}$ March by letters dimissory from London: was appointed praelector at All Hallows, London: and also rector of Aunsby (near Sleaford) 21 March $169\frac{2}{3}$. There is extant a letter from Tho. Harper, rector of St Katherine Coleman, London, undertaking to retain him as reader in that parish, provided he were ordained deacon—dated 7 March $169\frac{2}{3}$: this is certainly the B.A. of Christ's. He resigned Aunsby 2 Oct. 1694. It is not quite easy to identify this rector and reader with Rob. Fish, B.A. of Christ's, ordained priest, Lincoln, 1698, June, and licensed to Mulsoe, Bucks. There was yet another who was instituted on the presentation of Sir Thomas Barnardiston to the rectory of Great Coates near Grimsby, 18 July 1696, on the resignation of his father, also a Robert: he died there, as rector in 1706 or 1707 (Rev. F. Quirk, rector): but this man was curate to his father in 1687: so cannot be our man: possibly he was a Rob. Fish, B.A. (of Sidney) in $168\frac{6}{7}$.

Tiffin, Robert: son of John: born at Goldwyn, [?] Beds. School: Huntingdon, under M^{r} Matthews. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 14 July 1685. Age not given.

Subscribed in the Scholars' Book 21 June 1689: B.A. $16\frac{89}{90}$; M.A. 1693. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 25 Sept. 1692: licensed to Woodhill, Beds. Burrell Lecturer on Rhetoric 1694–1700: last stipend April 1701.

Wensley, —: [no fact given]. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett July, or August, 1685.

Probably never resided.

Nevill(e), Robert: son of Robert: born at Anstey. School: not given. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lynford 24 Aug. 1685. Age 14.

Subscribed in the Scholars' Book 2 Nov. 1689: B.A. $16\frac{89}{90}$; M.A. 1693. Robert, the father, was vicar of Anstey 1671. The son was curate of Ravenstone, Bucks. in 1693, and was ordained priest, Lincoln, 1693 Sept. He was rector of Newton-Blossomville, Bucks. 17 July 1694. Chaplain to Lord Wharton: and (as such) licensed to hold also the vicarage of Astwood, distant two miles, patron, the Crown, 23 Dec. 1706. Succeeded in 1728 (perhaps on his death) by William Warburton.

Holland, John: son of Thomas, armiger: grandson of Sir John Holland, baronet: born at Quidnam [Quiddenham], Norfolk. School: Bury, under M^{r} Leeds. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Lynford — Sept. 1685.

Transferred to M^{r} Holdsworth, and resided till Mich. 1687. Thomas Holland, son of Sir John, the first Baronet, married Elizabeth, daughter of Tho. Mead of Lofts, Essex, and died 1698 in the lifetime of his father, Sir John Holland of Quiddenham: John succeeded his grandfather in 1700. Gave £20 in 1702 to the Chapel fund. He married Rebecca, youngest daughter of Will. Paston of Oxnead, Earl of Yarmouth: by whom he had a son, afterwards Sir William, who died without issue (Blomefield, 1. 232).

Cubitt, —: [no facts given]. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 24 Oct. 1685.

Never resided.

Dusgate, John: son of Francis: born at Anmer, Norfolk. School: (1) Burnham Thorpe, under M^{r} Tubing: (2) Norwich, under M^{r} Burton. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lynford 10 Dec. 1685. Age 16.

He was the last of the pupils entered under M^{r} Lynford, who went over in a body to M^{r} Holdsworth: under whom he resided till Lady Day 1690, but took no degree. Subscribed in the Scholars' Book 2 Nov. 1689. Admitted at the Middle Temple 23 Nov. 1687. His father, Francis, was tenant of the College at Barton Bendish, 1679.

Green, John: [father not given]: of Bucks. School: Westminster, under D^{r} Busby. Admitted first at Trinity: then at Christ's, pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 13 Feb. $168\frac{5}{6}$. Age not given.

B.A. $168\frac{8}{9}$.

Cowper, Spencer: son of William, eques auratus: [no further facts]. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett [? 13] Feb. $168\frac{5}{6}$. Age not given.

Resided till Mich. 1687. Son of Sir Will. Cowper (M.P. for Hertford, died 1706) and of Sarah, daughter of Sir Sam. Holled of London. Brother of William, first Earl Cowper, and Lord Chancellor: born [?] at Hertford.

School: Westminster. Admitted at the Middle Temple 7 May 1687: called to the Bar and went on the home circuit: charged on little evidence with the murder of Sarah Stout at Hertford at the spring assizes of 1699: tried 16 July and acquitted. Miss Stout who was a quaker, took her own life: the prosecution was said to be instituted, because the tories of Hertford wished to hang an eminent whig, and the quakers wished to clear their body of the reproach of suicide. M.P. for Beer Alston 1705 and 1708, for Truro 1711. Attorney General of the Duchy of Lancaster. Judge of Common Pleas 1727. Died 10 Dec. 1727: buried at Hertingfordbury. He married Pennington Goodere by whom he had three sons: the second, John, admitted here 1711, was father of William Cowper the poet.

Knighton, John: son of John: born at Higham Ferrys [Ferrers], Northants. School: (1) Felstead, under M^{r} Glascock: (2) Huntingdon, under M^{r} Matthews. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 8 April 1686. Age 16.

Resided till Lady Day 1687. The father was vicar of Kimbolton which he resigned before Feb. $167\frac{5}{6}$: also probably rector of Holywell, Hunts.

Topham, William: [no facts given]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Holdsworth 23 April 1686.

B.A. (Sidney) $16\frac{8}{9}\frac{9}{0}$; M.A. 1693. Perhaps son of William, admitted 1652, rector of Askham Richard, Yorks.

Collier, Peter: [no facts given]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett, 10 May 1686. Age not given.

B.A. $16\frac{8}{9}\frac{9}{0}$. Subscribed in the Scholars' Book 21 June 1689. Perhaps the Peter Collier admitted at Richard Frankland's Academy—when at Calton—on 6 Feb. $168\frac{4}{5}$. Several of Frankland's scholars went on to Cambridge, though the earlier ones had been at Cambridge first. Collier's name does not occur in any of the usual nonconformist sources (E. Axon, Esq., of Manchester).

Becket, Peter: son of George: born at Eastham, Cheshire. School: Crosby, Lancs., under M^{r} Waring. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 14 June 1686. Age 16.

B.A. $16\frac{8}{9}\frac{9}{0}$. Subscribed in the Scholars' Book 9 July 1689.

Palfreyman, Richard: son of Richard: born at Boston, Lincs. School: [Merchant Taylors'], under M^{r} Goad. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 17 June 1686. Age 16.

B.A. $16\frac{8}{9}\frac{9}{0}$. Subscribed in the Scholars' Book 6 July 1689. Resided till Mich. 1691. Admitted at Gray's Inn 10 Feb. $169\frac{3}{4}$. Son of Ri. Palfreyman (admitted 1649) who was master of Boston School.

Everard, Nicholas: [no facts given]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 18 June 1686.

B.A. $16\frac{8}{9}\frac{9}{0}$; M.A. 1694. Subscribed in the Scholars' Book 21 June 1689. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1690 Sept.: licensed to Northill, Beds.: priest, 1691 Sept.: licensed to Clifton, Beds. Perhaps elder brother of James, admitted $168\frac{7}{8}$, son of James, probably the manciple.

Hudson, George: [no facts given]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 22 June 1686. Perhaps never resided. One of these names (clerk in Holy Orders) was emigrant minister to Virginia, receiving the £20 bounty, 25 July 1694 (Fothergill, p. 35).

Sewel[l], Richard: son of Richard: born at Buntingford. School: Buntingford, under M^{r} England. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 1 July 1685. Age 16.

B.A. $16\frac{8}{9}\frac{9}{0}$. Subscribed in the Scholars' Book 6 July 1689. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1692 May; licensed as "reader" to M^{r} Warren, minister of Boxford: priest, London, 1693 June.

Randall, John: son of Francis: born at Eton. School: Eton. Admitted sizar under D^{r} Widdrington 27 Aug. 1686. Age 20.

B.A. $169\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1694. Subscribed in the Scholars' Book 2 Nov. 1689. One of the witnesses to D^{r} Widdrington's will 20 March $168\frac{7}{8}$: the executors (probably unjustly) charged him and John Baines the cook, with embezzling D^{r} Widdrington's effects after his death: hence a suit in Chancery 1689: see Covel's MS. account of the proceedings on Widdrington's will. Ordained deacon, London, 1708 May; priest, 1710 June. Assistant Master of Bury School Nov. 1690: and Head-master, Dec. 1707–15 (Carlisle, 2. 516): perhaps Master of Guildford, 171–, to 172–; (ib. 573): but this may be his son. One John Randall was rector of Thelveton [Thelton], Norfolk, and ceased to be such in 1728, when he was succeeded by his son of the same name (Blomefield, 1. 101).

Ballydon, —: [no facts given]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Holdsworth 1686.

Probably Paul, son of Paul Ballydon, of Derby, admitted at Lincoln's Inn 14 May 1684. I doubt whether he ever resided here.

Withers, William: son of John: born at "Aram" [?], Lancs. School: Lancaster, under M^{r} Lodge. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 8 Nov. 1686. Age 17.

B.A. $169\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1694. Subscribed in the Scholars' Book 21 June 1689. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1693 June: priest, Sept. Elected Fellow 10 Dec. 1692, in place of Cuthbert Fenwick, a younger man, but elected earlier. Junior Dean and catechist 1693: Praelector (good) 1696, and Bunting preacher 1696: Steward 1699: Senior Dean 1702: Senior Proctor 1707. Presented to Caldecot, vacated by Alex. Young 30 Sept. 1707: instituted 30 Nov.: resigned before July 1716: he had previously vacated his fellowship by marriage in Nov. 1709. I cannot trace him further with certainty: one of these names was vicar of Tunstall All Saints, Yorks., N.R. 19 May 1718–Sept. 1719.

Machin, Edmund:

B.A. $168\frac{8}{9}$. One Edward Machin, M.A. (probably error for B.A.) ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1689 May: licensed to Gunwardby [? Gunby], Lincs.: priest 1689 Dec. No other of the name was at this time at Cambridge or Oxford.

Brown, Robert:

M.A. 1691. Admitted (as son of R. Browne of Audlem, Cheshire) at Brasenose, Oxford, 28 March $168\frac{0}{1}$, aged 20: B.A. 1685; M.A. (Christ's) 1691 (Al. Ox. 196).

Shafto, Leonard: son of Leonard: born at Dedham, Essex. School: Durham, under M^{r} Battersby. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Waterhouse 14 Jan. $168\frac{6}{7}$. Age not given.

B.A. (first in the list) $169\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1694. He resided in College till 1697, at least, "in the Master's" when M^{r} Finch had vacated the chamber. Son of Leonard Shafto of Exeter, Oxford (incorp^{d}. Cambridge 1668) and vicar of Dedham 1665–71, when he became morning lecturer at All S^{ts}., Newcastle (Brand, 1. 338): he was probably one of the Shaftos of Whitworth, Durham: and in $168\frac{6}{7}$ the Master and Fellows agreed that young Leonard, though born in Essex, should have the benefit of the Durham Scholarship till the next election. He was appointed (as his father had been) lecturer at All Saints, 14 July 1698. Rector of Gateshead on Tyne 1705: died rector 27 Aug. 1731, and buried in the chancel of St Mary's (ib. 504).

Finch, Robert: seventh son of Heneage, Lord Nottingham, lately Lord Chancellor: born at Kensington "in agro Middlesexiensi." School: Felstead, under M^r^ Glascock. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^r^ Lovett 8 March $168\frac{6}{7}$. Age 16.

M.A. 1693. Nominated Finch and Baines Fellow 8 Dec. 1692 on the resignation of his brother Henry, and on the same day he took the oaths and subscribed the Declaration in the Scholars' Book. On 30 May 1694 he signed the order for the presentation of M^r^ Fairmedow to Anstey, though not (as Adam Wall notes) on the number of the Foundation Fellows. He appears regularly (together with Ambrose Launder) in the list of Lovett's pupils, neither being charged: but the note in one place "M^r^ Finch and Launder to the Master, £1. 15*s.* 0*d.*" shews that they had rooms in the Master's Lodge; Cudworth and Covel during part at least of their tenure used to live in the "Little Lodge" and let the rooms in the "Master's Lodging." A similar "to the Master," but without names, appears in earlier years. Robert Finch died in College 1696, and was buried at Great St Andrew's 16 July. He left to the College the income of his rooms—not at the Lodge, where he had ceased to reside, when he became a Fellow, and M^r^ Lovett (after some time) succeeded him. The income was valued at £48. 10*s.* 0*d.*

Launder, Ambrose: [no facts given]. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Lovett 8 March $168\frac{6}{7}$.

B.A. $169\frac{9}{1}$. See under Robert Finch above: it would seem that M^r^ Finch brought Launder up with him as his personal servant, and both lived together in the Lodge. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1691 Sept.: licensed to Ravenstone, Bucks.

Sandford, John: son of Thomas: born at High Ongar, Essex. School: Stortford, under M^r^ Cooper. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^r^ Lovett 8 April 1687. Age 16.

M.A. (com. reg.) 1690. There was a John Sandford, Esq., of Bishop Stortford in 1720 when he sold the rectory of Tollesbury to Sam. Rush, Esq.

Dade, Thomas: [no facts given]. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Waterhouse 31 March 1687.

B.A. $169\frac{9}{1}$; M.A. 1694. Perhaps belonged to a Norfolk family, many of whom were at Caius College. Ordained deacon, Ely, $169\frac{1}{2}$ Feb.: priest, York, 1698 June. Rector of Sneaton in Cleveland 1 June 1699–1701. Vicar of Otley, near Leeds 3 Oct. 1701: died before March 1709.

Atkinson, Robert: son of Robert: born at Newark. School: Newark, under M^r^ Twells. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Holdsworth, — 1687. Age not given.

Resided till Lady Day 1689. Probably son of Robert, of Newark, admitted 1652. The eldest daughter of Robert and Mary Atkinson of Newark died 1702: I have not found the date of Robert's death, but his widow, Mary, died 1723 (Shilton, Newark, 227).

Clavering, Thomas: [no facts given]. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Holdsworth 14 April 1687.

Resided till Lady Day 1688. The name is found in co. Durham: but no others were at Christ's. One Tho. Clavering, youngest son of Ralph Clavering of Gateshead, was baptised 5 May 1668. (Surtees, 2. 228.)

Fenwick, Cuthbert: son of Ralph: born at Stamfordham, Northumb^d^. School: Morpeth, under M^r^ Stephen Jackson. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Holdsworth 19 April 1687. Age not given.

B.A. (11th on the list) $169\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1694. Subscribed in the Scholars' Book 6 July 1689. Ordained deacon and priest, Lincoln, 1691 Sept. Elected Fellow (in place of John Bolton) 18 April 1691 : had his last payment Mich. 1692. Rector of Morpeth 1691–1745, when he died non compos sui, while his living was under trustees. Claimed to be the chief of the Fenwick clan. Sold his estate for an annuity, having ruined himself by being surety for a sister's son, one Johnson of Woodhorn (Hodgson II. ii. 393). Perhaps this man gave a book to the library of Bury St Edmunds school (it does not appear why) in 1694 : but he is described as "rector ecclesiae Corstopitensis," i.e. Corbridge (S. H. A. Hervey, Bury Grammar School, 132).

Ayde, Robert: son of Thomas : born at Kettington [Ketteringham], Norfolk. School : Norwich, under M^{r} Burton. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 17 May 1687. Age 16.

B.A. $169\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1694. Subscribed in the Scholars' Book, 21 June 1689. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1693 June ; priest, Chester, 1695 May. Chaplain to Heneage, Baron Finch of Guernsey. Vicar of Sturton, Notts. 1710. Licensed to hold also the east mediety of Treswell, Notts., distant 3 miles, 22 June 1710. Later, when his patron had become Earl of Nottingham, he was licensed to hold the rectory of Barnburgh, Yorks., as well as Treswell—distant 20 miles—on 9 July 1733. Prebendary of Southwell 28 May 1719. Died at Barnburgh 28 Nov. 1760, aged 90 (Hunter, South Yorks., 1. 379).

Wayte, William: admitted as Wait : [father not given] : born at Hampstead [? Hampsthwaite, near Leeds], Yorks. School : Wakefield, under M^{r} Armitage. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 20 May 1687. Age 15.

B.A. (Wayte) $169\frac{0}{1}$. Subscribed in the Scholars' Book 6 July 1689. Ordained deacon, York, 1692 May.

Hazard, Michael: son of Michael : born at Burton-on-Trent. School : not given. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 28 May 1687. Age not given.

B.A. $169\frac{0}{1}$. Michael, the father, was admitted 1662. Michael Hazard, B.A. Christ's, ordained deacon and priest, Lichfield, 1692 Sept. [Another Mich. Hazard, B.A., (no college) was ordained at Lincoln, 1689 May : licensed to Osgathorpe, Lincs.—not found either at Cambridge or Oxford]. Rector of Thorpe Constantine, Staffs. 26 May 1708.

Clark — : [no facts given]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Holdsworth, — 1687.

B.A. (William Clark) $169\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1699. Subscribed in the Scholars' Book, 2 Nov. 1689. Ordained priest, York, 1693 Sept. : curate of Wigginton, Yorks. 24 Sept. 1693.

Beetham, William: son of David : of Lincs. School : Wainfleet, under M^{r} Thompson. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 23 June 1687. Age 19.

B.A. $169\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1695. One of these names was rector of East Keal "ex parte Australis," Lincs. 8 Dec. 1698 : his signature occurs for the last time in 1751 : and he was buried there 26 Dec. 1751 having held the rectory 53 years. (Rev. R. H. Simpson, rector.)

Hayhurst — : [no facts given]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 23 June 1687. Probably never resided.

Stannard, Francis: son of John : born at Sympson, Bucks. School : Co[u]rte[e]nhall, under M^{r} Ashbridge. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 23 June 1687. Age 16.

B.A. $169\frac{0}{1}$. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1691 Sept. : priest, London, 1694 June. One of these names rector of Stourmouth, Kent 10 March $17\frac{19}{20}$, patron, the Bishop of Rochester: he was there till 1726: and is not stated, like his three predecessors, to have resigned: but if he died he was not buried there (Dr N. G. Wilkins, rector).

Vicars, Charles: [no facts given]. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lovett 10 Aug. 1687, having been previously admitted at Trinity Hall.
Resided till Mich. 1688.

Ritschell, John: of Oxford. Admitted "in ordinem ad Gradum Magistri in artibus" under Mr Lovett, between 10 and 20 Aug. 1687.
M.A. 1687. John Ritschell was son of George Ritschell, who was born in Bohemia, 1616, and educated at Strasburg and at Oxford; afterwards master of the Grammar School, Newcastle 1648–62, vicar of Hexham 1655–1683, when he died, Dec. 28. John Ritschell, his younger son, was matriculated at Trinity College, Oxford 26 March 1680, aged 18: B.A. from St Alban Hall 1683; incorporated at Cambridge and M.A. (Christ's) 1687. Succeeded his father in 1683 as vicar of Hexham. Vicar of Bywell St Andrew, Northumberland 1690–1705 (Al. Ox. 1260): died 1724 [?]. Author: Topographical Description of Hexham.

Gilbert, John: son of Henry, armiger: born at "Lockoo," Derbs. School: Nottingham, under Mr Cudworth. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lovett 20 Aug. 1687. Age 15.
B.A. $169\frac{1}{2}$; M.A. 1695. Subscribed in the Scholars' Book 6 July 1689. Continued to reside at Cambridge. Buried at Great St Andrew's 10 March $169\frac{7}{8}$.

Clarke, Christopher: son of Richard: born at Norwich. School: Norwich, under Mr Burton. Admitted pensioner under Mr Holdsworth [after Michaelmas] 1687. Age 16.
B.A. $169\frac{1}{2}$; M.A. 1695. Subscribed in the Scholars' Book 21 June 1689. Ordained deacon at Rochester: curate of Donne Chapel, Orpington, Kent, $169\frac{8}{7}$–1714. Chaplain to the Earl of Derby. Rector of Keston, April 1704: also by dispensation from Lambeth in 1714 licensed to hold the contiguous rectories of Hayes and Heefe [sic], patron, Dr Rob. Uvedale: instituted 8 June: resigned Hayes 23 Oct. 1732. Prebendary of Ely, fifth stall, 14 March $173\frac{1}{2}$. Archdeacon of Norwich 22 Feb. $172\frac{1}{2}$–1742. In 1736 gave an estate at Ryden (Roydon) near Lynn for a scholarship with preference to natives of Norfolk. In 1738–40 he bore the cost of casing with freestone the front of the College from the great gate southwards, thus completing the modernised façade begun by Archdeacon Lynford. There were "exceedings" charged on the day, 5 May 1739, when Mr Archdeacon Clarke dined in Hall. He died at Marlingford Hall 16 May 1742.

Tailour, Samuel: [no facts given]. Admitted sizar under Mr Waterhouse 1 Nov. 1687.
Probably never resided.

Ashhurst, Henry: [no facts given]. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lovett 10 Dec. 1687.
There is no evidence that he resided. Perhaps a son of Henry Ashurst, merchant of London (died 1680) "the most exemplary person for eminent sobriety self-denial piety and charity that London could glory of" (Baxter). Both he and his father Henry, a presbyterian divine, appear often in Henry Newcome's Autobiography. The second Henry had a son Henry who became a baronet and built Waterstock, Oxon. (D.N.B.): possibly our man.

Walker, William: son of William: born at Burton-on-Trent. School: Barton [? under Needwood], Staffs. Admitted sizar under Mr Every 4 Jan. $168\frac{7}{8}$. Age 18.

B.A. $169\frac{1}{2}$. Subscribed in the Scholars' Book 6 July 1689. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1692 May; licensed to Wymeswold, Leics.; priest, Lichfield, 1692 Sept.

Everard, James: son of James: born in Cambridge. School: Ashwell, Cambs., under Mr Backler. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lovett 3 Jan. $168\frac{7}{8}$. Age 15.

B.A. $169\frac{1}{2}$; M.A. 1695. Subscribed in the Scholars' Book 21 June 1689. James Everard the father, of Cambridge and of Knapwell, was probably the manciple, who died 1691. James the younger, who was born in the parish of Great St Andrew's, was ordained deacon, Norwich, 1693 June aged 20 [so in the Norwich Register: and the dates agree]: priest, Lincoln, 1700 Sept. He was vicar of East Winch 1716–22 (Blomefield, 4. 747): also of Middleton, which is "contiguous" (Rud's Diary 20 Jan. $172\frac{0}{1}$). He married Rebecca, daughter of Edw. Bodham of King's Lynn. Died 1722, aged 50.

Town(e), John: son of John: born at Sudbrooke, Lincs. School: Newark, under Mr Twells [given as Twelves]. Admitted pensioner under Mr Holdsworth 18 Jan. $168\frac{7}{8}$. Age not given.

B.A. (Towne) $169\frac{1}{2}$. John Towne of Sudbrooke in Ancaster, gentleman, died 1709. His fourth son, John (Lincs. pedigrees, 1310) subscribed in the Scholars' Book 21 June 1689. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1692 May, and licensed to Grayingham; priest, 1694 June: and presented to the rectory of Grayingham, 4 June, by John Thorold, armiger. One of these names (described as M.A.—but not of either University of that date) was rector of Shirland, Derbs. 19 March $172\frac{7}{8}$.

Meredith, Arthur: [no facts given]. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lovett 25 Jan. $168\frac{7}{8}$. Resided till Xmas 1688.

Wolrych, Thomas: son of John, armiger: born at Dudmaston, Salop. Educated at home by Mr Littleford. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lovett 2 March $168\frac{7}{8}$. Age 16.

Next year became fellow-commoner. Resided till Lady Day 1690. Eldest son of John Wolrych (1653) son of Sir Thomas: nephew of Sir Francis (second baronet) who died June 1688 without male issue, as did all the four eldest sons: see under Will. (1647). Sir Thomas Wolrych of Dudmaston (third baronet): baptised at Quatt 14 Apr. 1672. Admitted at the Inner Temple 13 May 1687. Married Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Geo. Weld of Willey Park, Salop (Lieutenant of the Tower). Died 3 May 1701: buried at Quatt. His widow died April 1765 (aged 93) having survived for 42 years her only son Sir John, fourth baronet, sheriff of Salop, accidentally drowned in the Severn near his house, 25 June 1723 aged 32, unmarried. By his death the baronetcy became extinct, and the estates passed to his mother and sisters.

Wolrych, John: son of John, armiger: born at Dudmaston, Salop. Educated at home by Mr Littleford. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lovett 2 March $168\frac{7}{8}$. Age 14.

Younger brother of Thomas, and last of the seven members of the family educated here. Admitted at the Inner Temple 13 May 1687. Subscribed in the Scholars' Book 21 June 1689. Died in College of small-pox aged 16, and buried at Great St Andrew's 19 Dec. 1689: M.I., erected by his only brother Sir Thomas: the inscription ends with the lines:

Flos Iuvenum cecidit: Iuvenes, in flebile bustum
Lilia purpureis spargite mista rosis:
Mista rosis lacrymas aspergite: noster Adonis
Talia iusta iubet: dulcis Adoni, vale.

Peachye, —: [no facts given]. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 3 March $168\frac{7}{8}$.

Perhaps one of the sons of Will. Peachy of Petworth, Sussex who died 1685. But there is no sign of his residence here.

Brooke, Thomas: son of William: born at Dodworth, Yorks. School: Wakefield, under M^{r} Clerke. Kept eight terms at Univ. College, Oxford. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Waterhouse 15 March $168\frac{7}{8}$. Aged 19.

B.A. $16\frac{8}{9}\frac{9}{0}$; M.A. 1693. Subscribed in the Scholars' Book 21 June 1689. Born 3 June 1669: his father William of Dodworth (who died 1680) married Mary, daughter of William Oates of Denby. Nephew of John Brooke, rector of High Hoyland, admitted here 1669. Ordained deacon, York, 1695 Sept.; curate of Barwick-in-Elmet 28 Feb. $169\frac{6}{7}$. Rector of Richmond 1706, for 33 years: J.P. for Yorks. Married Mary, daughter of D^{r} Thomas Comber, Dean of Durham. Inherited Field Head from his uncle John Brooke in 1725. Died at Richmond 28 April 1739 aged 70. M.I. (given by Whitaker, Richmondshire, 1. 90). See Hunter, F.M.G. 766: S. Yorks. 2. 262.

Dakin, Samuel: admitted as Dakins: son of Edward: born at Fairfield, Derbs. School: Macclesfield, under M^{r} Ashworth. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 6 April 1688. Age 16.

B.A. (Dakin) $169\frac{1}{2}$. Subscribed in the Scholars' Book (Dakin) 21 June 1689. Ordained deacon, Lichfield, $169\frac{3}{4}$ March; licensed to Matlock: priest, 1695 July: to be "praelector" at Ashbourne. Probably the Sam. Dakeyne, vicar of Holme in Spalding Moor, who died before July 1703.

Reeve, James: son of James: born at Sible Heningham [Hedingham], Essex. School: Earls Colne, under M^{r} Leadbeater. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 7 April 1688. Age 17.

B.A. $169\frac{1}{2}$. Subscribed in the Scholars' Book 21 June 1689. Ordained deacon, London, 1692 Dec.: priest, Norwich, 1700 May: curate of St Peter's, Ipswich.

Dalton, Darcy: son of William, eques auratus: born at Hauxwell [Haukswell], Richmondshire. School: Bury St Edmunds, under M^{r} Leeds. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Waterhouse 20 April 1688. Age 17.

B.A. $169\frac{1}{2}$; M.A. 1695. Son of Sir William Dalton of Haukswell and of Elizabeth Wyvill of Burton Constable; grandson of Dorothy Darcy. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1693 Sept. Rector of Lissington, Lincs. 6 Feb. $169\frac{6}{7}$. Rector of Binbrooke St Mary, 12 Dec. 1699: resigned before 1704. Prebendary of Ripon 3 May 1705–1712. Rector of Aston 22 Aug. 1712–34. Prebendary of York 28 Aug. 1713. Married Mary Harrison of Skellow, Doncaster 25 Sept. 1701: she was buried at Ouston 6 Feb. $170\frac{3}{4}$: he had a second wife, Jane, who died 1719. Died 27 March 1734 aged 64 (Hunter, F.M.G. 914: Yorks. Arch. Journal, 2. 122). Had two sons, Darcy (admitted 1720) and Charles (1730).

Arlush, Nathaniel: son of Stephen: born at Knedlington, [?] Yorks. School: Laughton-[en-le-Morthen], Yorks., under M^{r} Broomhead. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Waterhouse 3 May 1688. Age 16.

Resided till Lady Day 1690. Stephen Arlush, M.A. (Pet.) was ejected from Howden, Yorks. under the Act of Uniformity: he afterwards lived at York, died 15 Jan. $168\frac{0}{1}$, and was buried at Howden, aged 57. His son Nathaniel died "a young man" 18 June 1697 and like his father was buried at Howden (Hunter, F.M.G. 4. 1260).

Eachard, Laurence: son of Thomas: born at Barsham, Suffolk. Educated at home. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 26 May 1688. Age 17.

B.A. $169\frac{1}{2}$; M.A. (Echard) 1695. Eldest of three sons, admitted here, of Thomas Echard, incumbent of one of the Barshams. By his own statement he was "nearly related" to D^{r} John Eachard, Master of St Catharine's 1675–97. Subscribed in the Scholars' Book 21 June 1689 ("Eachard," as the elder members of the family spelt it; Laurence and his brother Chris. wrote "Echard" when taking the M.A. degree). He resided at Christ's till 1696 and doubtless compiled there the material for his future literary work. Ordained, Norwich, probably before May 1692 (when a gap in the Norwich book ends). Beneficed in Lincoln, at Welton, near Louth, and Elkington (5 Aug. 1696), he obtained preferment early: he was prebendary of Lincoln (Louth) 24 Apr. 1697–1730 and Archdeacon of Stowe 1712–30. He lived at Louth, where he wrote the first of a series of books, which had extraordinary vitality. His circumstances were very bad, according to Archbishop Wake, who exerted himself to obtain a grant for him from the King: and George I presented him to Sudborne and Rendlesham in Suffolk—the last by dispensation 14 Sept. 1722. His health was bad but this did not affect his work. In 1730 he was on his way to Scarborough, but got no further than Lincoln, where he died August 16, and was buried in the church of St Mary Magdalen on the 29th. He married (1) Jane Potter, (2) Justin Wooley of Well, Lincs. but had no children. His portrait is in the College Library.

Author: Description of Ireland, 1691: of Flanders, 1691: Compendium of Geography, 1691, which went into the eighth edition in 1713: all these when he was only 20. His History of England appeared in 1707, with its continuation in 1718, and appendix in 1720. His other best known books were the Roman History, 1698, and Ecclesiastical History, 1702: all these went through numerous editions and were standard text-books. Less known, but really good, is a translation of three plays of Plautus (Amphitryo, Epidicus, and Pudens) published in 1694, while he was still at Cambridge.

A satirical contrast of the work of Gilbert Burnet and Laurence Eachard (given in Kippis, Biog. Brit. 5. 534) is amusing:

> Gil's history appears to me
> Political anatomy,
> A case of skeletons well done,
> And malefactors everyone.
> * * * *
> Laurence proceeds another way,
> And well-dressed figures does display:
> His characters are all in flesh:
> * * * *
> He wax-work make to please the sons
> Whose fathers were Gil's skeletons.

Nicholson, Thomas: son of Timothy: born at Barningham, Richmondshire. School: Bedale, under M^{r} Nicholson. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Holdsworth 3 June 1688. Age 16.

B.A. $169\frac{1}{2}$; M.A. 1696. Subscribed in the Scholars' Book 21 June 1689. Ordained deacon, Carlisle, 1697 May. Probably vicar of Grindon, Durham 1699–1706: rector of Great Stainton, Durham, 1706–49, when he died. (Surtees, 3. 64 and 76.)

Gerard, Joshua: son of Joshua: born at Stockport, Cheshire. School: Tarvin, under Mr Radley. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lovett 9 June 1688. Age 18.

M.B. 1693. Subscribed in the Scholars' Book 2 Nov. 1689. Brother of John and of Joseph who were admitted 1677.

Leeke, Gervase: son of Gervase: born at Horbury, Yorks. School: Wakefield, under Mr Armitage. Admitted sizar under Mr Waterhouse 9 June 1688. Age 17.

M.B. 1693. Subscribed the Declaration in the Scholars' Book 21 June 1689, and admitted scholar (on taking the oaths) 18 Nov. 1690.

Morgan, —: [no facts given]. Admitted pensioner under Mr Waterhouse — June 1688.

M.B. 1690 (John Morgan). He must have kept sufficient terms elsewhere: perhaps he was the John Morgan, son of Thomas, of Melbury Abbey, Dorset, matriculated at St Mary Hall, Oxford 2 March $168\frac{4}{5}$, aged 18 (Al. Ox. 1030). He did not reside at Christ's after his admission, though he took the medical degree, doubtless after the usual five years' study.

Littleford, Thomas: Oxoniensis. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lovett 25 June 1688.

M.A. 1688. Was private tutor at Dudmaston to Thomas and John Wolrych, admitted 2 March 1688; and he probably accompanied them to Cambridge. According to Al. Ox. 918 he was son of John of Baninghall, Salop; matriculated at Magdalen Hall, Oxford, 18 March $16\frac{6}{70}$; B.A. (Oxon.) 1673: he was also rector of Hughley (near Much Wenlock) 1686. He was appointed Burrell Lecturer 1688, and as a beneficiary he signs the Declaration in the Scholars' Book, immediately after the first batch of Fellows, in 1689. Rector of Quatt, near Bridgnorth 1695. Buried at Quatt 12 March $170\frac{2}{3}$. His name appears (I understand, as Littlefold) on one of the bells, which was recast in 1700 (Rev. J. S. Roper, rector).

Colbatch, George: son of John: born at "Yondem" [?], Salop. School: Bridgnorth, under Mr Cornes. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 25 June 1688. Age 18.

B.A. 1692 (Mids.); M.A. 1705. Subscribed in the Scholars' Book 21 June 1689. Brother of John Colbatch of Trinity, Professor of Casuistry, Bentley's unlucky opponent. Vicar of Wetwang, near York, 1699–1755: of Driffield 1708–55. Curate of Sledmere 1704–55. (Surtees Soc^{y} 65. 465.) Bentley said of him that "from a vow or vision in the flower of his age he wore a beard to his girdle sufficient for a Greek patriarch": this eccentricity was noted as an indication that John Colbatch's wits were not of the best: Bentley allows that George was a "harmless quiet clergyman and much the better of the two." According to Monk (Life of Bentley, 2. 136) he was vicar of Abington, Cambs.

Lardner, James: son of Thomas: born in London. School: Merchant Taylors', under Mr Bonwick. Admitted sizar under Mr Holdsworth 27 June 1688. Age 18.

B.A. $169\frac{1}{2}$; M.A. 1695. Subscribed in the Scholars' Book 21 June 1689. Probably brother of John, admitted 1685; baptised 18 Sept. 1670 at St Peter's, Cornhill, son of Thomas, apothecary. Ordained deacon, London, 1692 Dec.: priest, 1694 Sept. Possibly curate of St Bennet, Gracechurch Street: see under John Lardner.

Ives, William: son of Francis: born at Wellingborough, Northants. School: Cottinhall [? Cottingham], under Mr Ashbridge. Admitted pensioner under Mr Lovett 28 June 1688. Age 16.

B.A. 169½. Subscribed in the Scholars' Book 21 June 1689. Matriculated Dec. 1691. Admitted at the Middle Temple 23 Dec. 1689.

Hutton, William: son of Thomas: born at St Kew, Cornwall. School: Okehampton, under Mr Hussey. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 29 June 1688. Age 18.

B.A. 169½; M.A. 1705. Subscribed in the Scholars' Book 21 June 1689. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1692 Sept.; licensed to Wrestlingworth: priest, Ely, 1694 June, and instituted to Pampisford 4 June: resigned 1697.

Cudworth, Benjamin: son of John: [no more facts]. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mr Waterhouse 6 Oct. 1688. Age not given.

M.A. (com. reg.) 1690. Born 1670, youngest son of John, the wealthy brother of Ralph the Master, who died shortly before his nephew's admission. Brother of Thomas (admd. 1676). He had verses in the University collection on the accession of William and Mary: hence perhaps his M.A. degree. He had 10*s.* 0*d.* left him for a mourning ring by Mrs Cudworth, Ralph's widow. He acquired, perhaps by wedding settlement, West Burton Farm in Dorset, a property of 110 acres: it was conveyed to him in 1698 by Mary and Thomas Thornhurst. He made his will in 1700 and left his property to his cousin John Cudworth (see page 46) including his "leasehold property lying at or on or near new fish street hill in London." On 23 Dec. there is a codicil that he gives to his brothers John and Samuel Cudworth "tenn shillings each notwithstanding their great injustice to me." The will was proved by John Cudworth 7 June 1726.

Perse, William: son of William: born at Faversham, Kent. School: Eton, under Mr Roderick. Admitted sizar under Mr Holdsworth 6 Oct. 1688. Age 15.

B.A. 169⅔; M.A. 1707. Ordained deacon, York, 169⅔ March; priest, 1694 Sept. Chaplain to the Earl of Berkshire. Vicar of Weaverthorpe, Yorks.: licensed 19 July 1707 to hold also the rectory of West Heslerton, distant three miles, vacant by the death of his father William. Died rector before Dec. 1723.

Beachamp, Josias: admitted as Beacham: son of Josias: born at Branston [Braunston], Ruts. School: "Oockham" [Oakham], under Mr Love. Admitted sizar under Mr Waterhouse 3 Nov. 1688. Age 17.

B.A. (Beachamp) 169⅔. Subscribed in the Scholars' Book [Beachamp] 21 June 1689. Admitted scholar (Beacham) 8 Nov. 1690. Son of Josias (curate of Braunston) by his wife Jane Munn; grandson of Josias by his wife Elizabeth, sister of Dr Ralph Cudworth. See Seaton registers in Genealogist, 5. 63, and 109. Josias, the younger, joined the College five months after the death of his great uncle. Ordained deacon, London, 169⅔ Feb.

B.A. 169⅔; M.A. 1696. Subscribed the Declaration 21 June 1689: admitted scholar 18 Nov. 1690. Ordained deacon, Ely, 169⅞ March: priest, 1698 Sept. Rector of Upwell (patron, Beaupré Bell) 1698–1701, when he died (Blomefield, 4. 190).

Fielding, John: son of John, "vir honorabilis": born at Puddletown, Dorset. School: Salisbury, under Mr Hardwick. Admitted pensioner under Mr Holdsworth 21 Feb. 168$\frac{8}{9}$. Age 15.

B.A. 169$\frac{2}{3}$. Nominated and admitted as "Lord Nottingham's (i.e. Finch and Baines) Scholar" 17 Dec. 1689. Son of the Hon. John Fielding, D.D., Canon of Salisbury by his wife Bridget Cokain. Secretary to Henry, first Duke of Portland and Governor of Jamaica (Collins, 3. 276). Died in Jamaica 1725.

Middleditch, Jasper (adm. as Gaspar): son of Jasper: born at Bury St Edmunds. School: Bury, under Mr Leeds. Admitted sizar under Mr Holdsworth 8 April 1689. Age 17.

B.A. (Jaspar) 169$\frac{2}{3}$. Subscribed the Declaration 9 July 1689: admitted scholar 18 Nov. 1690. Ordained deacon (Jasper), Norwich, 1696 Sept.: priest, 1701 Sept. Vicar of Digby, Lincs. (patron, Lord John Hervey) 5 Nov. 1703; also of Metheringham, Lincs., same patron and same day.

Midgley, Jonathan: son of John: born at Wilsden, Yorks. School: Bingley, under Mr Jenkinson. Admitted sizar under Mr Waterhouse 24 Apr. 1689. Age 16.

B.A. 169$\frac{2}{3}$. Subscribed the Declaration 21 June 1689: admitted scholar 18 Nov. 1690. Ordained deacon, York, 1694 Sept.: curate and schoolmaster of Kirkheaton near Huddersfield: priest, 1697 Sept.

Probably cousin of Jos. Midgley (1670)—whom see: and of Rob. (1671). Received, 29 June 1709, a grant of arms together with Robert Midgley of Leeds and with Samuel (brother of Rob. adm. 1671—not the Robert just mentioned) "whose ancestors had long lived as gentlemen." (Genealogist, N.S. 21. 271.) They were second cousins, but Jonathan belonged to the elder branch, while Robert was probably the most prosperous.

Green, Thomas: son of Samuel: born at Skipton. School: Giggleswick, under Mr Briggs. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 6 May 1689. Age 22.

B.A. (Greene) 1693. Subscribed (Green) the Declaration 6 July 1689: admitted scholar 18 Nov. 1690. Ordained priest, York, 1695 May. Will dated 29 May 1703: proved 1 Jan. 170$\frac{4}{5}$: wife Hannah sole executrix (Yorksh. Arch. J. 2. 117).

Spring, Thomas: baronet: [no facts given]. Admitted fellow-commoner "pro ordinis dignitate" under M^{r} Holdsworth 24 April 1690. Age not given.

Resided till Lady Day 1691. Son of Sir Will. Spring of Pakenham near Bury (admitted $165\frac{7}{8}$) who died April 1684. Sir Thomas Spring of Pakenham: married 28 May 1691, Merelina, daughter of Tho., Lord Jermyn by whom he had three sons and six daughters. Died 2 April 1704, aged 32: buried in Pakenham Church. M.I. (Howard Vis^{n}. of Suffolk 1561, 1. 196.) His widow married Sir Will. Gage of Henham, and died 1727 aged 52.

Broughton, John: son of Thomas: born at Wyermouth (? Wearmouth), Durham. Educated at home. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Holdsworth 28 April 1690. Age 16. Pensioner 11 July 1691.

B.A. 169$\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1697; D.D. 1716. Admitted scholar 18 Nov. 1690. Perhaps son of Tho. Broughton (admitted 1652), clerk. Elected Fellow 10 July 1694, in place of Jude Holdsworth. Junior Dean and Catechist 1695. Praelector and Bunting Preacher 1697. University Taxor 1700. Married in 1701 and vacated his fellowship. Lecturer at St Andrew's, Holborn. Chaplain to John, Duke of Marlborough (Cole). Vicar of Kingston on Thames 1712. Had an estate called Duddo in Northumberland: also property in Suffolk. In 1702 gave £10 to the restoration of the Chapel. Died 1720. Author: (perhaps) Psychologia, or an account of the nature of the human soul 1703. Letter to a Roman Catholic 1703, published by his son 1735 (Cole): The great Apostasy from Christianity with its evil influence on the Civil State.

Pattison, Thomas: son of Thomas: born at "Newston" [Euston], Suffolk. School: Thetford, under M^{r} Burrell. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Holdsworth 15 May 1690. Age 16.

B.A. (Patteson) 169$\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1697. Admitted scholar 13 Jan. 169$\frac{3}{4}$. Ordained priest, Norwich, 1696 Sept. Rector of Welborne, Norfolk 1697–1700. Rector of Marlingford 1700–1723, when he resigned. Rector of Easton 1700–24. The three places are distant not more than four miles from each other, lying between East Dereham and Norwich.

Palmer, Richard: son of Isaac: born at Whittlesey Mere, Hunts. School: St Paul's, under D^{r} Goad. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 7 June 1690. Age 17.

B.A. 169$\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1697. Nominated as "Lord Nottingham's scholar," and admitted 5 July 1690. Nominated Finch and Baines Fellow on the death of Rob. Finch, and was admitted 20 July 1696. Junior Dean and Catechist 1698. Praelector 1700. Senior Dean 1705, 1710. He signed all presentations to livings, and apparently resided regularly. Died in College and was buried in the ante-chapel 18 July 1713.

Jackson, Thomas: [no facts given]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 10 July 1690.

B.A. 169$\frac{3}{4}$. One of these names was vicar of Little Marlow, Bucks. 6 April 1709: patron, Borlase Warren, arm^{r}.

Burman, Richard: son of William: [no more facts]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 20 June 1690.

B.A. 169$\frac{3}{4}$. Admitted scholar 18 Nov. 1690. Ordained deacon, Worcester, 1695: priest, 1699.

Littleton, Edward: Oxoniensis, admitted "in ordine ad gradum M.A." as pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 27 June 1690.

Matric^{d} at All Souls, Oxford (as son of Edward, pleb. of Salop) 10 July 1681, aged 17. B.A. 1685; M.A. (Christ's) 1690. Rector of Merston 24 Dec. 1689–1701. Vicar of Amberley 28 Mar. 1701, and rector of Bignor 1 May 1701 (patron, the Crown). Canon of Chichester 1706. Fellow of Eton College 2 July 1726. Vicar of Maple Durham, Oxford 1726–33, when he died on Nov. 16. (See Foster, Al. Ox. 919.)

Ward, Charles: son of William: born at Morpeth. School: Morpeth. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Holdsworth 28 June 1690. Age 17.

B.A. 169$\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1700. Admitted scholar 18 Nov. 1690. One of these names (M.A.) was vicar of Chatton, near Wooler, Northumberland 1711: vicar of Long Horsley 1714 (patron, the Crown). Possibly vicar of Tynemouth in 1740 (Brand, 2. 123); but this may be Charles Ward, M.A. of St John's 1736, son of Will. Ward, merchant, and born at Newcastle, who was afterwards vicar of Whittinghame 1763–73 (Scott, 423). See Hodgson, II. ii. 92.

Stoddart, Charles: son of Charles: born at Morpeth. School: Morpeth. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Holdsworth 28 June 1690. Age 16.

B.A. $169\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1700. Admitted scholar 18 Nov. 1690. Curate of St Andrew, Newcastle 30 July 1696–1702. P.C. of Bamburgh 1702–12. Vicar of Chillingham 1704: there in 1720. Vicar of Eglingham 1712. Vicar of Whalton (not far from Morpeth) 1748 (unless this be his son). Died 29 Aug. 1758. There was a unique succession of Charles Stoddarts here, through four generations: this one the first in 1690: son in 1726: grandson in 1758: great grandson in 1790.

Ford, Thomas: [no facts given]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 30 June 1690.
B.A. $169\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1697: incorporated Oxford 1703. Admitted scholar 18 Nov. 1690. Probably the Tho. Ford B.A., Master of the Grammar School, Buckingham 1696–1709 (Lipscombe, 2. 584). Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1698 June and licensed to Buckingham: priest, $170\frac{5}{6}$, licensed to Radclive, near Buckingham. Foster (Al. Ox. 515) who thinks he might be son of Thomas Ford, born at Exeter and admitted at the Inner Temple, says he was vicar of Banwell, Somerset, 3 Feb. $171\frac{2}{3}$: and Canon of Wells 18 Apr. 1721–$174\frac{6}{7}$. (Le Neve, 2. 185, 197.)

Keynton, Thomas: son of Israel: born at Hertford. School: Hertford, under M^{r} Battell. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 7 July 1690. Age 16.
B.A. $169\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1697. Admitted scholar 18 Nov. 1690. Ordained deacon, London, 1697 Dec.: priest, 1698 Dec. One of these names was rector of Bugbrooke, Northants. 1720 (Bridges, 1. 487).

Robinson, Edmund: [no facts given]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 16 Sept. 1690.
Admitted scholar 18 Nov. 1690. Buried at Great St Andrew's 12 Dec. 1692.

Hussey, William: son of Thomas, bart.: born at Doddington, Lincs. Educated at home, under M^{r} Carleton. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Holdsworth 10 Oct. 1690. Age 16.
Second son of Sir Thomas Hussey of Doddington (admitted $165\frac{4}{5}$). Resided till Lady Day 1692. Buried at Doddington 29 July 1698. (Lincs. pedigrees, 530.)

Watkinson, John: son of Henry: born at Beeston, Notts. School: Nottingham, under M^{r} Knight. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 23 Oct. 1690. Age 17.
B.A. $169\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1698. Ordained deacon, York, 1696 June.

Withers, Robert: son of John: born at Arham [? Arkholm], Lancs. School: Lancaster, under M^{r} Lodge. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 23 Oct. 1690. Age 17.
B.A. $169\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1698. Admitted scholar 8 Aug. 1691. Ordained deacon, London, 1695 Dec. Rector of Gately, on the presentation of the College.
Died rector 1718; at Lady Day 1718 there is a charge for a copy of his will. Adam Wall records (MS. Univ. Lib., Mm v. 48) that he left, under certain conditions, a house called Harts and $2\frac{1}{2}$ acres at Gately for the vicars successively, and their widows, for ever.

Castell, Philip: son of Philip: born at Huntingdon. School: Huntingdon, under M^{r} Mathews. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 8 Nov. 1690. Age 15.
B.A. $169\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1698; incorporated Oxford, 1704. Vicar of St Bartholomew the Less 5 Feb. $170\frac{1}{2}$–1715. Vicar of Christ Church, Newgate Street, with the rectory of St Leonard, Foster Lane attached to it, 28 Sept. 1715–1718, when he died.

Major, John: son of Robert: born at Holme, Derbs. School: Worksop, under M^{r} Calton. Kept five terms at St John's. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 11 Nov. 1690. Age 19.

B.A. $169\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1729. Admitted scholar 18 Nov. 1690. His father was a husbandman (agricola): so in entry at St John's 14 Feb. $168\frac{8}{9}$. Ordained deacon, York, 1694 Sept.: priest, 1696 June. Curate of Sokeholme Chapel in the parish of Warsop, Notts. 24 Sept. 1694. Vicar of Croxton Kerrial, Leics. 18 Feb. 1703, patron John, Earl of Rutland, whose chaplain he was. Also rector of Harby, Leics. 6 July 1703, same patron. Had dispensation 7 May 1729 to hold together with Harby the rectory of Tollerton, Notts. (patron, John Neale), distant 7 miles: this last he resigned before Nov. 1738. Died 4 June 1739.

Bordley, Stephen: son of Stephen: born at South Sheeres [Shields], Northumberland [sic]. School: Sedbergh, under M^{r} Wharton. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 12 Nov. 1690. Age 17.

B.A. $169\frac{4}{5}$. Admitted scholar 18 Nov. 1690. Son of Stephen Bordley, vicar of South Shields, admitted 1654. Ordained deacon, London, 1695 Sept.: priest, 1696 Sept. Was he the M^{r} Bordley who was head-master of Lancaster school before 1701 and in 1709? or was this Will. Bordley, M.A. (St John's) 1692?

Casborn, John: son of William: born at Fordham, Cambs. School: Fordham, under M^{r} Taylor. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Waterhouse 15 Nov. 1690. Age 15.

M.B. 1697. Admitted scholar 18 Nov. 1690.

Twells, John: son of John: born at Pitesly [Pytchley], Northants. School: Newark, under his father. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Holdsworth 16 Nov. 1690. Age 18.

B.A. $169\frac{4}{5}$. Not the John Twells, rector of Broughton Astley, who was M.A. and probably of Clare. John Twells, the father, who sent many pupils to the College, was master of Newark School 39 years and died there 29 Dec. 1712 (or 1713) aged 61.

Boldero, John: son of Simon: born at Ixworth, Suffolk. School: Bury, under M^{r} Leeds. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Holdsworth 24 Aug. 1691. Age 17.

B.A. $169\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1699. Seems to have deferred residence for a year: he first appears in the list of Holdsworth's pupils, Mich. 1692, without any charge; not again: perhaps he kept in the Master's lodging. Admitted scholar 6 Apr. 1693. Simon Boldero of Ixworth, gent. 1636–1704, married Frances Godbold: he had two sons—the elder son Simon of Jesus College (of which his kinsman D^{r} Edm. Boldero was Master 1663–79), afterwards rector of Woolpit, and father of John, admitted here 1715: and John, who was born 1674. Elected Fellow 27 Jan. $169\frac{6}{7}$ in the place of John Cudworth. The election caused some dissatisfaction, as appears from a MS. book of Simon Every: his note for the day is "then the Hon. Ma[ster] of Xst's Coll. chooses Bold. Fellow against both the Coll. St. and y^{e} Law of y^{e} realm": the names of five Fellows, and Matt. Baines (the cook's son, subsequently Fellow), follow this note. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1697 May: priest, 1698 June. Junior Dean and Catechist 1699. Bunting Preacher 1700. Praelector 1701. Steward 1704. Senior Dean 1706, 1711. At the election of College Officers 30 Sept. 1713 Covel makes the note: "The M^{r} nominated M^{r} Boldero president at the same time." Began to take pupils about 1702 and from 1709 to 1713 he was the most important tutor having between $\frac{1}{2}$ and $\frac{3}{4}$ of the whole number. Presented to Fen Drayton 26 July 1707: this did not interfere with his residence in College. Senior Proctor 1713. On 22 April 1713 he was presented to Clipston, vacant by the death of Alex. Young: which should have vacated his Fellowship April 1714 in the middle of his Proctorship. He availed himself of his nomination to be "president"—though the Statutes recognised no such office—to retain his Fellowship for three years. The Master supported him on the strength of the Elizabethan Statute about "praesides": every College must have a "praeses": who shall be "vicarius" in the Master's absence. In Oct. 1714 three of the Fellows (Moor, Husband and Cockshutt) appealed to the V.C. who gave notice that he would hear the appeal on Oct. 29. Perhaps it was withdrawn: in any case, there is no decision on the point in the "Visitor's Box," and Boldero retained his fellowship till 15 Oct. 1716, when he wrote in the Order Book his formal resignation, and Covel wrote his acceptance of it. In 1721 Aug. 26 he had a dispensation to hold with Clipston the rectory of Dingley, distant five miles. He married Abigail Dickens, of Bosworth, widow, by whom he had no children. Died 22 May 1751, aged 77: M.I. in Ixworth church. His nephew, John, was admitted 1715 and his grand-nephew, also John, 1748. Author: a sermon on Deut. xxxiii. 29, published 1716. Probably his qualifying sermon under the Elizabethan Statute! However he cared for some books, for on leaving Cambridge he purchased from the Library, under College order of 7 Dec. 1717, "Mr Medes Works, Fuller's Church History, Plutarch's Works, Epictetus' Enchiridion, Plautus (var.), Vergil, Catullus, Horace, Terence (Cambr. Edit. 4to)"—all for £5.

Yarborough, John: son of John: born at Newark. School: Newark, under Mr Twells. Admitted pensioner under Mr Holdsworth 29 Jan. $169\frac{9}{1}$. Age 16.

M.B. 1696. Admitted scholar 6 April 1693.

Dubordieu, Armand: "natione Gallus" [no more facts]. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 31 Jan. $169\frac{9}{1}$.

B.A. $169\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1716. Transferred to Mr Holdsworth in 1693. Came from Montpellier, a Protestant exile. Ordained deacon, London, $169\frac{4}{5}$ Feb.: priest, Peterborough, 1696 June. Vicar of North Weald, Essex 8 Oct. 1715–33, patron the Bishop of London. Had license 11 April 1716 to hold also the rectory of Sawbridgeworth, Herts., distant five miles. Died 25 Aug. 1733 aged 61, leaving six sons and two daughters. (See Yates, French Exiles, 2. 224.) Brother of John Armand Dubordieu, matricd. at Gloucester Hall, Oxford $169\frac{3}{4}$, minister of the Episcopal French Church in the Savoy, died 1727, "known for his services against popery and the Pretender" (Foster, Al. Ox. 427).

Broughton, Amcotts: son of Thomas, armiger: grandson of Sir Brian, baronet, born at Broughton, Staffs. Educated in London by Mr Meure. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mr Holdsworth 2 Feb. $169\frac{9}{1}$. Age 16.

Resided till Michs. 1692. Eldest son of Thomas Broughton by his wife Rhoda, daughter of John Amcotts of Aisthorpe, Lincs. (The grandfather, Brian, was created in 1660 a Baronet by Charles II in reward for his father's loyalty.) Died without issue during his father's lifetime 14 Sept. 1700. A brother, Brian (afterwards Sir Brian) admitted 1695.

Richardson, John: son of John: born at Bradford. School: Bradford, under Mr Wood. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 6 Feb. $169\frac{9}{1}$. Age 15.

B.A. $169\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1698. Born 1675: son of John Richardson of Birks in the parish of Bradford (which was left to him, the third son, by his father, Ri. Richardson of Bilsley—see Yorks. Wills, ix. 89) by his wife Hannah, sister of John, Archbishop Sharp. Ordained deacon, York, $169\frac{8}{9}$ March: priest, 1699 Sept. Vicar of Burton Agnes 16 Aug. 1702–3. Rector of Beeford 19 April 1704–35: Precentor and Canon of York (Bilton 1701, Wistow 1703). Archdeacon of Cleveland 3 Aug. 1711. Married Alethea Wardman of Catfoss in Holderness: but had no children. Died at York 28 Oct. 1735, aged 60: buried in the Cathedral.

Smith, Charles: son of Thomas, eques auratus: born at Stretton [? Stutton], Suffolk. School: Felstead, under M^{r} Glascock. Kept four terms at Queens' College. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Waterhouse 11 Feb. 169$\frac{0}{1}$. Age 18.

B.A. (Smyth) 169$\frac{3}{4}$. Ordained deacon, London, 1695 May: priest, 1696 Dec. One of these names rector of Great Bromley, Essex 19 Apr. 1700: Foster makes him an Oxonian incorporated at King's 1699, but rector in 1695.

Lawson, William: son of Thomas: born at Stainforth, Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Armitstead. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 28 Feb. 169$\frac{0}{1}$. Age 17.

B.A. 169$\frac{4}{5}$. Ordained deacon, York, 1700 May. Curate of Halton Gill, Arncliffe, 27 May 1700.

Lupton, Charles: son of Thomas: born at Bentham, Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Armitstead. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 28 Feb. 169$\frac{0}{1}$. Age 19.

Resided till Mich^{s}. 1693.

Tatham, Richard: son of Edmund: born at Tonstall, Lancs. School: Bingley, Yorks., under M^{r} Marshall. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 27 April 1691. Age 19.

B.A. 169$\frac{4}{5}$. Admitted scholar 6 April, 1693. Son of Edmund, admitted 1654, and perhaps vicar of Kirkby Lonsdale. A brother, John, admitted 1692.

Withers, Edmund: son of Thomas: born at Halton, Lancs. School: Bingley, Yorks., under M^{r} Marshall. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 27 Apr. 1691. Age 16.

B.A. 169$\frac{4}{5}$. Admitted scholar 6 Apr. 1693. Ordained deacon, York, 1695 May: priest, 1699 June. Curate and school-master of Topcliffe, near Thirsk, 20 May 1695. Curate of Ravenfield 6 May 1697. Rector of Rossington 170$\frac{6}{7}$: resigned before June 1710. Master of Doncaster School 1707–37. (Hunter, S. Yorks., 1. 30 and 44.) Also vicar of Owston in 1719 (ib. 2. 479). Original member of the Doncaster Society in 1714 (ib. 1. xxv). Died 1744, aged 70. A brother, Will., admitted 1692.

Benson, Robert: son of Robert: born at Wakefield. Educated in London by M^{r} Meure. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Lovett 6 May 1691. Age 15.

Resided till Lady Day 1692. Doubtless, the M^{r} Rob. Benson who in 1702 gave £10 to the restoration of the Chapel.

Carre, Andrew: Scotus [no more facts]. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Lovett 6 May 1691.

Probably he never resided. Perhaps third son of Rob. Carre of Middlemass Wells (fined £600 after the Restoration) and of Isabel, daughter of Andrew Riddell: died s.p. before 1738 (Genealogist, 3. 111).

Thompson, John: son of Thomas: born at Wainfleet, Lincs. Educated at home by his father. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 21 May 1691. Age 17.

B.A. 169$\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1698. Admitted scholar 8 Aug. 1691. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 169$\frac{6}{7}$ Feb.; licensed to St Paul's, Skegness: priest, 1698 June. One of these names was rector of Boothby Graffoe, Lincs. 14 Sept. 1702, presented by Joh. Towne: gone before 1709. One was rector of Pickworth, Lincs. 11 Nov. 1703, presented by M^{rs} Faith Heneage.

Nelson, George: son of Thomas: born at Unthank, Cumberland. School: Blinkholm [? Blencowe], under Mr Ogle. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 27 May 1691. Age 18.

B.A. 169$\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1709. Admitted scholar 1 April 1693. Ordained deacon, London, 1695 Dec.: priest, 1697 Dec.

Overend, Christopher: son of William: born at Bentham, Yorks. School: Sedbergh, under Mr Wharton. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 8 June 1691. Age 19.

Resided one term and migrated to Trinity Hall: B.A. (Trin. H.) 169$\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1701. Perhaps tutor to Will. Ward at Slingsby, Yorks. up to 1694. Probably rector of East Bridgford, Notts. 2 Jan. 170$\frac{7}{8}$ on the presentation of Pat. Chaworth, Esq., of Annesley. Buried there 21 Dec. 1741.

Bebington, Thomas: son of Michael: born at Westminster. Educated "apud Belgas." Admitted pensioner under Mr Holdsworth 22 June 1691. Age 17.

Resided till Michs. 1692. Probably the Tho. Babington, son of Michael (of St Margaret's, Westminster), admitted at Gray's Inn 1 Dec. 1691. There was a family with the name spelt this way at Bebington near Birkenhead: see Ormerod-Helsby, 2. 451: but the pedigree given there ends too soon.

Wildman, Geoffrey: son of Thomas: born at Thornton, Yorks. School: Sedbergh, under Mr Wharton. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett 23 June 1691. Age 18.

Resided one term.

Mason, George: son of Paul: born in London. School: Newark, under Mr Twells. Admitted sizar under Mr Holdsworth 25 June 1691. Age 17. Pensioner, Oct. 7.

B.A. 169$\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1698. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 169$\frac{8}{9}$ March. Probably rector of Binbrooke St Mary 13 Mar. 170$\frac{3}{4}$.

Askew, Antony: [no facts given]. Admitted sizar under Mr Lovett, 26 June 1691.

Did not reside. Was he the Antony Askew, physician of Kendal, who married Anne Storrs of Storrs Hall, and had a son Antony admitted at St John's 1716? A third Antony was M.D. of Emmanuel 1750. (See D.N.B.: also Hodgson, II. ii. 199.)

Forster, Thomas: son of John: born at Crooklech [?], Northumberland. School: Morpeth, under Mr Jackson. Admitted pensioner under Mr Holdsworth 2 July 1691. Age 18.

B.A. 169$\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1698. Admitted scholar 6 April 1693. Born 1672, son of John Forster, by his wife Mary, daughter of Ri. Forster of Newham: and grandson of Tho. Forster of Adderstone. (Bateson, 1. 229.) Ordained deacon, London, 1701 June. Vicar of Leake, near Thirsk (Dec. 1704), on the presentation of Bishop Crewe of Durham. Died 1726.

Trigg, Thomas: son of John: born at Stevenage. School: Buntingford, under Mr England. Admitted sizar under Mr Duckfield 8 July 1691. Age 17.

B.A. 169$\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1698, incorporated Oxford, 1700. Admitted scholar 8 Aug. 1691. Ordained deacon, London, 169$\frac{4}{5}$ March: priest, Lincoln, 1701 June. Probably tutor to the Hon. Ri. Bulkeley at Baron Hill, up to Aug. 1698. Rector of Letchworth, Herts. 30 June 1701–48, patron, Will. Lytton, miles. Also curate of Wymondley, Herts. Sept. 1709.

Jennison, Ralph: son of Henry: born at Newcastle. Educated in London by Mr Meure. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mr Holdsworth 26 Sept. 1691. Age 17.

Resided till Lady Day 1693, perhaps later. Admitted at Lincoln's Inn 19 Dec. 1693. Eldest son of Henry Jennison and Mary Watson, who owned lands at Ryton near Newcastle. Nephew of Will. (1668). Alive in 1704 when he was executor of his father's will (Surtees, 3. 322). Perhaps the Ra. Jenison of Wolsington Hall, not far from Newcastle, who was Sheriff in 1717 (Brand, 2. 512).

Thurston, Thomas: son of Joseph: born at Colchester. School: Burntwood [Brentwood], under M^{r} Bernard. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Waterhouse 8 Oct. 1691. Age 16.

M.B. 1697; M.D. 1701. Admitted at Lincoln's Inn 21 May 1691 and probably studied law for a time, then medicine: came into residence at Cambridge Lady Day 1694, and paid Study-rent at Christ's up to Lady Day 1702; was admitted fellow-commoner at Caius 2 Feb. 170$\frac{2}{3}$ and resided there some time (Venn, 1. 510). He gave £50 and a number of medical books to the library of Caius College. But he left Christ's on good terms with the Society, for he gave £30 in 1702 to the restoration of the Chapel.

Marks, Daniel: son of William: born at Gayton, Northants. School: Courteenhall, Northants., under M^{r} Ashbridge. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 10 Nov. 1691. Age 21.

B.A. 1695 Mids. Ordained priest, Peterborough, 1700 May. Vicar of Weldon, Northants. 1721 (Bridges, 1. 595).

Mason, Edward: son of T. Mason of Monmouth, pleb. Matric^{d}. at Balliol, Oxford, 15 Dec. 1690. Age 17.

B.A. 1694. Removed to Cambridge and M.A. (Christ's) 1698. Rector of Hampton Bishop, Hereford 1698: and of Bromyard (third portion) 1700. (Al. Ox. 982.)

Dawson, William: son of Christopher: born at Langcliff, Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Armitstead. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 28 Jan. 169$\frac{1}{2}$. Age 15.

B.A. 169$\frac{5}{6}$. Admitted at Gray's Inn 25 Oct. 1693. Will. Dawson of Langcliff Hall, Settle. J.P., and major in the Yorks. Militia. Married Jane, daughter and heiress of Ambrose Pudsey of Bolton Hall: father of Ambrose Dawson, M.D. Friend of Sir Isaac Newton who visited him at Langcliff. Perhaps he is the author (Will. Dawson 1690) of some very good hexameters (printed in Morant-Whitaker, Craven, 176) describing the older village of Langcliff which was destroyed in a Scottish raid, temp. Edw. II.

Clement, Francis: son of James: born in London. School: Durham, under M^{r} Battersby. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Holdsworth 5 Feb. 169$\frac{1}{2}$. Age 19.

B.A. 169$\frac{5}{6}$. Subscribed the Declaration 20 June 1692, presumably as scholar-elect: but not so stated. Rector of St Mary le Bow, Durham 1700–5. Married Anne Hunter 9 July 1700. Vicar of Bywell, Northumberland, 1703. (Surtees, 4 ["City of Durham"] 41. 45.)

Waterhouse, Benjamin: son of John: born at Wakefield. School: Wakefield, under M^{r} Armitage. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 13 Feb. 169$\frac{1}{2}$. Age 16.

B.A. 169$\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1699. Admitted scholar 6 April 1693. Perhaps the vicar of Hollingbourne, Kent who resigned it 1770: but in that case he lived to a very great age: the vicar of that place edited in 1663 a work by the Rev. David Waterhouse (admitted here 1698 as son of John Waterhouse of Wakefield)—apparently his brother.

Tailor, William: son of William: born at "Barrel-Sikes," Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Armitstead. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 15 Feb. 169$\frac{1}{2}$. Age 17.

The matriculation which seems to correspond is of Ri. (not Will.) Tailor: Richard is also B.A. $169\frac{5}{6}$: there may have been two men, Will. and Richard: but this is not supported by the Study-rents.

Proctor, John: [no facts given]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 15 Feb. $169\frac{1}{2}$. No residence of any Proctor at this time. May be the same as Joh. Proctor admitted 29 Nov. 1694: whom see.

Brittain, John: son of John: born at Sleyford [Sleaford], Lincs. School: Okeham [Oakham], under Mr Love. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Holdsworth 16 March $169\frac{1}{2}$. Age not given.

Matric^{d}. December 1695. B.A. $169\frac{5}{6}$. Admitted scholar 17 Jan. $169\frac{5}{6}$. Transferred to M^{r} Duckfield in 1694. Resided only till Lady Day 1696 in spite of his new scholarship. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, $169\frac{8}{9}$ March; licensed to Billingborough: priest, 1700 May.

Moore, Stephen: son of Thomas: of Yorkshire. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Armitstead. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 28 March 1692. Age 21.

B.A. (More) $169\frac{5}{6}$. Admitted scholar (More) 17 Jan. $169\frac{5}{6}$. Resided till Mich^{s}. 1696. Rector of Clitheroe 1696, not later than 1701 (Whitaker, Whalley, 2. 92).

Sanford, Martin: son of Thomas: born at Thorverton, Devon. School: Tiverton, under M^{r} Sanders. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Duckfield 15 April 1692. Age 15. Pensioner, June 1693.

B.A. $169\frac{6}{7}$. Admitted scholar 6 Apr. 1693. His father Thomas was vicar of Thorverton apparently before 1677 till 1716, when he died. There is no trace of him, but the family lingered on: a parish clerk, Martin Sanford, was alive within the memory of man. (Information from Rev. F. L. Bazeley, vicar.)

Bright, Thomas: son of Thomas: born at Pakenham. School: Bury, under M^{r} Leeds. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Holdsworth 29 April 1692. Age 17.

Admitted at the Middle Temple 17 Aug. 1689 as eldest son of Thomas of "Netherhall in Peckingham, Suffolk." That Thomas was son of Thomas of Netherhall Manor by his wife Eliz., daughter of Clement Heigham of Barrow, Suffolk. Married in 1712 Mary, daughter of Will. Grigson of Forncett St Peter's, and had a son Thomas (the fourth in succession of Netherhall) who died unmarried in 1736, aged 23, the last of his line. But Thomas (no. 3) is said to have been born in 1660 (see pedigree in J. B. Bright's History of the Brights of Suffolk). Possibly that Thomas died in infancy and was followed by another brother called Thomas, born ca. 1675 (S.H.A.H.). Died 27 Apr. 1727 and buried in Thurston church, the burial place of the family; Netherhall is on the boundaries of Pakenham and Thurston, and called sometimes the one, sometimes the other (ib.).

Clark, James: son of James: born at Seroreby [?], Northants. School: Sedber[gh]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 7 May 1692. Age 19.

B.A. 1696 Mids. Admitted scholar 6 Apr. 1693. Ordained deacon, Carlisle, 1696 June.

Bagshawe, William: son of Henry: born at Chapel-en-le-Frith, Derbs. School: Mansfield, under M^{r} Foxlow. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 17 May 1692. Age 17.

B.A. $169\frac{5}{6}$. Admitted scholar 6 Apr. 1693. Ordained deacon, Lichfield, 1698 June, with the note "non nisi propter spem melioris profectus approbatus"; licensed to the chapel of Ashford in Bakewell: whatever further progress he made, he was ordained priest at Worcester 25 May 1700: when he was (or became) curate of Edale. Vicar of Glossop, Derbs. 3 Aug. 1703; where the well known "Apostle of the Peak," of the same names, had died 8 Apr. 1702, aged 74: I have not discovered any relationship between them.

Ridley, John: son of Nicholas: born at Ecles, near Chipchase, Northumb^{d}. School: Morpeth, under M^{r} Jackson. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Holdsworth 9 June 1692. Age 15.

Transferred to M^{r} Duckfield and resided till Mich^{s}. 1694. He would seem to have belonged to the Parkend Ridleys (close to Chipchase) but I cannot identify him.

Bunchley, Richard: son of Edward: born at Burn [Bourn], Cambs. School: Peterborough, under M^{r} Warren. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett 16 June 1692. Age 17.

B.A. 169$\frac{5}{6}$. Admitted scholar 22 Feb. 169$\frac{4}{5}$. Son of Edward (1653) vicar of Bourn. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1696 Sept.: priest, 1698 June. Probably vicar of Caxton 8 Mar. 173$\frac{8}{9}$, and of Bourn 24 July 1739. Buried at Bourn 5 Feb. 1754.

Scaife, Richard: [father not given]: born at Ottrington, Richmondshire. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Holdsworth 18 June 1692. Age 18. Pensioner June 1693.

Resided till Mich^{s}. 1693. Chris. Scaife became vicar of Ottrington 1660. A Richard Scaife, clerk, was curate of Sowerby Chapel in the parish of Thirsk 7 Aug. 1699. A "M^{r} Scaife" who sent boys from Histon, Cambs. to the University between 1700 and 1710, was probably Tho. Scaife B.A. (St John's) 1684 and vicar of Histon 1695–1723.

Le Strange, Hamon: son of Hamon: born at Pakenham, Suff. School: Bury, under M^{r} Leeds. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Holdsworth 20 June 1692. Age 16.

Resided probably till July 1693. Grandson of Hamon (admitted 1623) of the Hunstanton branch. Son of Hamon of Pakenham, by his second wife Barbara Bullock of Falkbourne, Essex. Married Christian Isabella Harvey of Cockfield, but had no son. J.P. for sixty-five years. Died at Bury 11 Aug. 1767, aged 93. Author: The Justices Law—an abstract of the Acts wherein Justices have the power of acting (1720): and of several theological works—one being Essays on the Being of a God (1753): another A legacy to the World, or Essays to promote practical Christianity, by a Civil Magistrate (1762). His domestic happiness prompted a work No way more delightful than the Conjugal (1753). (D.N.B.)

Hatt, Pigott: son of Richard: born at Orsett, Essex. School: Brentwood, under M^{r} Bernard. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Lovett 22 June 1692. Age 17.

Resided till Lady Day 1697. Admitted at the Inner Temple 20 Feb. 169$\frac{2}{3}$. Son of Richard Hatt, late of Orsett by his wife Mary, daughter of John Gwillians of Walthamstow. His grandmother was Dorothy Pigott of London. A pedigree in the Essex Vis^{n}. of 1664—but not further helpful.

Ashby, John: son of Thomas: born at Albury, Herts. School: Stortford, under M^{r} Tooke. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 24 June 1692. Age 21.

M.B. 1699. Resident till Lady Day 1697.

Man, Joshua: [father not given]: born at Southwell, Notts. School: Lufton le Morthing [Laughton-en-le-Morthen], Yorks., under M^{r} Bromehead. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Holdsworth 28 June 1692. Age 20.

B.A. $169\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1699; D.D. 1711. Admitted scholar 22 Feb. $169\frac{4}{5}$. Ordained deacon, London, $169\frac{5}{6}$ March: priest, 1696 June; and licensed to Scotton and Laughton, Lincs. Master of Mansfield school 27 May 1706. Rector of Bottlebridge (Botolph Bridge, All Saints), Hunts. 3 June 1715. Licensed 11 July 1715 to hold also the contiguous rectory of Orton Longueville (now united with Botolph Bridge), patron the Duchess of Newcastle. Died 1718 (Sweeting, Peterborough Churches, 137).

Brunton, Robert: son of Ralph: born at Southsheales [Shields], Durham. School: South Shields, under M^{r} Bland. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Holdsworth 2 July 1692. Age 18.

B.A. $169\frac{5}{6}$. Admitted scholar 6 Apr. 1693. Ordained deacon, York, 1697 June.

Tomlinson, Josias [Joshua]: father not given: born at Poole, Yorks. School: Leeds, under M^{r} Clark. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Holdsworth 5 July 1692. Age 17.

B.A. (Joshua) $169\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1699. His father's name was Tristram [the entry being given in a MS. note book of Simon Every]. Admitted scholar (Joshua) 17 Jan. $169\frac{5}{8}$. Ordained deacon (by Bp. of Chichester in the vacancy of Lincoln) 1705 May: licensed to Bucknall, Lincs.: priest (also by Bp. of Chichester, for London) 1706 Dec.

Jenison, William: son of William: born at Newcastle. School: Westminster, under D^{r} Busby. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Holdsworth 10 July 1692. Age 14.

B.A. $169\frac{6}{7}$; M.A. 1700. Admitted scholar 6 Apr. 1693. Son of Will. Jenison (admitted 1668) the town clerk of Newcastle, by his second wife, Barbara Read: first cousin of Ralph, admitted 1691. Ordained deacon, London, $170\frac{0}{1}$ March: priest, 1703 May. Probably the Burrell lecturer in Rhetorick 1701–4.

Smith, John: son of John: born at Boreham (probably Barham near Ipswich), Suffolk. School: Bury, under M^{r} Leeds. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Holdsworth 13 July 1692. Age 19.

Resided till Lady Day 1694. One of these names was M.A. 1696.

Withers, William: son of Thomas: [no further facts]. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 3 Aug. 1692.

B.A. $169\frac{6}{7}$. Probably son of Thomas of Halton, Lancs. and brother of Edmund (1691). Ordained deacon, York, [date lost]: curate in charge of Wickersley, Yorks.: priest, York, 1711 May. Perhaps vicar of Tunstall All S^{ts}., Yorks, 9 May 1718–19. Curate in charge of Ravenfield Chapel near Rotherham 1728. Rector of Thybergh, near Rotherham 30 July 1723–49, when he died, aged 72 (Hunter, S. Yorks. 2. 42). [But according to Croston-Baines (5. 549) Withers was vicar of Tunstall, Lancs. 1718–37, when he died.]

Sandford, Richard: baronet, son of Richard: born at Howgill, Westmoreland. Educated in London by M^{r} Maidwell. Admitted "pro ordine dignitatis" (does this mean as a nobleman?) under M^{r} Holdsworth 27 Aug. 1692. Age 17.

Said to have been born at the same hour at which his father, Sir Richard, was murdered in Whitefriars, London 8 Sept. 1675. Sir Richard Sandford of Howgill Castle. M.P. for Morpeth 1705, 1708 and 1710 (Hodgson, II. ii. 532). Died unmarried 1723.

Eachard, Abraham: son of Thomas. Educated by his father. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Holdsworth 1 Sept. 1692.

Younger son of Thomas, rector of Barsham, Suffolk: brother of Laurence (1688) and of Christopher (1689). Admitted scholar 22 Feb. $169\frac{4}{5}$. Buried at Great St Andrew's 3 Aug. 1696.

Tatham, John: son of Edmund: born in Lancs. School: not given. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Holdsworth 10 Sept. 1692. Age not given.

B.A. $169\frac{6}{7}$. Son of Edmund (1654), perhaps vicar of Kirkby Lonsdale: brother of Richard (1691). One of these names rector of Bontishall [? Bonsall], Derbs. 29 July 1716.

King, John: [no facts given]. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Cudworth 13 Sept. 1692.

I do not find him in the Study-rents. The date seems inconsistent with the supposition that he was the son of John, first Baron Kingston (in 1660) and of Catharine Fenton: third Baron Kingston having succeeded in 1693 his brother Robert, second Baron: donor of £50 to the restoration of the Chapel in 1702. See Lodge-Archdall, Peerage of Ireland, 3. 232, note. Possibly third son of Francis King of Knocklough, grandson of John, the elder brother of Edward King, admitted here 1623 (ib. 223).

Blomefield, Timothy: son of Mark: born in Cambridge. School: Bury, under M^{r} Leeds. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 22 Oct. 1692. Age 16.

His name appears in Study-rents till Lady Day 1694. Perhaps he is the Timothy Blomfield, son of Mark, then of Sharnbrook who was matric^{d}. at St Mary Hall, Oxford, 6 Dec. 1694, aged 18. He took no degree.

Blencow, Henry: son of Christopher: born at Blencowe, Cumberland. School: Blencowe, under M^{r} Ogle. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Holdsworth 24 Nov. 1692. Age 16.

Resided till Mich^{s}. 1694. Son of Christopher of Blencowe Hall, by his wife Ann Laton of Dalemain. Succeeded his father at Blencowe. He was Sheriff of Cumberland, temp. George I. Married (1) Dorothy Sisson of Penrith, (2) Eliz. Todd of Wath, Yorks.: had five sons and three daughters. Died 1721 (Jefferson, 1. 385).

Pollard, Benjamin: son of Tempest: born at Gomersall, Yorks. School: Leeds, under M^{r} Clark. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 9 Dec. 1692. Age 16.

B.A. $169\frac{6}{7}$. Admitted scholar 6 Apr. 1693. Ordained priest, York, 1698 June.

Hobart, Thomas:

Not found before 27 March 1699 when he was admitted as Finch and Baines Fellow on the nomination of the Earl of Nottingham, in place of M^{r} Lovett. M.D. 1700. Though not in Orders he was Junior Dean and Catechist 1700. Praelector 1702: but had a deputy. I cannot trace him till 23 Apr. 1709 when he had leave to travel abroad for six months (probably as a private tutor) "he paying 10*s.* each time for reading his course [in Chapel] and 10*s.* for reading on the Festivals." He must have travelled already, perhaps for three years; otherwise he would not have needed leave for a first journey: such travel was a wise provision to encourage medical research. D^{r} Hobart seems to have signally abused the liberty given thereby. On 3 May 1710 he had leave for another three months without conditions. On 24 July 1712 he had leave to travel out of England for three years "to go along with the Duke of Leeds grandson M^{r} Cook": on 6 May 1715 this charge was prolonged for another three years at the request of the Earl of Nottingham. On 26 Mar. 1719 he had three years more. His last leave was on 1 Nov. 1723 for three years. Before 27 April 1728 his earthly travel had ended. I have met with no similar history.

Lee, Henry: son of John: born at Beckonsfield [Beaconsfield], Bucks. School: Eton, under Mr Newborough. Admitted pensioner under Mr Holdsworth 29 Jan. $169\frac{2}{3}$. Age 18.

M.B. 1698. Admitted scholar 6 Apr. 1693.

Andrews, John: son of John: born at Hitchin. School: Hitchin, under Mr Miller. Admitted sizar under Mr Duckfield 24 Feb. $169\frac{2}{3}$. Age 17.

B.A. $169\frac{6}{7}$; M.A. 1703, incorporated Oxford, 1703. Admitted scholar 6 Apr. 1693. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1699 Sept.; licensed to Ickleford with Pirton, Herts.: priest, London, 1700 Sept. On 2 Jan. $170\frac{2}{3}$ Joh. Andrews M.A. (Christ's), was licensed curate of Sutton by Dover. Chaplain to Lord Rockingham. Instituted 30 Mar. 1708 to the united rectories of St Mildred All Saints, and St Mary de Castro, Canterbury: and (as Chaplain) licensed to hold also the rectory of Knowlton, Kent—distant three miles—vacant by the death of Peter Pury. One of these names (but perhaps a younger man) was vicar of Farningham, Kent, 1744–54 (Hasted, 1. 306).

Green, Thomas: son of Thomas: born at Lighthorne, Warw. Educated by Mr Mayo. Admitted sizar under Mr Holdsworth 3 June 1693. Age 18.

B.A. $169\frac{6}{7}$; probably M.A. 1733. Admitted scholar 22 Feb. $169\frac{4}{5}$. Possibly the Tho. Green, B.A., ordained deacon, Lincoln (lit. dim. from Worcester), 1698 Sept.: priest, 1701 June; licensed to Haddon (? Hunts.). Vicar (as B.A.) of Burton (or Great) Dassett, Warw. 5 June 1702. Chaplain to the Bishop of St David's: licensed (as M.A. of Christ's) 28 Feb. $172\frac{2}{3}$, to hold with Great Dassett the rectory of Water Stratford, Bucks., distant 15 miles. One Tho. Green, B.A., was vicar of Wymeswold, Leics. 22 Aug. 1728.

Flint, Luke: son of Francis: born at Chesterfield. Educated by Mr Brown. Admitted sizar under Mr Waterhouse 3 June 1693. Age 18.

B.A. $169\frac{6}{7}$. Admitted scholar 22 Feb. $169\frac{4}{5}$. Ordained deacon, Lichfield, 1697 Sept.: licensed to Shelden Chapel, Bakewell, Derbs. Rector of Somershall Herbert, Derbs. 28 July 1708.

Meggison, Lancelot: son of Lancelot: born at Wharton, Northumberland. School: Morpeth, under Mr Jackson. Admitted sizar under Mr Waterhouse 1 July 1693. Age not given.

B.A. $169\frac{6}{7}$. Admitted scholar 22 Feb. $169\frac{4}{5}$. Ordained deacon, Carlisle, 1698 June. Master of Morpeth School: I have not the dates—before 1710 and he was gone before 1717. In 1712 he and the usher (Mather) brought a bill in Chancery against the bailiff and burgesses of Morpeth on the ground that a lease of school-lands at Nether Witton had been granted fraudulently in 1698 to one Nich. Thornton. The suit was settled in 1719 by his successor Mordecai Carey, afterwards Bishop of Clonfert. No boys were sent to Christ's from Morpeth during Meggison's Mastership: and the supply from the south of Northumberland which had been very considerable during the 17th century passed away. It was perhaps due to the influence of Ralph Widdrington.

Dawson, John: son of Thomas: born in Cambridge. Educated at a private school by Mr Pate. Admitted sizar under Mr Duckfield 7 July 1693. Age 17.

B.A. $169\frac{6}{7}$. Admitted scholar 22 Feb. $169\frac{4}{5}$. Ordained deacon, London, 1698 Sept.

Whitaker, Arthur: son of Joshua: born at Settle. School: Giggleswick, under Mr Armitstead. Admitted sizar under Mr Waterhouse 13 July 1693. Age 16.

B.A. $169\frac{7}{8}$. Admitted scholar 22 Feb. $169\frac{4}{5}$. Usher at Giggleswick School: received 12 March $169\frac{8}{9}$ £2. 16*s.* in part wages. On 16 June 1703 Dulsabella Paley received £26. 18*s.* 7*d.* on Mr Whitaker's account. (Governors' Minutes, printed in A. F. Leach's Yorkshire Schools, 2. 282.)

Baines, Ralph: son of William: born at Meureth Head [Mewith Head, in the parish of Bentham], Yorks. School: Sedbergh, under Mr Wharton. Admitted pensioner under Mr Holdsworth 28 Oct. 1693. Age 15.

Admitted scholar (Baynes) 22 Feb. $169\frac{4}{5}$. Son and heir of Will. Baynes of Mewith Head Hall. Resided till Michs. 1695 under Mr Duckfield; he was Mr Holdsworth's last pupil. Admitted at Gray's Inn, 8 Nov. 1695.

Chaplin, John: son of Thomas: born at Otton Belshamp, Essex. School: Eton, under Mr Newborough. Admitted sizar under Mr Duckfield 31 Oct. 1693. Age 18.

M.B. 1699. Admitted scholar (Chaplyn) 22 Feb. $169\frac{4}{5}$.

Sharp, John: "filius secundum carnem" of Dr John Sharp, Archbishop of York: born in London. Educated by Mr Wickens: was some time at Leeds Grammar School (Leeds Sch. Regr.). Admitted fellow-commoner under Mr Lovett 4 Nov. 1693. Age 15.

M.A. 1695. His name remains on the list of Lovett's pupils till Mich. 1697: he lived "at the Master's." Admitted at the Inner Temple 8 Jan. $169\frac{7}{8}$. In 1697 he gave Graevius (Thes. Antiq.) to the Library (cost £11); he also gave in 1702 £20 to the restoration of the Chapel. Lived at Grafton Park, Northants. Married Anna Maria, daughter of Cha. Hosier of Wicken Park. M.P. for Ripon, 1701–14. Commissioner of trade, 1703–14. Died 9 March $172\frac{6}{7}$ aged 49, and buried at Wicken: M.I. to him and his wife in the church. (D.N.B. under his father).

Shaw, Robert:

M.A. 1700. Matricd. at Brasenose, Oxford 29 Mar. 1693, aged 19. B.A. 1696. Incorporated at Christ's. M.A. (Christ's) 1700. Rector of Handley, Cheshire 1703 (Al. Ox. 1341).

Calton, Jacob: son of Thomas: born at Cudthorp, Derbs. Educated by his father. Admitted sizar under Mr Waterhouse 11 Jan. $169\frac{3}{4}$. Age 18.

B.A. $169\frac{7}{8}$; M.A. 1709. Admitted scholar 22 Feb. $169\frac{4}{5}$. Ordained deacon, York, 1698 June: priest, 1699 Oct. Chaplain to the Duke of Newcastle. Vicar of Worksop, Notts. 22 Oct. 1699. Had license 7 Dec. 1708 to hold also the rectory of Blore, Staffs., distant 26 miles, patron, the Duke. Died vicar of Worksop before Oct. 1718.

Risley, John: son of John: born at Knowsley, Lancs. School: Wigan, under Mr Liptrott. Admitted pensioner under Mr Duckfield 27 Jan. $169\frac{3}{4}$. Age 18.

Admitted scholar 13 April 1695. Resided till Lady Day 1697. Is he the John Risley of Risley, Lancs. admitted at the Inner Temple 5 May 1694?

Gyrling, Nicholas: son of Nicholas: born at Bury St Edmunds. School: Bury, under Mr Leeds. Admitted sizar under Mr Duckfield 20 Feb. $169\frac{3}{4}$. Age 17.

B.A. $169\frac{7}{8}$. Admitted scholar 22 Feb. $169\frac{4}{5}$. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1702 Sept.: priest, York, 1703 May. Vicar of Tadcaster 23 May 1703, patron, the Duke of Somerset. Also Master of Tadcaster school, nominated by Archbishop Sharp and Dean Finch. Rector of Newton Kyme, near Tadcaster, for 42 years (Nichols, Topographer, 1. 503). Died 9 Sept. 1767, aged 92.

Billington, Joseph: son of Edward: born in London. School: Charterhouse (schola Suttoniensis), under Mr Walker. Admitted sizar under Mr Duckfield 8 Mar. $169\frac{3}{4}$. Age 16.

Cocking, Robert: son of James: born at Warkwith [Warkworth], Northumb^{d}. School: Hex[h]am, under M^{r} Bewick. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Duckworth 23 June 1694. Age 16.
Admitted scholar 20 Mar. 169$\frac{6}{7}$. Resided till Mich^{s}. 1697, perhaps longer. One Rob. Cocking, Master of Hexham school 1698–1702 (Bateson, 3. 224).

Baines, Matthew: son of John: "ἀρχιμαγείρου munere apud nos fungente": born in Cambridge. School: Cambridge (Perse), under M^{r} Sparkes. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 6 July 1694. Age 15.
B.A. 169$\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. 1702. Admitted scholar 22 Feb. 169$\frac{4}{5}$. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1701 June: priest, Worcester, 170$\frac{1}{2}$. Elected Fellow 29 March 1699, succeeding Cha. Ellis. Junior Dean, Catechist and Bunting preacher 1701. Praelector 1703. Steward 1705. Senior Dean 1712. Presented to Fen Drayton 3 July 1713. Resigned his Fellowship before 16 Feb. 1714—possibly on marriage. From that time he paid £10 a year as interest on some loan until Mich. 1719 when he repaid the principal.

Peck, William: son of John: born at Mount Pleasant, Herts. School: Wandsworth, Surrey under M^{r} Johnson. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Duckfield 31 July 1694. Age 16.
Resided certainly till Lady Day 1695, possibly, till 1697.

Mott, Nathaniel: son of Mark: born at Wethersfield, Essex. School: Bury, under M^{r} Leeds. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Waterhouse 13 Aug. 1694. Age 17.

B.A. $169\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. 1702. Admitted scholar 22 Feb. $169\frac{4}{5}$. Brother of Mark (1689): perhaps third son of Mark, ejected from Chelmsford 1662: but the family was large: there were a Mark and Nat. brothers at Caius in the preceding generation (Venn, 1. 407 and 417).

Temple, Richard: eldest son of Richard, baronet, of Stowe, Bucks.: born in London. Educated "praeceptore non uno." Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Lovett 31 Oct. 1694. Age 18.

Resided till Mich^{s}. 1696. Succeeded his father as Baronet May 1697. M.P. for Buckingham 1691 to the end of the reign of Will. III: elected for the county 1704 and 1705, and again for the town 1708 and 1710. Colonel in 1702 of one of the new regiments raised against France: served under Marlborough with distinction especially at the siege of Lille: rose to the rank of Lieut. General. Under George I he was created (19 Oct. 1714) Baron Cobham of Cobham (being descended from the extinct Cobhams). Envoy extraordinary and plenipotentiary to Charles VI. Viscount Cobham 1718. Commanded an expedition against Spain which captured Vigo 1719. For his political action and rupture with Walpole see D.N.B. Joined the Pelhams after Walpole's downfall. He especially opposed the employment of British troops in the interest of Hanoverian policy on the Continent. Married Anne, daughter of Edm. Halsey of Stoke Poges, but had no children. Died 13 Sept. 1749: and was succeeded in the viscounty and baronetcy by his sister Hester, wife of Richard Grenville of Wootton, Bucks. He was a friend of Pope who often visited him at Stowe, and celebrated him in two of his (perhaps) best known lines:

> And you, brave Cobham, to the latest breath
> Shall feel your ruling passion strong in death.

Portrait by Sir Godfrey Kneller, as a member of the Kit Cat Club.

Ramonden, Gabriel: son of Peter: born at Bordeaux [Burdigala], France. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Lovett 31 Oct. 1694. Age not given.

Succeeded his father, as third of the name, rector of Ashover 21 Nov. 1710, and resigned his Fellowship a month earlier. Died unmarried 27 May 1719. (Hunter, F.M.G.)

Carter, Richard: son of Joseph: born at Middleton, Yorks. School: Darton, under M^{r} Stephenson. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 29 March 1695. Age not given.

Buried at Great St Andrew's 20 Dec. 1696.

Thomson, Thomas: son of Thomas: born at York. School: York, under M^{r} Tomlinson. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Duckfield 29 March 1695. Age 16.

B.A. $169\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. 1702. Admitted scholar 20 Mar. $169\frac{6}{7}$. Elected Fellow 12 Oct. 1700, succeeded Tho. Waterhouse. Ordained deacon, York, 1701 Sept.: priest, Lincoln, 1702 May. Junior Dean, Catechist and Bunting Preacher 1702. Praelector 1704–5: he entered very carelessly two men in 1704 and none at all in 1705, Jan.–Oct.: possibly he was out of residence as he signs at no College meeting till 30 Sept. 1705. He seems not to have resided after the end of 1705, and was (perhaps) the Tho. Thomson, M.A., who entered the cure of Coxwold, Yorks. 22 Nov. 1705. Resigned his Fellowship before 6 May 1707 on taking a living: possibly Skegness, Lincs.: if so he died before 1719 when a new rector was appointed. Another was instituted to the rectory of Aldburgh, Holderness 11 June 1714: and resigned before 1723—but how long before is uncertain.

Winn, John: son of Francis: born at Stortford. School: Stortford, under M^{r} Tooke. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Duckfield 6 April 1695. Age 16.

B.A. $169\frac{8}{9}$. Admitted scholar 25 Jan. $169\frac{5}{6}$. One John Winn, B.A., (there seems to be no other B.A. than our man) was ordained deacon, London, 1708 May: priest in September. Inst^{d}. to Boughton Aluph, Kent 22 Sept. 1708, patron, M^{rs} Mary Bretton.

Wiseman, John: fourth son of Sir William, baronet of Canfield, Essex: born in London. School: London, under M^{r} Meurs. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Bevin, 8 Apr. 1695. Age 16.

Resided till Mich^{s}. 1697, or longer. Admitted at the Inner Temple 23 Jan. $169\frac{8}{9}$: removed to the Middle Temple 22 Nov. 1705. Son of Sir Will. Wiseman of Canfield Hall, by his wife Arabella, daughter of Sir Tho. Hewet of Pishobury.

Cheynell, Henry: Oxoniensis, M.A. Admitted for the purpose of taking the degree of D.D.

D.D. 1695. Son of Henry, of Wonersh, Surrey, gent.: admitted at St Edmund Hall, Oxford 10 March $166\frac{4}{5}$, aged 17. B.A. 1668; M.A. 1671: incorporated at Cambridge. Rector of Cranley, Surrey 1682–1704: of Shepperton, Midds. 1683–1704. Foster (Al. Ox. 269) makes him Canon of Chichester in 1704: but Le Neve knows him not, and he died in that year: see Hennessy, 392.

Amherst, Jeffery: eldest son of Jeffery, armiger: born at Cowfold, Sussex. Educated at Horsham by M^{r} [Hen.] Hallywell. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Duckfield 15 May 1695. Age 18.

Resided till Mich^{s}. 1697: or longer. Admitted at Gray's Inn 3 May 1692. Born 1677, son of Geoffrey Amherst ($166\frac{6}{7}$) Bencher of Gray's Inn, by his wife Elizabeth of Warnham, Sussex. Bencher of Gray's Inn: Treasurer 1739–44. Of Riverhead, Kent. Married Eliz., daughter of Tho. Kerrill of Hadlow, Kent, by whom he had seven sons (one of whom was the first Lord Amherst) and four daughters. Buried at Sevenoaks 1 Nov. 1750.

Ogle, Thomas: son of Thomas: born at Church [Kirk] Newton, Northum^{b}. M.A. of Edinburgh. Admitted 27 June 1695.

M.A. 1695. Curate of Bishop Wearmouth Oct. 1694–Sept. 1701, when he died. (Surtees, 1. 231.)

Rutter (afterwards Rutterforth), Thomas: son of Thomas: born at Tadlow, Cambs. School: Wormleighton, Beds. [? Warw.], under M^{r} Bristow. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Duckfield 20 June 1695. Age 20.

B.A. (Rutter) $169\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. 1702. Descended by his mother's side from Bishop Hall of Chester and so from Bishop Hall of Norwich. Admitted scholar 20 March $169\frac{6}{7}$. Ordained as Tho. Rutterforth, B.A., deacon, Ely, 1700 Dec.: licensed to curacy of Hatley St George, near Tadlow. Rector of Papworth 1704: given as rector of Conington 1713; but this is doubtful: licensed to preach at Godmanchester 7 Aug. 1717. Brother of Geo. Rutter later Rutterforth (1699). I suspect that Wormleighton above is a miscopy of Wrestlingworth, Beds. where Thomas' younger brother, George was educated, also under a M^{r} Bristow.

Deere, John: son of Richard: born at Ashwell, Herts. School: Buntingford, under M^{r} England. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Duckfield 5 July 1695. Age 16.

Woods, John: son of Hamlet: born at Winwick, Lancs. School: Warrington, under M^{r} Shaw. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Duckfield, 13 July 1695. Age 17.

B.A. $169\frac{9}{0}$; M.A. 1703. Admitted scholar 20 Mar. $169\frac{6}{7}$. Ordained deacon, Chester, 1703 Sept.: priest, Lincoln, $170\frac{3}{4}$ March. Chaplain to the Earl of Aylesford. Rector of Cortlingstoke [Costock], Notts. 12 June 1708. Had dispensation to hold also Wilford, Notts.—distant five miles—28 Apr. 1733. Died 1752, aged 73.

Hooper, Isaac: son of John: born in Cambridge. School: King's College (schola Regalis grammatica), under M^{r} Will. Donne. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Duckfield 2 Aug. 1695. Age 16.

B.A. $170\frac{0}{1}$. Admitted scholar 20 Mar. $169\frac{6}{7}$. Ordained deacon, London, 1701 June.

Strother, Edward: son of Edward: born at Alnwick, Northumb[d]. School: Alnwick, under M[r] Chessman. Admitted pensioner under M[r] Duckfield 24 Aug. 1695. Age 20.

Resided not more than half a year. Son of Edward, an extra-licentiate of the College of Physicians who practised at Alnwick. The son took his M.D. degree at Utrecht 8 May 1720, and became a licentiate of the College 3 April 1721. Lived in London, and died near Soho Square 14 April 1737. A list of his works will be found in the D.N.B.: the first was A Critical Essay on Fevers, London, 1716. In the College Library is a compilation (MS.) by him of Morborum Diagnostica, Prognostica, Therepeuses, Cautiones Medicae, collected from 2000 authors, and printed in London 3 Oct. 1715: it is numbered 12 in D[r] James' Catalogue of Western MSS. in the Library.

Broughton, Brian: second son of Thomas, armiger, who was son of Sir Brian, baronet: born at Beaudesert, Staffs. School: private, at Kensington, under M[r] Agier [the same name occurs in the Johnian Adm[n]. book 12 May 1701]. Admitted pensioner under M[r] Duckworth 2 Oct. 1695. Age 18.

B.A. $169\frac{9}{0}$. Admitted as of Broughton, Staffs. at the Middle Temple 30 July 1698. Brother of Amcotts ($169\frac{9}{1}$). His father Sir Thomas (who succeeded his father 1708) and his three brothers, Peter, Brian, and Harvey, were all of Trin. Coll., Oxford: Sir Thomas died 1710: when our Brian succeeded him, his elder brother Amcotts having died in 1700. Sir Brian Broughton married Eliz., daughter of Sir Tho. Delves of Doddington, Cheshire. Died 12 Sept. 1724, when he was succeeded by his son Sir Brian Broughton-Delves, who took that surname under his grandfather's will. (Kimber, 1. 185.)

Cookson, Joseph: son of William: born at Leeds. School: Burnsall, under M[r] Clapham. Admitted pensioner under M[r] Duckfield 16 Nov. 1695. Age 17.

Moore, Christopher: son of Thomas: born at Shipton [?], Lincs. Praeceptors, "unus et alter." Admitted sizar under M[r] Duckfield 20 Nov. 1695. Age 17: "Cum breves moras traxerat, grassanti tunc temporis contagiosa febre correptus, summae spei iuvenis praematuro concessit fato."

Admitted scholar 25 Jan. $169\frac{5}{6}$. Buried at Great St Andrew's 5 July 1696.

Mowrye, John: [father not given]: born at Ham near Somerton, Somerset. Educated at Sherborne, under M[r] Curgenven. Resided two years at Wadham, Oxford, whence he brought letters testimonial. Admitted pensioner under M[r] Waterhouse 27 Nov. 1695. Age 19.

Matric[d]. at Wadham 3 Apr. 1693. Resided here till Mich[s]. 1697 or longer—but took no degree. Vicar of Montacute 16 March 1708–20 and rector of Sock-Dennis, Somerset 6 April 1708: rector of Closworth, 17 June 1720: died before Dec. 1725. (Weaver, Somerset Incumbents, 66.)

Day, Francis: son of Samuel: born at York. School: Shipton, [near] York, under M[r] Ho[d]gson. Admitted sizar under M[r] Duckfield 21 Feb. $169\frac{5}{6}$. Age 16.

B.A. $169\frac{9}{0}$; M.A. 1703. Admitted scholar 20 March $169\frac{6}{7}$. One of these names was vicar of Topcliffe, Yorks. 7 Dec. 1713. One was lecturer at the parish church Leeds, later than 1715 and before 1757 (Thoresby-Whitaker, 263).

Robinson, Laurence: son of Laurence: born at Gill, Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under M[r] Arm[it]stead. Admitted sizar under M[r] Waterhouse 21 Mar. $169\frac{5}{6}$. Age 18.

Admitted scholar, 21 Feb. $169\frac{8}{9}$. I cannot find that he took a degree, but one Laur. Robinson, B.A., was ordained deacon, York, 1699 Sept. [not of Oxford].

Sykes, John: son of John: born at Yardley, 'Herts. School: Buntingford, under M^{r} England. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Duckfield 24 April 1696. Age 17.

B.A. $169\frac{9}{0}$; M.A. 1703. Admitted scholar 20 Mar. $169\frac{6}{7}$. John Sykes, the father, was vicar of Yardley, or Ardley, near Buntingford 1664–82. The son was ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1701 Dec., and licensed to Cottered, Herts.: priest, $170\frac{2}{3}$ March. Rector of Cottered; died 1723 (J.E.B.M.).

Cockshutt, Thomas: son of George: born at Clitheroe, Lancs. School: Clitheroe, under M^{r} Escolm [he appears in the Johnian Adm^{n}. Book, as Escott, Ascolm, Ascholma, and Hescolm]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 23 May 1696. Aged 18.

B.A. $169\frac{9}{0}$; M.A. 1703. Admitted scholar 15 Aug. 1696. Probably brother of Josias, admitted 1704. Ordained deacon, York, 1701 Dec.: priest, 1702 May. Probably vicar of Darton near Barnsley 1702: resigned it 24 Apr. 1704 (Hunter, S. Yorks. 2. 371). Perhaps curate of Cawthorne, near Barnsley 20 Apr. 1703. His son Thomas (admitted 1727) was born about 1709 at "Cannonhall," Yorks.

Leese, Joseph: son of Thomas: born at Denton, Lancs. School: Stockport, under M^{r} Dickins. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Duckfield 23 [?] May 1696. Age 19.

B.A. $169\frac{9}{0}$. Admitted scholar 20 Mar. $169\frac{6}{7}$. One Jos. Lees was vicar of Over, Cheshire 1706–53, when he died (Ormerod-Helsby, 2. 184).

Browne, Richard: son of John: born at Ashton, Yorks. School: Burnsall, under M^{r} Clapham. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Duckfield 1 July 1696. Age 17.

B.A. $169\frac{9}{0}$. Admitted scholar 21 Feb. $169\frac{8}{9}$. Ordained deacon, London, 1701 June: priest, 1702 December. One of these names vicar of Hungarton near Leicester 18 Feb. $171\frac{7}{8}$.

Wright, John: son of John: born at Elton, Cheshire. Educated by M^{r} Bellis [? Rob. adm^{d}. under M^{r} Waterhouse $168\frac{4}{5}$, M.A. 1696]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 3 July 1696. Age 19.

B.A. $169\frac{9}{0}$. Admitted scholar 20 Mar. $169\frac{6}{7}$.

Cuttar, John: son of Marmaduke: born at Trewick [?], Northumberland. School: Durham, under M^{r} Rudd. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Duckfield 5 Aug. 1696. Age 16.

B.A. (Peterhouse) $170\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1704. Admitted scholar 20 Mar. $169\frac{6}{7}$: resided here till Mich^{s}. 1697 or longer.

Bullis, John: son of Thomas: born at Ely. School: [Ely], under M^{r} Silvertop. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Lovett [? Aug.] 1696. Age 17.

B.A. $170\frac{0}{1}$. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1702 July: priest, Chichester, 1704 June. Probably vicar of Billingshurst, Sussex 1706. Had dispensation to hold also the rectory of Sullington—distant eight miles—10 June 1725. Held both till death 19 Dec. 1737. John Bullis, LL.B. 1725, was perhaps his son.

Wood, Rolland: son of Rolland: born at Fordham, Cambs. School: Mildenhall, under M^{r} John Badcock. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Duckfield 7 Dec. 1696. Age 18.

B.A. (Woods) $170\frac{0}{1}$. Probably vicar 1705 and rector 1719 of Freckenham, Suffolk. (Al. Ox. 1692.) One Roland Wood was admitted at Lincoln's Inn 21 Feb. $170\frac{1}{2}$: but he was B.A. 1695 of Oriel, Oxford, also the son of a Roland Wood, but of Brookthorpe, Glos. (ib.).

Towers, William: son of Henry: born at Gaywood, Norfolk. School: Len-Regis [Lynn], under Mr Horne. Admitted pensioner under Mr Duckfield 20 Jan. $169\frac{6}{7}$. Age 16.

B.A. $170\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1704; D.D. (com. reg.) 1728. Admitted scholar 20 Mar. $169\frac{6}{7}$. Elected Fellow 1 May 1702 on the death of Dan. Duckfield. Ordained deacon, Ely, $170\frac{2}{3}$ Feb.: priest, Lincoln, $170\frac{2}{3}$ March. Junior Dean, Catechist and Bunting Preacher, 1704. Praelector 1705. From the beginning of 1709 to Oct. 1710, he attended no meeting and was perhaps non-resident: for the next three years he appears, but was elected to no office. Senior Dean 1713: again Jan. $171\frac{4}{5}$ in place of Mr Moor: again in 1721. Taxor 1708. Senior Proctor 1718. His fellowship was declared vacant by the Master in Oct. 1714, because he had inherited from his father an estate at Gaywood near Lynn. He declared that his father's debts exceeded the value of the inheritance: and refused to answer further questions. Covel ejected him: but the V.C., John Green of Corpus "a man of liberal sentiments beyond the age in which he lived" (Masters, 249), reinstated him on appeal. Feeling in the College (as in the University) was divided by politics both public and domestic. Towers was a zealous Whig: also a supporter of Dr Bentley, while the Master was of Gooch's side. Towers, as Proctor in October 1718 on the day when Bentley was suspended from his degrees, challenged Dr Gooch to point out the law or statute on which the proposed grace was founded: and in his address to the Senate he publicly criticised the Heads for the degradation. On Covel's death, Towers, who was Senior Fellow, was elected in Jan. $172\frac{2}{3}$, not without opposition: four of the Fellows (headed by Ra. Aynsley) waited on the V.C. (as Visitor) and asked him to interfere as the election was made not according to Statute: but nothing followed: an opinion of one Ja. Johnson that the vote of a Fellow for himself as Master (if such vote completes a statutable majority) is valid, is in our Muniment-room and seemingly in Towers' handwriting: I infer that he had voted for himself and then strengthened himself with a legal opinion. Political feeling kept him long out of the Vice-Chancellorship: in 1733 he was defeated: in 1734 he was nominated, and thanks to Bentley, who as Regius Professor struck out his most formidable opponent, was elected. (See Gunning, Ceremonies, 46, note.) Nothing memorable occurred during his tenure of office. In College there was much disputation during his Mastership, chiefly concerning Fellowships: it is noteworthy that he declared vacant the Fellowship of Hen. Finch in 1736 on grounds similar to those on which Covel had declared his own—and with equal lack of success: see under Finch (1712). Cole charges him with "love of squabbles and Law" and "wrong-headedness" but admits that he was "esteemed to be an honest and well-meaning man"—which is much for Cole when speaking of a Whig. He had the rare virtue for that time of not being a self-seeker: Cole says that he lost the office of King's Chaplain by a "peculiar unaccountableness of manner" in taking no notice of the offer: and adds that he also gave away his chance of a Bishopric, to which his services entitled him ("he having always behaved himself steadily in the Hanover interest, and that at a juncture when it was most wanted"), by "his morose, sour and rough manner." Perhaps "unsociable" might be substituted for Cole's epithets: it suits his further account: "those best acquainted with him, which were but few, he living much by himself, gave him the character of a very facetious and pleasant companion, that he was a good historian, and that there was hardly a gentleman's family in England he did not know the private history of, and hardly a village in the kingdom which he could not describe; making it his constant practice to travel privately about in the summer, and was never better pleased than when unknown and unobserved." He commenced a full and very good account of the College properties: but did not get on far with it. He followed Dr Covel in one point: he appointed "a President" during his absence, under seal. He died 1 March 1745 at four in the morning of a violent fever (Cole). Buried in the Chapel 6 March, near Covel, without any memorial.

Hall, Edward: son of Edward: born at Munden, Herts. School: Guil[d]sborough, Northants., under M^{r} Worling. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 20 Jan. $169\frac{6}{7}$. Age 14.

B.A. $170\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1706. Admitted scholar 20 Mar. $169\frac{6}{7}$. His father was rector of Aspley Guise, Beds. Ordained deacon, Peterborough, 1702 Sept.: priest, Lincoln, 1709 Sept.: licensed to cure of Egginton chapel, in the parish of Leighton Beaudesert (Buzzard), Herts. Rector of Hockliffe, Beds. 7 Oct. 1713, patron, Adam Houghton. On the death of his father he was presented by one Will. Ansell to Aspley 17 Oct. 1718 and a dispensation obtained from Lambeth.

Hardy, John: son of Richard: born at Garstang, Lancs. School: Kirkby Lonsdale, under M^{r} Firbank. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Duckfield 4 Feb. $169\frac{6}{7}$. Age 17.

Matric^{d}. as Harvey: but Hardy in the Study-rents. One of these names (with no degree) was vicar of Kinoulton near Nottingham 30 May 1729–35. Afterwards vicar of Melton Mowbray, and chaplain to the Dowager Countess of Lincoln. Married Mary Greene of Dunsby, Lincs. Died 28 June 1740, aged 60. Probably father of Richard adm. 1731, who was born and educated at Nottingham: a Richard Hardy succeeded John at Kinoulton.

Fowler, Gervase: son of Samuel: born at Stonegravel, Derbs. School: Chesterfield, under M^{r} Browne. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 5 Feb. $169\frac{6}{7}$. Age 17.

In residence before Mich^{s}. 1697: appears as D^{s} Fowler in Study-rents Mich^{s}. 1701: probably B.A. Mids. 1701: "B.A. 1708" in the Catalogus Grad. Cant. must be an error. Ordained deacon, Lichfield, 1705 June (described as B.A., Christ's): priest, 1711 May. "Hypodidascalus" of Chesterfield School. Probably rector of Langwith, Derbs. about eight miles east of Chesterfield 4 June 1719. Died 1 Feb. $17\frac{19}{20}$, and buried at Chesterfield: M.I. (Glover, 2. 273).

Woolhouse, William Harker: [father not given]: born at Muskham, Notts. School: not given. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Duckfield 26 Feb. $169\frac{6}{7}$. Age 17.

Admitted scholar 20 Mar. $169\frac{6}{7}$.

Hall, Martin: son of Edward: born at Aspley Guise, Beds. School: Guil[d]sborough, under M^{r} Worling. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Waterhouse 19 Mar. $169\frac{6}{7}$. Age 13.

B.A. $170\frac{0}{1}$. Admitted scholar 20 Mar. $169\frac{6}{7}$. Brother of Edward (above). Ordained deacon, Peterborough, $170\frac{3}{4}$ Mar.: priest, Lincoln, 1709 Sept.: licensed to curacy of Bow Brickhill, Bucks. Probably rector of High Laver, Essex 23 Dec. 1727: died there 1734.

Wilding, Richard: son of Thomas: born at Brotherton, Lancs. Educated by M^{r} Forster. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Duckfield 17 April 1697. Age 17.

B.A. (Willding) $170\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. (Wilding) 1704. Admitted scholar (Willding) 21 Feb. $169\frac{8}{9}$. Ordained deacon (Wilding), Lincoln, 1702 May: licensed to Isley-Walton, Leics.: priest, London, 1703 May. Chaplain to the Bishop of Ely. Rector of Throcking, near Buntingford [not in Clutterbuck]. Had dispensation 10 Jan. $170\frac{6}{7}$ to hold also the rectory of Aspeden, distant about two miles. Died before April 1743.

Father of Richard ($172\frac{8}{9}$).

Burvill, Henry: son of James: born at Tilmerston, Kent. School: Rochester. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Duckfield 21 Apr. 1697. Age 16.

B.A. $170\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1704. Admitted scholar 21 Feb. $169\frac{8}{9}$. At a Fellowship election (at which he had the support of Dean Ullock and others) in 1702 the votes were evenly divided between him and Will. Burrell (see below): Matt. Baines who seems to have been at Tonbridge came up to give his vote, which he had promised some time before, for Burvill: this would have given him the necessary majority. But Baines was induced to absent himself from the meeting —according to Burvill and five of his supporters, including John Boldero— because Withers threatened him that his father the cook should be ruined and all his kindred. Covel's name—he voted for Burrell—is not mentioned by the five. There being no election, the matter went to the V.C. D^{r} Richardson, who nominated Burrell: and Burrell was duly elected. Burvill was ordained deacon, Rochester, 1703 Sept. Vicar of West Peckham, Kent 1709. Vicar of Ryarsh, 5 June 1730–42 (Memorials of Malling, 169).

Warren, Robert: son of Erasmus: born at Worrington [Worlington], Suffolk. School: Bury, under M^{r} Leeds. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Duckfield 7 June 1697. Age 17.

B.A. $170\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1704; D.D. 1716. Admitted scholar 21 Feb. $169\frac{8}{9}$. The father Erasmus ($165\frac{6}{7}$) was rector of Worlington, near Mildenhall $166\frac{5}{6}$. The son was ordained priest, Rochester, $170\frac{1}{2}$ Jan.: appointed to Sir John Morden's College, Blackheath. Rector of Charlton 28 Mar. 1704: resigned it in 1736: had dispensation 15 Nov. 1718 to hold also the rectory of Stratford-le-Bow, Midds., distant three miles [?]. Vicar of Hampstead $173\frac{4}{5}$–1740. Died 1 June 1740. Gave £40 to the College: of which £20 was in lieu of his "treat" on taking the D.D. degree. Author: The Rich Man's Charge, a sermon preached at Morden College 6 Sept. 1711.

Brome, James: son of James: born at Nevingtons [Newington], Kent. School: Canterbury, under M^{r} Atkins. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Duckfield 29 June 1697. Age 18.

B.A. $170\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1704. Admitted scholar 21 Feb. $169\frac{8}{9}$. Son of James (1666) rector of Cheriton and vicar of Newington, Kent, and traveller: father of James (1739). Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1701 Dec. Chaplain to the Bishop of Chester. Rector of Great Henny, Essex 8 Mar. $170\frac{7}{8}$: had dispensation 28 Nov. 1712 to hold the contiguous rectory of Pebmarsh, which he resigned 1716. Rector of Colne Wakes, Essex 24 July 1729. He seems to have been there in 1768 (the date of Morant's Essex).

Burrell, William: son of William: born at Bright-Lyn [Brightling], Sussex. School: Saffron Walden, under M^{r} Kilborne. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Duckfield 12 July 1697. Age 15.

B.A. $170\frac{1}{2}$; M.A. 1705; D.D. (com. reg.) 1728, admitted 1729. Admitted scholar 21 Feb. $169\frac{8}{9}$. Elected Fellow (in place of Rob. Bevin) 27 Oct. 1702: for the circumstances, see under Hen. Burvill, above: admitted (according to a note by the Master "upon a devolution in our election upon the Vice-Chancellor and 2 Senior Doctors, by their Nomination and Assumption, and in virtue of their Mandate to me directed bearing date Oct. 17, 1702. John Covel." Ordained deacon, Chichester, 1702 Dec.: priest, Peterborough, 1706 May. Junior Dean, Catechist and Bunting Preacher 1705. Praelector 1706. Steward 1707. Succeeded his father as rector of Brightling in 1708. Resigned his fellowship before Nov. 1709. Chaplain to the King, 10 Jan. $172\frac{9}{1}$. Had dispensation 17 Oct. 1722 to hold with Brightling the vicarage of Icklesham, distant 15 miles. Died, and buried at Brightling 12 May 1737.

Smith, Thomas: son of Ralph: born at 'Pipe-wood-houses, Staffs. Educated [? at Lichfield] by M^{r} Shaw. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Duckfield 10 Oct. 1697. Age 17.

B.A. $170\frac{1}{2}$. Admitted scholar 21 Feb. $169\frac{8}{9}$. Ordained deacon as B.A. of Christ's, Lincoln, $170\frac{2}{3}$ May, "sufficienter intitulatus"—whatever that may imply: priest, Peterborough, 1707. Probably the Tho. Smith presented by the College to Helpston, and vicar 1706–26: buried at Helpston (Sweeting, Peterborough Churches, 93).

Michell (Mitchell), Robert: [father not given]: born at Upwood, Hunts. School: Eton, under M^{r} Newborough. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Duckfield — Oct. 1697. Age 17.

B.A. (Michell) $170\frac{1}{2}$. Admitted scholar (Michell) 5 Jan. $169\frac{7}{8}$.

Lewis, Bernard:

Admitted at Jesus College June 1697. Migrated to St John's where he was admitted sizar under M^{r} Orchard 2 Oct. 1697, as son of Geo. Lewis, clerk, born and educated at Abergwilly, Carmarthenshire. B.A. (St John's) $170\frac{9}{1}$; M.A. 1704. First appears as of Christ's in York Register, "Bernard Lewis M.A. of Christ's College," ordained priest, York, 1706 Sept. Rector of Thorpe Bassett 2 Sept. 1706: patron, the Earl of Carlisle.

Bysshe (Bylshe), Thomas:

Son of Christopher, of Cuckfield, Sussex, pleb. Matric^{d}. at St John's, Oxford 9 July 1677, aged 17. B.A. from Oriel College 1681. Incorporated at Cambridge: M.A. (Christ's) 1704. Rector of Tarring, Sussex 1698 (Al. Ox. 227) and of South Heighton: also vicar of Eastbourne 1704, distant eight miles, by dispensation from Lambeth: he was chaplain to the Dowager Countess of Anglesey: the vicarage was forfeited by reason of his not taking the oath of abjuration: but his license was renewed 9 Oct. 1708 (Lambeth Register).

Heton, Thomas:

Son of James of Bolton, Lancs., pleb. Matric^{d}. at Brasenose, Oxford 19 Jan. $169\frac{9}{1}$, aged 20. B.A. 1694. Incorporated at Cambridge: M.A. (Christ's) 1704. Rector of Hol[y]well, Beds. 1701. Rector of Wyddial, Herts. 1718. (Al. Ox. 699.)

Pountney, Thomas:

Son of —, clerk. Matric^{d}. at St Mary Hall, Oxford 3 Jan. $169\frac{4}{5}$. B.A., but date not found. Incorporated at Cambridge: M.A. (Christ's) 1704; incorporated at Oxford 8 July 1704.

Birch (Burch), Joseph: son of Samuel: born in London. School: Westminster, under M^{r} Nipe [D^{r} Knipe]. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Duckfield 21 Jan. $169\frac{7}{8}$. Age 15.

M.B. (Birch) 1703. Admitted scholar 21 Feb. $169\frac{8}{9}$. Possibly son of Samuel (1675).

Johnson, Benjamin: son of Oliver: born at Capell, Suffolk. Educated (? at home) by M^{r} Coleman. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Duckfield 25 Jan. $169\frac{7}{8}$. Age 17. B.A. $170\frac{1}{2}$. Admitted scholar 21 Feb. $169\frac{8}{9}$.

Kifford, John [but by mistake for Henry]: son of Thomas: born in Cambridge, near Christ's "cuius accola prius fuisset." School: King's College School, under M^{r} Rosewell, Fellow of King's. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Duckfield 2 Feb. $169\frac{7}{8}$. Age 17.

B.A. (Henry) $170\frac{1}{2}$; M.A. 1705. Admitted scholar (Henry) 21 Feb. $170\frac{9}{1}$. Ordained deacon (Hen. Kifford), Norwich, 1703 Sept.: priest, 1704 Sept. Rector of Dennington, Suffolk 1741. Died 1752 and buried at Halesworth (Davy).

Paley, John: son of John: born at Long-[Lang-]cliffe, Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Armitstead. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Duckfield 28 March 1698. Age 17.

B.A. $170\frac{1}{2}$; M.A. 1709; incorporated Oxford 1709. Ordained deacon, York, 1704 Sept.: priest, 1706 June. Vicar of Hunslet, Leeds, 1718–$173\frac{1}{2}$ 13 Jan., when he died, aged 49. Perhaps also vicar of Kirkleatham in Cleveland 18 April 1723: allowed leave of absence 25 Oct. 1726: gone in 1732. Buried at Hunslet: M.I. in old church (now demolished). Often referred to in Thoresby's Diary: Thoresby, though a nonconformist, often went to hear him preach 1720–3, and thought highly of him. Author of The whole duty of Prayer, from the evidence of Reason and Revelation, with prayers for Evening and Morning, 1730, Leeds. (W. B. Paley, Esq.) The connexion of this man with the John Paley, supposed to be the first of Langcliffe, who had sons Thomas b. 1675 and William b. 1680 (admitted here 16 June of this same year) is not clear. Possibly John (the father) and the original William were brothers.

Shaw, Thomas: son of John: born at Colchester. School: Brentwood. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Waterhouse 30 Mar. 1698. Age 16.

LL.B. 1703. Admitted scholar 21 Feb. $169\frac{8}{9}$. A John Shaw of St Ann's, Colchester married about 1677 Anne, daughter of Tho. Broom, Serjeant-at-law, and had sons John (who died without issue 1715) and Thomas, perhaps our man: on John's death the family estate was sold (Morant, 1. 118). One Tho. Shaw was vicar of Wyberton, Lincs. 17 Oct. 1712, patron, John Shaw (for this turn).

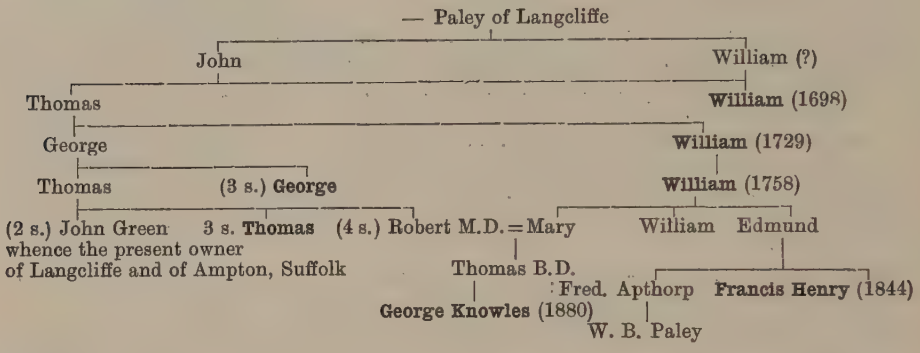
Aynsley, Ralph: son of Mark: born at Gallowshill [in parish of Bolam], Northumb^{d}. School: Durham, under M^{r} Rudd. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Duckfield 7 May 1698. Age 18.

B.A. $170\frac{1}{2}$; M.A. 1705. Signed first Aynsley: then regularly Anesley. Admitted scholar 21 Feb. $169\frac{8}{9}$. Ordained deacon, London, 1702 May. Elected Fellow 27 June 1704, succeeding Hen. Cook. Junior Dean, Catechist and Bunting Preacher 1708. Praelector 1708. Steward 1709. Senior Dean 1715, 1722. Scrutator for the University 1715. Had a very few pupils—the last in 1711. Presented to Hapton 4 July 1717: to Gately 9 Apr. 1718 (succeeding Rob. Withers who died there): resigned it before 29 April 1724: the value being small he retained his Fellowship with it (it was afterwards augmented by a beneficial lease of the rectory): probably he did not reside. On 25 Jan. $172\frac{2}{3}$ he was nominated together with Tho. Husband for Lord Berkeley's usual selection for the rectory of Kegworth: but Lord Berkeley chose M^{r} Husband. On 27 Mar. 1724 he was presented to Ingoldsby, vacant by the death of Ri. Ward—the first presentation made by the College: his fellowship was declared vacant 17 Jan. $172\frac{4}{5}$. Died at Ingoldsby and buried there 3 Jan. $17\frac{39}{40}$.

Aynsley was doubtless a Tory and politically, perhaps personally, hostile to Towers. It was he and Boldero who induced Covel to declare Towers' fellowship vacant in 1714, and probably he was the Fellow who ran Towers hard for the Mastership in $172\frac{2}{3}$. He was one of the four Fellows who desired the V.C. to enquire into the circumstances of that election. Probably he was not unwilling to get away from the College after 20 years of residence in 1724. He seems not to have remained for his "year of grace."

Paley, William: son of William: born at Long-[Lang-]cliffe, Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under Mr Armitstead. Admitted sizar under Mr Duckfield 16 June 1698. Age 17.

B.A. 170½; M.A. 1705. Ordained deacon, Worcester, 170½. One of these names was vicar of Elsham, Lincs. 13 June 1704, patron, Will. Thompson, armiger. Son of William, who was perhaps the man who acquired the Langcliffe estate: see under Robert Paley (1616). The following pedigree shows the connexion of the various members of the College of this name, so far as known: I am indebted for it to Mr W. B. Paley, the present representative of the younger branch.



Waterhouse, David: son of John: born at Wakefield. School: Wakefield, under Mr Armitage. Admitted sizar under Mr Waterhouse 9 May 1698. Age 18.

B.A. 170½; M.A. 1705. Admitted scholar 21 Feb. 169⅝. Brother of Benjamin (169½). Ordained deacon, London, 1703 May: priest, Rochester, 1705; licensed to Tunbridge Wells. Rector of Langley, Kent 171⅑–1758 Nov. 4, when he died (Al. Ox. 1506). He had three sons, all educated at Oxford: Ben. at Univ. 1735; David at Ch. Ch. (afterwards rector of Langley 1759–80); and Thomas at Univ. 173⅝. (Al. Ox. ib.) Author: Epistolae sex ad amicum de divinitate Christi, edited 1763 by his brother, Ben., vicar of Hollingbourne.

Littlewood, Peter: son of Peter: born at Stabley [? Staveley], Derbs. School: Staveley, under Mr Edmonds. Admitted sizar under Mr Waterhouse 9 June 1698. Age not given.

B.A. 170½. Admitted scholar 21 Feb. 169⅝. Ordained deacon, Lichfield, (probably) Sept. 1702; licensed to Holmesfield chapel in Dronfield parish 20 Sept.: priest, 1704 June: licensed to Brampton, Derbs.

Flasby, John: son of Edward: born at Overtown, Lancs. School: Kirkby Lonsdale. Admitted sizar under Mr Duckfield 9 June 1698. Age 16.

B.A. 170½; M.A. 1706, incorporated at Oxford 1712. Ordained deacon, Worcester, 170½: priest, Lincoln, 170⅔ March; licensed to Westmill, Herts. Vicar of Groton, Suffolk 1704–36, when he died. Also vicar of Edwardstone 1706. (Al. Ox. 504.) Buried at Groton 7 Dec. 1736. His only son, Joseph, admitted at St John's 1727, was buried at Groton, June 1731.

England, Thomas: son of Richard: born at Buntingford. School: Buntingford, under his father. Admitted sizar under Mr Duckfield 20 June 1698. Age 16.

B.A. 170½; M.A. 1705. Admitted scholar 21 Feb. 169⅝. His father, Richard, admitted 1667. Ordained deacon, London, 170¾ March: priest, Norwich, 1706 December. Vicar of Westwell, Kent 20 Dec. 1711. Chaplain to Dowager Countess of Salisbury. On 4 June 1729 had dispensation to hold also the vicarage of Wennington, distant two miles. A Tho. England (but probably another, though no other is a graduate of either University), died rector of Crich, Derbs. 7 Feb. 1730 (? $173\frac{0}{1}$). (Cox, Derbs. Churches, 4. 52.)

Keate, William: son of James: born at Char(d)stock, Dorset. School: Chard. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Duckfield 25 June 1698. Age 18: but (as the praelector, John Broughton, implies) more; "non Tyro, sed (si Barbae fides) emeritus; annum agens (prout ipse modeste satis testatur) undevigesimum."

B.A. $170\frac{1}{2}$. Admitted scholar 21 Feb. $169\frac{8}{9}$. James Keate was of Wadham and Exeter and vicar of Chardstock 1669. The praelector's suspicion as to William's age makes it unlikely that he was the Rev. Sir Will. Keate, Bart., who died at Digswell, near Welwyn 6 Feb. 1757 aged 72 (Gent. Mag. p. 142)—who would have been only 13 in 1698.

Lynsey, George: born in Northumberland: M.A. of the University of Edinburgh ("e collegio prope Edenburgam"). Admitted (surety, M^{r} Duckfield) to the Bachelors' Table "pro gradus dignitate."

Did not reside, so far as I find. One Geo. Lindsay was vicar of Alnham St Michael, Northumberland: died vicar 1746.

Cooper, John [probably by error for William]: B.A. of Peterhouse: admitted in order to proceed to M.A. Surety, M^{r} Duckfield.

B.A. (Will. Cooper) $169\frac{4}{5}$ (Pet.); M.A. (Christ's) 1698. One Will. Cooper rector of Bolingbroke, Lincs. 15 Dec. 1698: one vicar of Friskney 3 Nov. 1703: one rector of Fishtoft 14 July 1705.

Greggs, Switchcoat (Whichcott): "ignoto sibi vel nomine tenus Patre suo, natus vero, uti probe meminerit, apud Lyncolniam." School: Lincoln, under M^{r} Gramston [?Garmston]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Duckworth 30 June 1698. Age 18.

B.A. (Whichcott Greggs) at Pembroke, 1705. The perversion of his own name is as strange as his ignorance of his father's.

Mason, Edward: B.A. of Oxford four years before at "Balial." Admitted 1 July to take M.A. at Cambridge. Surety, M^{r} Broughton. Son of T. Mason, pleb.: born at Monmouth, matric^{d}. at Balliol 15 Dec. 1690, aged 17.

B.A. 1694; M.A. (Christ's) 1698. Rector of Hampton Bishop, co. Hereford 1698, and of Bromyard (third portion) 1700. (Al. Ox. 982.)

Meadow, Edmund: son of Edmund: born at Bury St Edmunds. School: Bury, under M^{r} Edw. Leeds. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Duckfield 8 July 1698. Age 15.

Admitted scholar (Medow) 21 Feb. $169\frac{8}{9}$. Resided (Meadows) till Mich^{s}. 1701.

Baines, John: son of John "e nobis alter": born in Cambridge. School: Perse, Cambridge ("schola publica"), under M^{r} Sparks. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Lovett 8 July 1698. Age 14.

B.A. $170\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1706. Admitted (Baynes) scholar 21 Feb. $169\frac{8}{9}$. Younger son of John the ἀρχιμάγειρος (see under Matthew, 1694): he signs his own name Baynes, by a freak, as his kindred were all Baines. The last (and at the time the only) pupil of M^{r} Lovett, to whom the cook remained faithful: Baines kept in the Master's lodging, with his tutor (who also had rooms there) till at least Mich^{s}. 1706: the usual entry in the list of Fellows and their pupils being "M^{r} Baines (the cook) for his son." Ordained deacon, London, 1706 Sept.: priest, 1708 Sept.: licensed to Lynn Regis. In 1718 he became rector of Cockley Cley, Norfolk : on 8 Feb. $17\frac{19}{20}$ he had a dispensation to hold also Ringstead St Andrew's (in the gift of the College) distant 20 miles. He was chaplain to the Earl of Denbigh. He held Ringstead till 1735 (?1753).

Bulkley, Richard: only son and heir of Richard, Baron Bulkeley, Viscount Cashel: born at Baron Hill ("sedes avita") "prope Bellomariscum," Anglesey. Educated at home, finally by M^{r} Trigg. Admitted as nobleman ("pro ordinis sui dignitate"), under M^{r} Duckfield 16 Aug. 1698. Age 16.

M.A. 1700. Resided at the Master's "above the ante-chapel" till Lady Day 1701. Son of the third Viscount by Mary, daughter of Sir Phil. Egerton of Egerton, Cheshire. Fourth Viscount Bulkeley of Cashel, 1704. M.P. for Anglesey 1705–24. Gave in 1702 to the restoration of the Chapel £21. 12*s*. 0*d*. Constable of Beaumaris Castle ; and of Carnarvon 1713. Married Lady Bridget Bertie, daughter of James, Earl of Abingdon ; had two sons, the fifth and sixth Viscounts. Died at Bath, 1724, aged 41. (Collins, 8. 16.)

Butler, Jacob: son of John, LL.D. : born at Wallington, Herts. School : Bishop Stortford, under M^{r} Tooke. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Duckfield 16 Aug. 1698. Age 16.

B.A. $170\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1706. Admitted scholar 21 Feb. $169\frac{8}{9}$. John, the father, who married Susanna Bodendick, was rector of Wallington. Barrister at law : proprietor of an estate at Barnwell, Cambs. where he lived and died. Six feet four inches in height and very eccentric. Married Rose, daughter of — Clerk, rector of Somerby. He erected in Barnwell Church three tablets to his ancestors and three more autobiographical, leaving the dates of the death of himself and his wife to be filled in. These three are printed at length in Cooper's Annals, 4. 336–9, and are curious, but too long to give here. They describe his "invariable steadiness in the cause of Liberty, which would have entitled him to rewards in any age or country where Virtue was not a crime and Corruption the safest path to Honour." His virtue was chiefly shewn in fighting with the Corporation. Once (in 1754) he offered himself as a candidate for Parliament, but without success : but entitled himself justly to the name of the Old Briton. His labours in the cause of freedom were many. He fought a M^{r} Sindrey an alderman of the town who (like Ahab king of Israel) wanted his neighbour's property on which to erect a dog-kennel ; here M^{r} Butler was successful in his action. Edward Gillam, a farmer of Cambridge, would plough 30 acres of the Lammas land south of Cambridge : whereby "all the sheep were damaged in their feed much more in their winter layer" : hence another successful action. He ended his life 28 May 1765 aged 84, and Rose Butler 5 May 1778 aged 87 : they were both buried in the same grave made by him on the south side of the chancel.

Robinson, Brian : son of Christopher : born at Clapham, Yorks. School : Giggleswick, under M^{r} Armitstead. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Duckfield 30 Jan. $169\frac{8}{9}$. Age 19.

B.A. $170\frac{2}{3}$. Admitted scholar 21 Feb. $170\frac{9}{1}$. Author : A Treatise on Animal Economy (Cooper and Le Keux, where he is called M.D.—but not of Cambridge). An Essay on Coin, London, 1758. Also A Dissertation on the Aether of Sir Isaac Newton, 1743.

Weatherhead, Anthony: son of Anthony : born at Giggleswick. School : Giggleswick, under M^{r} Armitstead. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Duckfield 30 Jan. $169\frac{8}{9}$. Age 16.

B.A. $170\frac{2}{3}$. Ordained deacon, York, 1704 Sept. : priest, 1706 June. Usher at Giggleswick 12 Mar. $170\frac{4}{5}$. Licensed to Normanton grammar school 1730. Vicar of Holme (near Burnley, Lancs.) 1742–60, when he died, aged 80

(Whitaker, Whalley, 2. 207—but the age does not quite agree). According to Gent. Mag. 1749, 477*b*, he was vicar of Winterton, Lincs. I can find only one of these names.

Moss(e) Charles: son of Robert, of Norfolk. School: Norwich, under Mr Burton. Admitted sizar under Mr Duckfield 7 Feb. $169\frac{8}{9}$. Age 15.

B.A. $170\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1706; M.D. 1713. Admitted (Mosse) scholar 21 Feb. $169\frac{8}{9}$. Practised medicine at Kingston-on-Hull. Died 1731, aged 46. (Poulson, 758.)

Barker, William: son of James: born at Winwick, Lancs. School: Warrington, under Mr Shaw. Admitted sizar under Mr Withers 9 Feb. $169\frac{8}{9}$. Age 16.

B.A. $170\frac{2}{3}$. Admitted scholar 21 Feb. $170\frac{0}{1}$.

Hodson (or Hodgson), John: son of John: born at Ringste[a]d, Norfolk. School: Brancaster, under his father. Admitted sizar under Mr Duckfield 11 Apr. 1699. Age 15.

B.A. $170\frac{2}{3}$. Admitted scholar 21 Feb. $170\frac{0}{1}$. Son of John (1669): brother of Henry ($169\frac{9}{0}$). Ordained deacon, Lincoln, by letters dimissory from Norwich, 1703 May. One of these names was rector of Thurstaston, Cheshire 1705–52. (Ormerod-Helsby, 2. 510.)

Moor (or More), John: son of John [husbandman]: born at Middleton, Westmoreland. School: Sedber[gh] [for four years], under Mr Wharton. Admitted (after residing one year at St John's) pensioner under Mr Withers 27 June 1699. Age 19.

B.A. $170\frac{1}{2}$; M.A. 1705. Admitted scholar (More) 21 Feb. $170\frac{0}{1}$—later he always signs Moor: Covel always writes him More. Elected Fellow in place of Simon Every, 19 Apr. 1704. Ordained deacon, York, 1704 Sept.: priest, Ely, 1705 Sept. Junior Dean, Catechist and Bunting Preacher 1706. Praelector 1707. Steward 1708. Senior Dean 1714. Took a few pupils—averaging about ten in all, between 1709 and 1714. One of the Fellows who appealed to the V.C. against the Master's action in appointing Boldero President in 1714. He seems to have died suddenly: he was buried in the ante-chapel 22 Dec. 1714, aged 34: but no memorial of him is there now.

Swann, Richard: son of Robert: born in London. School: Cambridge (Perse), under Mr Sparkes. Admitted pensioner under Mr Duckfield 28 Apr. 1699. Age 17.

B.A. $170\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1707. Admitted scholar 21 Feb. $170\frac{0}{1}$. Ordained deacon, Peterborough, 1705 June. Perhaps rector of Freckenham, Suffolk (Davy).

Wilson, Benjamin: son of Louis: born in London. School: Eton, under Mr Newburgh. Admitted pensioner under Mr Duckfield 3 July 1699. Age 18.

Resided till Michs. 1700.

Foster (Forster), Richard: son of Richard: born in Cambridge. School: Cambridge [King's College School], under Mr Rosewell. Admitted sizar under Mr Duckfield 7 July 1699. Age 15.

B.A. (Foster) $170\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1716. Admitted scholar (Foster) 19 Feb. $170\frac{2}{3}$. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1706 Sept.

Hampson, John: son of John: born in Cambridge. School: Cambridge [King's College School], under Mr Rosewell. Admitted sizar under Mr Duckfield 7 July 1699. Age 14.

B.A. $170\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1709. Admitted scholar 19 Feb. $170\frac{2}{3}$. There is a Latin letter from him to Covel (10. Kal. Apr. $170\frac{4}{5}$) written from Cambridge while still B.A., describing how he joined a crowd to go to an execution; how moved by the last words of one of the criminals he expressed a belief in his possible salvation; for which he was fiercely attacked by "fanaticus quidam." (Add. MSS. 22911, p. 95.) Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1706 Sept.: priest, Ely, 1708 Sept.: curate of East Church, Isle of Sheppey. Probably curate of Kegworth (of which Covel remained rector): his wife, Mary, to whom he had been married two months, died there in 1714: and he followed her 18 Aug. 1716, aged 33: "humanis functus miseriis, hic in Christo obdormivit" are the words (probably his own) which end his epitaph (Nichols, Topographica, 8. 1444).

Rutter (afterwards Rutterforth), George: son of Thomas: born at Tadlow, Cambs. School: Wrestlingworth, under Mr Bristow. Admitted sizar under Mr Duckfield 7 July 1699. Age 17.

B.A. (Rutterforth) $170\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1719. Admitted scholar (Rutterforth) 19 Feb. $170\frac{2}{3}$. Brother of Tho. Rutter (1695). The family seems to have changed its name about 1700, after Thomas had graduated. Geo. Rutterforth was ordained deacon, Ely, 1705 Sept.: priest, Peterborough, 1707 Sept. Chaplain to the Earl of Bradford. Vicar of Bulmer, Essex 9 June 1708 (patron, John Brown, gent.). Had dispensation to hold also Otton Belchamp, distant two miles, 24 Nov. 1720. He also held Belchamp-Walter. Died 1751.

Cudworth, Robert: son of Charles: born at Hornsey, Midds. School: Oxford [? King Edward's], under Mr Badgworth. Admitted sizar under Mr Duckfield 22 July 1699. Age 17.

Probably never resided. Probably a grandson of Dr Cudworth, and son of Charles who married in India: see page 49: any son of that marriage could not have been more than $15\frac{1}{2}$ at this time—but the age here given may be wrong.

Coldham, James: son of James: born in Norfolk. Admitted fellow-commoner, under Mr Duckfield 20 Sept. 1699. Age not given.

Probably never resided. Perhaps of Anmer Hall: see Burke, L.G. (1871), 259.

Bradbury, Wentworth: son of Thomas: born at Mildenhall, Suffolk. School: Bury, under Mr Edw. Leeds. Admitted pensioner under Mr Duckfield 19 Dec. 1699. Age 16.

B.A. $170\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1707. Admitted scholar 21 Feb. $170\frac{9}{1}$. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1706 Sept.: priest, $170\frac{8}{9}$ March: licensed to Herringswell, Suffolk. Chaplain to the Earl of Bristol. Rector of Wicken Bonant, Essex 26 Nov. 1720. On 22 Nov. 1721 had dispensation to hold also the vicarage of Arkesden, distant one mile. Died about Feb. 1761 (1765 according to Morant, 2. 588). In 1704 the advowson of Moulton (not yet purchased by Christ's College) was leased for a year to Tho. Bradbury. In 1718 the same was granted by Wentworth Bradbury to Joh. Delamere.

Drew, John:

Son of John, clerk, of Stourton, Wilts. Matriculated at Oriel College, Oxford 30 Oct. 1690.

B.A. 1694. Incorporated at Cambridge: M.A. (Christ's) 1706. Rector of Kingston Deverell 1706 (Al. Ox. 425).

Son of John Bradshaw (Sheriff of Derbs. 1717, being then settled at Eyam), by his wife Dorothy, daughter of Anthony Eyre (1650) of Rampton, Notts. (see Glover, Derbs. 2. 219). Probably Recorder of Doncaster (Hunter, S. Yorks. 1. 33). Married Helen, daughter of Rob. Roper of East Derby, Lancs. Died 23 Dec. 1735, aged 52 and buried in Doncaster church: M.I. which describes him as "in litibus dirimendis sagax et integer, in legibus exsequendis fidus et intrepidus" (Hunter, 2. 43).

Robinson, Gervase: son of John, miles: born at Denson [Denston], Suff. School: Eton, under M^{r} Newberry (Newburgh). Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Duckfield 3 Dec. 1700. Age 16.
Admitted scholar 21 Feb. $170\frac{0}{1}$. Resided till Lady Day 1702.

Le Grice, John: son of John: born at Bury St Edmunds. School: Bury, under Mr Leeds. Admitted sizar under Mr Burton 23 Dec. 1700. Age 18.
B.A. $170\frac{4}{5}$. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1706 Sept.

Hargreaves, Robert:
Son of James, clerk, of Colne, Lancs. Matricd. at Brasenose, Oxford, 15 July 1693, aged 17.
B.A. 1697. Incorporated at Cambridge: M.A. (Christ's) 1707: incorporated at Oxford 8 July 1707 (Al. Ox. 651). One Rob. Hargreaves rector of Langton on Swale, Yorks. 2 Sept. 1746. Vicar of Harewood, Yorks. 11 Aug. 1747: both livings vacant in 1754.

Bird, Drury: son of John: born at Knapwell, Cambs. School: King's College, Cambridge, under Mr Rosewell. Admitted sizar under Mr Duckfield 5 Feb. $170\frac{0}{1}$. Age 17.
B.A. $170\frac{4}{5}$. Ordained deacon, Chichester, 1705 May: priest, 1708 May. One of these names vicar of Bolney, Sussex 1 Jan. $170\frac{4}{5}$.

Byam, Samuel: son of Willoughby: born in Antigua, whence he came to England, aged 8. School: Camberwell, under Mr Lamberth. Admitted pensioner under Mr Duckfield 28 Feb. $170\frac{0}{1}$. Age 17.
The first of four or five admitted here of the family of Byam which was of some importance in the West Indies. (See History of Antigua, 1. 69–101.) William Byam of Luccombe, Somerset and of T.C. Dublin (1622–70) left England for Antigua about 1650. He had two sons, Edward, Governor of the Leeward Islands, who had three sons Edward (admitted 1708), William (1720) and Francis (1726): the second was Willoughby (1657–90) who had two sons, William and this Samuel: he was a lieut.-colonel and died of his wounds at St Christopher's 1690. Sam. Byam resided till December 1704 as a pupil first of Mr Duckfield, then after Duckfield's death of Mr Sherwill. He became a major in the army: married Eliz., daughter of Geo. Clark of Antigua, and had one son Sam. who was admitted at Queen's, Oxford 1729. He died intestate 1712 (Hist. p. 101).

Smith, George: son of John: born at Richmond. School: Richmond, under Mr Will. Thomson. Admitted sizar under Mr Duckfield 17 March $170\frac{0}{1}$. Age 18.
B.A. $170\frac{4}{5}$. One of these names was rector of Bag Enderby, Lincs. 20 Feb. $171\frac{1}{2}$: and doubtless also of the adjoining parish of Somersby: in which church he was buried June 1729.

Pennell (or Pannell), Peter: son of Peter: born at Rudgley [Rugeley], Staffs. School: Rugeley, under Mr Tomkinson. Admitted sizar under Mr Burton 13 May 1701. Age 18.
B.A. $170\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1708 (Pennell). Ordained deacon, Lichfield, 1705 Sept. and licensed to preach in the diocese: priest, 1717 Sept. Perhaps master of King's Bromley school, Staffs. in 1715 (see under Geo. Lawton). Probably vicar of King's Langley in 1725 where his son David (adm. 1742) was born and educated by his father.

Raikes, Robert: son of Robert: born at Northallerton. School: Eton, under Mr Newburroug (Newburgh). Admitted pensioner under Mr Duckfield 23 May 1701. Age 17.
Resided under Mr Duckfield and then under Mr Sherwill till Mich. 1703. Admitted at Gray's Inn 24 June 1700. He lived at Gloucester, and in 1722 he founded the Gloucester Journal one of the oldest country newspapers. He married a daughter of the Rev. R. Drew, by whom he was father of Robert the "promoter of Sunday schools" (D.N.B.) who carried on his father's business as a printer at Gloucester. Died 7 Sept. 1757 (ib. under his son).

Cocksedge, William: son of William: born at Rougham, Suffolk. School: Lavenham, under M^{r} Drift. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Boldero 9 June 1701. Age 18.
B.A. 170$\frac{5}{6}$.

Towne, Leonard: son of John: born at Sudbrooke, Lincs. School: Grantham, under M^{r} Burnet. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Duckfield 26 June 1701. Age 18.
B.A. 170$\frac{6}{7}$. Subscribed as scholar 19 Feb. 170$\frac{2}{3}$. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 170$\frac{8}{9}$ March; licensed to Kirkby-le-Thorpe and Asgarby: priest, 1709 Sept. Rector of Boothby Graffoe, Lincs. 30 Oct. 1709, patron, Will. Thompson, gent.

Walton, John: son of Thomas: born at Knarsdale, Northumb^{d}. School: Lowther, under M^{r} Tho. Lodge. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Sherwill 4 July 1701. Age 18.
Resided till Lady Day 1703. Admitted scholar Feb. 170$\frac{2}{3}$. One of these names vicar of Melchbourn, Beds. 7 Apr. 1715, patron, Lord St John.
? Schoolmaster of Carlisle 1710, and Corbridge 1719 [enquiry made May 1910 by J. W. Robinson, Brokenheugh, Haydon Bridge. F.K.P.].

Sturges, John: son of John, clerk in Holy Orders: born at Hartford, Hunts. School: Charterhouse, under M^{r} Walker. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Sherwill 4 July 1701. Age 15.
B.A. 170$\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1709. Admitted scholar 19 Feb. 170$\frac{2}{3}$. John, the father, admitted 1667, was vicar of Hartford 1684–9. The son was ordained deacon, Norwich, 1710 July. Rector of Halton, Lincs. 11 June 1711, patron, the Bishop of Norwich. Rector of Chilbolton, Hants. 19 April 1722–23. Rector of Wonston with Sutton, Hants. 13 May 1723. Prebendary of Winchester 1721, till his death 11 Oct. 1740 (called B.D., but probably by error, Le Neve, 3. 36). Left Selden's Works to the Library. He subscribed in 1727 to D^{r} John Spencer's De legibus Hebræorum.

Salmon, William: son of Thomas: born at Mepsall, Herts. [probably Meppershall, near Shefford, Beds.]. School: Buntingford, under M^{r} England. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Duckfield 3 Nov. 1701. Age 16.
B.A. 170$\frac{6}{7}$. Admitted scholar 4 May 1702. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1708 Aug.; licensed to Wickhambrook: priest, Worcester, 1709.

Carter, Charles: son of Greenough: born at Gazeley, Suff. School: Bury, under M^{r} Leeds. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Burton 22 Dec. 1701. Age 18.
B.A. 170$\frac{5}{6}$. Admitted scholar 6 Mar. 170$\frac{4}{5}$. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1706 May: priest, 170$\frac{8}{9}$ March; licensed to Culford, Suffolk. Rector of Culford 1709–55: also of Ingham and Timworth, 1741–55. Also curate of Denham 1743–55—but did not keep the registers. (Denham Parish Registers, p. 285.)

Hall, Henry:
Matric^{d}. pen. 1701 Apr. Admitted scholar 21 Feb. 170$\frac{0}{1}$. B.A. 170$\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1707. Ordained deacon, London, 1706 Sept.: priest, Lincoln, 1709 Sept.; licensed to cure of Aspeden and Throcking, Herts. Vicar of Elmdon, Essex 1711–19. Rector of Fowlmere, Cambs. 1719–51. Inherited a fortune from one Rumbold, his uncle, who kept the Rose Tavern, Cambridge. Bought a house at Hildersham, which was built by Conyers Middleton. Married a Miss Wilmot of Wenden, who died of small pox at Saffron Walden: had a son Tho. Rumbold Hall, who was B.A. (St John's) 1744, lived at Hildersham, and was Sheriff of Cambs. 1780 (St John's Admissions, 3. 509). Died at Fowlmere 17 Feb. 175$\frac{6}{7}$, aged 74. (Information from Rev. A. C. Yorke.)

Long, Charles:
M.A. 1709. Perhaps the same as the Cha. Longe [but given as different in the Cat. Grad.] admitted 1685, B.A. 168$\frac{8}{9}$. There was a Cha. Long, almost contemporaneous at Ch. Ch., Oxford, mat. 1703; B.A. 1707; M.A. 1710: he is not given in Al. Ox. 936 as having incorporated M.A. at Cambridge—if it were possible that he should do so in 1709.

Macro, Cox: son of Thomas, alderman of Bury. School: Bury, under M^{r} Leeds. Admitted at Jesus College: then at Christ's, pensioner under M^{r} Burton, 19 Jan. 170$\frac{1}{2}$, in order that he might enjoy better health "mutato caelo," and also be taught medicine more perfectly, as two distinguished Doctors of Medicine [presumably D^{r} Hobart and D^{r} Thurston] were then "flourishing" at Christ's. Age 18.

LL.B. 1710; D.D. (com. reg.) 1717. Thomas, his father, was grocer, alderman and five times Mayor of Bury: his mother was Susan Cox, great granddaughter of Richard, Bishop of Ely. Resided till Midsummer 1703: on 3 Sept. he entered at Leyden to study medicine. Chaplain to George II. A wealthy man: he passed the life of an antiquary at Little Haugh, Norton, Suff. till his death, aged 84, 2 Feb. 1767: he was buried at Norton. He was "a master of most of the modern languages," and "a very learned and amiable man, the most complete scholar and gentleman united that almost ever I saw" (Ri. Hurd). He left valuable coins and medals, books, and MSS.—among these last all Covel's Collections. A catalogue was compiled of all his treasures in 1766. They passed into various hands, through his daughter and heiress, Mary, who married Will. Stainforth of Leeds, probably a kinsman of Will. Stainforth, Fellow 1734–8—partly into the hands of Sir Tho. Phillips, partly into the library of the Gurneys of Keswick Hall, Norwich. See a fuller account of their history in D.N.B.

Pinfold, William: son of Thomas, miles: born at St Benedict's, Paul's Wharf. School: Merchant Taylors', under D^{r} Shorting. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Burton 9 March 170$\frac{1}{2}$. Age 17.

LL.B. (Trin. Hall) 1707. Admitted scholar 19 Feb. 170$\frac{2}{3}$.

Charge, Robert: son of John: born at Cheisby [probably Cleasby] in Richmondshire. School: Lichfield, under M^{r} Shaw. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Burton 21 Mar. 170$\frac{1}{2}$. Age 18.

B.A. 170$\frac{5}{6}$. Admitted scholar 19 Feb. 170$\frac{2}{3}$.

Holland, Thomas: son of Thomas, armiger: born in Anglesey. School: Ruthin, under M^{r} Winn. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Duckfield 24 Mar. 170$\frac{1}{2}$. Age 17.

The last pupil admitted under M^{r} Duckfield, who died before the end of April: transferred to M^{r} Withers, under whom he resided till Lady Day 1705.

Garnies, Wentworth John: son of Nathaniel: born at Kenton, Suffolk. School: Stonham, under M^{r} Sam. Stevenson. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Burton 7 April 1702. Age 17.

Resided till Mids. 1703. Born 1684, son of Nat. Garnies of Mickfield, Suffolk, and of Jane, daughter of Joh. Jeffery, vicar of Kenton. Had lands in Debenham, Bedingfield and Winston. Married Eliz. Eames, and had three sons, Charles, Thomas and John. Died 1728 aged 44 (Suckling, 1. 93: Muskett, 1. 192). A brother, Charles, admitted 1706.

Smith, William: son of Edward: born at Hatton Garden, London. School: Charterhouse, under M^{r} Walker. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Burton 20 April 1702. Age 16.

Resided till Xmas 1704. Admitted scholar 19 Feb. 170$\frac{2}{3}$.

Hopkins, Hugh: son of Marmaduke: born at Colchester. School: Cheneys, Bucks., under M^{r} Burroughs. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Burton 27 April 1702. Age 17.

B.A. $170\frac{5}{6}$. Admitted scholar 6 March $170\frac{4}{5}$. Perhaps son of Marmaduke, admitted 1665: but he was rector of St Vedast, London before 1705, when apparently Hugh was born.

Coytmore, Roger: son of Richard: born at Holywell, Flint. School: Ruthin, under M^{r} Winn. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Withers, 29 April 1702. Age 17.

Resided till Lady Day 1703.

Rymer, John: son of Samson: born at Ainderby Steeple, Richmondshire. School: Richmond, under M^{r} Thomson. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Sherwill 30 Apr. 1702. Age 16.

B.A. $170\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1715. Admitted scholar 19 Feb. $170\frac{2}{3}$. Lecturer of St Nicholas Church, Durham and also Head-master of Durham school, before 1717–1732. Died 11 Feb. $173\frac{2}{3}$.

Bourne, Obadiah: son of Obadiah: born at Ashover, Derbs. School: Chesterfield, under M^{r} Brown. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Sherwill 2 May 1702. Age 18.

B.A. $170\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1709. Admitted scholar 19 Feb. $170\frac{2}{3}$. Brother of Samuel (1695): younger son of Obadiah, rector of Ashover for 50 years, who died 1710. Ordained deacon, Lichfield, 1707 June: priest, Peterborough, 1708 May. Curate $171\frac{2}{3}$ of Ash, Kent. Succeeded his brother Samuel rector of Ashover (1710–19) on 13 June 1719. Had dispensation 22 Oct. 1728 to hold also the rectory of Croxall, distant 25 miles. Doubtless Chaplain to the Bishop of Rochester 21 Oct. 1728. Married Rebecca, daughter of John Lynch of Grove in Kent, who died 1754, aged 62. Died 6 Oct. 1763, aged 80 (Nichols, Leics. 2. 424; 4. 34: Hunter, F.M.G. 347).

Clarke, George: son of Henry: born at Rathmill, Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Arm[it]stead. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Burton 7 May 1702. Age 19.

B.A. $170\frac{5}{6}$. Admitted scholar 6 Mar. $170\frac{4}{5}$. Ordained deacon, York, 1706 June: priest, 1707 June.

Maynard, Thomas: son of the Hon. William, armiger: born in Bow parish, London. School: Bury, under M^{r} Leeds. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Burton 2 June 1702. Age 16.

Resided at the Master's, "over the ante-chapel," till Lady Day 1704. Grandson of William, second Baron Maynard: son of William (brother of Banester, the third Baron) by his wife Susan Eyans of Bow: first cousin of Banester (1694) and of Charles (1707). Commissioner of the Customs 1723. Gave £10 to the restoration of the Chapel in 1701. Died unmarried, 1742: buried at Hoxne church, where is a large monument with full sized figure, bearing inscription telling nothing (S.H.A.H.).

Pickering, Sidney: son of Sidney: born at Battersea, Surrey. School: Oundle, under M^{r} Caldwell. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Burton 15 June 1702. Age 16.

Resided as pensioner under (1) M^{r} Burton, (2) M^{r} Burrell till Mich^{s}. 1707; at Xmas he appears as "M^{r}" Pickering (i.e. a fellow-commoner, for he took no degree) and remains till Lady Day 1710! His father, Sidney, a London merchant, was third son of Sir Gilbert Pickering of Titmarsh, Northants. (1613–68) by his first wife Eliz., daughter of Sir Sidney Montagu of Hinchinbrook (1588): he married Honor, daughter of Sir Henry Pickering of Whaddon, Cambs.: a younger brother, Theophilus was at Sidney, and D.D. 1705. The younger Sidney I cannot trace.

Belt, Robert: son of Robert: born at Bossall, Yorks. School: Beverley, under M^{r} Lambert. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Cooke 16 June 1702. Age 16.

Resided "in the Master's, by the Parlour" till Mids. 1704. Admitted at the Middle Temple 18 Nov. 1702. Great-grandson of Sir Rob. Belt of Bossall, Lord Mayor of York 1628 and 1640. Married Mary Overend of Pocklington. Died 7 April 1746 and buried at Bossall (Hunter, F.M.G. 645).

Floyer, William: son of Samuel: born in London. School: Charterhouse, under M^{r} Walker. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Burton 16 June 1702. Age 18.

B.A. 170$\frac{5}{6}$. Admitted scholar 19 Feb. 170$\frac{2}{3}$. Rector of Belgrave, Leics. 1710–49 (Davy).

Husband, John: son of John: born at Lichfield. School: Lichfield, under M^{r} Shaw. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Burton 17 June 1702. Age 17: "tum grammaticam tum musicam perfecte callens."

B.A. 170$\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1709. Admitted scholar 19 Feb. 170$\frac{2}{3}$. Ordained deacon, Lichfield, 1706 May; priest, London, 170$\frac{7}{8}$. Perhaps vicar of Mucking, Essex: the date of his institution is not given by Morant, but later than 1706: resigned 1714. Prebendary of Lichfield 23 June 1716–1726. Vicar of Tottenham 1714. Minor Canon of St Paul's 1733–173$\frac{7}{8}$ Feb. 6, when he died of apoplexy (Hennessy).

Lancaster, Joshua: son of Edward: born at Askham, Westmoreland. School: Lowther, under (1) M^{r} Lodge who taught him grammar, (2) M^{r} Trant "e Lutetia erro" who taught him French and μάθησις. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Burton 26 June 1704. Age 20.

B.A. 170$\frac{5}{6}$. Admitted scholar 19 Feb. 170$\frac{2}{3}$. Ordained deacon, York, 1706 Sept.: priest, 1707 Sept. Vicar of Wighill near Tadcaster, Yorks., 6 May 1712.

Atherton, Thomas: son of Henry, M.D.: born at Newcastle. School: Newcastle, under M^{r} Rud. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Cooke 29 June 1702. Age 17.

B.A. 170$\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1709. Admitted scholar 19 Feb. 170$\frac{2}{3}$. His father was admitted 1674. Ordained deacon, London, 170$\frac{7}{8}$ Feb.: priest, Lincoln, 1709 Sept.; curate of Southoe with Hailweston, Hunts. Elected King Edw^{d}. Fellow 19 Oct. 1710, in place of Sam. Bourne. Junior Dean, Catechist and Bunting Preacher 1713. Praelector and Steward 1714. Senior Dean 1718, 1723, 1730. Scrutator in the Univ^{y}. 1729. Took pupils from 1714 onwards, and soon had more than Boldero, the leading tutor: after Boldero left in 1716 he had six times as many as any one else: he retained the first place easily till 1728 when Cartwright drew up to him: but for five years more he had a diminishing number. He seems to have relieved Covel of the College business for some years before his death: in Sept. 1722 the accounts were "put off till M^{r} Atherton comes to College." Probably he was not on good terms with D^{r} Towers, against whose election he protested but he still remained in College, though presented 15 Sept. 1723 to Hapton, and on 24 April 1724 to Gately which he held till 1732. On 11 May 1732 he was the first College nominee to Little Canfield, Essex: and he vacated his Fellowship 4 June 1733. He did not occupy the rectory house at Canfield, which was tenanted by a farmer. He died there 14 June 1749 aged 64: his tombstone in the nave, just west of the chancel, calls him "a learned and pious divine": but I have not found that he published even an assize sermon. His knowledge of the College history as well as of the accounts is attested by his "statute book" to which he suffixed a good deal of interesting matter. In 1720, two years before Covel's death, a real balance in the College accounts, with the surplus from the last Audit carried over, appears for the first time: and the credit must be assigned to Atherton. He was a subscriber to Ford's Articuli 1720 (J.E.B.M.) and to Sanderson's Algebra 1740.

Palmer, Henry: son of Herbert: born at Wingham, Kent. Educated privately by the Rev. M^{r} Foster. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Burton 4 July 1702. Age 17.

B.A. $170\frac{5}{6}$. Admitted scholar 19 Feb. $170\frac{2}{3}$. Herbert Palmer was the third son of Sir Tho. Palmer of Wingham (a distinguished Royalist): he married Dorothy Pincheon of Writtle, Essex: his elder son Thomas succeeded to the title on the death of Sir Thomas. Henry Palmer died unmarried in 1710, aged 25 (Kimber, 1. 209). James, his uncle, was a Fellow of Trinity.

Kingsbury, Robert: son of Robert: born at Middleton, Essex. School: Yeldham, under M^{r} Brooks. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Burton 6 July 1702. Age 19.

The rector of Middleton 1670–1700 was Roger Middleton: possibly the admission-book gives the father's name wrongly. The son, Robert, resided till Lady Day $170\frac{5}{6}$, and his name occurs without charge for two quarters more: he was ordained deacon, Norwich, 1707 June, as B.A.: but not so in Cat. Grad.

Hill, Thomas: son of James: born in Cambridge. School: Saffron Walden, under M^{r} Kilborn. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Sherwill 8 July 1702. Age not given.

B.A. $170\frac{6}{7}$; M.A. 1710. Admitted scholar 19 Feb. $170\frac{2}{3}$. One Tho. Hill, M.A., Master of Bradford Grammar School 1718–28, when he died. But three other Tho. Hills were M.A. at Cambridge between 1701–8.

Preston, Thomas: son of John: born at Appletreewick, Yorks. School: Bradford, under M^{r} Clapham. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Burton 8 July 1702. Age 15.

Resided till Mich^{s}. 1705.

Hanchett, Edward: son of Edward: born at Buntingford. School: Buntingford. under M^{r} England. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Withers under whom "in philosophorum campis pro virili certat" (J. Boldero, praelector) 8 July 1702. Age 15.

B.A. $170\frac{6}{7}$. Admitted scholar 6 Mar. $170\frac{4}{5}$. Admitted Fellow (succeeding A. Young) 2 Nov. 1708. Despite his youth he had three pupils before Mids. 1709: and at Mich^{s}. 1709, he had 25, having taken over M^{r} Bourne's. After Mich^{s}. he disappears from the list of tutors, and before 12 Jan. $17\frac{09}{10}$, he was dead.

Charleton, Thomas: [father not given]: born in London. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Burton 29 Aug. 1702. Age not given.

Appears in the list of M^{r} Burton's pupils Mich. 1703—but with no charge against him. Perhaps never resided. It is not unlikely that he was a son of Tho. Charleton of Chilwell, Notts., and grandson of Tho. Charleton, admitted 1636, afterwards Sheriff of Notts. If so, he died in 1703.

Ingram, Edward Machell, Viscount Irwin: son of Arthur, Viscount Irwin "quae est apud Scotos satrapia" (says J. Boldero): born at Temple Newsam, Yorks. School: Eton, under M^{r} Newburgh. Admitted fellow-commoner (?nobleman) under M^{r} Burton 10 Sept. 1702. Age 16.

Resided till Lady Day 1704. His mother was Isabella, daughter and coheir of Edw. Machell, Esq. Fourth Viscount Irwin of Temple Newsam. Gave £30 to the restoration of the Chapel 1702. Died young (Hunter, S. Yorks. 1. 173). His brother, Richard, admitted 1703.

St John, St Andrew: son of St Andrew: born at Culford, Suffolk. School: Guil[d]sborough, Northants., under M^{r} Worling. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Withers 14 Sept. 1702. Age 17.

Resided till Lady Day 1704. Admitted scholar 19 Feb. $170\frac{2}{3}$. The father, second baronet, married Jane, heiress of Sir Will. Blois of Cockfield Hall, near Darsham, Suffolk. The son succeeded his father as third baronet in 1708: (1701 in the St John pedigree, Harvey, Hundred of Willey, 484): married Anne, daughter of Sir Will. James, and left a posthumous son, afterwards Sir Paulet, who became eventually the Baron Bletsoe.

Worsley, Thomas: son of Thomas, armiger: born at Hovingham, Yorks. School: Thistleworth [Isleworth, Midds.], under M^{r} Ellis. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Burton 27 Oct. 1702. Age 16.

Resided till Mich^{s}. 1703. Son of Tho. Worsley by his wife Mary Arthington of Arthington Hall. Tho. Worsley of Hovingham Hall: gave £10 to the Chapel Fund in 1703: married Mary Frankland of Thirkleby Hall in 1710.

Lawes, Walter: son of John: born at Lee, Hants. School: Salisbury, under M^{r} Hardwick. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Burton 10 Nov. 1702. Age 16.

B.A. 170$\frac{6}{7}$. Admitted scholar 6 Mar. 170$\frac{4}{5}$.

Sharpe, Martin: son of Martin: born at Bury St Edmunds. School: Bury, under M^{r} Leeds. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Withers 4 Jan. 170$\frac{2}{3}$. Age 18.

B.A. 170$\frac{6}{7}$; M.A. 1716. Admitted scholar 19 Feb. 170$\frac{2}{3}$. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1707 Feb.: licensed to curacy of West Stowe, Suffolk (1707–15): priest, Norwich, 170$\frac{8}{9}$ March. Gave in 1711 Pindari opera (2 vols.) to the grammar school library (West Stow Registers, p. 269). Vicar of Great Thurlow 1715: also rector of the adjoining parish of Barnardiston 1733. Died 1760, aged 75: buried at Thurlow.

Brinkley, John: son of John: born at Bury St Edmunds. School: Bury, under M^{r} Leeds. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Burton 20 Jan. 170$\frac{2}{3}$. Age 18.

B.A. 170$\frac{6}{7}$; M.A. (per lit. reg.) 1717. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1707 Feb.; licensed to curacy of Brockley, Suffolk: priest, 170$\frac{8}{9}$ March. Rector of Middleton, Essex for three years. Rector of Stanningfield, Suffolk (near Bury) for 28 years. Minister of St James', Bury for 43 years. Died 24 June 1751 and in his 67th year, buried in St James' church, where his M.I. gives the above facts. (S.H.A.H.)

Byrom, Samuel: [father armiger, but name not given]: born at Lowton, Lancs. School: Westminster, under D^{r} Knipe. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Burton 7 Mar. 170$\frac{2}{3}$. Age 17.

Resided "in the Master's, over the Parlour" till Xmas 1704.

Muriel, Thomas: son of Stephen: born in Cambridge. School: Hyssen [Histon], under M^{r} Scaife [Ri. 1692]. Admitted sizar under D^{r} Hobart 1 Apr. 1703. Age 18.

B.A. 170$\frac{6}{7}$; M.A. 1712. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1708 Sept.: priest, 1709 Sept. "being already deacon and designed by M^{r} Geo. Fage, rector of Hunton [near Yalding, Kent] to be continued his curate." Vicar of Bethersden, Kent 3 Apr. 1711. Married M^{rs} E. Hulse, widow, 23 Oct. 1712. Buried 25 Aug. 1717 (Arch. Cant. 16. 92).

Eyre, Ambrose: son of William: born in London. School: Charterhouse, under D^{r} Walker. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Burton 6 Apr. 1703. Age 17.

Resided till Mids^{r}. 1704. Admitted at the Middle Temple 17 Nov. 1702, as of Chelsea.

Harvey, William: son of Thomas: born at East Grinstead. School: Charterhouse, under D^{r} Walker. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Burton 25 Apr. 1703. Age 17.

B.A. 170$\frac{6}{7}$; M.A. 1710. Admitted scholar 6 March 170$\frac{4}{5}$. Ordained priest, Chichester, 1710 Sept. Vicar of Hollington St Leonard, Sussex, Mar. 171$\frac{0}{1}$–1712. Vicar of Warnham, near Horsham 1712–38: buried there 31 July 1738.

Brockden, John: son of Thomas: born at Padiam [Padiham], Lancs. School: Kirkby Lonsdale, under Mr Firbank. Admitted sizar under Mr Withers 16 May 1703. Age 18.

B.A. $170\frac{6}{7}$. Admitted scholar 6 Mar. $170\frac{4}{5}$. Ordained priest, London, 1718 Dec. Rector of Snoreham, Essex 30 Aug. 1722. Died there before April 1742 (Morant, 1. 357).

Metcalfe, Thomas: son of John: born at Askrigg, Richmondshire. School: Richmond, under Mr Thomson. Admitted sizar under Mr Burton 14 June 1703. Age 17.

B.A. $170\frac{6}{7}$; M.A. 1710. Admitted scholar 6 Mar. $170\frac{4}{5}$. Ordained priest, Ely, 1709 Sept. Elected Fellow, in place of Tho. Thomson 6 May 1707. Junior Dean, Catechist and Bunting preacher 1709. Praelector and Steward 1710. Appointed by the College Taxor in the University 1714 Aug. 26—but superseded Aug. 31 "being absent," when Mr Will. King (? M.A. (Joh.) 1706) was appointed in his place: Metcalfe however was in College Oct. 2. Presented to Toft 31 March 1715, on promising to resign his Fellowship, if presented: though as one of the senior Preachers he had a statutable right to hold a living within 20 miles, without resigning: he resigned 13 April 1716. (Towers who was senior to Metcalfe desired to have Toft while keeping his fellowship: but the College declined to present him on those terms.) Metcalfe's action was stigmatised 57 years later as simoniacal, when an appeal (never decided) was made by Joshua Wigley, who was treated by the College as Towers had been. (See my History, p. 256.) Also rector of Childerley 30 Oct. 1717–23. Rector of Hardwick 17 Apr. 1723, patron, the Bishop of Ely, whose chaplain he was, to be held with Toft by dispensation from Lambeth 22 April. In 1738 he received a lease of Toft Close. In 1762 he lent the College £250 at 5%. Cole speaks of him in 1773 as "now of Toft and Hardwick, and J.P. for Cambs., an hearty and chearfull man and great Card-player, but much troubled with the gout": his handwriting is completely broken when in 1772 he made an affidavit in the Wigley case that "in my time it was understood to be the rule of the Society that a Junior who would quit his Fellowship for a living should be preferred to a Senior who proposed to hold it with his Fellowship": and he instanced his own case. He died 26 Jan. 1777, aged 90. His daughter married at Gt St Mary's in 1745 Nic. Simons of Trin. Hall, vicar of Chislett, Kent, father of Nic. Simons, adm. 1772.

Molyneux, John: eldest son of Francis, baronet: born at Knighton, Notts. Educated at home by Mr Willymot. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mr Baines 2 July 1703. Age 17.

Resided till Michs. 1705. Son and heir of Sir Francis Molyneux (1672) of Teversall, by his wife Diana How of Langar Castle. Died without issue before his father who lived till 1742. Brother of Charles (1712).

Ingram, Richard: second son of Arthur, Viscount Irwin: born at Temple Newsam. School: Eton, under Mr Newburgh. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mr Burton 3 July 1703. Age 14.

Resided till Lady Day 1704. Brother of Edward (1702) whom he succeeded as fifth Viscount Irwin. Married Anne Howard, daughter of Charles, Earl of Carlisle. Died without issue, 1721 (Hunter, S. Yorks. 1. 173).

Banson, John: son of George: born at Langley, Essex. School: Stortford, under Mr Tooke. Admitted sizar under Mr Baines 10 July 1703. Age 18.

B.A. $170\frac{7}{8}$. Admitted scholar 6 March $170\frac{4}{5}$. Ordained deacon, Norwich, $170\frac{7}{8}$ Feb.: licensed to Felbrigg.

Butler, Robert: [father not given]: of Yorks. "ideo tantum ingressus ut spondente Mr Burton solveret Collegio 10s." 11 July 1703.

Warren, John: son of John: born at Thurston, Suffolk. School: Bury, under Mr Leeds. Admitted sizar under Mr Boldero, 3 Aug. 1703. Age 18.

B.A. $170\frac{7}{8}$; M.A. 1711. Admitted scholar 6 Mar. $170\frac{4}{5}$. Ordained deacon, Norwich, $170\frac{7}{8}$ Feb.: licensed to Thurston, near Bury: priest, $170\frac{8}{9}$ March; licensed to Nolton (? Norton). Rector of Fornham All Sts and St Martin: died 1738, aged 54.

Mileson, John: son of John: born at Norton, Suffolk. School: Lavenham, under Mr Drift. Admitted sizar under Mr Boldero 3 Aug. 1703. Age 18.

B.A. $170\frac{7}{8}$. Ordained deacon, Norwich, $170\frac{8}{9}$ Mar.: licensed to Norton: priest, $17\frac{09}{10}$ March: rector of Norton at the same time. The family was connected with the Brights of Netherhall (see Tho. Bright 1692) by the marriage of Tho. Bright (the grandfather) with Agatha Mileson (Brights of Suffolk, p. 122).

Tomison, John: son of Robert: born in Cambridge. School: Hyssen [Histon], under Mr Scaife. Admitted sizar under Mr Cook 28 Sept. 1703. Age 16.

B.A. $170\frac{7}{8}$. Admitted scholar 6 Mar. $170\frac{4}{5}$. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1712 Sept.: licensed to Whinbergh.

Fish, Henry: son of Thomas "pereruditus necnon perelegans concionator": born at Lynn. School: Lynn, under Mr Horne. Admitted sizar under Mr Burton 18 Oct. 1703. Age 17.

B.A. $170\frac{7}{8}$; M.A. 1711. Admitted scholar (Fysh) 6 Mar. $170\frac{4}{5}$. Tho. Fish, the father, of St Margaret's, Lynn and of Ringstead St Andrew was admitted 1666. The son was ordained deacon, Norwich, 1709 Sept.; licensed to Soham; priest, 1710 December. Rector of Irstead, Norfolk 1711. Chaplain to the Earl of Kinnoul. Vicar of Middleton, Norfolk 1722–37. Had dispensation from Lambeth 9 Aug. 1725 to hold also the rectory of Walpole, distant eight miles: held it till 1743. Author: A Sermon on Proverbs x. 27 (1738).

Glemham, Thomas: son of Thomas, armiger, grandson of Sir Tho. Glemham who fought manfully for the most sacred martyr Charles I: born near Ipswich. School: "Villa Faustini" [Bury], under Mr Leeds. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mr Withers 1 Feb. $170\frac{3}{4}$. Age 17. Having unhappily lost his father he "turned to arms" being "ingenio et manu promptus."

Resided till Xmas 1704. Went into the army and became a captain of dragoons. Died 1711 at Valladolid (S.H.A.H.).

Smith, Thomas: son of Thomas: born at Horningsheath, Suffolk. School: Bury, under Mr Leeds. Admitted pensioner under Mr Boldero 8 Feb. $170\frac{3}{4}$. Age 17.

B.A. $170\frac{7}{8}$; M.A. 1711. Admitted scholar 6 Mar. $170\frac{4}{5}$. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1709 June: priest, 1710 June. One of these names was rector of Baldock, Herts. 22 Feb. $17\frac{09}{10}$.

Milner, John: son of John: born at Pudsey, Yorks. School: Bradford, under Mr Clapham. Admitted pensioner under Mr Withers 20 Mar. 1703. Age 16.

Admitted scholar 6 Mar. $170\frac{4}{5}$: but, despite his scholarship he nowhere appears in the Study-rents.

Pearson, John: son of Thomas: born at Capenwray, Lancs. School: Sedber[gh], under Mr Wharton. Admitted sizar under Mr Withers 1 April 1704. Age 20.

B.A. $170\frac{7}{8}$. Perhaps the John Pearson, B.A., rector of Burton Pidsea, in Holderness, 1717–63, when he died (Poulson, 2. 38): the same man was probably curate of Keyingham (distant about four miles) 5 Feb. $171\frac{7}{8}$. Another was rector of Eccleston, Lancs. 30 Nov. 1736–1740 when he resigned (Croston-Baines, 4. 195).

Thompson, Benjamin: son of Richard: born at Gressingham, Lancs. School: Kirkby Lonsdale, under M[r] Firbank. Admitted sizar under M[r] Withers 1 April 1704. Age 15.

B.A. $170\frac{7}{8}$. Admitted scholar 6 March $170\frac{4}{5}$. Ordained deacon, York, 1709 Sept. Licensed to be master of Kirkburton School 15 Sept. 1709: priest, 1712 Sept. Probably curate in charge of Bradfield near Sheffield 1710–21 (Hunter, Hallamshire, 463).

Almasi, Stephen: [father not given]: born in Transilvania: "nemini fere notus, neque forsan sibi" (Matt. Baines, praelector). Admitted sizar under M[r] Burton 8 April 1704. Age not given.

Resided till Dec. 1705.

Bertie, Peregrine: son of Peregrine, armiger: born in London. School: Charterhouse, under D[r] Walker. Admitted fellow-commoner under M[r] Burton 17 April 1704. Age 15.

Resided till Xmas 1706, keeping after Mids[r]. 1705 "in the Master's over the parlour." Admitted, as son of Peregrine Bertie of Long Sutton, Lincs. at the Middle Temple 6 Feb. 1705 (?$170\frac{5}{6}$): his mother was Rachel Ernle of Wheatham, Wilts.: described as of Low Layton, Essex, where he possibly inherited property through his wife Elizabeth, daughter of Joh. Hungerford of Doctors' Commons, widow of John Fisher, merchant of London, married at St Paul's 8 Nov. 1720. Died 9 Dec. 1743, aged 55. His son Peregrine of Low Layton had also lands in Gedney, Long Sutton and Kirton, Lincs.: and was M.P. for Westbury (Lincs. peds. 1. 129). See Five Generations of a Loyal House by Lady Georgiana Bertie (1845).

Fawkener, William: son of William, armiger: born in London. School: Tot[t]enham High Cross, under M[r] Baxter. Admitted fellow-commoner under M[r] Withers 8 May 1704. Age 17.

Resided "in the Master's over the Antechapel" till Mich. 1706. Admitted at the Middle Temple 1 Aug. 1704 as second son of M[r] Will. Fawkener, of Christ Church parish, Treasurer of the Turkey Company (whom the Master doubtless knew through his chaplaincy to the Company). He gave £5. 7*s.* 6*d.* to the chapel in 1704.

Dowse, Benjamin: son of William: born at Huntingdon. School: Huntingdon, under M[r] Mathews. Admitted sizar under M[r] Withers 8 May 1704. Age 16.

B.A. $170\frac{7}{8}$; M.A. 1711. Admitted scholar 6 Mar. $170\frac{4}{5}$. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1710 Sept. Elected Fellow 12 Jan. $171\frac{0}{1}$. Junior Dean, Catechist and Bunting preacher 1712. Praelector 1713: and omitted the entries of the whole year. Senior Dean 1717. On 15 March $172\frac{2}{3}$ he received the lease of Hapton, vacant by M[r] Husband's resignation. He signs the Order book 27 July 1723. Before Sept. 13 he was dead.

Carr, John: son of William: born at Langcliff, Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under M[r] Armitstead. Admitted sizar under M[r] Withers 12 May 1704. Age 16.

B.A. $170\frac{7}{8}$. Admitted scholar 6 Mar. $170\frac{4}{5}$.

Gilman, John: son of William: born at Norwich. School: Norwich, under M[r] Hoadley. Admitted sizar under M[r] Withers 12 May 1704. Age 16.

Admitted scholar 6 Mar. $170\frac{4}{5}$. Buried at Great St Andrew's Church 16 June 1707.

Gibson, John: son of John: born at Lancaster. School: Lancaster, under M^r^ Bordley. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Withers 27 May 1704, "summae spei iuvenis." Age 16.

B.A. $170\frac{7}{8}$; M.A. 1711. Admitted scholar 6 Mar. $170\frac{4}{5}$. Elected Fellow, in place of M^r^ Withers 17 Nov. 1709. I have not found his ordination, but he was Junior Dean, Junior Greek lecturer, Catechist and Bunting Preacher 1710. Praelector 1711. He appears last on 14 October 1712, and he died before 25 May 1713.

Ayscough, James: son of William: born at Grantham. School: Walcot, Lincs., under M^r^ "Boheme." Admitted sizar under M^r^ Boldero 6 June 1704. Age 19.

B.A. $170\frac{7}{8}$. Admitted scholar 6 Mar. $170\frac{4}{5}$. Ordained deacon, Salisbury, 1709 Sept.; licensed to cure of Stanford, Berks.: priest, London, $17\frac{0\,9}{1\,0}$ March. Vicar of Highworth, Wilts., 26 Mar. 1720–1745. He was apparently a near kinsman to Hannah Ayscough, mother of Sir Isaac Newton: his daughter had a mourning ring for Sir Isaac: she married into the Venn family, and the ring has been handed down. (Information from D^r^ Venn.) Married Cath., daughter of Henry Reyner of Shepperton (J. Venn): and had a daughter Elizabeth born 1722, and sons Thomas (1727), Brent (1728) and John (1730). Buried at Highworth 6 Nov. 1745. (Information from the Rev. F. C. Master, of Highworth.)

Fenwick, [William]: born in Barbados. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Withers 4 July 1704. Age not given.

Admitted scholar 6 Mar. $170\frac{4}{5}$, as Will. Fenwick. Resided till Lady Day 1705: his name is down in the next quarterly list, without charge.

Barley, East: son of East: born at Ashwell, Herts. School: Buntingford, under M^r^ England. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Withers 1 July 1704. Age 15.

B.A. $170\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. 1712. Admitted scholar 5 Mar. $170\frac{6}{7}$. Elected Fellow, succeeding Tho. Sherwill, 9 Oct. 1712. Ordained priest, London, $171\frac{2}{3}$ March. Junior Dean, Catechist and Bunting Preacher 1714. Steward and praelector 1715. Senior Dean 1719. He took a few pupils from 1715 onwards. Signs last 28 Apr. 1720 and died 20 August of the same year, being in his 31st year, and was buried in the nave of Ashwell Church. He left books and £20 to the Library.

Pulleyn, Robert: son of Robert: born at St Neots. School: Eton, under M^r^ Newburgh. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^r^ Sherwill 5 Aug. 1704 "candidi ingenii adolescens, nec ineleganter studiis initiatus." Age 17.

Resided till Mids^r^. 1708. Admitted at the Middle Temple 6 May 1706 as son of Robert Pulleyn, a Master of the Utter Bar.

Dayrell, Francis: son of Marmaduke, eques auratus: born at Shudy Camps, Cambs. School not given. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^r^ Withers 14 Oct. 1704. Age not given.

Resided till Lady Day 1707. Admitted at Gray's Inn 1 Feb. $170\frac{4}{5}$. Grandson of Sir Thomas of Shudy Camps (admitted 1622) and son of Sir Marmaduke by his second wife, Mary Glascock of Farnham, Essex. Sir Marmaduke's first wife was Mary, elder daughter of Sir Justinian Isham (adm^d^. 1627) —"Mary and Vere, young ladies learned beyond their sex and years, the first in the Latin tongue, the second in Mathematicks and Algebra" (Kimber, 1. 279). Married Eliz., daughter of Peter Witchcombe of Braxted Lodge, Essex, coheir of Brownlow Sherard of Lopthorp, Lincs.: by whom he had two sons, Brownlow (adm^d^. 1736) and Marmaduke (1740).

Daniell, Edward: A — Daniell appears in the list of Mr Sherwill's pupils, Xmas 1706, Lady Day and Michs. (not Mids. or Xmas) 1707, in each case, without charge.

B.A. $170\frac{7}{8}$. Possibly the Edw. Daniell, 1687–1746, son of John Daniell of Daresbury: died at Chester 1746 and was buried at Daresbury. (Ormerod-Helsby, 1. 734.)

Sitwell, Thomas:

B.A. (Corpus) $17\frac{0\,9}{10}$; M.A. 1713. Probably son of Geo. Sitwell of Renishaw, Yorks. (1657–1723) and of Anne, daughter and heiress of Tho. Kent of Povey, Dronfield: see Hunter, Hallamshire, 373 (where he is given wrongly as a Fellow of Corpus): he inherited Povey by his grandfather's will. Admitted at Corpus 1705. Elected Fellow of Christ's—succeeding Cha. Smithson—30 Nov. 1714. Held no office (though he resided regularly) till Oct. 1719 when he was Praelector, Junior Dean, Catechist, Bunting Preacher, and Steward. Held nothing more till 1726 when he was Senior Dean: Mildmay Preacher 1727. He was Junior Proctor 1727–8. From 1715 he had one or two pupils—at no time more than three. On 12 Sept. 1725 he had a lease of the tithes of Hapton: but continued to reside: resigned early in 1727. There were "exceedings" in Hall 12 May 1727 "when Mr Sitwell dined there": the reason is not obvious as he attended several meetings in that year: perhaps it was known that he intended to be a benefactor. On 13 Nov. 1731 he was presented to Caldecot, succeeding Tho. Wilkinson. After the end of 1733 he was rarely present at a meeting, and perhaps resided at Caldecot. He died early in 1737 and was buried in the ante-chapel (Adam Wall). He left £20 for the poor of Caldecot; and to the College he left the income of his chamber and £600 for the augmentation of the Mastership and Fellowships: the interest was divided annually as "Mr Sitwell's benefaction." It was invested in South Sea Annuities. In 1854 the capital was sold out, and £660 2 % Consols were bought. In 1856 these were in turn sold—and the proceeds invested in the purchase of the Harvey Charity estate at Meldreth.

Sharpe, Abraham: [father not given]: born at Bradford. School not given. Admitted sizar under Mr Withers 22 Feb. $170\frac{4}{5}$. Age not given.

B.A. $170\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. 1713. Admitted scholar 5 March $170\frac{6}{7}$; and again 5 April, I do not know why. Master of Skipton School 7 Mar. $170\frac{8}{9}$. Ordained deacon, London, 1711 May: priest 1712 June. Chaplain to the Earl of Burlington, who presented him to Londesborough, Yorks. 11 May 1715. Had dispensation from Lambeth to hold also the vicarage of Market Weighton, Yorks. 17 Apr. 1719: for this he had license of non-residence 31 Dec. 1726. Possibly his father was Abraham Sharpe, the well known mathematician of Bradford, who died 1742, aged 91, to whom Jonas Waterhouse of Bradford left by will (1715) all his books and MSS.

Claphamson, Hugh: son of Hugh: born at Giggleswick. School: Giggleswick, under Mr Armitstead. Admitted sizar under Mr Withers 1 March $170\frac{4}{5}$. Age 18.

B.A. $170\frac{8}{9}$. Admitted scholar 5 March $170\frac{6}{7}$. Ordained deacon, York, 1709 June: priest 1711 May.

At this point there are no more entries till Oct. 1705, and a gap of one and a half leaves in the Admission Book, which was never filled up. The praelector for the year was Thomas Thomson. But the Study-rent book does not show any names of men who came into residence before Oct. 1705, which are not found in the University Matriculations.

Burchall, Josiah:
Matric^{d}. sizar 1705. Admitted a pupil of M^{r} Withers before Dec. 1704: resided till Lady Day 1708.

King, William:
Admitted a pupil of M^{r} Baynes before June 1705: came into residence the next quarter. Matric^{d}. pensioner $170\frac{5}{6}$. Admitted scholar 5 Mar. $170\frac{6}{7}$. B.A. $170\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. 1712. Ordained deacon, London, 1711 May. One of these names vicar of Wroxham, Norfolk 1711–19. (Blomefield, 5. 1387.) According to Davy one was vicar of Mildenhall, Suffolk: died in 1714, aged 27; and buried there: the date and age suit.

Sherson (Shierson), William:
Admitted a pupil of M^{r} Withers and resided before Mich^{s}. 1705. Matric^{d}. sizar $170\frac{5}{6}$.
B.A. $170\frac{8}{9}$. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1710 Dec.: licensed to Ickleford with Pirton, Herts. Probably Master of Buntingford School as early as 1728 (after England who was still there in 1721) and as late as 1740: I find his successor instituted in 1764. Will. Sherson, his son, admitted 1739.

Turner, John:
In residence, Mids^{r}. 1705, as a pupil of M^{r} Withers. B.A. $170\frac{8}{9}$. Probably born 9 Sept. 1687 at Caton near Lancaster (Hunter, S. Yorks. 1. 134–5). Ordained priest, York, 1712 June. Perhaps the John Turner, B.A., deacon, licensed to the cure of Ravensfield Chapel near Mexborough 7 Nov. 1709. Vicar of Braithwell, near Rotherham 2 July 1716–66, when he died, aged 79. (Hunter, ib.)

Husband, Thomas:
Came into residence as a pupil of M^{r} Baynes Oct. 1705. Matriculated sizar $170\frac{5}{6}$. Scholar 5 Mar. $170\frac{6}{7}$. B.A. $170\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. 1712. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1710 Sept.: elected Fellow in the place of Will. Burrell 17 Nov. 1709. Junior Dean, Catechist and Bunting Preacher 1711. Steward 1712, also Praelector (and omitted the entries of the whole year). Senior Dean 1716. Mildmay Preacher 1718. Nominated as Scrutator 29 Aug. 1720. On 9 April 1718 he took the lease of Hapton which Aynsley resigned: he may possibly have resided there, to perform the duties of the cure, for he signs the orders afterwards very intermittently: in any case he must have returned to Cambridge for the post of Scrutator 1720–1, and on 17 April 1721 he became rector of Hardwick. On Covel's death Aynsley and Husband were nominated to the Earl of Berkeley for the rectory of Kegworth, and the Earl selected Husband; and he was presented 15 March $172\frac{2}{3}$. He died rector before May 1725. In college he seems to have joined Towers in opposition to D^{r} Covel: and supported him in the struggle for Toft between Towers and Metcalfe, when the latter was taken: on the curious ground that the Senior Fellow ought to have it in order to be able to cope with the Master.

Martin, Wormly:
In residence as a pupil of M^{r} Baynes from Mich^{s}. 1705. Matric^{d}. sizar $170\frac{5}{6}$. Admitted scholar 5 Mar. $170\frac{6}{7}$. Perhaps a son of Wormly Martin, rector of Colveston, Norf. 1676–85. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1709 Oct.: licensed to South Repps as curate to his father, Wormley (B.A. (Jesus) 1667). The father waged a long battle with Corpus and Pemb. Hall for a fellowship—varying from one to the other—backed up by a mandamus from the King. The evidence (from Cal. Dom. Papers) is summarised in Cooper, (Annals, 5. 451–5) and is entertaining. Martin failed at both Colleges. Wormley, junior, had dispensation from Lambeth 11 July 1716 to succeed his father (deprived) as rector of South Repps: held it till 1756 (Blomefield, 4. 340). On the other hand his gravestone in South Repps chancel makes him rector for 45 years, i.e. till his death: if so he held it with Beeston. According to Rye (Cromer, 136) he was also curate of Cromer 1723–9, and again 1743. Rector of Beeston 1756–62 (Blomefield, 4. 293). Another Wormly Martin (? his son) (B.A. (Corpus) 1758) was also rector of South Repps, probably also vicar of Shipden (Cromer) 1763–8, patron, the Bishop: he died 20 May 1768 (Rye, ib.). A fourth (his son) (B.A. (Caius) 1790) was buried there 1804, aged 38.

Robson, Thomas: son of John: born at West Ockling, Durham. School: Lowther, Westmoreland, under M^{r} Lodge. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Withers 23 Oct. 1705. Age 17.

Admitted scholar 5 Mar. $170\frac{6}{7}$. Admitted at Gray's Inn 9 Dec. 1706 as "of the bishopric of Durham, gent." Resided till Lady Day 1707.

Hadwen, John: son of Robert: born at Silverdale, Lancs. School: Lowther, Westmoreland, under M^{r} Lodge. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Withers 29 Oct. 1705. Age 20.

B.A. $17\frac{09}{10}$. One of these names incumbent of Tockholes Chapel near Blackburn, 1736–66. (Abrams, Blackburn, 696.)

Fawkener, Henry: son of Edward, armiger: born at Uppingham. School: Eton, under M^{r} Newborough. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Withers 19 Jan. $170\frac{5}{6}$. Age not given.

Admitted at the Middle Temple (as son of Edw. of the Middle Temple, deceased) 17 June 1707. Probably akin to Will. Fawkener (adm. f.c. 1704).

Robartes, John: son of the Hon. Francis: born in London. School: Eton, under M^{r} Newborough. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Burrell $170\frac{5}{6}$ (no further date). Age not given.

Resided till Mich^{s}. 1711. Born 1686, son of Francis (adm^{d}. 1663). Fourth, and last, Earl of Radnor (succeeding Sir Henry) 1741–1757 July 15, when he died unmarried (1764 in Burke, Ext. Bar.). Either he, or his father, built Radnor House on the Thames, next door to Pope's house: and he is said to be the "heavy lord," satirised in the fourth Dunciad as the type of hanger-on to wits; and also as the subject of Pope's epigram beginning "My lord complains that Pope, stark mad with gardens | Has lopped three trees, the value of three-farthings." The house is now the property of the parish; and the Twickenham Literary Society meets there. [F. C. Hodgson.]

Cockshutt, Josiah: son of George: born at Harwood, Lancs. School: Clitheroe, under M^{r} Escholme (perhaps Escolm). Admitted sizar under M^{r} Withers 22 Apr. 1706. Age 16.

B.A. $17\frac{09}{10}$; M.A. 1713. Brother of Thomas (1696). Scholar 7 Mar. $170\frac{8}{9}$. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1711 Sept.: priest 1712 Feb. Elected Fellow, in place of John Gibson 25 May 1713. Junior Dean, Catechist and Bunting Preacher 1715. Steward and Praelector 1716. Senior Dean 1720, 1724. He generally had one or two pupils, never more than three. Had a lease of Hapton (on Atherton's resigning it) 29 Apr. 1724. Presented to Caldecot in place of the Master, resigning the Hapton lease, 12 Nov. 1724. Presented to Kegworth 1 July 1725—the Lord Berkeley "recommending" (Coll. Order) him instead of Tho. Atherton. Married Mary, daughter of Tho. Twisleton, rector of Weddington [? Wennington], Essex, son of Philip Twisleton of Drax Abbey, whose brother John of Horstman Place was admitted 1632. Died 1762, aged 72. He had three sons, John, who died 1731 and was buried at Kegworth: Thomas (admitted 1749 and afterwards Fellow), who took his mother's name of Twisleton; and Josias (admitted 1758).

Garneys, Charles: son of Nathaniel: born at Kenton, Suffolk. School: Ipswich, under M^{r} Coningsby. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Burrell 23 April 1706. Age 17.

Brother of Wentworth (1702). Admitted scholar 5 Mar. $170\frac{6}{7}$. Resided, first under M^{r} Burrell, then under M^{r} Moore till Mich^{s}. 1709. Died 1711: so Muskett (1. 192), according to whom he was born 1687.

Blanshard, William: son of Richard: born at Akam [? Acomb, Yorks.]. School: "Akam," under M^{r} Tomlinson. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Withers 27 May 1706. Age 17.

B.A. $17\frac{09}{10}$. Admitted scholar 7 Mar. $170\frac{8}{9}$. Son of Richard (1674) of the Inner Temple. Ordained deacon, York, 1710 Sept.: priest 1711 Dec. Lecturer in the parish church Leeds 14 July 1716.

Fenwick, George: son of George: born at Morpeth. School: Morpeth, under M^{r} Meggison (1693). Admitted sizar under M^{r} Aynsley 6 June 1706. Age 16.

B.A. $17\frac{09}{10}$. Admitted scholar 5 Mar. $170\frac{6}{7}$. Ordained priest, London, 1715 Sept. Vicar of Bolam, Northumb^{d}. 1722–70. There are "curious memoranda: medical and historical" written by him in the parish register. (Hodgson, II. i. 341.) Died 27 April 1770, aged 82.

Dunn, John: [father not given]. Of Yorks. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Sherwill 4 June 1706. Age not given.

His name appears in the list of M^{r} Sherwill's pupils each quarter till Lady Day 1708. But each time there is either no charge against him or the charge is put in and then struck out. Another [?] M^{r} Dunn (i.e. fellow-commoner) also in Sherwill's list, appears at Mids^{r}. 1709 till Lady Day 1710: for the first two quarters there is no charge against him: in the last quarters the name itself is struck out. There is no corresponding entry in the Admission book for 1709—which seems complete. It is certain that there was a Joshua Dunn, fellow-commoner at Christ's about this time (1707, according to the Memoir of Sanderson), who brought with him as his friend Nicholas Sanderson, the mathematician and future Lucasian Professor (see Life of Sanderson in D.N.B.: and Hunter, F.M.G. 1. 250). If the date of Sanderson's coming to Cambridge be rightly given (1707) it seems to follow that the name in the very imperfect entry of 4 June 1706 is given wrongly as John, and that it should be Joshua, and that all the entries in the Study-rents refer to one man. Joshua Dunn, according to Hunter, was son of Joshua, mercer, of Halifax and Attercliffe, born 28 Sept. 1684 at Stannery, near Halifax: died 13 Sept. 1709—this suits the entries in the Study-rents—and buried in the chancel of Halifax Church: M.I. His father was buried at Attercliffe 1718: his mother was Mary Clarke (Hunter, 4. 1274).

French, Robert: son of John: born at Chilton, Suffolk. School: Sudbury, under M^{r} Maybourn. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Burrell, — June 1706. Age 20.

No degree given in Cat. Grad.: but ordained (as B.A.—born in Suffolk 1687) deacon, Ely, 1712 June.

Sorrel(l), Henry: son of Henry: born at Cavenham, Suffolk. School: St Paul's, under M^{r} Postlethwaite. Admitted pensioner under the Master 24 June 1706. Age 16.

M.B. 1711; M.D. (com. reg.) 1717. Kept "in the Master's by the Parlour." Admitted scholar (Sorrell) 5 Mar. $170\frac{6}{7}$. Practised at Bury St Edmunds. Married at Nowton church 1 Dec. 1730 to Cath. Gage, also of Bury.

Beaver, Thomas: son of Timothy: born at Barnby Furnewk in the parish of Cawthorne, Yorks. School: Cawthorne, under M^{r} Cockshutt. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Burrell 24 June 1706. Age 17.

B.A. $171\frac{0}{1}$. Ordained deacon, York, 1711 May: priest, 1712 June. Licensed to preach in the church of Bolton on Dearne 1728.

Say, Francis: son of Francis: born at East Hatley, Cambs. School: Rusling-worth [?], Beds. Admitted sizar [tutor not given] 4 July 1706. Age 17.

B.A. $171\frac{0}{1}$. He kept from Mich^{s}. 1708 "in the Masters"—therefore his name is not given in the Study-rents—in "the next chamber" to that which is called "by the Parlour"—presumably the present passage room next to the Chapel: and resided till Mich^{s}. 1712. Born 9 June 1690, eldest son of Francis Say (B.A. (Jesus) $166\frac{8}{9}$) and of Eliz. his wife—elder brother of Will. Cray Say ($171\frac{3}{4}$). Another brother, John, was godson of D^{r} Covel, the Master. Admitted scholar 5 Mar. $170\frac{6}{7}$. Ordained deacon, London, 1713 May: priest, Norwich, 1719 July: licensed to Guiest (Guist, St Andrew), Norfolk. Vicar of Berney (Barney), Norfolk 1720–40 (Blomefield, 5. 790): also of Hindol-veston 1721–40 (ib. 4. 401), when he died. According to family tradition he was rector of East Hatley before going to Hindolveston: which seems hardly probable. Not the Fra. Say, Librarian to Queen Caroline, Secretary to five Bishops of Ely, who died 1748 (Gent. Mag. p. 427): probably he was of Trinity (B.A. $171\frac{1}{2}$).

Gregory, Thomas: son of Love-is-God: born at Stivichall, Warw. School: Coventry, under M^{r} Greenway. Admitted pensioner [no tutor given] 4 July 1706. Age 19.

Admitted scholar 5 Mar. $170\frac{6}{7}$. A pupil of M^{r} Burrell: resided till Mich^{s}. 1708. His mother was Cath. Turvile of Higham, Leics. The Gregorys were long settled at Stivichall (or Stichall) near Coventry, where the College owned land: they are said to have boasted that they came in with the Saxons and settled at "Stickhill"; a branch removed to Yorks. and settled at Barnby Don (Hunter, S. Yorks. 1. 211). One Tho. Gregory was vicar of Hindolveston, Norfolk 1740–1; patron, the Dean of Norwich: vicar of Elm-ham 1741. (Blomefield, 4. 401; 5. 1000.)

Spencer, William: son of John: born at Corthorn [Cawthorne], Yorks. School: Wakefield, under M^{r} Clarke. Admitted pensioner [no tutor given] 5 July 1706. Age 17.

Admitted scholar 5 Mar. $170\frac{6}{7}$. A pupil of M^{r} Sherwill: resided till Mich^{s}. 1707: son of Joh. Spencer of Cannon Hall, Cawthorne, by his wife Ann, daughter of John Wilson of Wortley: succeeded his father and married Christiana, daughter of Ben. Ashton of Hathersage and had three sons, John, Benjamin and William, who all died without issue. Died 30 Jan. 1756 aged 65, and buried at Cawthorne. (Hunter, S. Yorks. 2. 232: the dates are wrong by two years, but the identity seems clear.) One of these names a confrater of Brown's Hospital, Stamford. (Merch^{t}. Taylors' Register, 2. 192.)

Daniel, Robert: migrated from Corpus Christi. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Sherwill 1 Oct. 1706. Age not given.

In the list of Sherwill's pupils till Mich^{s}. 1707—but never any charge.

Will. Burrell, the praelector Oct. 1706–Oct. 1707, makes this one (in-complete) entry and makes no more. Fifteen men are recoverable from the matriculation list.

Thomson, Henry:

B.A. $171\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1718. Admitted under M^{r} Sherwill Mich^{s}. 1706: matric^{d}.

pensioner 1706. Admitted scholar 5 Mar. $170\frac{6}{7}$. Ordained deacon, York, 1712 June: curate of Coxwold 25 July 1713. Rector of Holy Trinity, Holtby, near York 31 May 1716: patron, Tho. Thomson, gent., of York.

Hathornthwaite, Richard:

B.A. $171\frac{0}{1}$. Admitted under M^{r} Bourne before Lady Day 1707: and resided in the Easter Term. Matriculated pensioner 1707 April. Admitted scholar 11 Mar. $170\frac{8}{9}$.

Bagot, Alexander:

B.A. $171\frac{0}{1}$. Admitted under M^{r} Burrell: and came into residence before Lady Day 1707. Matric^{d}. pensioner 1707 April. Curate of Stalmine S^{t} James, near Fleetwood in 1725. Vicar of Gressingham, Lancs. Died there 5 Feb. 1758, aged 75: and buried there. (Letter from T. Cann Hughes, Esq. Lancaster.)

Whitton, Robert:

B.A. $171\frac{2}{3}$. Admitted under M^{r} Burrell: came into residence before Lady Day 1707. Matric^{d}. sizar 1707 April. Admitted scholar 5 Mar. $170\frac{6}{7}$. Resided under M^{r} Burrell, M^{r} Bourne and M^{r} Boldero successively till Mids^{r}. 1712.

Carr, John:

B.A. $171\frac{0}{1}$. Admitted under M^{r} Bourne before Lady Day 1707: kept the Easter term. Matric^{d}. sizar 1707 April. Admitted scholar 11 Mar. $170\frac{8}{9}$. Ordained deacon, York, 1713 Sept.: priest $172\frac{0}{1}$ March. Master of Giggleswick school 1712–45, where he was probably educated. Married Anne Dawson. Buried at Giggleswick 2 Apr. 1745, aged 56 (Morant-Whitaker, 162). Probably son of Thomas Carr of Stackhouse, and brother of James ($171\frac{1}{2}$). His son John was admitted three weeks after his father's death in 1745. The number of boys sent up from Giggleswick fell off considerably in his time, I do not know why: the proportion however to the whole number admitted remains much the same.

Jackson, Robert:

B.A. $171\frac{0}{1}$. Admitted under M^{r} Burrell before Lady Day 1707: kept the Easter term. Matric^{d}. sizar 1707. Resided under M^{r} Burrell, M^{r} Bourne and M^{r} Boldero successively till Mich^{s}. 1710. Ordained deacon, York, 1712 Dec. One of these names succeeded Leonard Jackson (adm. 1668) as rector of Tatham, Lancs. 7 Dec. 1726 and died there 1733 (Croston-Baines, 5. 555).

Topham, William:

B.A. $171\frac{2}{3}$. Admitted under M^{r} Burrell before Mids^{r}. 1707. Matric^{d}. sizar 1707 July. After Xmas 1707 he keeps "at the Masters over the Parlour," perhaps as sizar to Cha. Maynard, and resides there till Mids^{r}. 1712.

Fenwick, Ambrose:

B.A. $171\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1714. Admitted under M^{r} Aynsley before Mids^{r}. 1707. Matric^{d}. sizar 1707 July. Admitted scholar 26 July 1707. Resided till Mich^{s}. 1711: came back June 1713 and resided till Mich. 1716. Ordained priest, York, 1716 Sept. Assistant curate of All Saints, Newcastle (Brand, 1. 393) but for what time does not appear. In 1719 he became vicar of Stamfordham on the resignation of his father, Edward. Married Eliz. Broadley, whose father was an attorney of Gateshead (Hodgson, II. ii. 393). Died 1 Feb. $173\frac{2}{3}$: buried at St Mary's, Gateshead. Brother of Edward (1711).

Watson, Ralph:

B.A. $171\frac{0}{1}$. Admitted under M^{r} Aynsley before Mids. 1707. Matric^{d}. sizar 1707 July. Admitted scholar 11 Mar. $170\frac{8}{9}$. Resided till Dec. 1711.

Possibly the Ra. Watson, B.A. and M.D., of Linmouth Northumberland (Hodgson, II. ii. 191); son of Ralph of North Seaton: married Jane, daughter of John Lawson of Longhurst: died 11 Aug. 1721, aged 32.

Maynard, Charles:

M.A. 1711. Eighth son of Banaster, third Lord Maynard, and brother of Banister (1694). Admitted under M^{r} Aynsley before June 1707. Matric^{d}. fellow-commoner 1707 Dec. Kept "in the Master's over the parlour" paying therefore £1. 10*s.* each quarter, up to Mids^{r}. 1716: but the room remains assigned to him (without charge) up to Lady Day 1721. He succeeded in the title two elder brothers, Henry (third son of the third Baron) and Grey (seventh son), as sixth Baron Maynard in 1745. In 1766 he was created Viscount Maynard: and he died 1775, unmarried, aged 85. By his will dated 13 February 1775 he left £500 "for or toward the cost of erecting or beautifying any publick building for the University of Cambridge that shall not be begun at the time of my decease, or for the use of the Public Physick Garden there." He gave earlier £100 to the Botanic Gardens. This sum with the accumulated interest amounted in 1788 to £745. 18*s.* 4*d.*: which was paid by the trustees of the will to the Vice-Chancellor to be used toward the erection of the proposed University Offices in Senate House Yard. That scheme having been abandoned, the money was returned to the trustees and reinvested. In 1807, when the amount was £2163. 9*s.* 6*d.* it was assigned by Grace to the Botanic Garden, so as to carry out the second alternative object of the testator. (Endowments of the University, (1904) page 475.) Subscribed to Sanderson's Algebra, 1740.

Gardiner, William:

Admitted under M^{r} Sherwill before Mich^{s}. 1707. Matric^{d}. pensioner 1707 Dec. Resided till Xmas 1708. Perhaps the son of Will. Gardiner of Pishobury, Sawbridgeworth who was admitted at the Middle Temple 20 Dec. 1709, and migrated to the Inner Temple 26 Nov. 1713. The vicar (of these names) of Scarcliffe, Derbs. 1724–69, son of Sam., rector of Eckington was probably admitted at Corpus in the same year. One of these names, rector of Hambledon (? which) subscribed to Sanderson's Algebra, 1740.

Webb, Francis:

B.A. 171$\frac{0}{1}$. Admitted under M^{r} Boldero before Mids^{r}. 1707, and resided in the Mich^{s}. quarter. Matric^{d}. sizar 1708 July. Admitted scholar 11 Mar. 170$\frac{8}{9}$. Ordained deacon, London, 1713 May: priest, Lincoln, 1715 June, at the request of the Bishop of Norwich. Probably rector of Hargrave, Suffolk 19 Oct. 1727–6 June 1755, when he died, aged 64 (Gage, Suffolk, 339). His wife, Ellen, died Dec. 1735.

Tindal, Thomas:

M.B. 1712. Admitted under M^{r} Boldero before Mich^{s}. 1707. Matric^{d}. sizar 1707 July. Resided (as "M^{r}" Tindall) for the last two quarters till Mich^{s}. 1712.

Sadler, Henry:

Admitted under M^{r} Sherwill before Mich^{s}. 1707. Matriculated pensioner 1707 Dec. Resided till Mich^{s}. 1709.

Rutty, William:

M.B. 1712; M.D. 1719. Born 1692: admitted at Merchant Taylors' school 10 Sept. 1701. Admitted under M^{r} Sherwill before Dec. 1707. Matric^{d}. pensioner 1707 Dec. Admitted scholar 11 Mar. 170$\frac{8}{9}$. Resided till Mids^{r}. 1712. F.R.C.P. 1720. Gulstonian lecturer at the College of Physicians.

Secretary of the Royal Society. Died 1730. Perhaps he is the Will. Rutty son and heir of Thomas, mercer, of Lombard Street, who was admitted at the Middle Temple 27 Oct. 1709. Author: A treatise on the Urinary passages, 4to. 1726. (D.N.B.)

Washington, Laurence:

B.A. 171$\frac{0}{1}$. Admitted under M^{r} Burrell before Dec. 1707. Matric^{d}. pensioner 1707 Dec. Admitted scholar 11 Mar. 170$\frac{8}{9}$. Resided till Lady Day 1712, perhaps during the next quarter. Ordained priest, York, 1718 Sept. Perhaps of the family, originally of Warton, Lancs., afterwards settled at Sulgrave, Northants., from which the American Washingtons were descended: the name Laurence occurs in it frequently: see pedigree in Croston-Baines, 5. 520.

Cawson, John:

M.B. 1712. First appears at Christ's as pupil of M^{r} Moor at Xmas, 1708, and as "M^{r}" Cawson at Mids^{r}. 1712.

Sanderson, Nicholas:

M.A. (per lit. reg.) 1712; LL.D. (com. reg.) 1728; F.R.S. Born Jan. 1682 (bapt. 20 Jan.) at Thurlston near Penistone, Yorks., son of John Sanderson, exciseman. Lost his eyes by smallpox when one year old. Educated at Penistone by M^{r} Staniforth in Latin and Greek: afterwards by his father and by himself in mathematics: in later life he could repeat all Horace's Odes and much other Latin poetry: his father and friends supported him till he was 25. Came to Cambridge in 1707 as friend of Joshua Dunn then fellow-commoner at Christ's: see Dunn, John (? Joshua), 1706. Not admitted at the College, but allowed rooms there: perhaps Dunn's, who seems to have resided irregularly. Made friends through his keenness for mathematics—especially as expounded by Newton—and through his blindness. Will. Whiston, Lucasian Professor, allowed him to lecture in his own subjects: his lectures seem to have been very popular. In the dedication (1740) of his Algebra to John Robartes (170$\frac{5}{6}$) afterwards Earl of Radnor, it is said "Your Lordship was his first acquaintance in the University and his first scholar, and...his most generous benefactor: a great part of the work was drawn up originally for your Lordships use, and was for many years in your sole possession." When Whiston was removed from his Professorship (30 Oct. 1710) for his Arian proclivities, Sanderson seems to have been regarded as his obvious successor: but he lacked the M.A. degree. The Heads of Colleges, and the Hon. Francis Robartes (1663) father of John Robartes are said in the Memoir (p. vi) to have applied to the Chancellor for a mandate-degree for him: which was issued by the Queen: he became M.A. 19 Nov. 1711, and Lucasian Professor the next day! His inaugural lecture was in "truly Ciceronian" Latin. His position as an early "Newtonian" is attested by D^{r} Heberden, writing of what he remembered about 1730, "Newton Euclid and Algebra were only known to those who chose to attend the lectures of Prof. Sanderson, for the College lecturers were silent on them." (Schol. Acad. 66.) He lived in College till 1723 devoting his whole time to his lectures and his pupils. In that year he took a house in Cambridge and married Abigail, daughter of Will. Dickons, rector of Boxworth: by whom he had children, John (1742) and Anne. He continued his teaching to the detriment of his health: "being too sedentary and constantly confining himself to the house, he became a valetudinarian of a very scorbutic habit" and died 19 Apr. 1739 "of a mortification in his foot." Buried at Boxworth: M.I. Portrait by Vanderbanck (painted 1718) in the University Library. He had prepared his Algebra for the Press before his death: and it was published in 1740 by his widow and children. The Method of Fluxions appeared in 1751. It is said (see Ball, History of Mathematics, 87) that owing to his outspokenness he was "better qualified to inspire admiration than to make or retain friends." Among the friends who contributed to the Memoir prefixed to his Algebra, were John Boldero and Gervase Wheler of Christ's. Many other members of the College were among the subscribers to the book; also the libraries of almost every college in Cambridge, except (oddly) Christ's. (D.N.B.) His son John (1742) was B.A. at Christ's, afterwards Fellow of Peterhouse.

Edwards, William:

B.A. (St John's) $171\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1714; D.D. (Christ's) 1728 (com. reg.). Son of George Edwards, currier, of Barnard Castle: educated at Sedbergh. Admitted sizar at St John's under M^{r} Anstey 28 June 1707, aged 17. (St John's Admissions.) Admitted Fellow 26 Feb. $171\frac{4}{5}$, in succession to John Moor, by the authority of the Visitor, Tho. Sherlock, V.C., who with the assent of one of his assessors declared void the election of Ja. Dodgson (whom see, page 174). In 1720 he was Praelector (a careless one), Junior Dean, Catechist and Bunting Preacher. He signs last in May 1726 and on 14 Jan. $172\frac{8}{7}$ Edmund Law was elected to his vacant Fellowship: but the declaration of the vacancy is not in the Order-book. He had been presented by the Earl of Nottingham to the vicarage of Burley on the Hill, Ruts. The same patron presented him to the rectory of Middleton Keynes, Bucks. 28 April 1727. He died 1744 (Lipscombe, 4. 247).

Settle, Thomas: son of Thomas: born at Swainstead [a farm about three miles from Giggleswick], Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Armitstead. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Burrell 9 Feb. $170\frac{7}{8}$. Age 18.

B.A. $171\frac{1}{2}$. Admitted scholar 11 March $170\frac{8}{9}$. Ordained deacon, Carlisle, $171\frac{4}{5}$ March: priest, York, 1716 Dec. Licensed to Wakefield 1728. His son Robert (admitted 1747) was also born at Swainstead, in 1730.

Exley, Samuel: son of John: born at Rawdon, Yorks. School: Bradford, under M^{r} Tho. Clapham. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Bourne 9 Feb. $170\frac{7}{8}$. Age 19.

B.A. $171\frac{1}{2}$. Ordained deacon, York, 1712 Sept.: priest 1713 Sept. Licensed to preach in the chapels of Bramley and Farnley 1728.

Baron, Michael: son of Benjamin, priest: born at Scorcoate, Yorks. School: Bradford, under M^{r} Tho. Clapham. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Bourne 9 Feb. $170\frac{7}{8}$. Age 19.

B.A. $171\frac{3}{4}$. Admitted scholar 23 Mar. $171\frac{0}{1}$. His father, Ben., was vicar of Bradford 1698–$170\frac{5}{6}$. Ordained priest, York, 1719 Sept. Incumbent of Thornton in 1714: signs for the last time 1724 (James, History of Bradford (continuation) 170, 274).

Coleby, Thomas: son of Christopher, Dean of Middleham, Richmondshire, where he was born. School: Sedbergh, under M^{r} Dwyers. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Burrell, 17 Feb. $170\frac{7}{8}$. Age 18.

B.A. $171\frac{1}{2}$; M.A. 1715. Admitted scholar 11 Mar. $170\frac{8}{9}$. His father (vol. i. p. 610, where by error the name is spelt Colly) admitted 1664. Ordained priest, London, 1714 Sept. Probably vicar of Birstall near Leeds 7 Feb. $171\frac{8}{9}$ (though described as B.A.).

Dyer, William: [no facts given]. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Sherwill 20 Apr. 1708.

Resided till Lady Day 1710. Perhaps son of Sir Will. Dyer (Bart. 1678) of Newnham, Herts. Admitted at Lincoln's Inn 4 July 1707. High Sheriff of Herts. Built a great house at Newnham.

Spurling, John: son of Henry, rector of Burnham Market, Norfolk. School: Holt, under M^{r} Reynolds. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Burrell 11 May 1708. Age 16.

B.A. $171\frac{1}{2}$. Admitted scholar 11 Mar. $170\frac{8}{9}$.

Ogle, Henry: son of Henry: born at Eglingham, Northumberland. Educated (? privately) by M^{r} Dyke. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Aynsley 8 June 1708. Age not given.

Came into residence with his younger brother James: one (it does not appear which) resided till Mich^{s}. 1709: the other till Mich^{s}. 1710. According to Burke (Ext. Bar. 2. 1013) one Hen. Ogle of Eglingham died 1711 and was succeeded by his son Henry who was Sheriff of Northumberland 1707 and died 1713, and was succeeded by his eldest son Robert: no brothers are mentioned.

Ogle, James: younger son of Henry Ogle of Eglingham [see under Henry]. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Aynsley 8 June 1708. Age not given.

Admitted scholar 11 Mar. $170\frac{8}{9}$. Resided till Mich. 1709 or 1710; more probably the latter. Admitted at Lincoln's Inn 7 Dec. 1710.

Gwavas, John: son of William: born at Huntingfield Hall, Suffolk. Educated (? at home) "cum operam pene dixeram inutilem literis dedisset, docente M^{ro} Kifford (? Hen. Kifford of Christ's adm. $169\frac{7}{8}$)...aegre admissus (June 1708 under M^{r} Aynsley) Pensionariorum numerum auxit magis quam ornavit" (says John Moor, praelector). Age about 18.

LL.B. 1713. Admitted scholar 23 Mar. $171\frac{0}{1}$—realising the "spes maioris fructus" which brought him to Cambridge. Rector of Wheatacre All S^{ts}., Norfolk 1715, licensed 7 Jan. $171\frac{6}{7}$ to hold also the rectory of Horham, Suffolk, distant 12 miles. (Lambeth Register.) Rector of Thorpe next Haddiscoe, Norfolk 1746–53 (Blomefield, 4. 270).

Rowland, Arthur: son of Arthur: born at Guildford. School: Eton, under M^{r} Newborough. Admitted pensioner, then fellow-commoner, under M^{r} Burrell — June 1708. Age 19.

B.A. $171\frac{1}{2}$: residing up to June 1712 under M^{r} Burrell, M^{r} Hanchett and M^{r} Boldero successively.

Styleman, Robert: son of Weston: born at Beadles Hall, Essex. School: Felstead, under M^{r} Sim. Lydiat. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Sherwill 2 July 1708. Age 17.

LL.B. 1713. Admitted scholar 11 Mar. $170\frac{8}{9}$. Ordained deacon, London, 1714 May: priest 1720 June. Inst^{d}. vicar of St Michael, Bp. Stortford 5 June 1722: died before the end of 1748 (Glascock, p. 111). The Rob. Styleman who was rector of Spixworth, Norfolk 1755–6, of Thwaite 1755–73, of Calthorpe 1755, and of Burnham Overy 1758–73 was perhaps of Corpus (B.A. $174\frac{6}{7}$).

Sammes, George: son of John: born at Clapton, Cambs. School: Buntingford, under M^{r} England. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Burrell 7 July 1708. Age 16.

B.A. $171\frac{2}{3}$. Admitted scholar (Samms) 11 Mar. $170\frac{8}{9}$. Ordained deacon, London, 1713 May.

Byam, Edward: [father not given]: born at Antigua ("Antegoae inter Americanos"). Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Sherwill. Date and age not given.

Admitted scholar 11 Mar. $170\frac{8}{9}$. Resided till Mich. 1711. Probably son of Edward Byam (1663–1741) Governor of the Leeward Islands, President in 1707 of the Council of Antigua, by his first wife Mary (? Sarah) Winthrop, first cousin of Samuel ($170\frac{0}{1}$). Possibly the Edw. Byam admitted at Gray's Inn 4 Jan. $172\frac{8}{9}$. Died 1733. His half brother Francis admitted 1726 (B.A. $17\frac{2}{3}\frac{9}{0}$ and Fellow of Trin.): possibly also another half brother Will. (see Will. Byam 1720). See History of Antigua, 1. 96–101.

Windle, John:

M.A. 1715. Son of Gerard Windle of Enfield, Staffs., "paup." Matricd. at Magdalen Hall, Oxford 168$\frac{6}{7}$ Mar., aged 20: B.A (Christ Church) 1690. (Al. Ox. 1689.) M.A. (Christ's) 1715. Rector of Courteenhall, Northants. 1714 (Bridges, 1. 354): also vicar of Horton, but no dates given (ib. 369).

Martin, William:

Admitted pensioner under Mr Burrell: appears first in the Easter term 1708. Resided under (1) Mr Burrell, (2) Mr Bourne till Lady Day 1710. Admitted scholar 11 Mar. 170$\frac{8}{9}$. One Will. Martin, second son of Will. Martin of Holmnicote, Somerset admitted at the Inner Temple 13 Dec. 1709.

French, John: son of John: born at Gazeley, Suffolk. School: Bury, under Mr Randall. Admitted sizar under Mr Bourne 23 Jan. 170$\frac{8}{9}$. Age 18.

B.A. 171$\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1716. Admitted scholar 11 Mar. 170$\frac{8}{9}$. Baptised at Cheveley 18 Dec. 1690, son of John French, by his second wife Abigail, who came from Bury. Ordained priest, Ely, 1717 Sept. Reader of St Mary's parish Bury in 1731–7, perhaps longer. Rector of Great Saxham 9 Nov. 1721, patron, John Carter. Also rector of Horringer [Horningsheath] 175$\frac{7}{8}$–1767. Buried at Saxham 3 Jan. 1767, aged 77. His widow Elizabeth died 10 Aug. 1772, and with six infant children buried in the same churchyard (Gaze, Suffolk, 111).

Claphamson, John: son of Henry: born at Fairhill [about eight miles S.W. of Giggleswick], Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under Mr Armitstead. Admitted sizar under Mr Moor 7 Feb. 170$\frac{8}{9}$. Age 17.

B.A. 171$\frac{2}{3}$. Admitted scholar 23 Mar. 171$\frac{0}{1}$. Ordained deacon, York, 1713 Sept.: priest 1718 Sept. Licensed to preach at Headingley Chapel, Leeds 1728. Vicar of Giggleswick 1730–8. (Morant-Whitaker, 166.)

Foster, William: [father and birth-place not given] of Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under Mr Armitstead. Admitted sizar under Mr Bourne 7 Feb. 170$\frac{8}{9}$. Age 19.

B.A. 1713. Ordained (Forster) deacon, York, 1712 Dec.: priest 1713 Sept. One Will. Forster (but M.A. and probably of Oxford) P.C. of St Margaret, Durham 1719–22: vicar of Aycliffe 1723: vicar of St Oswald, Durham 1725–65. (See Surtees, 3. 307.)

Ellis, Edward: son of Thomas: born at Holbeck, Lincs. School: Wisbech, under Mr Carter. Admitted pensioner under Mr Towers 10 Feb. 170$\frac{8}{9}$. Age 16.

B.A. 171$\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1716. Admitted scholar 11 Mar. 170$\frac{8}{9}$. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1716 Sept.: priest 1717 Dec. Elected Fellow (succeeding J. Boldero) 21 Dec. 1716; on the mandate of Dr Grigg, V.C., and Dr James one of his assessors. There is a short note in Covel's handwriting in his copy of the V.C.'s injunction saying that he had pointed out to the V.C. his injustice in deciding the case without hearing either side. Ellis held no office during the short tenure of his Fellowship: he signs several College orders—the last on 9 Mar. 171$\frac{8}{9}$. He was buried in the ante-chapel 23 Nov. 1719.

Woods, Henry: son of Hamlet: born at Winwick, Lancs. School: Winwick, under M^{r} Wright. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Sherwill 24 Feb. 170$\frac{8}{9}$. Age 18.

B.A. 171$\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1722. Admitted scholar 23 Mar. 171$\frac{0}{1}$. Ordained deacon, London, 1712 Sept.: priest, York, 1713 Sept. Vicar of Lambley, Notts. 2 June 1719. Chaplain to the Earl of Sunderland. Had dispensation 21 July 1722 to hold also the rectory of Stanford, Notts., distant 10 miles. One Hen. Woods, M.A., died rector of Wilford, Notts. 1755, aged 66 (Thoroton-Throsby, 1. 116).

Simpson, Thomas: son of Richard: born at Lancaster. School: Lancaster, under M^{r} Boardley. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Moor 2 Mar. 170$\frac{8}{9}$ after spending two years "in Curiae Hospitio in iuris investigatione." Age 20.

Resided till Lady Day 1711: his name appears for two quarters more, with the charge crossed out. Admitted at the Middle Temple 26 Nov. 1708, as son and heir of Richard of Torrisholme, near Lancaster.

Green, Robert: son of Christopher, M.D., Professor of Medicine: born in Cambridge. School: Stortford, under M^{r} Tooke. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Sherwill 9 Mar. 170$\frac{8}{9}$. Age 16.

Resided till Lady Day 1712. Admitted scholar 8 July 1710. Admitted at the Inner Temple 24 Apr. 1712: then at the Middle Temple 8 Apr. 1721: second son of D^{r} Chris. Green (? admitted at Christ's 1650).

Jones, Simon: "Coll. Regal. [A.B. written and crossed out] ast non ex fundatione Henrici Conditoris, A.B. ad nos (an ut meliora demensa haberet, an ut in ordinem Sociorum cooptaretur, non dicam) se contulit." Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Moor 7 May 1709. Age not given.

Simon Jones does not appear as B.A. in the Cat. Grad. But he appears as D^{s} Jones in the Study-rents—residing till Mich^{s}. 1709, and having his name in the list without charge for room-rent two quarters more.

Two entries here are oddly mixed up. The first is that of Chester [John]: written by Moor, the praelector—but not filled up at the time: the vacant place was filled up by another hand with the account of John Libanus (see next entry).

Came into residence as pupil of M^{r} Sherwill at Mids^{r}. 1709. B.A. 171$\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1716. Born 27 Apr. 1693 at Sheriton Hall, third son of Sir John Chester, of Sheriton afterwards of Chicheley, Bucks. (See Waters, Chesters of Chicheley, 2. 612.) Admitted scholar 9 July 1709. Elected Fellow in place of Matt. Baines 16 Feb. 1714. Junior Dean, Catechist, Bunting Preacher and Steward 1717. Praelector 1718. Received from his father (in his life time) estates at Lidlington and Tilsworth. Married 15 Feb. 171$\frac{8}{9}$ Frances, daughter of Sir Edw. Bagot; and vacated his Fellowship. Succeded 19 May 172$\frac{5}{6}$ as sixth baronet—his brother Will. having succeeded their father on 6 Feb. of the same year. Supported the Grenvilles in their political contests in Bucks. Elected M.P. for Beds. 1741, and voted 10 Dec. 1742 against the Hanoverians being taken into British pay. Retained his seat till the dissolution of 1747. Subscriber to Sanderson's Algebra, 1740. Died 8 Feb. 174$\frac{7}{8}$ and buried at Chicheley, leaving two sons, Sir Chas. Bagot, and Anthony. Portrait at Chicheley.

Libanus, John: son of John (an exile from Bohemia, religionis ergo): born at Ashwell, Herts. School: Buntingford, under M^{r} England. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Hanchett, perhaps 7 May [or later, date not given] 1709. Age 15.

The father, John, was (I think) B.A. (Peterhouse) 1682, and his son Pyers B.A. at the same College 1744. Admitted scholar 8 July 1710. B.A. 171$\frac{2}{3}$;

M.A. 1716. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1715 June: priest 1718 Sept. Vicar of Witcham, in the Isle of Ely, 3 Dec. 1720. Had dispensation 3 Apr. 1733 to hold also the vicarage of Witchford. Chaplain to Lord Willoughby de Broke. Died before Dec. 1746.

Halstead, William: son of Thomas: born in Cambridge. School: Eton, under Mr Newborough (literis mediocriter imbutus). Admitted pensioner under Mr Boldero and Ds Hanchett 20 June 1709. Age 17.

B.A. $171\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1719. Admitted scholar 23 Mar. $171\frac{0}{1}$. Ordained deacon, London, 1715 Dec. Master of the Free School, Buckingham 26 Feb. $172\frac{3}{4}$: perhaps also rector of Farnborough, Hants., 24 Nov. 1724. Rector of Padbury (near Buckingham) 1729–63: also rector of Thornborough, also near Buckingham. Buried at Thornborough 29 Dec. 1763. (Lipscombe, 2. 584: 3. 117.)

Maryon, John: son of Joseph: born at White Rooden [Roding], Essex. School: Felstead, under Mr Lydiat. Admitted pensioner under Mr Sherwill 29 June 1709. Age 17.

LL.B. 1714. Born 18 Apr. 1692 (Pedigree of the Maryon family). Admitted scholar 23 Mar. $171\frac{0}{1}$. Gave the College £10, the "income" of his chamber 15 May 1717: though he seems to have resided only till Michs. 1714. Ordained deacon, London, 1714 Sept.: priest 1720 June. Chaplain to Lord Maynard. Rector of White Roding 1720–60. Had dispensation 25 July 1732 to hold also the rectory of Theydon Garnon, distant 10 miles: resigned it in 1752. Married 1719 Jane Weller of Romford, by whom he had two children, who died young. Died 1760. (East Anglia, 1. 232.)

Ward, John: son of Thomas: born at Willian, Herts. School: Buntingford, under Mr England. Admitted sizar under Mr Boldero and Ds Hanchett 9 July 1709. Age 17.

B.A. $171\frac{3}{4}$. Admitted scholar 23 Mar. $171\frac{0}{1}$. Ordained deacon, London, 1714 Sept.: priest 1720 July. Licensed to cure of Gamlingay 18 Oct. 1727. One John Ward (but B.D.—a person not found at either University) presented by the Bishop of Carlisle to Melbourne, Derbs. 29 Jan. $173\frac{1}{2}$.

Coke, Edward: [father's name not given]: of Derbyshire: born at Constantinople of a Greek mother. Brought back to England, aged 6, "evitata circumcisionis nota" (J. Boldero, praelector). School: Harrow, under Mr Bryan. Admitted pensioner under Mr Boldero 2 Dec. 1709. Age 17.

B.A. $171\frac{3}{4}$. Admitted scholar 23 Mar. $171\frac{0}{1}$ "vindicato electionis iure, ex agro Derbiensi: nativo patris solo." (The interpretation of the law on this point varied strangely: see under James Dodgson, 1710.) Probably not the son of — Coke of Trusley, Derbs., admitted at Lincoln's Inn 11 June 1718: according to Hunter (F.M.G. 575) he died 1719, aged only 19.

Dunn [Joshua]:

Appears as fellow-commoner in Study-rents Midsr. 1709: but perhaps the Dunn, admitted as John 4 June 1706: whom see.

Nowell, Charles:

Matriculated pensioner 1709. Came into residence Michs. 1709 under Mr Moor and resided till Dec. 1710.

Backler, Samuel: son of Samuel: born at Ashwell, Herts. School: Ashwell, under his father. Admitted sizar under Mr Boldero 24 Jan. $17\frac{09}{10}$. Age 19.

B.A. $171\frac{3}{4}$. Admitted scholar 8 July 1710. Son of Sam. Backler (1678) vicar of Ashwell. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1714 May, and licensed to Ashwell: priest 1717 Sept.: curate of Rearsby, Leics. Vicar of Lowesby, Leics. 5 June 1719. Rector of Battlesden, Beds. 17 Feb. $172\frac{6}{7}$.

Rigby, Ralph: son of Adam: born at West Horton, Lancs. School: Winwick, under Mr Wright. Admitted sizar under Mr Sherwill 28 Mar. 1710. Age 20.

B.A. $171\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1735. Admitted scholar 23 Mar. $171\frac{9}{1}$. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1714 May. One of these names curate of Eyam, Derbs. for 22 years: buried there 22 April 1740 (Cox, Derbs. Churches, 2. 194).

Siday, John: son of John: born at Beauchamp Roding, Essex. School: Felstead, under Mr Lydiat. Admitted pensioner under Mr Sherwill 16 May 1710. Age 17.

LL.B. 1715. Admitted scholar 23 Mar. $171\frac{9}{1}$. Son of Joh. Siday (Caius) rector of Beauchamp Roding (1689); and grandson of another rector, also John (1642). Ordained deacon, London, 1716 Dec.: priest, 1720 Dec. Succeeded his father as rector 20 Dec. 1720 on the presentation of Mary Siday, widow—I presume, his mother. Died there 1752 (Morant, 1. 137).

Glover, John: son of John: born at Mansergh, Westmoreland. School: Kirkby Lonsdale, under Mr Simon Atkinson. Admitted sizar under Mr Moor, 2 May 1710. Age 19.

B.A. $171\frac{3}{4}$. Admitted scholar 23 Mar. $171\frac{9}{1}$. One John Glover of Kirkby Lonsdale, gent., sent his son Richard to St John's in 1763 (Admissions to St John's, p. 165).

Cleveland, Thomas: son of William, priest: born at Dudley, Worcs. School: Rugby, under Mr Guy ("alias Henry") Holyoake. Admitted sizar under Mr Boldero 25 May 1710. Age 18.

B.A. (Cleiveland) $171\frac{3}{4}$. Admitted scholar (Cleiveland) 16 Feb. $171\frac{1}{2}$. Born 1 Nov. 1691. Younger son of Will. (1674) vicar of Dudley: brother of John (1700): Will. (who came between the two) was admitted at St John's 1708. Ordained deacon, Worcester, 1714 May: priest 1716 Oct. Died at Pershore (Nichols, Hinckley, 135).

Gawkro(d)ger, John: son of Joseph: born at Heaton, Yorks. School: Bradford, under Mr Clapham. Admitted sizar under Mr Moor 25 May 1710. Age 17.

B.A. $171\frac{3}{4}$. Admitted scholar (Gawkrodger) 23 Mar. $171\frac{9}{1}$. Accepted for deacon's orders, York, 1715 Dec.: but not ordained because of a prosecution for immoral conduct.

Dodgson, James: son of Edmund: born at Casterton, Westmoreland. School: Kirkby Lonsdale, under Mr Atkinson. Admitted sizar under Mr Moor 26 May 1710. Age 19.

B.A. $171\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1717. Admitted scholar 23 Mar. $171\frac{9}{1}$. The statement as to his birthplace is incorrect. His parents' domicile was Casterton: but he was born in Lancashire, where his mother happened to be at her confinement. He was elected Fellow as a Westmoreland man at the end of 1714 or early in 1715. On this ground Dr Tho. Sherlock, V.C. (with one assessor) pronounced the election invalid [see under Will. Edwards, p. 169. See Adam Wall—MSS. (Mm v. 48, page 42 (23))]. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1713 May: priest, Norwich, 1714 Dec. Chaplain to Earl Stanhope. Vicar of St Ives, Hunts., 1717. Had dispensation 3 May 1722 to hold also the rectory of Yelling, distant four miles. Died 1735 Oct. (Lambeth Register.)

Metcalfe, John: son of Christopher: born at Shawcoat [?], Yorks. School: Richmond (schola Rigodunensis), under Mr Thomson. Admitted sizar under Mr Metcalfe 27 May 1710. Age 18.

B.A. $171\frac{3}{4}$. Admitted scholar 23 March $171\frac{9}{1}$. Ordained priest, York, 1716 Sept.

King, Joseph: son of John: born at Scottow, Norfolk. Educated by Mr Saunders. Admitted pensioner under Mr Boldero 15 June 1710. Age 20.

Included by the praelector, John Boldero, in one entry with the next, Tho. Tingey, with the comment: "quorum neuter Collegium aut vidit aut visurus est: admissi ad fidem et rogatum cuiusdam Joannis King, schismatici, et fanaticae congregationis pseudodidascali apud Wellingborough." Mr Boldero was right in his prophecy: neither seems ever to have resided: but the history of their admission rests unexplained: the praelector records that each paid his admission fee.

Tingey, Thomas: son of John: born at Shelton [?], Hunts. Educated by Mr Goodwin. Admitted sizar under Mr Boldero 15 June 1710. Age 19.

Never resided: see under Jos. King, above.

Wade, George: son of Ralph: born at Richmond, Yorks. School: Richmond, under Mr Thomson. Admitted "literis tum Graecis tum Latinis prope instructus" sizar under Mr Boldero 18 June 1710. Age 18.

B.A. $171\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1717; D.D. (com. reg.) 1728. Admitted scholar 23 Mar. $171\frac{9}{1}$. Kept "in the Master's over the Parlour," together with the Hon. Cha. Maynard (perhaps as his sizar) till he became B.A. Ordained deacon, London, $171\frac{4}{5}$ March: priest, Lincoln, $171\frac{5}{6}$ Feb.: licensed to cure of St Andrew, Hertford. Elected Fellow in place of Tho. Metcalfe, 3 May 1716. Fellowship declared vacant 4 July 1717: he had married. Vicar of Gainsborough 4 July 1719: patron, the Bishop: and on the same day collated to the prebend of Corringham, Lincoln. His successor appointed 3 Nov. 1746. He left £10 to the Library. Author: A sermon on The nature and consequences of partiality 1721: A short enquiry into the doctrine of the Trinity. Editor of the Odes of Horace, 4to. London, Bowyer, 1731.

Perkins, William: son of William: rector of Colsterworth, Lincs. Educated there by his father. Admitted pensioner under Mr Metcalfe 20 June 1710. Age 17.

Admitted scholar 16 Feb. $171\frac{1}{2}$. Resided till Xmas 1712.

Wilkinson, Thomas: son of Francis: born at Broughton, Yorks. School: Skipton, under Mr Sharpe. Admitted sizar under Mr Moor 30 June 1710. Age 18.

B.A. $171\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1717. A Mr Crofts was Master of Skipton School 1690–1715: Mr Sharpe does not appear in the Skipton parish registers: [T. W. Edmunds, New York Univy]: but he may have had a private school. Perhaps Skipton is a mistake for Shipton. Admitted scholar 23 Mar. $171\frac{9}{1}$. Elected Fellow, into the room of Mr Standish 19 June 1714 "authoritate visitatoria." Ordained deacon, York, 1714 Dec. Junior Dean, Catechist and Steward (which office he resigned) 1718. Steward 1720. Taxor 1719. Resided (but held no further office) till 1725 when he was presented (9 Sept.) to the vicarage of Caldecot, which Josias Cockshott resigned after a year's tenure. He kept his Fellowship, but seems to have lived at Caldecot, as he never signs after Jan. $172\frac{6}{7}$. He died in 1731 and was buried at Great St Andrew's,

Oct. 16. Resident or not, he lived beyond his means for on 14 June 1732 it was agreed "that the Master borrow £50 upon a College bond and likewise take out of the Treasury for the discharging of debts due from M^{r} Wilkinson to the several stewards."

Pyemont, Wilfred: son of John: born at Lofthouse, in the parish of Rothwell, Yorks. School not given. He passed "a long servitude of seven years in a bookseller's shop at Wakefield." Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Boldero 3 July 1710. Age 20.

B.A. 171$\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1718. Grandson of Joh. Pymont of Heath, near Wakefield: his father John, married Ann Bower. Admitted scholar 23 Mar. 171$\frac{0}{1}$. Ordained (as questionist) deacon, Ely, 1713 Dec.: priest, Norwich, 1714 Dec. Licensed to Althorp and Wood Newton, Northants. Chaplain to the Earl of Westmoreland (Hunter, F.M.G. 492), who presented him to the vicarage of Tudeley, near Tonbridge 16 Apr. 1716: had license not to reside Apr. 25. Rector of Kings Cliffe, Northants. 5 Oct. 1726.

Sloane, Joseph: son of James: born at Boswell Court, London. School: Cheam, Surrey, under M^{r} Lloyd where "prima Grammaticae et Rhetoricae elementa gustavit, immo et feliciter digessit!" Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Sherwill 4 July 1710, "iam philosophicam colit Minervam." Age 20.

B.A. 171$\frac{4}{5}$. Admitted scholar 16 Feb. 171$\frac{1}{2}$. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1715 Sept.; licensed to Ashwell, Beds. [sic]. Died without issue (Burke, Ext. Bar. 491).

York(e), John: son of John: born in Cambridge. School: Hyssen [Histon], under M^{r} Scaife. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Baines [no month] 1710. Age 15.

B.A. 171$\frac{4}{5}$. Admitted scholar (Yorke) 23 Mar. 171$\frac{0}{1}$. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1717 Dec.: priest, Lincoln, 1719 Sept. Curate of Blunham, Beds. Probably vicar of Wendon, Essex 21 Nov. 1728 till 1730, when he died (Morant, 2. 593).

Hutton, Matthew:

B.A. (Jesus) 171$\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1717; D.D. (Christ's) 1728. Born 5 Jan. 169$\frac{2}{3}$, son of John Hutton of Marske (1659–1731) and of Dorothy Dyke of Trant, [so D.N.B. ? Frant], Sussex. Educated at Kirby Hill, Richmond. Admitted at Jesus 22 June 1710. Elected Fellow of Christ's, succeeding Geo. Wade, 8 July 1717. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1718 Sept.: signs, as minister, at Whittlesey St Mary 1718: priest 1719 May. Praelector, Junior Dean, Catechist, Bunting Preacher and Steward 1721: but in Dec. 1721 he formally resigns the last office, and I find his signature only once more (in 1724): he was private chaplain to the Duke of Somerset—and, as such, was probably subject to the "detentio violenta" which according to an interpretation of the Statute prevented residence: his pupils—he had a few—cease at the same date. In 1726 the Duke presented him to the rectory of Trowbridge, Wilts. and his fellowship was vacant before June 1727. Rector of Spofforth, Yorks. (same patron) 1 April 1730; Prebendary of York 18 May 1734. Accompanied George II to Hanover 1736. Canon of Windsor 27 Mar. 1737: of Westminster 18 May 1739. In his subsequent preferments he followed step by step Tho. Herring: becoming Bishop of Bangor 13 Nov. 1743: Archbishop of York 28 Nov. 1747: Archbishop of Canterbury 13 Apr. 1757. He died in Duke Street, Westminster 18 March 1758 having held his final preferment less than one year: buried in Lambeth church. He seems hardly to have been a great man, though so highly placed: he is said to have been "cheerful and amiable" and he "never let himself down below the dignity of an archbishop."

In opinions he was supposed to be latitudinarian (D.N.B.). He married in 173½ Mary Lutman of Petworth: by whom he had two daughters (Hasted says, sons). Two nephews (sons of his elder brother John of Marske) were at Christ's, viz. John (1747) and James (1756): and two grandnephews, sons of John the third, John (1791) and Timothy (1796) benefactors to the Library. He left at his death £50,000 "amassed in 12 years out of the Church"—according to E. Pyle (Memoirs of a Royal Chaplain, p. 76)—"and not one penny to any good use." In 1754 he gave £100 to the University Library Fund. Hutton subscribed to Sanderson's Algebra, published 1740.

Clark, Edward:

M.A. 1717. Son of Oswald of Greystoke, Cumberland: matric^{d}. at Queen's College, Oxford 27 Mar. 1707, aged 18. B.A. 1710, incorporated at Cambridge 1717: M.A. (Christ's) 1717. (Al. Ox. 279.) One Edw. Clark, rector of Haselbeach, Northants., about this time (Bridges, 2. 37).

Had dispensation from Lambeth 29 Jan. 174$\frac{5}{6}$ to hold also the rectory of Middleton or Milton, distant two miles.

Cowper, John: son of Spencer (legum peritissimus, brother of Will., Baron Wingham, Lord Chancellor). School: Westminster, under D^{r} Friend. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Boldero 25 June 1711. Age not given.

D.D. (com. reg.) 1728. Son of Spencer (168$\frac{5}{6}$), Justice of the Common Pleas, and of Pennington Goodere. Admitted scholar 26 Mar. 1713: resided till Mich. 1713. Rector of Great Berkhampstead, Herts. 1722. Married Anne, daughter of Roger Donne of Ludham Hall, Norfolk, who died 1737 aged 34. Father of Will. Cowper, the poet, who was born at Berkhampstead 26 Nov. 1731. Died 1756 (Berry, Herts. Genealogies, 171); buried at Hertingfordbury.

Fenwick, Edward: son of Edward: born at Stamfordham, Northumberland. School: Stamfordham, under M^{r} Salkeld. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Aynsley 19 Sept. 1711. Age 18.

B.A. 1716. Admitted scholar 3 Nov. 1712. Brother of Ambrose (1707) and son of Edw., vicar of Stamfordham, by his wife Miss Liddel of Redheugh, Gateshead and of Ogle Castle. Ordained deacon, York, 1716 Sept.: priest 1718 Sept. Vicar of Whelpington 1721. Married Anne Newton of Hawkwell, by whom he had two sons and six daughters. Died 24 July 1734 (Hodgson, II. i. 341).

Dawson, Josias: son of William: born at Halton Gill [above Arncliffe in Craven], Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Armitstead. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Moor 23 Feb. 171$\frac{1}{2}$. Age 18.

B.A. 171$\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1719. Admitted scholar 26 Mar. 1713. Ordained deacon, Carlisle, by letters dimissory from York, 1717 Dec.: priest, London 17$\frac{19}{20}$ March. Both he and the Josias Dawson admitted 1729 were probably great-grandsons of the Josias of Halton Gill who married Mary Foster of Langcliffe, father of Christopher (1663) of Langcliffe Hall, father of William (169$\frac{1}{2}$), father of Ambrose (1724), second cousin of the Josiases.

Carr, James: son of Thomas: born at Stackhouse [near Settle], Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Armitstead. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Boldero 23 Feb. 171$\frac{1}{2}$. Age 19.

B.A. 171$\frac{6}{7}$. Admitted scholar 26 Mar. 1713. Born 1691, son of Tho. Carr of Stackhouse, and of Margaret Stackhouse of Hartington: brother of John (1707). Ordained deacon, York, 1716 Sept.: priest 1718 June. Rector of Addingham, Leeds, 17 Mar. 172$\frac{0}{1}$. Curate of Bolton Chapel in Wharfdale, on the nomination of the Earl of Burlington 11 Oct. 1726. Died 1745. (Morant-Whitaker, 162 and 292.)

Hargraves, Thomas: son of James: born at Knight [?] Stainforth, Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Armitstead. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Boldero 23 Feb. 171$\frac{1}{2}$. Age 18.

B.A. 171$\frac{6}{7}$; M.A. 1722. Ordained deacon, York, 171$\frac{5}{6}$ Feb.: priest 1716 Dec.

Woodyear, Richard: son of George: born at Crookhill in the parish of Cunningborough [? Conisbrough], Yorks. School: Doncaster, under Mr Withers [Edm. (1691)]. Admitted pensioner under Mr Boldero 13 Apr. 1712. Age 16.

B.A. $171\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1722. Admitted scholar (Woodyeare) 26 Mar. 1713. Usher at the grammar school, King's Lynn, 1716–18. His mother was Alice, daughter of Ri. Tatham, clerk of Kirklington. Ordained deacon, York, 1718 June. Licensed to preach in the parish church of Hunsworth 1728. Vicar of Hutton Bushell 9 May 1729–36.

Allen, Thomas: son of Samuel: born at Staveley Netherthorp, Derbs. School: Chesterfield, under Mr Browne. Admitted sizar under Mr Metcalfe 15 May 1712. Age 18.

B.A. $171\frac{5}{6}$. Admitted scholar 26 Mar. 1713. Ordained deacon, Ely, $171\frac{5}{6}$ Feb.: priest, York, 1717 Sept. One Tho. Allen, B.A., was rector of Stockton, Warw. 24 July 1729: but perhaps of New College, Oxford.

Watson, William: son of William: born at Kirby [no more], Yorks. School: Richmond, under Mr Thomson. Admitted sizar under Mr Boldero 25 May 1712. Age 17.

B.A. $171\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1734. Admitted scholar 26 Mar. 1713. Ordained deacon, York, 1717 Sept.: priest 1719 Sept. Licensed to Kingsthorpe near Northampton 3 Aug. 1720. Died (? at Kingsthorpe) 12 Apr. 1738 (Baker, Northants. 1. 69, 70). One Will. Watson, B.A., curate of Whitchurch, Salop, 18 Sept. 1722: but perhaps of Trinity.

Gardiner, Edmund: son of Edmund: born at Stoke Ash, Suffolk. School: Eye, under Mr Bridge. Admitted pensioner under Mr Metcalfe 9 June 1712. Age 16.

B.A. $171\frac{5}{6}$. Admitted scholar 26 March 1713.

Bellis, Samuel: son of Robert: born at Ince, Cheshire. Educated there by his father, the rector of Ince. Admitted sizar under Mr Metcalfe 13 June 1712. Age 19.

B.A. $171\frac{5}{6}$. Baptised at Ince 7 May 1693: see under his father p. 98. Admitted scholar 26 Mar. 1713. Ordained priest, York, 1718 June. Two brothers followed him here, John (1715), Robert (1721). The father was admitted $168\frac{4}{5}$.

Graves, Gawen: son of John: born in St Martin's parish, London. School: King's College School, Cambridge, under Mr Baker. Admitted sizar under Mr Boldero 14 June 1712. Age 19.

B.A. $171\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1730. Admitted scholar 26 Mar. 1713. Ordained deacon, London, 1721 Dec. Vicar of Burnham Overy, Norfolk 1729–42, patron, the Crown.

Sorsbie, John: son of Malin, rector of Ryton, Durham. School: Newcastle, under Mr Jurin. Admitted sizar under Mr Atherton 19 June 1712. Age 18.

B.A. $171\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1720. Admitted scholar 26 Mar. 1713. Malin Sorsbie, the father, was elected fellow of St John's 10 April 1660, displaced at the Restoration, but replaced by order from the King 17 Feb. $166\frac{2}{3}$ (Baker-Mayor, 1. 298, 541): he was vicar of Ryton on Tyne 1679–1706. John, the son, was ordained deacon, London, 1716 Dec. Rector of Penhurst, Sussex Mar. $172\frac{0}{1}$–64: also rector of Crowhurst 1730–64. Buried at Penhurst 25 April 1764. A Mr Sorsbie was master of a school at Battle before 1726, and down to 1731.

Stebbing, James: son of Thomas: born at Castle Hed(d)ingham, Suffolk. School: Bury, under (1) Mr Leeds, (2) Mr Randall. Admitted pensioner under Mr Boldero 19 June 1712. Age 17.

B.A. $171\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1719. Admitted scholar 26 Mar. 1713. Rector of Nacton, Suffolk. (Davy.)

Molineux, Charles: son of Francis, eques auratus: born at Teversall, Notts. School: Westminster. Admitted pensioner under Mr Boldero 6 July 1712. Age 17.

Admitted at Gray's Inn 5 April 1712. Admitted scholar (Molyneux) 26 Mar. 1713. Resided till Mich. 1715; his name is on the list in Study-rents for two quarters more, but without charge. Son of Sir Francis (1672) of Teversall (fourth baronet) and of Diana Howe: brother of John (1703) who died in his father's lifetime. Succeeded his father in 1742 as fifth baronet. High Sheriff of Notts. Died unmarried 28 July 1764 (Kimber, 1. 65).

Finch, Henry: fourth son of Daniel, Earl of Nottingham: born at Exton, Ruts. School: Eton, under Mr Newborough. Admitted fellow-commoner "omnibus felicissimi ingenii dotibus instructissimus," under Mr Boldero 19 Aug. 1712. Age 17.

M.A. 1714. Elder brother of Edward Finch (Hatton), Fellow 1728–46. Nominated by his father a Fellow on the Finch and Baines foundation 30 Sept. 1713—before he had taken his degree. He was a candidate for the representation of the University in Parliament in December 1720, when he was defeated by the Hon. Tho. Willoughby. He succeeded elsewhere before 1736 when (on June 7) the Master, Dr Towers, declared his Fellowship vacant. Finch appealed and on 19 June 1736 the Master had to report that Dr Adams, V.C., with his assessors Dr Colbatch and Dr Gooch had reinstated Mr Finch. The ground as stated in the V.C.'s sentence was that the Master had "amoved him from his Fellowship without any summons or notice, without his being first heard and without assigning any cause" (Master's Book of Statutes). From an account in Adam Wall's MSS. (Univ. Lib. Mm v. 48, p. 64) it appears that Towers ejected him (1) because he was non-resident—he was actually H.M. Receiver General at Minorca and resided there regularly: (2) because he was M.P. which implied property more than was permissible to a Fellow. There was a curious dispute as to the action of the V.C. In Finch's appeal it was stated that he had been ejected "without consent of the Fellows." In Atherton's copy of the Statutes there is a note to the sentence "these or the like words were after some debate inserted in the place [after the words "without assigning any cause"] as they stood in Mr Finch's appeal, and very solemnly agreed to by the V.C. and both his assessors in Sidney Lodge, but afterwards were in a fraudulent and clandestine manner struck out by the V.C. alone [probably on the instigation of Dr Towers] and the sentence signed inadvertently by the senior Doctor as above." They do not appear in the sentence in the Master's copy of the Statutes, where it was required to be entered. Mr Finch despite his non-residence held his Fellowship for 36 years and resigned it by letter to the Master, Dr Rooke, 7 Oct. 1749.

Hunt, Daniel: son of Thomas: born at Exton, Ruts. School: Oakham, under Mr Wright. Admitted sizar under Mr Boldero 19 Aug. 1712. Age 17.

B.A. $171\frac{6}{7}$; M.A. 1720. Admitted scholar, 3 Nov. 1712. It may be inferred that he was brought up by Henry Finch. Elected Fellow, succeeding John Chester 2 Feb. 1719. Ordained deacon, Peterborough, 1719 Sept.: priest, Ely, 1719. In 1720 there came a mandate that Dan. Hunt should enjoy his Fellowship while acting as chaplain to Mr Finch, envoy to Sweden in 1720 (Misc. drawer, Ak). I do not know what Mr Finch this is. Whether in Sweden or after return to England, Mr Hunt died before Oct. 1723.

At this point there is a gap in the Admissions from Aug. 1712 to Sept. 1714. Five leaves in the book are left blank. The Praelectors were for the first year, Thomas Husband, for the second Ben. Dowse. Each was in residence and acted as Steward for the year. The register of matriculations gives the names of all who were admitted except two, Bellasis and Conder, who were not matriculated, but appear in the Study-rents only.

Tyrrill, Jonas:
M.B. 1718. Admitted pensioner under Mr Boldero, before Dec. 1712: scholar 26 Mar. 1713: and resided first in this quarter.

Haughton, Adam:
B.A. $171\frac{7}{8}$. Admitted before December 1712 as a pensioner under Mr Boldero: came into residence next term. Admitted scholar 26 Mar. 1713. Son of Adam Haughton of Corpus, rector of Hockliffe, Beds. 1687–1713: his son-in-law, Walter Foot, held the living 1713–19. Ordained priest, Lincoln, 1719 May: and instituted at the same time to the rectory of Hockliffe: inducted 4 June (parish register). He seems to have died suddenly and was buried at Hockliffe (M.I.) 10 May 1743. His mother Rebecca (daughter of Hezekiah Slingsby a former rector, and granddaughter of Rob. Gilpin, also rector) died one year after her son, 1 Sept. 1744, aged 80. Her daughter Mary, widow of Walter Foot, died 24 July 1760, aged 70. (Information from Rev. T. B. Tatham.)

Bagge, Samuel:
B.A. $171\frac{6}{7}$; M.A. 1720. Admitted pensioner under Mr Towers before Easter 1713: and kept the Easter term. Matricd. 1713. Admitted scholar 26 Mar. 1713. Born in Norfolk 1695: perhaps son of John Bagge of King's Lynn, who married in 1692 Sarah Thacker, of Lynn and had two sons Samuel and John. (Burke, Family Records, 27.) Ordained deacon, Ely, 1718 Dec.: priest, Norwich, 1719 Dec.; and licensed to Bircham Newton, Norfolk. One Simon Bagge was rector of Bircham Newton 1719 (Blomefield, 5. 1249); and also of Bircham Tofts 1721 (ib. 1246): is Simon an error for Samuel? There was a Simon Bagge M.A. (Caius) 1681.

Simcoe, John:
B.A. $171\frac{6}{7}$. Admitted pensioner under Mr Atherton before Lady Day 1713. Kept the Easter term. Matricd. 1713. Admitted scholar 3 May 1716. Perhaps son of Will. Simcoe (1672). Ordained deacon, Carlisle, 1717 Dec.: priest, York, 1719 Sept. Married a cousin of Charles, Duke of Somerset, who presented him to the vicarage of Tadcaster 3 Sept. 1725: died and buried there 24 Nov. 1734. Possibly also vicar of Woodhorn 1724 (Hodgson, Northumberd. II. ii. 91 makes Will. Simcoe (above) the vicar, but wrongly: Will. died 1714). Married (1) Anne, daughter of Nat. Ellison, Prebendary of Durham, (2) Jane, widow of Ra. Watson (1707), who died 1721. (Information from J. Ross Robertson of Toronto.)

Willis, Robert: son of Henry Willis of Bury St Edmunds, and educated there. In Dec. 1715 the governors decided to pay £6 towards his maintenance (S.H.A.H.).
B.A. $171\frac{7}{8}$. Admitted sizar under Mr Atherton before Lady Day 1713.

Matric^{d}. 1713. Admitted scholar 26 Mar. 1713. Began to reside Easter 1713. Of Suffolk. Ordained deacon, London, 1717 Dec.: priest, Ely, 17$\frac{19}{20}$ March. Curate of Troston, Suffolk 1719–24. Rector of Troston 1724–49. Also held from 1742–9 the rectory of West Stow, on the presentation of Sir Jermyn Davers. Buried at Troston 7 Jan. 174$\frac{8}{9}$ (West Stow Registers, page 128).

Bellasis, [William]:
Appears in Study-rents as a fellow-commoner under M^{r} Boldero, before Mids^{r}. 1713—but not in residence. Resided from Mids^{r}. to Christmas 1713. Never matriculated. Admitted at Trinity (Will. Belasyse) 1 Jan. 171$\frac{3}{4}$.

Livesay, Robert:
Matric^{d}. pensioner 1714 July. A Will. Livesay was admitted scholar 31 Mar. 1715. One Livesay was admitted under M^{r} Atherton before Mids^{r}. 1713, and appears each quarter but with no charge against him (probably not resident) till Mids. 1714 when he kept "in the Master's by the Parlour" (i.e. in the Library at the Lodge); there he remained till Mich. 1715. Probably there was but one—Will., wrongly matric^{d}. as Robert.

Marshall, Thomas:
B.A. 171$\frac{6}{7}$; M.A. 1721. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Moor, coming into residence Mich. 1713: but admitted scholar 26 Mar. 1713. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1717 July, and licensed to Southoe, Hunts.: priest 1722 May: licensed to curacy of Little Staughton, Beds. Master of the Free School, Peterborough. Vicar of St John Baptist, Peterborough 1726–48. Minor Canon of the Cathedral. Died 1748.

Holdsworth, Jude:
B.A. 171$\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. 1723. Perhaps son of Jude Holdsworth (1677) Fellow and afterwards rector of Reed, Herts. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Metcalfe before December 1713—but did not reside till Easter 1715, though admitted scholar 2 Dec. 1713: and matriculated 1714. Ordained deacon, London, 1719 June. Licensed 1721 to curacy of Smarden, Kent. Chaplain to Lady Frances Colepeper. Rector of Hinxhill, Kent 18 Aug. 1722, presented by Tho. Witherden. Had dispensation from Lambeth 3 Aug. 1723 to hold also the vicarage of Tong, distant 15 miles: resigned this 10 Nov. 1750. As Chaplain to the Archbishop had dispensation, Nov. 1750 to hold the rectory of Ruckinge, 16 miles from Hinxhill.

Say, William: born at East Hatley 5 Dec. 1696, youngest son of Francis, the rector: brother of Fra. (1706): a brother, John, was the Master's godson. He was exceptionally poor for on 13 Jan. 171$\frac{7}{8}$ there was a College order that he should have his B.A. degree without paying the usual 50*s.* to the College.

B.A. 171$\frac{7}{8}$; M.A. (as Will. Cray Say) 1724. Resided in the Mich. term 1713 "in the Masters in the sizars chamber." Perhaps the present passage-room at the Lodge: someone lived "over the sizars chamber": it was therefore not an attic, nor the small room over the ante-chapel. Matric^{d}. sizar 171$\frac{3}{4}$. Admitted scholar 31 Mar. 1715. Ordained deacon, London, 1719 Sept.: priest, Rochester, 1720 Dec. Chaplain to the Countess of Rockingham. Rector of East Hatley, Cambs. 1722. Had dispensation from Lambeth to hold also the rectory of Hatley St George, distant one mile 2 June 1746. Died, unmarried, Nov. 1751. The following is part of a letter of commendation of Will. Cray Say, written 13 Sept. 1719 to the Bishop of London by D^{r} Covel (then 79 years of age): "This gentleman M^{r} Will. Say, comes to wait on you for Deacons Orders. As for his morals, he hath been my sizar and domestick these 4 yeares: and I will vouch him for a sober and civil person; as for his learning he is of age and I doubt not but he will be able to answer for himself; yet I must confess he may want a month of 23 yeares of age. But give me leave thus humbly to apologize for him; some men grow Men very early: some men never will be men: M^{r} Say, I verily believe, will appear to your Lordship a Man: and one of sense and discretion." (Letter preserved in the family: and communicated by C. F. Booty, M.A.)

Lowder, Richard:

Matric^{d}. sizar 1713. Not found in the Study-rents: probably never resided.

Conder, —:

Appears in Study-rents in the quarter ending December 1713, as a pupil (probably pensioner) of M^{r} Moor: resided till December 1715. He seems not to have matriculated.

Chippingdale, John:

B.A. 171$\frac{7}{8}$; M.A. 1721. Admitted a pupil of M^{r} Boldero. Came into residence Easter 1714. Matric^{d}. sizar 171$\frac{3}{4}$. Scholar 31 Mar. 1715. Ordained deacon, York, 1718 June: priest, Ely, 1719 Dec. Probably vicar of Skipwith, near Selby, Yorks. 29 Apr. 1729.

Wetherherd, William:

A pupil of M^{r} Atherton. Came into residence Easter 1714: resided till Dec. 1715: name on the list, without charge, one quarter more. Matric^{d}. pensioner 1714 July. Admitted scholar 31 Mar. 1715. Probably the Will. Wetherhead (the spelling varies in our books) son and heir of Christopher of Knight's Staniforth, Yorks., admitted at Gray's Inn 11 June 1716.

Atkins, Richard:

B.A. 171$\frac{7}{8}$; M.A. (Peterhouse) 1721; D.D. 1733. Born 1694: son of Ri. Atkins (1681) grandson of Sir Edw., Chief Baron of the Exchequer. Pupil of M^{r} Atherton. On the Boards from Easter 1714: came into residence at Mids^{r}. Matric^{d}. pensioner 1714 July. Admitted scholar 31 Mar. 1715. Perhaps the Ri. Atkins, M.A., who became rector of Lee, Kent 1731 July; resigned 1745. (Hasted, 1. 68.) Died 1745 (Davy).

Okeover, Rowland:

Pupil of M^{r} Towers, from Easter 1714: afterwards of M^{r} Dowse till June 1717. Matric^{d}. pensioner, 1714 July. Born 1700, grandson of Sir Rowland of Okeover, in Dovedale, Staffs.: son of Thomas, of Tilney St Lawrence, Norfolk (so Glover, Derbs. 2. 64), by his wife Eliz., daughter of Tho. Farmer of Oldbury, Warwick: first cousin of Thomas of Okeover, father of Leeke and William (1718). Admitted at the Middle Temple 17 Nov. 1715. Married (1) Patience Farmer of Atherston, (2) Alice, daughter of John Gregory, merchant, of London, by whom he had a son Rowland Farmer of Oldbury Hall, born 1745. Lived at Oldbury. Died 11 Feb. 1764, aged 64.

Randall, John:

B.A. 171$\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. 1727. Pupil of M^{r} Atherton, in the quarter ending Mids. 1714. Keeping "in the Master's over M^{r} Maynard." Matric^{d}. sizar 1714 July. Scholar 31 Mar. 1715. Born in Suffolk 1696: perhaps the son of John Randall (1686) Headmaster of Bury, who was admitted at St John's, 27 Dec. 1712, aged 15 or 16: but seems not to have resided. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1719 May. "Schoolmaster and agriculturist" (D.N.B. doubtfully). Master of the academy at Heath, near Wakefield. Later had a private school at York.

Author of The Semi-Virgilian Husbandry...with the Philosophy of Agriculture, 1764. Invented a seed-furrow plough, which he described in a treatise, 1764: see Gent. Mag. 1764, page 460, 532 (D.N.B.). Possibly the rector of Thelveton, Norfolk who succeeded in 1728 another John Randall, probably his father. One John Randall was head-master of Guildford School 171– to 172– (Carlisle). Wrongly identified in Cooper-LeKeux, with John Randall the musical composer, Mus.B., 1744, who was born in 1715.

Burrow, William:
B.A. $171\frac{7}{8}$; M.A. 1732. Pupil of M^{r} Boldero from Easter 1714. Matric^{d}. sizar 1714 July. Scholar 3 May 1716.

Thomson, James:
B.A. $171\frac{7}{8}$. Pupil of M^{r} Boldero, from Easter 1714. Matric^{d}. sizar 1714 July. Scholar (Lancs.) 3 May 1716. Possibly the James Thompson presented by Sir Tho. Lowther to the perp. curacy of Cartmell in Furness and instituted 13 May 1732. Died 1740, probably intestate (Croston-Baines, 5. 636).

Dobson, William:
B.A. $171\frac{7}{8}$. Pupil of M^{r} Metcalfe from Easter 1714. Matric^{d}. sizar 1714 July. Admitted scholar 31 Mar. 1715.

Ferman, James:
Pupil of M^{r} Atherton. Admitted before Mids. 1714: began to reside after Midsummer: remained till Mich. 1716. Matric^{d}. sizar 1714 Dec. Admitted scholar 31 Mar. 1715.

Cooke, John:
Pupil of M^{r} Boldero: resided from Mids. 1714–Lady Day 1719—the last part under M^{r} Dowse. Matric^{d}. pensioner 1714 Dec. Admitted scholar 31 Mar. 1715. Perhaps the John Cooke, Esq. who subscribed to Sanderson's Algebra, 1740.

Leader, Robert:
Pupil of M^{r} Atherton. Had his name on the Boards for the quarter ending Mich. 1714, with no charge: resided Mich.–Lady Day 1715: name on for one quarter more. Matric^{d}. pensioner 1714 Dec. Admitted scholar 31 Mar. 1715.

Raye, Thomas:
B.A. $171\frac{7}{8}$; M.A. 1721. On the Boards without charge for the quarter ending Mich. 1714: came into residence at Mich. Matriculated pensioner 1714 Dec. Scholar 31 Mar. 1715. Elected Fellow in place of Edw. Ellis 14 Nov. 1719. Ordained priest, Peterborough, 1723 Sept. Praelector, Junior Dean, Catechist and Bunting Preacher 1722. Senior Dean and Knapwell Preacher 1727: on 12 Jan. $172\frac{7}{8}$ he was appointed curate of Fen Drayton: and he hardly ever signs the Order book afterwards: on 22 Feb. $172\frac{8}{9}$ his Fellowship was declared void: probably he had accepted a living. One of these names was Master of Woodbridge School 1736–74 (Carlisle, 2. 358): probably also P.C. of Walpole St Mary, near Halesworth 1760–74: rector of Dallinghoe 1747–73: rector of Shottisham, near Woodbridge 1765–74. Possibly this man was B.A. $17\frac{29}{30}$ of Emmanuel.

Mason, Joshua:
B.A. $171\frac{7}{8}$; M.A. 1730. Pupil of M^{r} Atherton. On the Boards, without charge, in the quarter ending Mich. 1714: came into residence at Mich. Matric^{d}. sizar, 1714 Dec. Scholar (of Lincs.) 11 Apr. 1717. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1718 June; licensed to Buckminster, Leics.: priest 1720 June; curate of Gunby, Lincs.

Boldero, John:

B.A. $171\frac{8}{9}$. Matriculated sizar 1715. Admitted scholar 31 Mar. 1715. Probably lived in the rooms of his uncle John, Fellow and Tutor: he does not appear with any charge against him in Study-rents. Only son of Simon Boldero, B.A. (Jesus) 1679, and rector of Woolpit 1715–23, when he died. Ordained deacon, Peterborough, 1719 Sept.; licensed to Woolpit as curate to his father: priest, Ely, 1720 (when it is stated in the Subscription Book that he was born in Suffolk in 1696). Rector of Woolpit, in succession to his father by dispensation from Lambeth, Mar. 1723. Married 17 Oct. 1728 Martha Taylor of Woolpit. Was devisee to his uncle John, rector of Clipston, who however survived him. Buried at Woolpit 25 Aug. 1746.

Underwood, Luke:

B.A. $171\frac{8}{9}$. Pupil of M^{r} Atherton. Name on the Boards, without charge for the quarter from Mich. 1714: resided the Lent term 1715. Matric^{d}. sizar, 1715 April. One Luke Underwood of Denham, Suffolk, married 30 Sept. 1718 Ann Bardwell of the same parish. They had children: 1719, Luke; 1721, Will. and Thomas (who died in the same year); 1723, Anne; 1725, John. Ann Underwood was buried 17 July 1739. Luke married again, and died 3 May 1753: his second wife Eliz. sixteen days after him. (Denham Parish Registers, ed. Sydenham Hervey.)

Smith, Joseph: son of Thomas: born at Hanley in the parish of Staveley, Derbs. School: Tuxford "in luto" [in the clay], Notts., under M^{r} Taylour. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Metcalfe, 7 Oct. 1714. Age 17.

B.A. $171\frac{8}{9}$. Admitted scholar 31 Mar. 1715. Ordained priest, Lichfield, 1722 Sept. One of these names (no degree given) was head-master of Boston grammar school 1730–7.

Cox, Andrew: son of Richard: born at Treburrow [Treborough], Somerset. Educated there by his uncle M^{r} Chappell. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Atherton 5 Nov. 1714. Age 19.

Admitted scholar 31 Mar. 1715. Resided till Mids. 1717.

Bassett, Henry: son of Joseph: born at Eaton, Beds. School: Huntingdon, under M^{r} Matthews. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Metcalfe, 19 Nov. 1714. Age 15.

B.A. $171\frac{8}{9}$. Admitted scholar 3 May 1716. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, $172\frac{0}{1}$ March; licensed to Thurleigh, Beds.

Frye, Rowland: son of John, armiger: "Americanus": born in "Antegua." School: Eton, under D^{r} Snape. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Atherton 6 Nov. 1714. Age 18.

Resided till Mich. 1716. Eldest son of John Frye, Member of the Council and Colonel of Militia, Antigua, and of Henrietta, daughter of Governor Phil. Warner. Graduated at Leyden, 1717. Merchant of London. Purchased Banstead Manor, Surrey, in 1762. Died unmarried 20 Oct. 1777, aged 82. His brother John was at Balliol, Oxford, returned to Antigua, and died there. Another brother, Samuel, also a merchant of London, died there 1770. His sister Henrietta married George, son of Governor Edward Byam, whose sons Edward and Francis were at Christ's.

Alexander, Joseph: [father not given] born at Bury St Edmunds. School: Bury, under M^{r} Randall. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Atherton 20 Jan. $171\frac{4}{5}$. Age omitted.

B.A. $171\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. 1724. Admitted scholar 3 May 1716. Ordained deacon, Norwich, $171\frac{8}{9}$ Feb.; licensed to Rede, Suffolk: priest 1720 June. Probably curate of Hemingstone, Suff. 1725. Rector of Stonham-Parva 1725. Rector of Wortham 1739.

Cartwright, Thomas: son of Thomas: born at Berrington, Salop. School: Shrewsbury, under M^r^ Lloyd. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Husband 28 Jan. $171\frac{4}{5}$. Age 19.

B.A. $171\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. 1722; B.D. (com. reg.) 1728; D.D. 1736. Admitted scholar 31 Mar. 1715 and again 6 Nov. 1717. Grandson of Tho. Cartwright, Bishop of Chester. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1719 Sept.: priest, London, 1720 June. Elected fellow in the room of East Barley, 29 Aug. 1720. Steward 1722. Praelector, Junior Dean, Catechist and Bunting Preacher, 1723. Senior Dean 1728. Mildmay Preacher 1729. Senior Dean again in 1731. Had several pupils soon after his election, Atherton being then the main tutor: and before 1732 far outstripped him, having at times two thirds of the whole number in College. On 14 June 1732 he was presented to Gateley, succeeding Tho. Atherton who had just been presented to Little Canfield: but (unlike Atherton) he soon left Cambridge (probably in May 1732), transferring his pupils to Will. Trant. He resigned Gateley before July 1733 having obtained preferment in London (He vacated his Fellowship 13 Apr. 1734.) He was Chaplain to the Bishop of London; and Prebendary of St Paul's 26 Mar. 1733 and rector of Hornsey on the same day. Had dispensation from Lambeth 4 Sept. 1735 to hold also the rectory of St Christopher-le-Stock, distant five miles. Archdeacon of Colchester 1737. He died 8 Nov. 1749 and was buried in Hornsey Church.

Johnson, Thomas: son of Thomas: born at Low Burton, "Massam" [Masham], Yorks. School: Bedale, under M^r^ Marshall. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Metcalfe 19 Feb. $171\frac{4}{5}$. Age 17.

B.A. $171\frac{8}{9}$. Admitted scholar 3 May 1716. Ordained deacon, York, 1720 Sept.: priest 1722 May. One Tho. Johnson was master of Heskin [? Hesketh] School, after 1716 and before 1726, where he educated Will. Grimshaw (1726).

Harwell, Thomas: son of William: born at Chippenham, Cambs. School: Bury, under M^r^ Randall. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Metcalfe 22 Feb. $171\frac{4}{5}$. Age 19.

B.A. $171\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. 1722. Admitted scholar 31 Mar. 1715. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1720 June; licensed to Blunsham [? Bluntisham], Hunts. Elected Fellow in place of Ben. Dowse 17 Sept. 1723. Praelector, Senior Dean, Catechist, Bunting and Walkhampton Preachers, and Steward 1724, thus holding six out of the eleven Offices!—a precedent often followed afterwards. Senior Dean 1729, Senior Greek Lecturer and Mildmay Preacher 1731 and 1732. He was appointed to Fen Drayton curacy 30 Sept. 1730: and presented to the Vicarage of Gateley (succeeding M^r^ Cartwright) 2 July 1733, with a lease of the rectory. After this he signs very irregularly, and perhaps lived mainly at Gateley. On 7 Feb. $17\frac{39}{40}$ he was presented to Ingoldsby, vacant by the death of Ralph Aynsley, and before 12 Mar. $174\frac{0}{1}$ his Fellowship was declared vacant. He held the living for nearly 30 years, dying Dec. 1769, aged 73, but there is no evidence of his residence there, except in the year 1749—in the other years the register is signed by curates. He was buried in Chippenham churchyard, where many others of his family were laid.

Nightingale, Edward: son of Edward: born at Kneesworth, Cambs. School: Ruslington (probably Wrestlingworth), under M^r^ Bristow. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^r^ Barley 17 March $171\frac{4}{5}$. Age 18.

B.A. 1718 Mids. Admitted at Gray's Inn 5 Apr. 1720, as second son of Edw. Nightingale: probably the grateful tenant at Kneesworth who gave £10 to the restoration of the Chapel in 1702. One Edw. Nightingale, Esq. was buried at Bassingbourne 6 July 1723 (Ely Ep. Rec. 248)—perhaps the son—for on 6 Nov. 1757 "M^{r} Nightingale" has a "new" lease of Kneesworth.

Williams, Henry: son of George, a very skilful surgeon: born at S^{t} Neots. School: Merchant Taylors'. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Metcalfe 22 Mar. 171$\frac{4}{5}$ Age 19.

Resided under M^{r} Metcalfe, afterwards under M^{r} Dowse till June 1717 Admitted scholar 31 Mar. 1715.

Flasby, Edward: son of Francis: born at Leck, in the parish of Tunstall [near Kirkby Lonsdale]. School: Kirkby Lonsdale, under M^{r} Gibson. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Metcalfe 30 March 1715. Age 17.

B.A. 171$\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. 1722. Admitted scholar 3 May 1716: but there is an order of 13 May 1715 that "Flasby be allowed a scholar of the House from the date thereof." Ordained deacon, London, 17$\frac{19}{20}$ March. Succeeded John Flasby as rector of Groton, Suffolk, 1736 Dec. Buried at Groton 27 Oct. 1742.

Lawton, George: son of John: born at Newcastle under Lyme, Staffs. School: King's Bromley, under M^{r} Pannel. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Boldero 20 Apr. 1715. Age 20.

Resided till Mich. 1717.

Glinester, Edmund: son of Edmund (deceased): born at Royston. School: Chisfield [? Cheshunt, Herts.], under M^{r} Goodwin. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Barley 25 Apr. 1715. Age 16.

Resided till Lady Day 1716. Migrated to Caius College after keeping four [?] terms, where he was admitted 11 July 1717 fellow-commoner under M^{r} N. Parham, aged 18. Admitted at the Inner Temple 27 Nov. 1716.

Hillyard, Laurence: son of Joseph: born at Milton, Westmoreland. Admitted at St John's under D^{r} Edmundson: at Christ's sizar under M^{r} Atherton 5 May 1715. Age not given.

B.A. 171$\frac{7}{8}$. Admitted 25 Mar. 1714 (Hilliards) sizar at St John's, as born at (H)eversham. School: Kirkby [Lonsdale], Westmoreland, under M^{r} Gibson.

Squire, Edward: son of Edward: born at Hertford. School: Buntingford, under Mr England. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Barley 13 May 1715. Age 17.

B.A. 171$\frac{8}{9}$. Admitted scholar 11 Apr. 1717. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1721 June: licensed to Hertingfordbury: priest 1722 May. Rector of Swalecliff, Kent 24 Nov. 1733: patron, Earl Cowper.

Burchett, John: son of John, armiger: born at Weybridge, Surrey. School: Eton, under D^{r} Snape. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Atherton 24 May 1715. Age 18.

Appears only in the three quarters ending Xmas 1715–Mids^{r}. 1716: no charge in any. One of these names was B.A. (Pet.) 171$\frac{8}{9}$, where a Will. Burchett preceded him 171$\frac{5}{6}$.

Simpson, William: son of John, armiger: born at Babworth, Notts. School: Wakefield, under M^{r} Clark. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Sitwell 25 May 1715. Age 17.

Son of John Simpson and of Eliz., daughter of Fra. Stringer of Sutton upon Lound, Notts. (Hunter, S. Yorks. 1. 184). Kept the Easter Term 1715 and resided till at least 1717: his terms run into those of his brother John, admitted 1717, also under M^{r} Sitwell. Admitted at the Inner Temple 24 June 1715. The father had property at Babworth and at Eckington, Derbs. Will.,

the son, had also property at Stainforth, Yorks., perhaps through his mother. Married Frances, daughter of Fra. Elwick, widow of John Eyre of Bramley Hall, by whom he had five children who all died young. Succeeded in 1729 by his brother John (1717) (Hunter, S. Yorks. 1. 184).

Pearse, Charles: son of John: born at Bolsover, Derbs. School: Mansfield, under D^{r} Mann. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Sitwell 25 May 1715. Age 18.

B.A. 171$\frac{8}{9}$. Admitted scholar 3 May 1716. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1719 Sept.; licensed to Appleby, Leics.: priest 1723 June; curate of Broughton, Leics.

Bellis, John: second son of Robert, rector [? vicar] of Ince, Cheshire. Educated at home by his father. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Atherton 4 June 1715. Age 18 [sic].

B.A. 171$\frac{8}{9}$. Admitted scholar 3 May 1716. Baptised at Ince 18 Dec. 1695. Brother of Samuel (1712) and of Robert (1721). Ordained deacon, Lincoln, by letter dimissory from Chester, 171$\frac{8}{9}$ Feb.: priest 1721 June. Rector of Covenham St Mary, near Louth. A "mester John Bellis" buried at Ince 17 Aug. 1721, is probably not this man but his grandfather.

Chamberlaine, Edward: son of Colvye, "artis textoriae peritissimus pariter ac praedives": born at Mattishall, Norfolk. School: Windham [Wymondham], "rite admodum institutus" under M^{r} Sayer. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Atherton 11 June 1716. Age 17.

B.A. 171$\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. 1722. Admitted scholar 3 May 1716, i.e. earlier than his admission to the College! Elected Fellow 1 Nov. 1723, succeeding Dan. Hunt. Praelector, Junior Dean, Catechist, Bunting and Walkhampton Preacher and Steward 1725. After 28 Aug. 1728 he signs once only, a year later: on 17 May 1731 his Fellowship was declared vacant. He never had pupils. From Blomefield it would seem that he was rector of Crownthorpe, before 1730—but I have not found his institution. He was rector of Great Cressingham 23 April 1730—and of Scoulton 2 Oct. 1730 (distant six or seven miles). He also held the sinecure rectory of Gedney, Lincs. (Blomefield, 1. 610, 650: 3. 434).

Hardy, Thomas: clerk in Holy Orders: son of Edward: born at Barbon, Westmoreland. School: Kirkby Lonsdale, under M^{r} Firbank, so well taught that he was appointed head-master of Huddersfield school and held the post some years. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Atherton in July 1715. Age 28. His name is on the list without charge three quarters till Easter 1716—possibly with the intention of taking the B.D. degree after 10 years: but apparently he never resided. Probably vicar of Mirfield 15 May 1716, patron, Sir John Armitage.

Stephens, Thomas:

Pupil of M^{r} Boldero, coming into residence Jan. 1715: lived "in the Master's in the Star-chamber" till Mich. 1719. On 26 Aug. 1714 it was agreed that he should "have M^{r} Standish Chamber on paying £27 for the Income of it." Matric^{d}. fellow-commoner 1715. Admitted at the Inner Temple 28 Nov. 1716.

Griffith, John:

M.A. 1722. Matric^{d}. at University College, Oxford 2 Dec. 1712, aged 16; son of Edward, clerk, of Aston, Salop. B.A. 171$\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. (Christ's) 1722; D.D. 1741. Possibly rector of Longparish, alias Midleton, Hants. 1729, patron the Duke of Bolton (Genealogist, N.S. 7. 116). Rector of Eckington, Derbs. 1721–65: and of Whiston [? Northants.] 1739–49 and again 1759–65. Prebendary of Canterbury 4 Mar. 173$\frac{7}{8}$, succeeding Edw. Finch—1765. In Oct.

1752 he had dispensation from Lambeth to hold with Eckington (worth £400 a year) the rectory of Prestwich, Lancs. (also worth £400), distant 27 miles : he had purchased the advowson in 1744. In 1739 he purchased from the Duke of Norfolk the right of presentation to Whiston for 60 years : and in 1749 he put in Middlemore Griffith his eldest son : on whose death (1763, according to Scott, Johnian Admissions, p. 456) or in 1759 (as above) he reappointed himself. He married a Miss — Middlemore. Died 8 Mar. 1765. Left the living of Whiston to his grandson John Carter.

Glover, Daniel: son of John : born at Royston (that part which is in Herts.). School : Chisfield [?], under M^{r} Goodwin. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Atherton 18 Feb. 171$\frac{5}{6}$. Age not given.

Admitted scholar 3 May 1716. Resided till Xmas 1717.

Crump, Nathaniel: son of Nathaniel: born in Antigua ("Antigoae apud Americanos"). School : "Dungannensis," Ireland, under M^{r} Harvey : also two years at Trin. Coll. Dublin. Admitted (as of two years' standing) under M^{r} Atherton 20 Feb. 171$\frac{5}{6}$. Age not given.

Admitted scholar 3 May 1716. Appears in the Study-rents for the two quarters ending June 1716 : but without charge : then lived "in the Master's, by the Parlour" till Mich. Admitted at the Middle Temple as son of Nat. of London 26 Jan. 171$\frac{5}{6}$. Nathaniel, the father, was a barrister ; member of the Assembly, Antigua 1699 : Speaker before 1710 : member of Council 1716 : Speaker of Council 1735 : married (1698) Anne White. Nathaniel was his youngest son ; he returned to Antigua and was J.P. 3 Jan. 172$\frac{5}{6}$. Perhaps a merchant : see the will of D^{r} Geo. Crump : "my brother Nat. (deceased) interested him [Sam. Redhead] a 3rd part of a sloop cargo, the profitts whereof could not be much." Married and had a son John. Dead just before 26 Feb. 172$\frac{8}{9}$. Probably connected with the Byams (see Sam. Byam 170$\frac{0}{1}$) as an elder brother was named Byam Crump—he was Governor of Guadaloupe (Oliver, Antigua, 1. 185).

Weekes, Carew: son of Carew : born in London. School : Loughborough, under M^{r} Sam. Martin. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Atherton 4 April 1716. Age 18.

Admitted scholar 3 May 1716. Resided till Xmas 1717.

Carter, Rowland: son of Rowland : [birthplace and school not given]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Atherton's "vexillum," "non sine laude militaturus" 9 April 1716. Age not given.

B.A. 17$\frac{19}{20}$. Admitted scholar 3 May 1716. Ordained deacon, York, 1722 May. Ordained priest, Rochester, 1724 May : to be curate of Tudeley, near Tonbridge with stipend of £35.

Wetherherd, John: son of Christopher : born at Norton, Yorks. School : Wakefield, under M^{r} Clark. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Atherton 14 April 1716. Age 19.

Augmented his father's exhibition at Wye College to £20 a year (Carlisle, 1. 635). Subscribed to Sanderson's Algebra, 1740. Died 22 May 1770: buried at Otterden. His library sold 1771. Published his observations on electricity in Phil. Soc. Trans. 1739.

Maddison, Thomas: son of John: born at Newcastle. School: (1) Newcastle, under M^{r} Jurin: (2) Durham, under M^{r} Rymer. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Atherton 10 May 1717. Age 17.

B.A. (Peterhouse) $172\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1724. Admitted scholar 6 Nov. 1717. Resided till Lady Day 1720. The father was a "merchant-adventurer" of Newcastle, 1656–1722 (Surtees, 2. 135).

Haigh, Francis: son of John: born at Thurlstone, Yorks. School: Penistone, under M^{r} Ramsden. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Atherton 8 June 1717. Age 20.

B.A. $172\frac{0}{1}$. Admitted scholar 14 May 1719. Ordained deacon, York, $172\frac{0}{1}$ March: priest 1722 Sept. Licensed to preach in Cumberworth chapel 1728: also in Bolderston chapel 1728: curate of Midhope, later: he sent pupils thence in 1743. No successor given (in Hunter's Hallamshire, 478) till 1772: stated (ib. 481) that he died in 1777. Samuel (1743) son of William and born at Thurlstone was doubtless akin, perhaps a nephew.

Rayner, Thomas: son of John: born at Thaxted, Essex. School: Stortford, under Dr Tooke. Admitted sizar under Mr Atherton 24 June 1717. Age 18.

B.A. $172\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1724. Matricd. $171\frac{8}{9}$. Ordained deacon, London, 1723 June: priest 1727 Dec. Vicar of Elsenham, Essex 22 Oct. 1731–57. Rector of Rayne (patron, the Earl of Essex) 1 Dec. 1741–45, when he resigned. Vicar of Stebbing St Mary 1748. Died 1757 (Morant, 2. 405, 416, 572).

Beart, William: son of William: born at Bury St Edmunds. School: Botesdale, under Mr Maybourne. Admitted sizar under Mr Atherton 24 June 1717. Age 18.

B.A. $172\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1724. Admitted scholar 14 May 1719.

Bourne, Henry: son of Thomas: born at Newcastle. School: Newcastle, under Mr Lodge. Admitted sizar under Mr Atherton 25 June 1717. Age 21.

B.A. $172\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1724. Admitted scholar 14 May 1719. Son of a tailor at Newcastle, and apprenticed to a glazier: released from his apprenticeship and sent to school again: then sent on to Cambridge by help of friends (Brand, 1. 392): Atherton, his tutor, was a Newcastle-man. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1720 Sept. Curate of All Saints, Newcastle 1724–33. Died 16 Feb. $173\frac{2}{3}$. Author: Antiquitates Vulgares, 1725, republished by Brand, 1777: Harmony and agreement of the Collects, Epistles and Gospels, 1727: History of Newcastle, left unfinished at his death and published 1736 by his widow and children. (D.N.B.)

Williams, John: son of John: born in London. School: Thurlow, under Mr Harwood. Admitted pensioner under Mr Atherton 3 July 1717. Age 21.

In residence after Midsummer 1717. Kept "in the Master's, by the Parlour" Mich. 1717–Lady Day 1718. Perhaps the John Williams, of St Paul's, Shadwell, Midds., admitted at the Inner Temple 19 Mar. $171\frac{2}{3}$.

Hargrave, James: son of Nathaniel: born at Newcastle. School: (1) Newcastle, (2) Morpeth, under Mr Salkeld. Admitted pensioner under Mr Atherton 28 Sept. 1717. Age 17.

B.A. $172\frac{1}{2}$. Admitted scholar 21 April 1718. At December 1720 he appears in Study-rents as Mr Hargraves [sic] and continues till Lady Day 1725—apparently as a fellow-commoner: he was never M.A.

Husband, Richard:

M.A. 1724. Admitted at St Mary Hall, Oxford, as son of John, of Eyton, Salop, "pleb." 4 June 1714, aged 17. B.A. (Christ Church) 1718. Incorporated and M.A. (Christ's) 1724. Rector of Ruddington, Salop, 1722. (Foster, Al. Ox. 776.) Minor Canon of Rochester 1736–69. P.C. of Stroud 12 July 1738–47, when he resigned it. Vicar of Stockbury, Kent: which he resigned 10 July 1750. Vicar of Wateringbury, 27 Aug. 1750 (or 1751). Buried in Rochester Cathedral 26 May 1769. Probably a kinsman of Tho. Husband, the Fellow (1705).

Hewett, John:

M.A. 1724. Admitted at Magdalen Hall, Oxford, as son of J. Hewitt, clerk, of Wallingford, Berks., 22 Oct. 1709, aged 19. B.A. $171\frac{2}{3}$. Incorporated, and M.A. (Christ's) 1724. Rector of Harthill, Yorks. 1717, succeeding his father John, who became rector 1695. Died 1757, aged 68: buried at Harthill (M.I.). Succeeded by his son, also John, and third rector of these names who died 1811 (Hunter, S. Yorks. 1. 145). Said by Foster (Al. Ox. 700) to have been vicar of Broughton, Yorks. 1727: but according to Morant-Whitaker (Craven, 110) a John Hewitt was vicar from 1732–41, when he died.

Here comes another gap in the Admission books for the years 1717–18 (praelector Henry Finch, the very juvenile Finch and Baines Fellow) and 1718–19 (praelector, John Chester, who married Feb. $171\frac{8}{9}$). The numbers in both years recoverable from the matriculation-register are very small: but the Study-rents do not add more than one or two.

Evans, Thomas:
Pupil of M^{r} Atherton. Admitted before Mids^{r}. 1718. Matric^{d}. pensioner 1718 July. Scholar 14 May 1719. Resided till Lady Day 1721.

Okeover, Leeke:
Pupil of M^{r} Towers from Mids^{r}. 1718 till Mich. 1719. Matric^{d}. pensioner 1718 July. Born 1701, son of Thomas Okeover of Okeover, sheriff of Staffs., temp. Anne, by his wife Catherine, daughter and heiress of Will. Leeke, Baron of the Exchequer: this Thomas was first cousin of Rowland of Oldbury, admitted 1714: belonged to Trinity College, Oxford and the Middle Temple. Leeke Okeover was admitted at the Middle Temple 16 Feb. $171\frac{8}{9}$. He lived at Okeover, where he repaired and beautified the parish church—presumably in the taste of the time. He married Mary, daughter of John Nichols, Esq. Died without issue 31 Jan. 1765, aged 63. His brother William (1718) having died before him, the estate of Okeover passed to his distant cousin Haughton Farmer Okeover, of the Oldbury branch. (Glover, Derbs. 2. 64, Hunter, F.M.G. 1035.)

Okeover, William:
Second son of Thomas of Okeover and Catherine Leeke: brother of Leeke (above). Pupil of M^{r} Towers from Mids^{r}. 1718 to Mich. 1719. Matric^{d}. pensioner 1718. Admitted at the Middle Temple with his brother 16 Feb. $171\frac{8}{9}$. Barrister at law. Died 1748 without issue. (Glover, 2. 64.)

Garnett, William:
Pupil of M^{r} Atherton. Admitted before Mids^{r}. 1718. Matric^{d}. sizar 1718 July. Admitted scholar 14 May 1719. Resided from Mids^{r}. 1718 to Lady Day 1720.

Wetherherd, Christopher:
B.A. $172\frac{1}{2}$. Pupil of M^{r} Atherton. Admitted before Mids^{r}. 1718. Matric^{d}. sizar 1718 July. Admitted scholar (as of Yorks.) 1 June 1720. Ordained deacon, York, 1722 Sept.: priest 1725 Dec.: appointed curate to Spofforth and Wetherby Chapel, with an annual stipend of £20. Vicar of Thorp Arch, 4 July 1728. One of these names was rector of Halton in Lonsdale 6 Aug. 1747–49 (Croston-Baines, 5. 528). A Rev. M^{r} Wetherherd subscribed to Sanderson's Algebra, 1740 (perhaps John of 1716).

Robinson, Henry:
B.A. $172\frac{2}{3}$. Pupil of M^{r} Atherton. Admitted before Mids^{r}. 1718. Matric^{d}. sizar 1718 July. Admitted scholar (as of Yorks.) 1 June 1720. Ordained deacon, York, 1723 June: priest 1725 Sept.: curate of West Dalton 19 Sept, with stipend of £25 a year.

Windham, —:

Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Towers. Resided between Mich. 1718 and Lady Day 1719. Did not matriculate. Possibly a son of Will. Windham of Felbrigg (1663).

Wragg, Charles:

B.A. 172$\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1726. Pupil of M^{r} Atherton. Resided from Mich. 1718: but always without charge (though he seems not to have lived "in the Master's") till Mich. 1723, when he pays (being then D^{s} Wragg), and till Lady Day 1724. Matric^{d}. pensioner 171$\frac{8}{9}$ Mar. Admitted scholar 14 May 1719. Ordained deacon, London, 1723 June: priest 1724 June. Chaplain to the Earl of Kellie. Rector of Kelvedon, Essex 8 July 1731: had dispensation from Lambeth to hold also the rectory of Great Hallingbury, distant 14 miles, 24 Nov. 1737. Died 1758.

Walker, John:

Pupil of M^{r} Towers. Admitted before Xmas 1718. Came into residence Jan. 171$\frac{8}{9}$, and continued till Mids^{r}. 1724, taking no degree. Matric^{d}. pensioner 171$\frac{8}{9}$ Mar. [A John Walker, of Jesus, LL.B. 1726.] One of these names ordained priest, Lichfield, 1727 Sept. Presented to Crich, Derbs. 16 Sept. 1731.

Trant, William:

B.A. 172$\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1726. Pupil of M^{r} Towers from Easter 1719. Matric^{d}. sizar 171$\frac{8}{9}$. Admitted scholar (as of Westmoreland) 14 May 1719. Elected Fellow, in place of J. Cockshutt, 26 Apr. 1726. Ordained priest, Lincoln, 1726 Sept. Praelector, Junior Dean, Catechist and Steward 1729. Knapwell Preacher 1731. Senior Dean 1733. Senior Greek Lecturer and Mildmay Preacher 1735 and 1736. Senior Dean 1737. Succeeded Cartwright as Tutor (having more than two-thirds of the students) 1732–1740—in the later years the students were more evenly divided. Senior Proctor 1735. Had a lease of the tithes of Hapton 1733. Vicar of Foxton 19 July 1734. Vicar of Caldecot (succeeding T. Sitwell) 9 June 1737. Rector of Anstye 25 Nov. 1740 (succeeding T. Sherwill). Vacated his fellowship 5 Dec. 1741. Married Catherine, daughter of George and Dorothy Smith: his son Edmund (1767) was Fellow 1773: his daughter Emma was mother of Will. Spry (Fellow 1804). Died at Anstye, after 44 years' tenure, 3 Jan. 1784, aged 82.

Cottingham, Squire:

B.A. 1723. Pupil of M^{r} Hutton. Came into residence Easter 1719. Matric^{d}. sizar 171$\frac{8}{9}$. Admitted scholar 14 May 1719.

Fenwick, Richard:

Pupil of M^{r} Atherton. Admitted before Mids^{r}. 1719. Matric^{d}. sizar 1719 July. Perhaps son of Ri. Fenwick (1681). Buried at Great St Andrew's 11 Mar. 17$\frac{19}{20}$.

Stokoe, Alexander:

Pupil of M^{r} Atherton. Admitted before Mids^{r}. 1719. Matric^{d}. sizar 1719 July.

Scholar (as of Northumberland), 1 June 1720. Seems to have resided continuously (without taking any degree) till Mids^{r}. 1726. One of these names, of Haydon Bridge, was master of Hexham School 1723–17$\frac{29}{30}$. Curate of St John, Lee, near Hexham 1734. Died 1766. (Bateson, Northumb^{d}., 3. 224, 4. 131.)

Walmesley, Richard:

B.A. 172$\frac{2}{3}$. Pupil of M^{r} Cockshutt. Admitted before Mich. 1719. Matric^{d}. sizar 1720 April. Admitted scholar 14 May 1719. Probably fifth son of Ri. Walmesley of Sholey [or Showley], Lancs. and of Jane Houghton of Park Hill (Hall, so Abrams), Lancaster. In Holy Orders. Died at Ormskirk 1735. (Abrams' Blackburn, 459 : Whitaker, 2. 404.) Another of the same names, son of Ri. Walmesley, of Bashall, Coldcotes and Eaves Hall ; died 1767, aged 60 (ib. 405).

Jenison, Ralph :

Pupil of M^{r} Hutton. Matric^{d}. fellow-commoner 171$\frac{8}{9}$ Mar. Resided between Mich. 1719 and Mich. 1720. Probably born 1696 : son of Rob. Jenison (or Jennison) of Elswick, Newcastle and of Mary Savile of Lupset, Yorks. Of Elswick and of Walworth, Durham. Married Susan Allen of the Flatts, Chester-le-Street. M.P. for Newport, Isle of Wight : and for Northumberland 1722, 1727, and 1734. Master of the Buckhounds to George III. Died 1759.

Heywood, Wilmot :

B.A. 172$\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1726. Pupil of M^{r} Atherton : began to reside at Mich. 1719 : probably admitted earlier. Admitted scholar 28 Jan. 17$\frac{19}{20}$. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1724 Sept. : priest 1726 Dec. : curate of Godmanchester. One of these names held the cure of Ladbrooke, Warw. 18 Feb. 173$\frac{3}{4}$: if the same, he returned to the Lincoln diocese and was instituted to Paxton, Hunts. 4 June 1745.

Hunt, Brian :

Admitted at Corpus 1704 (of Kent). B.A. (Corpus) 1722. Perhaps he is the Brian Hunt who went out as a minister to Barbados 16 Mar. 17$\frac{09}{10}$ (Fothergill, p. 35) : why he transferred himself to Christ's is not clear : on 8 May 1722 he received £20 bounty as an emigrant minister to Virginia (ib.)

Here the Admissions recommence, with the year 1719–20 : praelector, Tho. Sitwell.

Torkington, Laurence : son of James, armiger : born at Stukeley, Hunts. School not given. Admitted at St John's, then at Christ's as fellow-commoner under M^{r} Dowse 17 Oct. 1719. Age not given.

Admitted pensioner at St John's under M^{r} Foulkes 6 Oct. 1711, aged 17. School, Lavenham, Suffolk under M^{r} Drift. He had the undivided care of M^{r} Dowse from Mich. 1719 to Mich. 1723. Possibly he returned to St John's and was the LL.B. of 1725 : there is no admission which corresponds as to date with that degree. He can hardly be the Laur. Torkington who was rector of Shottesbrook, Berks., and was buried 172$\frac{7}{8}$ (Genealogist, 7. 14).

North, Richard [should be Robert] : father not given : born at Scarborough. School not given. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Hutton (date not given) 1719. Age not given.

Rob. North was matric^{d}. 1720 April : and admitted scholar 1 June 1720. He kept over the ante-chapel, as pupil (1) of M^{r} Hutton, (2) of M^{r} Cartwright, till Mich. 1722, possibly longer—his name is in the list till Mich. 1724 (no charge) when he disappears.

Wills, Edward : eldest son of Edward, eques auratus : born in Middlesex. School not given. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Sitwell 9 Feb. 17$\frac{19}{20}$. Age not given.

Resided from Easter 1720 to Easter 1723. Admitted at the Middle Temple 27 June 1717. Probably son of Sir Edw. Wills of Ongar St Martin, who in 1699 married Ann, daughter of Sir Tho. Cuddon of St Lawrence, Jewry—he being 50 and she 18: he died before 1717.

Wills, Thomas: son of Edward, eques auratus: born in London. School not given. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Sitwell 13 Feb. $17\frac{19}{20}$. Age not given.

Brother of Edward. Resided from Easter 1720 to Easter 1723. Admitted at the Middle Temple 7 Oct. 1719.

Davis, Stapleton: son of John: born at Montserrat ["apud Americanos"]. School: Westminster, under D^{r} Friend. Admitted first at Clare Hall: then at Christ's pensioner under M^{r} Atherton 29 Feb. $17\frac{19}{20}$. Age 22.

B.A. $172\frac{1}{2}$. Became fellow-commoner after Mich. 1720, and resided till Mich. 1722. Incorporated at Oxford 1723. Ordained priest at Lincoln (Buckden) $172\frac{7}{8}$ March. Had £20 bounty on going out 12 Nov. 1729 to the Leeward Islands as "emigrant minister" (Fothergill, 23). Patrick Blake, Esq. of St Christopher's in his will dated 5 Mar. $174\frac{3}{4}$ left £30 a year for life to his nephew, the Rev. M^{r} Stapleton Davis, of St Christopher's (Oliver, Antigua, 1. 52).

Ellershaw, John: son of Richard: born at Giggleswick. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Carr. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Atherton 26 March 1720. Age 19.

B.A. 1724 Mids. Admitted scholar 8 May 1721. Ri. Ellershaw, the father, was vicar of Giggleswick. John was vicar of Ubbeston St Peter, Suffolk, 1748. Died 1760 (Davy).

Ashurst, Edward: grandson of Sir William, of Middlesex. School not given. Admitted at Corpus: then at Christ's as fellow-commoner under M^{r} Cockshutt sometime in 1720. Age not given.

His name on the list of M^{r} Cockshutt's pupils till Lady Day 1721: but without charge. Probably he did not reside.

Wilkinson, William: son of John: born at Newcastle. School: Newcastle, under M^{r} Lodge. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Atherton 11 April 1720. Age 18.

B.A. $172\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1727. Admitted scholar 8 May 1721. Ordained deacon (as scholar of Christ's) Rochester (at request of Bp. of Durham) 1723 Dec. Curate of St Andrew, Newcastle 1724–39: of St Nicholas 1739–56. Chaplain of Newcastle Gaol 1756–63. A bedesman of St Thomas's Hospital 1763 [?]–1780, when he died. (Brand, 1. 318.)

Adam (Adams), Thomas: [father not given]: of Yorkshire. School: Wakefield, under M^{r} Clark. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Hutton 14 April 1720. Age "about" 17 [he was really 19—born 25 Feb. $170\frac{0}{1}$].

Admitted scholar (Adam) 8 May 1721. Resided till Lady Day 1722. Admitted at Hart Hall, Oxford 2 July 1722. B.A. there $172\frac{3}{4}$. Son of Henry Adam, town clerk of Leeds, and Eliz. Blythman. Educated first at Leeds under Tho. Barnard. Presented to Winteringham, Lincs. 1724, and instituted as soon as he was of sufficient age. Held the living for 58 years, dying there 31 Mar. 1784, aged 83. One of the earliest leaders of the "Evangelical revival" (see Overton, p. 83). Author: Practical lessons on the Church Catechism, Evangelical Sermons, Paraphrase and Annotations on the Epistle to the Romans. From his Posthumous Works (1786) a selection called Private thoughts on Religion has been printed separately: and by this he is best known. (D.N.B.)

Monoux, Lewis: son of Lewis, armiger: born at Sandy, Beds. School: Stortford, under D^r^ Tooke. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Atherton 27 Apr. 1720. Age 16.

B.A. 172$\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1727. Admitted scholar 1 June 1720. Son of Lewis (1666) of Sandy (son of Sir Humphry (1617) first Baronet, of Wotton) by his wife Lucy, daughter of Sir Philip Wodehouse. Elected Fellow (in place of Granville Wheler) 22 Jan. 172$\frac{4}{5}$. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1728 June: priest, September. Praelector (and a most careless one—he left out half the entries), Junior Dean, Catechist, Bunting Preacher and Steward 1728. Fellowship declared vacant 31 Dec. 1730. Rector of Sandy, Beds. Chaplain to the Bishop of Llandaff. Had dispensation from Lambeth 21 June 1743 to hold also the rectory of Tempsford, distant two miles. Prebendary of Lincoln (Clifton) 21 Oct. 1755. Married a Miss Edwards of Bedford, by whom he had a son Philip (1752), who by a curious history became seventh (and last) baronet.

Anesley, Mark: son of William, armiger: born at Gallowhill, Northumb^d^. School: Morpeth, under M^r^ Carey. Admitted pensioner under his uncle M^r^ Anesley 9 May 1720. Age not given.

Admitted scholar (Ansley) 8 May 1721. Perhaps he shared his uncle's room: as he does not appear in the Study-rents till Mich. 1722 when he is found as a fellow-commoner "in the Star Chamber"—till Mids^r^. 1723. He ran through his patrimony: in 1750 "High and Low Gallowhill, Foumertlaw, and the colliery and limestone quarry on the estate were sold to M^r^ Cook of Thockerington under a decree of the Court of Chancery for the payment of the debts of Mark Aynsley Esq., deceased." (Hodgson, Northumberland II. 1. 343.)

Mabell, William: son of John: born at Newcastle. School: Newcastle, under M^r^ Lodge. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Atherton 11 May 1720. Age 17.

B.A. 172$\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1727. Ordained deacon, Rochester (for Durham), 1725 Dec. Admitted scholar 8 May 1721. Resided till Mich. 1728: although on 20 Jan. 172$\frac{6}{7}$ he received a lease of the tithes of Hapton for seven years with "additional covenants" (he not being a Fellow) viz. "that he resides upon the Place and serves the Cure in Person, or that he shall appoint a Curate who shall be approved by the Ordinary and the College, and that during this term he shall not accept of any Preferment or Cure beyond the distance of 5 miles." Apparently he had a curate. On 17 Oct. 1727 he was appointed Rhetorick Lecturer: but there is no evidence that he resided. In 1733 Atherton's Northumberland fellowship was vacant and on 8 June 1733 Mabell was elected Fellow, but not admitted till August 9—an indication that he was not in residence. He signs only thrice as a Fellow. On 8 May 1735 "the Master declared M^r^ Mabell's Fellowship void—he not being a Priest as the Statutes prescribe." Against this sentence M^r^ Mabell appealed on May 22 to D^r^ Andrew Snape, Provost of King's and Visitor, the Master being Vice-Chancellor for the year. On 12 Sept. in the same year "M^r^ Thomas acquainted the Master that he had received a letter from M^r^ Mabell's brother informing them that he was dead."

Dalton, D'Arcy: son of D'Arcy, rector of Cold Aston, Yorks. School: Beighton, Derbs., under M^r^ Drake. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Hutton 7 June 1720. Age not given.

B.A. 1724. Admitted scholar 8 May 1721, as of Lincs.; probably he was born at Binbrooke of which his father (adm^d^. 1688) was vicar from 1699 to about 1704. He resided till Lady Day 1726. His younger brother, Charles, admitted 1730.

Ellyson, Thomas: son of Thomas (rector of Ashton, Cheshire): born at Pulfordram [? Pulford], Cheshire. School not given. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Atherton 10 June 1720. Age, about 19.

LL.B. 1725. Admitted scholar (Ellison) 8 May 1721.

Neville (Nevile), William: son of Robert, clerk: born at Newton, Bucks. School: Northampton, under M^{r} Styles. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Atherton 14 June 1720. Age 19.

B.A. 172$\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1727; incorporated Oxford 1728. Admitted scholar 8 May 1721. Elected Fellow, succeeding Tho. Husband 27 Apr. 1724. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1725 March; also priest. Praelector, Junior Dean, Walkhampton Preacher, and Steward, 1726. Bunting Preacher 1727. Knapwell Preacher 1728. Senior Dean 1732. Senior Greek Lecturer and Mildmay Preacher 1733, 1734. Senior Dean 1736. Taxor in the University 1728. Scrutator 1737. Had a few pupils from 1737. Presented by the Crown to the vicarage of Astwood, Bucks., on the decease of his father Robert, by dispensation from Lambeth 8 Aug. 1726: his successor was not appointed till 1752 (Lipscombe, 4. 6): but it is quite clear that he resided at Cambridge till 12 March 1742 when he resigned his Fellowship. He was appointed curate of Fen Drayton 2 July 1733, and held the curacy till he left Cambridge for Astwood. Cole mentions him as "a large, raw-boned jolly man who loved good eating and drinking: I think had the living of Astwood in Bucks. and died a young man, of no very good character": as Cole is wide of the mark as to his age when he died (if he died in 1752), we may hope he was also as to his character.

Byam, William: son of William: born at Antegoa [Antigua]. School: Westminster, under D^{r} Friend. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Atherton 21 June 1720. Age 17.

B.A. 172$\frac{3}{4}$. Admitted scholar (as of Middlesex) 8 May 1721. Admitted at Gray's Inn 20 Aug. 1722 as from "Christ Church," Cambridge. He returned to Antigua and died there childless. According to Oliver's History of Antigua which gives very careful pedigrees there was a second Will. Byam at Christ's at this time: the son of Edward Byam and Lydia Martin, brother of Francis (1726) and half-brother of Edward (1708). He may have been admitted in one of the missing years, 1717–19, and never matriculated: but I do not find him in the Study-rents and I suspect that for once the History is wrong. This Will. was of Byams, Antigua and of Westborne House, Paddington, Midds.: a Colonel in the army and a Member of the Council of Antigua. He married Anne, daughter of Col. John Gunthorpe of Antigua: died at Barbuda 26 Sept. 1755 and was buried at Antigua (Hist. 1. 98). A son Samuel was fellow-commoner of Sidney 1760.

Carter, Samuel: [father not given]: born at Naseby, Northants. School: Monkwearmouth, under M^{r} Simcoe. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Atherton 22 June 1720. Age not given.

Admitted scholar 8 May 1721. Resided till Mich. 1723, when he migrated (I suppose) to Trinity and was there B.A. 172$\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1730. One Sam. Carter, "late of Christ's," was ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1734 Dec. and licensed to Winnington, Beds.: priest 1736 Sept.

Umfreville, Charles: son of D^{r} William, clerk: born in London. School: Newcastle, under M^{r} Lodge. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Atherton 2 July 1720. Age 20.

LL.B. 1726. Admitted scholar (Middlesex) 8 May 1721. Son of Will. Umfreville, D.D. ($16\frac{6}{7}\frac{9}{0}$) whom see. Ordained deacon while still an undergraduate, London, 1723 Sept.: priest 1724 Sept. Licensed to officiate as curate of Charleton (or elsewhere in the diocese of Rochester) 10 Oct. 1724: with stipend of £30. Vicar of Bradfield, Essex. Had dispensation 14 April 1729 to hold also the vicarage of Acton, Suffolk, distant 18 miles. Held it till 1774, when, I suppose, he died.

Hutchinson, Edward: [father not given]: born at Clipston, Northants. School not given. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Atherton 7 July 1720. Age not given.

Admitted scholar 8 May 1721. Resided till Mich. 1723. Probably father of Thomas (1755) who was born at Clipston.

Games, William Langhorne: no facts. Admitted 19 July 1720.

He was a fellow-commoner, pupil of M^{r} Atherton: and resided till Lady Day 1722. One of these names was lord of the manor of Hampstead, and died 1732 (Gent. Mag.).

Clennell, Thomas: [father not given]: of Clennell, Northumberland. School: Alnwick, under M^{r} Walton. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Atherton 12 Sept. 1720. Age 19.

Resided till Mids. 1722. Clennel is near Harbottle, which the family seem to have owned. Perhaps the Tho. Clennell who died at Lilburn, Northumberland 1763 (Gent. Mag.).

Preston, John: [father not given]: of Yorks. School: Giggleswick. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Atherton 29 Oct. 1720. Age not given.

B.A. $172\frac{4}{5}$. Admitted scholar 8 May 1721. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1725 Sept.: licensed to Drayton Parslow, Bucks.: priest 1730 May. Presented to Bow Brickhill, Bucks. 7 June 1742 in trust for the nephew of the patron: resigned Oct. 1744.

Barlow, Thomas: son of John, clerk: born at Marwood, Lancs. School not given. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Cockshutt 31 Oct. 1720. Age not given.

B.A. $172\frac{4}{5}$. Admitted scholar 8 May 1721. I think that Marwood is a miscopying by a careless Praelector of Harwood. John Barlow, born at Harwood near Blackburn and educated at Glasgow was incumbent of Colne, Lancs. 1709–1727, when he died on April 9: and his son Thomas was presented to the living, but survived his father only three weeks: he was buried at Colne 5 May 1727. (Whitaker, Whalley, 2. 249.) Perhaps he is the Tho. Barlow who was curate of Radcliffe, Manchester on 25 Nov. 1726. (Lives of Fellows and of the College of Manchester, II. 224.)

Walton, John: [father not given]: of Northumberland. School: Alnwick. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Atherton 1720. Age not given.

Admitted scholar (as of Westmoreland) 8 May 1721. Resided till Mich. 1722.

Law, Edmund:

Son of Edm. Law, clerk and curate of Staveley for 49 years: born at Cartmell in Furness: educated there by M^{r} Roskell and at Kendall by M^{r} Towers. Admitted sizar at St John's under D^{r} Edmundson 6 Apr. 1720: aged about 17.

B.A. (St John's) $172\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. (Christ's) 1727; D.D. (Christ's) 1749. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1726 June; licensed to St Mary, Retford: priest, 1727 Sept. Elected Fellow, in place of M^{r} Edwards, 14 Jan. 172$\frac{6}{7}$. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, Bunting and Walkhampton Preacher, and Steward 1730. Senior Dean 1734. Senior Greek Lecturer and Mildmay Preacher 1737. Was appointed Hebrew Lecturer (not an annual appointment) 14 Nov. 1727. Ceased to sign after May 1730. Presented by the University to Greystoke, Cumberland 1737—but owing to a dispute as to the title, not instituted till 1 June 1739: in 1739 he left Cambridge. While resident he took pupils 1729–39, but Cartwright (and afterwards Trant) had many more: also he was one of the four editors of Stephens' Thesaurus. Resigned his Fellowship 14 June 1740 and on June 24 married Mary Christian of Unerigg. Rector of Salkeld and Archdeacon of Carlisle 21 Apr. 1743–56. Master of Peterhouse (by the support of Bp. Keene, later Master) 1756–1787. In 1756, E. Pyle wrote (Memoirs of a Royal Chaplain, page 280) that Law had "quite won the heart of the Duke of Newcastle by the last Cambridge Address...and the Duke has assured him of his Majesty's favour in a very handsome letter which I have seen....So D^{r} Law will be L. Marg. Professor." Such were the ways of the time. But Prof. D^{r} Newcome had nine years more of it. Knightbridge Professor 1764–9. Prebendary of Lichfield (Sandiacre) and Archdeacon of Stafford 1763–69 (collated by Bp. Cornwallis, his old pupil): of Lincoln 1764 and of Durham 1767. Bishop of Carlisle 24 Feb. 176$\frac{8}{9}$, retaining the Mastership (he resided at Cambridge in term time and at Rose Castle in the Long Vacation)—also the rectory of Greystoke but he resigned everything else. Died at Rose Castle 14 Aug. 1787: buried in Carlisle Cathedral (M.I.). Of his four sons, John was admitted 1762, afterwards Fellow, and Bishop of Clonfert and of Elphin. The appreciation of him by Paley, which is well known, is printed in the Johnian Adm^{n}. Book, p. 332, by R. F. Scott. It dwells on his cheerfulness, gentleness (to a fault when found in a Bishop), candour and love of liberty. "He was zealously attached to religious liberty, because he thought that it leads to truth; but from his heart he loved peace." He valued his Bishopric chiefly as a proof that in England "decent freedom of enquiry was not discouraged." A full list of his works is given by R. F. Scott (supra). His book Considerations of the State of the World with regard to the Theory of Religion, published 1745, works out the view that revelation is progressive—so much being given at each time as men are able to receive. When a Bishop in 1774 he boldly supported the attempt to abolish, or relax subscription to the formularies of the church: first started by Archdeacon Blackburne, two years earlier: Law both preached at St Mary's "a noble sermon," and also published a pamphlet Considerations on the Propriety of requiring subscription to Articles of Faith, which gave rise to some controversy. His last publication was his edition of John Locke's works in three volumes. (Baker-Mayor, Hist. of St John's: D.N.B.: St John's Admission Book (ut supra).)

Wadesworth, Charles:

B.A. 172$\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. (Clare where he was a Fellow) 1728. Admitted (Wadsworth) at St John's 29 Nov. 1720, aged 19, son of Nat. Wadsworth, clerk, born at Brooke, Norwich. When he migrated to Christ's does not appear: he is not in the Study-rents. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1725 June; licensed to Howe where his father was rector: priest, York, 1726 Sept.: curate of Kirk Smeaton, with a stipend of £30 a year. Rector of Sizeland, Norfolk 10 May 1728–33; also of Howe 15 Jan. 172$\frac{8}{9}$. Rector of Yelverton 20 Nov. 1733: of Little Poringland 22 July 1734. Held these last three livings till 1767. His son, Geo. Rob. Wadsworth, admitted at Caius 174$\frac{7}{8}$. (See Scott, Johnian Adm^{n}. Book, p. 336.)

Dowthwaite, Joseph:
Appears in the Scholars' Book 8 May 1721, as admitted a Westmoreland scholar. He is not in the College Admission book, nor (so far as I have seen) in the University Matriculation-register. He appears in Study-rents from Mich. 1720 to Mich. 1723, but may not have resided all the time. He was ordained as "literatus e Coll. Xti" at York, deacon 1721 June; priest 1723 June. Rector of Feliskirk near Thirsk 27 Apr. 1739—sent by the Archbishop: seems to have held it till 1765. A family of the name at Westholme, Durham is given by Surtees (4. 421) but the pedigree stops too early.

Skerratt, John:
M.A. 1727. Matric^{d}. at Brasenose, Oxford 16 Apr. 1709, aged 17—son of Edw. of Newall, Cheshire, pleb. B.A. 1712. Incorporated, and M.A. (Christ's) 1727. Vicar of Kingston by Taunton, Somerset 1716. Rector of Brereton, Chesh. 1731. Vicar of Biddulph, Staffs. 1733 (Al. Ox. 1361).

Thorpe, Thomas:
M.A. 1727. Son of Stephen of Collumpton, Devon; matric^{d} at Exeter, Oxford 28 Mar. 1713, aged 19. B.A., not given in Foster Al. Ox. 1483. Incorp^{d}. and M.A. (Christ's) 1727.

Pell, William: son of John: born at Scottlethorp [? Skellingthorpe], Lincs. School: not given. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Atherton 25 Jan. $172\frac{0}{1}$. Age 18.
B.A. $172\frac{4}{5}$. Admitted scholar 8 May 1721.

Lutton, Ralph: son of Thomas: born at York. School: Wakefield, under M^{r} Clark. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Hutton 25 Feb. $172\frac{0}{1}$. Age not given.
Born 23 Oct. 1701, at Knapton, York, son of Thomas Lutton (advocate in the Spiritual Court at York; buried at St Maurice 1719) and of Arabella Thynne of Egham, Surrey. Resided till Xmas 1722. Admitted at Lincoln's Inn 3 Apr. 1721. Married Constance, daughter of Sir Francis Boyton, by whom he had a son Ralph and three daughters (Hunter, F.M.G. 950). He was probably grandson of Phil. Lutton ($163\frac{0}{1}$) whose father was a Ralph.

Birch, William: son of Thomas: born at Goodhurst [? Goudhurst], Kent. School: not given. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Atherton 27 Mar. 1721. Age 18.
B.A. (Byrch) $172\frac{4}{5}$. Admitted scholar (Birch) 8 May 1721. Ordained deacon (Byrch), Rochester, 1726 Sept.: licensed to Addington. Minister of St Mary, Dover (Gent. Mag. 112. 48). Rector of Mongeham, Kent. Married Jane, daughter of Will. Dejovas, by whom he had a son Will. Dejovas Byrch, B.A. 1750 and Fellow of Sidney (Arch. Cant. 15. 358). Died at Bath 24 June 1756 (Gent. Mag. p. 314).

Kentish, Thomas: son of Thomas: born at Baldock, Herts. School: Bunningfor [Buntingford], under M^{r} England. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Atherton 1 May 1721. Age 16.
M.B. 1726. His father was Sheriff of Hunts. 1723. Admitted scholar 8 May 1721. Resided till Mich. 1726. (Gent. Mag. 1787, p. 1126.)

Garforth, William: [father not given]: of Yorks. School: not given. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Wilkinson 5 May 1721. Age 18.
B.A. $172\frac{4}{5}$. Admitted scholar 8 May 1721 (apparently as a Bunting Exhibitioner) again 13 Nov. 1723 (but not in the list of scholars by counties).

Vicar of Helpstone 1731–4. Vicar of Wiggenhall St Mary, Norfolk 1733–56 (Blomefield, 4. 760). Rector of Bacton, Norfolk 1744–55 (ib. 4. 52). A Rev. M^{r} Garforth died at York 1761 (Gent. Mag. p. 94).

Currer, Major: [father not given]: born at Langber [Langbar], Yorks. School: not given. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Wilkinson 5 May 1721. Age 19.

B.A. 172$\frac{4}{5}$. Admitted scholar 8 May 1721. Ordained deacon, Peterborough, 1726 Sept.: licensed to Helpstone: priest November: and vicar of Helpstone. Buried there 1731 (Sweeting, Peterborough Churches, 93).

Currer, Josias: [father not given]: born at Langber [Langbar], Yorks. School: not given. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Wilkinson 5 May 1721. Age 18.

B.A. 172$\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1736. Brother of Major. Admitted scholar 8 May 1721. Ordained deacon, Ely, 172$\frac{4}{5}$ Feb.: priest 1725 Sept. Vicar of Stapleforth [? Stapleford, Cambs.] 29 June 1736. Vicar of Meldreth 3 March 173$\frac{6}{7}$.

Mercator, Robert: son of Daniel: of Notts. School: not given. Admitted first at Oxford, then sizar under M^{r} Atherton 20 May 1721. Age 20.

B.A. 172$\frac{2}{3}$. Matric^{d}. at Lincoln College 26 Feb. 171$\frac{8}{9}$ as son of Daniel of Blyth, Notts., aged 17. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1723 Sept.; licensed to Skidbrook, Lincs.

Bellis, Robert: third son of Robert, clerk: born at Ince, Cheshire. Educated by his father. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Atherton 2 June 1721. Age 20.

Cowling (Collings), Peter: [father not given]: of Yorks. School: Skipton. Admitted sizar under Mr Atherton 1 July 1721. Age not given.

B.A. (Cowling—so also at matriculation—carelessly copied into the Admission-book as Collings) 172$\frac{4}{5}$. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1725 May; licensed to King's Ripton, Hunts.: priest 1727 May: curate of Hamerton, Hunts. Three generations of Peter Cowlings buried (with M.I.) in Fen Stanton church: the first being Peter Cowling, gent., who died 8 Dec. 1786, aged 56.

Holmes, Henry: [father not given]. School: Skipton. Admitted sizar under Mr Atherton 1 July 1721. Age not given.

B.A. 172$\frac{4}{5}$. Admitted scholar (Yorks.) 1 July 1722.

Loraine, Richard: son of Sir William, Bart., of Kirkharle, Northumberland. School: not given. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mr Aynsley 3 July 1721. Age not given.

Kept "in the Master's, over the Parler" till Lady Day 1724. Third son of Sir Will. Loraine of Kirkharle, the "great planter." Admitted at the Middle Temple 30 May 1724. "A proper handsome man, of good sense and behaviour" (M.I.). Unmarried. Died suddenly of apoplexy while walking in a field near London 26 Oct. 1738, aged 37—in his father's life-time.

Peirse, William: [father not given]: born at Hutton Bonville, Yorks. School: Wakefield. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mr Hutton 10 Oct. 1721. Age not given.

Resided from Easter 1722 to Midsr. 1723. Thomas Peirse of Thimbleby, younger son of Richard of Hutton Bonville, married in 1700 Anne, daughter of Sir Richard Hustler of Acklam. His eldest son, William, succeeded to Hutton Bonville, married and left a daughter Mary who married the Rev. Edw. Stillingfleet. His younger brother Richard (who died 1759) succeeded to Thimbleby and Hutton Bonville (Burke, Landed Gentry).

Staniforth, William: [father and birthplace not given]. School: Rotherham. Admitted sizar under Mr Atherton 9 Nov. 1721. Age 19.

B.A. 172$\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1730. Admitted scholar (Yorks.) 13 Nov. 1723. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1726 Sept.; licensed to Godmanchester: priest 1727 May: curate of Huntingdon. Mr Staniforth, "late Fellow of Christ's College" appears among the subscribers to Sanderson's Algebra in 1740. On 21 May 1741 £35 was paid to Mr Day by the College, as due to him from Mr Staniforth, when Steward.

Stillington, Joseph: [father and birthplace not given]. School: Wakefield. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mr Hutton 7 Dec. 1721. Age not given.

Resided from Easter 1722 to Midsr. 1723. Admitted at the Middle Temple 21 Nov. 1719 as only son of Tho. Stillington of Kelfield, Yorks. (admitted at Christ's 1681).

*Rooke, George Henry:

Born 3 Aug. 1702, son of Will., attorney, of Carlisle. School: Westminster. Admitted pensioner at Trinity 1721, scholar 1722: B.A. (Trin.) 172$\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. (Christ's) 1728; D.D. 1745: migrated to Christ's 13 Jan. 172$\frac{6}{7}$. Elected Fellow, in place of Matt. Hutton, 3 June 1727. Took a few pupils (mostly fellow-commoners) from 1729 onwards. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, Bunting and Walkhampton Preacher, and Steward 1731. Knapwell Preacher 1733. Senior Dean 1739. Senior Greek Lecturer and Mildmay

Preacher 1740. Licensed to Great Eversden 18 Sept. 1732. Vicar of Little Abington 6 Apr. 1736: but resigned before June 1737. Vicar of Foxton 7 Mar. 173$\frac{7}{8}$. Had a lease of Hapton tithes for three years, Mich. 1739. Rector of Hadstock, Essex, 1740. Proctor 1741–2. From 1742 to 1744 he signs rarely and perhaps resided at Hadstock. On 1 March 174$\frac{4}{5}$ D^{r} Towers the Master died, and Rooke was elected his successor: each was a Whig; but the first was quite free from self-seeking: the College was prevailingly Whig in the first half of the century: the election of D^{r} Thomas in 1754 marks the turn of the tide. D^{r} Rooke was V.C. 1745–6. As such he presented the address to the King on the suppression of the Jacobite rebellion, including "the admirable conduct and heroick bravery" of the Duke of Cumberland. He was "one of the most managing persons among the Heads" (Cole). He had supported the Duke of Newcastle in the contest for the High Stewardship in 1737: and supported him again when he succeeded the Duke of Somerset in 1748 as Chancellor of the University. He wrote one of the official poems on the death of George I and accession of George II. On 30 April 1747 he had a dispensation from Lambeth to hold the rectory of Great Horkesley (near Colchester) as well as Hadstock, distant 25 miles. On 1 June 1749 he became Prebendary of Lincoln: and on 23 Nov. 1751 Prebendary of Bristol, on the presentation of Lord Chancellor Hardwick "to whose brother he had offered an Honorary Fellowship" (? but so Cole). He spent much money on the Lodge, into which lodgers were no longer received, as in the days of Cudworth and Covel, and (to a less degree) of Towers. Even Cole allowed that "he fitted up the Lodge in elegant and good taste": he persuaded the Fellows to let him have the old "Parlour" to be (as it has ever since been) the Master's dining room. He never married. He died, suddenly, in College 7 Feb. 1754, aged 51: and was buried at Hadstock. He incurred the special hatred of Cole, whose description of him as "universally disesteemed by all sorts of people and all sorts of parties" is vigorous: "he had the usual concomitants of hautiness, meanness and servility to an expressible degree, being the most abject slave and fawning sycophant that I ever saw," "from his first admission an abject and servile flatter of young noblemen and fellow commoners." Cole's account probably needs to be discounted: the last part may mean little more than that his pupils were drawn from this class. But it is probable that he was "unamiable and of rough manners" (Welch, Al. Westmonasterienses). He was certainly unpopular in the University: for the numerous attacks on him in the Capitade and in other pamphlets, see my History of Christ's College, and Wordsworth, Univ. Life in the 18th Century. When V.C. he proposed to the Senate to employ the surplus of money raised to suppress the rebellion of 1745 for some purpose which the Senate rejected, and (according to Cole) rejected all other graces during his term of office. For the Orders and Regulations for the government of the University sent down by the Chancellor in 1750, at the instigation as was supposed of D^{r} Rooke, D^{r} Keene of Peterhouse, and D^{r} Chapman (admitted here 1734, afterwards Master of Magdalene), and for the tumult caused by them see Wordsworth, ib. 64–77. Though unwisely conceived they must be regarded as an attempt at reform which was really needed. Rooke should also be credited with the introduction of "examinations"—probably slight enough, and soon becoming a dead letter—which occur first in the orders made in his Mastership: probably he brought the idea from Trinity where Bentley had introduced them. According to E. Pyle (Memoirs of a Royal Chaplain, p. 158)—a well-informed man—D^{r} Rooke made so much interest for the Divinity Professorship, vacant 1748 that Green of St John's who was actually elected could not promise enough without "making interest above to get a promise made to Rook that pleased him as well as the Professorship, for which he is not fit."

Umfreville, Gilbert:
Pupil of Mr Atherton. Matricd. pensioner 1721. Admitted scholar (Essex) 1 June 1722. Began to reside Mich. 1721. Resided till Mich. 1723. Probably akin to Charles (1720) but not a brother: he was of Middlesex.

Briggs, John: son of William: born at Tadcaster, Yorks. School: Kirkby Lonsdale, under Mr Pooley. Admitted sizar under Mr Atherton 17 Feb. $172\frac{1}{2}$. Age 17.
B.A. $172\frac{5}{6}$. Admitted scholar 13 Nov. 1723. Ordained deacon, York, [date not found]; licensed to Ardingfleet [?] 1728: priest 1730 Aug.

Gibbs, William: son of Thomas: born at Ludlow, Salop. School: Whitchurch, under Mr Hughes. Admitted sizar under Mr Cartwright 23 Mar. $172\frac{1}{2}$. Age 19.
B.A. $172\frac{5}{6}$. Admitted scholar 8 Nov. 1722. Ordained deacon, Hereford, 1726 Sept. Licensed to cure of Battlefield, Salop 15 July 1730. Rector of Baxterley, Warw. 28 Feb. $173\frac{2}{3}$, presented by Joh. Hall: gone before Mar. $173\frac{5}{6}$. One of these names rector of Congeston, Leics. 1740: patron, Anne Palmer: died 10 July 1757, aged 56: his wife, Anne, died 1744. One of these names, emigrant minister to New England, received the £20 bounty for the voyage 11 Oct. 1744 (Fothergill, 29).

Vevers, Williams: son of Richard: born at Barwick in Elmet, Yorks. School: Penison [Penistone], under Mr Ramsden. Admitted sizar under Mr Atherton 24 Mar. $172\frac{1}{2}$. Age not given.
B.A. $172\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1729. Admitted scholar 13 Nov. 1723. Ordained priest, York, 1728 July: curate of Skelbrooke. Licensed to St James's Chapel in the parish of Sandal Magna 1728.
? Vicar of Scholes, Wakefield, died 1745 (Gent. Mag.).

Tayler, Jeremy: son of Jeremy: [birthplace not given]. School: King's College School, Cambridge. Admitted sizar under Mr Atherton 28 May 1722. Age not given.
Admitted scholar (Hunts.) 1 June 1722. His name appears in the Study-rents till Mids. 1725—always without charge. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1729 Sept.: licensed to Firsby, Lincs.: priest 1748 June. Instituted to Easton, Herts. 19 Sept. 1749.

Cookson, John: son of James: [birthplace not given]. School: Giggleswick, "probe edoctus," under Mr Carr. Admitted sizar under Mr Atherton 29 June 1722. Age 22.
M.B. 1727. Admitted scholar (Yorks.) 13 Nov. 1723. Resided till Lady Day 1728. Probably one of the Cooksons of Settle. John Cookson, M.D., died at Wakefield 1779, aged 79 (Gent. Mag. p. 271).

Jebb, John:
Admitted pensioner at St John's 19 June 1722, son of Sam. Jebb, maltster, of Mansfield, Notts.: educated there under Mr Hucklebridge. B.A. (Joh.) $172\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. (Christ's) 1729. Migrated to Christ's in hope of a Fellowship (R. F. Scott): he appears in residence in the Mich. Term 1728. He was admitted Fellow (succeeding Mr Simpson) 12 Feb. $172\frac{8}{9}$ "upon a Devolution" [because the Society could not agree: there is an appeal from Tho. Alderson (1725—whom see) dated 8 Feb.] on the appointment of Dr Frankland V.C. with Drs Bentley and Ashton as assessors. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1728 July: licensed to Sandy: priest 1730 Aug. In 1728 applied to be placed on the list of the King's "modern scholars," as understanding French and something of Italian, and desiring a secretaryship at home or abroad (Wordsworth, Schol. Acad. 149 n.). He seems to have resided till June 1730: afterwards he signs only on 2 July 1733: and on 13 April 1734—perhaps because of his marriage to Anne, daughter of David Gansel of Donnyland Hall, Colchester—his Fellowship was declared vacant. His son John of Peterhouse, well known as a University reformer was born early in 1736, in London, where his father may have been then domiciled. Chaplain in Ireland about this time to the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant. Treasurer of Ch. Ch. Dublin 5 Apr. 1740. Prebendary of Ossory Cathedral 1736–40. Dean of Cashel 22 June 1769, till death. For some time rector of St Thomas in the East, Dublin. Resided in his later years at Egham: it is recorded that "at 76 he is as active and vigorous as most men of 40, and more robust (for such is his make) than most men." Died 6 Feb. 1787, aged 82—buried at Ashford (Lysons, Midd. Parishes). (See R. F. Scott in Johnian Admn. Book Part III. 350.) He was a friend of David Hartley the philosopher.

Donnison, James: son of William: born at Gatesyde [Gateshead], Durham. School: Sedbergh, under Dr Sanders. Admitted sizar under Mr Atherton 4 Feb. $172\frac{2}{3}$. Age 18.

Admitted scholar 13 Nov. 1723. Resided till Mich. 1724.

Philpot, Richard: son of Richard: born at Oakham, Ruts. School: Oakham, under Mr Wright. Admitted sizar under Mr Atherton 26 June 1723. Age 17.

B.A. $172\frac{6}{7}$; M.A. 1730. Admitted scholar 13 Nov. 1723. Library keeper. Elected Fellow, succeeding Mr Raye 25 May 1729. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1730 May: priest in September. Praelector, Junior Dean, Catechist, Bunting and Walkhampton Preacher and Steward 1732. Presented to the vicarage of Helpstone, succeeding Mr Garforth 19 April 1734. Knapwell Preacher 1734. Resigned Helpstone before May 1735, when Will. Paley, father of the Archdeacon, began his long incumbency. Lived in College and signed for the last time (in a firmer hand than was his wont) 26 Oct. 1737. Died before 23 Jan. $173\frac{7}{8}$.

Jackson, Robert: [father and birthplace not given]. School: Leeds, under Mr Barnard. Admitted pensioner under Mr Atherton 1 July 1723. Age not given.

I think he never resided. One of these names B.A. (Clare Hall) $172\frac{7}{8}$.

Loraine, Charles: second son of Sir William, Bart., of Kirkharle, Northumbd. School not given. Admitted pensioner under Mr Wilkinson 4 July 1723. Age 18.

LL.B. 1728. Admitted scholar 4 May 1727. He kept with his brother Richard, afterwards alone, "over the parler, in the Master's": but as a pupil, throughout, of Mr Cartwright not of Mr Wilkinson. Resided till Midsr. 1728. Married (1) probably in the same year, Mary, daughter of Ra. Lambton of Lambton Hall, by whom he had one daughter, who died young. Sheriff for Northumberland 1743. Owing to the death of his elder brother Richard (1721) in 1738 he succeeded to the title 22 Jan. $174\frac{3}{4}$ on the death of his father Sir William, aged 84. In 1748 he married (2) Dorothy, daughter of Ra. Mylott of Whitehill, Durham, by whom he had sons, William, the fourth Baronet (1767), Charles (1767) and Lambton (1769). Devoted himself to county business and sports. Died 29 Apr. 1755 and buried at Kirkharle.

Barwell, Simon: [no facts]. Admitted pensioner under Mr Atherton [no date] 1723. Resided till Midsr. 1724. Probably a great grandson of Edward (1595) the rector of Kegworth (1610–39), who had a grandson Simon, born 1662, "bred to the law and settled in Leicester": perhaps the Simon Barwell who had a lease of Diseworth 29 May 1719 for 21 years, fine £519. 16*s*. 0*d*.

Otway, Thomas: son of James: born at Middleton, Westmoreland. School: Sedbergh, under Dr Saunders. Admitted sizar under Mr Cartwright 10 Oct. 1723. Age not given.

B.A. $172\frac{7}{8}$; M.A. 1731. Admitted scholar 29 Apr. 1724. I cannot connect him with the elder Otways of the College: who all derived from the Middleton house. Rector of St Augustine, Norwich, 1730: and minor Canon of the Cathedral. Died 31 July 1732, aged 28. M.I. in Blomefield, 2. 504.

Weller, John Badger: son of Alexander: born in London. School: Felstead, under Mr Hutchin. Admitted pensioner under Mr Atherton 15 Mar. $172\frac{3}{4}$. Age 16.

M.B. 1729. Admitted scholar 2 July 1725.

Gough, Thomas: son of Edward: born at Eyton, Salop. School: Shrewsbury, under Mr Owen. Admitted sizar under Mr Cartwright 18 Apr. 1724. Age 19.

B.A. $172\frac{7}{8}$. Admitted scholar 2 July 1725. Ordained priest, Hereford, 1729 Oct.

Applin, William: son of Richard: born at Staple Fitzpaine, Somerset. School: not given. Admitted sizar under Mr Atherton 29 June 1724. Age 19.

B.A. $172\frac{7}{8}$. Admitted scholar 2 July 1725.

*Thomas, Hugh: [father not given]: born at Landshipping, Pembroke. School: Pembroke, under Mr Rice Evans. Admitted sizar under Mr Cartwright 2 July 1724. Age 17.

B.A. $172\frac{7}{8}$; M.A. 1731; D.D. 1753. Perhaps akin to our Will. Thomas who collected the College tithes at Manorbier, near Pembroke. Admitted scholar 2 July 1725. Elected Fellow in place of Mr Monoux 4 Jan. $173\frac{9}{1}$. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1730 Aug.: priest, Lincoln, 1731 June. Praelector, Junior Dean, Catechist, Bunting and Walkhampton Preacher, and Steward 1733. Knapwell preacher 1735. Senior Dean 1740. Senior Greek Lecturer and Mildmay Preacher 1741 and 1742. University Taxor 1736–7. Scrutator 1743–4. Took pupils from 1738–45, together with Mr Makin: but the whole number was not great. In 1740 had a lease of the Manor and rectory of Gateley, which he held till 1750. During 1745 and 1746 he signs irregularly: in October 1747 for the last time: in that year he was presented by the Chapter of Southwell to the vicarage of Rolleston, Notts. but not instituted till 20 Sept. 1749: by College Order 28 July 1749 he was to hold Gateley as well as Rolleston if the Bishop consented: apparently the Bishop did not: Thomas resigned Gateley the next year. On 30 Sept. 1748 he became Archdeacon of Nottingham, and Prebendary of Southwell 29 June 1749. On 30 Oct. 1749 he resigned his Fellowship having had "a full year's possession of the Archdeaconry." He held a Prebend at York from Dec. 1749 to July 1750. In 1750 he became Chancellor of York, and rector of Wheldrake, Yorks. (worth £140): he was chaplain to the Archbishop, and had dispensation 23 Nov. 1751 to hold also the rectory of Etton, distant 16 miles, worth £130. When Dr Rooke died suddenly Thomas was recalled to Cambridge to be Master of the College: and held the Mastership from 18 Feb. $175\frac{3}{4}$ for 26 years. In 1754 he was Vice-Chancellor: and was again elected in 1777 when he was more than 70 years old: he declined to serve on the ground of health, and was excused by grace from payment of a mulct of £100. On 2 Dec. his successor was appointed. He became Dean of Ely 15 July 1758, and is generally referred to for the next 22 years as "Dean Thomas." I think that he held all these preferments, but one, till his death in 1780: even Cole, who liked both the man and his politics (opposed to the Whiggery of his two predecessors) thought it remarkable: "he lives snugly and handsomely and has provided money for a growing family." Cole says that he declined the Bishopric of Carlisle in 1769 when Edm. Law of Christ's was appointed—Gray, writing to Mason 29 Dec. 1768, says that he had been appointed: a further story that Law persuaded Thomas to refuse it, in order that he might have it himself, seems to rest on the constant statement of M^rs^ Thomas: Cole (who did not love Law) does not seem to have believed it: and says that the Archbishop Cornwallis (also of Christ's) recommended both. He married (1) Miss Metcalfe, daughter of the rector of Toft: she was buried there 17 June 1754—and two children in 1756 and 1758; (2) Miss Grigson of Pembrokeshire. He died at the Lodge, rather suddenly, 11 July 1780—and was buried privately in the centre of the ante-chapel, in the evening, six Fellows bearing the pall (Cole). In Cole's words, he was "always esteemed a very worthy man": and he clearly was popular with all men. He certainly did not encourage reform in the College: but acquiesced in it when urged by the young Fellows, Will. Paley and John Law.

Dawson, Ambrose: son of William: born at Settle. School: Giggleswick, under M^r^ Carr. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Atherton 4 July 1724. Age not given.

M.B. 1730; M.D. 1735. Admitted scholar 2 July 1725. Son of Will. ($169\frac{1}{2}$) of Langcliff, Settle, the friend of Sir Isaac Newton, and of Jane, daughter of Ambrose Pudsey of Bolton Hall. Practised at Grosvenor Square, London. F.R.C.P. 1737: Censor 1740; and thrice again: Elect 9 Apr. 1750: Consiliarius 1755–7, and 1759. Physician to St George's Hospital 1745–60. In 1776 he left London and took up his residence at Langcliff Hall. But the climate of the country did not suit him; and he removed to Liverpool. Died there after a short illness 23 Dec. 1794: buried at Bolton. Author: Thoughts on Hydrocephalus Internus, 1778: Observations on Hydatids in the Heads of Cattle, 1778. (Munk, 2. 134.)

Weller, Francis: son of Francis: born at Donnington, Sussex. School: Tonbridge, under M^r^ Spenceley [Spencer: see Johnian Adm^n^. Book, passim]. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Atherton 30 Oct. 1724. Age 18.

B.A. $172\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. 1734. Admitted scholar 19 Nov. 1725. Resided till Sept. 1733—perhaps later. Ordained priest, Ely, 1734 Dec. Vicar of Hellingly, Sussex 1734. Buried there Feb. 1741.

Ward, William: son of William, LL.D., of Yorks. School: Eton, under D^r^ Bland. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Atherton 9 Feb. $172\frac{4}{5}$. Age 16.

M.A. (com. reg.) 1728. Second son of D^r^ Will. Ward, Chancellor of the diocese of York, and of Barbara Mott of Withersfield. Admitted at the Middle Temple 7 July 1726. Married Arminia Cartwright of Aynhoe, Northants. Died without issue 1739, aged 32. (Hunter, F.M.G. 648.)

Bainbrig, Christopher: [father not given]: born at Biggings, Westmoreland. School: Kirkby Stephen, under M^r^ Pooley. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Cartwright 16 Feb. $172\frac{4}{5}$. Age 22.

LL.B. 1730. Admitted scholar 2 July 1725. Resided till June 1730, though ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1727 Dec. and licensed to Holywell with Needingworth, near St Ives: priest 1730 May, at the request of the Bishop of Peterborough.

Alderson, Thomas: [father not given]: born at Bainbrige [?], Yorks. School: Sedbergh, under D^r^ Sanders. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Cartwright 26 Feb. $172\frac{4}{5}$. Age 20.

M.A. (com. reg.) 1728: why, I cannot understand: unless interest was made in his favour in view of the following matter. Early in 1729 Mr Simpson's fellowship was declared vacant, the Master and five Fellows wished to elect Alderson: there being no majority the appointment went to the Visitor, who on 8 Feb. $172\frac{8}{9}$ appointed John Jebb formerly of St John's (whom see). On 5 Feb. Alderson petitioned the Visitor, while his decision was still pending, on the ground that Jebb had no "natural claim." (He had migrated as a B.A. from St John's before the end of 1728, doubtless on the motion of some of the Fellows in order to keep Alderson out of a Fellowship.) He complained that he had been injured in the estimation of the Society by divers slanderous reports. His petition was supported by the Master, by Cartwright (his tutor) and by Wilkinson, Harwell, Neville and Trant: the opponents must have been Atherton, Raye, Sitwell, Chamberlayne, Monoux, Edm. Law and G. H. Rooke. As above mentioned Jebb was appointed by the Visitor, Frankland, V.C., with Bentley and Ashton as assessors. It is odd that Neville, under whom Jebb had been entered, supported Alderson. Still more odd is the fact that Alderson never took the ordinary B.A. degree but was admitted M.A. in 1728 (as mentioned above), half a year before the election, though neither by birth nor by merit could he have any claim to it. In the Study-rents he appears as late as Sept. 1731 as a pupil of Cartwright. Alderson purged his character to the Society, for in 1731 when Wilkinson died, he was elected Fellow 17 Nov. 1731 and was admitted 26 Nov., a fact which implies that he was not in residence. In 1732 he resided. In $173\frac{2}{3}$ (10 July) he was instituted vicar of Burgh Wallis, near Doncaster: which he held till his death, 1754: he was buried there, Dec. 20. (Hunter, S. Yorks. 2. 486.)

Wood, Richard: son of Richard: born at Askrigg, Yorks. School: Sedbergh, under Dr Saunders. Admitted sizar under Mr Cartwright 5 Mar. $172\frac{4}{5}$. Age 19.

B.A. $172\frac{8}{9}$. Admitted scholar (Richmond) 2 July 1725. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1729 June; licensed to Holbeach, Lincs.

Hall, William: [no facts given]. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mr Atherton 15 Mar. $172\frac{4}{5}$. Came into residence Mich. 1725 and remained till Mids. 1729.

Shepherd, Benjamin: son of John: born at Hill upon Coat [?], Salop. School: Masinridware [Mavesyn Ridware], under Mr Stephenson. Admitted pensioner under Mr Atherton 25 May 1725. Age 18.

B.A. $172\frac{8}{9}$. Admitted scholar 4 May 1727. Ordained deacon, Hereford, 1729 Oct.: priest 1731 Aug.

Jackson, Thomas: son of Adam: born at Giggleswick. School: Giggleswick, under Mr Carr. Admitted sizar under Mr Atherton 12 June 1725. Age 22.

Took no degree: according to the Study-rents he resided till Mids. 1728: but in the York Register he appears as a literate of Christ's College, ordained deacon and licensed to curacy of Kirkly [sic] July 1727: priest 1731 July. Master of Drax School, near Selby 12 July 1728. Vicar of Prestwick near Hedon 1730–40, when he resigned. Perhaps rector of Kirkby Underdale, Yorks. 18 Jan. 1739. Vicar of Burstwick 1758–84, when he died. (Poulson, Holderness, 2. 185, 360.)

Prince, Samuel: son of Samuel: born at Leeds. School: Leeds, under Mr Barnard. Admitted sizar under Mr Atherton 28 June 1725. Age 19.

B.A. $172\frac{8}{9}$. Admitted scholar 2 July 1725. Ordained deacon, Ely, by letters dimissory from York 1731 Dec.: priest, Lincoln, 1733 May: vicar of St James, Great Grimsby 1733–50.

Abernethy, John: son of John [birthplace crossed out]. School: Westminster, under D^r^ Friend. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Atherton 1 July 1725. Age 18.

LL.B. 1730. Admitted scholar (Cumberland) 4 May 1727: resided till Mids. 1732. ?Grandfather of D^r^ John Abernethy.

Parkin, Jonathan: [father not given]: born at Penistone, Yorks. School: Penistone, under M^r^ Ramsden. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Atherton 2 July 1725.

Resided till Dec. 1730. Possibly minister of Denby near Penistone, later than 1751 but no exact date found (Hunter, S. Yorks. 2. 353).

Hesketh, Robert: son of Samuel: born at Bretherton, Lancs. School: Heskin, under M^r^ Johnson. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Cartwright 7 July 1725. Age 20.

Admitted scholar 4 May 1727. Resided till Lady Day 1728: name on the list, without charge, one quarter more. In 1726 he was a member of the "Cambridge Youths"—a society for ringing changes on Great St Mary's bells. (Cooper, Ann. 4. 185.)

Story, George: son of Ralph: born at Abberwick, Northumb^d^.: M.A. of Edinburgh. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Atherton 5 Oct. 1725. Age 22.

Resided till Mids^r^. 1726. Perhaps Geo. Story, nephew of George of Bishop Wearmouth, Esq. Admitted at Gray's Inn 16 Dec. 1725. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1726 June: licensed to Southoe and Hailweston, Hunts., later at Shillington, Herts. (Rev. L. H. Postgate, vicar). Vicar of Lanercost Priory near Carlisle, from about 1728: held it for 37 years, and died 1765, aged 63: M.I. in south wall of church: which was rebuilt by his exertions after it had fallen down. Erected in 1761 a memorial on the north wall to the founder Robert de Vallibus (Vaux) lord of Gilsland. (R. E. K. Rigbye, Esq.)

Dodgson, Samuel: son of John: born at York. School: Leeds, under M^r^ Barnard. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Atherton 8 March $172\frac{5}{6}$. Age 19.

B.A. $17\frac{29}{30}$; M.A. 1734. Admitted scholar 28 May 1729. Ordained deacon, York, 1731 July: priest 1733 Aug. Probably vicar of Calverley, Yorks. 5 Apr. 1742: which he held till 1747.

Watkinson, Peter: son of Peter: born at Bolton, Yorks. School: Skipton, under M^r^ Leadall. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Atherton 18 Mar. $172\frac{5}{6}$. Age 20.

Admitted scholar 28 May 1729. Baptised at Bolton Abbey 23 Feb. $170\frac{6}{7}$. Buried at Great St Andrew's 7 Aug. 1729.

Turner, Laurence: son of Thomas: born at Eaton, Lancs. School: Kirkby Lonsdale. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Cartwright 19 Mar. $172\frac{5}{6}$. Age 17.

B.A. $17\frac{29}{30}$. Admitted scholar 4 May 1727. Library-keeper 24 May 1729, resigning his scholarship. Resided till his death from small pox: buried at Great St Andrew's 24 Jan. $173\frac{1}{2}$.

Grimshaw, William: son of William: born at Brindle, Lancs. School: Heskin, under M^r^ Johnson. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Cartwright 2 Apr. 1726. Age 17.

B.A. $17\frac{29}{30}$. Admitted scholar 4 May 1727. Educated (1) at Brindle, (2) at Heskin, under M^r^ Tho. Johnson (? $171\frac{4}{5}$)—see autobiography in James, Bradford (continuation) 287. Resided till Lady Day 1731, when he was ordained and licensed to Rochdale, and then to Todmorden, where he remained till 1742, married and lost his wife, and went through a spiritual conversion, out of which he came a pronounced Evangelical. On 16 May 1742 he became perpetual curate of Haworth, and worked there in a most earnest and eccentric way for twenty years. His activity was endless: like Wesley he preached outside his own parish in Lancashire, Yorkshire, Cheshire and Derbyshire: at home he got the Haworth races abolished, drove his parishioners to church (with a horse-whip, according to legend) and emptied the public houses on Sundays. Yet he lived at peace with all, and though called to account for supposed irregularity in preaching by the Archbishop, was suffered to go his own way. Intimate with the Wesleys, Whitefield and Henry Venn. Died 7 Apr. 1763, of a putrid fever caught in visiting a parishioner: buried at Luddenden, near Haworth. (D.N.B.: Overton, Evang. Revival, 60.)

Brunton, John: son of William: born at Monkton, Durham. School: Sedbergh, under D^{r} Saunders. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Cartwright 6 April 1726. Age 22.

B.A. 17$\frac{29}{30}$. Admitted scholar 4 May 1727. Chaplain of Newcastle Gaol. Perpetual curate of St John's, Newcastle. Died 17 March 1780 (Brand, Newcastle, 1. 120). One of the same names was curate of Birtley in the parish of Chollerton 1751–4 (Hodgson, 4. 360).

Borrow, Curwen: son of Joshua: born at Hutton, Cumberland. School: Kirkby Lonsdale. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Cartwright 16 Apr. 1726. Age 17.

B.A. 17$\frac{29}{30}$. Joshua, the father, was curate of Aldingham in Furness in 1695. Admitted scholar 4 May 1727. Ordained deacon, Carlisle, 1730 July: priest 1737 Sept.

Gray, John: son of William: born at Burton, Yorks. School: Morland [between Penrith and Appleby], under M^{r} Thompson. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Cartwright 27 May 1726. Age 21.

B.A. 17$\frac{29}{30}$; M.A. 1737. Ordained deacon, York, 1730 Aug. ? Vicar of Steyning, Suss. 1749–57. One Rev. M^{r} Gray, curate of Swillington, Yorks., died 1768. (Gent. Mag. 447.) Might be LL.B. (Pet.) 1744.

Geere, Diones: son of Diones: born at Rottingdean, Suss. School: Battle, under M^{r} Sorsbie. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Atherton 2 June 1726. Age 18.

B.A. 17$\frac{29}{30}$; M.A. 1746. Admitted scholar 4 May 1727. Ordained deacon, Chichester, 1731 June: priest, Ely, 1732 Dec., by letters dimissory from Chichester. Rector of South Heighton, Sussex, with Tarring-Neville 1738. Chaplain to Lord Rutherford. Had dispensation from Lambeth to hold with these the rectory of Pett, distant about 25 miles.

Topham, Edward: son of Joshua: born at Selby, Yorks. School: York, under M^{r} Herbert. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Atherton 4 June 1726. Age 17.

Resided till Mids^{r}. 1728: then migrated to Trinity College: B.A. (there) 17$\frac{29}{30}$; M.A. 1733. Fellow of Trinity.

Stoddart, Charles: son of Charles: born at Bambrough, Northumb^{d}. School: Morpeth. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Atherton 4 May 1726. Age 19.

B.A. 17$\frac{29}{30}$; M.A. 1733. Admitted scholar 4 May 1727. Second of the name, elder son of Cha. Stoddart (1690), vicar of Chillingham: brother of Robert (1730). Vicar of Chollerton, Northumb^{d}. 1733: and held it for 57 years. Also rector of Whatton, 1748–60 when he resigned (Hodgson, II. i. 376). Also vicar of Brampton, Cumberland, 1773 (Whellan, 650). Married Ann, daughter of Ralph Bates of Halliwell. Died 1790. His son, Charles, admitted 1758: grandson, Charles 1790.

Byam, Francis: son of Edward: born at Antigua. School: Westminster, under D^{r} Friend. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Atherton 18 June 1726. Age about 18.

Born 1709, younger son of Edward, Governor of the Leeward Islands, and of Lydia Martin. Resided till Mids^{r}. 1728: then migrated to Trinity College: admitted 3 July 1728. B.A. (there) $17\frac{29}{30}$; M.A. 1733. Fellow of Trinity. Married Jane, daughter of Col. Edw. Warner of Eltham, Kent. Went out to Antigua 1 Sept. 1733, with the usual £20 bounty as "emigrant minister" (Fothergill, p. 18). Rector of St John's, Antigua. Member of the Council. Died 1757. (Oliver, Hist. of Antigua, 1. 96–101.)

Smelt, Thomas: son of Thomas: born at Stockton, Durham. School: Kirkleatham, under M^{r} Clarke. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Atherton 24 June 1726. Age 20.

M.B. 1731. Resided till Mids^{r}. 1732. Probably a grandson of one of the Smelts of Kirkby Fleetham—Thomas (1663) or Leonard or John (1674).

Every, Henry: son of Simon: born at Navenby, Lincs. School: Repton, under M^{r} Fletcher. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Atherton 30 June 1726. Age 18.

Admitted scholar 4 May 1727. Resided till Christmas 1728: elder brother of John (below) and of Simon (1730): sons of Sir Simon (1680), Fellow 1687–1704 and then rector of Navenby, by his wife Mary Clarke of Somerby. Married 1 July 1741 a daughter of Henry Ibbetson of Yorkshire. Of Egginton, Derbs. High Sheriff for Derbs. 1749. Succeeded his father Sir Simon in the title $175\frac{3}{4}$. Died without issue 1755: succeeded by his brother John.

Every, John: son of Simon: born at Navenby, Lincs. School: Repton, under M^{r} Fletcher. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Atherton 30 June 1726. Age 17.

B.A. $17\frac{29}{30}$; M.A. 1733. Admitted scholar 4 May 1727. Resided till Mich. 1731. When Tho. Robinson was elected Fellow 27 May 1731, Every appealed to D^{r} Mawson, V.C., who on August 10 rejected the appeal, D^{r} Colbatch, one of the assessors, dissenting: the decision (but not the ground of the appeal) is given in the Master's Book of Statutes, page 93. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, $173\frac{2}{3}$, and licensed to assist his father at Navenby: priest 1733 Dec. Vicar of Bracebridge, Lincoln 1737. Rector of Waddington, Lincs. of which his father purchased the advowson, in 1741. Succeeded to the title on the death of his brother Sir Henry in 1755. In or before 1756 he sold the advowson of Waddington to Lincoln College. Died without issue 1779, when (all his brothers being dead) the title passed to his distant cousin, Edward. He wrote a curious letter in 1753 to announce the death of his father, Sir Simon, the rector of Navenby. Apparently he regarded D^{r} Rooke (then Master) as specially hostile to his election. He concludes his letter to "its present Head, whose inimitable Behaviour in all its circumstances, as it cannot easily be forgotten so is most heartily forgiven by their once unworthy member, John Every." A copy (still preserved) of the letter is endorsed "sent to D^{r} Rooke, Master of Christ Coll. a fawning hipocritical Rascal"!

Callcott, Francis: son of John: born at Shrewsbury. School: Shrewsbury, under M^{r} Owen. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Cartwright 17 Oct. 1726. Age 17.

B.A. $173\frac{9}{1}$. Admitted scholar 4 May 1727.

Blackbourn, Thomas: son of Francis: born at Richmond. School: Sedbergh, under D^{r} Saunders. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Cartwright 15 Mar. $172\frac{6}{7}$. Age 19.

Second son of Francis Blackbourn, alderman: and brother of Archdeacon Fra. Blackbourn of Cleveland. Admitted scholar 4 May 1727. Kept "in the Master's over the Parler." Died of small pox: buried at Great St Andrew's 29 Nov. 1728.

Makin, Thomas: son of Henry: born at Rattlesden, Suffolk. School: Lavenham, under M^r^ Brownsmith. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Atherton 21 Mar. $172\frac{6}{7}$. Age 16.

B.A. $173\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1734: incorporated Oxford 1741. Admitted scholar 4 May 1727. Elected Fellow (succeeding John Jebb) 13 Apr. 1734. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, Bunting and Walkhampton Preacher 1736. Senior Dean 1741. Mildmay Preacher 1743. Appointed Hebrew Lecturer 9 Dec. 1740. Presented to Caldecot, succeeding Will. Trant 8 Apr. 1741: but seems to have continued in residence, as he (together with Hugh Thomas) had more than half of the men as pupils in the thin years 1740–3. Died, apparently suddenly, before the end of 1743.

Robinson, Thomas: son of Philip: born at Middleton, Essex. School: Bury, under M^r^ Kinsman. Admitted at Emmanuel under M^r^ Arnald 1726, at Christ's sizar under M^r^ Atherton 21 Mar. $172\frac{6}{7}$. Age 21.

B.A. $17\frac{29}{30}$; M.A. 1733. Admitted scholar 4 May 1727. Elected Fellow (succeeding Edw. Chamberlayne) 27 May 1731: John Every (see page 213) appealed unsuccessfully against the election, apparently on the ground that Robinson was not a scholar, but a Plume Exhibitioner: D^r^ Mawson, V.C., supported by D^r^ Ashton upheld the election: D^r^ Colbatch dissented: he was admitted 5 June. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, Walkhampton Preacher, and Steward 1734. Knapwell Preacher 1736. Signs for the last time 18 Dec. 1738. Dead before 29 Mar. 1740. Had one pupil.

Chadwick, Charles: son of Charles: born at Mavison Ridware, Salop. School: Mavison [Mavesyn], under M^r^ Stevenson. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Cartwright 7 Apr. 1727. Age 21.

Resided till Mich. 1729. His father was Sheriff of Staffs. 1719: his mother was Dorothy, daughter of Sir Tho. Dolman of Shaw House, Berks. Assumed the surname and arms of Sacheverell. Cha. Chadwick of Ridware, New Hall, Warwick (where he lived from 1729) and Callow, Derbs. Married Anna Maria, eldest daughter of Will. Brearley of Handworth. Died without issue 31 July 1775. (Burke, L.G.)

Wensley, Robert: son of Peter: born at Walsoken, Norfolk. School: Wisbech, under M^r^ Carter. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Cartwright 13 Apr. 1727. Age about 18.

Admitted scholar 4 May 1727. Resided (but without taking a degree) till Mids^r^. 1732. Admitted at Gray's Inn 11 Feb. $173\frac{3}{4}$. Possibly his father was the Peter Wensley, gent., of Walsoken, who died in 1711, aged 28.

Cockshutt, Thomas: son of Thomas, clerk: born at Cannonhall, Yorks. School: Penistone, under M^r^ Ramsden. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Atherton 14 Apr. 1727. Age 18.

B.A. $173\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1743. Son of Thomas (1696), who was brother of Josiah (1706) rector of Kegworth. Admitted scholar 5 June 1730. Ordained deacon, York, $173\frac{0}{1}$ March; priest 1732 June. Chaplain to the Earl of Bute. Vicar of Penistone, 8 Jan. 1739–61 on the presentation of Godfrey Bosvile: had license from Lambeth 2 Mar. $174\frac{2}{3}$ to hold also the rectory of Ordsall, Notts. (patron, Edw. Wortley), distant 25 miles. On 27 Nov. 1760 he had dispensation to hold with Ordsall the rectory of Beelsby, distant 26 miles. Probably Prebendary of Southwell 31 Jan. 1753–1774. Rector of Barnborough, Yorks. (presented by the Chapter of Southwell) 18 Nov. 1767, as well as Ordsall, distant 25 miles (Hunter, S. Yorks. 1. 379; 2. 340). Died before June 1774. He was first cousin of Thomas (1749) and Josias (1758).

Ash, John: son of William: born at Clapham, Yorks. School: Clapham. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mr Wilkinson 3 June 1727. Age 31.

Resided till Midsr. 1731. Ordained priest, Lincoln, 1728 June: curate of Stickney, Lincs.

Thompson, Thomas: son of William: born at Gilling, Richmondshire. School: Richmond, under Mr Close. Admitted pensioner under Mr Cartwright 29 Feb. 172$\frac{7}{8}$. Age 19.

B.A. 173$\frac{1}{2}$; M.A. 1735. Admitted scholar 29 June 1728. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1735 July: priest, Rochester, 1757. Elected Fellow (Richmond), succeeding Fra. Wanley 5 June 1738. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, Bunting and Walkhampton Preacher, and Steward 1741. Knapwell Preacher 1742. Senior Dean 1744. Took no pupils. On 5 May 1744 he was appointed curate of Fen Drayton succeeding Jon. Wigley. But early in 1745 he volunteered for work in America. On 2 April 1745 he received the £20 bounty as an "emigrant minister" in connexion with the S.P.G. to take charge of the churches in New Jersey: possibly he revisited England and returned to America, as one Tho. Thompson has bounty 20 July 1748 (Fothergill, 58, 59). His Fellowship was declared vacant 21 Apr. 1746. He applied from America to the S.P.G. to be appointed by them the (apparently first) missionary to Africa. "Somebody must be the first one," he said, and "God only knows how long it may be before any other person will take the same resolution." He was appointed 15 Feb. 1751, and sailing from New York reached James Fort on the river Gambia 9 Jan. 1752, thence to Cape Coast Castle on the Gold Coast, where he worked for five years among Europeans and natives. His Account of two missionary voyages was published in 1758. He sent home three native boys to be trained by the S.P.G.: two were baptised 7 Jan. 1759 at St Mary's Islington: one of these, Philip Quague, son of a native chief, returned 1766 and worked for 50 years among the natives and as chaplain to the English residents. In 1756 his health gave way and he returned to England: apparently he was poor, for he received "by consent of the Fellows" £10. 10*s*. 0*d*. On 26 Aug. 1757 he became vicar of Reculver, Kent. A year later the Dean and Chapter of Rochester presented him to the vicarage of Darenth: which he resigned 5 July 1759 on his appointment by the same patrons to the vicarage of Hoo St Werburgh, 19 July. In November 1761 he became vicar of Elsham, or Elham, and held it till his death 5 June 1773. He was also near the close of his life the author of The African Trade for Negro Slaves shewn to be consistent with the Principles of Humanity and with the Laws of Revealed Religion, 1772: in which "without considering the subject very deeply, he draws his arguments from Aristotle and his illustrations from the Pentateuch." (D.N.B.)

Wanley, Francis: son of William: born at Marske, Richmondshire. School: Kirkleatham, under Mr Clark. Admitted pensioner under Mr Cartwright 9 Mar. 172$\frac{7}{8}$. Age 19.

B.A. 173$\frac{1}{2}$; M.A. 1735; D.D. 1748. Baptised at Marske 25 Apr. 1709, son of Will. Wanley and Anne Fowle (Arch. Æliana, 5. 17). Admitted scholar 5 June 1730. Elected Fellow (Richmond) in place of Tho. Alderson, 24 July 1734. He held no College office, except that of Custos cistae (the tenure of which I have frequently omitted); and he took no pupils: apparently he ceased to reside after Jan. 173$\frac{6}{7}$; on 3 May 1738 he resigned his Fellowship. He married a daughter of Sir Hen. Goodrick of Ribstone—but I have not found the date. In 1744 became vicar of Aldborough, Yorks., which he resigned on his appointment to the rectory of Stokesley in Cleveland 1750–91.

Preferment came thick upon him. He was Chaplain to Archbishop Hutton; and on 21 June 1745 he became prebendary of Hereford; on 1 Dec. 1749 prebendary of York (and Chancellor for one year when he made way for Hugh Thomas): on 13 Aug. 1750, dean of the Collegiate Church of Ripon—all which appointments he held till his death. Despite of these he fell into money difficulties, and retired for a time to the Continent. On his return he found the deanery occupied by a residentiary Canon, who declined to make way for him. Accordingly he took a house in Kirkgate, Ripon, and lived there assisted with money by friends: and there he died 9 July 1791, his life having not been shortened by his troubles. (See Canon Raine, "Marske" in Yorks. Arch. Journal, 6. 200, also Arch. Æliana, 5. 17.)

Bridgman, William: eldest son of Orlando, armiger: born at Combes, Suffolk. Kept two years at Trinity. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Rooke 29 Mar. 1728. Age not given.

Admitted at the Middle Temple 8 Sept. 1721. Resided till Lady Day 1732. Descended from John Bridgman, Bishop of Chester 1618–52: whose son Sir Orlando was active under Charles I and held the Great Seal under Charles II: his son Sir John was father of Orlando, the father of William by Catherine, daughter of Will. Bridgman of Combes. Will. Bridgman died at Paris unmarried 17 Aug. 1737. (Foster, Lancs. Ped.: Collins and Kimber both say that there was no son of the marriage.)

Bache, Henry: son of — Bache, clerk. Migrated from Trinity, and admitted pensioner under M^{r} Cartwright 29 Mar. 1728. Age not given.

Resided till Lady Day 1730. Admitted at Lincoln's Inn 3 Feb. $172\frac{0}{1}$, son of Will. Bache, rector of Driffield, Yorks.

Rowland, Robert: son of Robert: born at Bretshall, Derbs. School: Stamford, under M^{r} Hands. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Law 3 Apr. 1728. Age 21.

Admitted scholar 29 June 1728. Resided till June 1732: when he seems to have migrated to Magdalene, where he was B.A. $173\frac{2}{3}$.

Birkit (Burket), Richard: son of James: born at Giggleswick. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Carr. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Wilkinson 8 Apr. 1728. Age 18.

B.A. $173\frac{1}{2}$. Admitted scholar 5 June 1730. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, $173\frac{2}{3}$ Feb.; licensed to Gayton in the Marsh, Lincs.: priest 1734 Sept.; curate of All Saints, Saltfleetby, Lincs. where his signatures appear in the parish register from 1734–1771. Rector of Withcall, Lincs. 22 Aug. 1745: but the only trace of him in the register of that place is in 1765–6, when he baptised two infants and was present at one marriage and one funeral. He was presented by the Crown: and his successor Stephen Fytche was instituted 15 July 1780. He was also curate of Burwell, Lincs. 1751–3. (Information from Rev. F. Freshney rector of Withcall.)

Johnson, Francis: son of Francis: born at Newcastle. School: Newcastle. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Cartwright 2 May 1728. Age 17.

M.B. 1733. Admitted scholar 29 June 1728. Probably the Fra. Johnson, called M.D., who married Jean Huet of Whickham, Durham: and died at Newcastle 1760. (Gent. Mag. p. 46.)

Cook, Edward: son of Edward: born at Newcastle. School: Newcastle. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Cartwright 2 May 1728. Age 18.

Resided till Mich. 1728, when he migrated to Trinity; B.A. there $173\frac{1}{2}$. Admitted at the Inner Temple 22 Mar. $172\frac{8}{9}$. Probably son of Edw. Cook (1677), barrister and Recorder of Berwick. Barrister and antiquary: made numerous extracts from the Chapel of the Rolls, respecting Northumberland. Died an elderly man, without issue (Hodgson, II. ii. 209).

Hope [William]: "iussu regio in Medicina doctor." Admitted fellow-commoner under M^r^ Cartwright 2 May 1728. Age not given.

Educated at St John's, and M.B. there 1724: M.D. (Christ's) (com. reg.) 1728: born 23 Oct. 1701, son of John Hope 1665–1710 (M.D. of St John's) and of Dorothy, daughter of Will. Bainbridge of Lockington. It does not appear why he forsook his old College on this occasion: he sent his son Charles there (1750). Practised at Derby. Married Jane, daughter of Edw. Perry of Bilston, Staffs. by whom he had seven sons and two daughters. Died 1 Feb. 1776, aged 75: buried at St Alkmund's, Derby. (Glover, Derbs. 2. 483 and 564: Scott, Joh. Adm^n^. Book, 322.)

Cole, Joachim: son of Bryan: born at Onibury, Salop. School: Norwich. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Cartwright 6 May 1728. Age 17.

B.A. 173$\frac{1}{2}$; M.A. 1735. Admitted scholar 29 June 1728. Ordained deacon, Hereford, 1732 June.

Dodgson, John: [no facts]. Admitted "cum jussu Regio magisterium in artibus obtinuisset," fellow-commoner under M^r^ Trant 16 May 1728. Age not given.

M.A. (com. reg.) 1728.

Yeoman, Peter: son of Peter: born at Horse House [near Coverham, Yorks., N.R.] in the county of Richmond. School: Sedbergh, under D^r^ Saunders. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Cartwright 25 May 1728. Age 21.

B.A. 173$\frac{1}{2}$. Admitted scholar 28 May 1729. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1731 Dec.; licensed to All Saints, Hertford.

Smalley, James: son of Robert: born at Kirkham, Lancs. School: Kirkham, under M^r^ Taylor. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Cartwright 31 May 1728. Age 17.

B.A. 173$\frac{1}{2}$. Admitted scholar 19 June 1731. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1733 May; licensed to Clifton, Beds.

Hankinson, Robert: son of Henry: born at Kirkham, Lancs. School: Kirkham, under M^r^ Taylor. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Cartwright 27 June 1728. Age 16.

B.A. 173$\frac{1}{2}$; M.A. 1735. Admitted scholar 28 May 1729. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1732 Dec.; licensed to Everton with Felworth, Beds.: but resided continuously save for the one quarter ending Mich. 1732: priest 1736 July. Appointed Rhetorick Lecturer 7 Nov. 1735—after which time he is apparently not charged for Study-rent till Mich. 1736. Elected Fellow, in place of Edm. Law 18 June 1740. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, Bunting and Walkhampton Preacher, and Steward 1743. Knapwell Preacher 1744. Senior Dean 1746. Senior Greek Lecturer and Mildmay Preacher 1748 and 1749. Hebrew Lecturer for two years 11 Feb. 174$\frac{8}{9}$. From 1744–49 he had a few pupils, the last being John Hutton of Marske (1747). On 21 Apr. 1746 he was appointed to the cure of Fen Drayton. On 28 July 1749 he had a lease of the tithes of Hapton, where he may have resided as henceforward he signs irregularly. On 12 July 1751, on the death of John Boldero, he succeeded to the rectory of Clipston: and his Fellowship was declared vacant, as he had been instituted "more than a year," 14 Nov. 1752—certainly he had no ground for complaint. I infer that while a Fellow he had not congenial company in the Society (which was prevailingly Whig) while he was probably a Tory, if he be the "Robin" whose sufferings are described in the Capitade (1750) under the rule over the College by "Gobrias" (D[r] Rooke).

> In whose dark Realms nor Wit nor Learning spread
> Nor Merit sprouts, nor Honour rears her Head:
> Where midst a general Pravity of Spirit
> Poor Robin only suffers—for his Merit.

(See Wordsworth, University Life in the 18th Century, 627.) Hankinson may have been happier at Clipston where he lived 20 years—dying before Nov. 1771.

Haworth, Thomas: son of Richard: born at Kirkham, Lancs. School: Kirkham, under M[r] Taylor. Admitted sizar under M[r] Cartwright 27 June 1728. Age 18.

B.A. $173\frac{1}{2}$. Admitted scholar 28 May 1729. Presented by the College in 1735 to the rectory of Ringstead St Andrew's, near Hunstanton, where he remained till 1761: this was the last presentation made by the Society, as in 1762 the advowson of Ringstead was exchanged for that of Brisley, because of the contiguity of the latter to Gateley which could be conveniently held with it. The golf and other attractions of Hunstanton (150 years later) could not be foreseen.

Sherratt, John: son of Simeon: born at Park-lane, Staffs. School: Cheddleton, under M[r] Slade [(1721), perhaps privately]. Admitted sizar under M[r] Cartwright 3 July 1728. Age 18.

B.A. $173\frac{1}{2}$. Admitted scholar (Sherratt) 28 May 1729. Ordained deacon, Chester, 1732 Dec.: priest (as B.A. of Christ's) 1733 Sept. Vicar of Biddulph, Staffs. 24 Sept. 1733: which John Slade his tutor had held for him—as a convenience—from October 1732. [Foster Al. Ox. confuses him with John Skerratt of Brasenose, afterwards in 1727 M.A. at Christ's.] He began entries in the register in 1734. Buried at Endon 16 Feb. $17\frac{39}{40}$. (Information from Rev. D. Brodie, vicar.)

Craske, Joseph:

B.A. $173\frac{0}{1}$. Pupil of M[r] Atherton. Matric[d]. pensioner 1728 April. Began to reside Easter 1727. Admitted scholar (Norfolk) 29 June 1728. One Jos. Craske M.A. (1694) of Jesus was instituted rector of Barton St Mary (? Barton Bendish), Norf. 1698: possibly father of this Joseph.

Lawson, Peter:

B.A. $173\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1738. Pupil of M[r] Cartwright. Began to reside Mich. 1728. Matric[d]. sizar 1729 July. Admitted scholar (Lancs.) 14 June 1732. Possibly rector of Ingoldsthorpe, Norfolk, on the presentation of Rob. Lawson, Esq. 13 July 1742–45. (Blomefield, 5. 1286.)

Milman, Francis:

M.A. 1735. Son of Francis, clerk, of Paignton, Devon. Matric[d]. at Exeter, Oxford, 3 April 1718, aged 14. B.A. (Oxf.) 1722. Incorporated here and M.A. (Christ's) 1735. Chaplain to the Bishop of Oxford. Rector of East Ogwell, near Newton Abbot, Devon; had dispensation to hold also the vicarage of Abbots Kerswell, distant four miles, on 30 May 1740. Died 1773. (Al. Ox. 960.) Grandfather of H. H. Milman, Dean of St Paul's.

Partridge, John:

M.A. 1735. Probably son of James of Wormington, Glos., clerk. Matric[d]. at Magd. Hall, Oxford 22 Oct. 1718, aged 18: B.A. there 1722. Incorporated and M.A. (Christ's) 1735. (Al. Ox. 1076.) Ordained deacon, Glos., 1723 June: priest 1725 Sept. Chaplain to the Dowager Duchess of Cleveland.

Rector of Condicote St Nicholas, near Stow on the Wold, Glos. Had dispensation to hold also the rectory of Little Wormington, distant six miles, on 30 Dec. 1734: instituted the same day by the Archbishop, the bishopric of Gloucester being vacant.

Turner, George:
M.A. 1735. Probably George son of George, of Buckland Brewer, Devon, who was matric^{d}. at Exeter College, Oxford 8 Apr. 1712, aged 18. B.A. 1715. Ordained deacon, Exeter, 1715 Dec.: priest 1719 June (Lambeth Register): M.A. (Christ's) 1735. George Turner, M.A. of Christ's, was chaplain to Lord Forrester. Vicar of Milour (Mylor near Falmouth), Cornwall, his predecessor being buried 6 May 1740: a curate had charge till 1742. Had dispensation from Lambeth 19 Aug. 1741 to hold also the vicarage of St Eval, distant 21 miles. Buried at Mylor 3 Nov. 1761. (Information from Rev. R. G. Parker, rector.)

Wilding, Richard: son of Richard: born at Aspeden, Herts. School: Buntingford, under M^{r} Sherson. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Cartwright 7 Jan. $172\frac{8}{9}$. Age 15.
B.A. $173\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1736. Admitted scholar (Herts.) 20 Oct. 1729. Elected Fellow, in place of Will. Mabell, 11 Oct. 1735. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1736 June: priest 1738 May. On 13 June 1737 he formally resigned his Buntingford scholarship, which he held (I suppose) in addition to a Foundation scholarship. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, Bunting and Walkhampton Preacher, and Steward 1737. Knapwell Preacher 1739. Senior Dean 1742. Senior Greek Lecturer and Mildmay Preacher 1744 and 1745. Senior Dean 1748. Had a lease of the tithes of Hapton for ten years, 6 April 1745: and henceforward signs rarely: but his election to the post of Senior Dean in 1748 seems incompatible with permanent non-residence. Presented to Little Canfield, on the death of Tho. Atherton 29 June $174\frac{8}{9}$: and vacated his Fellowship 12 Nov. 1750. He was already vicar of Amwell, Herts., distant 17 miles: as he received dispensation to hold both when he accepted Canfield. He was chaplain to Lord Willoughby de Broke. Wrote the registers at Canfield 1749–1774, when he died 13 March, and was buried there.

Whitmell, William: [no facts given]. Admitted July 1729.
Readmitted July 1730: see there.

Skegg, Ralph: son of John: [birthplace not given]. School: Buntingford, under M^{r} Sherson. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Cartwright — Sept. 1729. Age not given.
B.A. $173\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1744. Admitted scholar (Hertford) 5 June 1730. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1734 June; licensed to Olney, Beds.: priest, 1738 May. Chaplain to the Earl of Marchmont. Presented by Jos. Cranmer to the rectory of Chickney, Essex 18 Apr. 1744: also by the same patron, with dispensation from Lambeth to the rectory of Quendon, distant five miles, 23 July 1744. Married the only daughter of Lord Herbert (J.E.B.M.). Died 1764.

Wigley, Jonathan: son of Benjamin: born at Wirksworth, Derbs. School: Nottingham, under M^{r} Swale. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Jebb — Sept. 1729. Age 17.
B.A. $173\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1737. His mother was Ann, daughter of Jonathan Lee, of Chesterfield, attorney. Admitted scholar 5 June 1730. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1734 June; licensed to Stapleford, Leics.: priest $173\frac{5}{6}$ March. Elected Fellow in place of Tho. Sitwell 16 Feb. $173\frac{6}{7}$. Presented to St Martin's, Leicester, which he resigned before May 1740: and till Oct. 1739 he signs rarely: yet he was Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, Bunting and Walkhampton Preacher, and Steward, Oct. 1738. Knapwell Preacher 1740. Senior Dean 1743. Senior Greek Lecturer and Mildmay Preacher 1746 and 1747. Senior Dean 1749, 1756, [?] 1758. He took pupils from 1739–54: having much the largest number from 1746 to 1752. After 1753 he took no new pupils. He was University Scrutator 1752–3. Hebrew Lecturer in the College 1752–4. On 29 April 1742 he was appointed to the cure of Fen Drayton, on 10 Jan. 174$\frac{3}{4}$ to Caldecot on the death of M^{r} Makin. On 15 Jan. 1761, when M^{r} Cockshutt was dead at Kegworth, it was agreed to present in the usual way M^{r} Wigley and M^{r} Willey to the Earl of Berkeley that he might select one in the usual way. But it appears from a memorandum in the Order Book, that this presentation was not made, as "an instrument found in the Treasury" declared that the College might present absolutely in case the heir of Sir Maurice Berkeley was then absent from England or was a minor. Accordingly on 27 Jan 1761 M^{r} Wigley was presented by the College to Kegworth. But during his year of Grace (between 7 July and 1 Sept.) he died before his Fellowship was yet vacant (Hunter, F.M.G. 379). He collected MSS. of the New Testament: see Life of John Jackson of Leicester, 265, 273.

Bentley, Thomas: son of Daniel: born at Great Harwood, Lancs. School: Kirkleatham, under M^{r} Clarke. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Cartwright 18 Oct. 1729. Age 23.

? B.A. (Queens') 173$\frac{3}{4}$. He resided till Mids^{r}. 1732, during the last two-and-a-half years "by the Parler": he may have then migrated to Queens' College.

Dawson, Josias: son of Josias: born at Houghton Gill, near Settle [Halton Gill, above Arncliffe]. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Carr. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Cartwright 10 Nov. 1729. Age not given.

Resided till December 1731 "by the Parler" till Mich. 1730. Josias, the father, apparently not a graduate of either University, was perhaps vicar of Giggleswick 1719–30 (Morant-Whitaker, 166).

Nash, William: "iussu Regio in Artibus Magister." Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Trant 13 Nov. 1729. Age not given.

B.A. (Pet.) 1725; M.A. (com. reg.) 1728. I find no trace of any residence: M^{r} Trant had no pupils till 1732 (when he took over M^{r} Cartwright's) except M^{r} Nash and M^{r} Dodgson—a similar case. Rector of Great Bradley, Suffolk 1728–83, presented by Stamps Brooksbank, Esq. Rector of Gedding, Suffolk 1738–83.

Phipp, Robert: [father not given]: born at Buntingford. School: Buntingford, under M^{r} Sherson. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Cartwright 29 Nov. 1729. Age not given.

B.A. 173$\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1737. Admitted scholar (Herts.) 5 June 1730. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1737 June; licensed to Colmworth, Beds.: priest 1739 Sept. Chaplain to the Marchioness Gray. He was rector of Croxton, Cambs. from 1743 (at least), also vicar of Renhold, Beds. (patron, Will. Becher, Esq.): this he ceded (Lincoln Reg^{r}.) and had dispensation from Lambeth 7 May 1744 to hold it again together with Croxton, distant eight miles. Died 26 Oct. 1782 (Camb. Chronicle).

Baynes, Robert:

Pupil of M^{r} Cartwright. Matric^{d}. pensioner 1729. Resided from Easter 1729 to Mids^{r}. 1732, becoming "M^{r} Baynes" i.e. a fellow-commoner in the quarter ending Lady Day 1731. Not the Rob. Baynes who was B.A. (Sidney) 173$\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1737: he was admitted there 25 May 1730.

Moore, James:
B.A. $173\frac{2}{3}$. Pupil of M^{r} Cartwright. Came into residence Easter 1729. Matric^{d}. pensioner 1729 July. Admitted scholar (Westmoreland) 28 May 1729. One of these names rector of Tatham, Lancs. 20 July 1734. Died 1750.

Knowles, Matthew:
B.A. $173\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1741. Pupil of M^{r} Cartwright. Came into residence Easter 1729. Matric^{d}. sizar 1729 July. Admitted scholar (Yorks.) 28 May 1729. He is the Will. Mat. Knowles, M.A. (no other at either University) who was rector of the second mediety (the first held by Joh. Alcock) of Burnsall St Wilfred, Yorks., W.R., 1754–76, when he died (Morant-Whitaker, 508): at the Record Office he is given as Matt. Knowles only.

Ismay, Joseph:
B.A. $173\frac{2}{3}$. Pupil of M^{r} Cartwright. Came into residence Easter 1729. Matric^{d}. sizar 1729 July. Admitted scholar (Cumberland) 28 May 1729. Born 1708. A Cumberland-man and a well-known antiquary. Vicar of Mirfield, Yorks. 24 Jan. 1739 on presentation of Sir Sam. Armitage: held it till his death in 1778.

Smyth, John:
B.A. (Smith) $173\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1736. Pupil of M^{r} Cartwright. Came into residence Easter 1729. Admitted scholar (Lincs.) 28 May 1729. Matric^{d}. sizar 1729 July. Ordained priest, Lincoln, $173\frac{5}{8}$ March: licensed to Worlaby, Lincs. One of these names vicar of Loddington, Leics. and died there 23 Dec. 1755, aged 44 (Nichols, Leics. 2. 257). One was instituted to the rectory of South Ormsby, Lincs. 28 Feb. 1752.

Tatham, William:
Pupil of M^{r} Cartwright. Came into residence Easter 1729: remained till Lady Day 1732. Matric^{d}. pensioner 1729 Dec. Admitted scholar (Westmoreland) 28 May 1729.

Twisleton, William:
B.A. $173\frac{2}{3}$. Pupil of M^{r} Cartmell. Came into residence Mids^{r}. 1729. Matric^{d}. sizar 1729 July. Admitted scholar (Yorks.) 19 June 1731.

Turner, John: son of John: born at Lynn. School: Greenwich ("Grenovici"), taught by M^{r} Weston "literas et μάθησιν." Admitted pensioner (then fellow-commoner) under M^{r} Cartwright 9 Jan. $17\frac{2}{3}\frac{9}{0}$. Age not given.
Kept "in the Master's over the Parler" till Mich. 1733. Admitted at the Middle Temple 20 Feb. $172\frac{7}{8}$. Son of John Turner, "one of the Kings Commissioners, now of the Stamp Office"—M.P. for Lynn, three times Mayor of Lynn, Collector of the Port: succeeded his brother Sir Charles, as Baronet, in 1738, and died 1739 (Gent. Mag. p. 47). Subscribed to Sanderson's Algebra, 1740. Sir John Turner of Warham, near Wells, Norfolk. M.P. for Lynn. Married Frances, daughter of John Neale, of Allesley, near Coventry. Died 1780 leaving two daughters, coheirs (Burke, Ext. Bar. 534).

Paley, William: son of Thomas: born at Langcliff, Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Carr. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Cartwright 31 Jan. $17\frac{2}{3}\frac{9}{0}$. Age 19.
B.A. $173\frac{3}{4}$. Elected scholar 14 June 1732: admitted scholar 8 June 1733. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, $173\frac{3}{4}$ March; licensed to Middleton Keynes, Bucks.: priest $173\frac{4}{5}$ March; vicar of Helpston 1735–99: also minor canon of Peterborough, where his son Will. (1758) the future Archdeacon, was born. Master of Giggleswick School 1745–99. Curate of Giggleswick for 20 years (before 1769). Incumbent of Horton in Ribblesdale 1769–88 (Morant-Whitaker, 169). "Altogether a school-master—irritable and a disciplinarian" (Ed. Paley, *Life of Archd*ⁿ. Paley, xxv.). Cheerful and jocose, a great wit, rather coarse in his language (E.P.). Died 29 Sept. 1799, aged 88. His wife Elizabeth died 1796, aged 83.

Stoddart, Robert: son of Charles: born at Bambrough, Northumbᵈ. School: Morpeth. Admitted sizar under Mʳ Cartwright 12 May 1730. Age not given.

Admitted scholar 19 June 1731. Son of Charles (1690) vicar of Egglingham from 1712: brother of Charles (1726). Buried at Great St Andrew's 5 Feb. $173\frac{2}{3}$, aged 20.

Perkins, Jeremiah: son of John: born at Penniston [Penistone], Yorks. School: Penistone. Admitted sizar under Mʳ Cartwright 19 May 1730. Age 18.

B.A. $173\frac{3}{4}$. Admitted scholar (Yorks.) 14 June 1732. John Perkins, the father, was I think, master of Penistone school from 1728. Vicar of Broxted, Essex 2 July 1739 which he held for nearly 56 years. Also vicar of Lindsell, distant about five miles. Died 1 May 1795, aged 83 (East Anglian, 1. 179: Morant, 2. 446, 449).

Every, Simon: son of Simon, baronet: born at Navenby. School: Peterborough, under Mʳ Bradfield. Admitted pensioner under Mʳ Law 28 May 1730. Age 18.

M.B. 1740. Admitted scholar 19 June 1731. Third son of Sir Simon (1680), Fellow, and rector of Navenby: brother of Sir Henry (1726) and Sir John (1726). Resided without any break (1) under Mʳ Law, (2) under Mʳ Wigley till June 1740. Despite his medical study he was ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1741 May: priest Sept. and licensed to Navenby, which his father held till 1753, but resided, I think, at Egginton: after 1730 Navenby was served entirely by curates. Simon, the son, perhaps remained at Navenby till $175\frac{1}{2}$ but was presented by his father to the rectory of Egginton in 1747: he was buried there 1758.

Towers, Samuel: son of Thomas: born in London. School: the Haberdashers'. Admitted sizar under the Master, Dʳ Towers, 1 June 1730. Age 16.

B.A. $173\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1739. Admitted scholar 19 June 1731. One Samuel Towers died 1757 (Gent. Mag. p. 241). (Blomefield, Coll. Cant. 32.)

Goodricke, Thomas: son of Sir Henry, baronet: born at Ribston, Yorks. School: York, under Mʳ Blake. Admitted pensioner under Mʳ Rooke 13 June 1730. Age 17.

Resided under Mʳ Rooke till Lady Day 1733; and one quarter more as "Mʳ Goodricke" under Mʳ Alderson. Born $171\frac{1}{2}$, third son of Sir Henry by his wife Mary, daughter of Tobias Jenkins of Grimston, Yorks. Lieut.-Colonel of the 25th regiment of foot. Married Eliza, daughter of James Button, Esq. of Rochester, by whom he had sons, one John, a Captain in the Guards killed 1781, and Henry who became the eighth baronet and died 1839. Col. Thomas Goodricke died 1803 (Genealogist, N.S. 10. 100).

Wingfield, Anthony: son of John, armiger: born at Tickencourt [Tickencote], Ruts. School: Stamford, under Mʳ Hans (? private). Admitted pensioner under Mʳ Law 19 June 1730. Age 19.

Son of John Wingfield and of Eliz., daughter of Sir John Oldfield, of Spalding. Buried at Great St Andrew's 13 May 1732.

Davis, Edwin: son of Jeremiah: born at Stroud, Glos. School: Stroud. Admitted pensioner under Mʳ Cartwright 30 June 1730. Age 18.

B.A. $173\frac{3}{4}$. Admitted scholar 19 June 1731.

Whitmell, William: son of Edward: born at East Haddon, Northants. School: Guils[d]borough, Northants., under M[r] Horton. Admitted, first, — July 1729, secondly, sizar under M[r] Cartwright — July 1730. Age 16.

B.A. $173\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1738. Finch and Baines Scholar on the nomination of the Earl of Nottingham 20 Oct. 1729. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1738 Sept.; licensed to Beachampton, Bucks.: priest $173\frac{8}{9}$ March. Elected Fellow, in place of Tho. Robinson 2 Apr. 1740. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, Bunting and Walkhampton Preacher, and Steward 1742. Taxor 1742–3. After Jan. $174\frac{3}{4}$ he ceases to sign: and resigned his Fellowship (through M[r] Hankinson) on 12 Dec. 1745. Presented 7 Feb. $174\frac{3}{4}$ by the Earl of Winchelsea to the church of SS. Gregory and Martin, Wye: granted thereto from Lambeth (Arch. Cant.).

Naish, James: son of James: of Middlesex. School: Eton, under (1) M[r] Bland, (2) D[r] George. Admitted fellow-commoner under M[r] Rooke 19 Oct. 1730. Age 18.

Resided till Mich. 1733: one quarter more without charge. Admitted at the Inner Temple 16 Mar. $172\frac{7}{8}$ as son and heir apparent of James Naish of Cavendish Square, St Mary-le-bone. One James Naish, Clerk of Treasury in Common Pleas; died 1765 (Gent. Mag. p. 248).

Dalton, Charles: younger son of Darcy: born at Aston, Yorks. School: Westminster, under D[r] Friend. Admitted pensioner under M[r] Cartwright 6 Mar. $173\frac{0}{1}$. Age 16.

B.A. $173\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1739. Admitted scholar 8 June 1733. Son of Darcy Dalton (1688) rector of Aston: by Jane Hall of York: half brother of Darcy (1720). Rector of Hawkswell 17 Nov. 1737–88 (given as a layman by Hunter (F.M.G. 914)). Succeeded to Hawkswell 1747 on the death of his uncle Sir Charles, Usher of the Black Rod, third son of Sir William (1647), who had inherited it from Eliz. third daughter of Sir Marmaduke (1672). Squire and parson and resided at the Hall. Died unmarried 22 Dec. 1788, aged 75: buried at Hawkswell: M.I.

Herbert, Thomas: [father not given]: born in Pembrokeshire. School: Eton. Admitted fellow-commoner under M[r] Rooke 28 April 1731. Age not given.

Resided till Mich. 1731. Admitted at the Inner Temple 2 Feb. $172\frac{7}{8}$ as Tho. Herbert of Whitefriars, Cardiff. One Tho. Herbert, paymaster at Gibraltar, brother to the Earl of Pembroke, died 1739. (Gent. Mag. p. 661.)

Peverell, John: son of John: born at Huntingdon. School: Huntingdon, under M[r] Mathews. Admitted sizar under M[r] Cartwright 20 May 1731. Age 16.

B.A. $173\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1738. Admitted scholar 19 June 1731. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1736 Sept.; licensed to Woolley, Hunts.: priest 1738 Sept. On the vacancy of M[r] Philpot's Fellowship on the 27th of Jan. $173\frac{7}{8}$, no candidate appeared, and the meeting was adjourned. On the 28th John Peverell, one of the "nominati" appeared and was examined. "Whereupon the Master and Fellows preceded to an election." They elected however not John Peverell but Fre. Cornwallis, the future Archbishop. P.C. of Ramsey, Hunts. 1737–42.

Jenkinson, John: son of William: born at High House, Lancs. School: Kirkby Lonsdale, under Mr Noble. Admitted pensioner under Mr Law 24 May 1731. Age 21.

B.A. 173$\frac{4}{5}$; M.A. 1738. Elected scholar June 1733: admitted 17 Apr. 1734. Resided till Lady Day 1739. Ordained deacon, Lincoln (special ordination at Buckden), 173$\frac{4}{5}$ March. Licensed to Hamerton, Hunts.: priest 1735 Oct. Curate of Ingoldsby 1759; the rector, Tho. Harwell, being apparently non-resident: he was there till 1772 at least, the register of the parish 1772–96 is lost: and he was buried there, "formerly curate," 18 Dec. 1798, aged 89. (Information from Rev. J. Twentyman, vicar.)

Crosland, Thomas: [no facts given]. Admitted pensioner under Mr Cartwright 7 June 1731. Age not given.

Resided as pupil of Mr Cartwright, then of Mr Trant till Mich. 1732: his name is down for the next quarter, but struck out. Baptised 6 Mar. 171$\frac{1}{2}$: son of Godfrey Crosland of Kirkburton, by his wife Mary Wilson, great granddaughter of John Ibbotson (1584). Lived at Preston in Hull. Died about 1777, leaving three daughters. (Hunter, F.M.G. 653.)

Hardy, Richard: son of John: born at Nottingham. School: Nottingham, under Mr Brickhill. Admitted pensioner under Mr Law 12 June 1731. Age 21.

LL.B. 1737. Admitted scholar 19 June 1731. Probably son of John (169$\frac{6}{7}$) vicar of Kinoulton near Nottingham 1729–35, then of Melton Mowbray. Richard Hardy succeeded at Kinoulton in 1735 and resided there till 1745, after which the register is signed by curates: instituted as LL.B. to Langar (a few miles away) 11 July 1753 (patron, Viscount Howe), and held it till his death 6 Aug. 1775, aged 64; buried in the chancel (M.I.): his wife Anne died 1782. (Godfrey, Bingham Hundred, 271, 291, 313.)

Goodwin, William: son of Robert, clerk: born at Liston, Essex. School: Bury St Edmunds, under Mr Kinsman. Admitted sizar under Mr Neville 12 June 1731. Age not given.

Kept some terms at Jesus College. Admitted scholar 19 June 1731. B.A. (Christ's) 173$\frac{2}{3}$: resided till Lady Day 1734. One Will. Goodwin, B.A., licensed to be curate of West Wickham, Kent, 3 July 1738—apparently as deacon. Ordained priest, York, 173$\frac{8}{9}$ March. Rector of Stanstead, near Glemsford, Suffolk 1744–8. Died at Stanstead 7 Nov. 1748: buried 20 Nov. at Liston. (Information from the Rev. G. Aitkens, rector.)

Tripe, Anthony: son of Anthony: born at Exeter. School: Exeter, under Mr Reynolds. Admitted pensioner under Mr Cartwright 25 June 1731. Age 18.

B.A. 173$\frac{4}{5}$. Admitted scholar 8 June 1733.

Podmore, Richard: son of Edward: born in Salop. School: Shrewsbury, under Dr Phillips. Admitted sizar under Mr Cartwright 29 June 1731. Age not given.

B.A. 173$\frac{4}{5}$. Admitted scholar 8 June 1733. From about 1739 to the end of his life he was curate of Condover near Shrewsbury: for the greater part of the time under Roger Barnston. Rector of Coppenhall near Crewe, Cheshire 17 Dec. 1750–1783, perhaps through his connexion with the Barnstons whose family house was near Coppenhall. He died on 30 April and was buried at Condover 5 May 1783. His eldest son Richard (1763) was born there 17 Apr. 1744—and his wife, Hannah, was buried 12 Nov. 1778: to whom her husband wrote indifferent Latin verses in the parish register. He was a humorist:

"he always entered in the register the name of the father of an illegitimate child: apparently this had led to difficulties, for after 1757 he leaves a blank space for the name or fills it up with initials: in one case he has drawn a fox in the margin: as Fox is a common name in this neighbourhood, his meaning is plain" (Rev. T. Auden, vicar of Condover).

Bullivant, Daniel: son of John: born in Leicestershire. School: Oakham, under M^{r} Adcock. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Philpot 19 Jan. $173\frac{0}{1}$. Age 18. [The admission comes last in the year Oct. 1730–Oct. 1731: and would seem to belong more naturally to the year $173\frac{1}{2}$: but the Study-rents show that he began to reside in Jan. $173\frac{0}{1}$.]

B.A. $173\frac{3}{4}$. Admitted scholar 19 June 1731. Resided till Xmas 1734. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1734 June: licensed to Coston St Andrew, Leics.: priest 1736 June. Rector of Saxby and Stapleford, Leics. 6 June 1745. Died 1763, aged 52 (Nichols, Leics. 2. 145, 321, 340).

Procter, John: son of Stephen: born in Yorkshire. School: Giggleswick. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Cartwright 27 Oct. 1731. Age 19.

B.A. $173\frac{5}{6}$. Admitted scholar 8 June 1733. Resided till Mich. 1737. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, $173\frac{5}{6}$ March: licensed to Astwood, Bucks.

Welchman, John:

M.A. 1738. Son of Will., clerk, of Banbury, Oxon. Matric^{d}. at Trinity, Oxford 5 Apr. 1731, aged 18. B.A. 1734: incorporated and M.A. (Christ's) 1738. (Al. Ox. 1521.) Ordained deacon, Oxford, 1735 Sept.: priest, Lincoln, (lit. dim. from Peterborough) 1738 May. Rector of Dodford, Northants. 20 June 1739. Died there 1800.

Cornwallis, Frederick: seventh son of Charles, Baron Cornwallis: born in London. School: Eton, under D^{r} George. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Law 9 Feb. $173\frac{1}{2}$. Age 19.

B.A. $173\frac{6}{7}$; D.D. 1748. Kept "in the Master's over the parler." In Dec. 1735 he appears as "M^{r} Cornwallis." Had a stroke of palsy before he took the B.A. degree, and wrote ever after with his left hand. Elected Fellow 28 Jan. $173\frac{7}{8}$: by all the eleven Fellows present though he had not been present and examined: see Joh. Peverell (1731). D^{r} Towers refused to admit him on the ground that being a peer's son he was not eligible under the statute on the quality of Fellows. Cornwallis appealed to the V.C., D^{r} Richardson, who on 24 April 1738, with D^{r} Hacket and D^{r} Conyers Middleton as assessors, required the Master to admit him—which he did in a form of words concocted for the occasion, on 25 April. Cole considered that D^{r} Towers behaved very badly because Cornwallis was "one of the most amiable men I have ever known" (see the Master's Book of Statutes, p. 95): the pleadings are in the "Visitor's Drawer" in the Treasury. He must have been ordained deacon in 1739 at latest, for in that year he was Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, Bunting and Walkhampton Preacher, and Steward. He became rector of Chelmondiston, Suff., while still deacon, in 1740. In 1742 Oct. he was ordained priest, Norwich, and was instituted (Oct. 4) to Tivetshall, Norfolk. He held no office after Oct. 1740 and seems to have resided irregularly. On 4 Nov. 1743 the Master declared his Fellowship vacant: and so at last got rid of the peer's son. Cornwallis had rapid preferment: in 1746 he became Canon of Windsor: Prebendary of Lincoln 14 Jan. $174\frac{6}{7}$: on 18 Jan. $174\frac{9}{50}$ the King in Council nominated him to the Bishopric of Lichfield (consecrated 19 Feb.): Dean of St Paul's 1766: elected Archbishop of Canterbury 23 Aug. 1768, enthroned 6 October. In 1759 he married Caroline, daughter of the Hon. Will. Townsend:

and had a son Will. who was M.P. for Eye (Gent. Mag. 1804, p. 1167): Ri. Watson (Anecdotes, p. 70) said of him that he "was so wife-ridden, I have no opinion of his politics." The chief thing recorded of his tenure of office (except the repression of the liberal schemes of Porteus, Bishop of London) is his abolition of the custom that the chaplains should dine at a separate table. This suits the description given of him in Hasted's Canterbury, 2. 513, that "he was not deeply learned [he published a few sermons between 1751 and 1762]: had a purity and benevolence of heart which joined to the affability and courtesy of his manners gained him the respect and love of everyone." He died 19 Mar. 1783 after a few days' illness and was buried in Lambeth Church: M.I. (D.N.B.) He gave to the College a handsome gilt cup and cover. In 1754 he gave £100 to the University Library Fund. An engraving of his portrait by Dance is in the Combination Room.

Parkinson, Richard: son of John: born at Whittingham, Lancs. School: Kirkham, under M^{r} Taylor. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Cartwright 24 Mar. 173$\frac{1}{2}$. Age 17.

B.A. 173$\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1739. Admitted scholar 8 June 1733. Appointed Rhetorick Lecturer 12 June 1740, in succession to Rob. Hankinson. "Chosen Fellow" (Finch and Baines) in place of Edw. Finch who had at last resigned 16 Sept. 1746: admitted 24 Sept. Tutor at Gunton in the house of Sir Will. Harbord, before 1752. Elected Lady Marg^{t}. Fellow succeeding Laur. Bailey 17 June 1769. He had a lease of the tithes of Hapton 1 Oct. 1769, succeeding M^{r} Willey. On 16 Apr. 1773 his Fellowship was declared vacant, and he was succeeded by Tho. Parkinson, probably a kinsman. Probably became rector of Aldborough, Norfolk 1747 (Blomefield, 4. 281). He was certainly rector of Gunton, a neighbouring parish 1774 on the presentation of Sir Charles Sanders: and there he died 1800 in his 85th year. (Gent. Mag. p. 699.)

Benison, Thomas: son of John: born at Bolton [Lancs.]. School: Lancaster. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Trant 27 May 1732. Age 19.

B.A. 173$\frac{5}{6}$. Admitted scholar (Lancs.) 29 June 1734. Probably headmaster of Bentham School (between Settle and Lancaster): there in 1740: and still there in 1774 when his son, George, was admitted.

Meetkerke (Meetkirke), Robert: son of Adolphus: born at Rushden. School: Buntingford. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Trant 30 May 1732. Age 18.

B.A. 173$\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1739. Born 31 May 1714. Admitted scholar (Meetkerke) Herts. 29 June 1734. His great grandfather D^{r} Edw. Meetkerke was Professor of Hebrew and Canon of Ch. Ch., Oxford, and rector of Easton, Hants.: a brother, Adolphus, was matric^{d}. at New College, Oxford, 1721, and lived and died at Rushden. See Berry's Herts. Genealogies, 190. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1736 Sept.: licensed to Ickleford, Herts.: priest 1738 Sept. He resided till Dec. 1740. Chaplain to Visc^{t}. Faulkland. Instituted to Ickleford and Pirton 24 Nov. 1748, which he held till his death: but I think that he was also headmaster of Darlington School 1750–5 (Carlisle, 1. 400): though he sent no boys thence to Christ's. Had dispensation from Lambeth 5 Oct. 1754 to hold the vicarage of Rickmansworth, distant 25 miles from Ickleford: this seems to have brought him southward again. He died 8 Jan. 1758. On 12 April 1758 an order was made to pay his widow ten guineas: no reason is given.

Simpson, John: son of William: born at Kimbolton, Hunts. School: Chesterfield. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Trant 28 June 1732. Age 18.

B.A. 173$\frac{5}{6}$; M.A. 1739. Admitted scholar 22 June 1733. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1736 June; licensed to Covington, Hunts.: priest 1737 Sept. Instituted to vicarage of Upton, Lincs. 28 May 1740. He was still in residence at Mich. 1741.

Mason, Richard: son of Richard: born at Gargrave, Lancs. School: Skipton. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Cartwright 17 Apr. 1732. Age not given.

LL.B. 1738. Baptised at Gargrave May 1714. M^{r} Cartwright's last pupil: transferred with almost the whole body to M^{r} Trant at the end of the quarter.

Lightfoot, John: son of Henry: born at Crediton, Devon. School: Exeter. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Trant 27 May 1732. Age not given.

Resided "in the Master's by the Parler" from Mid^{s}. 1732–Dec. 1733.

Withers, William: [no facts given]. Admitted 1 Dec. 1732.

B.A. 173$\frac{6}{7}$; M.A. 1740. Admitted scholar (Finch and Baines) 29 June 1734: he was also Hawford and Mildmay exhibitioner. Perhaps a son of Will. Withers (1692), rector of Thrybergh, Yorks. 1723–49. Elected Fellow (Yorks.) 12 Sept. 1738, succeeding Will. Staniforth. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1738 Sept. Priest 1739 June. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, Bunting and Walkhampton Preacher, and Steward 1740. Knapwell Preacher 1743. Senior Dean 1745: but he attended only one of the numerous meetings before 21 Apr. 1746, when his Fellowship was declared vacant. He had two or three pupils. On 1 June 1745 he was appointed to Fen Drayton, when Tho. Thompson resigned it: but this he resigned before April 1746. He was vicar of Bodley, Beds. possibly when he left Cambridge and also rector of Tankersley, Yorks., W.R. 1752–1771 (Hunter, S. Yorks. 2. 304). Died 1771, aged 56. Married Jane, daughter of Samuel Buck of Rotherham. I have seen letters written from the College by M^{r} Withers to Miss Buck during their engagement.

Carr, John: son of Robert: born at Settle, Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} [John] Carr. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Trant 1732: no month given. Age 20.

B.A. 173$\frac{6}{7}$; M.A. 1740. Admitted scholar 29 June 1734. He came into residence Jan. 173$\frac{2}{3}$. Resided till Mich. 1741 (at least).

Warren, Langhorn:

M.A. 1739. Son of Robert (1697), D.D. and rector of Charlton. Matric^{d}. at Brasenose, Oxford 11 Apr. 1728, aged 17. B.A. (Oxford) 1735: incorporated and M.A. (Christ's) 1739. (Al. Ox. 1504.) Succeeded his father, who resigned in 1736, as rector of Charlton. Vicar of Hampstead 1740–62. Vicar of Dedham, Essex 21 Dec. 1759–61, when he resigned. Probably rector of West Bergholt 1752–56. (Morant, 2. 231—but called LL.B.—a degree which is not found.) Rector of Roding Morell, Essex 17 Dec. 1760–62. Died 26 June 1762, after enjoying an undue share of preferment. (Gent. Mag. 1736, 685. 6: 1740, 430. 6.)

Franks, William:

M.A. 1739. Son of John of Loughborough, "pleb.": matric^{d}. at Lincoln College, Oxford 27 Mar. 1723, aged 17. B.A. (Oxford) 1726. Incorporated and M.A. (Christ's) 1739. Rector of Great Oxendon near Market Harborough for 13 years: died 30 Dec. 1752: so took M.A. at his appointment. Age given as 41—which does not suit the figures above (Gent. Mag. 1793, II. p. 1197).

Hutton, Matthew: son of Matthew, armiger: born in London. School: Buntingford. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Rooke 4 Jan. 173$\frac{2}{3}$. Age 16.

Probably the Matt. Hutton son of Matthew, late of Newnham, Herts. who was admitted at Lincoln's Inn 25 Oct. 1732. Resided till Mich. 1736.

Strode, William: son of George: born at Dyttisham, Devon. School: Totnes. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Rooke 4 April 1733. Age 22.

His name is down for two quarters, till Mich. 1733 but without any charge: so it is doubtful whether he ever resided: the College has a silver coffee-pot either given by him, or purchased out of his "Plate-Caution." Probably a member of the family of Strode of Newnham Park, Devon; but I cannot trace him. One Lieut.-Gen. William Strode, Colonel of 62nd battalion of foot, died at Gerrard Street, Soho 1776 (Gent. Mag. p. 47).

Verney, Ralph: second son of [Ralph] Viscount Fermanagh. [No more facts.] Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Law 20 April 1733. Age not given: and no payment mentioned. M.A. 1736. Resided first under M^{r} Law, then under M^{r} Wigley: he is charged for rooms during eight years till Mids^{r}. 1741: but after Dec. 1737 the charge sinks from £1 to 3*s.* a quarter: and perhaps meant only chance residence. Admitted at the Middle Temple 16 June 1729. Son of Ralph, second Viscount Fermanagh and first Earl Verney: whom he succeeded as second Earl Verney: his elder brother died while he was still at Cambridge, and he succeeded his father in 1752. M.P. for Wendover 1754—the seat for which by his influence Edmund Burke was first returned to Parliament: for Carmarthen 1761: for Bucks. 1768, 1775, 1780, and (after a defeat with ruinous expense in 1784) again in 1790 nine months before his death. His expenditure on elections was equalled by his expenditure on his house at Claydon where in a simpler but most magnificent style he proposed to rival the splendour of the Temples' house at Stowe. Burke thought that his services to the Whig party were insufficiently rewarded, and gives him the character of an exceptionally "indulgent, humane and moderate landlord," and a "protector to all the poor within his reach." But his extravagance ruined his large fortune: and during the latter years of his life he lived much at Calais. Soon after his final return to Parliament in 1790, the bailiffs were in possession of Claydon, and the furniture was seized and sold. His countess (Mary Herring, to whom he was married for 50 years) died suddenly 20 Jan. 1791—and two months later, on March 31, he died at his house in Curzon Street, aged about 78. (D.N.B.: Lipscombe, Bucks. 1. 179.)

Garratt, Francis: son of Thomas: born at Uttoxeter. School: Burton-on-Trent, under M^{r} Jackson. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Law 3 May 1733. Age 20.

Admitted scholar (Staffs.) 29 June 1734. Resided till Xmas 1736: then, apparently migrated to Magdalene, where he was LL.B. 1739. Probably curate of Navenby 1739–41. Died unmarried. Will proved 1772 (Hunter, F.M.G. 467).

Alderson, Edmund: son of James: born at Halifax. School: Bradford, under M^{r} Butler. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} [Tho.] Alderson 7 May 1733, after spending two years at Trinity. Age 19.

LL.B. 1737. Transferred after one term as pupil to M^{r} Trant, under whom he resided till Mids^{r}. 1737.

Phipps, Samuel: son of John: [no facts given]. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Trant 9 May 1733. Age 19.

B.A. 173$\frac{7}{8}$; M.A. 1761. Admitted scholar (Yorks.) 15 June 1737. Chaplain to the Earl of Dundonald. Vicar of Denby near Penistone, Yorks.

1751. (Hunter, S. Yorks. 2. 353.) Vicar of Herne Hill 21 Dec. 1754 (Lambeth Register). Vicar of Silkstone, Yorks. 1757–99. (Hunter, 2. 224.) Had dispensation from Lambeth 26 May 1761 to hold also the (contiguous) vicarage of Penistone. Died 1799, aged 85.

Wakelin, Richard: son of Francis: born at Reach, Cambs. School: Ely, under Mr Gunning. Admitted sizar under Mr Trant 28 May 1733. Age 19.

B.A. $173\frac{6}{7}$; M.A. 1740. Kept "in the Master's in the sizar's chamber" till Lady Day 1738. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, by letters dimissory from Ely, $173\frac{6}{7}$ March: priest 1738 May; curate of Bluntisham, Hunts. Rector of Wentworth in the Isle of Ely 1743–98, when he died, aged 85, according to his tombstone in Wentworth churchyard.

Preston, Christopher: son of Thomas: born at Long Preston, Yorks. School: Skipton, under Mr Wilkinson. Admitted sizar under Mr Neville 8 June 1733. Age 20.

B.A. $173\frac{6}{7}$; M.A. 1740. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, $173\frac{6}{7}$ Mar.; licensed to Doynton [sic], Bucks.: priest 1738 May; curate of Harrold, Beds. Rector of Tingrith, near Woburn, Beds. 18 May 1742: his name appears in the parish register in 1741. In 1749 a Mr Tanqueray succeeds: Preston's death is not recorded: he may have had other preferment. (Letter from Rev. A. M. Dale.)

Hardy, Edward: son of William: born at Park House, Lancs. School: Kirkby Lonsdale, under Mr Noble. Admitted sizar under Mr Trant 16 June 1733. Age 18.

B.A. $173\frac{6}{7}$. Admitted scholar 9 Feb. 1735.

Sewell, Hardwick: son of Thomas: born at Great Henny, Essex. School: Lavenham, under Mr Smithies. Admitted pensioner under Mr Robinson 3 July 1733. Age 19.

B.A. $173\frac{6}{7}$; M.A. 1741. Became fellow-commoner Mich. 1735. Resided till Mich. 1741 (at least). His mother was Eliz., daughter of Ri. Hardwick of Spalding, Lincs. who died Aug. 1715. An elder brother, Thomas, was at Magdalene, and died 1721. (Morant, 2. 273.) Hardwick Sewell probably died childless, as the property passed to one Hardwick Sewell Richardson, a first cousin.

Allix, Charles: son of Peter, D.D.: [no facts given]. Admitted 31 Aug. 1733.

B.A. $173\frac{7}{8}$; M.A. 1741. Pupil of Mr Trant from Mich. 1733: kept for some time in "the Starr Chamber": afterwards a pupil of Mr Thomas. Resided till Mich. 1743, at least. Peter Allix, his father, was the son of Peter, a French refugee; and was Archdeacon of Gloucester 1724, and Dean 1738–80, when Hugh Thomas succeeded him. Charles Allix of Swaffham, Cambs. Married Catharine, daughter of Tho. Greene, Bishop of Ely (Agnew, French Protestant Exiles, 2. 242). Died at Swaffham at the end of 1794, aged 78. His son Charles Wager (1767) and his grandson, Charles (1800).

Harrison, George: [father not given]: born at Barbados. Admitted pensioner under Mr Trant 20 Oct. 1733. Age not given.

M.B. 1740. Resided till Dec. 1739; then for one term as Mr Harrison.

Thompson, Richard Nichol: son of Richard, armiger: born at Coley [?], Bucks. School: Eton. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mr Rooke 22 Dec. 1733. Age 18.

Resided from Jan. 1734 to Lady Day 1735.

Chapman, Thomas: son of Thomas: born at Billingham, Durham. School: Richmond, under M^r^ Close. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Law 17 May 1734. Age 17.

B.A. 173$\frac{7}{8}$; M.A. 1741; LL.D. (Magd.) 1748; D.D. (lit. reg.) 1749. Admitted scholar 29 June 1734. Elected Fellow (succeeding Will. Trant) 9 Dec. 1741. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1741 Dec.: priest 174$\frac{1}{2}$ March. Custos cistae 1743. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, Bunting and Walkhampton Preacher, and Steward 1745. Presented by John, Earl of Buckingham 12 July 1745 to the rectory of Hardmead, Bucks. (which he resigned in 1750). He signs last in the Order Book 25 Oct. 1746 and early in Jan. 174$\frac{6}{7}$ he was appointed Master of Magdalene—though only 31 and therefore ineligible by Statute—by the management of D^r^ Rooke, says Cole, to whom he also attributes Chapman's "marriage to a fortune" and King's chaplainship: his Fellowship was declared vacant 6 Feb. 174$\frac{7}{8}$ "his year of grace after having accepted the Mastership having expired the 9th of last month." Vice-Chancellor 1748–9: and as such took part together with D^r^ Edm. Keene, V.C. 1749–51, in the preparation of the very drastic regulations (passed June 1750) for the revival of discipline in the University, for which the wits of the day held D^r^ Rooke of Christ's ("George Crow" or "D^r^ Rock"), Chapman ("Tom Forward"), Keene ("Mun" and "Acutus") responsible together with the new Chancellor, Thomas Pelham, Duke of Newcastle, installed 1 July 1749 ("Tom Standish, a sprightly volative fellow"): for a list of the sufficiently amusing publications on the subject see Cooper, Annals, 4. 280, and Wordsworth, Univ. Life, 617–32: the University is described as a sick old lady, and the Heads as her sons, of whom Tom and Mun are specially active in befooling her: D^r^ Rock is charged with having given her very injurious pills (the regulations). Like Rooke and Keene Chapman came in for much hard hitting in these pamphlets, e.g. "Tom Forward has to a grain the same quantity of truth and honour as his brother, Sharp [Keene]: but in other respects he differs much from him. Tom is very pert and positive, and sometimes very rude and boisterous. 'Tis for this reason, I believe, that the inhabitants of Bridgetown have nicknamed him Bounce." (See Cole.) Chapman became by the patronage of the Crown rector of Kirkby-over-Blow, Yorks. 8 Dec. 1749. He was collated to the third stall of Durham 12 Dec. 1750. He might have had higher promotion: but he died 9 June 1760, aged 43. In 1754 he gave £21 to the University Library Fund. He was author of An Essay on the Roman Senate, 1750. He is referred to, but only by an asterisk, two or three times in Gray's works.

Wilson, Thomas: [father and place of birth not given]. School: Giggleswick, under M^r^ Carr. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^r^ Trant 1 June 1734. Age not given.

B.A. 1738; M.A. 1742; D.D. 1764: resided till June 1738 only. He seems to have been preb^y^. of Carlisle, third stall, 20 April 1743. Probably vicar of Torpenhow 1743–73 (Whellan, 256). Dean of Carlisle 23 July 1764. He died 1778.

Rector of Hawsted, Suffolk, 28 March 1786–94, succeeding the historian Sir John Cullum, patron, Sir Tho. Gery Cullum. Died 1794, aged 78: buried at Wyverstone.

Carr, William: son of William: born at Langcliff, Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Carr. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Trant 13 Sept. 1735. Age 19.
B.A. $17\frac{39}{40}$. Admitted scholar 15 June 1737. Resided till Mich. 1741 at least. Probably born 1715. Son of Will. Carr and of Alice Dawson of Langcliff, near Settle. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, $17\frac{39}{40}$ March: licensed to Wanlip, Leics.: possibly the man who became rector of Swineshead, Hunts., 30 June 1757, and died rector before Feb. 1760. On the other hand, a Will. Carr was appointed Master of the Grammar School, Slaidburn in Craven 1740; the same probably who was instituted to the vicarage of Great Mitton in Craven, near Whalley 1761, and held it till his death Aug. 1771. (Morant-Whitaker, 23, and 41.) Probably one of these two was Will. Carr B.A. (St John's) in the same year (see Scott, Admissions to St John's, p. 473), and born at Leeds.

The admissions for the year 1736–7 are wanting in the Admission Book. The praelector was M^{r} Staniforth.

Dawson, George:

Matric^{d}. sizar 1735: first appears (as pupil of M^{r} Trant) in the Residence book at Xmas 1735: but admitted scholar (Lancs.) 9 Feb. 1735. B.A. 1739. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, $17\frac{39}{40}$ Mar. and licensed to Sandon, Leics.: priest 1743 May. Vicar of Rushden, Herts. 20 Aug. 1750.

Willey, John: son of Robert: born at Royston, Cambs. School: Oakham, under Mr Adcock. Admitted sizar under Mr Wilding 25 Jan. $173\frac{6}{7}$. Born 19 July 1721.
B.A. $174\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1744. Admitted scholar 15 June 1737. Elected Fellow (succeeding Mr Harwell) 14 Mar. $174\frac{0}{1}$. Ordained priest, Lincoln, 1745 Sept. Custos cistae 1742. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, Bunting and Walkhampton Preacher, and Steward 1744. Knapwell Preacher 1745. Senior Dean 1747, 1751, 1757, 1759. Senior Greek Lecturer and Mildmay Preacher 1750. Hebrew Lecturer 1754–6. He acted as curate of Boxworth, Cambs. 1756–8. Senior Proctor 1758–9. Scrutator 1760–1. Presented to Fen Drayton 28 July 1749, succeeding Mr Hankinson. Had a lease of the tithes of Hapton (same succession) 20 July 1751—but remained in residence. Took two or three pupils in 1747, and 1748. Presented to Kegworth (in place of Jonathan Wigley who had been presented, but died during his year of grace) 5 Sept. 1761. Fellowship declared vacant 28 Oct. 1762. Died 19 Sept. 1789, aged 68 (Nichols, Leics. 3. 858).

Windham, James: [father not given]: born at Great Braxted, Essex. School: Eton. Admitted pensioner under Mr Law 25 Jan. $173\frac{6}{7}$. Born 5 Nov. 1717.
LL.B. 1743. Admitted scholar 15 June 1737. Transferred to Mr Wigley, when Mr Law ceased to reside. Ordained deacon, Norwich, as "student in civil law" 1742 Sept.: priest, Dec.: licensed to Earsham. Presented by T. de Grey to Washbrook, Suff.: instituted 4 Jan. $174\frac{2}{3}$.

Dix, Charles: son of Charles: born at Norwich. School: Norwich, under Mr Reddington. Admitted sizar under Mr Neville 31 Mar. 1737. Age 16.
B.A. $174\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1744. Admitted scholar 15 June 1737. Elected Fellow, in place of Mr Neville 16 Mar. $174\frac{1}{2}$. There is a College Order that on 15 Mar.

$174\frac{1}{2}$ "at a meeting of the Master and Fellows for the examination of the nominati for the now vacant Fellowship, viz. D^{s} Dix, D^{s} Meachem, D^{s} Murhall, D^{s} French, and, none of them appearing, it was alledg'd on behalf of D^{s} Dix that he went out of College by advice of, his Physician D^{r} Mott for the recovery of his health, and a certificate was produced under the hand of his Physician at Norwich, D^{r} Bennet, 'that his present Illness and the Coldness of the Weather made it quite unsafe for him to undertake a Journey to Cambridge.'" The weather improved, for he was admitted 22 April. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 19 Feb. $174\frac{2}{3}$ (by the Bishop of London at St Paul's). Custos cistae 1744. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, Bunting, Walkhampton and Knapwell Preacher, and Steward 1746. In 1750 the rectory of Gateley was vacant by the resignation of M^{r} Thomas: none of the senior Fellows, Jon. Wigley, Hankinson, or Willey, would take it at the sacrifice of their Fellowship: and though they as senior preachers were statutably entitled to hold Gateley with their Fellowship, the Society would not elect anyone on those terms. On Dec. 24, an order was made to present Dix, signed by the Master and 12 Fellows: at the side of their signatures there is written by the Master: "Mem: M^{r} Dix was agreed to be presented though not the Senior on his promising to quitt his Fellowship at the expiration of a year of Grace." He actually resigned 5 April 1752. He held Gateley for 50 years: and in 1796 he was presented by the College on the resignation of Tho. Brand, to the adjoining vicarage of Brisley: the two have ever since been held together. He died 1 May 1801 at Bath, aged 80. He left the College £100, brought to account Lady Day 1804 as paid to M^{r} Walter, then rector. M.I. on north wall of Brisley chancel. His widow, "a lady of exemplary piety and charity" died at Bath 1805.

Meachem, Samuel: son of Robert: born in Essex. School: Maldon, under M^{r} Hay. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Makin 4 June 1737. Born 10 Sept. 1718.

B.A. $174\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1744. Admitted scholar 15 June 1737. Elected Fellow, on the death of M^{r} Makin 10 Jan. $174\frac{3}{4}$. He held no College office and 13 July 1745 his resignation by letter was announced. He had been presented by the Governors of St Bartholomew's Hospital to the rectory of Little Wakering, Essex: instituted 26 July 1744. He died before April 1748. (Morant, 1. 308.)

Swainson, Thomas: son of Laurence: born in Yorkshire. School: Skipton, under M^{r} Wilkinson. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Neville 13 June 1737. Age 17.

B.A. $174\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1744. Admitted scholar 10 Dec. 1740, having previously held a Petyt Exhibition. Elected Fellow (in place of M^{r} Withers) 25 Apr. 1746. Custos cistae 1749. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, Bunting, Walkhampton and Knapwell Preacher, and Steward 1750. Senior Dean 1755. Presented to Bourn, in place of M^{r} Bunchley 2 April 1754. But in Dec. 1755 he died at Otley, Yorks. and M^{r} Tho. Wray was appointed to succeed him both as Senior Dean and as vicar of Bourn. His will was proved at York May 1756.

Jones, Dearing: [father not given]: born at Ely. Educated by his father. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Neville. Age 17.

B.A. $174\frac{0}{1}$; M.A. 1744. Finch and Baines scholar 27 June 1738: described as of Middlesex [was he born at Ealing (Eliensis)?]. Kept in the Master's over the parlour. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1743 Sept. Elected Fellow 29 Nov. 1743 in place of M^{r} Cornwallis (when some "person" who had been nominated 6 Nov. had been declared by the Visitor to be statutably disqualified: no other candidate was brought forward at a meeting on 25 Nov.). Custos cistae

1745. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, Bunting, Walkhampton and Knapwell Preacher, and Steward 1747. Senior Dean, Senior Greek Lecturer and Mildmay Preacher 1752. Presented to Navenby 12 June 1753, on the death, after 50 years' tenure, of Sir Simon Every: and held it for the same length of time. Fellowship declared vacant on the ground of marriage 29 Dec. 1753. Died 12 Nov. 1803, and buried in the chancel of Navenby church. According to Gent. Mag. 1803, p. 1098 he was also at his death vicar of St Andrew, Cambridge. His son, Dearing, admitted 1777.

Murhall, Thomas: son of William: born at Bucknall, Staffs. School: Dilhorn, under M^r^ Slade. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Law 29 Oct. 1737. Age 18.

B.A. 174$\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1746. Ordained priest, Norwich (by lit. dim. from Ely) 174$\frac{1}{2}$ Mar. Elected Fellow, in place of M^r^ Meachem 17 July 1745: admitted 24 Sept. Custos cistae 1747. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, Bunting, Walkhampton and Knapwell Preacher, and Steward 1748. Senior Dean 1753, 1761. Senior Greek Lecturer and Mildmay Preacher 1754–6. Hebrew Lecturer 1756–8. Steward 1762. Senior Proctor 1764–5. Scrutator 1765–6. Curate of Fen Drayton (succeeding M^r^ Willey) 20 July 1751: signs the register 1754–6. Presented to Caldecot (succeeding Jon. Wigley) 18 May 1761. Presented to Clipstone 19 Nov. 1771 and instituted 6 Jan. 1772. But before the year of grace expired Moulton fell vacant by the death of M^r^ Gee—for the first time since the purchase of the advowson in 1736: and on 26 June 1772 he was presented to it. Also vicar of Lakenheath 1 Jan. 1780–84. Died before 6 July 1784 when Edw. Wilson was presented. Murhall was instituted to Moulton by the Archbishop 6 July 1772 it being "in the peculiar and immediate jurisdiction of the Cathedral of Canterbury." Cole has a note that Murhall's "presentation to a better living after having served the Church living at Caldecot has occasioned some disputes between the Master and Fellows." The dispute (see my History of Christ's, p. 256) was on the old question whether a Fellow should be presented (as he legally might under certain circumstances) to a living without vacating his Fellowship. See under Joshua Wigley (p. 245) who desired both. Murhall was content with Moulton.

It is remarkable that out of a year of only eight men, five should be elected to Fellowships: viz. Willey, Dix, Meachem, Swainson and Murhall.

Christian, Humphry:

Born at Unerigg, Cumberland, 4 Oct. 1720: son of John and Bridget Christian: brother of Ewan Christian (1734). School: Appleby, under M^r^ Yates. Admitted at St John's 29 Oct. 1737. Rector of Middleton-Keynes, Bucks. 18 Apr. 1752, on the presentation of Daniel, Earl of Nottingham, but died before he took possession (Lipscombe, 4. 247).

White, Thomas: son of Thomas: born at Tattingstone, Suffolk. School: Hackney, under Mr Newcome. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mr Law 31 May 1738. Age not given.

Resided under Mr Law, then under Mr Wigley, till Xmas 1742. Admitted at the Middle Temple 29 Apr. 1741.

Hall, William: [father not given]: born at Kirkham, Lancs. School: Kirkham, under Mr Taylor. Admitted sizar under Messrs Thomas (sponsor) and Makin 23 June 1738. Age not given.

Came into residence Mids. 1738: resided till Mids. 1740. Admitted scholar 30 June 1739. Died before June 1741 (Fishwick, Hist. of Kirkham, 153).

Wanley, George: son of William, armiger: [no more facts]. Admitted pensioner under Messrs Thomas and Makin 29 June 1738. Age not given.

Possibly a younger brother of Fra. Wanley, $172\frac{7}{8}$ (who was a Fellow till 1738): does not appear in the Study-rents, and probably never resided.

Marshall, John: son of William, armiger: born at Theddlethorpe, Lincs. School: not given. Admitted pensioner under Messrs Thomas (sponsor) and Makin 3 July 1738. Age 17.

Second son of Will. Marshall of East Theddlethorpe, by his wife Frances Willerton of Alford. His age must be given wrongly, as he was baptised 2 July 1719 (Lincs. pedigrees, 650). Died at Cambridge and buried at Great St Andrew's 29 Dec. 1739.

Marshall, William: son of William: born at Theddlethorpe. School: not given. Admitted pensioner under Messrs Thomas (sponsor) and Makin 3 July 1738. Age 16.

Third son of Will. Marshall of East Theddlethorpe: brother of John, above: age perhaps wrongly given, as he was baptised 20 May 1723. Resided till Mich. 1745, but took no degree. Sheriff of Lincs. 1755. Married at Louth 18 Aug. 1757 Grace, daughter of Rob. Cracroft of Hackthorne, by whom he had four sons and one daughter. Died at Theddlethorpe 3 Oct. 1770, aged 47, and buried there (Lincs. pedigrees, 650).

Green, Christopher: son of Christopher, M.D.: born in Cambridge. School: Ely, under Mr Gunning. Admitted pensioner under Mr Trant 6 July 1738. Age not given.

B.A. $174\frac{1}{2}$; M.A. 1745. Admitted scholar 30 June 1739. His father was, I presume, Chris. Green, M.D. of Emmanuel 1717: and his grandfather Chris., M.D. of Caius, Regius Professor of Physic 1700–41. Said to have been twice married but childless [yet one Chris. son of Chris. born in Cambridge was admitted 1766]: and to have died 1773 or 1774. In Nichol's Anecdotes, 1. 694 it is said that he left £700 or £800 to Mr Chapman of Cambridge it having been agreed between them that the survivor should succeed to his friend's money.

Hotblack, Anthony: of Westmoreland: [no other facts given]. Admitted sizar under Mr Wigley 20 Oct. 1738. Age not given.

He resided one year till June 1739: his Study-rent is surprisingly high for a sizar. In 1739 Dec. he was ordained deacon, Lincoln, and licensed to Hitchin: priest 1740 Nov. as curate of Holwell and Hitchin.

Mostyn, Roger: son of Roger, baronet: born at Mostyn, Flint. School: Westminster, under Dr Nichol. Admitted pensioner under Messrs Thomas (sponsor) and Makin 28 Apr. 1739. Age 19.

B.A. $174\frac{2}{3}$; M.A. 1745 (with the note in the Cat. Grad. "Dominae Essexiae Mostyn filius"). Sixth son of Sir Roger Mostyn, and of Essex, daughter of Dan., Earl of Winchelsea and Nottingham. Admitted scholar (? Finch and Baines—the record is defective) 30 June 1739. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1745 Dec.: priest $174\frac{5}{6}$ Feb.: title "his own estate": testimonial from St John's of which he was admitted a fellow-commoner 12 Feb. $174\frac{4}{5}$, and from Cornwallis, Thomas, Hankinson and D. Jones of Christ's. Rector of Eastling, Kent $174\frac{5}{6}$, patron, Daniel, Earl of Winchelsea. Rector of Christleton, Chesh. 1752–75. Prebendary of Chester 23 June 1760–75. Canon of Windsor 23 Sept. 1774–5. Died 11 Apr. 1775.

Brome, James: son of James: born at Sudbury, Suffolk. School: Lavenham, under M^{r} Smythies. Admitted sizar under Mess^{rs} Thomas (sponsor) and Makin 19 June 1739. Age 19.

B.A. 1744 (Mids.). Came into residence Mids. 1739, but matric^{d}. Dec. 1741. Admitted scholar 30 June 1739. Son of James (1697) rector of Great Henney and Great Pebmarsh, near Sudbury: and grandson of James (1666) the traveller.

Chalmers, Henry: son of James: born at Lamarsh, Essex. School: Earl's Colne, under M^{r} Stringer. Admitted sizar under Mess^{rs} Thomas (sponsor) and Makin 19 June 1739. Age 17.

B.A. 1743 (Mids.); M.A. 1757. Admitted scholar 30 June 1739. Vicar of Earl's Colne, Essex 5 Nov. 1755. Chaplain to the Earl of Denbigh. Had dispensation from Lambeth 28 Feb. 1760 to hold also the rectory of Little Waltham, distant 18 miles.

Wilson, George: son of James: born at Nottingham. School: Repton, under M^{r} Fletcher. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Wigley 23 June 1739. Age 14.

Admitted scholar 10 Dec. 1740. Buried at Great St Andrew's 25 Nov. 1742.

Sherson, William: son of William: born at Buntingford. School: Buntingford, under his father. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Wilding 25 June 1739. Age 15.

B.A. $174\frac{3}{4}$. Admitted scholar (Herts.) 30 June 1739. Son of Will. Sherson (or Shierson) ($170\frac{5}{6}$), Master of Buntingford.

Ayrton, William: son of William: born at Gargrave, Yorks. School: Skipton, under M^{r} Wilkinson. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Neville 30 June 1739. Age 19.

B.A. $174\frac{2}{3}$. Baptised at Gargrave 19 Nov. 1719, son of Will. and Anne Ayrton. Transferred to M^{r} Makin after M^{r} Neville ceased to reside. A scholar on Bp. Ward's foundation: but admission not found. Ordained deacon, York, 1743 Sept.: priest 1745 June.

Robinson, James: son of James: born at Ely. School: Ely, under Mr Gunning. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Neville 26 Oct. 1739. Age 16.

B.A. $174\frac{3}{4}$. Admitted scholar 10 Dec. 1740. Kept in the attic "over the parlour." Ordained deacon, Ely, 1746 May, and licensed to Mepal: priest 1748 June.

Hobart, John: son of Baron Hobart: born at Greenwich. School: Westminster, under D^{r} Nichol. Admitted as nobleman under M^{r} Rooke 30 Oct. 1739. Age 17.

Came into residence Jan. $17\frac{39}{40}$: resided till Mich. 1743. Son of John, Baron Hobart of Blickling (1728) and Earl of Buckinghamshire (1746), by his wife Judith, daughter of Rob. Britiffe, Recorder of Norwich. M.P. for Norwich 1747–56. Succeeded as second Earl of Buckinghamshire 22 Sept. 1756. Ambassador to Russia, 1762: where he resided till Jan. 1765. Refused a mission to Spain in 1766. Lord Lieutenant of Ireland Dec. 1766 : recalled 1780 : having been unable to cope with Irish disaffection, though in his office "free trade was granted to Ireland, and a Roman Catholic Relief Bill, as well as a Bill for relieving Irish dissenters from the sacramental test, was passed." Married (1) Mary Anne, daughter of Sir Tho. Drury of Overstone, (2) Caroline Conolly of Stratton Hall : three sons by his second wife died, one in infancy. Died at Blickling Hall 3 Sept. 1793, aged 70. "Fat, fair, sweet, and seen through in a moment" (Horace Walpole). Uncle (on the father's side) of Cha. Hen. and of Hen. Louis (1793). (D.N.B.)

Howe, Thomas: third son of Baron Chedworth : born at Miserdine, Glos. Educated at Mickleton, Glos., under M^r^ Smith. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Thomas 25 Oct. 1739. Age 23.

M.A. 1741. Resided till Mids. 1746 : at least paid the full rent for his rooms till Mich. 1745, afterwards 3*s.* a quarter. Ordained deacon, Glos., $17\frac{39}{40}$ Jan. : priest, Salisbury, 1740 June. Rector of Wishford, Wilts. : he also had dispensation 24 Feb. $174\frac{1}{2}$ to hold the rectory of Kingston Deverill, distant four miles. Married Frances, daughter of Tho. White of Tattingstone, Suff., I suppose sister of Tho. White (1738). Died 1776. (D.N.B. under his son Tho. Howe.)

Thompson, John: son of John : born at Settle, Yorks. School : Giggleswick, under M^r^ Carr. Admitted sizar under Mess^rs^ Thomas (sponsor) and Makin 29 Jan. $17\frac{39}{40}$. Age 17.

B.A. $174\frac{3}{4}$. Admitted scholar 3 July 1742. Probably vicar of Giggleswick on the presentation of Mary Lister, widow, 10 Sept. 1756–82, when he died (Morant-Whitaker, 167). One John Thompson, B.A., was lecturer at St Anne's Chapel, Newcastle, 18 July 1754.

Wray, Thomas: son of Thomas : born at Bentham, Yorks. School : Bentham, under M^r^ Bennison [1732]. Admitted sizar under Mess^rs^ Thomas (sponsor) and Makin 29 Mar. 1740. Age 17.

B.A. $174\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. 1747 ; D.D. 1762. Born 1 May 1723, son of Tho. Wray, farmer, who died in early life. Admitted scholar 3 July 1742. Elected Fellow succeeding Tho. Thomson 25 Apr. 1746. Ordained priest, Norwich, 1746 Dec. Custos cistae 1750. Junior Moderator $175\frac{0}{1}$. Head lecturer, Junior Dean and Catechist, Bunting, Walkhampton and Knapwell Preacher, and Steward 1752. Presented to Croxton 4 July 1755 ; but on 30 Dec. 1755 presented to Bourn, on the death of M^r^ Swainson, whom he also succeeded ten days earlier as Senior Dean : the two posts were compatible. Senior Greek Lecturer and Mildmay Preacher 1756–8. He took pupils from 1754 with Tho. Swainson, and during 1756 with Ant. Shepherd : never as sole tutor. He ceded Bourn before Mar. 1758 : and his Fellowship was declared vacant 18 Dec. 1758. He was chaplain to the Archbishop of Canterbury, Matt. Hutton of Christ's, who presented him to the rectory of Great Chart, Kent, probably at the end of 1757. Had dispensation 2 Apr. 1760 to hold also the rectory of Rucking, distant seven miles : and on 18 April 1761, while still rector of Chart, to hold also the rectory of Wittersham, distant 14 miles : collated to it May 2. In 1762, by a sudden move, he became vicar of Rochdale : where he died 22 Feb. 1778 and was buried within the altar rails. (Whitaker, Whalley, 2. 430.) A pious, abstemious, mortified man, never married (Nichol, Anec. 9. 698). "In 1763 he almost ruined himself by obtaining at the urgent request of the parishioners [of Rochdale] an Act of Parliament to enable him to lease the glebe-lands which abutted upon the town and were required for building purposes." (Whitaker, ib.) This was to the benefit of his successors. "Of weak constitution, of most amiable deportment yet a zealous reprover of vice both in public and in private...

While modest Wray, with silent grace
Just steals a meaning smile." ib.

A squib on "the Rochdale vicar," 5 Aug. 1820, sums him up in one line.

"The Arch-cook at Lambeth four dishes has sent To feast us at Rochdale—how kind!
The first was plain Wray, with a sauce of content."

(Croston-Baines, 3. 34.) The remaining three receive less favourable comment.

Hayes, Richard: son of James: born at Cluer [Clewer], Berks. School: Eton, under D[r] George. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Thomas (sponsor) and Makin 4 June 1740. Age 19.

B.A. 1743/4; M.A. 1747. Admitted scholar 10 Dec. 1740. Elected Fellow (in place of M[r] Whitmell) 16 Dec. 1745. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1746 May: priest, Sept. Custos cistae 1748. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, Bunting, Walkhampton and Knapwell Preacher, and Steward 1749. Senior Dean 1754. His fellowship was declared vacant 18 Nov. 1756: he signs last 21 Jan. 1756, and had probably taken a living, which I have not traced out.

Collier, William: son of Richard: born at Stapleford, Cambs. School: Bury, under M[r] Kin[ne]sman. Admitted sizar under M[r] Rooke 16 June 1740. Age 18.

B.A. 1743/4; M.A. 1747. Admitted scholar 3 July 1742. Resided till Lady Day 1754: though ordained deacon, Norwich, 1744 Sept. and licensed to Haddiscoe and Toft Monks: priest, Ely, 1746 Dec. Rhetorick Lecturer 1749–53. Was the lectureship declared vacant because he had been presented to two livings? Vicar of Stapleford till at least 1777; on 28 Apr. 1753 had a dispensation to hold also Swaffham St Cyriac and Swaffham St Mary, distant 10 miles.

Pym, Edmonds: son of John: born at Wymondley, Herts. School: Buntingford, under M[r] Sherson. Admitted pensioner under M[r] Wilding 26 June 1740. Age 15.

B.A. (Edmonds Pym) 1744 (Mids.). Admitted scholar 10 Dec. 1740. Resided till Xmas 1746. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1777 [sic] Sept.: and instituted to rectory of Radwell, Herts. Resigned before Mar. 1786, when Wollaston Pym (1775) succeeded. Died 19 Oct. 1807, aged 83, at Baldock.

Dayrell, Marmaduke: son of Francis, armiger: born in Middlesex. Educated at Kensington, under M[r] Cox. Admitted pensioner under the Master 29 Nov. 1740. Age 18.

Resided till Mids. 1742. Admitted at Lincoln's Inn 10 July 1739. Of Shudy Camps, succeeding his brother Brownlow, who died 1773. Married Henrietta, daughter of Warner Tempest of Antigua by whom he had two sons and three daughters. Died 14 Apr. 1790: buried at Shudy Camps. A son, Marmaduke, admitted 1789.

Onely, Richard: son of Richard: born at West Haddon, Northants. School: Guil[d]sborough, under M[r] Horton. Admitted sizar under M[r] Whitmell 3 Dec. 1740. Age 17.

B.A. 1744/5, when he appears for the first time in Study-rents (possibly he had been the Master's sizar) and resides under M[r] Hankinson till Dec. 1745. M.A. 1772. Perhaps grandson of Ri. Onely, M.A. 1672. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1746 Dec. and licensed to Scotter, Lincs.: priest 1748 June; curate of Husbands Bosworth, Leics. In the same year Master of Clipstone Grammar School. Rector of Speldhurst, Kent 1768. Chaplain to Earl Bathurst. Had dispensation from Lambeth 27 Oct. 1772, to hold also the rectory of Ashurst, distant four miles. Author: Translation of Pope's Messiah into Latin verse, 1749. Account of the care taken in the most civilised nations for the relief of the poor, 1758. Sm. 4to 34 pages—not exhaustive! dedicated to Speaker Onslow: desires to state facts, not draw conclusions in view of the discontent produced by the present high price of corn.

Shepherd, Anthony:

Elder son of Arthur Shepherd: born at Kendal. School: Kendal, under M^{r} Towers. Admitted sizar at St John's, 25 June 1740, age 19. B.A. (St John's) 174$\frac{3}{4}$; M.A. (Christ's) 1747; B.D. 1761; D.D. 1766. Ordained deacon, Worcester, 174$\frac{3}{4}$ Feb.: priest, London, 174$\frac{5}{6}$ Feb. Elected Fellow of Christ's 9 Jan. 174$\frac{6}{7}$, succeeding Humph. Christian. Custos cistae 1751. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, Bunting, Walkhampton and Knapwell Preacher 1753. Steward 1753, 1764. Senior Greek Lecturer, Hebrew Lecturer and Mildmay Preacher 1758–60. Senior Dean 1760, 1762, 1765, 1769, 1771. He was a tutor in the College 1752–77, and from 1756 he had almost all the students under him, either alone, or with colleagues—viz. Backhouse from 1758–68, Paley and Law 1772–4, Paley and Parkinson, 1774–6. Pupils came to him largely from Eton, Harrow, Westminster, Charterhouse &c.: he was a lax tutor, and the rise in the standard of learning was not due to him. He was Plumian Professor 1760–96: he gave some lectures, for he published Heads of a course, delivered at Christ's, and Experiments to illustrate a course read in the Observatory at Trinity: these, with tables to correct the apparent distance between the moon and a star, are the sole output of 36 years' tenure. Presented to Croxton (succeeding M^{r} Wray) 21 Jan. 1756: to Bourn (ditto) 30 Mar. 1758–63: rector of Barton Mills 26 May 1763–82. Whatever livings he held, he remained at Cambridge. Rector of Eastling, Kent (patron, Geo. Finch Hatton of Eastwell Park and a pupil) 6 Nov. 1782: also of Hartley Wespall, Hants. 12 May 1792: both these he held till his death. On 14 Dec. 1765 he had from the College a lease of the tithes of Burnham Westgate: whence arose a memorable law-suit. See my History of Christ's, 262–4. In 1777 he became Canon of Windsor, July 27: the College held that he should resign his Fellowship: he declined: and appeals were made without success to every Visitor from 1777–81. One of John Barker's first acts as Master 27 July 1780 was to declare Shepherd's fellowship vacant. But on 29 July an inhibition from the Visitor followed. The history of this (and of all) appeals to the Visitor will be found in a pamphlet by John Fisher, LL.D., Fellow, addressed to D^{r} Beadon, V.C. and Visitor 1781–3. At last on 22 Nov. 1783—the V.C. (Torkington) being presumably favourable—or because of Shepherd taking Eastling, Barker again (and finally) declared the vacancy. Shepherd never signs later than July 1778. He died in London 15 June 1796. He had a taste for wine and musical instruments—but the goodness of each taste was questioned: see Scott, Johnian Adm^{n}. Book, 507. Fanny Burney found him "dulness itself" (Early Diary, 282) and happily tells us that he was "prodigiously tall and stout." Captain Cook in 1774 named after him a group of islands in the New Hebrides.

Fayle, John:

M.A. 1747. Probably John, son of John, of Poulton, Lancs., pleb.: matric^{d}. at Brasenose 17 Mar. 173$\frac{9}{1}$. B.A. (Oxford) 1734. Incorporated, and M.A. (Christ's) 1747. D.D. (St John's) 1768.

On 5 Nov. 1771 had dispensation to hold with Burton Agnes the vicarage of Rudston, distant five miles. Married Anne, daughter of Ri. Williamson of Hull who died at Burton Agnes 24 May 1769, aged 43. Died at Burton Agnes and buried there (M.I.).

Wright, Harbord: son of John, rector of Euston, Suff. School: (1) Scarning, Norf. under M^{r} Brett; (2) Westhorpe, under M^{r} Hett. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Thomas and Makin (sponsor) 9 June 1742. Age 16.

LL.B. 1748. Resided, under M^{r} Dix, till Mids^{r}. 1749. Son of the Rev. John Wright by his wife Anne, daughter of Will. Pearson, LL.D., Chancellor of York. Grandson of Cha. Wright of Kilverstone, near Twyford: to which he succeeded on the death of his uncle Thomas, who died childless. Married his cousin Frances, sister of Sir Geo. Chad, first baronet. Brother of Tho. (1754) and of John (1761): father of Charles (1769). Died Sept. 1754, aged 29: M.I. at Kilverstone. (S.H.A.H.)

Thompson, Thomas: [father not given]: born at Wigton, Cumberland. School: (1) Wigton, under M^{r} Birkbeck; (2) "Sebhern" [Sebergham], under M^{r} Relf.

Admitted sizar under Mess[rs] Thomas (sponsor) and Makin 29 June 1742. Age 19.

B.A. 1745. Admitted scholar 3 July 1742. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1747 June, licensed to Toft: priest [my note says "deacon," probably by error] Lincoln, 174$\frac{7}{8}$ Mar.: licensed to Medbourne and Holt, Leics. One Tho. Thompson, B.A., presented by Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham to rectory of Foulness, Essex 8 Oct. 1757. One was incumbent of Patterdale, Westmoreland 1765–1800 (Whellan, 782).

Earnshaw, Joshua: son of James: born at "Middop" [Midhope, near Penistone], Yorks. School: Midhope, under M[r] Haigh. Admitted sizar under Mess[rs] Thomas and Makin (sponsor) 9 April 1743. Age 17.

B.A. 174$\frac{6}{7}$. Ordained deacon, York, 1748 June; priest 1749 Sept.

Haigh, Samuel: son of William: born at Thurlston [near Penistone], Yorks. School: Midhope, under M[r] Fra. Haigh. Admitted sizar under Mess[rs] Thomas and Makin (sponsor) 9 April 1743. Age 19.

B.A. 174$\frac{6}{7}$. Ordained deacon, York, 1747 Sept.: priest 1749 Sept.

Fletcher, Thomas: son of Joseph: born at Stearndale [?], Derbs. School: "Tidswall" [Tideswell], under M[r] Goddard. Admitted sizar under Mess[rs] Thomas and Makin (sponsor) 9 Apr. 1743. Age 18.

B.A. 174$\frac{6}{7}$. Admitted scholar 22 June 1744.

Wade, William: son of William: born at Standon, Herts. School: Stortford, under M[r] Mall. Admitted sizar under Mess[rs] Thomas and Makin (sponsor) 9 Apr. 1743. Age 19.

B.A. 174$\frac{6}{7}$. Admitted scholar 22 June 1744. One Will. Wade was presented by Lord Elibank and wife to the vicarage of Kirtling, Suffolk in 1750: and in the same year became rector of Ashley with Silverley—patron, Lord North. Both were vacant in 1791.

Lloyd, Thomas: son of Thomas, of Suffolk. School: Lavenham, under M[r] Smithies. Admitted sizar under Mess[rs] Thomas and Makin (sponsor) 9 Apr. 1743. Age 19.

B.A. 174$\frac{6}{7}$; M.A. 1755. Probably rector of Stanstead St James, near Glemsford, Suffolk 20 Dec. 1748–1800. One of these names rector of Hornsey, 1758–75, when he died.

Beet, John: son of Joseph: born in Yorkshire. School: Worsborough [near Barnsley], under M[r] Staniland. Admitted sizar under M[r] Withers 12 Apr. 1743. Age 19.

B.A. 174$\frac{6}{7}$ (under M[r] Wigley). Admitted scholar 22 June 1744. Ordained deacon, York, 1747 June: priest 1749 May.

Hartley, George: son of Leonard: born at Middleton-Tyas, Richmondshire. School: Kirkheaton, Yorks., under M[r] Clarke. Admitted pensioner under M[r] Chapman 14 Apr. 1743. Age 17.

Resided at Christ's till Xmas 1746: then migrated (with his tutor) to Magdalene: B.A. (there) 174$\frac{7}{8}$; M.A. 1751. Admitted at Lincoln's Inn 15 May 1747: then at the Middle Temple 30 Jan. 1749. Perhaps the "learned steward of court-leet" at Northallerton 1765–80 (Ingledew, 383).

Marsh, Richard: son of George, rector of Ford, Northumb[d]. School: Durham, under M[r] Dongworth. Admitted pensioner under M[r] Chapman 1 July 1743. Age 19.

B.A. 174$\frac{6}{7}$ (under M[r] Wigley). Admitted scholar 22 June 1744. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1748 June: licensed to Munden, Herts.

Wigley, Joshua: son of Benjamin: born at Nottingham. School: Nottingham, under M^r^ Henson. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ [Jon.] Wigley 10 Oct. 1743. Age 16.

B.A. 174$\frac{7}{8}$; M.A. 1751; D.D. 1774. Brother of Jonathan (1729): his mother was Ann Lee of Wirksworth. Admitted scholar 22 June 1744, and again (to a Bp. Ward scholarship) 4 Mar. 174$\frac{5}{6}$. Elected Fellow (in place of M^r^ Chapman) 10 Mar. 174$\frac{7}{8}$. Ordained deacon, Ely, 17$\frac{4\,9}{5\,0}$ Mar.: priest 1751. Custos cistae 1752. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, Bunting, Walkhampton and Knapwell Preacher, and Steward 1754. Senior Greek Lecturer and Mildmay Preacher and Hebrew Lecturer 1760–2. Junior Dean and Catechist 1762. Senior Dean 1763, 1766, 1769, 1772. Steward 1764. Senior Proctor 1769–70. Presented to Croxton (succeeding M^r^ Shepherd) 27 May 1758. Presented to Clipston (succeeding M^r^ Murhall, who went to Moulton instead) 14 Dec. 1772: Fellowship declared vacant 28 Jan. 1774. Also rector of Clifton near Guildsborough. Married Mary Bateman of Guildsborough by whom he had two daughters. Died 1790. He was a considerable Biblical scholar. His appeal, 22 May 1772, on the ground that his "preference" to the living of Moulton had been disregarded, and the pleadings in his favour by Barker, Wall, and Haighton, and against him by eight Fellows, including Murhall, Paley and Joh. Law, have been mentioned under Murhall (1737). No decree was given: the vacancy of Clipston made a compromise possible.

Woodgate, Thomas: son of James: born at Higham, Suffolk. School: Dedham, under M^r^ Grimwood. Admitted sizar under Mess^rs^ Thomas and Makin 17 Nov. 1743. Age 19.

B.A. 174$\frac{7}{8}$. Admitted scholar 22 June 1744—and again 4 Mar. 174$\frac{5}{6}$. Candidate for a Fellowship in 1749 when Alex. James of Clare Hall was elected. Passed over as deficient in learning, also as having an estate too large to be held with a Fellowship: said that he had settled it on his mother: answer, that this was an evasion. He (and Cha. Hingeston) petitioned, but unsuccessfully. The Vice-Chancellor, D^r^ Keene, and his two assessors held that the scholars had no absolute right to election as against an outsider.

James, Alexander:

Previously admitted at Clare.

B.A. (Clare) 174$\frac{6}{7}$; M.A. (Christ's) 1750. In Aug. 1748 Lecturer at Gravesend (Pocock, Gravesend, 90). Elected Fellow of Christ's 3 Nov. 1749. Against this election (made by D^r^ Rooke and seven Fellows) an appeal was made by Rob. Hankinson and Ri. Hayes, Fellows, and Tho. Woodgate and Cha. Hingeston, scholars and candidates (whom see): the ground being that the rights of the scholars were prejudiced thereby. The Master and seven Fellows protested against the appeal being heard at all. But D^r^ Keene (though Rooke's ally in Cambridge politics) did hear it, and with his assessors, Conyers Middleton and Rob. Walker, decided that the scholars had no absolute rights. Rooke blustered foolishly and entered a protest in the Master's Book of Statutes—which D^r^ Keene obliged him to withdraw, and made an entry to that effect 92 (1), 49 in the Univ. Registry. James was Custos cistae 1754. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, Bunting, Walkhampton and Knapwell Preacher, and Steward 1756. After this time he held no College office, and very rarely signs a College Order: I think he did not reside: possibly his position in the College was not easy. He was presented to Fen Drayton (succeeding John Barker) 17 June 1763, and held it till 14 Dec. 1772: but he signs the register in 1755 only, and from 1760 to 1768 Will. Craven was curate. Vicar of St Margaret at Cliffe, Kent 13 Oct. 1773, and P.C. of Buckland at the same time: he held this till his death. On 1 Aug. 1774 he was presented by the College to Little Canfield, succeeding Mr Wilding; and his Fellowship was vacant 24 Oct. 1775. He lived till 1813: but the record of his doings at Little Canfield is the publication of banns 10 and 17 June 1787, a marriage by license June 1792 (or 1793) and another June 1794.

Wardale, Robert:
M.A. 1750. Son of John, of Orton, Westmoreland. Matriculated at Queen's College, Oxford 2 Nov. 1725, aged 19. B.A. (Oxford) 1729: incorporated, and M.A. (Christ's) 1750. Ordained deacon, London, 1729 Sept.: priest, Carlisle 1730 July. Chaplain to the Bishop of Carlisle. Vicar of Brampton, Cumberland, 1750–73. Also vicar of Newburn, Northumbd. 7 Mar. 1763, distant 28 miles, which he resigned in 1766; having a dispensation to hold (with Brampton) the vicarage of Corbridge, Northumbd. 1765. Prebendary of Carlisle 1765. Died 1773. (Al. Ox. 1499.)

James, John:
M.A. 1750. Either (1) son of John, of Rochester, pleb., matriculated at Oriel, Oxford 3 Mar. $173\frac{4}{5}$, aged 17: B.A. (Oxford) 1739: or (2) son of William, clerk, of Quedgeley, Glos., matriculated at Pembroke, Oxford 6 July 1736, aged 17; B.A. (Balliol, Oxford) 1740. Incorporated and M.A. (Christ's) 1750.

Parkyn, William: son of Paul: born at Horbury, Ecclesfield, Yorks. School: Worsborough, under Mr Staniland. Admitted sizar under Mr Hankinson 18 Feb. $174\frac{3}{4}$. Age 19.
Resided till at least Lady Day 1748: and his name, with a charge of 3*s.* 0*d.* a quarter appears in Study-rents till Decr. 1750: but he took no degree. His mother was Eliz. Broadbent of Wortley (Hunter, F.M.G. 1275). He lived at Dodworth, near Barnsley and is called M.D. by Hunter. Married twice, but died at Dodworth without issue 20 Jan. 1759, aged 35.

Gore, Charles: [father not given]: born at Barrow, Somerset. School: Fulham, under Mr Crofts. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mr Chapman, 30 Mar. 1744. Age not given.
Resided till Lady Day 1745. Admitted at the Inner Temple 12 Aug. 1742: as son of Thomas, late of Barrow Minchin. A pedigree of the Gore (afterwards Gore-Langton) family, in Burke (L.G. 756), does not contain these two.

Tatham, John: son of John: born at Cantsfield, Lancs. School: Bentham, Yorks., under Mr Bennison. Admitted pensioner (later fellow-commoner) under Mr Thomas 10 Apr. 1744. Age 19.
B.A. (14th wrangler) $174\frac{7}{8}$. One of these names was vicar of Melling in Lonsdale 11 June 1750: resigned 12 July 1794: when he was succeeded by his son John, who died 1851.

Lister, Thomas: son of John: born at Giggleswick. School: Giggleswick, under Mr Carr. Admitted sizar under Mr Hankinson 5 May 1744. Age 19.
Resided till Lady Day 1748: his name in Study-rents, with charge of 3*s.* 0*d.*, till Midsr. 1750: took no degree: perhaps a student in medicine.

Wheatley, John: son of Thomas: born at Wakefield. School: Rotherham, under Mr Stephenson. Admitted pensioner under Mr Withers 27 Oct. 1744. Age 19.
B.A. 1748 Mids.; M.A. 1753. Admitted scholar 3 Feb. $174\frac{6}{7}$. Son of Tho. Wheatley by his wife Frances Sorbie of Rotherham. Ordained deacon, York, 1748 Sept.: priest 1750 June. Chaplain to the Duchess of Hamilton. Vicar of Aslackby, Lincs. Had dispensation from Lambeth 21 Apr. 1758 to hold also the rectory of Claxby with Normanby, distant 28 miles. Married Eliz., daughter of Will. Cooke, rector of Sawtry: and had four sons and two daughters. Died at Treeton 10 Apr. 1794, aged 68 (Hunter, F.M.G. 600).

Carr, John: son of John: born in Yorkshire. School: Giggleswick, under his father John Carr. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Hankinson 25 Apr. 1745. Age 18.

B.A. 174$\frac{8}{9}$. Admitted scholar 3 Feb. 174$\frac{6}{7}$. Ordained deacon, York, 1749 Sept.: priest 1752 May. One J. Carr signs as curate of Fen Drayton, Sept. 1774–Dec. 1775, and as minister 11 May 1781.

*Barker, John: son of George: born at Sighill [Seghill], Northumb^{d}. School: Newcastle, under M^{r} Dawes. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Wigley 1 June 1745. Age 18.

B.A. (10th wrangler) 174$\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. 1752; D.D. (lit. reg.) 1781. Admitted scholar 17 July 1745, again 4 Mar. 174$\frac{5}{6}$. Eldest son of Geo. Barker of Weteslade by his wife Mary Lawson of Longhirst. Elected Fellow, Finch and Baines (succeeding Hen. Finch) 3 Nov. 1749: K. Edward VI (succeeding R. French) 6 May 1752: L. Marg. (succeeding Tho. Swainson) 14 Jan. 1756. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1752 May: priest, Sept. Custos cistae 1753. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, Bunting, Walkhampton and Knapwell Preacher, and Steward 1755. Steward again 1765, 1778. Senior Greek Lecturer, Hebrew Lecturer, and Mildmay Preacher 1762–4. Senior Dean, 1764, 1767, 1770 (also held the three Preacherships) 1773, 1778. Scrutator 1780, but did not serve. From 1761 to 1764 he signs the register as curate of Fen Drayton. Presented to Bourn (succeeding M^{r} Shepherd) 6 June 1763: to Caldecot (succeeding M^{r} Murhall) 14 Dec. 1772–85: to Brisley (succeeding M^{r} Weatherhead) 6 Apr. 1786, resigned 1788. Rector of Wadingham, Lincs., patron, the Crown, according to D^{r} Doncaster, by the influence of M^{r} Pitt. Was a candidate for the office of Registrary in 1778, when Geo. Borlase of Peterhouse was elected: he had 102 votes, against 118 for Borlase: according to Cole he "stood on the Interest of the warm Whigs and Americans: I speak thus, because I heard him defending their rebellious practices in 1777": it shows at least that he had some credit in the University: and in 1806 he subscribed to Pitt's statue for the Senate House. Elected Master 22 July 1780 on the death of Dean Thomas: he was opposed by Shepherd and Parkinson; but Shepherd (between whom and Barker there was much animosity) was unpopular because of the Canonry of Windsor, and could get only three votes: Parkinson as many: and both retired on the day of election. Cole comments "D^{r} Shepherd may probably have settled matters so as not to be molested in his Fellowship": however D^{r} Barker immediately declared his Fellowship vacant. Barker was created D.D. 21 Oct. by Royal mandate: "so that patriots and republicans, who clamour at the Royal Prerogative, are willing enough to receive benefit of it themselves: which shows their clamour is interest" (Cole). (It must be remembered that Cole was a high Tory, and specially hostile to the Whig Masters of Christ's; Towers, Rooke, and Barker.) D^{r} Barker married Hannah, daughter of Rob. Ellison of Otterburn, widow of Tho. Dockwray D.D., vicar of Stamfordham. He was Vice-Chancellor 1780–1: his year of office was not remarkable, save for a grace to check the employment of private tutors, carried easily in both houses. His Mastership as a whole save for the great Burnham Westgate suit (Hist. of Christ's, 262–4) was uneventful. The Society was not distinguished in any way. Toward the end of his life the management of the College property was chiefly in the hands of his successor, Tho. Browne, who had at least ideas on finance, if not much morality. He gave £200 in 1798 "for the defence of the Country," in addition to £200 given by the College. He died 18 Feb. 1808, aged 81, and was buried on the same day as his wife Hannah (who died Feb. 20) in the ante-chapel. Portrait (miniature) in the Combination room shows a hale, high-coloured man, with a very Roman nose.

Bill, John: son of Robert: born at Farley, Staffs. School: Dilhorn, under M^{r} Slade. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Thomas 10 June 1745. Age 19.

B.A. $174\frac{8}{9}$. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1749 May: licensed to Hatley St George. He does not appear in Study-rents later than Mich. 1749. But in Jan. 1757 there is a College Order to pay M^{r} Bill £8 in consideration of the "income" of his room.

Hingeston, Charles: son of Peter: born at Ipswich. Educated at Monk Soham by M^{r} Ray. Admitted sizar 29 June 1745. Age 18.

B.A. (12th jun. opt.) $174\frac{8}{9}$; M.A. 1752. Admitted scholar 4 Mar. $174\frac{5}{6}$. See under Alex. James (p. 245): he petitioned in 1749 with another scholar (Woodgate) against James' election, the reply was that he had lived an "idle loose and disorderly life." The retort was that at least the Fellows had elected him scholar: the reply was that they didn't know him then. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1750 May; licensed to Great Bealings, Norfolk: priest, Ely (lit. dim. from Norwich) 1752 Dec. Rector of Trimley St Martin, Suffolk 1778–87, patron, Geo. Nassau, Esq.: of Rishanger, Suff. 1770–87, patron, Lord Orwell. Died 1787, aged 60. Buried at Capel.

Craske, John: [father not given]: born in Suffolk. School: [Wyverstone], under M^{r} Steggall. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Hankinson 11 Oct. 1745. Born 22 Nov. 1726.

Admitted scholar 4 Mar. $174\frac{5}{6}$. Son of John and Eliz. Craske of Drinkstone, Suffolk. Died at Christ's 3 Mar. $174\frac{8}{9}$, aged 22, and buried at Drinkstone. (Information from C. S. Partridge, M.A.)

Killinghall, John: son of Robert, armiger: born at Low Midleton, Durham. School: Darlington, under M^{r} Addison. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Chapman 2 Nov. 1745. Age 18.

Great grandson of Will. (1656). Resided till Dec. 1746: whether he went (like Hartley) to Magdalene with M^{r} Chapman, I do not know. Baptised 27 Feb. $172\frac{8}{7}$, son of Rob. Killinghall of Middleton St George (Surtees, 3. 223) by his wife Sarah Thornton of Askrigg. Died unmarried 20 June 1762, aged 35, the last heir male of an old family: left property to Will. Pemberton, grandson of his father's sister, Eliz. Killinghall (ib.). A curiously minute memorandum of directions for his funeral—containing arrangement of "mutes," provision of men to give to the mourners "a glass of white wine first: then a glass of red"—will be found in Arch. Æliana, N.S. 2. 101.

French, Robert: son of John: born at Bury St Edmunds. School: Bury, under M^{r} Kinnesman. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Wigley 1 Jan. $174\frac{5}{6}$. Age 18.

B.A. 1749, Mids.; M.A. 1753. Admitted scholar 4 Mar. $174\frac{5}{6}$. Son of John French ($170\frac{8}{9}$). Reader at St Mary's, Bury, and rector of Great Saxham. Brother of George (1738). Elected Fellow (K. Edw. VI), succeeding R. Wilding, 12 Dec. 1750. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1750 Dec. (? curate of Caxton, in 1751): priest 1752 Sept. Custos cistae 1755. Bunting, Walkhampton and Knapwell Preacher 1757—but does not hold the usual concomitant offices which imply residence; nor any office at any later time. D^{r} Rooke, the Master, declined in 1752 to pay him his dividend (£16. 7*s.* $7\frac{3}{4}$d.), on the ground of insufficient residence. French appealed: see book at Registry, 92 (1), 50 for the pleadings on both sides: the sympathy of the Fellows was (naturally) with French. He argued that part of the time during which he was absent belonged to one year and part to another, i.e. that the College year began Jan. 1. The Visitor "recommended" Rooke to pay the money, (1) because French had not been summoned to reside, (2) because the Statute was not clear: but he fixed the beginning of the year as henceforward to date from Mich. It is noteworthy that Adam Wall (Univ. Lib. Mm. v. 48) speaks of a paper handed by the Master to the V.C., in which he urged a liberal consideration of the case on the ground that the Fellows live under great restraint, from which the Master has no power to dispense them. French was curate of Cockfield,

Suffolk 1754–71: and seems to have been absent from College 1754–61: then he signs regularly till 1766—rarely later: he does not seem to have been disturbed by Dean Thomas, an easy-going Master. He died at Cockfield, aged 42, unmarried 30 June 1771 and was buried at Gt Saxham. His Fellowship was declared vacant 11 July 1771. (See Hist. of Cockfield in Journal of Suffolk Inst. of Archaeology, 1880: and letter from H. H. French of Sutton.)

Horsfall, Midgely: [father not given]: born at Haworth, Yorks. School: Rishworth, under Mr Wadsworth. Admitted sizar under Mr Hankinson 19 Mar. $174\frac{5}{6}$. Age 21.

"The Master, this day, did in the presence of the Fellows, declare Horsfall expelled for divers notorious offences" (College Order 16 Apr. 1747).

Hardy, Joseph: [no facts]: "sacris initiatus." Admitted sizar under Mr Hankinson 20 Mar. $174\frac{5}{6}$. Age not given.

LL.B. 1755. In Study-rents charged 3*s.* 0*d.* every quarter up to Lady Day 1755. Ordained priest, York, $174\frac{7}{8}$ Mar. Vicar of Headcorn, Kent 17 Feb. 1762, patron, the Archbishop. Had dispensation 7 June 1772 to hold also the vicarage of Monkton and Birchington, distant 20 miles.

Wall, Adam: son "pharmacopolae haud indocti": born in Cambridge. School: Giggleswick, under Mr Paley. Admitted sizar under Mr Wigley 8 Sept. 1746. Age 18.

B.A. (2nd wrangler) $175\frac{0}{1}$. (Charged 3*s.* 0*d.* in Study-rents for one term, Mich. 1746, and not again till he appears as Ds Wall, Lady Day 1751; probably he lived at home.) M.A. 1754. "Gilman Wall, apothecary" died 1760 aged 36 (so Cooper and Le Keux, 3. 209): another died 15 March 1790, aged 67 (ib. 210): neither of these if the figures are right can be Adam's father. Admitted scholar 3 Feb. $174\frac{6}{7}$. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1751 June; licensed to Tempsford, Beds.: priest, 1753 June, still at Tempsford. Elected Fellow, Finch and Baines (succeeding Mr Porteus) 28 Jan. 1756: K. Edw. VI 22 Jan. 1759: Lady Margt. (succeeding Mr Willey) 1 Nov. 1762. Rhetorick Lecturer, Sept. 1754. Custos cistae 1759, 1764, 1769. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, and Steward 1760. Bunting, Walkhampton and Knapwell Preacher 1761. Senior Greek Lecturer, Hebrew Lecturer and Mildmay Preacher 1766. Senior Dean 1779, 1783, 1787, 1790, 1791, 1792, 1793, 1796, 1797. Steward 1788. Hebrew Lecturer 1788–90. Taxor 1759, 1779, 1787. Senior Proctor 1778–9. Scrutator (vice Dr Barker, elected Master) 1780–1. Senior Fellow from 1783, and senior resident from 1780. Signed last 26 Oct. 1797. Sick in College 2 Dec. 1797. Died in College 18 June 1798, aged 70. Tombstone in Great St Andrew's churchyard [now in the church]. His father Gilman, was an apothecary, near Christ's College: and was succeeded by a son (Cole). His brother, Gilman, was admitted 1764, and John 1778.

He supported Joshua Wigley in 1772 (the Fellowship election), agreeing with John Barker.

He edited the University Statutes and also the Ceremonies of the University 1798, which Henry Gunning of Christ's re-edited in 1828. He left several MSS. volumes of Collections relating to the College and to the University: these were presented to the University Library by Charles Sutton D.D., vicar of Aldborough, who died 1846: they are marked Mm. v. 40–52 (incl.). Two similar volumes (53 and 54) were purchased by the University. All these are written carelessly and have little order or method: but they contain much useful matter, especially as concerns the College. He also carefully sorted and arranged all the College documents in the Muniment Room, and made an excellent Catalogue of them. The obligation which he has laid thereby on successive Masters (in their Bursarial capacity) is beyond words to tell. I have found his work most valuable for my History.

On 27 April 1786, when the printing of the Statutes was finished, the Senate passed a Grace ("ne ingrata esse videatur Alma Mater erga filium tam praeclare de se meritum") to present him with £50, wherewith to purchase a silver vase.

Gooch, John:

D.D. 1765. Second son of Tho. Gooch, Master of Caius, and Bishop of Ely: born in Cambridge. Admitted pensioner (Caius) 5 May 1746, aged 16. B.A. (2nd wrangler) $17\frac{49}{50}$; M.A. 1753. Fellow of Caius 1750–1. Rector of Willingham 1753: rector of Fen Ditton, by dispensation 25 Aug. 1753, as well as Willingham. Preb^{y}. of Ely 1753–1804. Perhaps in reference to these preferments Bishop Gooch writes of his patronage, 1 March $175\frac{2}{3}$ "I am now called upon by my own son who thinks he has a right to demand whatever he can hold" (Memoirs of a Royal Chaplain, 164). Married 24 May 1751 Mary, daughter of John Sayer, surgeon, of London. Died 7 Jan. 1804 at the Palace, Wells (D^{r} Beadon, the Bishop, being his son-in-law (Venn, 2. 58)). Why he came to Christ's for his D.D. degree, does not appear. He kept his name on from Lady Day 1764 till his death.

Berjew, John:

M.A. 1753. Son of Thomas, of Bristol, gent. Matriculated at Balliol 10 Mar. $173\frac{7}{8}$. B.A. 1741 (Al. Ox. 99).

Waddington, John: son of George: born at Doddington, Cambs. School: Ely, under M^{r} Gunning. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Willey 22 Jan. $174\frac{6}{7}$. Age 17.

Became fellow-commoner Mich. 1747: and matric^{d}. as such, July 1750. B.A. 1751 Mids.; M.A. 1754. Resided till Dec^{r}. 1752. His son, Thomas (1780) was born at Ely.

Paine, William: son of William: born at Southill, Beds. Educated at Market Street, Herts., under M^{r} Pitman. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Wigley 9 June 1747. Age 18.

Tutor, together with D^{r} Shepherd 1758–68: they had practically all the students of the College. He lectured on logic, metaphysics and moral philosophy, and discussed the doctrines of Locke, Clarke and Hutcheson (Meadley's Paley, p. 11). Whitehall Preacher 1763. Vicar of Meldreth (presented by D^{r} Thomas, Dean of Ely) 31 Jan. 1764: resigned 1767. Chaplain to Bishop Cornwallis at Lichfield: and went with him (leaving Cambridge) in 1768, when he was translated to Lambeth: his Fellowship was declared vacant 14 Dec. 1770. Rector of St Mary-le-Bow 13 Apr. 1769–1771. Archdeacon of Canterbury 13 Dec. 1769. Rector of Ickham, Kent 1771: had dispensation 17 Sept. 1774 to hold also Sibertswold, distant six miles. On 26 Dec. 1775 he had dispensation to hold with Ickham the vicarage of Deal, distant eight miles, and was collated 13 Jan. 1776. Master of Eastbridge Hospital Oct. 1777. Rebuilt handsomely the vicarage house at Deal: where he died, unmarried (owing to a disappointment early in life) 28 Sept. 1788 and was buried in the chancel of the church (Hasted, Canterbury, 2. 594). He was an astronomer and built a small observatory adjoining the vicarage house. His library was sold at Canterbury by Flackton, Marrable & Co. (J.E.B.M.)

[1] Owing to the change of style, there were no B.A.'s of 1751, i.e. in old style $175\frac{1}{2}$ (except those admitted at Mids.). We pass in the record from 1750 (=175$\frac{0}{1}$) to 1752.

Gibson, Kennett: son of Thomas: born at Paston, Northants. School: Eton, under D^r^ Sumner. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Wigley 7 May 1748. Age 18.

B.A. (13th jun. opt.) 1752. Admitted scholar 19 Nov. 1748. His father was rector of Paston and was nephew of Bishop Kennett. Rector of Marholm, Northants. 1756–72: also curate (? rector) of Castor—both near Peterborough. Author of A comment upon part of the fifth journey of Antoninus through Britain, which he intended to publish by subscription: but he died in 1772: it was eventually published in 1800 by John Nichols (to whom it passed from Dan. Bayley, Fellow of St John's) with additions in Miscellaneous Antiquities. He was an accurate antiquary.

Preston, Anthony: [no facts]. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^r^ Wigley 21 May 1748.

Son of Anthony, clerk, of Brougham, Westmoreland. Matriculated at Queen's College, Oxford 12 Feb. 174$\frac{2}{3}$, aged 16. B.A. (Oxford) 1747. Resided from Mids. 1748 to Xmas 1749. Why he entered here, does not appear.

Hutchinson, William: son of George: born at Lisbon. School: Appleby, under M^r^ Yates. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Wigley 31 May 1748. Age 17.

He became a fellow-commoner at Mich. 1749: and resided till Lady Day 1751.

Porteus, Beilby: son of Robert: born at York. School: Ripon, under M^r^ Hyde. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Wigley 1 June 1748. Age 17.

B.A. (10th wrangler, 2nd Chancellor's Medallist) 1752; M.A. 1755; D.D. 1767. Admitted scholar 19 Nov. 1748. Eighteenth child of Rob. Porteus of Virginia, to which his mother, a daughter of Col. Jennings, deputy governor, also belonged: they came to England in 1720 and settled at York. Elected Fellow, Finch and Baines (succeeding John Barker) 26 May 1752; K. Edw. VI 21 Jan. 1756; L. Marg^t^. (succeeding M^r^ Wray) 22 Dec. 1758. Esquire Bedell for two years. Seatonian Prizeman (subject "Death") 1759. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1756 June: priest, York, 1766 Sept. Custos cistae 1756. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, and Steward 1757. Bunting, Walkhampton and Knapwell Preacher 1758. Had a few pupils, chiefly fellow-commoners. Chaplain to Archbishop Secker 1762, when he left Cambridge: Fellowship declared vacant 6 June 1763. He married Mary Hodgson of Ashbourne, Derbs. but not till 1765. Chaplain to Lord Grantham. Rector of Wittersham, Kent 1764; had dispensation 9 Mar. 1764 to hold also the rectory of Ruckinge, distant 12 miles. Preb^y^. of Peterborough 24 Sept. 1764. Had dispensation to hold Hunton, as well as Ruckinge 12 Aug. 1765. As rector of Hunton had dispensation 7 Aug. 1767 to hold also the rectory of Lambeth, distant 28 miles. Chaplain to the King, and Master of St Cross, Winchester 1767. He was in sympathy with the Evangelicals; but decidedly liberal. In 1773 he endeavoured to promote revision of the Liturgy and the Articles: but Archb^p^. Cornwallis and the Bishops would none of it. He was one of the earliest friends of the West Indian negroes: also a supporter of Sunday schools. In 1776 he published an Exhortation to more solemn observance of Good Friday. Bishop of Chester 1777–87: of London 1787–1808, where he carried on a campaign against immorality and profaneness, not ignoring the Prince of Wales, in the matter of Sunday recreation. He supported the relief of Roman Catholics from penal laws, but opposed Catholic emancipation in 1805. He was an early patron both of the Church Missionary Society and of the British and Foreign Bible Society. His sense of the importance of the proper performance of the Church Service was shown by his gift in 1807 of £1200 to provide three Medals in this College—one for the best reader in chapel, two for a Latin and an English Essay, to be read aloud in chapel: the delivery of these was to count in the award. He was one of the most open-minded and energetic bishops of his time. He died at Fulham 8 May 1808 and was buried at Sundridge, where a year before he had built and endowed a chapel of ease. Portrait by Edridge —engraving from it in the Combination room. Collected works published in six volumes (Ed^{n}. 2 in 1816).

Whishaw (Wishaw), Humphry: son of Hugh: born at Maidley [Madeley], Staffs. School: Oakham, under M^{r} Adcock. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Willey 7 June 1748. Age 19.

Admitted scholar 6 July 1748. Resided till Mich. 1751.

Snow, John: [no facts]. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Wigley 30 June 1748.

Resided till Xmas 1748: perhaps migrated to Trinity where a John Snow was B.A. 1752.

Boldero, John: son of John: born at Woolpit, Suffolk. School: Wyverstone, under M^{r} Steggall. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Willey 1 July 1748. Age 18.

B.A. 1752. Admitted scholar 2 Dec. 1749. Born 1729, son of John (1715) who was nephew of John (1691) the Fellow and Tutor. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1752 Sept. (lit. dim. from Norwich): priest, Norwich, 1756 Oct.: curate of Barningham St Andrew, with Coney Weston, Suffolk. Rector of Ampton 1762–81. Vicar of Roudham, Norf. 1763–81, patron, Will. Crofts Esq. Vicar of Cavenham 1769–81. He was also curate of West Stow (under Nat. Salter) which lies between Cavenham and Ampton 1766–75. Buried at Ampton, 1781; as was his wife, Anne, in 1784. His son John (B.A., St John's 1778) succeeded him at Ampton, and was also buried there 1796.

Evans, Richard: son of William: born at Bangor. School: Lucton, under M^{r} Tringham. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Willey 5 July 1748. Age 18.

B.A. (5th jun. opt.) 1752; M.A. 1755. Admitted scholar 19 Nov. 1748. Son of Will. Evans Esq. of Treveilor by his wife Mary, daughter of Will. Morton, Chancellor of Bangor. Elected Fellow (in place of Dearing Jones) 2 Jan. 1754: admitted 11 Jan. Custos cistae 1758. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, and Steward 1759. Bunting, Walkhampton and Knapwell Preacher 1763. Fellowship declared vacant 20 June 1766. Rector of Kingsland, Herefordshire. Prebendary of Bangor on the nomination (for this turn) of the Archbishop, 1 Sept. 1779–97, when he died. Married Jane, daughter of the Rev. Rob. Lloyd of Cefn, by whom he had twin sons, Ri. Davies and Will. (adm. 1787) in which year Gunning was their private tutor at Kingsland (Rem. 1. 96). Gunning records that M^{r} Evans was so well known over Wales that in journeying from Kingsland to Carnarvon they scarcely passed a night at an inn (ib. 101).

Chad, George: son of Robert: born at Wells, Norfolk. Educated (? at Wells) by M^{r} Parr. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Dix 7 Nov. 1748. Age 17.

Resided till Mids^{r}. 1751. Gave two large silver candlesticks. Admitted at Lincoln's Inn 24 May 1749. Probably of the family of Chad of Thursford.

Senhouse, Humphry: son of Humphry: born at Netherhall, Cumberland. School: St Bees, under M^{r} Fisher. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Wigley 12 Jan. $174\frac{8}{9}$. Age 17.

B.A. (11th wrangler) 1753; M.A. 1756. Admitted scholar 11 Feb. $174\frac{8}{9}$. Fellow of Pembroke 1756. Of Netherhall. Married Cath. Wood of Beadnell, Northumb^{d}. M.P. for Cockermouth 1786, and for Cumberland 1790. Died 1814 (Whellan, 328).

Waugh, John: son of John: born at Carlisle. School: Appleby, under Mr Yates. Admitted pensioner under Mr Wigley 25 Jan. 174$\frac{8}{9}$. Age 18.

B.A. 1753; M.A. 1763. Admitted scholar 11 Feb. 174$\frac{8}{9}$. His father was vicar of Stanwix, 1727–65: his grandfather, I think, was Bishop of Carlisle 1723–34. Ordained deacon, Worcester, 1754 May: priest, June. Vicar of Bromsgrove, 9 June 1754: his successor instituted Jan. 1778.

Owen, Hugh: son of William: born at Chester. School: Hackney, under Mr Newcome. Admitted fellow-commoner under the Master 17 May 1749. Age 18.

Resided, under care of Mr Wigley, till Mids. 1751: when perhaps he migrated to Jesus College, where a Hugh Owen was B.A. 1754.

Clarke, Thomas: son of Henry: born at Kino[u]lton, Notts. School: Nottingham, under Mr Henson. Admitted sizar under Mr Wigley [no facts] 24 May 1747: and again 24 May 1750. Age (in 1750) 18.

B.A. 1754. Admitted scholar 3 Dec. 1750. Ordained deacon, York, 1754 June: priest 1755 Sept. One of these names rector of West Hallam, Derbs. 1788–1804, when he died.

Cockshutt, Thomas: son of Josias: born at Kegworth. School: Leicester, under Mr Andrews. Admitted pensioner under Mr Wigley 4 July 1749. Age 17.

B.A. 1753; M.A. 1756. Admitted scholar (Finch and Baines) 2 Dec. 1749. Elder son of Josiah Cockshutt (1706) rector of Kegworth 1725–62: his brother, Josias, admitted 1758. Elected Fellow, in place of Ri. Hayes 22 Nov. 1756. Signs 26 Oct. 1757 as T. Cockshutt-Twisleton; his mother Mary was sister and heiress of Joh. Twisleton of Horstman Place (Hunter, F.M.G. 431). Custos cistae 1760. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1757 Oct. 28: priest, Nov. 1. Fellowship declared vacant 6 Mar. 1761. He married Dorothy Davys of Loughborough in this year—hence, I suppose, the vacancy as it does not seem that he held any living. He died 24 July 1764, aged 32 and was buried at Kegworth. M.I. wrongly copied by Nichol, 8. 1444: whence much confusion.

Holford, Peter: son of Elms: born at Warrington. School: Macclesfield, under Mr Atkinson. Admitted sizar under Mr Wigley 6 July 1749. Age 18.

B.A. (11th jun. opt.) 1753. Admitted scholar 2 Dec. 1749. Presumably akin to Pet. Holford of St John's, Master in Chancery 1750–1804 (Scott, Adm. Book, 473): but not given in Burke L.G. 636: died, senior Master in Chancery and Governor of the New River Company 14 July 1804 "immensely rich." (Gent. Mag. p. 698.)

Cholwick, Thomas: son of William, armiger: born at Blackawton, Devon. School: Tiverton, under Mr Daddo. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mr Wigley 4 Apr. 1750. Age 19.

Resided from Lady Day 1750 to Lady Day 1751. Gave two large silver candlesticks.

Bates, White: son of Robert: born at Mazey [?], Northants. Educated there by his father [prob. Rob. Bates B.A. 1712 of St John's]. Admitted pensioner under Mr Wigley 15 May 1750. Age 18.

LL.B. 1757. Admitted scholar 3 Dec. 1750. Ordained deacon, Peterborough, 1754 June: priest 1755 Sept. Instituted to rectory of Creeton, Lincs. 4 May 1762. Rector of Swayfield, Lincs.: had dispensation from Lambeth 16 Oct. 1810 to hold also the vicarage of Tallington, distant 10 miles.

Bettinson, John: son of George: born at Risley, Derbs. School: Nottingham, under M^{r} Henson. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Wigley 13 June 1750. Age 18.

B.A. 1754; M.A. 1757. Admitted scholar 3 Dec. 1750. Ordained deacon, Chester, 1755 Feb.

Thornton, Aburne: son of Richard: born at Wartling, Sussex. School: Charterhouse, under M^{r} Crusius. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Wigley 16 June 1750. Age 18.

B.A. 1754; M.A. 1759. Admitted scholar 3 Dec. 1750. Ordained deacon, Chichester, 1754 July: priest, Norwich, 1758 May. Curate of Roydon, Norfolk. Rector of Shimpling 1767–72. Married Sarah, daughter of Sir Philip Holt of Upton. Died Dec. 1772.

Robinson, Nicholas: son of Procter: born at Carlisle. School: Wigton, under M^{r} Blaine. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Wigley 28 June 1750. Age 19.

B.A. (4th jun. opt.) 1754. Admitted scholar (Finch and Baines) 3 Dec. 1750. Vicar of Thursby, Cumberland, 1753–85, when he died aged 54.

His son, Proctor, was born at Thursby 1780 and admitted at Lincoln, Oxford 1800: and a daughter Isabella was born 1784.

There is the following entry in the Thursby Register. "Fleming John Brisco, son of Sir John Brisco, Bart., of Crofton Place and Caroline Alicia his wife was born 8 Sept. 1781 at Crofton Place. There is no entry either of Baptisms or Burials for the year 1781 made by the Rev. Nicholas Robinson late Vicar. The above was entered by John Mayson (on 24 August 1790) at the request of Sir John Brisco, Bart." (Information from Rev. W. Golling, vicar.)

Thomlinson, John: son of John: born in London. School: in Essex, under M^{r} Taylor. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Shepherd 2 July 1750. Age 19.

Resided till Lady Day 1753. Probably the son of John Thomlinson of East Barnet, Herts. who was admitted at Lincoln's Inn 19 Mar. 175$\frac{1}{2}$.

Banks, John: [father not given]: of Yorkshire. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Paley. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Wigley 3 Nov. 1750. Age 18.

LL.B. 1757. Admitted scholar (K. Edw.) 6 May 1752. Ordained deacon, Chester, 1757 Mar.: priest, Norwich, 1762 July: curate of Westhall, Suffolk. Appointed by the inhabitants to the perpetual curacy of South Elmham St Michael 1764–85.

Milnes, James Andrew: [father not given]: of Notts. School: Bradford. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Wigley 24 Apr. 1751. Age 19.

LL.B. 1758; LL.D. 1779. Son of Tho. Milnes of Newark and of Dorothy Clay of Kelham. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1758 Feb.; licensed to Firsby, Lincs.: priest 1758 May. Perhaps vicar in 1764 of Halton, Lincs. where his son Thomas was born. Rector also of Shelton, Notts.: had dispensation 7 Dec. 1779 to hold also the rectory of Brant Broughton, Lincs., distant 12 miles. Married Anne, daughter of Sam. Wright of Spilsby, and had children: a son, Thomas, admitted 1783. He was living at Newark in 1808. Died 1814, aged 82.

Grainger, Willam: [father not given]: of Cumberland. School: Wigton. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Wigley 30 May 1751. Age 19.

Chaplain to Lord Cathcart. Rector of Salcott Virley, Essex, Apr. 1761: had dispensation 9 Nov. 1776 to hold also the vicarage of Teynham, Kent (patron, Archdeacon Backhouse) distant 30 miles.

Hetherington, Francis: [father not given]: of Cumberland. "Iam sacris initiatus." Admitted sizar under M^{r} Wigley 10 June 1751. Age not given.

A "ten-year man": has a charge of 3*s.* 0*d.* against him in Study-rents every quarter from Mids. 1751 to Mids. 1761: there is nothing to show which of them he kept by residence. B.D. 1761. Rector of Evedon, Lincs. Had dispensation 16 Feb. 1764 to hold also the vicarage of Lavington (Lenton) distant 14 miles. He died at Lenton 26 Oct. 1768 and was buried there. M.I. "Crux Christi Honor Mihi." (Information from Rev. G. B. Vesey, vicar.)

Thomlinson, John: armiger: [father not given]: born in Essex. School: Beverley, Yorks. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^{r} Wigley 1 July 1751. Age 18.

B.A. 1756; M.A. 1759. Resided till Mids^{r}. 1759. Gave two large silver candlesticks. Perhaps John Thomlinson lord of the manor of Cley-next-the sea, Norfolk, and owner of most of the soil of the parish, who presented to the rectory in 1764 Robert Thomlinson (1758) who may have been a younger brother, or more distant kinsman. He suffered heavily from the spring tides which sometimes break through the sand barrier and flood the salt-marshes which extend from Blakeney to Weybourne; as Robert records in the parish register. (Information from Rev. Everett J. Bishop, rector.)

Forby, Joseph: son of Joseph: born at Fincham, Norfolk. School: Lynn, under M^{r} Daville. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Wigley 23 Oct. 1751. Age 18.

B.A. 1756; M.A. 1764. Admitted scholar 11 Nov. 1751. His father Jos. (adm. 171$\frac{9}{1}$) died rector of Fincham 1745. Ordained priest, Norwich, 1758 May: curate of Threxton near Watton.

Resided till Lady Day 1756. Gave two large silver candlesticks. Admitted at Gray's Inn 16 Dec. 1752, as son of Hatch Moody, Esq. of Oxhey Lane, Watford.

Erskine, John: third son of James (second son of the Earl of Mar): born at Preston, Scotland. Educated in London. Admitted fellow-commoner under the Master 20 Feb. 1752. Age 29.

M.A. 1753. Chaplain to the Countess dowager of Pembroke. Rector of Gosfield, Essex 1750–80. Had dispensation from Lambeth 21 July 1756 to hold also the rectory of Black Notley, distant six miles. Also rector of Wickham St Paul's 1762.

Monoux, Philip: son of Louis: of Beds. School: Market-street, Herts. [under Mr Pitman]. Admitted pensioner under Mr Wigley 5 Mar. 1752. Age 17.

B.A. 1756; M.A. 1759. Admitted scholar 2 May 1752. Son of Louis (1720), Fellow of Christ's and rector of Sandy. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1757 Sept.; licensed to Tempsford, Beds.: priest, 1759 June. Chaplain to the Countess dowager of Lovel and Holland. Rector of Sandy (succeeding his father) 1771. Had dispensation 26 April 1771 to hold also the contiguous rectory of Tempsford (as his father had doné). His first cousin Sir Philip (adm. 1757) became fifth baronet in 1757 on the extinction of the elder branch of the family. Sir Philip the fifth was succeeded by his son Sir Philip the sixth, who died childless 1809. The rector of Sandy consequently succeeded as seventh baronet, and survived for five years. He died childless 1814, aged 79; and the baronetcy became extinct. See pedigree (Vol. I. p. 321).

Tatham, John: son of William: born in Suffolk. School: Eton, under Dr Sumner. Admitted sizar under Mr Wigley 9 Apr. 1752. Age 19.

B.A. 1756; M.A. 1760. Admitted scholar 2 May 1752. Son of Will. (1700) vicar of Wiston, Suffolk. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1756 Mar.: curate to his father at Wiston. Priest, Rochester, 1757 Oct.: curate of St Paul's Cray, with stipend of £40. Probably the Joh. Tatham vicar of Meopham, Kent 1770, presented by the Dean and Chapter of Canterbury: there in 1778. Resigned on presentation to Lexden, Essex (Halstead, 1. 469).

Harbord, Harbord: son of the Hon. Sir William Harbord, K.C.B.: born at Gunton, Norfolk. Educated at home by Mr Parkinson (Fellow of Christ's). Admitted fellow-commoner under the Master 20 April 1752. Age 18.

Resided (under Mr Parkinson after Dr Rooke's death) till Midsr. 1754. Sir Harbord Harbord, son of Sir Will. Harbord, Bart. (1745) by his wife Eliz., daughter of Rob. Britiffe of Baconsthorpe. Succeeded 1770: M.P. for Norfolk: became first Baron Suffield of Suffield, 1786. Married Mary, coheir of Sir Ralph Assheton of Middleton, Lancs. Had two sons, William Assheton, and Edward, second and third barons. Died 4 Feb. 1810, aged 77.

Bailey, Laurence: son of Robert: born at Newton, Lancs. School: Rivington, under Mr Norcross. Admitted sizar under Mr Wigley 13 May 1752. Age 18.

B.A. (6th sen. opt.) 1756; M.A. 1759. Admitted scholar 26 May 1752. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1755 (but called B.A., perhaps 1756) Nov.; licensed to Sporle, Norfolk: priest, Chester, 1757 June; assistant curate of St Thomas, Ardwick, Manchester. Elected Fellow, Finch and Baines (succeeding Mr Wall) 14 Feb. 1759; L. Marg. (succeeding Jonathan Wigley) 5 Sept. 1761. Bunting, Walkhampton and Knapwell Preacher 1762. He signed but once at a College meeting (11 July 1763) and probably did not reside. In April 1765 he was appointed by the College of Christ, Manchester to the Augmented Chapel of Ardwick. His Fellowship was declared vacant 13 June 1769.

Younge, Robert: son of Robert: of Essex. School: Colchester, under Mr Hayes. Admitted sizar under Mr Wigley 27 May 1752. Age 19.

Bull, John: son of Nicholas: born in Surrey. School: Merchant Taylors', under Mr Criche. Admitted sizar under Mr Wigley 13 June 1752. Age 19.

B.A. 1756; M.A. 1769. Admitted scholar 22 Nov. 1752. Ordained deacon, London, 1756 Sept. Chaplain to the Earl of Macclesfield. Rector of Inworth, near Kelvedon, 5 Feb. 1761–1802, when Sam. Wix (1791) succeeded him. Had dispensation 13 July 1769 to hold also the rectory of Pentlow, distant 17 miles. J.P. for Essex. Resigned Pentlow just before he died, 13 Feb. 1802, aged 68 (Gent. Mag. p. 275), when another John Bull (probably his son, admitted 1785) was instituted, and held it till 1816, when again a John Bull appears.

Hudson, Thomas: son of Thomas: born at Otley, Yorks. School: Bingley, under his father. Admitted sizar under M^r^ Wigley 1 July 1752. Age 19.

B.A. (1st jun. opt.) 1756; M.A. 1759. Admitted scholar 22 Nov. 1752. Elected Fellow, Finch and Baines (succeeding L. Bailey) 5 Oct. 1761; K. Edw. (suc. Wall) 6 Nov. 1762; L. Marg. (suc. B. Porteus) 10 June 1763. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1756 Mar.; licensed to Holme, Norfolk: priest, Peterborough, (for York) 1757 Sept. I gather from a pamphlet of D^r^ Fisher's that in 1761 (or ?1763) Hudson was P.C. of Idle, near Bingley, Yorks. (extended value £30 a year): that in consequence the Master M^r^ Thomas regarded him as ineligible as a candidate: that he resigned the curacy before he was elected: that the Archbishop kept the curacy open till after the election, and then offered it again to him: and that it was accepted, no one raising any objection. It would seem from the Admission Book that he was, not only curate of Idle, but also Master of Bingley School, succeeding his father, who died, I believe 1765. A M^r^ Hudson was there in 1761, in 1771, in 1782 (specified as "former Fellow") and in 1783: and the fact is definitely stated in Whitaker-Morant, Craven, but not the dates. How this was compatible with his tenure of Toft (see below) which is equally certain, does not appear. He was Bunting, Walkhampton and Knapwell Preacher 1763: had no other office and did not reside: he signs once (July 1769): and again once shortly after his presentation by the College to Bourn (succeeding J. Barker) 5 Feb. 1773. He was presented to Toft (on the death of Tho. Metcalfe at the age of 91 after holding Toft for 62 years, and Hardwick for 54) 4 July 1777: and 19 July 1777 he was instituted to Hardwick of which the Bishop of Ely was patron. He was Chaplain to Lord Willoughby of Parham: but there seems to have been a difficulty in the way of his holding Toft also: for on 14 July 1778 there is an Order that "M^r^ Hudson have another presentation to the rectory of Toft, whenever he desires it, if he think it necessary to procure a dispensation": and opposite the signatures (including on this occasion his own) is written "I do now resign my Fellowship, T. Hudson." He was instituted to Toft 23 June 1779. He died July 1785, aged 51.

Nibbs, Septimus: son of William: born in Antigua. School: St Bees, under M^r^ Fisher. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Wigley 13 Oct. 1752. Age 16.

M.B. 1758. He appears both in the Admission Book and in the Cat. Grad. as "Septimus Filius Nibbs": perhaps an error. He was son of William Nibbs and Mary his wife of St George's, Antigua: he had brothers Octavius and Nonus. He appears in Oliver (Hist. of Antigua) as D^r^ Septimus Nibbs of St George's. He married twice, each time a Grace: by the second wife who was sister of Chris. Hodge (adm. 1757) he had four sons and two daughters.

Husband, Richard: son of John: born at Eyton, Salop. School: Wem, under M^r^ Prytherch. Admitted 20 June 1753. Age 17.

Elected Fellow, Finch and Baines (in place of Ri. Parkinson) 29 June 1769: K. Edw. VI (succeeding Nic. Brown) 15 July 1771. Joined Barker and Wall in supporting Joshua Wigley in his claim to Moulton rectory 1772. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, and Steward 1770. Custos cistae 1772. Senior Greek Lecturer and Mildmay Preacher, and Hebrew Lecturer 1772–4: during which time John Law was actually giving the classical lectures which Haighton, like other statutory lecturers, doubtless did not. Bunting, Walkhampton and Knapwell Preacher 1774. Senior Dean 1777. Chaplain to the Earl of Cassilis. Signs the register (as curate) of Fen Drayton 1771 Apr.–1772 Apr. Rector of Long Stow 16 June 1774. Gamekeeper at Bourn (adjacent) 4 July 1777. Presented to Bourn (succeeding Tho. Hudson) 29 Nov. 1777: on the same day has a lease of the tithes of Hapton for life. Had dispensation 21 May 1778 to hold Bourn, together with Long Stow, distant one mile: £200 were given by the College to obtain Queen Anne's Bounty for the augmentation of the vicarage of Bourn. His Fellowship declared vacant 25 May 1779. In Dec. 1782 he resigned Bourn, where he was succeeded by the Rev. Isaac Avarne (of Queens')—still holding Long Stow. On 23 July 1783 he had license to hold (with Long Stow) the rectory of Bolnhurst, Beds., distant 17 miles (which Isaac Avarne resigned)—patron, Ri. Haighton (? self or father): I suppose, resigned it 1786 when he had dispensation (10 Feb.) to hold with Long Stow the rectory of Croxton, Cambs., distant five miles. J.P. for Cambs. more than 30 years. Died at Long Stow 21 Apr. 1810, aged 71 (Gent. Mag. p. 496). He represented the anti-progress element in the College: and opposed Jebb's reforms in the University.

Ogden, Reuben: son of Edmund: born at Denholme, Yorks. School: Bingley, under M^r^ Hudson. Admitted sizar under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 12 May 1758. Age 20.

Admitted scholar (K. Edw. VI) 14 Feb. 1759. He is charged 7*s.* 6*d.* in Study-rents each quarter till Xmas 1760; afterwards 3*s.* 0*d.* till Mids^r^. 1767: he can hardly have resided so long: perhaps he was qualifying for B.D. ("ten-year-man"). Ordained deacon, Chester, 1761 Sept.

Wagstaffe, Thomas: son of Avery: born at St Neots. School: Biggleswade under M^r^ Smith. Admitted sizar under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 15 May 1758. Age 19.

B.A. 1762; M.A. 1765. Admitted scholar 14 Feb. 1759. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1762 Feb.; licensed to Wood Walton and Ravely, Hunts.: priest 1763 Sept.; curate of Brampton, Hunts. Rector of Barley, Herts. 1779 Oct., patron, D^r^ Keene the Bishop (Ely). Cole gives the following account of him: "he had married a daughter of M^r^ Underwood nephew of the Bishop. I heard it said at the time that he set off to offer himself to Bp. Green's (Lincoln) niece, and as he was entering the Palace at Bugden he met M^r^ Wheeldon, who had just got the start of him and was returning with an assurance that his proposals were accepted, and accordingly married the lady, a miller's daughter in Yorkshire, sister of M^r^ Dowbiggin's wife, whose husband is sub-dean of Lincoln, on the same plan of Nepotism." M^r^ Wagstaffe died 1800, aged 63.

Nelson, Thomas: son of William: born at York, Virginia. School: Hackney, under D^r^ Newcome. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Porteus 15 May 1758. Age 19.

Resided till Lady Day 1761: during the last year he pays £1. 15*s.* 0*d.* a quarter for "two chambers."

Wanley, William: son of Francis: born at Ribston, Yorks. School: Eton, under D^{r} Barnard. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Shepherd and Backhouse 29 July 1758. Age 18.

B.A. (6th jun. opt.) 1763; M.A. 1766. Admitted scholar (Richmondshire) 14 Feb. 1759. Son of Francis ($17\frac{25}{7}$) Fellow, and Dean of Ripon. Admitted at the Middle Temple 13 Dec. 1765, as of Ripon.

Stoddart, Charles: son of Charles, clerk: born at Chollerton, Northumb^{d}. School: Newcastle, under M^{r} Moises. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Shepherd and Backhouse 13 Oct. 1758. Age 18.

B.A. 1763; M.A. 1766. Admitted scholar 6 Dec. 1759. Grandson of Charles (1690), son of Charles (1726) the vicar of Chollerton 1733–90, father of Charles (1790). Ordained deacon, London, 1763 Jan.: priest, Rochester, 1767 Dec. Master of Ashford School, Kent 1 Jan. 1778, on the appointment of Sir Edw. Knatchbull. On 15 June 1785 he was instituted to the vicarage of Newchurch, Kent, succeeding Rob. Tournay (M.A. (Christ's) 1765). Married Ann, daughter of the Rev. Joh. Squire of Lavenham. Buried at Ashford 8 June 1812. He was intimate with Paley who was of the same standing though three years junior, and furnished recollections to Meadley for his Life: see pp. 15–20. Whether he was the candid friend who woke Paley one morning in his third year at 5 a.m. and told him "what a damned fool he was" and that unless he took to steady work, he (the speaker) would renounce his society, does not appear.

Paley, William: son of William: born in Northants. School: Giggleswick, under Will. Paley, his father. Admitted sizar under Mess^{rs} Shepherd and Backhouse 16 Nov. 1758. Age 15.

B.A. (senior wrangler) 1763; M.A. 1766; D.D. 1795. Began residence, 1759 Oct., aged 16: son of William ($17\frac{29}{30}$) vicar of Helpstone, near Peterborough, and Headmaster of Giggleswick: his mother was Eliz. Clapham of Stackhouse. Admitted scholar 6 Dec. 1759. Elected Fellow, in place of M^{r} Evans, 24 June 1766. Private tutor at Greenwich to John Ord from 1766 till he came up to Christ's Mich. 1767. Ordained priest, London, 1767 Dec. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, Bunting, Walkhampton and Knapwell Preacher 1767: the same and also Steward and Hebrew Lecturer 1768. Senior Greek Lecturer and Mildmay Preacher 1768–70. Custos cistae 1771. Senior Dean 1775. After August 1768, when Backhouse left Cambridge and ceased to be joint tutor with Shepherd, the latter employed Paley and John Law to be his assistants—a very good arrangement for himself, which lasted till March 1772, when Paley and Law became joint tutors: Ri. Haighton had started to take pupils in Oct. 1771 and the two friends doubtless desired an equally independent status, as well as a proper share of the tuition-money. Taxor 1770–1. Whitehall Preacher 1771. Married 6 June 1771 Miss Hewitt of Carlisle. Finally left Cambridge that year. Vicar of Dalston, Cumberland 1776; Appleby 1777. Prebendary of Carlisle 1780. Archdeacon 1782. Chancellor of the diocese 1785. In 1792 was appointed vicar of Aldingham; of Stanwix 1793. Given the prebend of St Pancras in St Paul's 1794. Subdean of Lincoln. Vicar of Bishop Wearmouth 1795, worth £1200 a year. His first wife died in 1791 and left him four sons and four daughters. In 1795 he married Miss Dobinson of Carlisle; lived in comfort at Monkwearmouth; J.P. etc. Died 25 May 1805, and buried in Carlisle Cathedral. Published first in 1785 Principles of Morals and Political Philosophy, which went through many editions: Horae Paulinae, 1790, his most original work: Reasons for Contentment, 1792: Evidences of Christianity, 1794: Natural Theology, 1802 (20th edition 1820); also many works of minor importance, sermons, etc. "Nobody has surpassed Paley as a writer of text-books. He is an unrivalled expositor of plain arguments, though he neither shared nor claimed originality. His morality is one of the best statements of the utilitarianism of the eighteenth century.... Whether his peculiar compromise between orthodoxy and rationalism can be accepted is a different question. His books, as he says in his preface to the Natural Theology, form a system, containing the evidences of natural and of revealed religion, and of the duties which result from both. The system has gone out of fashion, but the Evidences still hold their place as a text-book..., and the Natural Theology is still mentioned with respect by many who dissent from its conclusions and hold that it requires modification." (D.N.B.) His Life by G. W. Meadley published in 1809.

Randall, John Francis: [father not given]: of Middlesex. School: Winchester, under D^{r} Burton. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Shepherd and Backhouse 15 Dec. 1758. Age 18.

His fellowship declared vacant 3 Dec. 1785. He died of the gout at Anstye 2 October 1805, aged 64.

Thompson, Beilby: son of Beilby: born at York. School: Craik [near Easingwold], under M^r^ Jeffson. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 16 Nov. 1759. Age 18.

Charged (Study-rents) 3*s.* 0*d.* a quarter till Xmas 1764: he apparently resided, as there is also a charge for "his man." Son of Beilby Thompson, of Escrick, High Sheriff of Yorks, 1730, and of Sarah, widow of Sir Darcy Dawes: grandson of John Beilby of Cayton. M.P. for Thirsk (Poulson, 2. 64). Died without issue 10 June 1799: succeeded by his brother Richard (1761). (Hunter, F.M.G. 534.)

Jordan, Edward: son of Edward: born in Barbadoes. School: Westminster, under D^r^ Markham. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 30 Nov. 1759. Age 19.

Resided till Lady Day 1760.

Bates, Joah: son of Henry: born at Halifax. School: Eton, under D^r^ Barnard. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 30 Nov. 1759. Age 19.

Admitted scholar (K. Edw. VI) 6 Dec. 1759. Craven Scholar 1760. Resided till Lady Day 1760 and then admitted (4 May) at King's: where he was B.A. 1764; M.A. 1767; Fellow and Tutor. Private Secretary to the Earl of Sandwich, who made him Commissioner of the Victualling Office—Conductor of the "Concerts of Ancient Music." Commissioner of the Customs. V.P. of Westminster Hospital, and a director of Greenwich Hospital. Married in 1780 to Sarah Harrop. Impoverished in his later years by bad speculation. Died 8 June 1799. He had great musical talent. (D.N.B.)

His son Cha. Cecil admitted 1807.

Hall, Joseph: son of Joseph: born at Banktop, Yorks. School: Skipton, under M[r] Plomer. Admitted sizar under Mess[rs] Shepherd and Backhouse 8 Feb. 1760. Age 18.

B.A. 1764; M.A. 1767. Admitted scholar (K. Edw. VI) 26 May 1761. Intimate with Paley when an undergraduate (Meadley, Life, 21). Ordained deacon, Lichfield, 1764 Mar.: priest, York, 1765 June. Master of Grantham School 1768–1816 (Carlisle, 1. 814). Chaplain to Earl Fitzwilliam. Vicar of Ancaster, nine miles from Grantham: doubtless he taught his school on week days, and rode over on Sundays. Had dispensation from Lambeth 19 Jan. 1778 to hold also the rectory of Snelland, distant 27 miles: again, 13 Jan. 1784, to hold with Ancaster the vicarage of Hough, distant four miles. He died at Grantham 30 April 1814 (? 1816) in his 75th year (Gent. Mag.).

Watkins, Henry: son of Joseph: born at Lisbon. School: Hackney, under D[r] Newcome. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Shepherd and Backhouse 27 Mar. 1760. Age 17.

B.A. (4th wrangler) 1764; M.A. 1767. Admitted scholar 26 May 1761. Born 1743, son of Joseph Watkins of London, merchant, by his wife Magd. Gibbes. Ordained deacon (according to Lambeth Register) 1760 June; which is impossible: according to the Peterborough Register 1770 June: which is also impossible if the date of his ordination as priest, Lincoln, 1768 May, be right as it probably is. Licensed, as deacon, to Passenham, Northants. Vicar of Conisbrough, Yorks. 20 Dec. 1770, worth £200 a year: had dispensation from Lambeth, 22 June 1774, to hold also the vicarage of Birstall, distant 28 miles. Prebendary of York 15 July 1773–1829. Prebendary of Southwell, succeeding Tho. Cockshutt of Christ's, 20 June 1774–1829. Had dispensation, as chaplain to the Bishop of Exeter, 28 Nov. 1800 to hold with Conisbrough the rectory of Waltham on the Wolds, Leics., distant 30 miles: and again to hold the rectory of Barnborough, Yorks. 29 April 1815, worth £350 a year, distant four miles. Married Anna Maria, daughter of Joh. Wilmer of Stony Stratford. Died 1829, aged 86. Perhaps father of Henry (1794) who was born in Yorks., but no other facts recorded.

Johnson, William Towers: son of Richard: born at Runton, Norfolk. Educated at Wood Norton, by M[r] Whitmell. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Shepherd and Backhouse 10 May 1760. Age 22.

LL.B. 1766. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1766 Sept.: licensed to Twyford: priest, London, 1769 May. Instituted to Barningham Nor[th]wood, near Holt 30 May 1769 on the presentation of Will. Windham, Esq.: held it till 1799: in which time he twice signed two pages of the register (Rev. J. R. Mee): rector of Beeston Regis (patron, the Crown) 2 Apr. 1772–1799—when both livings were vacant.

Russell, William Rawstone [perhaps Rawstorne]: son of William: born at Barningham, Norfolk. Educated at home. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Shepherd and Backhouse 28 May 1760. Aged 18.

B.A. 1764; M.A. 1770. Will. Russell—single man—of the City of London was married at Town Barningham by license to M[rs] Anne Barnes—single woman—of Hanworth 4 August 1741. Their son, Will. Rawstone Russell was born there 18 Dec. 1742 and baptised the same day. (Barningham register.) William Russell bought Barningham Hall and the estate from the Pastons in 1756—but sold it soon after to one of the Lane family: from whom it passed in 1775 to the Motts the present owners (Rev. J. R. Mee, rector of Town Barningham). W. R. Russell settled at Ipswich. Later, paymaster of the Leeds recruiting district. Died 1818, aged 75. (Davy.) A Will. Rawstorne [sic] was rector of Badsworth, Yorks. 1738—possibly his grandfather.

Pye, William: son of William: born at Falmouth. School: Westminster, under D[r] Markham. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Shepherd and Backhouse 16 June 1760. Age 19.

B.A. 1764. Admitted scholar 26 May 1761. Ordained deacon, York, 1764 Sept.: licensed to Armthorpe, near Doncaster: priest, London, 1769 May.

Unwin, William Cawthorne: son of Morley: born at Grimston, near Lynn. School: Charterhouse, under D[r] Crusius. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Shepherd and Backhouse 1 July 1760. Age not given.

B.A. (6th sen. opt. and 2nd Chancellor's Medallist) 1764; M.A. 1767. Admitted scholar 26 May 1761. His father, Morley Unwin, was B.A. (Queens') 1725 and Fellow; held the College living of Grimston, and afterwards lived at Huntingdon. His mother was Mary Cawthorne—Cowper's "Mary." Young Unwin made Cowper's acquaintance and introduced him to his family, with whom he afterwards lived. Cowper described him in a letter to Lady Hesketh 14 Sept. 1765 as "one of the most unreserved and amiable young men I ever conversed with:...having nothing in his heart which makes it necessary for him to keep it barred and bolted, he opens it to the perusal of even a stranger." Many of Cowper's letters, from 1780 onward are addressed to him. He was ordained deacon, London, 1767 Dec.: priest 1769 Mar. He was curate of Comberton, near Cambridge. Till Mich. 1769 he seems to have lived in College. He was decidedly Evangelical, and according to Meadley his admirers followed him to Comberton, including the cook; which made Paley (who was very friendly with him) declare that "Unwin was unduly favoured, since he (Paley) never got such suppers elsewhere." He was instituted to the rectory of Stock, in Essex (?1778) on the presentation of Lord Chancellor Thurlow. He was Chaplain to Lord Bolingbroke, and 16 June 1780 he had a dispensation to hold the contiguous rectory of Ramsden Crays. Paley occasionally visited him and sent him pupils: Unwin though very dissimilar in every way was "never ruffled by the raillery of his lively friend, who frequently joked with him on his grave demeanour and serious turn of mind." In 1784 Cowper corresponded with Unwin on the education of Unwin's son: he strongly preferred private to public school education. Unwin died 29 Nov. 1786, aged 41. He had taken a tour with a friend, and when at Winchester he was seized with a "putrid fever" of which he died in a few days. He was buried there. He was author of The right use of the law: The sinfulness of buying run goods: Friendly reproof to those who seldom attend Public worship, 1774.

Mills, Peter Matthew: son of Matthew: born at St Christopher's. School: Westminster, under D[r] Markham. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess[rs] Shepherd and Backhouse 23 Oct. 1760. Age 17.

Resided till December 1761.

B.A. 1765; M.A. 1768. Ordained deacon, London, 1767 Sept.: priest 1769 Sept. Rector of Purley St Mary, Berks. until 1800, when he resigned in favour of his son. Died 1816, aged 71 (Davy).

Wright, John: son of John: born at Euston, Suffolk. School: Wyverstone, under M[r] Steggall. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Shepherd and Backhouse 29 Jan. 1761. Age 18.

B.A. 1765. Admitted scholar 26 May 1761. Probably younger son of John Wright, rector of Euston, near Thetford: brother of Harbord (1742) and Tho. (1754). Ordained deacon, Lincoln (at Buckden) 1765 Oct.; licensed to Euston: priest, Norwich, 1767 Sept. Rector of Taverham, 1766–68, patron, the Bishop. Rector of Tattersett and Tatterford, 1767–93, patron, Tho. Wright, Esq. Succeeded his nephew, Charles (1769), son of his elder brother Harbord, at Kilverstone. Married (1) Catharine Morden, (2) Anne M. Pierson of Middleton, by whom he had sons John and Thomas. Died 1793 (Burke, L.G.). One John Wright was Prebendary of London (Chiswick) 9 Feb. 1788–93.

Younge, John: son of Robert: born at Colchester. School: Colchester, under M^r^ Hayes. Admitted sizar under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 10 Feb. 1761. Age 19.

Resided till Mids. 1764 at least: pays 3*s.* 0*d.* a quarter till Mids. 1766: but no degree. Brother of Robert (1752). Ordained deacon, London, 1764 Dec.

Ellinthorpe, Joseph: son of Thomas: born at Barcroft, Yorks. School: Bingley, under M^r^ Hudson. Admitted sizar under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 1 May 1761. Age 21.

Smith, Edward: son of John: born at Skirbeck, Lincs. School: Beverley, under M^r^ Ward. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 8 June 1761. Age 18.

B.A. 1765; M.A. 1768. Admitted scholar 10 Dec. 1762. Ordained deacon, Lambeth, 1766 May: priest, London (lit. dim. from Canterbury) 1766 Dec. Rector of Milstead, Kent, 3 Mar. 1767. Chaplain to Earl Powys. Had dispensation 10 Nov. 1779 to hold also the rectory of Frinsted, distant four miles.

Green, William: son of William: born at Monsorrel [Mountsorrel], Leics. School: Greystock [?], under M^r^ Blain. Admitted sizar under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 7 July 1761. Age 18.

B.A. 1765. Admitted scholar 10 Dec. 1762.

Rutherford, Sydenham: son of John: born at Merston, Somerset. Educated at home. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 6 Oct. 1761. Age 17.

B.A. 1766; M.A. 1769. Admitted scholar 10 Dec. 1762. Admitted at the Middle Temple 13 Nov. 1767 as son of the Rev. John Rutherford of Great Merston.

Thompson, Richard: son of Beilby: born at York. School: Craike, Yorks., under M^r^ Jeffson. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 7 October 1761. Age not given.

Resided till Mids^r^. 1763. Gave a silver waiter as his plate-contribution. Younger son of Beilby Thompson of Escrick: brother of Beilby (1759). Succeeded his brother at Escrick in 1779. Died unmarried 1820 (Hunter, F.M.G. 534).

Buckley, Edward: son of George: born at York. Educated at home. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 3 Oct. 1761. Age 18.

B.A. 1766; M.A. 1769. Ordained deacon, York, 1767 Nov.; licensed to Kippax and Hunslet: priest, 1768 June. Vicar of Kippax (presented by the Crown) 22 Dec. 1770.

Thomas, Matthew: son of Peter: born at Camberwell. School: Hackney, under D[r] Newcome. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Shepherd and Backhouse 13 Oct. 1761. Age 17.

B.A. 1766; M.A. 1769. Admitted scholar (Finch and Baines) 10 Dec. 1762. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1767 Dec.: licensed to Barham and Baylham, near Ipswich: priest, London, 1769 May.

Waldron, John:

M.A. 1768. Son of Edward of Kinver, Staffs. Matriculated at Magd. Hall, Oxford 11 Oct. 1742, aged 17. B.A. (Oxford) 1746. Incorporated, and M.A. (Christ's) 1768 (Al. Ox.). Ordained deacon, Worcester, 1747 July: priest 1749 May. Rector of Hampton Lovett, Worcs. Chaplain to the Earl of Lichfield and Coventry 1768. Had dispensation 17 Feb. 1768 to hold with Hampton the rectory of Rushock, distant four miles. Died 3 July 1794.

Law, John: son of Edmund: born at Greystoke, Cumberland. School: Charterhouse, under D[r] Crusius. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Shepherd and Backhouse 13 Jan. 1762. Age 16.

B.A. (2nd wrangler, 1st Chancellor's Medal) 1766; M.A. 1769; D.D. 1782. Admitted scholar 10 Dec. 1762. Born 1745, eldest son of Edmund, Fellow of Christ's 1727–40, Master of Peterhouse and Bishop of Carlisle, also rector of Greystoke (1739–87); by Mary Christian of Unerigg. Elected Fellow, succeeding Will. Backhouse, 18 Dec. 1770. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, Junior Greek Lecturer, and Steward 1771. Custos cistae 1773. From 1766 he was assistant (together with Will. Paley) to D[r] Shepherd, and from 1772–4 joint tutor with Shepherd and Paley: he lectured on mathematics and classics —an exciting novelty: see under Paley, and Meadley's Life of Paley, pp. 54–8: the statutory Greek Lecturer 1772–4 was M[r] Haighton—who had been senior wrangler—and was generally opposed to all reform, and especially to those of Paley and Law. Instituted rector of Westmill, Herts. 6 Sept. 1771, but still lived at Cambridge. His Fellowship was declared vacant 27 May 1774, up to which time he was still resident: but on 27 Apr. 1773 he was instituted to a Prebend (second stall) at Carlisle, "naturally" according to Meadley (p. 100) his father having become Bishop: and he was instituted to the vicarage of Whittingham, Northumb[d]. 10 Sept. 1773. On 10 July 1777 he was collated to the archdeaconry of Carlisle: and 30 Dec. 1777, as chaplain to the Bishop, he had dispensation to hold also the vicarage of Warkworth, distant 12 miles: which he resigned 1782. On 18 June 1782, while holding Whittingham, he had dispensation to hold also the vicarage of St Nicholas, Newcastle, distant 29 miles. He was also rector of Great Salkeld 1777–82, when Paley succeeded him. But in April 1782, he had found time to go to Ireland as chaplain to the Lord Lieutenant: and he was promptly appointed to the Bishopric of Clonfert, Aug. 1782; translated to Killala 1787, and to Elphin 1795. He married Anne, widow of John Thomlinson of Carlisle. Died in Dublin 18 Mar. 1810—and buried in Trinity College. Of his brothers, one became Lord Ellenborough, and another Bishop of Bath and Wells: neither was at Christ's: but Ja. Tho. Law, the Bishop's son, was admitted 1807. See Meadley, Life of Paley (imperfect) D.N.B..

Taylor, Peter: son of Henry: born at Whitfield, Oxon. School: Crawley, Oxon., under M[r] Taylor. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Shepherd and Backhouse 24 Mar. 1762. Age not given.

B.A. (3rd jun. opt.) 1766; M.A. 1769 (at Queens'); B.D. 1778. Fellow of Queens', as his father Henry had been before him. Vicar of Titchfield, Hants. 1779. Rector of Clanfield 1787: and of Ashington, Sussex 11 Mar. 1788–1791, when he died, July 22. Subscriber to Jebb's Works.

D'Oyly, Thomas: son of Thomas: born at Chichester. School: St Paul's, under M[r] Thicknesse. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Shepherd and Backhouse 27 March 1762. Age 18.

B.A. 1766; M.A. (St John's) 1769. Admitted scholar 10 Dec. 1762. According to M[r] Sydenham Hervey (West Stow Registers, page 269) son of Matthias D'Oyly, Archdeacon of Lewes. Ordained deacon, London, 1768 May; priest 1769 May: licensed to Snailwell 14 June 1770. Vicar of St Peter's, at St Albans (? same year). Bishop of Ely's Fellow at St John's, 17 March 1766–1772. Presented by the Bishop of Ely to the vicarage of Walton on Thames, in room of his father, 1770 (Camb. Chron. 17 Feb.): perhaps did not reside there. Married Susannah, daughter of Barham Rushbrooke of West Stow and of Mildenhall, Aug. 1772. Died 1816, aged 73.

Younge, Robert: son of Robert, clerk. "Scotus." Educated by his father. Admitted sizar under Mess[rs] Shepherd and Backhouse 19 Apr. 1762. Age 18.

Tancred Student. Died at Cambridge (Camb. Chron. 7 Dec. 1764).

Smith, Thomas: son of Abel: born at Nottingham. School: Leicester, under M[r] Andrews. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess[rs] Shepherd and Backhouse 13 May 1762. Age not given.

B.A. (1st sen. opt.) 1766. Admitted at the Inner Temple 23 Apr. 1763. Son and heir of Abel Smith (banker of Nottingham, and M.P. for Aldborough, for St Ives, and for St Germains), by his wife Mary, daughter of Thomas Bird of Barton, Warwickshire. Died unmarried. His third brother, Robert, was first Baron Carrington 1796: whose eldest son, Robert John, second Baron, was admitted 1811.

Jones, William: [father not given]: of Pembrokeshire. "Antea sacris initiatus." Admitted sizar under Mess[rs] Shepherd and Backhouse 21 June 1762. Age not given.

B.D. 1773 (ten-year-man). Paid 3*s.* 0*d.* every quarter up to Dec[r]. 1772.

Daniel, James: [father not given]: of Yorkshire. Admitted sizar under Mess[rs] Shepherd and Backhouse 6 July 1762. Age 19 (? 20).

B.A. 1766. Admitted scholar 15 Dec. 1765. Ordained priest, York, 1766 Oct. Licensed to cure of Carlton Chapel, 1766. Perhaps the James Daniell, born Aug. 1741, who was rector of Dilhorn, Staffs.: and died Oct. 1809 (Ormerod-Helsby, 1. 734).

Williams, Richard: son of Thomas: born at Settle, Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under M[r] Paley. Admitted sizar under Mess[rs] Shepherd and Backhouse 4 Nov. 1762. Age 16.

B.A. (7th wrangler) 1767; M.A. 1770. Admitted scholar 15 Dec. 1765. Ordained priest, London, 1770 March.

Watts, Joseph: son of Thomas: born at Plumpton, Cumberland. School: Stortford, under M[r] Hodson. Admitted sizar under Mess[rs] Shepherd and Backhouse 2 Dec. 1762. Age 19.

Charged 7*s.* 6*d.* each quarter till Dec. 1768: afterwards charged 3*s.* 0*d.* till Mids[r]. 1769. Ordained deacon (as student in Civil Law) 1766 June: licensed to West Barsham, Norfolk: priest 1767 July; licensed to be Master of Walsingham School.

Allen, Loder:

Admitted scholar (Suffolk) 25 May 1764. He appears neither in the Adm[n]. Book, nor in the Matriculation-register. In Study-rents Mich. 1762 (3*s.* 0*d.* a quarter): perhaps resided from Mich. 1763 till Lady Day 1766—name appears till Mids. 1767. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1768 Nov.; licensed to Dallinghoe, Suffolk: priest 1773 Aug. Married a wife Lydia 1769 (Davy). Rector of Alderton and vicar of Bawdsey (contiguous), Suffolk, Sept. 1773. Also rector of Easton (? near Wickham Market) 4 Jan. 1787–1811, patron, the Earl of Rochford. Vicar of Framsden, Suffolk 1792–1811, when he died 21 June, aged 66; buried in the chancel of the church, as also his wife Lydia (died 5 July 1814).

He was a clever mechanic, and invented a screw, still in use, for the elevation of guns: for which he received a pension from Government. He also invented a flying-machine, with which (it is said) he attempted to fly from the top of his church tower. (Information from Rev. Mundeford Allen, vicar of Winston.)

Baines, Thomas:

LL.B. 1772. Probably the Tho. Baines matriculated Dec. 1762. Admitted scholar (Essex) 10 Dec. 1762. Rector of Tolleshunt D'Arcy, Essex. Had dispensation 26 June 1786 to hold also the rectory of Little Wratting near Haverhill, distant 30 miles. Died at Halstead 6 Nov. 1818, aged 75 (Davy).

Bowen, Furnivall:

M.A. 1769. Son of John Bowen of Haverfordwest. Matriculated at Jesus College, Oxford, 13 Dec. 1755, aged 18. B.A. (Oxford) 1760 (Al. Ox. 141). Incorporated, and M.A. (Christ's) 1769. Rector of Buckenham Ferry, with Hassingham St Mary, Norfolk 1768–84, patron, Sir Will. Beauchamp Proctor.

Wilson, Edward: son of John: born at Lockington, Yorks. School: Beverley, under M^{r} Ward. Admitted sizar under Mess^{rs} Shepherd and Backhouse 9 Apr. 1763. Age 17.

B.A. (12th wrangler) 1767; M.A. 1770. Admitted scholar 15 Dec. 1765. Elected Fellow, Finch and Baines (in place of Rob. Harrington) 19 July 1771: Lady Margaret (in place of Tho. Hudson) 18 July 1778. Presented to Fen Drayton 14 Dec. 1772. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, and Steward 1772. Bunting, Walkhampton and Knapwell Preacher 1774. Senior Greek Lecturer, Mildmay Preacher and Hebrew Lecturer 1774–6. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, 1778. (Up to this time he rarely appears at College meetings: henceforward he signs fairly regularly.) Senior Dean, Steward, Bunting, Walkhampton and Knapwell Preacher 1781. On 6 July 1784 he was presented to the rectory of Moulton vacant by the death of Tho. Murhall. On 4 May 1785 it was agreed that £50 should be given him in consideration of his erecting an additional building at Moulton of brick, instead of lath and plaster. Fellowship declared vacant 8 Oct. 1785. In 1811 he was presented by Sir Ja. Affleck to the rectory of Dalham: no dispensation is recorded at Lambeth. On 5 June 1818 he had a lease of M^{r} Vernon's farm at Moulton at a peppercorn rent. In 1823 he died holding both Moulton and Dalham, aged 75 [?]. Wilson was on intimate terms with Paley, during the residence of the latter at Christ's. He has been erroneously described as Canon of Windsor by confusion with another Edw. Wilson, of Pembroke, private tutor to William Pitt, and also an early friend of Paley: the confusion has perhaps arisen from Meadley's Life of Paley, pp. 60 and 177.

Podmore, Richard: son of Richard: born at Condover, Salop. School: Shrewsbury, under M^{r} Newling. Admitted sizar under Mess^{rs} Shepherd and Backhouse 14 May 1763. Age 18.

LL.B. 1769. Admitted scholar 25 May 1764. Born 14 Apr. 1744 (Condover Reg^{r}.) son of Richard (1731). Ordained deacon, Lichfield, 1766 Sept.: priest (as "student of Christ's College"), Chester, 1768 June: licensed curate of Rochdale to Tho. Wray (of Christ's) vicar. Licensed to the Chapel of Saddleworth, Yorks., 1771 May. Vicar of Sittingbourne, Kent (patron, the Archbishop—viz. Cornwallis) 7 Sept. 1776. Collated to vicarage of Cranbrook 19 Nov. 1777: had dispensation to hold also the vicarage of Appledore, with the chapel of Ebony St Mary, distant 14 miles: resigned Appledore before Sept. 1782.

Ward, John Sharp: son of Hugh: born at Haighton, Yorks. Educated at Wheldrake by M^r^ Simpson. Admitted sizar under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 26 May 1763. Age 18.

B.A. (10th sen. opt.) 1767. Ordained deacon, York, 1767 Dec.: priest 1769 May.

Finch, Henry: son of Henry: born in London. School: Eton, under D^r^ Barnard. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 6 June 1763. Age 18.

Admitted scholar (I think L. Marg^t.^) as of Midds. 25 May 1764. He seems to have resided from Mich. 1763 to Mich. 1765, charged 3*s.* 0*d.* till Dec. 1768. Admitted at the Inner Temple 30 Jan. 1769 as "of Christ's College," and no more. I cannot connect him with the Nottingham Finches—Hen. Finch (1712) is said to have died unmarried.

Walter, Weaver: son of William: born at Tonbridge. School: Tonbridge, under M^r^ Towers. Admitted sizar under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 13 June 1763. Age 16.

B.A. 1767; M.A. 1770. Admitted scholar 25 May 1764. Elected Fellow, succeeding Caesar Morgan, 29 June 1776. Ordained deacon, Durham, 1 Sept. 1776: priest, Sept. 22. Under-usher of Newcastle Grammar School 15 Dec. 1766 (according to Brand, Newcastle, 1. 98): as he was not then B.A. perhaps an error for 1776; he is charged £1. 10*s.* for rooms up to Lady Day 1767: but it would account for some of the vacant ten years of his life. Resigned his mastership 1778. But he seems not to have resided, for he very rarely signs any College Order and holds no statutory office whatever till 1800, when he suddenly appears as Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, Steward, and Bunting, Walkhampton and Knapwell Preacher. On 14 Oct. 1801 he was presented to Brisley with Gateley, succeeding Cha. Dix, receiving on the same day a lease of the Manor and Rectory of Gateley and of the quit-rents and court profits of the manors of Bintry and Foulsham. Fellowship vacant 13 Nov. 1802. Died 2 Jan. 1814, aged 67.

Davis, William: son of William: born at St Asaph. School: St Asaph, under M^r^ Williams. Admitted sizar under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 13 June 1763. Age 17.

B.A. 1767 (Davies). Admitted scholar (Flints.) 15 Dec. 1765. Ordained deacon, Chester, 1769 Feb.

Beverley, John: son of William: born at Norwich. School: Norwich, under M^r^ Symonds. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 7 July 1763. Age 18.

B.A. 1767; M.A. 1770. Admitted scholar 25 May 1764. Esquire Bedell 1770–1827. For his conduct see Gunning's Reminiscences, passim: especially 1. 146–154, 2. 296–301. Gunning was his colleague and suffered much. He was elected by the influence of Lord Sandwich, who afterwards obtained him a commissionership at Greenwich Hospital, and later in life a small place at the Admiralty "of about £100 per annum, he being a good performer on the violin" (Cole). He married a Miss Thornhill who was "improvident and proud," while Beverley was extravagant: they had several children and he was always in difficulties. One of Gunning's best stories about him is that which tells how the Bishop of Bristol offered a notorious rascal, one Jemmy Gordon, half-a-crown (in reply to a request for a shilling) if he Gordon could find him a greater scoundrel than himself. Gordon went out and met Beverley and said to him "Have you seen a messenger from the Bishop of Bristol who is seeking you everywhere as his Lordship wishes to see you on particular business?" Beverley thanked him for the information and hastened to Trinity, Jemmy following him at no great distance. "I understand you are wishing to see me, my Lord" said Beverley addressing the Bishop: to which the latter replied, "You have been misinformed, M^{r} Beverley." At that moment Jemmy joined them, and taking off his hat most respectfully said "I think, my Lord, I am entitled to the half-crown." Beverley died in London 25 March 1827. In 1821 the Heads had agreed to the appointment of a deputy for him, provided that he resided wholly away from Cambridge. He published the Ceremonies of the University 1788, and two pamphlets on the proceedings at the trial of William Frend (of Christ's and Jesus), 1793.

Lea, Henry: son of Samuel: born at Rugeley, Staffs. School: Shrewsbury, under M^{r} Newling. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Shepherd and Backhouse 10 Oct. 1763. Age 18.

Admitted scholar 25 May 1764. Resided till Mich^{s}. 1765.

Clifton, Sir Gervase, bart.: only son of Sir Robert, K.C.B.: born at Clifton, Notts. School: Eton, under D^{r} Barnard. Admitted nobleman (paying £2) under Mess^{rs} Shepherd and Backhouse 14 Oct. 1763. Age 18.

Resided till Mids^{r}. 1765. Son of Sir Gervase (who died 1748) by a daughter of Sir Tho. Lombe, alderman of London. Married a Miss Lloyd, who died of infection caught by nursing her children in putrid fever: had three sons and one daughter. Died 1815: succeeded by his eldest son Sir Robert. (Burke, P. and B.)

Gibson, Rowland: son of Rowland: born at Kirkby Lonsdale. School: Kirkby Lonsdale. Admitted sizar under Mess^{rs} Shepherd and Backhouse 22 Oct. 1763. Age 19.

B.A. 1768; M.A. 1784. Admitted scholar 15 Dec. 1765. Ordained deacon, Lincoln (lit. dim. from Rochester) 1768 Feb. Chaplain to Lord Rodney. Vicar of Heathfield, Sussex 1773. Had dispensation 4 Aug. 1784 to hold also the vicarage of Henfield, distant 26 miles. Prebendary of Chichester (Seaford) 10 Nov. 1778. Died 1785.

Bowen, James:

M.A. 1770. Probably son of Will. Bowen of Lewiston, Pembroke, pleb. Matriculated at Jesus College, Oxford 23 May 1751, aged 19: B.A. 1755. Incorporated and M.A. (Christ's) 1770. (Al. Ox. 141.)

Gilder, Jonathan:

M.A. 1770. Son of Jonathan of Burton, Westmoreland, pleb. Matriculated (as Gelder) at Queen's College, Oxford 10 April 1753, aged 17. B.A. 1756. Chaplain to Lord Bellenden; vicar of Layston, with Buntingford St Peter, Herts. Had dispensation 27 Jan. 1770 to hold also the rectory of Aspenden.

Baines, Thomas: son of John: born at Layham, Suffolk. School: Westminster, under D^{r} Markham. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Shepherd and Backhouse 27 Jan. 1764. Age 22.

B.A. 1768; M.A. 1772. Second son of John Baines of Layham, by his wife Eliz., daughter of James Johnson, rector of Long Melford and nephew of D^{r} James Johnson, Bishop of Worcester 1759–74: baptised at Layham 12 Sept. 1738: therefore 25 (not 22) when admitted: brother of Robert (1766) and of Edmund Lewin (1770). [Another brother Matthew, who died in infancy, connects the family with the Matthew (1694) and John (1698), sons of the College cook and relations (supposed) of Sir Thomas.] Ordained priest, London, 1768 Dec. Rector of Richard's Castle, Hereford, and of Cainham near Ludlow, Salop. J.P. for Salop and for Hereford. Died at Batchcott near Ludlow 7 Mar. 1802 (Gent. Mag. p. 274). (Information from Rev. F. D. Thomson, rector of Layham.)

Finch (Finch-Hatton), George: eldest son of the Hon. Edward: born in London. School: Westminster, under D^r^ Markham. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 8 May 1764. Age 17.

M.A. (Hatton) 1768. Eldest son of Edw. Finch (fifth son of Daniel, Earl of Nottingham) who became Finch-Hatton in 1764: hence the change in the son's name: he is admitted as Finch. Brother of John E. D. E. Finch (1772). Geo. Finch-Hatton of Eastwell Park (1747–1823). Married Elizabeth Mary, daughter of David, second Earl of Mansfield: by whom he had George William (1808), afterwards tenth Earl of Winchilsea, and Dan. Heneage (1814). Died 17 Feb. 1823.

Calvert, William: son of Peter: born at Hertford. School: Bishop Stortford, under M^r^ Hodgson. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 2 June 1764. Age 17.

B.A. 1769; M.A. 1772. Probably came into residence Easter 1765. Ordained deacon, London, 1768 Dec.: priest 1770 Sept. Rector of Stocking Pelham, Herts. 1771–1831; also rector of Hunsdon 10 May 1777: I have not found any dispensation. Died 10 Dec. 1831, aged 85 (Davy).

Slade, Thomas: son of John, clerk: born in Staffs. School: Bosworth, under his father. Admitted sizar under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 5 June 1764. Age 18.

B.A. 1768; M.A. 1797. Admitted scholar 15 Dec. 1765: son of John Slade (1721). Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1769 Feb.; licensed to Thurlstone [Thurlaston]: priest 1771 Dec. Chaplain to Lord Berwick. Vicar of Aldestry (Austrey), Warws. Had license 31 May 1798 to hold also the vicarage of Thurlaston, distant 30 miles: he was inst^d^. 4 June 1797, according to Nichols (Leics. 4. 998): who says that he had been usher at Bosworth under his father. Probably he is the Tho. Slade B.A. (I can find no other) who was undermaster of Appleby School, Leics. 1792–99. (Nichols, Leics. 4. 442.)

Case, Henry: son of Henry: born at Mildenhall. School: Bury St Edmunds, under M^r^ Garnham. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 6 July 1764. Age 15.

B.A. (10th jun. opt.) 1769; M.A. 1772. Admitted scholar 5 Dec. 1767. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1772 June. Rector of Ladbrooke, Warwick. Married the widow of Geo. Morewood of Alfreton Hall, sister of M^r^ Palmer of Ladbrooke. Took the name Case-Morewood and resided at Alfreton. Died June 1825, aged 78, and buried there. Two portraits of him at the Hall: also many drawings by Bunbury the caricaturist, with whom he may have been a friend at school. (S.H.A.H.)

Wall, Gilman: son of Gilman: born in Cambridge. School: Buntingford, under M^r^ Gilder. Admitted sizar under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 6 July 1764. Age 17.

B.A. (1st sen. opt.) 1769; M.A. 1772. Admitted scholar 15 Dec. 1765. Brother of Adam (1746). Ordained deacon, Rochester, 1769 Sept.: priest 1771 May: curate of Deptford. Instituted to St Margaret, Canterbury 25 June 1774, patron, Archdeacon Backhouse, his former tutor. Resigned 1803.

Parkinson, Thomas: son of Adam: born at Kirkham, Lancs. School: Kirkham, under M^r^ Threlfal. Admitted sizar under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 11 October 1764. Age 19.

B.A. (senior wrangler, 2nd Smith Prize) 1769; M.A. 1772; B.D. 1789; D.D. 1795. Born 14 June 1745: his mother was Eliz. Swan. Admitted scholar 15 Dec. 1765. Said to have supported himself at Cambridge, as his father disapproved of his going there. Ordained deacon, London, 1769 May. Elected Fellow, Finch and Baines (in place of Ri. Haighton) 19 July 1771: Lady Marg^t^., succeeding his namesake Ri. Parkinson, 20 Apr. 1773. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, Steward, 1773, 1782, 1789. Custos cistae 1774–1780. Bunting, Walkhampton and Knapwell Preacher 1776. Senior Greek Lecturer and Mildmay Preacher 1776–8, 1784–6. Junior Dean and Catechist 1779. Senior Dean 1782, 1784, 1788. Senior Proctor 1786–7. Elected F.R.S. 23 Feb. 1786. He succeeded John Law as Tutor (together with Shepherd and Paley) 1774; with Shepherd and Seale 1776; with Seale only 1777—till 1789; with Metcalfe and Lane, till he left Cambridge. Gunning, who was admitted under him and Seale in 1784, has much to say of him, of his kindness, in spite of occasional irritability, and interest in his pupils. He lent Gunning the MSS. of his System of Mechanics and Hydrostatics, 1789, "which was never popular and is now almost forgotten" (H.G.). He was engaged at the time to a Miss Charlotte Bridge of Harston, who then lived at Kennet, beyond Newmarket; he used to ride over to visit her after a perfunctory lecture in the early morning, delivered in boots and spurs under his gown. He had hoped to succeed to the Mastership (and then to marry) in 1780 when Barker was elected. Cole mentions the lady as "one of the prettiest and best behaved women I have met with: she might have had two Baronetts, but stuck to her first choice": and says that Parkinson was "a person of the Foppish Order, as I am told": in 1780 he called him "an ingenious Coxcombe, too young to be a Master of a College." He would certainly have done it more credit than John Barker. Miss Bridge at last forsook Parkinson, whose prospects were poor; "he has no Preferment" said Cole. According to Thomas Moore, who was a friend of Parkinson (Diary, 2. 279) she married a M^r^ W., who had a seat near Bath; deserted him, and sank into the depths, but received an annuity from Parkinson who (Moore says) had educated her for the purpose of marrying her. He was vicar of Meldreth 29 June 1775: on 4 Nov. 1789 he was presented to the rectory of Kegworth on the death of M^r^ Willey: his fellowship was declared vacant 19 March 1791. He improved the parsonage-house, raising (with the sanction of the College) 8 May 1790 £1107 on the living of Kegworth, according to Gilbert's Act. On 15 Dec. 1790 he was allowed the cost of 120,000 bricks "for repairs." The College on 17 Feb. 1801 gave also 120 guineas towards the cost of a farm-house and offices on the glebe. He became Archdeacon of Huntingdon 16 Apr. 1794: of Leicester 31 March 1812. Prebendary of St Paul's (Chiswick) 16 Jan. 1798. Chancellor of Chester, 1804. (Ormerod, 1. 87.) He died 13 Nov. 1830, aged 86, "beloved and respected by all who knew him" (Gunning, 1. 162). Published two sermons, and one Archdeacon's charge (1822).

Overend, William Wilson: son of Peter: born at Bentham, Richmondshire. School: Bentham, under M^r^ Bennison. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 27 Oct. 1764. Age 17.

Admitted scholar (Richmond) 15 Dec. 1765. Resided till Lady Day 1767.

Cayley, Digby: fifth son of Sir George, bar^{t}.: born at Brompton, Yorks. School: Beverley, under M^{r} Ward. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Shepherd and Backhouse 6 Nov. 1764. Age 21.

LL.B. 1771. Son of Sir George Cayley, by Philadelphia Digby of Mansfield Woodhouse. Resided till June 1769: then charged 3*s.* for rooms till December 1770. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1769 May: curate of Belaugh, Norfolk: priest, 1770 Sept. Rector of Great and Little Witchingham 1771. Presented by his father 5 Mar. 1772 to the rectory of Thormanby, Yorks. Died 14 June 1798. His son Digby was M.P. for Sudbury: one of his daughters married Archdeacon Wrangham.

Salter, Philip: son of Samuel, D.D.: born at Burton [Coggles], Lincs. School: Charterhouse, under D^{r} Crusius. Admitted (after half a year at Corpus) pensioner under Mess^{rs} Shepherd and Backhouse 21 Dec. 1764. Age 18.

B.A. (last wrangler) 1768; M.A. 1771. Admitted scholar 15 Mar. 1766. The father D^{r} Samuel Salter, of Corpus, was Head Master of the Charterhouse, and rector of Burton Coggles 1740: he married Eliz. Secker, a relative of the Archbishop. Philip came to Christ's as a Tancred student, on the death of Rob. Young. He was ordained deacon, London, 1769 May: priest 1771 May. In 1772 he was presented by the Earl of Hardwick to the rectory of Shenfield, Essex: and held it for fifty-seven years. Subscribed to Jebb's Works. He was "as noisy and with as much impudence, I think, as the father" (Cole). His M.I. says that "he lived and died in charity with all men." He died 1829, aged 83.

Williams, Thomas: son of Thomas of Brecon. School: Monmouth, under M^{r} Crowe. Admitted sizar under Mess^{rs} Shepherd and Backhouse 6 June 1765. Age 19.

B.A. (8th jun. opt.) 1769. Admitted scholar 15 Dec. 1765. Son and heir of Thomas Williams of Aberbrane, Brecon. Ordained deacon, London, 1769 Feb.: priest, May. But, apparently admitted at the Inner Temple 3 Mar. 1779. One Tho. Williams vicar of Alfriston, Sussex 1785. Presented by the Lord Chancellor.

Rust, James: only surviving son of George: born at Kimbolton. Educated at Huntingdon by M^{r} Unwin. Admitted ("edoctus sermones utriusque linguae") fellow-commoner under Mess^{rs} Shepherd and Backhouse 10 June 1765. Age 18.

B.A. (10th wrangler) 1769. Probably admitted through Will. Cawthorne Unwin (1760) son of Morley Unwin of Huntingdon. Born there 1745, in which year his father was Mayor. A banker at Huntingdon. Married Margaret, daughter of Lancelot Brown, the well-known landscape-gardener ("Capability Brown"). Lived at Cromwell House where the Protector was born. Died 1827. (Information from G. J. R., grandson.)

Kimpton, Edward: son of Edward: born at Barkway, Herts. Educated at Foulmire, Cambs., by the rector, M^{r} Stevenson. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Shepherd and Backhouse 14 Aug. 1765. Age 21.

Resided till Christmas 1767: pays 3*s.* 0*d.* a quarter till Mids^{r}. 1769. Ordained deacon, London, 1768 Sept.: priest 1769 May. Vicar of Rogate, Sussex 1777–1813—during the 36 years he signed the register five or six times. Also Morning Preacher of St Matthew's, Bethnal Green: and doubtless lived in London. Author: A new and complete Universal History of the Holy Bible, 1781.

Barlow, Samuel: son of Francis: born at Middlethorpe, Yorks. School: Charterhouse, under D^r^ Crusius. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 25 Oct. 1765. Age 17.

Son of Francis Barlow of Middlethorpe by his second wife, a Miss Carter: called after his great uncle, Sam. Barlow of Leeds, who died 1716.

Resided till Lady Day 1768. Gave two silver candlesticks. Admitted at the Middle Temple 13 June 1767. Married a sister of Col. Thornton of Thornville Royal, Yorks. (Davy).

Greenaway, Stephen:

M.A. 1772. The only man of these names in Al. Ox. is the son of William, of St Edmonds, Salisbury; matriculated at Magd. Hall 19 July 1729, aged 16: but no degree is given.

One of these names was rector of Nether Broughton, Leics. 1778 (Nichols, Topogr. 8. 436). Probably also vicar of Cropwell Bishop, Notts., where his name occurs in the register in 1771: also vicar of Great Dalby, Leics. Died 1795 (Godfrey, Bingham Hundred, 128).

Mathews, Marmaduke:

M.A. 1772. Son of Thomas Mathews of Gloucester. Matriculated at Magd. Hall, Oxford 19 Mar. 1755, aged 17. B.A. (Oxford) 1758. Incorporated, and M.A. (Christ's) 1772. Vicar of St Nicholas, Warwick and of Wellingborough, Northants. 1774: and of St Mary, Warwick 1778, till his death 16 Oct. 1810 (Al. Ox. 928).

Simons, Matthew: son of Nicholas: born at Ingoldsby. School: Westminster, under D^r^ Smith. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 7 April 1766. Age 17.

Admitted scholar 5 Dec. 1767. Resided till Mids^r^. 1770.

Baines, Robert: son of John: born at Layam [Layham], Suffolk. School: Charterhouse, under D^r^ Crusius. At Ch. Ch., Oxford: then admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 5 May 1766. Age 17.

B.A. 1769; M.A. 1773. Admitted scholar (Finch and Baines) 5 Dec. 1767. Son of John Baines, Esq. of Layham, brother of Thomas (1764). According to Al. Ox. 49, he was admitted at Christ Church 13 May 1765, aged 18, which is right, as he was baptised (as Rob. Edmund) at Layham 20 Apr. 1747. He had a younger brother Edm. Lewin: which accounts for his second name being disused. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1769 May; licensed to Little Cornard, Suffolk: priest 1771 July. Curate of Santon-Downham, Suffolk, near Brandon. Chaplain to the Bishop of Chester. Rector of Upton on Severn 1772. Had dispensation 22 Dec. 1774 to hold also the rectory of Halford, Warw., distant 26 miles. Died 1825, aged 78 (Davy).

Fisher, John: son of John: born in Cambridge. School: Ashford [prob. in Kent], under M^r^ Hodgson. Admitted sizar under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 30 May 1766. Age 17.

B.A. (11th wrangler) 1770; M.A. 1773; LL.D. 1780. Son of John Fisher, draper, of Cambridge. Admitted scholar 5 Dec. 1767. Admitted at Gray's Inn 19 Jan. 1771. Elected Fellow, Finch and Baines (succeeding Tho. Brand) 27 Mar. 1775: K. Edw. VI (succeeding Ri. Haighton) 29 May 1779. Praelector, Catechist and Steward 1777. On 18 Dec. 1775 he was appointed by College Order "Steward of the Courts" in room of M^r^ Case, deceased. He wrote a very able and exhaustive "Appeal and Complaint" to D^r^ Beadon, V.C. 1781–3, in the matter of D^r^ Shepherd's fellowship, which he urged should be declared vacant: giving therein a very useful account of the divers Decrees and Interpretations of past Vice-Chancellors. He had an odd habit of writing notes in the Order Book, I suppose without D^r^ Barker's knowledge—perhaps after his death—when he differed from the resolution of the Society: the notes have been useful to me. On 8 Nov. 1786 he petitioned to be admitted Advocate in the Arches Court of Canterbury: which was granted (Lambeth Register). He lived in London, in order to practise there, coming up at rare intervals, as appears from Gunning's acknowledgment of his kindness in allowing him the use of his rooms without charge in 1788, on condition that he should quit them at short notice whenever Fisher had occasion to reside: Gunning was disturbed only for one week in four years. In 1790 he was appointed Commissary of the University and Deputy High Steward: a little before he had been elected Assessor to the Vice-Chancellor after a contest with Edw. Christian, Fellow of St John's; receiving 129 votes against 121 for Christian. (Gunning, 1. 210.) In 1800 he lent the College £1600 at 5 per cent. for the purchase from St John's College of the lease of Bourn. He was not always in such good circumstances: John (afterwards Lord) Campbell tells how on a visit to Cambridge he supped with Fisher who was then in prison for debt: he had made himself responsible for a man who then defaulted. He died, a Fellow, in 1814.

Wegg, George Samuel: son of Samuel: born in London. Educated by M^r^ Liptrott. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 26 June 1766. Age 16.

B.A. (12th wrangler) 1770; M.A. 1773. Admitted scholar 23 June 1769. Admitted at Gray's Inn 21 May 1762: his father, Samuel, J.P., F.R.S., F.S.A., was Treasurer of the Inn: as also of the Royal Society for 34 years. The son was a Bencher of Gray's Inn. Died 4 Jan. 1817.

Brand, Thomas: son of William: born at Newmarket. Educated by M^r^ Bullen [? at Kennet, where Tho. Bullen, adm^d^. 1784, was born]. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 4 July 1766. Age 15.

B.A. (5th wrangler) 1771; M.A. 1774. Admitted scholar 5 Dec. 1767. Ordained deacon, Peterborough, 1774 Feb.: priest, Lincoln, 1775 March. Elected Fellow, Finch and Baines, succeeding Tho. Parkinson, 14 May 1773: Lady Marg^t^., succeeding Ri. Harrington 28 Feb. 1775. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, Steward 1774. Custos cistae 1775. Junior Dean, Bunting and Knapwell Preacher 1777. Senior Greek Lecturer and Mildmay Preacher 1778. From Mich. 1779 to Mich. 1784 he was absent, except twice, from College meetings: and later, still oftener absent. He was presented to Croxton 1 Dec. 1784, in the room of Edw. Mapletoft: held it till 1796. Presented to Brisley (succeeding the Master) 7 Apr. 1788: his Fellowship was declared vacant 9 May 1789. He held Brisley, like Croxton till 1796: in 1795 he became rector of Maulden, Beds. On 13 June 1789 he had been collated to a prebend (Ketton) at Lincoln. In 1808 March 12 he became Chancellor of Lincoln. He died 26 Apr. 1814 at Rodborough on his way to Bath: so the obituary in Gent. Mag. which calls him "a man of genuine taste and extensive literature [sic] who had travelled and observed much."

Stanley, George Edward: son of Edward: born at Ponsonby, Cumberland. School: Eton, under D^r^ Barnard. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 25 Oct. 1766. Age 17.

Perhaps resided till Lady Day 1771: the charge from the first is 3*s.* 0*d.* a quarter. Born 1748, son of Edward Stanley of Dalegarth by his wife Mildred, daughter of Sir Geo. Fleming, Bishop of Carlisle. High Sheriff for Cumberland 1774. Married (1) Dorothy, daughter of Sir Will. Fleming of Rydal: (2) Eliz., daughter of Morris Evans of Middlesex: by whom he had sons Edward and George. Died 1806 (Jefferson, 2. 286).

Green, Christopher: son of Christopher: born in Cambridge. Educated by M^r^ Worth. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 20 Sept. 1766. Age 15.

Matriculated 1768 March: resided till Lady Day 1769: paid 3*s.* 0*d.* a quarter till Mids. 1771. Admitted at the Middle Temple 29 Apr. 1771. Probably great-grandson of the Professor of Medicine: but not son of Christopher, admitted 1738 (whom see), if it be correct that he died childless.

Maule, John:

B.A. 1770; M.A. 1773. Admitted scholar (Hunts.) 23 June 1769. Appears in Study-rents first at Mids^r^. 1769.

One Hen. Maule, B.A. of Christ's (but found neither at Oxford nor Cambridge), ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1771; licensed to Pidley, Hunts.: priest 1772 June. Rector of Horseheath 1776. Chaplain of Greenwich Hospital. Perhaps vicar of St Margaret at Cliffe, Kent 19 Feb. 1823. Died 1825, aged 77 (Davy).

One Joh. Maule, M.A. of Merton College, Oxford, was ordained deacon, Norwich, 1793 Sept.: priest, Winchester, 1801 Sept. and nominated by the parishioners P.C. of St Mary the Virgin, Dover on 17 Dec. 1817: the time of ordination would have suited Joh. Maule the Fellow (page 327) but he was at Brisley from 1815. Author: Concise Manual of the principles and duty of a Christian, 1810. (J.E.B.M.) John Maule is given in Lowndes-Bohn as author of an Historical account of the Royal Hospital Greenwich, 4^to^ 1789.

Hitch, Paul: son of Charles: born in London. School: Tonbridge, under M^r^ Towers. Three years at Oriel, Oxford. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 30 Jan. 1767. Age 19.

B.A. 1783; M.A. 1786. Admitted at Oriel, as son of Charles, armiger, of London 14 Oct. 1762, aged 15. Resided, at Christ's, till Mids^r^. 1768: paid 3*s.* 0*d.* till Lady Day 1769. Donor of sauce-tureens, covers and ladles. Readmitted, under Mess^rs^ Parkinson and Seale 17 Jan. 1781: when he finished his course. Ordained deacon, London, 1774 May: priest 1775 June. Rector of East Ham, Essex. Rector of Horton, Glos. Died 19 Sept. 1786.

Stewart, Charles Edward: son of Giles: born at Long Melford. School: Ely under M^r^ Irwin. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 3 March 1767. Age 17.

B.A. (11th sen. opt.) 1771. Admitted scholar 5 Dec. 1767. Incorporated 20 Nov. 1772, aged 22, at Magd. Coll., Oxford; M.A. (Oxford) 1773. Rector of Courteenhall, Northants. 1773: of Colne Wake, Essex 1795: and of Rede All Saints, Suffolk, between Bury and Clare, 1807; till his death 8 Oct. 1819 (Al. Ox. 1353). Author of The Aliad: an heroical epistle to Clostz Redivivus, 1815.

Budworth, Richard: son of Richard: born in London. School: Eton, under D^r^ Barnard. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 7 May 1767. Age 19.

B.A. (4th jun. opt.) 1771; M.A. 1774. Kept his rooms till 1780. Ordained priest, London, 1777 May.

Cuthbert, George: son of George: born at Portsmouth. School: Winchester, under M^r^ Cotton. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 8 May 1767. Age 18.

B.A. 1771; M.A. 1805. Resided till Lady Day 1772: rooms kept till Mich. 1773. His father was probably the "brother George of Portsmouth, physician" (? Professor of Anatomy at Cambridge 1733–5) who receives £10 under the will of Will. Cuthbert, Recorder of Newcastle, dated 24 July 1746. Ordained priest, Worcester, 9 Apr. 1775 (ordained in St James, Westminster, by lit. dim. from Sarum). Rector of Shaw with Donnington, near Newbury 1775. Chaplain to the King. Sub-dean of York 10 June 1805–26. Died 28 Jan. 1826, aged 77.

Trant, Edmund: son of William: born at Braughing, Herts. School: Charterhouse, under D^r^ Crusius. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 21 May 1767. Age 17.

B.A. (1st sen. opt.) 1771; M.A. 1774. Admitted scholar 5 Dec. 1767. Son of William, Fellow 1726–41 and rector of Anstye 1740–84. Elected Fellow, in place of Tho. Murhall, 1 Feb. 1773. Presented to Croxton, succeeding Ri. Harrington 18 Dec. 1775: probably resided there, for he never held any statutory office in the College, and rarely signs till 1780: he resigned Croxton before 5 Jan. 1781. On 12 Oct. 1785 an order was made to request the Bishop of Ely to unite the rectory of Toft and the vicarage of Caldecot (when the latter should be vacated by the Master): and it was agreed that the Fellow who accepted Toft should vacate his fellowship, and should be presented to Bourn (with the other two) when vacant. D^r^ Barker resigned Caldecot before 25 Nov.: on which day Edm. Trant was presented to the rectory of Toft with Caldecot annexed. The arrangement of these contiguous livings was facilitated by the Rev. Isaac Avarne (see under Ri. Haighton, page 265); who had been put into Bourn in Dec^r^. 1782 and resigned it three years later: on 6 April 1786 Trant was presented to Bourn: and on May 17, as chaplain to the Duke of St Albans he had dispensation to hold the vicarage of Bourn, worth £70, with the rectory of Toft and Caldecot, worth £202, distant three miles—a fairly liberal computation. His fellowship was declared vacant 6 Apr. 1786, and on Nov. 15 he married Mary E. Holland. Cha. Holsworthy, of Univ. Coll., Oxford, was appointed his successor at Bourn, before the end of 1795. On 4 May 1795 as chaplain to the Earl of Buckinghamshire he had a dispensation to hold, with Toft and Caldecot, the rectory of Hardwick, distant two miles, to which he had been collated by the Bishop of Ely. He died at Northampton 12 April 1807.

Allix, Charles Wager: son of Charles: born in London. School: Harrow, under D^r^ Sumner. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 23 May 1767. Age 19.

B.A. 1774; M.A. 1777. Admitted scholar 5 Dec. 1767. Son of Charles (1733): father of Charles (1800). Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1775 March; "to his own private fortune": priest, Ely, 1775 Sept. Vicar of Mere, near Gillingham, Wilts. Member of the S.P.C.K. 1786. Married Catharine, daughter of Ri. Townley of Belfield, Lancs. Lived at Willoughby Hall. Died at Mere 30 Nov. 1795. (Eur. Mag. 28. 431: Agnew, French Protestant Exiles, 2. 242.)

Chalmers, Edmund Alleyn: son of Henry: born at Market Harborough. School: Felsted, under M^r^ Drake. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 2 July 1767. Age 16.

Resided till Mich. 1772. Perhaps son of Henry (1739): but he was beneficed in Essex, and I do not know how he was connected with Market Harborough.

Steel(e), Samson: son of Joseph: born at Caverswall, Staffs. Educated by M^r^ Sampson Shaw. Admitted sizar under Mess^rs^ Shepherd and Backhouse 6 July 1767. Age 23.

LL.B. 1775. Ordained deacon, Norwich, being then 25, "at the request of the Archbishop of Canterbury," 1769 May: priest, Lincoln, 1770 March; licensed to the cure of Newnham and Bredgar, Kent. Vicar of Newnham 1771. Had license 11 Nov. 1801 to be also vicar of Tong, distant six miles.

Tyley, Edward: son of Edward: born in Antigua. School: Abingdon, under M[r] Bright. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Shepherd and Backhouse 15 Oct. 1767. Age 17 [?].

Resided till Mids[r]. 1770: charged 3*s*. 0*d*. two quarters further. Baptised 5 May 1749 at St John's, Antigua: son of Edw. and Mary Tyley. Edward, the father, a merchant, died 1761 or 1762. Edward, the son, was ordained (as "Student" at Christ's) deacon, Lincoln, 1772 Sept. and licensed to Whipsnade, Beds.: priest 1774 Feb. Perhaps the Edw. Tyley who was married at St John's to Lucy Thomas 9 Feb. 1771: and had a daughter, Mary, baptised there 4 Mar. 1772. Perhaps vicar of Streatley, Beds.: James, son of one Edw., clerk, of Streatley, Beds. was admitted at Trin. Coll., Oxford 1794, aged 18.

Ord, John: son of Henry: born in London. Educated at Greenwich by Will. Paley [for one year]. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Shepherd and Backhouse 17 Oct. 1767. Age 16.

B.A. (12th wrangler) 1772; M.A. 1786; B.D. and D.D. (Trin. Coll., Oxford) 1793. Paley was his private tutor to prepare him for Cambridge (Meadley, Life of Paley, pp. 48–51): Henry Ord, his father, of the Middle Temple, was dead. John Ord, his grandfather, of Newcastle, was a wealthy man, and purchased Fenham and Newminster Abbey, dying 1721. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1773 May; "to an estate": priest, 1774 June. Rector of Burgh and of Igborough, Norfolk 1784. Chaplain in ordinary to the Prince of Wales 1784. Incorporated at Oxford 1793. Prebendary of Lincoln (Gretton) 14 Sept. 1796: resigned it in 1814, when his son Henry Craven Ord succeeded. Rector of Fornham St Martin, near Bury St Edmunds 23 Aug. 1804–14. J.P. for Suffolk. Married Mary, daughter of S. Norman of Henley, Oxford. Died 8 Sept. 1816 (Hodgson, Northumb[d]. II. iii. 107: Al. Ox. 1043). His son Joh. Norman Ord was rector of Wheathampstead.

Malden, Charles: son of Charles: born at Maldon, Essex. School: Felsted, under M[r] Drake. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Shepherd and Backhouse 13 Nov. 1767. Age 18.

Came into residence Easter 1768: resided till Easter 1769. Admitted scholar (as of Middlesex) 5 Dec. 1767.

Loraine, Sir William, bart.: son of Sir Charles, bart.: born at Hawkwell [near Stamfordham], Northumb[d]. School: Eton, under D[r] Barnard. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess[rs] Shepherd and Backhouse 16 Dec. 1767. Age 19.

Resided till Mids[r]. 1770. Born 1749, son of Sir Charles (adm[d]. 1723)—who died 1755—and of Dorothy Mylott of Whitehall, Durham: brother of Cha. Loraine (Smith), see next entry, and of Lambton (1769): grandfather of Will., sixth baronet (1801). Fourth baronet, of Kirkharle. Married (1) on 19 Oct. 1776, Hannah, daughter of Sir Lancelot Algood of Nunwick; had four sons and two daughters: (2) in 1799 Frances, daughter of Fra. Campart; had three sons and three daughters. High Sheriff of Northumb[d]. 1774 and Deputy Lieutenant. Did much to improve his property by planting and building. Died 19 Dec. 1809: buried at Kirkharle. (Information from Admiral Lambton Loraine.)

Loraine-Smith, Charles: son of Sir Charles Loraine, bart.: born at Kirkharle, Northumberland. School: Eton, under D[r] Barnard. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess[rs] Shepherd and Backhouse 16 Dec. 1767. Age 16.

Matriculated as Cha. Smith 1768 March. Probably came into residence Mich. 1768: resided till Lady Day 1772. Brother of Sir William (see above), and of Lambton (1769). Took the name of Smith by Act of Parliament 2 June 1762 on succeeding to Enderby Hall, the property of his great uncle, Richard Smith (died 1762, aged 72) where he afterwards resided. A good scholar and keen sportsman. M.P. for Leicester 1784–90. Married 1 May 1781 Eliz. Anne, daughter of Will. Skrine: had two sons, of whom Loraine Loraine-Smith was admitted 1803. Died at Enderby Hall 23 Aug. 1835. (Information from Admiral Lambton Loraine.) He and Sir Will. gave as their plate a large silver soup-tureen and cover.

Clarkson, Geoffrey, LL.B.: [no other fact]: admitted under Mess^{rs} Shepherd and Backhouse 16 Dec. 1767.

Geoffrey, son of Geoffrey, currier, born at Reeth, Yorks.: educated at Scorton by M^{r} Noble: admitted sizar at St John's 29 May 1751. LL.B. (St John's) 1759. Seemingly admitted as private tutor to the Loraines—admitted the same day. Resided till Mids^{r}. 1772 at least: charged 3*s.* 0*d.* a quarter till Mich. 1773, when Lambton Loraine, the youngest brother, ceased to reside. Ordained deacon, York, 1754 Sept.: priest, Durham, privately, 28 Oct. 1771: instituted same day vicar of Kirkharle on the presentation of Sir Will. Loraine: also vicar of Whelpington 10 Aug. 1786. A learned man and much respected, according to Nichols (Lit. Illust. 5. 125). Died at Kirkharle 28 Nov. 1788, aged 58. M.I. in Kirkharle church, written by John Law, Bishop of Clonfert, who must have known him at Christ's, and commends him as "rarae urbanitatis et fidei, sacris humanisque literis ornatissimus." (See Scott, St John's Admissions, 606: Hodgson (Northumb^{d}. II. i. 206) who thinks that he was at Peterhouse, by confusion of Edmund and John Law.)

Ayre, John:

Matriculated as fellow-commoner Dec. 1767. Doubtless a pupil of D^{r} Shepherd. Resided till Mich. 1769 at least: charged 3*s.* 0*d.* for one quarter more. Gave a silver cup.

Owen, Wyniott: son of Charles: born at Nash, Haverfordwest. School: Eton, under D^{r} Barnard. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess^{rs} Shepherd and Backhouse 3 May 1768. Age 17.

Resided till Mids^{r}. 1770.

Dodwell, William: son of William, D.D.: born at Buc[k]lebury, Berks. School: Salisbury, under M^{r} Townsend. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Shepherd and Backhouse 13 May 1768. Age 15.

B.A. (10th sen. opt.) 1772; M.A. 1775. Admitted scholar 23 June 1769. Born 16 Oct. 1751 (therefore 16 at admission) son of the Rev. Will. Dodwell, D.D., Archdeacon of Berks., and theological writer, rector of Shottesbrook, Berks. where most of his numerous children were born. Ordained deacon, Peterborough, 1774 Feb.: priest, Llandaff, 1775 Oct. Rector of Welby near Melton Mowbray (dio. Leics.) in the same year: also, as chaplain to the Earl of Lichfield, had license to hold the mediety of North Stoke (Stoke Rochford), near Grantham (dio. Lincs.) distant 10 miles, 27 Nov. 1775. Died 1824, aged 72 (Davy).

Grimston, William: second son of James, Visc^{t}. Grimston: born at Gorhambury, Herts. School: Eton, under D^{r} Barnard. Admitted fellow-commoner under D^{r} Shepherd 26 Oct. 1768. Age 16.

M.A. 1770. Born 23 June 1750: therefore 18 at admission. He is charged 3*s.* 0*d.* a quarter till Mids. 1773: never any more: I take it that, when this charge was made to a fellow-commoner, he occupied a Fellow's room, to whom he may have made a direct payment. Admitted at Lincoln's Inn 28 Sept. 1767. Took part in the verse-addresses to the new Chancellor (Duke of Grafton) in 1769 but, according to Meadley (Life of Paley, p. 56) they were written by John Law. His mother was Mary, daughter of John Askell Bucknall of Oxhey, Herts. He took the name of Bucknall under the will of his mother's brother, 1797. M.P. for St Albans. Married Sophia, daughter and coheir of Ri. Hoare of Boreham, Essex: by whom he had one daughter. Died 25 Apr. 1814. (Burke, P. and B.)

Geere, Diones: son of Diones: born at Hayton [South Heighton], Sussex. School: Tonbridge, under M^{r} Towers. Admitted pensioner under D^{r} Shepherd 4 Nov. 1768. Age 19.

B.A. 1773. Son of Diones Geere (1726). Rector of Pett (which his father also held, but not in immediate succession) 1774: also of South Heighton and Tarring-Neville, in the same year: I have not found the dispensation. Buried at Tarring 2 Jan. 1781.

Marsham, Robert: son of Robert: born at Stratton, Norfolk. Educated by T. Parkinson, Fellow of Christ's. Admitted fellow-commoner under D^{r} Shepherd 5 Nov. 1768. Age 16 (or 17).

Resided till Mich. (or Dec^{r}.) 1771. Rob. Marsham, F.R.S., the father, was a great naturalist and planter: his mother was Mary Browne: he was born 1749: therefore the Adm^{n}. Book is again wrong. High Sheriff of Norfolk 1801. Married Sophia, daughter of Edw. Hase of Sall, and had four sons and two daughters. Died 18 April 1812. (Burke, H.C. 1. 418.)

Morgan, Caesar: son of Nicholas: born at Tugwynn [?], Pembs. School: Haverfordwest, under M^{r} Whitcombe. Admitted sizar under D^{r} Shepherd 9 Nov. 1768. Age 18.

Had dispensation—as Chaplain to Lord Milton—19 Nov. 1789 to hold also the rectory of Winterbourne-Clenston, distant three miles. Dead before 1800 (Gent. Mag. 1288). Translated Lettre de Madame la Marquise de Lambert à Madame la Supérieure de la Magdalene de Tresnel, sur l'éducation d'une jeune Demoiselle, 1780 (Cole).

Haweis, Thomas:

Matric^{d}. (special) fellow-commoner 6 July 1772. LL.B. 1772. Born 1 Jan. 173$\frac{3}{4}$. Son of Thomas Haweis, gent., of Redruth, Cornwall. School: Truro; where he began life as apprentice to an apothecary. Matriculated at Ch. Church, Oxford 1 Dec. 1755: aged 21. Chaplain to the Countess of Huntingdon 1768: and a strong Calvinist. Rector of All Saints, Aldwinkle, Northants., to which he was appointed 25 Feb. 1764 on promise of resignation: when called on to resign he refused: the matter was compromised by the Countess: and he held the living for 56 years, till his death. Desired to proceed to LL.D. 1776 but the grace was "stopt" on the Caput: tried again 1781 [?] but was again "stopt" by equality of votes in the non-regent House: either his theology or his action was held objectionable. One of the first founders of the Church Missionary Society: also a supporter of the Humane Society and interested in the improvement of the condition of the poor. Published more than 40 works—to be found in "Bibliotheca Cornubiensis": they include A Translation of the New Testament from the Greek, 1798: History of the rise, declension and revival of the Church of Christ, 1800 (to which Isaac Milner made reply): Present state of Evangelical Religion throughout the World, 1812. He edited in 1764 the Authentic Narrative of John Newton of Olney: and produced several devotional books. Died at Bath 7 Feb. 1820, aged 86. (D.N.B.: Rose's Biographical Dict^{y}. 8. 231.)

Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist 1782: the same, and Steward and Preacher (Bunting, Knapwell and Walkhampton)

1783. Senior Dean 1785, 1789 (and Bunting, Knapwell and Walkhampton Preacher). Hebrew Lecturer 1790. Tutor with Parkinson and Lane 1789–90: with Lane to Xmas 1791. Presented to Fen Drayton 6 Apr. 1786; he signed the register there four times in four years; to Clipston, on the death of Joshua Wigley 15 Dec. 1790: and again 27 Feb. 1805 to have the Seal for presentation "if desired by him." He was twice instituted, 11 Apr. 1791 and 10 April 1805. Fellowship declared vacant 26 May 1792. Frequently mentioned by Gunning: once as "a particular friend of Milner" (of Queens')—of whom Gunning had a low opinion. A scene in the Combination Room about 1786 —characteristic of the disorderly habits of the time, for which Metcalfe was partly responsible, is given by Gunning (1. 45). Metcalfe may have had some preferment in the North: at all events he died away from Clipston. In the Clipston Register there is a curious note. "N.B. July 3 1812, M^{r} Metcalf rector of Clipston more than 20 years, dyed 15 June 1812 in his own county, and left behind him an excellent character there [But at Clipston the poor do not boast of his charities]: he was a very excellent landlord and very affable to his parishioners high and low." The words within brackets have been imperfectly obliterated.

Harrison, Joseph: son of Nicholas: born in London. School: [Sedbergh], under D^{r} Bateman. Admitted pensioner under D^{r} Shepherd 22 Nov. 1769. Age 20.

Admitted scholar (Midds.) 14 Dec. 1771. Resided till Mich. 1772: his name is in Study-rents till Lady Day 1774, without any charge. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1773 July; licensed to Dallinghoe, Suffolk: priest 1782 Aug.; curate of Seething, Norfolk. One of these names vicar of Charsfield, near Wickham Market 3 Aug. 1775–1805, patron, Will. Leman, Esq. Vicar of Thurton, Norfolk, patron, Sir Tho. B. Had dispensation 12 Jan. 1782 to hold also the rectory of Bartlow, distant nine miles.

Allen, Stephen: son of Stephen: born at Lynn Regis. School: Harrow, under Dr Sumner. Admitted pensioner under Dr Shepherd 25 June 1771. Age 16.

Charged 3*s.* 0*d.* a quarter till Mich. 1773 but certainly did not reside the whole time. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1778 Aug.; licensed to Edgefield, Norfolk: priest, 1780 Aug.: curate of Swanton Morley. Replaced his name on the Boards 9 Feb. 1779: and it appears in Study-rents till Dec. 1781: possibly he proposed to take a B.D. degree: but did not do so. On 28 Oct.

1772—when he was aged 17 years and one month—he married at Gretna Green Susannah, daughter of Edw. Sharpin, M.D. of East Dereham—who was one month junior to him. His grandson says that he lost a fortune before he came of age, driving a carriage with four horses and three footmen—and the like. His later life was more stable than its beginning. He was vicar of St Margaret's, Lynn, and held the living for 50 years. He was also rector of Haslingfield near Cambridge 8 Sept. 1800–47. He was also vicar of Dunton with Duckton, near Fakenham 7 Nov. 1800; and of Wolterton with Wickmere, north of Aylsham 1 Apr. 1801 (Foster, Index Eccl.): I have not found the dispensation for any of these. He died 15 Mar. 1847, aged 92, and was buried at St Margaret's. His wife died at East Dereham 1816. His mother had for her second husband D^r^ Charles Burney. Portrait in oils of him when a boy at Harrow, in possession of his grandson W. M. Allen (1844) rector of Shouldham: who gave to our Library a valuable copy of Terence given to Ste. Allen by Tho. Parkinson of Christ's.

His father was D.D., Canon of Windsor, and preceptor of Queen Charlotte. Elected Fellow (in place of Will. Paley, whose pupil he was for nearly all his time) 29 June 1776. Held no statutory, or other, office, and signed a College order about seven times in the nine years of his tenure of a Fellowship: which was vacant 30 April 1785. Ordained deacon, Canterbury (lit. dim. from Lichfield) 1777 Feb.: priest, Worcester, 1783. Preceptor to Prince William (afterwards King Will. IV) 1781. Vicar of Bromsgrove 1783. On 7 April 1785 he became Canon of Windsor (till 1798); and married Anne Routledge of Stapleton, Cumberland, in the same year. Vicar of Nether Stowey 1790–3, where he was on friendly terms with Thomas Poole (Coleridge's friend): he established a Sunday school there—a sign of advanced views! Vicar of Hungerford 1793–8. Vicar of New Windsor 1798. Canon of St Paul's 16 Jan. 1796–1809 (by dispensation after 1800). Bishop of Chester 3 June 1800–1809. Bishop of Bangor 8 Sept. 1809 till his death, 9 July 1830, at Longdon, near Lichfield, aged 75. He left three sons and four daughters—out of 13 children. "A favourable specimen of the Georgian prelates...for his time an active administrator, and took a sincere interest in the welfare of his clergy. His contemporaries allude to the corpulence of his person, and the imperturbable gravity of his countenance."

Author: A Sermon in Westminster Abbey on Thanksgiving for Peace, 1802: a Charge to the clergy of the Diocese of Chester, 1804. (D.N.B.)

Elected Finch and Baines Fellow (in place of Edw. Wilson) 22 July 1778. On 20 Nov. 1804 (the year in which John Kaye (whom see) took his B.A. degree as Senior Wrangler, 2nd Smith's Prizeman and Senior Classic), he wrote to the Master the following unusual letter:

When I saw D^r^ Seale in Town a few days ago we had some conversation on the subject of M^r^ Kaye. It would be much to be lamented if so deserving a young man, who has already conferred so much credit on our College, and whose abilities must be considered a source of real advantage to it, should be precluded from all Chance of receiving the Reward, which his Pretensions would otherwise give him a fair Title to expect. To enable him, at least to offer himself to the College as a Candidate for their favour, I beg leave to notify to you my wish to resign my Fellowship. Whatever may be the Determination of the College on this Subject, which it would not become to anticipate, I flatter myself they will consider the Step which I am taking as dictated by a sincere regard for their Welfare, for which on many Considerations I shall always feel the liveliest Interest. You will therefore be pleased to receive this as my Resignation. I am, Dear Sir, your most obedient humble Servant

Ed. J. Hatton.

The fellowship was declared vacant 1 Dec. 1804: and John Kaye was elected to it. M^r^ Hatton died 10 Jan. 1841.

Golding, Charles: son of Thomas: born in Suffolk. School: Bury, under M^r^ Garnham. Admitted pensioner under D^r^ Shepherd and Mess^rs^ Paley and Law 29 June 1772. Age 17.

Rector of Nacton, near Ipswich, 1787 (Gent. Mag. 197. 6) seemingly with Thurlow—but I have not found a dispensation. Prebendary of Lincoln (Carlton) 15 Aug. 1810. Died, still rector of Thurlow, 25 Sept. 1835 and buried at Chelsworth, Suffolk. (Muskett, Suff. Peds.: Burke, P. and B.)

Leroo, John: son of John: born at Thorney, Cambs. School: Harrow, under D^r^ Sumner. Admitted pensioner under D^r^ Shepherd and Mess^rs^ Paley and Law 18 June 1773. Age 19.

B.A. 1777; M.A. 1780. Ordained deacon, Ely (lit. dim. from Chichester), 1777 Feb.: priest, 1779 Feb. Rector of Long Melford 1 Jan. 1789, presented by Mary Gwyn, widow: held it till 1819, when he died.

Preston, John: son of John: born at Settle, Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under M^r^ Paley. Admitted sizar under D^r^ Shepherd and Mess^rs^ Paley and Law 11 Oct. 1773. Age 18.

B.A. ("wooden spoon") 1778; M.A. 1781. Probably began to reside Mich. 1774. Admitted scholar (Finch and Baines) 12 June 1775. Ordained priest, Rochester, 1781 July. Elected Fellow (in place of Edw. Wilson) 8 Oct. 1785. Never held any statutory office. Signs occasionally, but probably not in residence any year. Declined the vicarage of Croxton, which by College Order 7 Dec. 1796 was to be given to W. B. Ramsden (who was actually presented) unless Preston or Lane accept within a month! Presented to Toft and Caldecot, in place of Edm. Trant 28 May 1807. Resigned the living 2 May 1827: and died in the same year. His will was proved 31 Dec. 1827: by which he left £500, the interest to be employed in the education of poor children of Toft and Caldecot, at the discretion of his Trustees, the Master of Christ's, and the Rector of Toft, for the time being. Another John Preston (prob. B.A. Queens', 1777) son of John Preston, merchant, of Leeds, and of Flasby near Gargrave (who died 1758), was curate of Giggleswick 1779, and afterwards clerk of Flasby, and died 1821 (Hunter, F.M.G. 956).

Seale, John Barlow: son of John: born at Derby. School: Derby, under M^r^ Manlove. Resided for 3 years at Emmanuel: admitted pensioner under D^r^ Shepherd and Mess^rs^ Paley and Law 26 Oct. 1773. Age 22.

B.A. (7th wrangler, 2nd Chancellor's medallist) 1774; M.A. 1777; D.D. (lit. reg.) 1789. Born 23 Feb. 1753 (therefore only 20). Craven Scholar 1770. Admitted scholar 12 Jan. 1774. Probably migrated from Emmanuel for a Fellowship as a Derbyshire man: elected (in place of John Law) 2 June 1774. Ordained deacon, Lambeth, 1774 Sept.: priest, Ely, Nov. 19, and instituted to P.C. of Quy with Stow. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, and Steward 1776. Custos cistae 1777. Walkhampton Preacher 1778, 1784. Bunting and Knapwell Preacher, 1779, 1784. Praelector and Junior Dean 1781, 1784. Senior Greek Lecturer, Hebrew Lecturer, and Mildmay Preacher 1781–3. Steward 1784. Senior Dean 1786, 1802. Whitehall Preacher 1783. F.R.S. Tutor with T. Parkinson 1777–88. Gunning says that he lectured in Classics, Moral Philosophy and Logic: published his Greek Metres (1785) and Analysis of Greek Metres (which went through eleven editions) 1789: Gunning found him very interesting except when he lectured on his special subject: partly perhaps because he illustrated his lectures by reference to persons whom he disliked, including the Master: but Gunning mentions his kindness to all his pupils, especially those who wished to learn. Porteus, who became Bishop of London in 1787, did not appoint Seale as his chaplain, to Seale's disappointment: but Archbishop Cornwallis took him soon after. At Lambeth he did not succeed owing to "an unfortunate peculiarity of temper"—viz. quarrelling with the servants of any friend with whom he lived. The Archbishop speedily presented him to the vicarage of Stisted (12 June 1792) worth £500 a year. Hence arose D^r^ Milner's famous interpretation. Seale who was on very friendly terms with Milner (according to Gunning because he supported Milner warmly in the Frend affair: see page 303: but that was later). Their connexion dates back to the Grace prohibiting private tutors. A pamphlet called the Triumph of Dulness (1781) attacks the Grace, which it calls "an abortion dropped from the brain of M^r^ C— [Carr of St John's] and licked into shape by the gigantic bear of Queens' [Isaac Milner]...Unfortunately neither of them understanding any language but his mother tongue they turned it over to M^r^ S— [Seale] to put it into a Roman garb. I need not add a comment on this gentleman: he has been famous in the annals of literature from the time he preached a certain funeral sermon to the display of his classical medal at D— [Derby] assembly." (I owe this to Mr G. Chawner of King's.) Did Seale wear his medal about his neck? He applied to Milner (as V.C.) to state whether as one of the five Senior Preachers he might not retain his Fellowship, with Stisted, as being "intra viginti milliaria." Stisted, by any then available road, must be nearly 40 miles. Milner declared, reasonably, that by miles English, not Roman, must be understood: though this seems not to have been the previous view: that, as in Lambeth dispensations 30 miles were supposed to mean 45, so here 20 meant 30. Lastly that the distance must be computed in a straight line from 1½ miles beyond the nearest parish in Cambridge, to the nearest point in Stisted. By these means the distance was reduced to just 30 miles: and Seale held it till his death; though two years later Tho. Browne appealed to the V.C. Dr Cory, who confirmed Milner's decision (see papers in Muniment Room, "Misc." drawer, Ae.: Gunning, 1. 273): Browne probably regarded Seale as a dangerous rival for the Mastership, after Dr Barker's death. However on 16 Oct. 1805, Seale accepted a presentation by the College to Anstye, vacant by the death of Edm. Mapletoft: it was worth £400 a year. Seale chose to reside there rather than at Stisted: and he did so for 33 years, dying 11 August 1838, at the age of 85. Gunning (1. 20) gives a melancholy picture of his latter years as passed chiefly "in inferior society," instead of that of the neighbouring clergy and gentry. "He had filled with great credit the situation of Tutor, and of Deputy Professor of Divinity, and might (had he been a man of sound discretion) have risen to the highest offices in the Church." While at Christ's he occupied the first floor rooms at the S. corner of the first court (afterwards occupied by C. S. Calverley) and now absorbed in the Library.

Balch (Balsh), Robert Everard: son of Robert: born at Stowey, Somerset. School: Wells, under Mr Forster. Admitted fellow-commoner under Dr Shepherd and Messrs Paley and Law 4 Nov. 1773. Age 20.

B.A. 1778; M.A. 1781. Admitted scholar (Finch and Baines) 12 June 1775. Son of Tho. Wilson D.D. (adm. 1734) Dean of Carlisle. Ordained deacon, London (lit. dim. from Canterbury), 1779 Dec.; licensed to Moulton (which is a peculiar of Canterbury) under Tho. Murhall, rector, 17 Dec., with a salary of £25 a year. Probably rector of Eccles, Norfolk 30 April 1799–1836: rector of Frostenden, Suffolk 17 Dec. 1802–6: vicar of Didlington with Colston, Norfolk 14 Apr. 1808 (Foster, Ind. Eccl.). Married Jane, daughter of Charles Allix of Swaffham, Cambs.

Proctor, Sir Thomas Beauchamp: bart.: son of Sir William Beauchamp Proctor, K.C.B.: born in London. School: Harrow, under Dr Sumner. Admitted fellow-commoner under Dr Shepherd and Messrs Paley and Law 24 Dec. 1773. Age 18.

M.A. 1777. Born 1756, son of Sir Will. B. Proctor by his wife Jane, daughter of Chris. Tower, Esq. of Huntsmore Lodge. Sir Tho. B. Proctor of Langley Lodge, Norfolk. Married Mary, daughter of Rob. Palmer of Sonning, Berks. Died 1827, aged 70. His widow, Dame Mary, died 25 Dec. 1847, aged 85. His son Thomas admitted 1808: and his grandson Rob. Will. Beauchamp, 1832. The College got for his plate-money a dozen silver hafted knives, silver forks and spoons. His books (with strong bias) still survive.

Norman, George:
M.A. 1780. Son of George Norman, clerk, of Mount Silver, Somerset. Matriculated at St Mary Hall, Oxford, 14 March $175\frac{0}{1}$: B.A. (Oxford) 1754. Incorporated, and M.A. (Christ's) 1780. Ordained deacon, Oxford, 1755 Feb.: priest, Bath and Wells, 1756 Sept.: Chaplain to Lord Kinnaird. Vicar of Congresbury, Somerset. Had dispensation 3 June 1780 to hold also the rectory of West Bagborough, Somerset, distant 27 miles.

Nelson, William: son of Edmund: born at Burnham, Norfolk. School: North Walsham, under M^{r} Jones. Admitted pensioner under D^{r} Shepherd and Mess^{rs} Paley and Law 15 Jan. 1774. Age 17.
B.A. (7th jun. opt.) 1778; M.A. 1781; D.D. 1802. Admitted scholar (Finch and Baines) 12 June 1775. Born 20 April 1757, eldest son of Edmund, rector of Burnham Thorpe, and of Catherine Suckling. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1779 Dec.: licensed to Burnham Thorpe: priest, Peterborough, 1781 June. Rector of Little Brandon, Norfolk (Camb. Chron. 22 Nov. 1783). Next year appointed chaplain to the Boreas and went to the West Indies: but saw little service, received no pay, and was discharged 1786. Married 1786 Sarah, daughter of the Rev. Hen. Yonge. Rector of Hilborough, Norf. 1797. In frequent correspondence with his younger brother Horatio, first Baron Nelson, who wrote to him confidential letters. Prebendary of Canterbury 21 May 1803. Succeeded his brother 21 Oct. 1805 as second Baron Nelson. Created 10 Nov. Viscount Merton and Earl Nelson: next year Duke of Bronté, with a pension of £5000 a year and a grant of £90,000. Bought Stanlynch Park, Wilts. 1814. Died in London 28 Feb. 1835, aged 78. Described as large and heavy in his person, boisterous in his manners, his own voice very loud and he exceedingly and impatiently deaf. (D.N.B.) His younger brother, Suckling, admitted 1791: his son, Horatio, 1805.

Bowness, William: son of Thomas: born at Stramshall, Staffs. School: Manchester, under M^{r} Lawson. Admitted sizar under D^{r} Shepherd and Mess^{rs} Paley and Law 14 Apr. 1774. Age 19.
B.A. 1778; M.A. 1790; LL.D. 1806. Admitted scholar (Finch and Baines) 12 June 1775. His father resided at Manchester. Ordained deacon, Lichfield, 1778 Mar.: priest, Chester, 1781 Aug.; licensed to Stockport, Cheshire. Chaplain to Visc^{t}. Maynard. P.C. of Marple, Cheshire, 1790, had dispensation 21 Aug. 1790 to hold also the perp. curacy of Chadkirk, distant two miles. Died 7 Dec. 1807: buried at Stockport.

Benson, Robert: son of Robert: born at Leeds. School: Felsted, under M^{r} Drake. Admitted fellow-commoner under D^{r} Shepherd and Mess^{rs} Paley and Law 28 May 1774. Age 19.
B.A. 1778; M.A. 1782. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1778 Sept. Vicar of Heckington, Lincs. Dec. 1783. Father of Hen. Bristowe Benson (1810), who in 1816 was curate in charge for his father, and succeeded him as vicar in 1822. He signs the registers in 1785 and 1786 but not again, and was doubtless an absentee. Died 1 Jan. 1822. (Camb. Chron.: and information from Rev. E. G. Allison, vicar.)

Ward, George: son of George: born in London. School: Tonbridge, under M^{r} Towers. Admitted pensioner under D^{r} Shepherd and M^{r} Paley 3 June 1774. Age 18.

B.A. (8th sen. opt.) 1778; M.A. 1781. Possibly the Geo. Ward of Wandsworth, Surrey, who was admitted at the Inner Temple 9 May 1780.

Ellison, William: son of William: born at Durham. School: Westminster, under D^{r} Smith. Admitted pensioner under D^{r} Shepherd and M^{r} Paley 15 June 1774. Age 19.

Resided till Dec^{r}. 1777—perhaps longer: there is the charge of 3*s.* 0*d.* a quarter till 1784 at least. Ordained deacon, London (lit. dim. from Durham), 1779 Dec.: priest, Durham, 1781 Sept. (called LL.B. by error). P.C. of Ribchester, Durham 1784. (Surtees, 2. 302.)

Clapham, Christopher: son of Christopher: born at Settle. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Paley. Admitted pensioner under D^{r} Shepherd and M^{r} Paley 7 July 1774. Age 17.

Admitted scholar 25 May 1776. Resided till Dec. 1777: then probably migrated to St Catharine's; where a Chris. Clapham was B.A. 1779, M.A. 1782. Fellow of St Catharine's.

Clapham, John: son of Thomas: born at Stackhouse [near Giggleswick], Yorks. School: Giggleswick, under M^{r} Paley. Admitted pensioner under D^{r} Shepherd and Mess^{rs} Paley and Parkinson 7 July 1774. Age 16.

Thomas, William: son of Hugh: born in Cambridge. School: Charterhouse, under D^{r} Berdmore. Admitted pensioner under D^{r} Shepherd and Mess^{rs} Paley and Parkinson 26 Aug. 1774. Age not given.

B.A. (14th sen. opt.) 1779; M.A. 1782. Admitted scholar (Finch and Baines) 12 June 1775. Son of D^{r} Hugh Thomas, Master. Elected Fellow (Finch and Baines, succeeding John Fisher) 2 June 1779. Ordained deacon, Peterborough, 1781 June: priest, December. Senior Greek Lecturer, Hebrew Lecturer, and Mildmay Preacher 1783. Instituted to St Cosmas and St Damian, Canterbury—patron, Archdeacon Backhouse—27 Feb. 1784. Fellowship declared vacant 30 Apr. 1785. One of these names was rector of Fobbing, Essex, 1789 (signs first on Dec. 10): married May 1800 M^{rs} Wilkinson, a widow, and died 1803. (Gent. Mag. 1804, p. 88.) The signature of this M^{r} Thomas (copy sent by Rev. J. E. Sedgwick, rector) much resembles that of our man: but he signs as "curate." He was not buried at Fobbing: his last signature there was in 1802.

Benison, George: son of Thomas: born at Bentham, Yorks. School: Bentham, under M^{r} Tho. Bentham (father). Admitted sizar under D^{r} Shepherd and Mess^{rs} Paley and Parkinson 29 Oct. 1774. Age 19.

Resided till Mich. 1776. Third son of Arthur Heywood, banker, of Liverpool, by his wife, Sarah, daughter of James Mason of Shrewsbury. Admitted at Lincoln's Inn 12 Feb. 1774, called to the bar, 28 Apr. 1780. Practised at Wakefield. Married Margaret, daughter of Peter Drinkwater of Irwell House. Chairman for many years of the West Riding Sessions, held at Wakefield and Leeds. Died 27 Nov. 1835, aged 79. (Gent. Mag. 1836, 102.)

Hopkins, John: son of John: born at Marston Trussel, Northants. School: Guil[d]sb[o]rough, under M^r^ Clarke. Admitted sizar under D^r^ Shepherd and Mess^rs^ Paley and Parkinson 1 Dec. 1774. Age 17.

B.A. (7th wrangler) 1779; M.A. 1783. Admitted scholar (Finch and Baines) 12 June 1775. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1780 May; licensed to Hemingford Abbots, Hunts. Elected Fellow (in place of H. W. Majendie) 4 May 1785. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, and Custos Cistae 1789. Senior Greek Lecturer and Mildmay Preacher 1790–2, 1796–8, 1804. Bunting, Knapwell and Walkhampton Preacher 1791, 1801. Steward 1793, 1796, 1801. Hebrew Lecturer 1795–7, 1803–5. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist 1796. Senior Dean 1798, 1799, 1800, 1803. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist 1801. Curate of Fen Drayton 10 May 1792–1796—and officiated there. Senior Proctor 1801–2. Tutor, with N. C. Lane 1792, with T. Browne 1799–Apr. 1806. (Gunning says that there was a dispute as to who should be senior Tutor, Hopkins, who (he says) came into residence to be Tutor and was six years elder to Lane, or Lane who was already acting as Tutor: and that M^r^ Oldershaw of Emm., as arbitrator, decided in favour of Lane.) The record of the admission of the pupils of Hopkins and Lane is scandalously bad: Browne, who had pupils of his own during the time, entered these himself, quite properly. On 29 May 1805 by College Order, Hopkins received the so-called "Bourne pension" of £200 a year. The object of this curious arrangement, due to Tho. Browne (whom see, page 314) was (so far as I understand it) a "rapid succession" to a College Living, i.e. to a Fellow's pension: the holder of the pension was to vacate his fellowship with the right of institution to the vicarage of Bourn, when vacant: he was never to hold both. The money was to come—and did in Hopkins' case (there was no other holder of it)—from the improved value of the impropriate rectory of Bourn. Hopkins bound himself by a statement on the same page of the Order Book, that he would resign his fellowship within a year. His fellowship was declared vacant 14 Jan. 1806. In May 1807, the vicarage of Bourn was vacant by the death of Edm. Trant, who held it with Toft. Hopkins was not presented to it—and he received the pension—for no service whatever—till Lady Day 1831—a curious bit of history. In 1809–10 he acted as curate at Lubenham near Market Harborough: but he seems to have held no benefice, and I cannot trace him further. Subscribed, March 1806, to the statue of Will. Pitt for the Senate House.

Davies, John: [no other fact whatever].

Probably came into residence Jan. 1776 and resided till Mich. One John Davies of St Andrew's, Holborn, son of John, late of Richard's Castle, Hereford, was admitted at Lincoln's Inn 1772.

Carlyle, Joseph Dacre: son of George: born at Carlisle. School: Kirkby Lonsdale, under M^r^ Wilson. Admitted pensioner under D^r^ Shepherd and Mess^rs^ Paley and Parkinson 13 Jan. 1775. Age 17.

Admitted scholar 25 May 1776. Resided till Xmas 1777. Migrated to Queens' College where he became B.A. 1779; M.A. 1782; B.D. 1793: and Fellow. Vicar of Castle Sowerby, Cumberland 1792–1801: of Torpenhow 1791–1801. Chancellor of Carlisle 1795–1804. Sir T. Adams' Professor of Arabic 1795. Went to Constantinople 1799, as Chaplain to Lord Elgin's

Embassy, and travelled through Asia Minor. Returned to England Sept. 1801. Vicar of Newcastle-on-Tyne, soon after. Died 21 April 1804. Published an Arabic MS. in the Univ. Library on Egyptian History, 1792: Specimens of Arabic poetry, 1796. After his death was published a volume of poems, chiefly on his journeys. (Rose, Dict. of Biography, and D.N.B.)

Heywood, Stanley George: son of Nathaniel: born at Southampton. School: Eton, under Dr Davies. Admitted pensioner under Dr Shepherd and Messrs Paley and Parkinson 5 Apr. 1775. Age 18.

Resided till Lady Day 1776. Son of Lt.-Col. Heywood of Southampton, by Mary, widow of Admiral Tho. Collingwood.

Beevor, John: son of John, M.D.: born at Norwich. School: Eton, under Dr Davies. Admitted pensioner under Dr Shepherd and Messrs Paley and Parkinson 3 May 1775. Age 18.

B.A. 1779; M.A. 1783. Admitted scholar (K. Edw. VI) 12 June 1775. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1780 Feb.; licensed to Cringleford, Norfolk: priest, Gloucester (lit. dim. from Ely), 1781 Dec. Rector of Scarning, Norfolk, patron, Sir Joh. Lombe 1789–1808, when he died. Rector of Burlingham St Andrew and St Peter 1799—patron, his father. Destroyed the oak benches in the nave and put two pews in the chancel. On 6 July 1799, two months after the death of his first wife, married his cook: for which his parishioners hooted him. Went to live in Norwich, where he put a brass plate over his door, "Rector of Scarning." (Dr Jessopp, Random Roamings, 184.)

Lawrence, Charles: son of Thomas, M.D., Pres. R.C.P.: born in London. School: Charterhouse, under Dr Berdmore. Admitted pensioner under Dr Shepherd and Messrs Paley and Parkinson 18 May 1775. Age 17.

Admitted scholar 25 May 1776. Resided till Mich. 1778: perhaps migrated to St John's where a Cha. Lawrence was B.A. 1779; M.A. 1782; B.D. 1789. Fellow of St John's 22 Mar. 1779.

Clapham, John: son of Richard: born at Austwick [near Giggleswick], Yorks. School: Kirkby Lonsdale, under Mr Wilson. Admitted sizar under Dr Shepherd and Messrs Paley and Parkinson 16 June 1775. Age 19.

Probably buried at Great St Andrew's 14 Jan. 1779. (There was also a John Clapham of Stackhouse, near Giggleswick admitted 7 July 1774, who is not to be confounded with this man.)

Pym, Wollaston: son of William: born at Hasell Hall, Beds. School: Charterhouse, under Dr Berdmore. Admitted pensioner under Dr Shepherd and Messrs Paley and Parkinson 17 June 1775. Age 16.

B.A. 1779; M.A. 1782. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1785 Feb.; licensed to Radwell: priest, 1786 Mar. Rector of Radwell, succeeding Edm. Pym (1740) 13 Mar. 1786. Vicar of Willian, Herts. 2 Mar. 1792: Will. Wollaston Pym of St John's succeeded in 1816. Married in 1796 Mary Cartwright of Aynhoe. Rector of Shadwell, Midds. Died in London 1846, aged 86 (Davy).

Garforth, Thomas: son of John Baynes, born at Steeton in Craven. School: Westminster, under Dr Smith. Admitted pensioner, later fellow-commoner, under Dr Shepherd and Messrs Paley and Parkinson 3 July 1775. Age 19.

M.A. (lit. reg.) 1780. Did not matriculate till July 1780. Resided till Mich. 1780. The father John Baynes was a solicitor of London who succeeded his uncle, Edw. Garforth, and took the name. Tho. Garforth of Steeton Hall.

J.P. for W.R., Yorks. Married Catherine, daughter of the Rev. Rob. Graham, D.D., of Netherby, sister to Sir James Graham, Bar^{t}. : had three sons and six daughters. Died 6 Dec. 1811 ; buried at Kildwick (Morant-Whitaker, 214).

Paley, George: son of George : born at Langcliffe, Yorks. School : Giggleswick, under M^{r} Paley. Admitted sizar under D^{r} Shepherd and Mess^{rs} Paley and Parkinson 14 Aug. 1775. Age 17.

B.A. (9th wrangler) 1780 ; M.A. 1783. Admitted scholar (Finch and Baines) 25 May 1776. George, the father (1708–65) elder brother of William (1729) the Master of Giggleswick school, married in 1743 Mary Lawson : this George was their third son : he was uncle of Thomas (1793) and first cousin of William, the Archdeacon (1758). Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1780 Aug. ; licensed to East Dereham : priest, Peterborough, 1782 June. In 1785 he was chaplain to the Bishop of Clonfert. (W. B. Paley, Esq.)

Hanley, John: son of Richard : born at Masham, Yorks. School : Kirby Hill, under M^{r} Dixon. Admitted sizar under D^{r} Shepherd and Mess^{rs} Paley and Parkinson 13 Oct. 1775. Age not given.

B.A. (5th jun. opt.) 1780 ; M.A. 1792. Admitted scholar 4 June 1778. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1780 May (by lit. dim. from Chichester). Elected Fellow (in place of John Metcalfe) 30 May 1792. Never held any office in the College, and probably never resided : signs very rarely. Vicar of Bolney, Sussex, 22 Nov. 1793–5. Preb^{y}. of Chichester (Gates) 5 July 1794–May 1796. Vicar of Ditchling 5 July 1794. Vicar of Amberley 1795 which he seems to have held till 1829 at least : collated by the Bishop of Chichester. Presented by the College to Clipston (on the death of John Metcalfe) 28 Oct. 1812. Fellowship declared vacant 1 Nov. 1813. Died at Clipston before July 1840, aged 82 (Davy).

Grave, Thomas Cecil: natural son of James Cecil, Lord Salisbury : born at Quickswood, Herts. Admitted from Trinity College, fellow-commoner under D^{r} Shepherd and Mess^{rs} Paley and Parkinson 17 Oct. 1775. Age 18.

Resided till Mids. 1777 : then migrated to Oxford, where he matriculated at Queen's College (as son of James of Clothall, Herts., armiger) 30 May 1777, aged 20. B.A. (Oxford) 1779 ; M.A. 1784.

Goodall, William: son of Joseph : born in Middlesex. School : Eton, under D^{r} Davies. Admitted pensioner under D^{r} Shepherd and Mess^{rs} Paley and Parkinson 30 Oct. 1775. Age not given.

B.A. 1780 ; M.A. 1785. Admitted scholar ("on the Durham foundation by D^{r} Pattison") 25 May 1776. Priest, Lincoln, 1781 Mar. ; licensed to Berkhampstead. Rector of Marsham, near Aylsham, Norfolk 13 April 1787–1844 : there is no record of his burial there.

Burton, Michael: [no facts given]. Admitted from St John's College, pensioner under D^{r} Shepherd and Mess^{rs} Paley and Parkinson 9 Nov. 1775. Age not given.

Resided till Mids^{r}. 1776.

Frend, William: son of George : born in Kent. School : Canterbury, under M^{r} Beauvoir. Admitted pensioner under D^{r} Shepherd and Mess^{rs} Paley and Parkinson 18 Dec. 1775. Age 18.

B.A. (2nd wrangler, 2nd Smith's Prize) 1780 ; M.A. (Jesus) 1783. Admitted scholar 25 May 1776. Fellow and Tutor of Jesus 1781. Born 22 Nov. 1757 at Canterbury, son of Geo. Frend, tradesman and twice Mayor : "Reformer and Scientific Writer" (D.N.B.). Vicar of Long Stanton All Saints 22 Dec. 1783. Became a Unitarian 1787 : was removed from his tutorship. Published an Address to the Inhabitants of Cambridge, 1787 in support of Unitarianism. Engaged, 1790, on a new translation of the Old Testament (historical books) as part of a translation of the Bible devised by Priestley. Published, 1793, Peace and Union recommended to the Associated bodies of Republicans and anti-republicans—an attack on the liturgy and some of the abuses of the Church of England: for this he was prosecuted in the Vice-Chancellor's (Is. Milner's) court. An account of the proceedings is given by Gunning, 1. 280. Gunning was sympathetic towards Frend and hostile to Milner: he maintains that Milner was from the first resolved to condemn Frend, and declares that the prosecution was on political grounds, Milner desiring to distinguish himself as the opponent of Jacobinism, which (according to Gunning) was practically non-existent at Cambridge. Frend was ordered to confess his errors—and declining to do so was banished from the University. He was also excluded from his College: but nevertheless he remained a member of it all his life and a Fellow till his marriage: and he was even a member of the senate: the sentence of expulsion was of doubtful validity. He settled in London, and promoted the formation of the Rock Life Assurance Company, of which he was actuary. He married in 1808 a daughter of Archdeacon Fra. Blackburne. The rest of his life was filled with the writing of books of the most varied character; on taxation in general and the income-tax, of which he advocated a graduated system; on the slave trade; on mathematics; and on universal education. He had always the courage of his opinion: and some of the indiscretion which often goes therewith. "As a unitarian and a whig he gloried in the spread of the opinions which he advocated. All reformers, such as Burdett and Horne Tooke, were numbered among his friends, and he maintained an active correspondence with the chief supporters of radicalism" (D.N.B.). He was attacked by paralysis in 1840—and died at his house, Tavistock Square, 21 Feb. 1841, aged 83.

Wall, John:

Williams, Richard: son of Richard: born in Westminster. School: Merchant Taylors', under M^{r} Townley. Admitted sizar under Mess^{rs} Shepherd, Paley (for the last time) and Parkinson 1 July 1776. Age not given.

B.A. 1780; M.A. 1783. Admitted scholar 9 June 1778. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1781 Sept.; licensed to Shelton, Beds.: priest, Peterborough, 1786 July. Vicar of Puddington, Beds. 29 May 1801. Rector of Markfield, Leics. 4 Dec. 1804–44 (in 1791, according to Nichols, IV. 801): also rector of Great Houghton, Northants. 8 July 1805–1844. Prebendary of Lincoln (Langford Manor) 10 Dec. 1805–44. Died 1844, aged 85 and was buried on July 11 at Great Houghton. His first wife Charlotte died 1814, and of his children by her, Richard died 1824, Maria died 1825, and Frances (wife of Robert Sillery, M.D.) died 1834. His second wife Bridget (? Round) by whom he had two daughters Bridget and Anne, survived him, married the Rev. W. Thomas, D.D., and died 1851. (Information from Rev. I. Wodhams.)

Alston, Rowland: [father not given]: born at Odell, Beds. [nothing more]. Admitted fellow-commoner under M^r^ Haighton 19 July 1776. Age not given.

Resided till Lady Day 1779. Perhaps son of Sir Thomas of Harrold, Beds. Admitted at the Inner Temple 30 Sept. 1776. Sir Tho. Alston of Odell Castle, Beds. succeeded his brother Sir Rowland in 1759. M.P. for Beds. 1747 and 1754, and for Bedford 1760: he married in 1750 a daughter of D^r^ Bovey and had issue (not specified)—so Kimber, 1. 459. He died Jan. 1774, when his brother Rowland succeeded—(Harvey, Hundred of Willey, 360) who mentions no son of Sir Tho. Was our Rowland a disinherited son? or was he the brother who succeeded Sir Tho. as Sir Rowland? if so he was about 50 when he was at Christ's for he died 29 June 1790, aged 64 (ib). May be the Rowland of St Mary le Bone, whose son (also Rowland) was admitted at Oxford 1830 (born 1812). In Gent. Mag. 1807, ((1), 281) is given the death on 20 Feb. 1807 of Sir John Alston [no address], in his 45th year, late fellow-commoner of Christ's—not found elsewhere.

Knowlys, Newman: son of William: born in London. School: Botesdale, under M^r^ Smith. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Shepherd, Parkinson and Seale 9 Oct. 1776. Age 18.

Resided till Lady Day 1779. Admitted at the Middle Temple 22 Jan. 1774, as son of William of Harp Lane, Tower Street, merchant: called to the Bar 1783. Afterwards Bencher. Rector of St Mary at Hill, and St Mary Hubbard, London 2 Feb. 1784–1806, presented by the Duke. Died 11 Sept. 1806. Author: Observations on Popular Antiquities, 1776. A History of Newcastle-on-Tyne, 1789 (still a useful book): in it is a silhouette likeness of him.

Jones, Dearing: son of Dearing, late Fellow: born at "Naumby" [Navenby]. Educated there by his father. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Parkinson and Seale 5 Jan. 1777. Age 17. "Has aedes vix prius ingressus est quam militaris ardor invaserit, armisque cesserit toga" (J. B. Seale, praelector).

He is charged with rooms for the quarter ending Lady Day 1777. How he fared in the army is not recorded. He was buried in the chancel of Navenby Church 30 May 1786, near the place where his father, rector 1753–1803, was afterwards laid.

Tayler, Archdale Wilson: son of Joseph: born at Lynn. School: [?Lynn], under M^r^ Barker. Admitted pensioner (soon after, fellow-commoner—"pensionarii minoris togam induit, quae postea in auratam mutata est." J.B.S.) under Mess^rs^ Parkinson and Seale 6 Feb. 1777. Age 16. Resided till Lady Day 1780.

Robinson, Bethell: [father not given]: of Yorkshire. School: Felsted, under M^r^ Drake. Admitted pensioner under D^r^ Shepherd and Mess^rs^ Parkinson and Seale 23 May 1777. Age 18.

B.A. 1781. Son of Bethell Robinson of Catwick Hall, and Beverley, and of Jane Bayles of Laxton and Willerby (Genealogist, N.S., 11. 92). Ordained deacon, York, 1781 Oct.; licensed to Catwick and Frodingham. Rector of Scorborough, near Beverley, and vicar of Hutton Cranswick 1783. P.C. of Speeton 1785, and also of Beverley 1796–1803. Married Sarah, daughter of Tho. Carter of Black Notley, Essex, by whom he had Bethell Martin, and two other sons. Died 1819, aged 59.

Birch, Richard: son of Richard: [birth-place not given]. School: Norwich, under D^r^ Sam. Parr. Admitted fellow-commoner under D^r^ Shepherd and Mess^rs^ Parkinson and Seale 14 June 1777. Age 19.

Resided till Lady Day 1779. Perhaps one of the Birch family of Wretham Hall, Norfolk, but not in Burke.

Benson, Thomas: [father not given]: born at Carlisle. "Nequicquam edoctus domi" (J.B.S.). Admitted pensioner under D^r^ Shepherd and Mess^rs^ Parkinson and Seale 3 July 1777. Age not given.

Resided till Mich. 1779.

Townshend, Edward: son of Edward the Hon. and Very Rev. Dean of Norwich (who was youngest son of Charles, second Visc^t^. Townshend): birthplace not given. School: Charterhouse, under D^r^ Berdmore. Admitted pensioner under D^r^ Shepherd, and Mess^rs^ Parkinson and Seale 15 Sept. 1777. Age 17.

B.A. 1782; M.A. 1784. Admitted scholar (K. Edw. VI) 16 Feb. 1780. Ordained priest, Gloucester, 1784. In the same year rector of Henley on Thames. Chaplain to Lord Talbot. On 7 June 1785 had dispensation to hold also the vicarage of Stewkley, Bucks., distant 26 miles. On 10 Dec. 1787, he had dispensation to hold with Henley the vicarage of Bray, Berks., distant 24 miles: held it for 33 years. Married 1785 Louisa, daughter of Sir Will. Milner, bar^t^. Held Henley for 38 years; and died 24 July 1822.

At this point in the Admission Book comes the entry—made by J. B. Seale, praelector for the academic year then ending—"Apud Festum Divi Michaelis 1777 Doctor Shepherd transtulit sponsiones suas ad Magistros Parkinson & Seale, postquam Tutoris officio perfunctus esset viginti et quinque annos."

Parkinson acts as "sponsor" in the new partnership, as appears from Study-rents.

Owen, Arthur: son of Arthur: born at Chelsea. School: Harrow, under (1) D^r^ Sumner, (2) D^r^ Heath. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess^rs^ Parkinson and Seale 11 Nov. 1777. Age 20.

B.A. 1782; M.A. 1785. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1782 May; licensed to Horton, Bucks. Fellow of Emmanuel 1786. Perhaps the Rev. Arthur Owen of Paddington, Midds. who died before July 1805. (Gent. Mag. p. 679.)

Hall, James: baronet: [no further facts, not even the tutors' names: the praelector was John Fisher]. Admitted 17 Nov. 1777.

Sir James Hall of Dunglas 1776, when he succeeded his father Sir John. Born 1761: his mother was Magdalen, daughter of Sir Rob. Pringle. Resided till Mich. 1779. "Geologist and chemist": the first geologist to directly apply the test of laboratory experiment to geological hypotheses" (D.N.B.). Intimate with James Hutton and Playfair: but led by his research to opposite views. He travelled in the Alps, in Italy and in Sicily to test the validity of his own views: published his results after Hutton's death in 1797, as President of the Royal Society of Edinburgh. He was also interested in architecture: and published in 1813 his Essay on the Origin, Principles and History of Gothic architecture (developed from a shorter essay of 1797), in which he argues that Gothic buildings in stone are developments of original wattle-work. He was M.P. for the borough of Michael, Cornwall 1807–12. Married 9 Nov. 1786 Helen, daughter of Dunbar Douglas, fourth Earl of Selkirk, by whom he had three sons and three daughters. Died at Edinburgh, 23 June 1832. (D.N.B.)

Prevost, Thomas: [no facts]. Admitted 19 Nov. 1777.

B.A. 1782; M.A. 1786. He was a pensioner and after Jan. 1781 fellow-commoner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale. Ordained deacon, Chester (but at Westminster), 1782 Feb.: priest, Lincoln, 1784 Sept.; curate of St Paul's, Bedford. Vicar of Tisbury, Wilts. 1791. Vicar of Rushmere, near Ipswich, 23 Feb. 1816. Died 1825. (Davy.)

Hood, Robert: [no facts]. Admitted 8 Jan. 1778.

B.A. 1782; M.A. 1785. Pupil of Parkinson and Seale. Ordained deacon, Peterborough, 1782 June; curate at Frieston near Boston: priest, Lincoln, 1785 Dec.; licensed to Holbeach. Master of Holbeach School 1783 (Camb. Chronicle, 22 Nov.). Was perhaps curate-in-charge at Holbeach till his death in 1811. (W. H. Willcox, Esq.)

Wall, John: son of Gilman: born in Cambridge: [no more facts]. Admitted 13 Feb. 1778.

Brother of Adam (1746). Had his name on the Boards for ten years as a sizar under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale. B.D. 1788. Ordained deacon, Peterborough, 1778 June: priest, Rochester, 1780 May. Curate of Stone, Kent 12 Aug. 1796. Instituted vicar of Darenth, Kent (a peculiar of the Dean and Chapter of Rochester) 1 Dec. 1802. Curate of Wilmington 29 July 1806.

Bulman, John: "sacris initiatus." Admitted sizar under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 21 May 1778. Age 24.

Had his name in Study-rents (3*s.* 0*d.* a quarter) till Mids^{r}. 1789: but it is not certain that he resided in any term: and he did not take the B.D. degree. There was a family of this name at Newcastle.

Hayden, William: son of Robert: born at Newmarket, Cambs. Educated by M^{r} Waterson. Admitted sizar under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 20 June 1778. Age 19.

The charge for his rooms alternates curiously between 3*s.* 0*d.* and 7*s.* 6*d.* a quarter till Lady Day 1785 when the name disappears.

Wakeham, Charles: son of Charles, "dicto Decano de Bocking, jocose" [says John Fisher, praelector: he was the head of the group of East Anglian "peculiars" of the Archbishop]: born at Bocking. Educated there by his father. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 30 June 1778. Age 17.

B.A. 1782; M.A. 1785. Admitted scholar 16 Feb. 1780. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1782 Dec. "at the request of the Bishop of London": priest, Chester, 1784 April. Prebendary of Lichfield 21 Feb. 1797. Rector of Wickenby, Lincs. 5 Oct. 1801. Died 1822.

Brock, William: [father not given]. "Causidici Cestriensis frater, Bacchi postquam lucri causa servitio se diu addixisset" (John Fisher). Admitted "invita Minerva," after being at Magd. Hall, Oxford, fellow-commoner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 9 July 1778. Age 39.

LL.B. 1781. Son of Ri. Brock of Davenham, Cheshire; matric^{d}. at Magd. Hall 8 June 1775, aged 35 (Al. Ox. 163). I suppose, he had been a wine-merchant. Matric^{d}. 2 July 1781.

Kerstman, Andrews: son of William: born at Chelmsford. School: Colchester, under the Rev. Sam. Parr. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 21 Oct. 1778. Age 18.

B.A. 1783; M.A. 1786. Came into residence Mids. 1779. Admitted scholar 16 Feb. 1780. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1784 March: priest, 1785 Dec.—in both cases at the request of the Bishop of London. Vicar of Brenchley, Kent. Rector of Bermondsey St Mary, 25 Oct. 1814. Died at Brenchley 4 June 1827, aged 65 [?].

Hunter, George: son of John, armiger: born at Medomsley, Durham. School: Richmond, under the Rev. Ant. Temple. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 23 Nov. 1778. Age 17.

B.A. (13th wrangler) 1783; M.A. 1786. Admitted scholar 16 Feb. 1780. Son of John Hunter of Medomsley, by his wife Eliz., daughter of Tim. Whittingham of Holmside Hall, Durham—a descendant of Tim. Whittingham admitted 1572. Elected Fellow (in place of D^{r} Shepherd) 26 Nov. 1783. Ordained priest, Peterborough, 1785 June. Hebrew Lecturer 1784–6, 1793–5. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, Bunting, Knapwell and Walkhampton Preacher, and Steward 1785. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist 1788. Senior Greek Lecturer and Mildmay Preacher 1788–90. Senior Dean 1794, 1795. Junior Proctor 1792. Scrutator 1794. He was a man of ability and character, and "was always considered as the successor of D^{r} Barker" (Gunning, 2. 236). But he died "unexpectedly" (ib.) at Bath in June 1796, aged 35. His death was a great loss to the Society, which was then unusually weak: Wall, the senior, was old and infirm: Seale and N. C. Lane "had little weight": and the rest except Browne were undistinguished and largely non-resident.

Leach, Richard: son of Henry: born at Carmarthen. Educated privately by the Rev. Tho. Goodinge. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 19 Feb. 1779. Age 18.

B.A. 1783; M.A. 1790. Admitted scholar 16 Feb. 1780. Presented by the College to the vicarage of Manorbier, Pembs. 1794. His name appears in the registers from 1813 to 1844 irregularly: he had a curate named Devonald, and at the end of his time Hen. Hughes (not of this College): who succeeded on Leach's death in 1844.

Radcliffe, John: [father not given]: born at Cockermouth. School: Newcastle, under Rev. Hugh Moises. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 5 Mar. 1779. Age 17.

B.A. (9th jun. opt.) 1784. Admitted scholar 16 Feb. 1780. Ordained deacon, York, 1784 July. Under master of Morpeth school, Northumb^{d}. 18 Mar. 1784–87 (Hodgson, II. ii. 404). One John Radcliffe died vicar of Littlebourne, Kent, before June 1820: no other graduate of these names of either University.

White, Henry: son of Thomas: born at Lichfield. School: Lichfield. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 6 March 1779. Age 18.

B.A. 1783; M.A. 1786. Admitted scholar (Finch and Baines) 16 Feb. 1780. Succeeded his father Thomas (M.A. (St John's) 1738) as Sacrist of Lichfield. Also vicar of Chebsey, near Stafford 1785: and vicar of Pipe Ridware 1798: and vicar of Dilhorne, near Cheadle, Staffs. 11 Nov. 1809—where he never resided, but held the living till his death: all these livings were in the gift of the Dean and Chapter. A friend of Miss Seward. Mentioned by Boswell (1784) as "a young clergyman with whom he [D^{r} Johnson] now formed an intimacy, so as to talk with him with great freedom." Collected a large library, chiefly of books of prints, which was sold by auction before his death. Died in the Close, Lichfield 8 April 1836, aged 75 (Gent. May. 1836 (2), 105).

Tho. White, B.A. (Pemb.) 166$\frac{1}{2}$, Prebendary of Lichfield 1683–1709 was probably of the same family.

Wasse, John: son of John: [no more facts]. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 15 Sept. 1779. Age 18.

He was at Rugby from 1770, son of John Wasse of Catthorpe, Leics. Matriculated Dec. 1779. Appears in Study-rents till Dec. 1782.

Harwood, Busick: [father not given]: of Cambs. "Ex Asia reversus ubi in castris Indicis chirurgorum praefectus triennium non sine fructu [viz. considerable fees for attendance on native princes] exegisset": admitted fellow-commoner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 22 Sept. 1779. Age not given.

M.B. 1785; M.D. (Emm.) 1790: F.S.A. 1783; F.R.S. 1784. Second son of John Harwood of Newmarket. Professor of Anatomy 1785–1814. Downing Professor of Medicine 1800–1814. Married 1798 the daughter of Sir John Peschell who lived near Oxford—for the marriage see Gunning, 2. 95–7, but had no children. Knighted 1806. Had theories on transfusion of the blood, which he illustrated by experiments on animals at his lectures. He published nothing. Died at Downing 10 Nov. 1814.

According to Gunning he was on good terms with the Society of Christ's —a fact which does not increase the credit of the Society, if Gunning's account (1. 49) of a scene in the Combination room in 1788 is not exaggerated —who were surprised at his migration to Emmanuel: the ostensible reason was that he got very good rooms there, with the large garden: Gunning believed that he wished to increase his chance of promotion by joining a noted Tory college, as Emmanuel was then under D^{r} Farmer: he had previously been known as a Whig: now he commonly spent his evenings in Emmanuel parlour: but he still dined in vacation time at Christ's. He had a curious habit of having dinner laid each day in term for half a dozen guests whom he collected in his morning walk: they dined at 2, and the guests generally went with the Professor to his lecture-room at 4.

Manners, John: son of Thomas: born at Grantham. School: not given. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 6 Dec. 1779. Age not given.

Resided till Mids^{r}. 1781. Probably a cadet of the Manners family; but I cannot trace him.

Lane, Newton Charles: son of John: born in London. School: Westminster, under D^{r} Smith. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 12 Jan. 1780. Age 17.

B.A. (10th wrangler) 1784; M.A. 1787. Admitted scholar (Lady Marg.) as of Staffs. 15 Feb. 1780: again (as of Midds.) 22 Dec. 1780; Finch and Baines 27 Nov. 1783. Son of John Lane, of King's Bromley, Staffs. by his wife Sarah Fowler of Penford. Elected Fellow, succeeding Edm. Mapletoft, 7 Dec. 1785.

Ordained deacon, Ely, 1785 Dec.: priest, Peterborough, 1787 June. Vicar of Alveston, Warw. 1789, probably the "small family living" mentioned by Gunning (Davy). Praelector (always absolutely bad) Junior Dean and Catechist, Bunting, Knapwell and Walkhampton Preacher, and Steward 1786. Hebrew Lecturer 1786–8. Custos cistae 1788. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist 1790, 1792, 1793. Senior Greek Lecturer and Mildmay Preacher 1791–3. Bunting, Knapwell and Walkhampton Preacher 1796. Never Senior Dean. He was Tutor 1790 with Parkinson and Metcalfe: 1790–2 with Metcalfe: 1792–9 with Hopkins: but for the greater part of these times the record is scandalously bad, even the names of the Tutors being omitted: and he is largely responsible. On 6 June 1810 he was presented to Ingoldsby: his fellowship was declared vacant 28 May 1811. The College had difficulty with him after his departure. On 27 Oct. 1813 there is a College Order "that M^{r} Lane be made to account for the sum paid him for dilapidations": on 5 November it was agreed that if M^{r} Lane consent to repay the £500 received by him and agree to pay £25 annually to be added to the £500 to form a fund for the building of a Rectory house, further proceedings against him be suspended. Nothing more occurs. Browne, then Master, had always been on bad terms with Lane. Gunning (2. 235) says of Lane that "his address was pleasing and his manner gentlemanly but his acquaintance was chiefly with men of dissipated habits and sporting propensities: he occasionally ran a horse himself"—one named "Cribbage." Local tradition at Ingoldsby says that he bred horses there. A college was not fortunate which had at the same time for three of its resident Fellows, Seale, Lane and Browne. He died at Ingoldsby 6 Mar. 1846, aged 83.

Lane, Matthew: son of Matthew: born at Hingham, Norfolk. School: Harrow, under D^{r} Heath. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 13 Jan. 1780. Age 18.

B.A. 1784; M.A. 1788. Admitted scholar 22 Dec. 1780: again 9 Nov. 1781; it does not appear why. Matthew, the father, was rector of Scoulton, Norfolk 1764–97; of Town Barningham 1750; and of Welborne 1763–1800. Matthew, the son, was ordained deacon, Norwich, 1784 Dec.; licensed to Scoulton: priest, 1786 Oct.

Tunstal, James: [no facts at all]. Admitted 11 Feb. 1780.

B.A. (16th sen. opt. 1st Chancellor's Medallist) 1784; M.A. 1787. Admitted scholar 16 Feb. 1780. Matriculated 1783 Nov. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1786 Dec.: priest, London, 1788 April. A nephew of D^{r} Shepherd. Gunning gives a very evil character of him: "Had his industry and his conduct borne any proportion to his talents, he would have been one of the most distinguished men in the University: but he was the idlest of the idle, and so low a profligate that even in those days when the standard of morals was not very high, he was shunned by all the men of his own standing" (1. 33). Gunning goes on to describe the way in which Tunstal made money out of those who were younger and did not know him. He stood unsuccessfully for a Fellowship—probably in Jan. 1787: was obliged to leave College, and went to America, where he became assistant in a school (ib.).

Errat, William: son of Thomas: born at Newmarket. School: Linton, under M^{r} Lodge. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 8 Mar. 1780. Age not given.

B.A. (Erratt) 1784. Admitted scholar 22 Dec. 1780. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1785 Sept.: priest, Norwich, 1788 Sept. Curate of Ixning [sic] 21 Sept. 1788–92. Rector of Shereford, near Fakenham, Norfolk, 26 Mar. 1794–1796; presented by the Marquis of Townsend. Curate of Downham, near Santon 31 Aug. 1819–Dec. 1820.

Davies, Henry: born at Carmarthen. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 14 March 1780. Age not given.

Resided till Lady Day 1781.

Tuting, William: son of William: born at Newmarket. School: Charterhouse, under D^{r} Berdmore. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 14 Apr. 1780. Age not given.

B.A. 1784; M.A. 1789. Admitted scholar 22 Dec. 1780. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1784 June; licensed to Essendon with Bayford, Herts.: priest 1785 Sept. Rector of Partney, Lincs. 26 Sept. 1785: of Toynton St Peter's, near Horncastle 17 July 1788: gone before 1827.

Cookson, Isaac: son of Isaac: born at Fotheringham, Lincs. Educated at home by his father. Admitted sizar under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 10 May 1780. Age 21.

Admitted scholar 22 Dec. 1780. Resided till Lady Day 1783: name remains in Study-rents till Xmas 1790. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1782 Dec.; licensed to Osbournby, Lincs.: priest, 1783 Dec.; appointed to the Chapel of Walcott, Lincs., patron, Sir Gilbert Heathcote.

Beevor, George: son of Thomas: born at Hethel, Norfolk. School: Wymondham, under the Rev. M^{r} Hepworth. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 5 June 1780. Age 18.

B.A. (2nd jun. opt.) 1784; M.A. 1787. Admitted scholar (D^{r} Patynson) 22 Dec. 1780; Lady Marg. 18 Apr. 1782. Probably akin to John Beevor (1775). Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1784 June; licensed to Ashwellthorpe: priest 1786 June. Probably rector of North Cove near Beccles 1792–1810 (Suckling, 1. 52). Rector of Wilby with Hargham, Norfolk 3 Oct. 1804: also vacant 1810: so perhaps he died that year.

Browne, Theophilus: son of Theophilus: born at Derby. School: Derby, under M^{r} Clarkson. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 23 June 1780. Age 18.

B.A. (9th wrangler) 1784. Fellow of Peterhouse. M.A. (Pet.) 1787. Admitted scholar 22 Dec. 1780. Vicar of Cherry Hinton, Cambs. 1793. Became a Unitarian of the school of Priestley and resigned his living. Minister of Warminster 1800 for seven years: then tutor of Manchester College, York: then two years at Octagon Chapel, Norwich: then at Chester and at Gloucester, 1815–23. Lastly he settled at Bath, preaching occasionally. As a Unitarian preacher he was not successful. Interested in education: "conscientious to a fault" and generous to the poor. Died 20 May 1835, and buried at Lyncomb Vale, Bath: his wife had died the Christmas before. (D.N.B.)

Berkeley, George: son of Lionel: born at Stockton-on-Tees. School: Kirkby Lonsdale, under M^{r} Wilson. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 6 July 1780. Age 17.

B.A. 1784. Admitted scholar 22 Dec. 1780. Son of Lionel Berkeley (grandson of Charles, second Earl of Berkeley) by his wife, Marg^{t}. Whitfeld of Twickenham. Ordained deacon, York, 1786 July; licensed to Beverley Minster. According to Davy he died at Whixley, Yorks. 1824. There is a Geo. Berkeley who was vicar of Ticehurst, Sussex 25 Dec. 1792–1833.

Ormerod, Richard: [no facts at all]. Admitted 16 Oct. 1780.

B.A. (15th sen. opt.) 1784; M.A. 1787. Admitted at St John's 7 Dec. 1779 (as of Lancs.): name off there 23 Oct. 1780. Rhetorick Lecturer 21 Nov. 1787. Owing to the deficient entry it is uncertain whether he be the Ri. Ormerod (no degree or college) ordained deacon, Chester, 2 Jan. 1779; priest 6 Jan. and licensed P.C. of Ingleton Fell, Yorks. Appointed 1787 chaplain to Bishop Porteus—much to the disgust of his tutor, J. B. Seale, who had looked for the post: he nicknamed Ormerod "the Queen's Bishop's pawn" (Gunning, 1. 20): this preferment, when he was only just M.A., implies that his age was above the average. Prebendary of St Paul's (Neasden) 30 Nov. 1789–92, when he resigned. Rector of Great Birch, Essex: had dispensation 12 Dec. 1791 to hold also the vicarage of Keldon [? Kelvedon], Easterford [sic], distant seven miles. Vicar of St Mary Abbots, Kensington 10 Dec. 1795. Died 24 May 1816. Author: Remarks on Priestley's disquisitions on matter and spirit, 1788: sermon at Witham on the Bishop's Visitation 29 May 1794.

Waddington, Thomas: son of John: born at Ely. School: Bury, under M^{r} Laurents. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 28 Oct. 1780. Age 18.

B.A. 1785; M.A. 1788; D.D. 1801. Admitted scholar 22 Dec. 1780. Probably son of John ($174\frac{9}{7}$). Ordained priest, Ely, 1787 Oct. Rector of Kelshall, Herts. 1788. Had dispensation (as chaplain to Lord Dover) 18 Dec. 1788 to hold also the rectory of Wimpole, Cambs. distant 10 miles. On 20 April 1789 had dispensation to hold with Wimpole (worth £120) the rectory of Downham in the Isle of Ely, worth £320, distant 28 miles. Prebendary of Ely 11 Oct. 1793. Rector of Northwold 2 March 1805, which he held till the beginning of 1814. Also rector of Hessett, Suffolk 20 Apr. 1809–13. Died at Ely 18 June 1815, aged 52.

Williams, John: son of Bennet: of Cheshire. School: Winchester, under D^{r} Wharton. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 24 Nov. 1780. Age 18.

Admitted, as of Christ's College, at Lincoln's Inn 8 May 1781: his father was of St Asaph. His name appears in Study-rents till Mids^{r}. 1796 (3*s.* 0*d.* a quarter from the beginning). Sir John Williams of Bodelwyddan, near St Asaph, created a Baronet 24 July 1798: son of Bennet Williams (who died 1786) by Eliz., daughter of Rob. Hesketh of Rossall. Married Margaret, daughter and heiress of Hugh Williams of Tytry, Anglesey: by whom he had three sons and five daughters. Brother of William (1792). Died 9 Oct. 1830.

Ramsden, William Benson: son of William: born at the Charterhouse. School: there, under D^{r} Berdmore. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 13 Jan. 1781. Age 17.

B.A. (15th sen. opt.) 1785; M.A. 1788; B.D. 1812. Admitted scholar 20 Feb. 1782. Elected Fellow (Finch and Baines, succeeding J. W. King) 4 Jan. 1787. Ordained priest, Ely, 1787 June. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, Steward, and Bunting, Knapwell and Walkhampton Preacher 1787. Probably resided little after that year: he signs very rarely. On 7 Dec. 1796 he was presented to the vicarage of Croxton, succeeding Tho. Brand, as neither M^{r} Preston nor M^{r} Lane would accept it: but he held his Fellowship till 12 Apr. 1800 when it was declared vacant: on 13 March he married Miss Dowse of Millman St, Bedford Row. He had a curate at Croxton. Vicar of Witcham, Cambs. 15 Nov. 1800, patron, Dean and Chapter of Ely: resigned 1802. Presented by Charterhouse to the rectory of Great Stambridge, Essex, worth £600, 16 Dec. 1801: this he held as late as 1814. Presented by St Bartholomew's Hospital to Little Wakering, Essex 11 May 1812: to hold with Stambridge, worth £200 a year. In 1827 he came to reside at Thetford in order to discharge in person the duties of his vicarage of Croxton, distant two miles—about 30 years after his presentation. Died 28 Mar. 1838, aged 74: buried in Croxton church.

Rumbold, George: second son of Sir Thomas, bar^{t}. Educated by "varii praeceptores." Admitted pensioner, then fellow-commoner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 1 Mar. 1781. Age 18.

Resided till Mids. 1781. Second son of Sir Thomas, Governor of Madras, by Frances, daughter of James Berriman. Succeeded to the baronetcy 1791. In the diplomatic service. Minister at Hamburg 1803: arrested there by the French 25 Oct. 1804, and conveyed away to Hanover and thence to Paris: finally sent from Cherbourg to England under a flag of truce. The arrest caused much indignation at Berlin—and Rumbold who settled soon after at Berlin was welcomed there. Accompanied the royal family after Jena to Königsberg and Memel. He died of fever at Memel 15 Dec. 1807 (D.N.B.: Sir Horace Rumbold's Recollections of a diplomatist, 24–7).

Sewell, William: son of James: born at Mulbarton, Norfolk. School: North Walsham, under M^{r} Jones. Admitted sizar under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 24 April 1781. Age 30.

B.A. 1786; M.A. 1789. Admitted scholar (K. Edw. VI) 13 Feb. 1783. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1784 June, aged 33: licensed to Knapton, Norfolk.

Barlow, George: son of George: born at Edmonton, Midds. School: Brandon, Norf., under M^{r} Wright. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 16 June 1781. Age 17.

B.A. (9th jun. opt.) 1785; M.A. 1802. The father was perhaps the Geo. Barlow, Esq. of Moulton, Suffolk who died 10 Mar. 1805, aged 74 (Gent. Mag. p. 292). Admitted scholar (K. Edw. VI) 26 Feb. 1783. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1785 Sept.: priest 1786. Curate at Whittlesford 1786. Chaplain to Countess dowager Talbot. Vicar of Great Abington 1792: by dispensation 24 June 1802 vicar of Little Abington (contiguous). Died 1827, aged 63 (Davy).

Mewburn, James: [father not given]: born at Acomb, Northumb^{d}. School: Newcastle, under M^{r} Moises. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 14 Feb. 1782. Age not given.

B.A. (1st jun. opt.) 1786; M.A. 1789. Admitted at St John's 23 Feb. 1781: name off there, 23 Oct. Admitted scholar 20 Feb. 1782. Son of Simon Mewburn of Acomb, and of Mary Tulip of Fallowfield (Bateson, Northumb^{d}. 4. 142). Ordained deacon, York, 1786 Oct.; licensed to St Oswald's in Lee and Bingfield, near Newcastle: priest, 1787 Oct. Curate of Birtley 1789–90. Died at Acomb: buried 21 Mar. 1807, aged 45 (Bateson, ib.).

Porter, George: son of Nicholas: born at Kirkham, Lancs. School: Kirkham, under M^{r} Threlfal. Admitted sizar under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 26 April 1782. Age 18.

B.A. (5th wrangler) 1786; M.A. 1789. Admitted scholar (Lady Marg^{t}.) 13 Feb. 1783; Finch and Baines 21 Dec. 1785. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1786 Sept.; licensed to Waresley, Hunts.: priest, London, 1788 Oct. At Upminster, Essex 1800, when his son Geo. Shepheard Porter (1818) was born. For several years chaplain of the chapel of ease (now the parish church) of Billericay. Died 25 Nov. 1819, aged 56, and buried in the mother-church at Great Burstead. M.I. ("minister pius comis humanus").

*Browne, Thomas: son of Robert: born at Poulton, Lancs. School: Sedbergh, under D^{r} Bateman. Admitted sizar under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 8 May 1782. Age 16.

B.A. (8th wrangler) 1786; M.A. 1789; B.D. 1796; D.D. 1808. Admitted scholar 13 Feb. 1783. Elected Fellow in place of Tho. Parkinson 23 Mar.

1791. He was curate of Great St Andrew's 1792–6: on 5 March 1794 he was appointed by the Senate P.C. of Seaton Ross, Yorks. after a contest with Nic. Bourne, Fellow of St John's: but he certainly never left Cambridge. In 1796 he held for a year the rectory of Beerferris for his pupil Hen. L. Hobart, who was under the necessary age. Praelector—the only fairly good one in the space of nine years—Junior Dean and Catechist 1791–3, 1794–6, 1797, 1802. Bunting, Knapwell and Walkhampton Preacher 1793, 1797. Steward 1795, 1797, 1802. Hebrew Lecturer 1797–9. Senior Greek Lecturer and Mildmay Preacher 1798–1800. Senior Dean 1801, 1804, 1805, 1806, 1807. Hebrew Lecturer again 1805—the last time when this appointment, which implied the smallest—if any—acquaintance with Hebrew, appears in the Order Book. Elected Master, on the death of the octogenarian D^{r} Barker, 1 March 1808: he had been virtually Master and managed the College business for ten years before. Our knowledge of Browne's career at Cambridge is drawn mainly from Gunning, who assigns him a long chapter (vol. 2. 226–64): Gunning regards himself as having been deceived by Browne, but I see no reason to doubt the general fairness of his story: his personal grievances may be omitted here. He describes Browne when a young man as "very prepossessing, and his manners particularly agreeable"; but given to practical jokes (specimens at 227–230): he was popular with the Society (except Seale and Lane): but in the Senate he had some strong enemies: in 1793 he was nominated (by an irregularity for which he was not to blame) as Taxor: Lane took formal objection, and after great excitement Lane was elected against Browne, who was certainly a better man of business (ib. 232–5). He took pupils, generally men of good position, at first alone: then with J. Hopkins 1798–1806: then for two years with J. Maul. The feeling against him in the University was again manifested in 1809, after he became Master, when he was nominated for the Vice-Chancellorship: Isaac Milner was put up against him and elected after a sharp contest: see my History of Christ's, 271; the story is not told by Gunning: the reason given for the opposition would hardly have sufficed, though Browne had behaved disingenuously: he then brought (and dropped) an action for slander, against G. C. Renouard of Sidney. In 1811 he was elected without opposition. In finance Browne was before his time: he first urged that beneficial leases should be abolished. In 1797 he has probably the credit of the non-renewal of the Bourn fine (see under John Hopkins, 1774) with a view to the "Bourn pension": and again, in 1809, he got the Society to agree to run out the great Diseworth lease: after his death, the Society reverted to the old easier and uneconomic system: and the Diseworth beneficial lease survived for seventy years. Browne believed, no doubt sincerely, in the possibility of greatly raising the income from Bourn by better management. He lived there largely and occupied himself in the enclosure of the parish. His influence over the Society was supreme, and no enquiry was made into his procedure. They became suspicious when no rents were received from Bourn: and in 1813 they appealed to the Visitor. Enquiries made to support the appeal showed that Browne had led an immoral life at Bourn. The Society, led by the two tutors, J. Maul and J. Kaye, moved the Visitor to declare the Mastership vacant: which was done August 1814. It was decided that D^{r} Browne owed the Society £1200, or more: but they remitted the payment, probably on condition that Browne should depart peaceably. Browne retired to Gorleston, to which he had been presented by M^{rs} Catharine Astley, widow 3 Aug. 1808 and again 24 Feb. 1813. He died vicar April 1832, aged 65. For the rest of his acts, see Gunning (ut supra).

Thomas, Thomas: [no facts at all]. Admitted sizar 27 May 1782.
B.D. 1793: having had his name in the Study-rents (3*s.* 0*d.* a quarter) for the intervening time: but matriculated only in June 1793. Possibly P.C. of Kingswood, Wilts. 1777–1833. Died at Wotton-under-Edge, 23 June 1834, aged 86.

Davies, Whitehall: son of Peter: born at Broughton, Flint. School: Macclesfield, under M^r^ Inglis. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Parkinson and Seale 1 July 1782. Age 18.

B.A. (W. W. Davies) 1787 (6th sen. opt.); M.A. 1790. Admitted scholar 27 Nov. 1783. Son of Peter Davies by his wife Eliz., daughter of Broughton Whitehall, of Broughton. (Burke, H.C. 2. 278.) Elected Fellow, succeeding Tho. Brand, 13 May 1789. Ordained deacon, Peterborough, 1790 April: priest, Ely, 1790 May. Never held any statutory office—and signs very rarely. Fellowship declared vacant 11 Dec. 1802. Chaplain to Lord Kenyon. Vicar of Whittington, Salop (worth £850) 10 Dec. 1801. Had dispensation 29 Dec. 1802 to hold also the rectory of Sylattin (now Selattyn), Salop, worth £380; distant seven miles. I think that while yet a Fellow, he was rector of Broughton, his native place (J.E.B.M.). Died, without issue, 1824 (Davy).

Hartley, Richard: son of Richard: born at Bingley, Yorks. Admitted sizar "ad fidem et rogatum Mag^ri^ Hudson huius Collegii olim socii" [and Master of Bingley School] under Mess^rs^ Parkinson and Seale 26 Aug. 1782. Age 18.

B.A. (6th wrangler) 1787; M.A. 1790; D.D. 1805. Admitted scholar 27 Nov. 1783. Also Tancred student. Richard, the father (who was B.A. (Trin.) 1737, and vicar of Bingley 1740–83) married Ann, daughter of John Perkins, M.D., of Netherton, Wakefield. Gunning mentions the son, who was a little his senior, as having saved him from entire idleness, and as "an excellent classic, a hard reading man, and of irreproachable character." Ordained deacon, Rochester, 1789 Apr. Head-master of the grammar school, Bingley 1791–1836: a very successful teacher. Vicar of Bingley 1795. His first wife, Charlotte, died 1820: he married as a second wife Mary Hudson of Hipperholme. Died 26 Oct. 1836, aged 72 (Morant-Whitaker, Craven, 194).

Dehane, John: son of John: born at Deal. Admitted pensioner [like Hartley, above] at request of [Tho.] Hudson under Mess^rs^ Parkinson and Seale 26 Aug. 1782. Age 19.

B.A. 1787; M.A. 1791. Probably his father was of Ch. Ch., Oxford, B.A. 1732: he was son of Lewis Dehane of Deal. Admitted scholar 27 Nov. 1783. Ordained deacon, Chester, 1787 March.

Tennant, Smithson: son of Calvert: born at Selby, Yorks. School: Beverley, under D^r^ Croft. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess^rs^ Parkinson and Seale 30 Oct. 1782. Age 19.

Resided till Dec. 1786: matric^d^. Dec. 1784. Migrated to Emmanuel, where he was M.B. 1788, M.D. 1796. Son of Calvert Tennant, vicar of Selby, and of Mary Daunt. Studied at Edinburgh 1781: studied chemistry and botany while at Christ's. Travelled in Europe for some years after 1788. Then settled in London, engaged in literary and scientific studies. Copley Medallist of the Royal Society 1804. Farmed successfully land in Somerset. Professor of Chemistry at Cambridge 1813. Died, by an accident, near Boulogne 22 Feb. 1815. "A man of wide culture, and of severe taste in literature and arts... though his published work is small in volume it includes several [chemical] discoveries of capital importance." (D.N.B.) Gunning has a good story about him (2. 60). A friend who was to travel with him from Cambridge to France, knowing his unpunctuality, ordered a post-chaise, being sure that Tennant would not be in time for the London coach. When the chaise arrived, Tennant had neither breakfasted nor packed: he drank his tea, and proceeded to pack. Putting his tablecloth on the floor he emptied into it all his linen: taking a second tablecloth, he put therein clothes, boots and brushes: fastened them up as a laundress does, and was ready to start.

Ward, Edward: son of Edward: born at South Scarle, Notts. School: Newark, under M^r^ Pennell. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Parkinson and Seale 24 Dec. 1782. Age 18.

B.A. 1787; M.A. 1790. Admitted scholar 27 Nov. 1783. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1787 June; licensed to Swinderby and Aubourn, Lincs.: priest, 1788 Dec. Curate of Langford, Notts. Perhaps vicar of North Collingham, Notts. 24 Jan. 1801 (Foster, Ind. Eccl.): he signs the register from Nov. 1800 [sic] to Nov. 1801, but no longer.

Errington, William: son of John: born at Walwick Grange, Northumb^d^. School: Ashford, Kent, under M^r^ Stoddart. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Parkinson and Seale 2 Jan. 1783. Age 17.

B.A. 1788. Admitted scholar 27 Nov. 1783. Born 16 June 1765, eldest son of John Errington of Chesters and of Walwick Grange, by his wife Mary, daughter of Cha. Stoddart (1726) vicar of Chollerton, sister of Charles Stoddart (1758), Master of Ashford school. Admitted at Lincoln's Inn 14 June 1786. Matriculated 30 Mar. 1787. Will. Errington, Esq. barrister-at-law, of High Warden, near Hexham, and of Camden Place, Bath. Married Eleanor, daughter of Hugh O'Connor of London, by whom he had two sons and three daughters. Died Nov. 1826. (Burke, L.G.)

Johnson, William Brookes: son of Joseph: born at Derby. School: Repton, under D^r^ Prior. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Parkinson and Seale 21 Feb. 1783. Age 19.

M.B. 1789. Admitted scholar 27 Nov. 1783. Author: History of Progress and Present State of Animal Electricity, 3 vols. 1803.

Hornby, Hugh: son of Hugh: born at Kirkham, Lancs. School: Warrington, under the Rev. M^r^ Owen. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Parkinson and Seale 28 April 1783. Age 18.

B.A. (13th wrangler) 1787; M.A. 1790. Admitted scholar 27 Nov. 1783. Born 22 Aug. 1765, son of Hugh Hornby, by Marg^t^., daughter and heiress of Jos. Hankinson, both of Kirkham. Ordained deacon, Chester, 1788 Sept.; licensed to curacy of St Michael-on-Wyre. Vicar of St Michael-on-Wyre 19 Oct. 1789, patron, his brother Jos. Hornby of Ribly Hall, and others. Married Anne, daughter and heiress of Jos. Starky, M.D., of Redvales. Held the vicarage for 56 years. Died 4 Jan. 1847, aged 82 (Croston-Baines, 5. 410).

Clarke, John: son of Thomas: born at Chesterfield, Derbs. School: Mackworth, Derbs., under M^r^ Pickering. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Parkinson and Seale 29 Apr. 1783. Age 18.

B.A. 1787. Gunning (2. 227) tells a tale of a somewhat cruel practical joke practised on Clarke by Tho. Browne, which caused him a severe illness and affected for a time his reason.

Skinner, Russell: [father not given]: born in London. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Parkinson and Seale 26 May 1783. Age not given.

Admitted scholar 27 Nov. 1783. Resided till Mids. 1785. One Russell Skinner, son of Russell, of Cheshunt, Herts. was matric^d^. at Queen's, Oxford 1 June 1791—but given as only 20 years of age. He took no degree.

Newton, Thomas: son of William: of Lancs. School: Clitheroe, under M^r^ Wilson. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Parkinson and Seale 31 May 1783, after leaving Oxford. Age 20.

B.A. 1785; M.A. 1788. Admitted scholar (K. Edw. VI) 27 Nov. 1783. Matriculated at Brasenose, Oxford 28 May 1781, as son of William Newton, gent., of Manchester. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1785 Sept.: priest, Chester, 1788 Sept. Rector of St Cuthbert with St Helen-on-the-Walls, York 1789; also [?] of Holy Trinity, Micklegate, in the same year. P.C. of Coxwold, and Master of Coxwold school (Carlisle, 2. 795). Died July 1807. (Al. Ox. 1019). One of these names was rector of Bradfield, Yorks. 1799–1819.

Milnes, Thomas: son of James Andrew, D.D. (adm. 1751: LL.D. 1771, not D.D.): born at Halton, Lincs. School: Harrow, under D^r^ Heath. Admitted fellow-commoner under the Master 6 Nov. 1783. Age 19.

B.A. 1788; M.A. 1791. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1787 Dec.; licensed to Brant Broughton: priest, 1788 Dec. Married Eleanor, daughter of Will. Gery of Bushmead, Beds., by whom he had one daughter Charlotte.

Whitelegg, Thomas: son of Thomas: born at Adwalton, Yorks. School: Bingley, under M^r^ Hudson. Admitted sizar under Mess^rs^ Parkinson and Seale 22 June 1784. Age 17.

B.A. 1788. Admitted scholar 1 Dec. 1784. A man of eccentric habits. (See Gunning, 2. 228.) Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1788, at the request of the Archbishop of York; licensed to Normanton.

Bennet, John: [no facts except "sacris initiatus"]. Admitted sizar under Mess^rs^ Parkinson and Seale 30 June 1784. Age 24.

His name appears every quarter (3*s.* 0*d.*) in Study-rents till Lady Day 1799. But he never got his B.D. degree. Perhaps the John Bennett licensed to Keyingham, Holderness 1788–93.

Gunning, Henry: son of Francis: born at Triplow, Cambs. School: Sleaford, under M^r^ Waterson. Admitted sizar under Mess^rs^ Parkinson and Seale 2 July 1784. Age 17 [?].

B.A. (5th wrangler) 1788; M.A. 1791. Admitted scholar 1 Dec. 1784. Born 13 Feb. 1768. His father was a Fellow of St John's; then vicar of Triplow, and of Newton and Hauxton (all contiguous). He mentions in his Reminiscences that he was first at school at Ely, under Jeffrey Bentham, a Minor Canon. His account of the education given in the College and of its general condition is very interesting, but should be read in his book. Elected Esquire Bedell 13 Oct. 1789: he held the office for 64 years with much credit: one of his early colleagues was John Beverley (1763) and his account of Beverley is not the least amusing of his reminiscences. He was a Whig of somewhat advanced views, which he thought hindered his advance in life: in the days of Isaac Milner's supremacy at Cambridge, a reputation, deserved or not, for Jacobinism had at least social penalties. He married a Miss Bertram at Lakenham 4 Aug. 1794: by whom he had several sons of whom only one survived him: his grandson [?] Hen. Will. Gunning admitted 1849 was drowned in the Cam in his first term. He died at Brighton 4 Jan. 1854, having almost completed his 86th year.

Gunning kept memoranda of University and College matters in his earlier years. These, he tells us, he destroyed while suffering from a dangerous illness in fear lest they were too personal. He dictated the contents of the two volumes, published 1854, from memory, when more than 80 years of age. Certainly, they are in the main personal—but most of the persons referred to—they end 1830—were long dead. If sometimes inaccurate (as was natural) they throw valuable light on University life at a curious period. Probably if he had kept his memoranda, the record would have been similar in character, though here and there more exact. He re-edited in 1828 Adam Wall's Ceremonies of the University. Portrait by Woodhouse in the Combination room.

Wallace, James: son of John: born in London. School: Harrow, under D[r] Heath. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Parkinson and Seale 5 July 1784. Age 18.

B.A. 1789. Admitted scholar (Midds.) 1 Dec. 1784, and came into residence early in 1785: became a fellow-commoner Jan. 1787. Ordained deacon, London, 1792 April. Of the family of Wallace of Asholme, in Northumberland and of Brampton, Cumberland: his father, John, of Sidcup House, Kent and Golden Square, London, an "eminent contractor," and J.P. for Midds., married Eliz. French, by whom he had six sons of whom James was the eldest: two of the brothers succeeded in turn to the property of their first cousin, Tho., Baron Wallace of Asholme, Knaresdale and Featherstone Castle, Northumb[d]. John Wallace was half-brother to Anne Plaskett who married (1) John Thomlinson of Blencogo (1750) and (2) John Law, Bishop of Elphin (1762). Our James Wallace, was born 4 Feb. 1766; married Mercy Coombes: and died 14 Jan. 1829 (Burke, L.G.): I cannot find that he had any preferment.

Thistlethwaite, Richard: son of Robert: born at Kirkby Fleetham, Yorks. School: Sedbergh, under M[r] Hull. Admitted sizar, then pensioner, under Mess[rs] Parkinson and Seale 11 Sept. 1784. Age 19.

Admitted scholar 14 Dec. 1785. Resided till Xmas 1787.

Brocas, Bernard: son of Bernard: born in London. School: Harrow, under D[r] Heath. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess[rs] Parkinson and Seale 28 Oct. 1784. Age 19.

Disappears from Study-rents after Mids[r]. 1788: always charged 3*s*. 0*d*. a quarter. One Bernard Brocas, whose son Bernard was born 1801 (Al. Ox. 163) was of Wokingham, Berks. The family was long settled at Theddingworth, Leics.: a pedigree in Nichols (II. ii. 832) in which are some Bernards, does not come down far enough.

Homer, William: son of Henry: born at Birbury, [?] Warw. School: Rugby, under D[r] James. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Parkinson and Seale 12 Nov. 1784. Age 16.

B.A. (17th sen. opt.) 1789; M.A. 1793. Admitted scholar 1 Dec. 1784. Vicar of Wolfhamcote, Warw. 1794. Second Master of Appleby school, Leics. 1799. Died 6 June 1838, aged 69.

Wright, Thomas: son of Francis: born at Norwich. School: Palgrave, Suffolk, under M[r] Barbauld. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Parkinson and Seale 7 July 1784. Age 16.

B.A. 1789. Came into residence Mich. 1785. Admitted scholar (K. Edw. VI) 14 Dec. 1785.

Bullen, Thomas [Henry]: son of John: born at Kennet, Cambs. School: Dedham, under D[r] Grimwood. Admitted sizar under Mess[rs] Parkinson and Seale 26 Nov. 1784. Age 19.

B.A. (Tho. Hen. Bullen) 1789; M.A. 1792. Admitted scholar 1 Dec. 1784. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1789 May: officiating minister at Southery 1789 Oct.: priest 1790. Master of Oundle School, June 1796–1806: in his time the old School House was built. Chaplain to the Countess dowager of Winterton. Vicar of Ketton with Tixover, Ruts. 1798: also rector of Kennet, Cambs., distant 30 (!) miles, 27 June 1810. Gunning speaks of him when at Cambridge as "passionately fond of music": and tells a story of his being led into trouble by Tunstal (1. 35).

Troughton, John Ellis:
M.A. 1791. Matriculated at University College, Oxford 26 Nov. 1783, aged 27; son of John of St Mary's, London: B.A. (Oxford) 1787. M.A. (Christ's) 1791. Vicar of Weobley, Hereford 1793–1826. Prebendary of Hereford 13 Sept. 1823–1826, when he died, aged 72 (Davy).

Smith, Thomas: formerly at Jesus College. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 22 Jan. 1785. Age 20.
B.A. 1788; M.A. 1792. Matriculated 1787 July. One Tho. Smith, son of Thomas of Walworth, Surrey was admitted at the Inner Temple 23 Aug. 1785. He was called to the Bar and died unmarried (Davy).

Tayler, Joseph: son of Joseph: born at Lynn. School: Bury St Edmunds, under M^{r} Lawrence. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 5 Feb. 1785. Age 17.
B.A. (9th sen. opt.) 1789. Admitted scholar 4 May 1787. Probably son of Jos. Tayler, M.D. 1748: matriculated 1738.

Prior, John: son of John: born at Ashby, Leics. Educated at home by his father. Admitted sizar under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 12 Feb. 1785. Age 20.
B.A. 1788. Admitted scholar 4 May 1785. The father was vicar of Ashby. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1788 Feb.; licensed to Ashby-de-la-Zouch (under his father): priest, 1789. P.C. of Willesley, Derbs. Died 1833, aged 67 (Davy).

Stewart, John, Baron Downe: eldest son of the Earl of Moray: [no facts]. Admitted, a nobleman (paying £2. 0*s.* 0*d.*), under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 28 Mar. 1785. Age 17.
M.A. (John, Viscount Downe) 1787. Resided till Lady Day 1789. Name in Study-rents till Mich. 1791. Son of Francis, tenth Earl of Moray by his wife Jane, daughter of John, Lord Gray. Died 6 July 1791.

Norris, Robert: son of William: born at Woodnorton, Suffolk. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 16 Apr. 1785. Age 18.
B.A. 1789; M.A. 1792. Admitted scholar (K. Edw. VI) 14 Dec. 1785. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1790 Sept.; licensed to Sparham, Norfolk: priest 1792 June; curate of Litcham and East Lexham. Rector of Tatterset with Tatterford, Norfolk 1793. Rector of Aldborough 1799. Died 1832 (Davy).

Green, Richard: of Sussex. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 26 Apr. 1785. "Sed, viso Euclide, cohorruit et evasit"—so J. B. Seale, praelector, with caustic humour. He fared better at Oxford if he be the Ri. Green, son of Richard, vicar of North Mundham, near Chichester, who matriculated at Worcester College, Oxford 6 Apr. 1786, aged 19. B.A. 1789; M.A. 1792. Probably rector of Warbleton, Sussex 27 Sept. 1800, patron, Ri. Green, clerk: which preferment sufficed him.

Bull, John: son of John: born at Yeldham. Admitted sizar under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 16 June 1785. Age not given.
B.A. (2nd sen. opt.) 1789; M.A. 1792. Admitted scholar 14 Dec. 1785. Possibly son of John (1752). Ordained deacon, London, 1789 Oct.: priest, 1790 Nov. Probably rector of Pentlow, Essex, 25 Feb. 1802: to which the elder John was instituted 1769 and died Feb. 13. Patron and rector of Tattingstone, Suffolk

16 Sept. 1816–1834. A John Bull was instituted to Pentlow 27 Sept. 1816: was he the same, and did he resign Pentlow, to be instituted to Tattingstone —with hope for the immediate future? Died rector of Tattingstone 1834, aged 67 (Davy): when a John Garwood Bull (B.A. (Pet.) 1814) was appointed: perhaps his son. (But there was another John Bull, of Little Burstead, Essex and of Wadham, Oxford, B.A. 1799.)

Astley, Henry Nicholas: son of Sir Edward, bart.: born at Melton Constable, Norfolk. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Parkinson and Seale 26 June 1785. Age 19.

B.A. 1789; M.A. 1792. Admitted scholar (D[r] Patynson) 14 Dec. 1785. Also admitted at Lincoln's Inn 15 Feb. 1785. Third son of Sir Edward Astley, of Melton Constable (who died 1802), by his second wife Anne, daughter of Christ. Milles, Esq. of Nackington, Kent. Perhaps ordained in consequence of the death of his brother Bernard, who held Little Snoring, whom he succeeded 28 Sept. 1791: ordained deacon, Norwich, 21 Sept. 1791; priest, 25 Sept. Also rector of East Barsham 1791. Married at Exeter 22 Feb. 1798 Sarah, daughter of Sam. Pitman, Esq., sister of Samuel (1799), by whom he had two daughters (Davy). Rector of Bintree and vicar of Themelthorpe 1799–1804. Rector of Foulsham 24 Oct. 1803–32. He was Worts Travelling Bachelor: and in Univ. Lib. Oo. 6. 95–7 will be found letters written by him—four about Italy and one about Holland—as required by the appointment, 1789. Gunning mentions (2. 230) that Tho. Browne was with Astley at the Hague, from whence he visited Melton Constable—forming a friendship very useful to him in the future.

Mudge, John:

M.A. 1792. Son of Thomas, gent., of London, matriculated at Pembroke Coll. Oxford 9 June 1780, aged 17. B.A. (Oxford) 1784. M.A. (Christ's) 1792. (Al. Ox. 995). Vicar of Brampford-Speke, Devon 1790: had dispensation 10 Nov. 1791 to hold also the rectory of Lustleigh, distant 18 miles. Held both till his death 3 May 1847, aged 83 (Davy).

Chambers, James: son of Abraham: born in London. Educated privately by M[r] Gilbank. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Parkinson and Seale 19 Jan. 1786. Age 18.

LL.B. 1792, in which year he matriculated. Ordained deacon, Gloucester, 1792 Sept. Abraham Chambers of Tunstal and Totteridge, Kent, married Eliza James. One Ja. Chambers, clerk of Willoughby, Warw. had a son born 1822 (Al. Ox. 235).

Cole, John: [no facts]. Admitted 28 March 1786. "Sed ad nos numquam se contulit."

One Joh. Cole was admitted at Trinity 7 Oct. 1785 and B.A. (Trin.) 1790.

Montagu, Basil: son of John, Earl of Sandwich: born in London. School: Charterhouse, under D[r] Berdmore. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Parkinson and Seale 10 April 1786. Age 18.

B.A. (6th wrangler) 1790; M.A. 1793. Admitted scholar, 21 Nov. 1787. Tancred student. Admitted at Gray's Inn 30 Jan. 1789. Resided till 1793 (at least—till 1795, according to the D.N.B.). "Legal and miscellaneous writer and philanthropist" (ib.). Natural son of John, fourth Earl of Sandwich by Martha Ray: acknowledged by his father. "Unfortunately," says Gunning, "there were several persons in College who were most agreeable, companionable men, but all remarkably idle. Basil Montagu, Bob. Porteus (nephew of the Bishop of London), Geo. Leapingwell, Tom Bullen, and Joe Tayler were my chief associates." Montagu was remarkably able, and, if generally idle, had fits of hard-reading during which he never passed the College gates, as Gunning also states. Gunning tells several tales of his eccentricity (1. 157–161)—one how he came up to vote for Gunning as Esquire Bedell, and how "Montagu and his friend started off on foot, carrying a Stilton cheese, which they agreed to take in turn, to proceed to Huntingdon to meet the Lincoln coach." Montagu was intimate with Coleridge and Wordsworth, and shared their ideas in 1789. He was called to the Bar in 1798, went the Norfolk circuit, and got a good practice in London in chancery and bankruptcy. King's Counsel 1835, and soon after, accountant-general in bankruptcy. He married thrice (1) in 1790 Caroline M. Want of Brampton, Hunts., (2) in 1801 at Glasgow, Laura, daughter of Sir Will. B. Rush, (3) a M^{rs} Skepper, widow, of York, called by Edward Irving "the noble lady," and criticised by Carlyle. He died at Boulogne 27 Nov. 1851.

His legal and "miscellaneous" works are recorded in the D.N.B.: they are far too numerous to be given here. His Digest of the Bankruptcy Laws, 1805–7 is one of the most notable. He edited Bacon's Works in 16 volumes (1825–37) reviewed by Macaulay (Edinburgh Review, July 1837). He gave to the University a valuable collection of editions of Bacon's works.

Porteus, Robert: son of Robert: born in London. School: St Paul's, under D^{r} Roberts. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 12 April 1786. Age 18.

B.A. 1790; M.A. 1793. Admitted scholar 4 Jan. 1787. Son of Robert, elder brother of Beilby Porteus, Bishop of London: Gunning's "Bob. Porteus," (see under Basil Montagu). Ordained deacon, London, 1791 Dec.: priest, 1792 Dec. Rector of Wickham, Bishop and Prebendary of St Paul's (Mora) 13 July 1797–19 May 1803, when he died.

Birkett, Edward Joseph: son of Henry: born in Carlisle. School: Hawkshead, under M^{r} Taylor. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 19 April 1786. Aged 19.

B.A. 1790. Admitted scholar 4 Jan. 1787.

Powell, William: son of Harcourt: of Vankerwyke [?], Berks.: born in London. School: Harrow, under D^{r} Drury. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 19 Apr. 1786. Age 18.

Brother of Thomas (1771). Became a fellow-commoner Easter 1788: matriculated as such Dec. 1788. Name appears till Christmas 1789. Perhaps migrated to St John's: one Will. Powell B.A. (St John's) 1791; M.A. 1794. (See under Will. Powell of 1788.)

Boggis, Isaac Rolfe: son of Isaac: born at Langenhoe, Essex. School: Colchester, under M^{r} Hewitt. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 23 June 1786. Age 19.

B.A. 1790; M.A. 1793. Admitted scholar 21 Nov. 1787. Ordained deacon, London (lit. dim. from Salisbury) 1809 Jan.: priest, London, 1816 Jan.

Grebenshikoff [-cov], John: son of John: born in St Petersburg: educated at the Naval Academy of Cronstadt, and Professor of Mathematics in the same. When 26 years of age came to England to learn more fully the Newtonian philosophy. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson and Seale 28 June 1786.

Matric^{d}. Dec. 1786. Resided till Mids^{r}. 1789.

For two years Oct. 1786–Oct. 1788 the Admission book is at its worst level. The Praelector for the first year is N. C. Lane: even the little given about three of the men is not in his handwriting. For the second year the Praelector is W. B. Ramsden: he is quite consistent: nothing but the name and date in any case: the entries are not written by him.

Shaw, Harrison: son of Henry: born at Crosby, Cumberland. Admitted 2 Nov. 1786 [no more]. Pensioner under Mess[rs] Parkinson and Seale.

LL.B. 1793. Vicar of St Michael, Appleby 1789–1823, worth £160 a year (Whellan, 715). Had special license 28 Mar. 1814 to hold also the rectory of Bowness, Cumberland, distant not more than 30 miles, worth £410 a year: held it till 1823, when he probably died.

Fisher, Thomas: son of Thomas: born at Sharrington, Norfolk. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Parkinson and Seale 9 May 1787. Age 18.

B.A. (9th jun. opt.) 1791; M.A. 1795. Admitted scholar 21 Nov. 1787. Rector of Girton, Cambs. 8 Apr. 1800, presented by Admiral Sir Cha. Cotton. Married his first cousin, daughter of Edm. Fisher, vicar of Linton, Cambs.: by whom he had one son. Died of phthisis at his father's house, Holt, 10 Nov. 1806 (Gent. Mag. p. 1085). His father, a farmer, died a few days later, aged 88 (ib. 1171).

Turner, William:

Admitted sizar under Mess[rs] Parkinson and Seale 13 June 1787: B.A. (12th sen. opt.) 1792; M.A. 1795. Scholar (Northumberland) 21 Nov. 1787. Ordained deacon, London, 1792 Dec.: priest, York, 1793 Sept.

Adams, John: son of John Phillips: of Pembs. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Parkinson and Seale 26 June 1787. Age 17.

B.A. (3rd sen. opt.) 1791. Admitted scholar 21 Nov. 1787. Son of John Phillips Adams of Hollyland, D.L. for Pembs., by his wife Charlotte, daughter of Will. Corbett of Darnhall, Cheshire. Of Hollyland. Married in 1795 Sophia, daughter of Archdeacon Holcombe, by whom he had one son and one daughter (Burke, L.G.).

Robinson, Matthew: admitted 28 June 1787.

B.A. 1791; M.A. 1794. Fellow-commoner under Mess[rs] Parkinson and Seale. Probably began to reside Jan. 1788. Descended from the Robinsons of Rokeby. Matt. Robinson, grandson of Leonard (who was brother of Matthew, fellow elect of Christ's in 1649—see Life by J. E. B. Mayor) had five sons. One of them, William, Fellow of St John's 1752–60, of Denton near Canterbury, where Gray and Mason visited him, afterwards rector of Burghfield, Berks. 1767, married Mary, daughter of Adam Richardson, an heiress, and succeeded to part of the estates of his elder brother Matthew, second Lord Rokeby. His son, Matthew of Christ's, became rector of Coveney, Cambs. 1791: rector of Burghfield, succeeding his father, who resigned the rectory, three years before his death 15 Nov. 1800. Died 1827 (Davy). One of his sisters married Sir S. Egerton Brydges, author of the Autobiography (see Scott, Joh. Adm. Book, 564: Gent. Mag. 1803).

Evans, Richard Davies: admitted 30 Oct. 1787.

B.A. 1792; M.A. 1795. Admitted scholar (as Ri. Evans of Denbighshire). Son of Ri. Evans (1748), Fellow 1754–66: twin-brother of Will. (below): uncle of Ri. Weaver (1823). Rector of Kingsland. Prebendary of Hereford 25 April 1795–1821, in which year he died on March 12, aged 52.

Evans, William: admitted 30 Oct. 1787.

B.A. 1792; M.A. 1796. Admitted (Denbighshire) scholar. Twin-brother of Ri. Davies above: ? of St Asaph (Foster, Al. Ox. 436).

Vicar of Vowchurch, Hereford. Rector of Kingsland, succeeding his brother, 13 Nov. 1821. Married Margaret L., daughter of Anthony Goodwyn M.D. of Wirksworth, Derbs.: had two sons, (1) Ri. Davies of Jesus College, Oxford, rector of Kingsland 1841–71, (2) William Rowland, and two daughters. Probably died 1841 (see Foster).

Le[i]gh, George John: admitted 31 Oct. 1787.

Fellow-commoner under Mess[rs] Parkinson and Seale. Name appears in Study-rents till Midsummer 1791: but perhaps did not reside so long. Born 1768, son of Hen. Cornwall Legh (of Wadham, Oxford) of High Legh, Cheshire, Sheriff in 1791 (in which year he died), by his wife Eliz., daughter of Rob. Hopkinson of Heath, Yorks. (Ormerod-Helsby, 1. 462). George J. Legh married 14 July 1803 Mary, daughter of John Blackburne, M.P., of Hale, Lancs.: by whom he had two sons and three daughters. High Sheriff for Cheshire, 1805. Created D.C.L. of Oxford 6 July 1810. Died 17 March 1832, aged 64 (Burke, L.G., Gent. Mag. 1832 (1) 367). Gave two large silver candlesticks as his plate.

Cary, John Henry Spelman: admitted 15 Nov. 1787.

B.A. (14th wrangler) 1792; M.A. 1795. Admitted scholar (Norfolk) 4 Dec. 1788. Pensioner under Mess[rs] Parkinson and Seale. Born 9 July 1771 at Lynn. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1794 March; licensed to Forncett, Suffolk: priest, 1795 Dec. P.C. of Farnhurst, Sussex 1796–1852, when he died aged 81.

Bones (afterwards Goodwin), James: admitted 14 Feb. 1788.

B.A. (1st jun. opt.) 1792. Between Mich. and Xmas 1793 D[s] Bones changes into D[s] Goodwin in Study-rents. M.A. (Ja. Goodwin) 1795. Admitted scholar (Northants.) 4 Dec. 1788. A pupil (pensioner) of Mess[rs] Parkinson and Seale. Ordained deacon, Ely (as Goodwin) 1795 May; licensed to Long Stow and Croxton: priest 1795 Sept. Rector of Weedon, Northants.: died rector 1809 (Davy).

Carthew, Thomas: admitted 26 March 1788.

Fellow-commoner under Mess[rs] Parkinson and Seale: appears in Study-rents (always 3*s.* 0*d.* a quarter) till Mids. 1792. He was born 2 May 1764, third son of the Rev. Tho. Carthew, F.S.A., J.P. and D.L. of Woodbridge Abbey, and rector of Woodbridge, by his wife Eliz. Morden of Weston. Entered the navy and rose to rank of first lieutenant. Left the navy to take Holy Orders. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 26 June 1791: priest (privately) 29 June. His father had died 4 January in the same year: and he succeeded him at Woodbridge 1791–1831. Married Anne, daughter of Isaac Boggis of Colchester, whose brother, Isaac Rolfe Boggis, was admitted 1786: he had two sons and a daughter: the elder son, Thomas of Woodbridge, married Charlotte, daughter of the Rev. Harrison Shaw (also admitted 1786). Died 17 Sept. 1831. (Burke, L.G.)

Powell, William: admitted 29 Mar. 1788.

Probably a re-admission, as fellow-commoner, of Will. Powell, adm[d]. 19 Apr. 1786. One of these names B.A. (St John's) 1791; M.A. 1794. Probably P.C. of Shelley, near Hadleigh, Suffolk 11 Apr. 1803–44, patron, Sir Will. Beaumont Rush.

Leapingwell, George: admitted 8 Apr. 1788.

LL.B. 1794. Probably akin to Will. Leapingwell (1773). The last of

H. Gunning's very "companionable but remarkably idle men." Probably the vicar of High and Good Easter, Essex 20 Dec. 1816. Died 24 May 1849, aged 79 (Davy).

Panchen, James: admitted 28 Apr. 1788.

Name appears till Lady Day 1794. Pupil of Mess[rs] Parkinson and Seale. Perhaps akin to Will. Panchen, son of Giles, and born in London, admitted 1769.

Smith, John: admitted 29 May 1788.

B.A. (7th jun. opt.) 1792; M.A. 1795. Admitted scholar (Beds.) 4 Dec. 1788. A sizar under Mess[rs] Parkinson and Seale. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1794 June; licensed to Puttenham, Herts.: priest 1795 Dec.

One of these names, M.A. (not in Foster, Al. Ox.) master of Dilhorne school, Staffs. and vicar of Bicester, Oxon. 1800–35, died at Bicester about July 1835, aged 65.

Champneys, Henry William: admitted 14 June 1788.

B.A. 1793; M.A. 1796. Fellow-commoner under Mess[rs] Parkinson and Seale: gave two large silver candlesticks as his plate. Son of John Burt Champneys of Boley Hill, Rochester (Hunter, S. Yorks. 2. 440). Gunning's account of him (2. 152–6) is interesting. He established an expensive club of 12 members and spent much money on entertainments, but left Cambridge free from debt. After a Commencement Ball he entertained 200 [?] guests at breakfast in his rooms in the New Building and afterwards in the Fellows' Garden. Gunning speaks also of the strictness and regularity of his life after taking Orders. Ordained deacon, Gloucester (by lit. dim. from Canterbury), 2 Feb. 1796: priest, Feb. 24: licensed to cure of Ulcombe, Kent, with a stipend of £50. Vicar of Leigh, Lancs. (patron, the Hon. Tho. Powys) 26 Apr. 1798: resigned before 1800. Married Lucy, daughter of the Rev. Geoffrey Hornby, rector of Winwick, Lancs. Perhaps rector of St Margaret, Canterbury 17 June 1803–6: and of St Mary Bredin, 6 Feb. 1807–Aug. 1821. Vicar of Welton, Yorks. (worth £400 a year) 7 Feb. 1807: also by dispensation rector of Badsworth, Yorks. (worth £700 a year) distant 30 miles 18 Aug. 1821. Subscriber to Hunter's S. Yorks., 1828. Died at Badsworth 1845, aged 74 (Davy). (Foster, Ind. Eccl.)

Jones, Thomas: admitted 19 June 1788.

B.A. 1792; M.A. 1795. Admitted scholar (as of Denbighshire) 4 Dec. 1788. Pensioner under Mess[rs] Parkinson and Seale.

Young, James: admitted 3 July 1788.

B.A. 1792. Admitted scholar (as of Dorset) 4 Dec. 1788. Sizar under Mess[rs] Parkinson and Seale. Ordained deacon, Lambeth, 1794 Dec. One of these names vicar of Heathfield, Sussex 27 July 1822—but (according to Al. Ox.) of Pembroke, Oxford, M.A. 1808.

Isaacson, Henry John: son of John: born at Newcastle on Tyne. School: Rugby, under D[r] James. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Parkinson, Metcalfe and Lane 31 Oct. 1788. Age 19.

Became a fellow-commoner Mich. 1790: disappears after Lady Day 1791. Nephew of Henry Ellison of Hebburn, Durham.

Collinson, John: admitted 21 Nov. 1788.

His name appears in Study-rents till Xmas 1789. Probably a sizar. Was he the John Collinson, clerk, presented in 1778 by Sir Will. Loraine to Kirkharle, entered with the object of taking a B.D. degree? One of these names rector of Gateshead on Tyne 19 Mar. 1810—and there till about 1840.

Hasted, Henry: son of Roger: born at Bury St Edmunds. School: Bury, under (1) M^{r} Laurence, (2) M^{r} Beacher. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson, Metcalfe and Lane 10 Feb. 1789. Age 18.

B.A. (6th wrangler) 1793; M.A. 1796. Admitted scholar 17 Dec. 1789. Elected Fellow (in place of J. W. King) 25 March 1795. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1794 March; licensed to Great Barton near Bury: priest 1795 Dec. He seems to have resided, as a Fellow—signs regularly—but never held any statutory office. Said to have been private tutor to Sir E. H. Alderson, Baron of the Exchequer, to Lord Chancellor Cranfield and to Bishop Blomfield. Lecturer at St James', Bury, 1803–42. Rector of Ickworth, Suffolk 30 Mar. 1803, presented by the Marquis of Bristol. His Fellowship declared vacant 28 Apr. 1804. Married Jane, daughter of Mich. T. Becker, master of Bury school: she died 18 Nov. 1808 and was buried at Ickworth. Rector also (and patron) of Bradfield Combust 25 March 1808–14: and of Horningsheath (Horringer)—all adjacent—20 April 1814: according to Foster (Ind. Eccl.) he was again instituted to Ickworth on the same day. He resigned Ickworth before Nov. 1832. Rector of Breeseworth (? Braiseworth) 8 July 1812, presented by Marquis Cornwallis; his successor was appointed 1853. He was a man of scientific interests, was a friend and correspondent of Will. Hyde Wollaston: and was F.R.S. Died at Bury 26 Nov. 1852, aged 81: buried at St James'.

Golding, Richard: son of William: born at Kirkham, Lancs. School: Kirkham, under M^{r} Threlfal. Admitted sizar under Mess^{rs} Parkinson, Metcalfe and Lane 12 Mar. 1789. Age 24.

B.A. 1793; M.A. 1796. Admitted scholar 17 Dec. 1789. Ordained deacon, Gloucester, 1791 March. P.C. of Stoke Ferry, Norfolk 1803. Died suddenly 13 Oct. 1809.

Clarke, Robert: son of Sloughter: born at Hexham. School: Houghton-le-Spring, under M^{r} Cowper. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson, Metcalfe and Lane 29 Apr. 1789. Age 18.

B.A. 1793; M.A. 1796. Admitted scholar 17 Dec. 1789. Son of Sloughter Clarke, B.A. (Pemb.) 1764, lecturer at Hexham 1766–1801, and of Honor Andrews of Hexham. Ordained deacon, York, 1798 July: licensed to Warmfield: priest 1799 July. Succeeded his father in holding the lectureship at Hexham 1801–24. Married Martha, daughter of Cha. Shafto of Hexham. Died in London, and buried there 2 May 1824, aged 52 (Bateson, Northumb^{d}. 4. 235).

Wasse, Charles: son of John: born at Catthorpe, Leics. School: Rugby, under D^{r} James. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson, Metcalfe and Lane 29 Apr. 1789. Age 20.

Resided till Xmas 1791. According to the Rugby Register his home was Long Stow, Cambs. Probably brother of John (1779) who was born at Catthorpe (Rugby Register).

Leigh, Thomas: son of Edward: born at Cheadle, Staffs. School: Derby, under Rev. M^{r} Clarkson. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson, Metcalfe and Lane 6 June 1789. Age 17.

B.A. 1793; M.A. 1796. First cousin of Clem. Leigh (1793): perhaps uncle of Cha. Brian Leigh (1834). Admitted scholar 17 Dec. 1789. Ordained priest, London, 1795 Sept. Vicar of Alveley, Essex 29 Dec. 1800. Chaplain to Visc^{t}. Cremorne. Rector of Wickham Bishop, Essex 22 June 1803: also rector of Pattiswick, Essex 1805 (Gent. Mag. p. 770). Had dispensation 15 March 1808 to hold also the rectories of St Magnus and St Margaret, Fish Street, London —distant 30 miles. Died in London 10 June 1848, aged 77 (Davy).

Maul, John: son of Richard: born at Reading, Berks. School: Reading, under M^r^ Valpy. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Parkinson, Metcalfe and Lane 11 June 1789. Age 19.

B.A. (16th wrangler) 1793; M.A. 1797. One John Maule (probably the same) licensed to Swilland, Suffolk 23 Sept. 1793–98. Admitted scholar (Finch and Baines) 17 Dec. 1789. Elected Fellow, on the death of Adam Wall, 11 July 1798. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, Bunting, Knapwell and Walkhampton Preacher, and Steward 1799, 1804, 1806, 1809. Hebrew Lecturer 1801–3. Steward 1808. Senior Dean 1808, 1810–15. Senior Greek Lecturer and Mildmay Preacher 1808–10. The frequency of the appointment of Maul and of John Doncaster to the office of Dean, shows the lack of resident—and perhaps of competent—Fellows at this time. Tutor (succeeding Hopkins) with Browne 1806–8, and with John Kaye 1808–14. Subscribed Mar. 1806 to the statue of Will. Pitt in the Senate House. On 6 June 1810 he received by College Order the tithes of Hapton for three years at a rent of £50 a year: I have not observed any similar order before, and I think that the lessee of Hapton in the earlier days had the tithes gratis, providing for the service. Senior Proctor 1809–10: Taxor 1810–11: Scrutator 1811–12. He was one of the few Fellows of much character in the first decade of the 19th century: and Gunning tells how he was the only one who ventured to call upon the Master, D^r^ Browne, for an account of his expenditure, though he had warmly supported Browne when he was rejected for the Vice-Chancellorship in 1808, and again in 1811. Supported by Kaye (who was 11 years his junior) he headed the revolt of the Fellows against Browne in 1813. He was presented to Brisley and Gateley (in place of Weaver Walter) 13 May 1814, three months before Browne's expulsion; the administration of the College property during the interregnum was entrusted to Maul, by Order of 26 Aug. 1814. He must have had some claim to the Mastership, but whether he waived it in favour of Kaye, and whether the Society was unanimous in taking Kaye, does not appear. He seems to have remained in College till his Fellowship was declared vacant, at the end of his year of grace 19 June 1815. He added some land to the glebe at Brisley, for which the College allowed him £100, on 28 Oct. 1818. Prebendary of Lincoln (Long Stow) 13 June 1828. Died at Brisley 13 May 1838, aged 67. Had sons, John Compton (1832) and Spencer Woodfield (1843).

Gibson, James Thomas: son of Thomas: born in Edinburgh. Educated there by M^r^ Frazer. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Parkinson, Metcalfe and Lane 3 July 1789. Age 17.

Matric^d^. 1789 Dec. Resided till Lady Day 1790. Perhaps matriculated at Worcester College, Oxford 5 July 1792, aged 19: but as son of James Wilson, gent., of Edinburgh: B.A. 1796; M.A. 1798. (Al. Ox., and nothing more recorded.)

Pearce, George: admitted 28 July 1789.

In Study-rents till Mids^r^. 1790. Probably migrated to Corpus, where a George Pearce was B.A. 1794.

Banks, John: son of John: born at Keswick. Educated there by M^r^ Wilson. "Sacris initiatus." Admitted sizar under Mess^rs^ Parkinson, Metcalfe and Lane 22 Sept. 1789. Aged 24.

B.D. 1800 (ten-year-man). F.S.A. Master of Boston school 1790–1825 (Thompson, Boston, 285: Carlisle, 1. 788). Rector of Bratoft, Lincs. worth £290 a year 24 Jan. 1809. Had special license 27 Nov. 1813 to hold also the vicarage of Cameringham, near Lincoln, worth £137 a year, distant not more than 30 miles. Both livings were vacant in 1842.

Dayrell, Marmaduke: admitted 31 Oct. 1789.

On the list in Study-rents, as fellow-commoner, till Mids^{r}. 1790. Readmitted 21 Oct. 1790—in neither case with any facts. Probably resided till Mids^{r}. 1792. Born 1770, son of Marmaduke (1740) of Shudy Camps: succeeded his father 1790. Married 1797 Rebecca, daughter of Sir Rob. Langley, bar^{t}., sister to Lord Wenlock, by whom he had three sons and one daughter. Died August 1821: succeeded by his son the Rev. Tho. Dayrell. He was the last of the five members of the family entered at this College. Portrait (miniature) in the Combination Room.

Harrison, Thomas:

M.A. 1796. Admitted at Trinity College, pensioner under M^{r} Collier 31 March 1786, aged 17. B.A. (Trin.) 1792; M.A. (Christ's) 1796. Son of Tho. Harrison of Esher, Surrey. School: Eton, under D^{r} Davies: scholar there. One of these names, and M.A., rector of Corney, Cumberland 1814–40, possibly the same who was P.C. of Trinity church Whitehaven 1808–40 (Jefferson, 2. 97 and 386). One (M.A.) was headmaster of Maidstone school 24 Nov. 1828.

Stoddart, Charles: son of Charles: born at Wandsworth, Surrey. School: Ashford, under his father. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson, Metcalfe and Lane 17 Feb. 1790. Age 16.

B.A. (9th sen. opt.) 1794; M.A. 1797. Admitted scholar 16 Dec. 1790. Son of Charles (1758) friend of Will. Paley, grandson of Charles (1726), great-grandson of Charles (1690—a hundred years before). Ordained deacon, Lambeth, 1796 Oct.; licensed to Newchurch, Kent—to receive £26. 5*s*. a year from his father, the vicar. Rector of Shadoxhurst, Kent 26 June 1801. Vicar of North Shoebury, Essex 24 Feb. 1806. Died 1829 (Davy). I do not know whether Will. Stoddart, son of John, clerk, of Northampton and admitted 1819, was a member of this family, whose record at this College was so remarkable.

Ogle, Henry Bertram: son of Newton, Dean of Winchester: born at Winchester. School: Winchester, under M^{r} Wharton. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson, Metcalfe and Lane 22 May 1790. Age 15 [?].

B.A. (4th jun. opt.) 1794; M.A. 1797. Admitted scholar 6 Dec. 1792. Baptised 12 Oct. 1773; fourth son of D^{r} Newton Ogle by his wife Susannah, daughter of D^{r} Thomas, Bishop of Winchester: grandson of Nat. Ogle, M.D. of Kirkley, Northumb^{d}. (Burke, L.G.). Elected Fellow (Finch and Baines), succeeding W. B. Ramsden 16 Apr. 1800. Married, 1802, Anne Maria, daughter of Edw. Raphael of Fort St George, Madras. Fellowship declared vacant 19 June 1802. Admitted 12 Oct. 1802 as a Merchant adventurer of Newcastle. Trustee of his father's will 1804. Frequently a trustee: probably of easy means, and without any profession. Living in 1817 in Stratton Street, Piccadilly. Died 11 March 1835, aged 61, in Upper Grosvenor Street: buried in St Peter's Church, Eaton Square; M.I. to him and his wife who died 21 Dec. 1851. (Information from R. P. Crawfurd of Seaford, through Herbert Chitty, Esq.)

Allnutt, Richard: son of Thomas: born in London. Educated (1) at Sevenoaks, by Gervase Whitehead, (2) privately at Penshurst, Kent by Rev. Weaver Walter, Fellow. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson, Metcalfe and Lane 14 June 1790. Age not given.

Resided till Mich. 1793.

Fisher, John: son of John Webster: born at Thrimby in Morland, Westmoreland. School: Appleby, under M^{r} Coward. Admitted sizar under Mess^{rs} Parkinson, Metcalfe and Lane 5 July 1790. Age 20.

B.A. 1794. Admitted scholar 16 Dec. 1790. A college-friend of John Hutton (1791) of Marske who presented him in 1803 to the rectory of Marske. Broke his leg by a fall from his horse, and died in consequence, 12 Sept. 1808, aged 38. Father of W. W. Fisher, M.D., Downing Professor of Medicine 1841–74 (Canon Raine in Yorks. Arch. Journal, 6. 194).

Gilpin, Bernard: son of William: born at Whitehaven, Cumberland. School: Cheam, Surrey, under M^r^ Gilpin. Admitted sizar under Mess^rs^ Parkinson, Metcalfe and Lane 3 July 1790. Age not given.

B.A. 1794; M.A. 1797. Admitted scholar 16 Dec. 1790. Son of Will. Gilpin by his wife Eliz., daughter of Rob. Hodgson of Whitehaven (Hunter, F.M.G. 1101): born 20 Oct. 1772. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1795 May: priest, Sept. He was curate of Boxworth, Cambs. 1795–1800. Elected Fellow, succeeding Joh. Grisdale, 18 June 1806. Custos cistae 1809, 1814, 1828–9. Senior Greek Lecturer and Mildmay Preacher 1812–14. Senior Dean 1815, 1817–1827. He must have been senior of the resident Fellows from about 1815, for Peter Fraser did not reside much. Rector of Newton-le-Wold, Lincs. 24 Mar. 1807—but did not reside. Rector of Hertford St Andrew 15 Jan. 1829: apparently both of these were tenable with a Fellowship. Presented 18 Jan. 1832 to the rectory of Burnham Westgate, on the death of M^r^ Glasse (not of Christ's). Fellowship declared vacant 18 Mar. 1833. Died 26 Dec. 1848, aged 76. Author: (with W. H. Valpy) Anthologia Sacra or select Theological extracts, 1832: also of some poems.

Fraser, Peter [Lovett]: son of Peter: born at Richmond. School: Richmond, under M^r^ Temple. Admitted sizar under Mess^rs^ Parkinson, Metcalfe and Lane 16 Sept. 1790. Age 17.

B.A. (13th sen. opt.) 1795; M.A. 1798. Admitted scholar (P. Lovett Fraser) 8 Dec. 1791. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1795 Sept.; licensed to Haverhill: priest, London, 1797 Dec. He was elected a Finch and Baines Fellow (in place of T. Toke) 15 Dec. 1802: Lady Marg. Fellow, succeeding John Hanley, 1 Nov. 1813—the time of the Browne episode: and his name appears at the meetings till past Kaye's election: afterwards very rarely, and I doubt whether he ever resided as a Fellow: he never held any College office. On 27 Feb. 1824 he was instituted to the vicarage of Bromley St Leonards, Midds. on the presentation of J. Walter, proprietor of the Times: he resigned it 1849. He was chaplain to H.R.H. the Duke of Cambridge. On 7 Jan. 1831 he was presented by the College absolutely (Lord Berkeley having neglected to exercise his right) to the rectory of Kegworth (on the death of Tho. Parkinson): and a fortnight later Bishop Kaye appointed him to the prebend of Stow in Lindsay, Lincoln. He held both till his death 12 Oct. 1852. The Camb. Chron. 23 Oct. 1852 records his amiability and "the unfailing charm of his society": also that "the inhabitants of Kegworth have lost a most liberal and kind benefactor and friend."

It was as a writer for the Times that he made his mark. In Crabb Robinson's Diary (1. 292, the year 1809) there appears: "the writer of the great leaders—the flash articles which made a noise—was Peter Fraser....He used to sit in Walter's parlour and write his articles after dinner. He was never made known as editor or writer, and would probably have thought it a degradation: but he was prime adviser and friend, and continued to write long after I had ceased to do so. He was a man of general ability and when engaged for the Times was a powerful writer." In 1842 Robinson says that T.R. (to whom he is writing) will alone understand the soubriquet of Ben. Cork which H.C.R. gave Fraser: we cannot.

He was a great benefactor to the Library; to which he left his large collection of chronicles, histories and memoirs in English, French and Italian: also a bust of himself. Portrait (engraving) in the Combination-room.

Author: four sermons, published separately, 1816–40: a volume of sermons, London, 1829 (under the pseudonym Aristogeiton); an Address to the Baptists on the tenets of their religion: by Aristogeiton, Loughborough, 1835: an Address to the inhabitants of Loughborough...on the erection of a Roman Catholic chapel in that town, by Aristogeiton (advertisement signed P.F.), Loughborough, 3rd ed^{n}. 1835, new ed^{n}. London 1839: Farewell to the Pope! or motives of separation from the Church of Rome, translated by P.F., London, 1846 (from the French of J. J. Maurette). After his death, was published Bromley, St Leonard, Parish church: Psalms and Hymns: portions of the Psalms of David, selected by P.F., 1857, 12mo. (Information from G. Chawner, M.A., King's College.)

Smith, George: [no facts: Praelector (as well as Tutor) N. C. Lane, who must bear the chief blame for the scandalous deficiences of our Admission Book, by setting an example which others followed]. Admitted 27 Oct. 1790.

B.A. 1795 (when he also matriculated as pensioner).

Jenkins, Henry: admitted 30 Oct. 1790.

Appears (3*s.* 0*d.* a quarter) in Study-rents till Lady Day 1802. Perhaps a ten-year-man who never reached his B.D. degree. One Hen. Jenkins, but called D.D. by Le Neve (3. 36)—not found at either University—perhaps he had a Lambeth degree—was Prebendary of Winchester 5 Feb. 1810–1818, when he died.

Coupland, Peter: admitted 4 Nov. 1790.

B.A. 1795; M.A. 1798. Admitted scholar (Lancs.) 16 Dec. 1790. A pensioner under Mess^{rs} Parkinson, Metcalfe and Lane. Baptised 16 Aug. 1772: son of Richard Coupland, gent., of Ormskirk, who died 1791. Educated at Manchester grammar school (Chetham Soc^{y}. lxxiii). Married and had at least four sons. Took Orders comparatively late. Ordained deacon, Chester, 1813 Sept.; licensed to Northenden, Cheshire. Died at Manchester 1815. His brother, Thomas, LL.B. (Trin. Hall) 1797 died at Lisbon where he had gone for his health in 1809.

Doncaster, John: admitted 16 Feb. 1791.

B.A. (13th wrangler, 1st Chancellor's Medallist) 1794; M.A. 1797; D.D. 1816. Matriculated sizar at Trinity 17 Dec. 1790, aged 16, son of John of Nottingham: educated at Oakham, under D^{r} Orme, where in Sept. 1788 he delivered as his speech part of Pericles' funeral oration "before a very numerous and elegant audience." (Camb. Chron. 13 Sept. 1788.) Admitted scholar (Notts.) 23 Mar. 1791. Browne's Medallist 1795. Ordained deacon, Lambeth, 1794 Dec. Elected Fellow (succeeding Geo. Hunter) 6 July 1796. Custos cistae 1797. Praelector (one of the very worst then and always). Junior Dean and Catechist, Bunting, Walkhampton and Knapwell Preacher, and Steward 1797, 1803, 1805. Hebrew Lecturer 1799–1801. Senior Greek Lecturer and Mildmay Preacher 1800–2, 1807. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist 1807. Lecturer at Great St Andrew's July 1798–1804: curate of Fen Drayton 1802–8. Subscribed to the statue of Will. Pitt in Senate House, Mar. 1806. Master of Oakham School August 1808 (stipend £80 and a house), but allowed to retain his Fellowship under the old statute "De Dei cultu," &c., which permitted a Fellow "egredi ad docendam grammaticam in aliqua parte Angliae." Presented by the College to Navenby (on the death of David Potts) 19 Feb. 1814: this cost him his Fellowship 20 May 1815. On 29 May 1816 he married

Eliz., daughter of William Wright, Esq. of Spalding, Lincs. Many years later, on 26 Jan. 1843, he took as a second wife a Miss Nettleship of Culland, Derby. He remained Master of Oakham till 1846. The school prospered under him: he found a house with no boarders. In 1836 there were 43. Among his pupils were Bishops Atlay and Ellicott, and Percival Frost (2nd wrangler 1848). He was chaplain of the gaol and always gave the school a half-holiday for an execution: Bp. Ellicott remembered that he was taken on the scaffold, and pushed forward to see the drop, by Dr D. himself. (W. L. Sargant, Headmaster 1905.) He retained his vigour to a great age: he was in the College in 1857, walking firmly. He died 5 Oct. 1858, aged 86. (Information from G. Chawner, M.A., of King's College.)

Burford, William John: admitted 12 March 1791.

B.A. 1798; M.A. 1802; D.D. 1825. Born 8 Apr. 1775. Second son of Peter Tho. Burford, Head Master of Chigwell school. School: (1) Chigwell, (2) Charterhouse. Pensioner under Messrs Metcalfe and Lane. Admitted scholar (Essex) 8 Dec. 1791. Probably he did not reside after Mich. 1795. Ordained deacon, London, 1798 April: priest 1799 April. Vicar of Tottington, Norfolk 16 Jan. 1800–52. Master of Chigwell School 1813–50. Rector of Magdalen Laver, Essex 2 March 1832–52. Married Harriet Court, by whom he had 10 children. Died at Brompton 8 June 1852: buried at Chigwell. His son Ja. Burrow admitted 1829. James Smith, joint author of "Rejected Addresses," in his poem "Praeteritos annos" writes: "School that in Burford's honoured time | reared me to youth's elastic prime."

Flavell, Josiah Webb: admitted 27 Mar. 1791.

B.A. (16th sen. opt.) 1795; M.A. 1798. Admitted scholar (Staffs.) 8 Dec. 1791. Pensioner under Messrs Metcalfe and Lane. Rector of Stody with Hunworth, Norfolk 1 Apr. 1801–1848, patron, Will. Harbord, Esq.: also rector of Ridlington, Norfolk (wrongly in Ind. Eccl. John Webb Flavell) 20 Apr. 1836. Married 10 Apr. 1802 Cath. Aufrere of Hoveton Hall, Norfolk. Died at Holt 9 Sept. 1848, aged 76 (Davy).

Nelson, Suckling: admitted 16 May 1791.

B.A. 1795. Pensioner under Messrs Metcalfe and Lane. Admitted scholar 8 Dec. 1791. Younger son of Edmund Nelson, rector of Burnham Thorpe, and of Catherine Suckling: brother of Lord Nelson and of the first earl (1774). In business at Burnham: then took Holy Orders. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1793 June; licensed to Burnham Thorpe: priest 1793 Dec.—still an undergraduate. Rector of Burnham Thorpe 9 Nov. 1797. Buried 20 April 1799, aged 35. Gunning (2. 232) has a story to the effect that Nelson obtained his degree because Tho. Browne of Christ's met the argument of his fellow-examiner, that Nelson was unfit, by the rejoinder that if Nelson were plucked, he (Browne) would pluck 20 others: and that the difficulty was solved by agreement on a note to Nelson's name that he was allowed his degree because the Bishop of Norwich had thought him worthy of Holy Orders. Gunning's recollection of such details is often inaccurate.

Thomlinson, John Winn: admitted 17 May 1791.

B.A. (Joh. Thomlinson) 1795. Admitted K. Edw. VI scholar (J.W.T.) 8 Dec. 1791. Baptised 23 May 1773 at Cley-next-the-Sea. Son of Robert (1758), rector. Admitted at Lincoln's Inn 10 May 1790. Married 5 May 1803 Francis Mary, eldest daughter of Sir Geo. Chad, of Thursford (? admitted 1748), by whom he had one son who died an infant, and six daughters. Succeeded John Thomlinson, in his Cley estates and manor. Died suddenly in an attack of apoplexy 30 Dec. 1835. His widow died at Backthorpe Hall 27 Oct. 1840, aged 75, and was buried at Cley.

Hutton, John: admitted 13 June 1791.

B.A. 1795; M.A. 1798. Fellow-commoner under Mess^{rs} Metcalfe and Lane. Admitted at the Inner Temple 13 May 1795; removed to Gray's Inn 6 June. Elder son of John Hutton (1747) of Marske Hall, Swaledale: brother of Timothy (1796). Banker, of Richmond, Yorks. High Sheriff for Yorks. 1825. In 1835 he gave £100 to the University Library Fund. He was a great planter of woods at Marske (Canon Raine in Yorks. Arch. Journal, 6. 238). According to his tombstone he was a patron of societies for agriculture, literature and science; and was a steady supporter on every occasion of political reform. He made a very valuable collection of books, chiefly Oriental (also 50 MSS. Arabic, Persian and Hindustani—catalogue published by F. Jenkinson, Univ^{y}. Librarian) with some splendid editions of mediaeval chronicles, &c. These were inherited by his brother Timothy of Clifton Castle, who left them to the College in 1861. Died unmarried in 1841, aged 67.

Carveth, Richard: admitted 15 June 1791.

B.A. (8th wrangler) 1795. Sizar under Mess^{rs} Metcalfe and Lane. Admitted scholar (as of Cornwall) 8 Dec. 1791. Married 13 Jan. 1798, at Padstow, Esther Day (Gent. Mag. 63. 836).

B.A. 1797. Fellow-commoner under Mess^{rs} Hopkins and Lane. Resided till Mids^{r}. 1796. Gave two silver candlesticks. Edward Protheroe, eldest son of Philip Protheroe, a merchant and banker at Bristol, by his wife Mary, daughter and heiress of Moses Brain also a merchant at Bristol. Born at Bristol 19 January 1774. Previously admitted at Magdalene College, afterwards migrating to Christ's. Married 10 October 1796 at Parish Church, Halifax, to Ann, second daughter of John Waterhouse of Wellhead, Halifax. On leaving college he joined his father in business at Bristol as a merchant and shipowner. High Sheriff of Bristol 1797–8. Mayor 1804–5. Elected M.P. for Bristol in 1812 and 1818 and unsuccessfully contested that city in 1826. Subsequently an iron-master and colliery owner in Forest of Dean. Died at Brighton 24 August 1856, and buried at Kensal Green, London. (Information from F. Protheroe, Esq.)

Jackson, Thomas: (later, Thomas Jackson Calvert).

B.A. (St John's) (4th wrangler) 1797; M.A. 1800; B.D. 1807; D.D. 1823. Fellow of St John's, 1798. Norrisian Professor of Divinity 1815–24. Elected Fellow of Christ's in place of John Doncaster, vicar of Navenby, 20 May 1815. But he was not admitted. The proceeding was curious—I think, unique. The Society desired to elect John Graham, of whom great things were expected. But he was still an undergraduate and could not take his degree till January 1816. M^{r} Jackson was willing to help the Society, by being elected only. On 1 April 1816 it was reported at a College meeting that M^{r} Jackson had "announced to the Master his determination not to be admitted." His Fellowship was declared vacant. On 5 April John Graham was elected.

Errington, Ralph: admitted 2 Jan. 1794.

Admitted scholar (as of Northumberland) 26 Mar. 1795. Resided till Lady Day 1797, as a pensioner under Mess[rs] Hopkins and Lane. Baptised 11 Dec. 1776, fifth son of John Errington of Walwich Grange and Chester, and of Mary Stoddart: brother of William (1783). Went into the army: was a captain in the 20th and 98th regiments. Then took Holy Orders: ordained deacon, Norwich, 1822 March. Curate of Ulgham, near Morpeth. P.C. of Widdrington 15 May 1828. Married Diana, daughter of Cuthbert Watson of Cowpen: by whom he had five sons and eight daughters. Succeeded 1840 (if the Clergy List 1841 be right) by another Ralph, at Widdrington.

Cooke, John Constantine: admitted 8 Jan. 1794.

B.A. 1797; M.A. 1800. Admitted scholar (as of Kent) 22 May 1794. Pensioner under Mess[rs] Hopkins and Lane. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1798 Oct.; licensed to Swilland, Suff. till 1806, curate to John Cooke, perhaps his father: priest, 1800 March. Vicar of Swilland (presented by the Crown) 9 Aug. 1806–1842: also rector of King's Ripton, Hunts. (also by the Crown) 2 Apr. 1813. Held both livings till his death at Ipswich, 22 Oct. 1842.

Holt, George: admitted 4 Feb. 1794.

B.A. 1798; M.A. 1802. Admitted scholar (as of Derbs.) 26 Mar. 1795. Educated at Oakham (W.L.S.). Ordained deacon, York, 1798 July; licensed to Laxton [Lexington, Notts.]: priest, 1799 July. Vicar of Laxton 23 Sept. 1804 perhaps till 1826. Chaplain to the Duke of Portland. Had dispensation 14 Oct. 1812 to be also rector of Howell, Lincs., worth £120 a year, distant 30 miles: again on 27 Nov. 1813 to hold the vicarage of Norton Cuckney, Notts., worth £20 a year, not more than 30 miles from Howell. He died 24 Aug. 1828 and was buried in the chancel of Cuckney church: M.I. His wife Elizabeth died 8 Sept. 1862, aged 85.

Pinney, Azariah: admitted 6 Feb. 1794. Appears in Study-rents (always 3*s.* 0*d.* a quarter) till Lady Day 1795: fellow-commoner under Mess[rs] Hopkins and Lane. Perhaps (letter from the Rev. Frank Penny) son of John Pinney (originally Pretor) who was a merchant of Bristol, and changed his name on inheriting the estates at Bettiscombe of Joh. Fre. Pinney; was High Sheriff of Dorset and died 1818. Joh. Fre. Pinney, of Bettiscombe (died 1762) was originally of the Isle of Nevis, and grandson of Azariah Pinney (see under John Pinney 1673); came to England on succeeding to Bettiscombe, and was M.P. for Bridport. Azariah, of Christ's, is not given in Burke, L.G. but is probably the "Azariah Pinney, 2[nd] son of John Pinney, Esq. of Somerton, co. Somerset" who died 1803. (Gent. Mag.) A Will. Pinney (admitted 1846) was grandson of Joh. Azariah of Blackdown, Dorset.

Watkins, Henry: admitted 26 March 1794.

B.A. 1798. Admitted scholar (as of Yorkshire) 26 Mar. 1795. Born 1775, perhaps son of Henry Watkins (1760), who lived till 1829. I cannot ascertain which of the two was rector of Barmbrough, Yorks. 1815–29 (or–30). Ordained priest, York, 1801 July. Vicar of Beckingham, Notts. 1802 (according to Clergy List): and vicar of Silkstone, Yorks. 1835, probably held both till his death 13 Dec. 1844. Married in March 1803 Frances M. Bower of Killerby Hall, Yorks., by whom he had three sons and three daughters.

Halsted, Samuel: son of Thomas: born in Cambridge. School: Rugby, under D[r] James. Admitted pensioner under M[r] Browne 19 June 1794. Age 17.

B.A. (1st jun. opt.) 1798; M.A. 1801. Admitted scholar 26 Mar. 1795. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1800 June: priest, 1801 Dec.; curate of Long Stanton. Married 28 Sept. 1803 Decima Mitchell. Curate of Little Wratting Jan. 1816

–1828 [?]. Rector of Little Thurlow, Suffolk 29 Apr. 1824–5: and of Little Bradley (contiguous) 15 May 1829–31, when he died (Davy).

Collin, John: admitted 30 June 1794.

B.A. 1798; M.A. 1801. Admitted scholar (K. Edw. VI, and county not given) 26 Mar. 1795. Ordained deacon, London, 1798 Dec.: priest, 1801 Aug. Rector of Quendon, Essex 1802: gone in 1864. Married 10 Apr. 1804 Anne, daughter of Edm. Fisher, vicar of Linton, Cambs.

Spry, William: son of James Hume: born at Potterne, Wilts. Educated at Toft, by Edm. Trant, Fellow. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Browne 2 July 1794. Age 16.

B.A. 1799; M.A. 1802. Admitted scholar 26 Mar. 1795. Probably came into residence Mich. 1795. Born 20 Sept. 1776. Son of D^{r} Spry, of Merton and Ch. Ch., Oxford, Prebendary of Salisbury and vicar of Potterne (died 1780) by his wife Emma Trant (died 1781), grandson of William Trant (171$\frac{8}{9}$), Fellow 1726–41, and nephew of Edmund Trant (1767), Fellow 1773–86, and rector of Toft. At the Clergy Orphan school 26 Feb. 1784. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1799 June; licensed to Hardwick: priest, 1800 Dec. Elected Fellow, succeeding Hen. Hasted, 2 May 1804. He held no office: signs regularly in 1804–7 and 1809–10: and may have resided then. Fellowship declared vacant 24 Oct. 1811 probably because of his marriage with Eliz. Lucas: he had a son William, born 6 July 1813. Minister of Walcot chapel Bath, as appears in the entry of his son Feb. 1821 at his old school. He died at Sidmouth, aged 39, 29 Oct. 1815 and was buried there. His son was an artist of some merit, illustrated Shuckburgh's British Coleoptera, and died unmarried at Northampton about 1840.

Walmsley, John: admitted 11 Oct. 1794. [For this and for the next year Thomas Browne was praelector and followed the example of N. C. Lane: the two were hostile; Lane (whose pupils the men were) probably gave Browne no information: they must share the blame.]

B.A. 1798, having matriculated only 8 Apr. 1797. School: Eton. Kept two terms at Sidney. Fellow-commoner under Mess^{rs} Hopkins and Lane. Son of John Walmsley of the Hall of Ince, Lancs., High Sheriff for Lancs., and of Mary, daughter of Will. Shaw of Singleton: born 28 Dec. 1775. Married (1) Hannah, daughter of Chris. Conron of co. Cork, by whom he had three sons and one daughter: (2) in 1812 Ellen, daughter of Ri. G. Long of Rood Ashton, Wilts., by whom he had two sons and one daughter (Burke, L.G.). Died 1860.

Procter, Richard: admitted 26 Nov. 1794.

B.A. 1799; M.A. 1804. Admitted scholar (as of Yorkshire) 10 Dec. 1795. Ordained deacon, Chester, 1804 Feb.; licensed to Gressingham, Lancs.: priest, York, 1805 July. Perhaps vicar of Laxton [Lexington], Notts. succeeding Geo. Holt, 3 Jan. 1826: gone in 1858.

Jones, Hugh Wynne: admitted 5 Dec. 1794.

B.A. 1798; M.A. (Emmanuel) 1820. Admitted scholar (as of Anglesey) 10 Dec. 1795. Pensioner under Mess^{rs} Hopkins and Lane. Prebendary of Bangor 1 June 1803–1809. Rector of Aberffraw, Anglesey 1 July 1815–49. Chancellor of Bangor 28 Nov. 1818–49. Rector of Llantrissant, Anglesey 20 Jan. 1820. Died 9 Dec. 1849, aged 74 (Index Eccl.).

Owen, John:

M.A. 1801. Son of Tho. Owen, gent., of Llangurig, Montgomery. Matriculated at Hertford College, Oxford 21 Oct. 1793, aged 20. B.A. (Oxford) 1797; M.A. 1801 (Al. Ox. 1051). Chaplain to Bishop Majendie. Rector of St Benet's, Paul's Wharf, London (worth £250 a year) 2 Mar. 1802. Had dispensation to hold also the rectory of East Horsley, Surrey, 25 May 1820 (worth £250), distant 26 miles. Held both till his death 4 July 1824. According to the Lambeth Register he was ordained at Oxford, deacon, 1775 June: priest, London, 1776 Dec. These dates suit another Oxonian, John Owen, of Jesus, son of Lewis, of Bodwink, Anglesey, B.A. 1775. Either Foster, or the Lambeth Register (so far as the ordination is concerned) would seem to be wrong.

Storie, George Henry: admitted 26 Feb. 1795.

Fellow-commoner under Mess^{rs} Hopkins and Lane: appears in Study-rents (3*s.* 0*d.* a quarter) till Mids. 1796. Probably the Geo. Hen. Storie, clerk, of Camberwell who had a son Joh. Geo. admitted (aged 17) at Ch. Ch., Oxford, May 1815 (Al. Ox. 1361). Eldest son of Tho. Storie, merchant, of London: born 19 Jan. 1766: of Springfield Lodge, Surrey. Married July 1796 Eliza Jekyll Chalmers, by whom he had three sons and two daughters: some time rector of Stow Maries, Essex (of which he was patron): died at Thames Ditton 31 Oct. 1833, aged 67. (Gent. Mag., 1834 (1), page 114: Burke, Commoners, 1. 275.)

Pasheller, John: admitted 26 Mar. 1795.

Fellow-commoner under Mess^{rs} Hopkins and Lane. Gave two silver candlesticks. Resided till Mich. 1800: name in Study-rents till Mids^{r}. 1802. Probably a Pasheller of Fen Drayton: one of them held the College farm there. Gunning (2. 237 et seqq.) speaks of a Charles Pasheller, an intimate of Tho. Browne, by whose favour he obtained the lease of the College estate at Croxton in Norfolk—the remainder of Sir John Seabright's lease in 1799 and a new one 22 Oct. 1806: but the name in the College Order of that date is John Pasheller: Gunning's memory was at fault: the bad character which he gives to Charles (ib.) must be transferred to John. The fine for Croxton was £665. 19*s.* 3*d.* Pasheller ultimately became bankrupt.

Barwell, Richard: admitted 5 June 1795.

Previously admitted at St John's 8 Dec. 1794, where he kept one term. Resided as a fellow-commoner till Mich^{s}. 1797. Perhaps a son (or kinsman) of Ri. Barwell, 1741–1804, Warren Hastings' supporter: see D.N.B. Ri. Barwell of Dawlish, Devon, son of Ri. Barwell of Stanstead Park, Essex, died in the earlier part of 1800, aged 23 (Gent. Mag. p. 585).

Parker, William: admitted 12 Sept. 1795.

B.A. (9th wrangler) 1800; M.A. 1803. Admitted scholar (as of Middlesex) 8 Dec. 1796. Son of John Parker formerly of Jamaica. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1801 Dec.; licensed to Long Stow and Croxton: priest 1802 May. Married in 1807 a daughter of Rev. D^{r} Gaskin. Rector of St Ethelburga, Bishopsgate, 2 Mar. 1807–1843. Prebendary of St Paul's 14 Dec. 1833–43. Secretary for 32 years to the S.P.C.K. Died at Islington 15 Jan. 1843, aged 65 (Davy).

Holland, Richard: admitted 21 Sept. 1795.

B.A. 1800; M.A. 1803. Admitted scholar (as of Gloucestershire) 16 Dec. 1795: pensioner under Mess^{rs} Hopkins and Lane. Ordained deacon, Exeter, 1801 March: priest, Rochester (lit. dim. from Exeter), 1802 Sept. Vicar of Spreyton, Devon (where his son, Richard, admitted 1823, was born) 29 Oct. 1802. Chaplain to Lord Arden. Had dispensation 21 Oct. 1803 to hold also the rectory of Inwardleigh, distant 12 miles: there till 1845, when he became rector of Hittisleigh, near Crediton. Both Hittisleigh and Spreyton were vacant 1857.

Every, Sir Henry, bart.: admitted 3 Nov. 1795.

Resided till Xmas 1797: a fellow-commoner under Mess^{rs} Hopkins and Lane. School: Eton. Born 4 June 1777, eldest son of Sir Edward, eighth baronet, of Egginton, Derbs., fifth in descent from Francis, younger brother of Sir Henry (1646), whose descendants ended with Sir John (1726) who died 1779, when Edward succeeded: he died 1785, having married (as third husband—she had a fourth) Mary Morley of Horseley, Derbs. Sir Henry, the ninth baronet married 22 Dec. 1798 Penelope, daughter of Sir John Parker Mosley of Rolleston, by whom he had four sons: she died 1812. He died 28 Dec. 1855, and was succeeded by his grandson Henry Flower Every. He was the last of the seven Everys who were at this college.

Collyer, Charles: admitted 13 Nov. 1795.

Appears in Study-rents first as a pupil of M^r^ Browne, then of Mess^rs^ Hopkins and Browne till Mids^r^. 1798; always paid 3*s.* 0*d.* a quarter: he may have resided part of the time. One Cha. Collyer [no degree] was ordained at Norwich, deacon 1796 Dec.; licensed to Bale and Gunthorpe, Norfolk. Rector of Thornage with Brinton, Norfolk from 1803: probably the Rev. Charles Collyer of Gunthorpe Hall who married Sarah Pratt of Ryston Hall. His father Daniel Collyer of Wroxham, formerly sheriff of London, who married Ann "his deserving wife" (see M.I.), dated his will 19 Apr. 1773: Charles, his second son, being then "under age." (Carthew, Bradenham, 131.)

Moises, William Bell:

M.A. 1802. Son of Hugh Moises, B.A. (Trin.) 1745; M.A. (Peterhouse) 1749, Head-master of Newcastle grammar school from 1754; died 1806, aged 85. His brother, Hugh, was of Univ. Coll., Oxford 1781. Matriculated at Lincoln Coll., Oxford 11 July 1783, aged 18: B.A. (Oxford) 1787; M.A. (Christ's) 1802. Rector of Yelling, Hunts. 28 July 1801. Vicar of Felton, Northumb^d^. 30 Nov. 1804: vicar of Owthorne, near Patrington, Yorks., E.R. 27 Sept. 1821. Perhaps died 1826, when both these benefices were vacant.

Flavell, James: admitted 9 May 1796.

So in Adm^n^. book: but in Study-rents Favell. Probably resided, as fellow-commoner till Mich. 1797: pays 3*s.* 0*d.* a quarter till Mids. 1800. In the first Univ. Calendar (of 1796) he does not appear at all.

Moore, Richmond: admitted 11 May 1796.

Son of Peter Moore of Hadley, Midds. (probably the same described in Burke (L.G. under "Moore of Stockwell,") as "Peter, lord of the manor of Hadleigh, co. Midds., M.P. for Coventry"): brother of Edward (below). Admitted at Lincoln's Inn 22 Feb. 1794. Resided as fellow-commoner under Mess^rs^ Hopkins and Lane till Mids^r^. 1797, having migrated from Trinity. Died in India. Perhaps brother also of Geo. Peter and Henry, admitted 1798.

Moore, Edward: admitted 11 May 1796.

Brother of Richmond (above). Admitted at Lincoln's Inn 22 Feb. 1794. Resided as a fellow-commoner till Mich. 1796. Migrated here from Trinity College. Writer in East India Company (Bengal). Assistant Secretary to Board of Revenue. Died 1801, aged 24.

Tonson, James: admitted 20 May 1796.

M.A. 1798. James Bernard, second son of William Tonson, first baron Riversdale of Maccormac by his wife Rose, eldest daughter of James Bernard of Castle Bernard, M.P. for co. Cork. Brother of Charles Ludlow (1798). Died unmarried 11 Feb. 1803 (Burke, P. and B.).

Hutton, Timothy: admitted 20 May 1796.

Resided as fellow-commoner till Mids^r^. 1798. Born 14 Oct. 1779, younger son of John Hutton (1747) of Marske, and of Mary Ling: brother of John (1791)—whom see. Of Clifton Castle. Married 1804 Eliz., daughter of Will.

Chaytor of Spennithorne—who died 1859. Succeeded his brother John at Marske in 1841. Sheriff of Yorks. 1846. Lived mainly at Clifton, but resided at Marske during August and September for many years: drained a great part of the estate, and improved the grounds, carrying on his brother's work. Left to the College the valuable library, formed originally by his brother. Died 18 Nov. 1863, aged 84. (Canon Raine, Yorks. Arch. Journal, 6. 174.)

Allnutt, Thomas: admitted 24 May 1796.

B.A. 1801; M.A. 1812. Resided as fellow-commoner: matriculated 3 May 1800.

Carter, Matthew Inman: admitted 2 July 1796.

B.A. (7th jun. opt.) 1800; M.A. 1805. Admitted scholar (as of Westmoreland) 8 Dec. 1796. P.C. of Torver, Lancs. 1807–1865.

Pyke, George: admitted 2 July 1796.

Resided as pensioner till Mids^{r}. 1799. Admitted at Caius 30 April 1799 (Tancred student) as son of John Pyke of Suffolk; educated five years at Westminster. M.B. (Caius) 1801. But ordained deacon, London, 1817 Dec.: priest, 1818 May. Vicar of Wickhambrook 1823–7. Of Baythorn Park. Died 23 Dec. 1827, and buried at Wickhambrook (M.I.). (Venn, 2. 134.)

Hartley, Francis: admitted 2 July 1796.

Resided as pensioner till Mich. 1801. Matriculated 11 June 1801.

Rice, Henry: admitted 26 Oct. 1796. [No facts in any entry for the year: praelector and tutor J. Hopkins.]

Resided as pensioner till Lady Day 1800: name appears till Lady Day 1812. Matriculated 1799 June. The Hen. Rice admitted 1 July 1805 [no facts], is not this man re-admitted. One of these names, but B.A. (not at either University) was P.C. of Swingfield, Kent 30 June 1809: resigned before 1814. P.C. of Buckland, Kent 10 June 1813; vacant in 1841. Probably the same (as M.A.) lic^{d}. to curacy of River, Kent (to have £50 a year and surplice fees from the vicar Rev. C. Eaton Plater) 29 Mar. 1815. In Gent. Mag. 1801 p. 672 is the marriage on July 20 of the Rev. Hen. Rice eldest son of the late Hen. Rice, Esq. of Brantling [?], near Canterbury, to the only daughter of the Rev. G. Lefroy, rector of Ashe: by a coincidence our Hen. Rice is absent for the one quarter ending Mids. 1801. Rector of Great Holland, Essex 19 June 1812 (presented by Sarah Rice of Dover), and again 14 June 1813, till 1861.

Sturges, Joseph: admitted 12 Nov. 1796.

B.A. 1798. Fellow-commoner: matriculated 1797 Dec. Son of the Rev. Joseph of Sebbertoft, Northants. Matriculated at Wadham, Oxford 19 Nov. 1791, aged 18. Died 15 March 1838 at Port Elizabeth, South Africa, aged 65. Had been in practice as a solicitor at the Cape of Good Hope.

Rowlands, Henry:

M.A. 1803. Son of Henry, armiger, of Plasgwyn, Anglesey. Matriculated at Univ. Coll., Oxford 24 Mar. 1784, aged 19. B.A. (Oxford) 1788; M.A. (Christ's) 1803 (Al. Ox. 1231). His mother was a sister of Ri. Evans (1748, and Fellow of Christ's): see Gunning, who stayed at Plasgwyn in 1788 (1. 102). Rector of Newborough, Anglesey 1803. Ordained deacon, Hereford, 1789 June: priest, November. Chaplain to the Earl of Dartmouth. Vicar of Llanidan 1793. Held both livings till his death. Gunning, who revisited Plasgwyn and saw Rowlands in 1832, found him the "head of the liberal party in that island" (ib. 104). Died at Plasgwyn 1842, aged 78.

Story, John: admitted 12 Jan. 1797.

In Study-rents till Mich. 1797: perhaps resided.

Squire, Edmund: son of John, M.D.: born at Wandsworth, Surrey. School: Charterhouse, under Matt. Raine. Admitted pensioner [under Messrs Hopkins and Browne] 25 Mar. 1797. Age 16.

B.A. 1801; M.A. 1804. Admitted scholar 7 Dec. 1797. Ordained (as M.A. of Christ's) deacon, Lincoln, 1811 June: licensed to St Neots, with stipend of £54, house, Easter offering, and surplice fees. Tancred Divinity Student 1797: resigned before 1804. Master of Felsted School (Carlisle, 1. 433—dates not given): there in 1818. Rector of Puttenham, Herts. 16 Mar. 1831–35. Rector of Esse (Ashen), Essex, 7 Jan. 1835: gone in 1853.

Brown, Alexander: admitted 27 Dec. 1797.

In Study-rents till Lady Day 1799. Removed to St John's 18 Sept. 1800. B.A. (St John's) 1803: M.A. 1807. Re-admitted (as M.A.) 7 July 1807. Admitted at Lincoln's Inn 19 July 1796, as eldest son of Nich. Brown, D.D., of Rochester: no other of these names D.D. at either University at that time except the Fellow of Christ's (adm. 1754) D.D. 1787: he was rector of Ingoldsby 1770–1810, and died there: but may not have resided at first. Alexander was also ordained deacon at Rochester 25 Sept. 1803, and priest 30 Sept. 1804, with lit. dim. from Canterbury, and was afterwards vicar of Rodmersham, Kent 7 Mar. 1815: gone in 1846.

Baines, James Johnson:

Matricd. pensioner 8 July 1797: after entering first at Pembroke Coll., Oxford, 16 Dec. 1796, aged 18. Son of Cuthbert Baines of Falmouth, by his wife Lydia Veale of Penzance; born 1778. B.A. (Christ's) 1801; M.A. 1804. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1804 Dec.: licensed to Weston Colville. Married Harriet, daughter of John Bullen, vicar of Barnwell. Vicar of Burwell, Cambs. 29 May 1808, selected by Lord Guildford from two nominated by the University. Died vicar 1854. His son Cha. Tho. Johnson Baines, adm. 1831.

There is a curious note by John Fisher in the Order Book 3 Dec. 1804—immediately after the election of John Kaye (1 Dec.)—that he made in the name of Mr Baines on 3 Dec. "to keep the claim of the Family of Mr J. J. Baines open to future Investigation, if not to a clear and certain Decision of it, one way or the other." Apparently Baines had claimed the Fellowship as of kin to Sir Tho. Baines—which Fisher believed but could not prove. He adds that J. J. Baines was born in Suffolk, "not in Cornwall as wrongly supposed."

Dawson, Josias:

Matricd. fellow-commoner 1797 Dec. B.A. 1801; M.A. 1804. Son of Ri. Dawson, B.C.L. Oxford, rector of Bolton by Bolland 1773–1826; grandson of Josias of Halton Gill in Craven (probably admd. 1729). Ordained deacon, York, 1801 Oct.; licensed to Bolton, under his father. Chaplain to the Earl of Ribblesdale. Died 5 July 1806 in his father's house, aged 27, and buried at Bolland (Morant-Whitaker, 138).

Clarke, John Plomer:

Matriculated fellow-commoner 1797 Dec. Resided till Lady Day 1800. Born 1776, son of John Plomer (subsequently Clarke) purchaser of Welton Manor, Northants. by his wife Mary, daughter of Nic. Child of London. Of Welton Place. High Sheriff for Northants. 1814, and verderer of Rockingham forest. Married Anna Maria, daughter of Sir John Nelthorpe of Scawby, Lincs., but had no children. Died 1826.

Whitter, Tristram:

M.B. 1800; M.D. 1807. Of Devonshire: son of John, merchant, of London, by his wife Mary Rogers of Myndtown, Salop; grandson of Tristram, rector of Tiverton, who died 1776. Appears first at Midsr. 1797 in Study-rents, as a fellow-commoner. Studied at London, Edinburgh, and Göttingen. Fellow of the College of Physicians 1808, Censor 1812. Married 1809 Sarah, daughter of Will. Curteis of Tenterden, Kent. Physician to the Westminster Hospital 1818. Settled at Bath. Died there through an overdose of morphia 1855. (Munk, 3. 65.)

de Cardonnel, Adam Mansfeld Lawson: admitted 9 Feb. 1798.

In Study-rents as (de Cardonnel) till Xmas 1799. Son of Adam Mansfeldt de Cardonnel who took the name of Lawson on succeeding to his mother's estates at Hilton and Clinton. The de Cardonnels came of a Huguenot family. Went into the 21st Light Dragoons. Married in 1802 Lucy, daughter of the Rev. Phipps Weston, prebendary of Durham (Gent. Mag. p. 684). Died at Acton House, Northumberland, without issue, 21 Nov. 1838.

Wainewright, Latham: admitted 23 Mar. 1798.

Kept the Easter Term 1798. Matric^{d}. from Emmanuel 1798. Dec. B.A. (Emm.) 1802; M.A. 1806. F.R.S. Rector of Great Brickhill, Bucks. 18 Dec. 1803. Died in London, where he usually resided, 21 Dec. 1833 (Lipscombe, 4. 64). Author: The Literary and Scientific pursuits which are encouraged and enforced in the University of Cambridge briefly described and vindicated, 1815.

Moore, George Peter: admitted 27 June 1798.

B.A. 1802; M.A. 1805. Admitted scholar (K. Edw. VI) 6 Dec. 1798. Matriculated (pensioner) Dec. 1801. Admitted at Lincoln's Inn 27 June 1799, as second son of Peter Moore of Great George Street, Westminster: perhaps the same as the Peter Moore of Hadleigh, father of the Richmond and Edward, admitted 1796, perhaps also of Henry (below).

Moore, Henry: admitted 30 June 1798.

Resided as pensioner till Midsummer 1800. Admitted scholar (as of Middlesex) 6 Dec. 1798. See Geo. Peter (above). I believe given as brother of George Peter Moore, but cannot find that he had a brother Henry. More likely to be his cousin, son of Edward Moore elder brother of Peter Moore who had a son named Henry who went into the army and became a Major in the 10th Dragoon Guards, and died in 1810, aged 30, unmarried.

Stafford, Stephen: admitted 6 July 1798.

B.A. 1802. Admitted scholar (as of Norfolk) 6 Dec. 1798. Pensioner under Mess^{rs} Hopkins and Browne. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1801 Dec.; licensed to Knapton: priest, London (lit. dim. from Rochester), 1816 Jan. Curate at Hadleigh in Mar. 1818. On 18 Apr. 1820 licensed to curacy of Southchurch, Essex (a peculiar of the Archbishop), to receive £80 a year and surplice-fees, on nomination of Walt. Wren Driffield, rector (Lamb. Reg^{r}.), but signs first as curate 25 Jan. 1819: last time Sept. 1827. Had no further preferment: but was not buried at Southchurch. (Information from Rev. J. H. Philpott.)

Pugh, Charles: admitted 6 Oct. 1798.

B.A. 1803; M.A. 1806. Admitted scholar (as of Essex) 6 Dec. 1798. Probably the Cha. Pugh, admitted at Lincoln's Inn 1 Dec. 1798, son of Ja. Baldwin Pugh, clerk, late of Sible Hedingham. Ordination as deacon not found: licensed to Haddenham and Wilburton 1812 Nov.: to Wentworth and Witcham 1814 Oct. Ordained priest, Ely, 1815 Sept. Vicar of Foxton, Leics. 6 Aug. 1817: of Goadby Marwood, Leics. 28 July 1824: both vacant 1834. Also vicar of Barton, Cambs. 23 April 1828. Died at Upway, Dorset 1834, aged 55 (Gent. Mag. 1834 (2), p. 551).

Tonson, Charles [Ludlow]: admitted 28 Nov. 1798.

M.A. (Cha. Ludlow Tonson) 1801: matriculated 6 July 1801. Fifth son of William, first Baron Riversdale: brother of James (1796). Educated at Eton. A translation by him into good elegiacs of verses by Charlotte Smyth is given in Gent. Mag. 1799, p. 238. Ordained deacon, Cloyne, Ireland, 24 Aug. 1803 (Brady, Records of Cork, 3. 257). Died, unmarried, 20 Aug. 1837 (Burke, P. and B.).

Bonney, Henry Kaye: admitted 20 Dec. 1798.

B.A. 1802; M.A. 1805; D.D. 1824. Admitted scholar (as of Northants.) 4 Dec. 1799. Pensioner under Mess^rs^ Hopkins and Browne: Tancred Student 1798–1805. Born 22 May 1780, son of Hen. Kaye Bonney, rector of Kingscliffe, Northants. and prebendary of Lincoln. Ordained deacon, Peterborough, 1802 Dec.: priest, 1804 June. Prebendary of Lincoln 8 Jan. 1807. Rector of Kingscliffe, on his father's death, 26 April 1810. Examining Chaplain to Bp. Kaye, Sept. 1820. Archdeacon of Bedford 10 Dec. 1821, collated by Bishop Pelham. Married 15 May 1827 Charlotte Perry. Dean of Stamford, by Bishop Kaye pleno iure, 6 June 1827. Transferred by the Bishop who was his College friend 22 Feb. 1845 from the archdeaconry of Bedford to that of Lincoln. "As an archdeacon he was indefatigable." Seized with paralysis 1858 and died at Kingscliffe 24 Dec. 1862, where his wife was buried twelve years before. Author of A Life of Jeremy Taylor, 1815: numerous charges at visitations, &c.

Westcott, Thomas:

M.A. 1805. Son of Thomas, gent., of Kenn, Devon. Matriculated at Balliol, Oxford 9 Nov. 1796, aged 18. B.A. (Oxford) 1800. M.A. (Christ's) 1805. Rector of Stoke-in-Teignhead, Devon 31 March 1810: on the same day vicar of St Nicholas, Exeter, which he held till his death 6 Aug. 1834.

Grisdale, John: admitted 25 Jan. 1799.

B.A. 1802 (2nd wrangler, 2nd Smith's prizeman); M.A. 1806. Pensioner under M^r^ Doncaster. Admitted scholar (as of Cumberland) 4 Dec. 1799. Admitted at Lincoln's Inn 31 Jan. 1804. Son of the Rev. D^r^ Grisdale of Carlisle. Elected Fellow, succeeding David Potts, 25 May 1805. For the scene at his election dinner see the Life of Lord Campbell—who accompanied him to Cambridge. In the course of the same year the Master, D^r^ Barker, seems to have removed him from the list of Fellows, as not being in Orders within the statutable time. (Nothing appears in the Order Book.) Grisdale appealed to the V.C., who on 14 Jan. 1806 reinstated him: giving at the same time an interpretation of the Statute "De Sociorum qualitate" (on an interpretation of which in 1743, Barker had proceeded) to the effect that "every Fellow being of the age of 24 years or upwards and not a Priest when admitted to his Fellowship shall enter into Priest's orders within the space of one year from the time of such Admission or shall be removed from his Fellowship." Grisdale had therefore but a year to hold his Fellowship, which was declared vacant 14 June 1806. He did not long survive. "J. Grisdale, Fellow of Christ's, of Lincoln's Inn, died at his chambers in the Temple [sic] 29 Jan. 1812" (Gent. Mag.).

Uppleby, Charles: admitted 14 March 1799.

Admitted pensioner, then on 3 April, a fellow-commoner. Resided till Mich. 1801: name in Study-rents till Mids^r^. 1802. Elder son of George Uppleby of Barrow Hall, Lincs., J.P., by his wife Sarah, daughter of Cha. Robinson of Beverley. Succeeded to Barrow on his father's death 25 April 1816. Died childless 1853, and was succeeded by his nephew, George Charles Uppleby (Burke, L.G.).

Pitman, Samuel: admitted 3 Apr. 1799.

B.A. (4th jun. opt.) 1803; M.A. 1806. Admitted scholar (as of Devon)

4 Dec. 1799: pensioner under Mess^{rs} Hopkins and Browne. Born 11 March 1781, second son of Samuel Pitman of Dunchideock House, Devon, by his wife Jane Shuttleworth. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1803 Sept.; licensed to Bintree: priest, 1805 Sept. Married 26 Sept. 1806, Barbara, daughter and heiress of Coulson Bell of Oulton Hall, Norfolk, by whom he had three sons and four daughters. Resided at Oulton Hall.

Finch, Henry: admitted 25 July 1799.

B.A. 1805; M.A. 1808. Admitted scholar (as of Cambs.) 17 Dec. 1800. Matriculated pensioner June 1804. Licensed to cure of Little Shelford 3 June 1806: ordained priest, Ely, 1806 Nov.: and rector of Little Shelford, worth £280 a year 25 Nov. 1806. Vicar of Great Shelford 9 Sept. 1812. Had special license 11 June 1813 to hold also the vicarage of Long Stanton All Saints, worth about £50 a year, distant about 12 miles. Held them all till his death 23 June 1849. Buried at Little Shelford.

Willoughby, Henry: son of the Rev. James Willoughby, rector of Guiseley: born at Guiseley, Yorks. Educated by Hen. Hasted, Fellow of Christ's. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Hopkins and Browne 16 Oct. 1799. Age 18.

B.A. 1804; M.A. 1807. Admitted scholar (Finch and Baines) 17 Dec. 1800. Admitted at Lincoln's Inn June 1802, as son of the rector of Guiseley. Married 20 June 1815 Charlotte, daughter of the Ven. John Eyre of Bobsworth, Notts. by whom he had four sons and three daughters; the eldest son, Henry, became eighth Baron Middleton. M.P. for Newark. Died 20 Nov. 1849.

Davys, George: son of John: born at Loughborough. Entered at Clare Hall: removed to Christ's, as sizar under Mess^{rs} Hopkins and Browne 22 Oct. 1799. Age not given.

B.A. (10th wrangler) 1803; M.A. 1806; D.D. 1831. Admitted scholar 4 Dec. 1799. Son of John Davys of Rempstone, Notts. by Sophia, daughter of B. Wigley, clerk, of Sawley, Derbs., akin to Jonathan and Joshua of Christ's. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1806 March; licensed to Nettlestead. Elected Fellow 18 June 1806 in place of John Hopkins: he probably resided (though holding no College office) and discharged from Cambridge the cure of Littlebury, of Chesterford (1807) and of Swaffham Prior (1817). Vicar of Willoughby-on-the-Wolds, Lincs. 22 May 1811–29. Married in 1814 Marianne, daughter of Edm. Mapletoft (1759) rector of Anstye, Herts.: and his Fellowship was declared vacant, 15 Feb. Appointed in 1827 by the Duchess of Kent (I do not find on what special ground) tutor to the Princess Victoria and resided at Kensington Palace till 1837. Vicar of All Hallows on the Wall, London 10 Apr. 1829–39. Dean of Chester 10 Jan. 1831–9. Bishop of Peterborough 14 June 1839. An Evangelical, but fair to all parties, and not active either in politics or in controversy. Died 18 April 1864, buried in the graveyard of the Cathedral. His writings were chiefly educational and adapted to village use—he had considerable experience in that way—called Village Conversations, on the Liturgy (1820), on the principal offices of the Church (1824), on the Catechism (1836). Later in life he wrote short histories of Rome and of England, in the form of letters from a father to a son. (D.N.B.)

Flamstead, William Dodsley: [no facts]. Admitted 11 Nov. 1799.

Admitted at St John's, 27 June 1799, as son of the Rev. Ri. Dodsley Flamstead of Little Hallam, Derbs. Removed here, and admitted scholar (as of Derbs.) 4 Dec. 1799—a pensioner under M^{r} Doncaster. Resided till Lady Day 1801. After leaving Cambridge he entered the army in 1803 as cornet in the 1st Royal Dragoons, and left the army seven years later as Major. He married on 25 March 1801 Miss Georgina Greaves, at Gretna Green, and afterwards at Forenark, Derbs. on 22 August 1801. He was head of the Flamstead family of Little Hallam, Ilkeston (fl. 1470–1858) a member of which was John Flamstead the first Astronomer Royal (temp. Charles II). Alive at Nottingham 1843 and date of death uncertain.

Kaye, John: son of Abraham: born at Hammersmith. School: Greenwich, under D[r] Cha. Burney. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Hopkins and Browne 6 Feb. 1800. Age 16.

B.A. (sen. wrangler, 2nd Smith's prizeman, 1st Chancellor's Medallist) 1804; M.A. 1807; B.D. 1814; D.D. (per lit. reg.) 1815. Born 27 Dec. 1783. Admitted scholar 17 Dec. 1800. Tancred student 1800. Elected Fellow (Finch and Baines) succeeding E. Finch Hatton (who resigned in Kaye's favour, see page 295) 5 Dec. 1804: Lady Margaret, succeeding N. C. Lane 1 June 1811. There is no sign that he resided till 1809, when he was appointed Senior Dean: but on 20 Dec. M[r] Shaw took his place "M[r] Kaye having left the kingdom" (Coll. Order). He was Junior Dean and Catechist, Praelector and Steward, 1810. Senior Greek Lecturer and Mildmay Preacher 1810–12. [The appointments to the Bunting, Walkhampton and Knapwell Preacherships cease to be recorded, if made, after 1805.] Custos cistae 1812–14. From 1808–14 he was Tutor with John Maul: and the entries in the Admission Book during that time are generally very good. Reference has been made under Tho. Browne (page 314) and John Maul (page 327) to the last year of D[r] Browne's Mastership. Maul and Doncaster had been presented each to a College living earlier in the year, and were in their "year of grace": Fraser, who like them was senior to Kaye, did not wish to leave London. Probably Kaye's character and tutorship for six years marked him out as above other competitors—if there were any: and he became Master 5 Sept. 1814 at the age of 30. The Order dated 26 Aug. to place the custody of the College property during the vacancy in Maul's hands is written by Kaye though only third in seniority: with a note also in his hand: "on account of the peculiar circumstances under which the Vacancy of the Mastership took place, it was thought proper to make the above Agreement, and as the Agreement Book was still in the hands of D[r] Browne, it was entered on a loose sheet of Paper which was afterwards pasted in the Book." The order was signed by Maul, Greenall, Kaye, Gilpin, Shaw, Atkinson, Buck and Haggitt.

Kaye was V.C. in 1815 and in the same year married Eliza, daughter of John Mortlock, banker, of Cambridge. As Regius Professor of Divinity, 1816–27, he lectured, which none of his predecessors had done for a hundred years, and published his lectures—on the ecclesiastical history of the Second and Third Centuries, with reference to Tertullian, on Justin Martyr, on Clement of Alexandria, &c. He has the great credit of reviving patristic learning at Cambridge. He was nominated Bishop of Bristol by Lord Liverpool 1 July 1820, who urged him to retain his position at Cambridge, especially as Divinity Professor. The diocese was very small, viz. the city of Bristol and the county of Dorset. Kaye resided there in the Long Vacations and at other times occasionally; after the first year he resided at Clifton owing to the unhealthiness of the precincts. On 12 Feb. 1827 he was nominated to the see of Lincoln: the vicinity of Buckden Palace to Cambridge made it possible for him to retain the Mastership but he resigned the Professorship: and he ceased to be Master in 1830. In 1837 when Hunts. was made over to the See of Ely, he left Buckden for Riseholm near Lincoln. He was very energetic in the extension of church work in his large diocese—the income of which was then uncertain and far from adequate. His son, Archdeacon Kaye, writes to me: "in the last year of his life, as I was walking with him one afternoon, he suddenly said to me 'The world will think that I have been fortunate in holding the see of Lincoln for 26 years: but I have never laid by a single sixpence out of the income.'" In 1835 he gave £210 to the University Library Fund. Politically he was not very active: but he voted for the repeal of the Test Acts 1828, and against the relief of Roman Catholics. He was a liberal evangelical. His charges—which have been printed—show sound judgment. He died at Riseholme 18 Feb. 1853 in his 70th year, and was buried there. His Works (patristic, and also his charges and sermons) were republished in eight volumes in 1888 by Archdeacon Kaye. Portrait (in oils) in the College Hall. His grandson, John Kaye, was admitted 1887. (D.N.B.)

Allix, Charles: son of Charles Wager: born at Mere, Wilts. School: Harrow, under D^{r} Drury. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Hopkins and Browne 19 Apr. 1800. Age 18 [really 17].

Resided till Lady Day 1803. Born 20 Jan. 1783, son of Cha. Wager (1767) of Willoughby Hall, Lincs., grandson of Charles (1733) of Swaffham, Cambs.: his mother was Cath. Townley of Belfield, Lancs. Married 3 June 1808 Mary Elizabeth, daughter of Will. Hammond of St Albans Court, Kent, by whom he had four sons and six daughters. J.P. and D.L. for Lincs. Died 22 Jan. 1866 (Burke, L.G.).

Berney, Hanson: admitted 27 May 1800.

Resided, fellow-commoner, under Mess^{rs} Hopkins and Browne till Lady Day 1801. Born Dec. 1780: eldest son of Sir John Berney of Park Hall, Reedham, Norwich, by his wife, Lady Henrietta Neville, daughter of George, first Earl of Abergavenny. Succeeded his father as eighth baronet 4 Sept. 1825. Married (1) Anne Tahourdin of Sydenham, (2) Agnes, daughter of Thomas Hook by whom he had a son, Henry Hanson Berney. (Burke, P. and B.)

Ward, Samuel: LL.D. of Trin. Coll., Dublin. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Hopkins and Browne 27 May 1800.

LL.D. (by incorporation) 1800. Perhaps second son of Ben. Ward of Dublin, admitted at Gray's Inn 7 May 1792.

Alston, Rowland: son of Thomas: born at Wotton, Beds. School: Uppingham, under M^{r} Butt. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Hopkins and Browne 21 June 1800. Age 18.

Admitted scholar 17 Dec. 1800. Resided till Mids^{r}. 1804: appears in Study-rents till Xmas 1806. Perhaps of Pishiobury, Herts.: second son of Thomas of Odell and Harrold Hall, Beds. to which (though not to the title) he succeeded as a collateral on the death of Sir Rowland in 1791. Thomas married Eliz., daughter of Justinian Raynsford of Brixworth, Northants. (Harvey, Hundred of Willey, 361). See also pedigree in Berry, Herts. Genealogies, 217. Who is Sir John Alston of Christ's, &c. (Gent. Mag. 1807 (1), 281), died 1807, aged 44—see under Rowland 1776?

Mapletoft, Robert: son of Robert: born at Billericay, Essex. Educated at Westmill, Herts. by the Rev. Tho. Sisson. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Hopkins and Browne 27 June 1800. Age not given.

B.A. 1804; M.A. 1807. Admitted scholar 17 Dec. 1800.

Sumner, Robert: son of Robert: born at Kenilworth. School: Eton, under D^{r} Heath. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Hopkins and Browne 27 June 1800. Age 18.

B.A. (3rd sen. opt.) 1804. Admitted scholar 17 Dec. 1800. Brother of John Bird Sumner, Archbishop of Canterbury. Tancred Divinity Student 1801. Died soon after taking his degree (Stapylton).

Wedge, Charles: son of Charles: born at Gazeley, Suffolk. School: Linton, under M^{r} Lodge. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Hopkins and Browne 3 July 1800. Age 19.

Admitted scholar 17 Dec. 1800. Resided till Xmas 1802. Admitted at Caius 9 Nov. 1802, as son of Charles Wedge, farmer, of Westley, Cambs., born at Gazeley. B.A. (Caius) 1804; M.A. 1807. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1805 Oct.: priest, Dec. Rector of Borough Green, Cambs. 1805–75. Died 28 March 1875, aged 94 (Venn, 2. 140).

Toulmin, Charles: admitted 12 Nov. 1800. [No facts given at any admission for four years: the praelectors, equally bad, being W. Walter, J. Hopkins, Tho. Browne, and John Doncaster.]

Admitted scholar 16 Dec. 1802. Resided till Mich. 1803, pensioner under Mess^{rs} Hopkins and Browne. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1803 Sept.; licensed to St Mary, Lynn: priest 1804 Dec. Died at Hoxton Square Dec. 1805 (Gent. Mag. p. 1239).

Barlowe, Andrew Samuel: admitted 24 Dec. 1800.

Resided, a pensioner under M^{r} Doncaster, till Xmas 1801.

Bradburne, Thomas: admitted 22 Feb. 1801.

B.A. (5th wrangler) 1805; M.A. 1808. Admitted scholar (Staffs.) 17 Dec. 1801. Resided, a pensioner, under Mess^{rs} Hopkins and Browne till Mids^{r}. 1805: name in Study-rents till Mids^{r}. 1808. Although born in Staffs., the Society petitioned that they might elect him to the Northern Fellowship vacant by the resignation of N. R. Clarke (Derbs.): this was allowed by the King, 29 May 1810: and he was elected 6 June. In 1814 when Kaye became Master, he was associated with Maul and Shaw in the tutorship: but only one pupil was admitted under the trio: and in less than a month another was entered under Maul and Shaw only. Custos cistae 1816: held no other office: signs occasionally down to Feb. 1822. Held no living till 2 May 1827 when he was presented to Toft and Caldecote. On 23 May 1828 his Fellowship was declared vacant. He appealed to the Visitor, on the score of old practice. D^{r} Anislie, V.C., however found that never since the time of Elizabeth had the Society acted on the license to the five Senior Preachers to hold, with a Fellowship, preferment of a certain value, if that preferment were in the gift of the College: this may be doubted, but since Paley's time the practice had been clearly as the Visitor laid down: the appeal was dismissed 4 Feb. 1829 and Bradburne's Fellowship was finally declared vacant 14 Feb. 1829. He never resided at Toft, the duty being performed by curates. His living was sequestrated by the Bishop for non-residence in July 1840 and in October a new rector (T. Walker) was presented. But on 20 June 1841 an Order recites that in the opinion of Counsel the living was not vacant and M^{r} Walker was recouped by the College for his expenses. On 19 Oct. 1842 the Bishop advertised the Master that Bradburne had disobeyed his monition to him to reside: and that the College may now present whom it will. Bradburne had refused (for some unexplained cause) to receive his fines and dividends from Lady Day 1827 to Mich. 1829: but in 1833 agreed to do so. The whole, amounting to £556. 12*s.* 6*d.* was paid off in 1846. I do not find where he lived; nor when he died.

Blandy, Adam: admitted 26 March 1801.

Came into residence as a fellow-commoner under Messrs Hopkins and Browne Mich. 1801: resided till Midsr. 1805. Son of Adam Walker, who married a Miss Southby, niece of a John Blandy of Kingston Bagpage, near Abingdon. Our Adam took the name of Blandy on the death of his great-uncle, when he succeeded to the Kingston Bagpage estate.

Ellison, Cuthbert: son of Henry: born at Hebburn, Durham. School: Harrow, under Dr Drury. Admitted fellow-commoner under Messrs Hopkins and Browne 19 June 1801. But took up arms against Napoleon Buonaparte "perniciem communem orbis terrarum." Age not given.

He was born 1783. Resided from Mich. 1801 to June 1804. He had ceased to serve in the army (if he ever served) in 1808 when he was Sheriff for Northumberland: in 1827 for Durham. M.P. for Newcastle 1812–30. Married 1804 Isabella Grace, daughter of Henry Ibbetson of St Andrews, Northumberland. A great benefactor to Newcastle and Gateshead. Died 1860.

Nethercote, John: admitted 19 June 1801.

Resided as a fellow-commoner under Messrs Hopkins and Browne from Mich. 1801 to Lady Day 1802. Seems to have resided again from Midsr. 1804 to Mich. 1805: and his name appears till Midsr. 1806. Probably born 31 Dec. 1782, son of Roger Nethercote of Moulton Grange, Northants. Married 13 June 1812 Charlotte Jemima, third daughter of Will. Hammond of St Alban's Court, Kent, by whom he had two sons and one daughter. J.P. and D.L. for Northants.: Sheriff 1822. Died Dec. 1867.

Hill, Dennis: admitted 19 June 1801.

Admitted scholar (Norfolk) 17 Dec. 1801. Resided as pensioner under Messrs Hopkins and Browne till Midsr. 1804: name on list till Xmas 1807. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1806 March; licensed to curacy of Gressenhall, Norfolk: priest 1807 Feb. Probably rector of Gressenhall 1807–73.

Gwynne, Frederick: admitted 6 July 1801.

Came into residence Mich. 1803 as a sizar under Messrs Hopkins and Browne: admitted scholar (Sussex) 14 Dec. 1803. Resided till Mich. 1804, and then migrated to Jesus College, where he was B.A. 1807; M.A. 1815 Probably Master of Beverley School 1815–16, when he died (Yorksh. Records, XXVII. lxxiv).

Walker, Stephen: admitted 3 Oct. 1801.

B.A. 1804. Resided as a sizar under Messrs Hopkins and Browne till Mids. 1805. Admitted scholar (Westmoreland) 23 Dec. 1801. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1804 May; licensed to Wentworth and Witcham: priest, Peterborough, 1805 June. Probably P.C. of Swindale, Westmoreland 11 Nov. 1833. Died 1850, aged 71 (Davy)—in which case he was 22 when he came into residence.

Williams, Thomas: admitted 6 Oct. 1801.

Resided as pensioner under Messrs Hopkins and Browne from Mich. 1802 till Mich. 1807.

Day, John: admitted 29 Oct. 1801.

Resided as pensioner under Messrs Hopkins and Browne from Mich. 1801 to Lady Day 1805. Perhaps B.A. (Magd.) 1806; M.A. 1809 and Fellow.

Hustler, James Devereux: admitted 16 Nov. 1801.

B.A. (Trin.) 1806; M.A. 1809; B.D. 1816. Fellow of Trinity. Admitted scholar (Suffolk) 17 Dec. 1801: resided as sizar under Messrs Hopkins and Browne till Mids. 1802. Curate of Fornham All Saints, near Bury 4 Feb.

1823. Curate of Euston and Little Fakenham 27 Sept. 1828. Rector of Great Fakenham 12 Dec. 1828. Rector of Euston with Little Fakenham 14 Oct. 1829–1849; patron, the Duke of Grafton. Died Nov. 1849, aged 64: buried at Euston.

Bayley, Cornwall: admitted 7 Dec. 1801.

Came into residence Easter 1802; a pensioner under Mess[rs] Hopkins and Browne. Admitted scholar (Lancs.) 16 Dec. 1802. Resided till Easter 1804. Browne's Medallist 1802, 1803. Born 13 Mar. 1784, son of Tho. Butterworth Bayley of Hope Hall, Lancs. (by his wife Mary, daughter of Vincent Leggatt of Tottenham) J.P., D.L., Sheriff of Lancs. 1768, F.R.S.—a man much interested in the improvement of prisons and in the abolition of the slave trade. Cornwall Bayley died Nov. 1807.

Allen, John Maxey: admitted 8 Jan. 1802.

Came into residence Jan. 1802; a fellow-commoner under Mess[rs] Hopkins and Browne. Resided till Lady Day 1805. Doubtless a descendant of Maxey Allen, son of Tho. Allen, Mayor of Lynn, by his wife Mary, daughter of John Maxey. Maxey Allen had sons John, born 1758, and Thomas, born 1761: and Thomas had sons of whom the eldest was John, who died childless. (Information from Rev. W. Maxey Allen, rector of Shouldham.) But neither of these Johns, even if he had the further name Maxey is suitable in time.

Lascelles, Robert: admitted 25 Feb. 1802. [Readmitted as Rev. Rob. Lascelles 8 Feb. 1830.]

Seems to have kept the Lent Term 1802 as a fellow-commoner: and his name is on the list till Mich. 1806 paying 10*s.* 6*d.* a quarter. I do not find him again on the list: but he is I suppose the Rob. Lascelles B.A. 1822; M.A. 1825: and readmitted (as above). Son of the Rev. Lascelles S. Lascelles, P.C. of Northallerton and Hunton (near Bedale), who died 1792. Married 1812 Hannah, daughter of Will. Barker of Cambridge (Ingledew, Northallerton, 316). Ordained ("late of Christ's," but no degree) Norwich, deacon 1816 June: priest, December. P.C. of Sand Hutton, Yorkshire, N.R. 20 May 1830: P.C. of Thirsk and of Carlton-Miniott 28 May 1830. Vicar of Chrishall, Essex 9 Mar. 1832, presented by the Bishop of London. Died s.p. 1 Aug. 1839, aged 60, at Cambridge at the house of his father-in-law, W. Barker, of Bene't street (Gent. Mag.).

Tufnel, William Bewley: admitted 17 March 1802.

In residence as pensioner under Mess[rs] Hopkins and Browne from Mich. 1802 to Lady Day 1803.

Entwisle, John: admitted 12 May 1802.

B.A. 1806 (after matriculating Apr. 1805); M.A. 1809. Admitted at Lincoln's Inn 4 Nov. 1805. Born 16 Aug. 1784, son of John Markland who changed his name to Entwisle in 1787 on succeeding his cousin Rob. Entwisle of Foxholes, and was Sheriff for Lancs. 1798. Married 1812 Ellen, daughter of Tho. Smith of Castleton Hall and had a son John Smith (1833) and two daughters. Of Foxholes, Lancs. Sheriff of Lancs. 1824, when "his departure for Lancaster was celebrated by a public procession and breakfast." M.P. for Rochdale 1835–7. Died 5 Apr. 1837. (Croston-Baines, 3. 42: Foster, Lancs. pedigrees.)

Bernal, Ralph: son of James: born at Colchester, "liberali indole et rara spe adolescens." Educated at Shacklewell by the Rev. Joh. Hewlett. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess[rs] Hopkins and Browne 22 June 1802. Age 17.

B.A. (11th wrangler) 1806; M.A. 1809. Admitted at Lincoln's Inn 13 June 1804. Married 10 April 1806 Anne Eliz., only daughter of Ri. Sam. White of New Ormond Street. "Politician and art collector, sprung from a race of Jewish descent and Spanish origin" (D.N.B.). Inherited a large property in the West Indies. M.P. for Lincoln 1818–20: for Rochester 1820–41: for Weymouth 1841–7; for Rochester again 1847–52. A prominent Whig: spoke on the slave-trade. President of the British Archaeological Society 1853. Had a great collection of glass, plate, china and miniatures—sold after his death for nearly £71,000. Died at Eaton Square 26 Aug. 1854.

Yates, Thomas: admitted 20 Oct. 1802.

Appears as a sizar under Mess[rs] Hopkins and Browne, paying 3*s.* 0*d.* a quarter, from Mich. 1802 to Christmas 1808.

Nelson, James Edmund Rose: [should be James Rose Edmund]. Admitted 15 Dec. 1802.

B.A. 1807. Admitted scholar (Norfolk) 14 Dec. 1803. Tancred Divinity Student 1803: vacated during tenure. Does not appear in any pedigree of the Burnham Nelsons, but stated in obituary (Gent. Mag. Aug. 1839) to have been son of Edmund Nelson who was cousin-german to the father of Horatio Nelson. His mother was Eliz. Forster Rose, of Hillington (ib.). Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1807 Sept.: licensed to Congham (near Lynn): priest, 1808 Dec. Rector of Congham St Mary and St Andrew, 8 Nov. 1811 [so Foster]. Died at Lincoln 1839, aged 55 (Gent. Mag.).

Loraine-Smith, Loraine: son of Charles Loraine, who was brother of Sir Will. Loraine, bart.: born at Enderby, Leics. School: Eton, under D[r] Heath. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Hopkins and Browne 31 Jan. 1803. Age 19.

LL.B. 1809. Born 20 Feb. 1784, second and only surviving son of Charles (born Loraine, who took the name Smith as a boy and was matriculated here as Cha. Smith 1768) by his wife Eliz. Skrine. Ordination as deacon not found: licensed to Borough Green, Cambs., 1813 Nov.: ordained priest, Ely, 1814 Nov. Rector of Passenham, Northants. 24 Nov. 1814. Married 17 Dec. 1818 his first cousin Isabella, daughter of Lambton Loraine (1769). A great fox-hunter. Succeeded his father 23 Aug. 1835, and sold Enderby Hall next year. Died 20 May 1857 and buried at Passenham.

Farbrace, George Henry Teale: admitted 1 Feb. 1803.

B.A. 1808; M.A. 1824. Admitted scholar (Kent) 14 Dec. 1803. Ordained deacon, Exeter, 1809 Apr.: licensed to Eythorn, Kent: priest (lit. dim. to Winchester) 28 May 1809. Rector of Eythorn, 26 May 1809, patron, Rob. Winthorpe, Esq.: held it till 1872.

*Shaw, Joseph: son of Edward, clerk: born at Barbon, Westmoreland. School: Loughborough, under his father. Admitted sizar under Mess[rs] Hopkins and Browne 1 Feb. 1803. Age 17.

B.A. (3rd sen. opt.) 1807; M.A. 1810; B.D. 1840. Admitted scholar 14 Dec. 1803. Tancred Divinity Student 1804. Fellow (succeeding J. B. Seale) 18 Apr. 1807. Ordained deacon, Peterborough, 1808 Apr. Curate of Fen Drayton 22 Dec. 1808–1816 (succeeding J. Doncaster). Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist 1808, 1811 (and also Steward), 1813. Senior Greek Lecturer and Mildmay Preacher 1814–16. Senior Dean 1816, 1829–40. Junior Proctor 1814. Senior Proctor 1815. Scrutator 1817. Tutor with Maul 1814 (when Kaye became Master) and sole Tutor Mich. 1814, being then 28, to Mids. 1828 when Graham succeeded. The College increased very considerably. The average number of men entered each year under him was 30: and he was a popular tutor who hunted and sometimes took his pupils with him—a fact which may have appealed to those who flocked to the University ("castris relictis") after the great war. Noblemen and fellow-commoners became numerous, especially about 1820: nearly five (on an average) were admitted in each of Shaw's years. On the other hand less than three sizars, on an average, were admitted: and the number was falling toward the end of his time, approximating to the four (in all) of later days. In the whole time only 49 of those entered under him took Honours, of whom 12 belong to the three years when he had ceased to be Tutor. Only three sat for the Classical Tripos. The Admission Book was indifferently kept: for this the several Praelectors were directly responsible: but the influence of an active Tutor was generally felt in this respect. If somewhat easy-going he was a gentleman, and did his duty according to his lights. He was supposed to be "an insatiable devourer of the novels in the University Library, and to have a very quick and true ear for music." (E.T.V. in College Magazine, Mich. 1893.) He was a Liberal in University and College politics, and supported D^{r} Graham, the Master, in 1838, in an attempt to obtain new statutes for the College. But, like Graham, he was perhaps hardly energetic enough for such a work. He made some money. In 1835 he gave £50 to the University Library Fund: he also gave lands at Willingham to Addenbrooke's Hospital. In 1833 when the College was in difficulties he lent it £1000 at 4 %, repaid 1851. He left it by will £3000: and gave £200 to the buildings in the Second Court in 1823. When he had long retired from any College work save that of Senior Dean, in 1849, the Mastership became vacant by the preferment of D^{r} Graham. The choice seemed to lie between Ja. Cartmell and Ja. Hildyard, unless Ed. Mortlock were brought back from Moulton. The only person on whom the Society, much divided in politics, could agree was Shaw. On Jan. 12 he was elected Master. On Feb. 2 he resigned and returned to the Combination-room which had been his home for 42 years, becoming again (as with the consent of the Society he could by statute) Senior Fellow. More strangely in 1852, when he was 66 years old, he accepted the living of Kegworth, vacant by the death of Peter Fraser, to which he was presented 9 Nov. and was duly instituted and inducted. On 1 Feb. 1853 he resigned it and became again by the consent of the Society Senior Fellow, but with no right to claim any other living. During the next six years he was a viligant guardian of the grass in the College garden. He died 1 June 1859, aged 73, in his rooms (Staircase B, first floor, S.E. end of the building), and was buried in the ante-chapel. Daguerreotype portrait in the Combination-room.

Mortlock, Edmund Davy: son of John: born in Cambridge. School: Bury, under Mich. Becher. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Hopkins and Browne 12 Oct. 1803. Age 17.

B.A. (14th wrangler) 1808; M.A. 1811; B.D. 1840. Admitted scholar 1804. Licensed to Pampisford 1810 Dec.: and ordained priest, Ely, 1811 Sept. Elected Fellow (Finch and Baines), succeeding J. Kaye, 5 June 1811; Lady Marg^{t}., succeeding W. Spry, 28 Oct. 1812. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, and Steward 1812. Resided till 1814: then, or a little later, became tutor to the Hon. Dudley Coutts Stuart, son of the Marquis of Bute, who was admitted here 1820 when Mortlock also returned. Mildmay Preacher 1820–2. He held no other office: and signs rarely at meetings—never (I think) between Oct. 1826 and 1832 when he reappears and again signs occasionally. On 30 Jan. 1835 he became vicar of Great Abington. In 1835 he gave £50 to the University Library Fund. In 1839 he was Steward—a post which implies residence: but that would not interfere with his parish duties: from that date he signs regularly. Senior Dean 1840, 1843. Scrutator 1845. For his opposition to all change in the statutes and government of the College see under

John Graham p. 369. Presented to Moulton on the death of M^r^ Greenall 22 Oct. 1845: five College Orders on the same day, with five sets of (varying) signatures, relate to the presentation to a lease of the College Farm and to matters connected with farm-buildings, Mess^rs^ Hildyard and Bates declining to sign the third and fifth. On 27 Nov. 1846 his Fellowship was declared vacant. He was 59 when he took Moulton—but he had 28 years of work still before him. He did much for the village, building a school, and rebuilding the rectory house, and laying out the garden with great skill. He died at Moulton 30 May 1873, aged 86. He was a man of high principle and character, and respected even by his opponents in College.

Merry, John: admitted pensioner 27 Oct. 1803.

B.A. (2nd jun. opt.) 1808. Admitted scholar (Yorks.) 14 Dec. 1803. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1808 March; licensed to Croft, Lincs.: priest, Peterborough (lit. dim. from Lincoln), 1809 March. Curate of Rawdon, Yorks. 1810–13. Married Eliza Scott, 1 May 1811. Rector of Newbiggin, Westmoreland 19 May 1813. Died 25 Aug. 1831, aged 48 (Davy). Memoir by his son, 1833 (Hatchard).

Bromehead, Alexander Crawford: admitted pensioner 8 Nov. 1803.

B.A. (8th jun. opt.) 1807; M.A. 1818. Admitted scholar (K. Edw. VI) 14 Dec. 1803. He was curate of Eckington, Derbs. in 1841 (Clergy List)—a large parish with a wealthy rector. P.C. of Ridgeway near Eckington 1845, patron, the rector: remained there till 1868 [?]. Was living at Newbold near Chesterfield in 1870.

Hempsted [or Hemsted], John: admitted sizar 27 Jan. 1804.

Matriculated 1806 May. Apparently a pensioner after Mich. 1805. Admitted scholar (Cambs.) 22 May 1806. Disappears after Mich. 1807. A Joh. Hemsted was B.A. (St John's) 1810; M.A. 1814.

Leathes, John Francis: son of George [in a different hand]. Admitted sizar 20 March 1804 [but pays Study-rent as a pensioner].

B.A. (John Leathes) (5th jun. opt.) 1808; M.A. (John Francis Leathes) 1811. Second son of Geo. Leathes of Bury St Edmunds (a major of dragoons who served in the German war 1760–3), by his wife Mary Moore (Burke, L.G.). Of Herringfleet Hall and Needham, by the death of his elder brother in 1808. Died without issue 8 Sept. 1848, aged 60. Brother of Edward (1815).

Buck, John: son of Charles: born at North Walsham. Educated by the Rev. Ja. Buck, uncle [probably, Fellow of Caius, then rector of Lavenham]. Admitted sizar under Mess^rs^ Hopkins and Browne 27 June 1804. Age 17.

B.A. (8th sen. opt.) 1808; M.A. 1811. Tancred Student June 1804. Admitted scholar 5 Dec. 1804. Elected Fellow (Finch and Baines) 31 Oct. 1812, succeeding Edm. Mortlock: Lady Marg., succeeding T. Toke 3 Aug. 1814: the facts of this election are curious and recorded in John Kaye's handwriting: "The names of M^r^ Buck M^r^ Philpot and M^r^ Skeeles were delivered to D^r^ Browne by Mess^rs^ Kaye and Mortlock. On the day of Election D^r^ Browne enquired of M^r^ Buck whether he had withdrawn his Petition to the Visitor, and on his replying in the negative said that he could not consider him a suitable Candidate and tore his name from the Paper. The Fellows elected M^r^ Buck: D^r^ Browne declared that no Election had taken place; whereupon M^r^ Maul, the Senior Scrutineer, declared M^r^ Buck duly elected. D^r^ Browne wrote a statement of the circumstances to the Visitor [D^r^ Chafy] who decided that M^r^ Buck, having never been otherwise than a Finch Fellow, was statutably nominated, and authorised his admission in pursuance of the Election of Aug. 3." On Aug. 25 D^r^ Browne was ejected from the Mastership, and M^r^ Buck was admitted by D^r^ Kaye on Sept. 5. He had been previously elected on Feb. 15 in place of Geo. Davys. D[r] Browne refused to admit him. He petitioned—this is the petition referred to above—but the V.C. dismissed the petition. See under Jos. Cook, p. 367.

Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1809 May: curate of Chelsworth, Suff. 1809 Dec.: priest, 1811 June. Mildmay Preacher 1823—one year only: as he had no other office, and this one did not imply residence, it may be assumed that he did not reside, though he signs occasionally. He held no benefice. He was at Ipswich in 1829. Foster (Index Eccl.) gives one John Buck chaplain of Liverpool gaol 2 Mar. 1838. But our man died at Ipswich in that year. Having left his house to take his usual walk he was found two days later, drowned in a pond (Gent. Mag. 1838 (2), 104).

Crofts, Daniel: son of Peter Guerin: born at Lewes. School: Kimbolton, under the Rev. Joh. Thompson. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Hopkins and Browne 2 Nov. 1804. Age 24.

B.A. 1809; M.A. 1813. Came into residence Jan. 1805, but not matriculated till May 1806. Admitted scholar 22 May 1806. He was readmitted 11 June 1813. One of these names rector of Shelton, Beds. 14 June 1813–1866 [?].

Thurlow, Edward John: admitted 29 Nov. 1804.

In Study-rents, paying 3*s.* 0*d.* a quarter (? as sizar or non-resident), till Mich. 1805. Perhaps LL.B. (St John's) 1812 (Edw. Thurlow). Probably eldest son of Edw. South Thurlow, preb[y]. of Norwich, nephew of Tho. Thurlow, D.D., Bishop of Lincoln and of Durham. Edw. Thurlow was rector of Lound, Suffolk 20 Dec. 1816–59: of Haskeby (or Ashby) 5 July 1817–59: of Langham 7 Oct. 1824–52 [?], patron, the Crown.

Tripp, James: son of James Upton: born at Petworth, Sussex. School: Bingley, under D[r] Hartley, "doctissimus." Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Hopkins and Browne 4 Dec. 1804. Age 18.

B.A. 1810. Admitted scholar 22 May 1806. Of a Somerset family by the father's side: his mother was a Miss Edsaw of Fittleworth, Sussex (Burke, L.G. 2. 1412): but his uncle, D[r] Tripp, was rector of Spofforth, Yorks. Rector of Up Waltham, near Petworth, 25 Sept. 1813–1838 or later, patron, the Earl of Egremont. Rector of Kirkby Overblow, near Spofforth, 1 Aug. 1840. Rector of Spofforth 1847. Died there 8 Nov. 1879.

Thomlinson, Robert:

Matriculated 1804 Dec. B.A. 1807. Probably son of Robert (1758) and Alice Thomlinson. The father was vicar of Cley-next-the-Sea, Norfolk. Died 22 Feb. 1809, aged 22, and buried at Cley.

Fletcher, Lloyd:

Matriculated pensioner 1804 Dec. B.A. 1810. Ordained priest, Chester, 1811 Nov. Licensed to cure of Overton, parish of Bangor, co. Flint. Gone before 1835.

Clarke, Nathaniel Richard:

B.A. (Trin.) (11th wrangler) 1808; M.A. (Christ's) 1811. Elected Fellow (as a Derbyshire man) in place of Thomas Browne, just become Master, 9 Mar. 1808. Son of Nat. Gooding Clarke of Handsworth, K.C., and of Constance Holden, widow of J. S. Holden of Aston. He signs last 29 Oct. 1809: his Fellowship was vacant 20 May 1810 and declared vacant 2 June 1810. Of Handsworth, Staffs.: serjeant-at-law 1843. Judge under Small Debts Act for Dudley and Wolverhampton 1847. J.P. and D.L. for Stafford, Derby and Warwick. Recorder of Lincoln, Northampton, Newark and Walsall. Married 1814 Mary Garnett of Nantwich, and had issue six sons and two daughters (Burke, L.G.).

The motive for this election from outside does not appear: unless it were to keep a place for a northern candidate: see under Tho. Bradburne (page 349). It was followed in three months by the election of another outsider, W. J. Atkinson, to whom the new Master had grounds for doing a service.

Biedermann, George Augustus: son of Henry Augustus: born at Woodbastwick, Norfolk. School: Doughton, near Tetbury, Glos., under the Rev. M^{r} Everett. Admitted (after keeping 15 terms at Univ. Coll., Oxford) a fellow-commoner under Mess^{rs} Hopkins and Browne 12 March 1805. Age 22.

B.A. 1806; M.A. 1809. Rector of Llanvihangel and of Flemington, Glamorgan 7 July 1818. Also rector of Dauntsey, Wilts. 24 Mar. 1829. Living at Malmesbury 1833 when his son Will. Hen. Biedermann was admitted at Pemb. Coll., Oxford. Both livings vacant 1859.

Apsey, William: son of William Apsey, tradesman, of High Street, Ely. School: Bury St Edmunds, under M^{r} M. T. Becher. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Hopkins and Browne 11 Apr. 1805. Age 18.

B.A. 1810; M.A. 1813. Died 1846 May, and buried in S^{t} Mary's churchyard, Ely.

Nelson, Horatio: son of William, D.D., brother of Lord Nelson: born at Hillborough, Norfolk. School: Eton, under D^{r} Heath. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Hopkins and Browne 3 June 1805. Born 26 Oct. 1788.

Viscount Trafalgar; only son of Will. (adm. 1774) second Baron and first Earl Nelson, rector of Hillborough 1797, by his wife Sarah, daughter of Henry Yonge, vicar of Great Torrington, Devon. Appears in Study-rents till Lady Day 1806 but only charged 3*s.* 0*d.* a quarter, as though he were not resident. Went with Admiral Russell to the Texel 1806. Died in London of typhus fever, 17 Jan. 1808, aged 19. See eulogium by Edm. Outram, Public Orator, in Gent. Mag. for March 1808.

Croft, Samuel: son of Stephen: born at York. School: Eton, under D^{r} Heath. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess^{rs} Hopkins and Browne 22 June 1805. Age 19.

Younger son of Stephen Croft of Stillington Hall, near York, and of Frances Clarke of Askham Bryan. Not given in Burke, L.G. Went to India, and died young through a fall from his horse (Stapylton).

Owen, Charles: son of Samuel Nicholson: born at Bromfield, Essex. School: Chelmsford ("Caesaromagi"), under M^{r} J. Roberts. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Hopkins and Browne 27 June 1805. Age 18.

B.A. 1809; M.A. 1812. Admitted scholar 22 May 1806. Ordained deacon, Salisbury (lit. dim. from Lambeth), 21 Dec. 1809. Appointed 1809 Dec. P.C. of Latchington, Essex—a peculiar of the Archbishop—which he held for 35 years. Died there 2 Apr. 1845, aged 58 (Davy).

Rice, Henry:

Appears as a fellow-commoner under Mess^{rs} Hopkins and Browne from Mich. 1805 to Mich. 1807, always charged 3*s.* 0*d.* a quarter. He is not the Hen. Rice admitted 1796—who appears beside him in Study-rents. Though neither of the two is found in the Graduati, I think one must be the Hen. Rice who changed from B.A. to M.A. in 1803–5, see under first Hen. Rice (1796) at page 342.

Crosse, Richard: admitted pensioner 18 Oct. 1805.

B.A. 1809.

Poynder, Henry: admitted pensioner 16 Dec. 1805.

B.A. 1811; M.A. 1818. Admitted scholar (Midds.) 10 Mar. 1808. Ordained deacon, London, 1811 March: priest, 1812 Feb. Rector of Horne, Surrey 23 Dec. 1818—a family-living. Gone in 1867.

Rowlatt, Charles Robert:

Matriculated pensioner 6 Apr. 1805. B.A. 1807; M.A. 1810. Ordained deacon, Peterborough, 1807 June probably by lit. dim. from Ely: licensed to cure at Weston Colville (Ely diocese) 1807 April; priest, Norwich (at request of Bp. of Ely), 1808 June. Rector of North Benfleet, Essex 20 Feb. 1839–63.

Anlezark, Robert: admitted fellow-commoner 19 Feb. 1806.

B.A. 1809; M.A. 1812. Born 1761, therefore in his 45th year at least on admission. Minister of the Congregationalist Chapel at Stockport 1793–1801 (Urwick, Cheshire, 303). Married Mary, daughter of D[r] Joh. Warren, Archdeacon of Worcester. P.C. of Castle Church, Stafford 13 Oct. 1820: of St Chad's [?] 1816: held both till his death 24 Nov. 1845, aged 83 (Davy). His second wife Beatrice died 12 June 1855, aged 65. The rebuilding of the nave and chancel of Castle Church was completed in the year of his death—architect, Sir G. Gilbert Scott. Tradition states that, the pulpit being lighted with candles, he would say: "Now, brethren, you may meditate while I snuff the candles." A man of great stature and bulk—said to have been able to eat a leg of mutton at a sitting. (Rev. M. Scott, of Christ's College, vicar of Castle Church.)

Paul, William Christopher: son of William: born in Yorks. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Hopkins and Browne, after keeping eight terms at St John's, 2 Apr. 1806.

B.A. 1808. He was born at Scarborough, and educated at Thornton, Yorks., by M[r] Mackareth. Was admitted at St John's in 1803 a sizar under Mess[rs] Wood and J. Smith.

Harrison, Robert Bickerstaff: son of John: born at Poulton, Lancs. School: Louth, under D[r] Orme. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Hopkins and Browne 19 Apr. 1806. Age 19.

B.A. 1810. Admitted scholar 5 Mar. 1807. Died at Horncastle 10 April 1810, aged 23. (Gent. Mag. 496.)

Hayes, Adam: son of James: born at Wavertree, Lancs. School: Scorton, Yorks., under Rev. Will. Bowe. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Hopkins and Browne 23 Apr. 1806. Age 19.

B.A. 1810; M.A. 1814. Admitted scholar 5 March 1807. Ordained deacon, Chester, 1810 Sept.: priest, 1811 Sept.: licensed to West Derby, Liverpool. Never beneficed.

Fisher, John: son of Philip, D.D., Master of the Charterhouse: born at Brentford. School: Charterhouse, under M[r] Raine. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Browne and Maul 9 June 1806. Age 19.

B.A. (12th jun. opt.) 1810; M.A. 1813. Tancred Student June 1806. Admitted scholar (Midds.) 5 Mar. 1807. Ordained deacon, Salisbury, 1811 July: priest, 1812 May. Nephew of the Bishop. Prebendary of Salisbury (while still B.A., Le Neve, 2. 683) 1812–19; installed 20 June; and in the same year rector of Idmiston, Wilts., worth about £250. On 29 May 1813 had license (John Fisher, M.A. of Christ's) to hold also the vicarage of Osmington with Ringstead Chapel, Dorset, worth £170, distant not more than 30 miles. On 8 Dec. 1816 had license to hold with Osmington (worth £250 [sic]) the rectory of Winfrith Newburgh with West Lulworth, worth £380, and contiguous. On 26 Apr. 1819 had license to hold with Osmington the vicarage of Gillingham, Dorset, worth £1000, distant not more than 30 miles. Collated to the prebend of Fordington, Salisbury 31 Mar. 1819. Held the prebend, also Osmington and Gillingham till his death 24 Aug. 1832 (Foster, Al. Ox. 464 makes this man of Univ., Oxford: but the evidence of Le Neve and *Lambeth Reg*r. is conclusive against him).

Forrester, Richard Forrester French: M.B. of Trin. Hall, admitted pensioner under Messrs Browne and Maul 12 June 1806.

Ri. Forrester French was M.B. (Trin. Hall) 1792. Born 1771, son of Ri. French, Captn. of the Horse Guards, by his wife Millicent Mundy of Markeaton, Derby. Captn. French took the name of Forrester under the will of a relative. He was of Abbots Hill, Derby and of Broadfield Hall, Herts.; D.L. for Derbs. Perhaps the son put his name on the Boards of the College to take the M.D. degree, but for some cause did not do so. He had the credit of such a degree if he be the Ri. Forrester Forrester M.D. a trustee and consulting physician of the General Infirmary, Derby in 1833. (Glover, Derbs. 2. 508.) He was never married.

Courtenay, Kenneth: LL.B. of Trinity Hall. Admitted pensioner under Messrs Browne and Maul 12 June 1806.

LL.B. (Trin. H.) 1798; LL.D. (Christ's) 1806. Mentioned by Gunning (2. 155) as "my friend K.C. of Trinity Hall," and as one who "prided himself on his ancestry": but he does not appear in Burke in the pedigree of the Courtenays of Devon.

Neilson, John: admitted 30 June 1806.

Appears in Study-rents from Mich. 1806 to Xmas 1812, charged 3*s.* 0*d.* each quarter. Probably never resided. Possibly the John Neilson, son of John, of Bristol city, gent., who matriculated at St Edmund Hall, Oxford 11 Oct. 1809, aged 22: B.A. 1813; M.A. 1816.

Gordon, William:

Matricd. 1806. B.A. 1808. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1809 May; licensed to Shottisham St Mary: priest, 1810 July: curate of Caistor St Edmund. One of these names rector of Newtimber, Sussex 11 July 1833–46. One (B.A.) —perhaps the same—rector of Spaxton, Somerset 18 Oct. 1820: gone in or before 1833.

Robinson, John: admitted sizar under Messrs Browne and Maul 1 Jan. 1807.

Born at Temple Sowerby, Westmoreland, 4 Jan. 1774. School: Penrith. Master of the Grammar school, Ravenstonedale, 1795–1818. Probably he placed his name on the boards with the intention of taking a B.D. as a ten year man: his name appears from Lady Day 1807 to Lady Day 1812 only. P.C. of Ravenstonedale 25 June 1813–33. Rector of Clifton, Westmd. 31 July 1818; and of Cliburn 12 Aug. 1833—both of which he held till his death 4 Dec. 1840. An industrious compiler of scholastic books, on the title page of which he describes himself after 1807 as of Christ's College, and from 1815 as D.D. (? Lambeth). Author: Easy Grammar of History, Ancient and Modern, 1806: Modern History for the use of Schools, 1807: Archaeologia Graeca, 1807: Theological, Biblical and Ecclesiastical Dictionary, 1815 (went through three editions): Ancient History (expanded from the Easy Grammar), 1831: Universal Modern History, 1839. He also wrote a Guide to the Lakes, 1819: and the letterpress to a series of Views of the Lakes in the North of England, 1833 (unfinished). (D.N.B.)

Wortham, Arthur: son of Hale Young: born at Aspeden, Herts. School: Buntingford, under Rev. Sam. Dawe. Admitted pensioner under Messrs Browne and Maul 26 Feb. 1807. Age 16.

B.A. 1811. Admitted scholar 5 Mar. 1807. Hale Young Wortham of Aspeden was Gentleman Usher to George III; and D. Col. of the Herts. Militia: he married Anne Proctor of Bengeo Hall, Herts. His second son Arthur was in the East India Company's Service: and died unmarried in India (Cussans, Herts.).

Haggitt, George John: son of George, clerk: born at Mileham, Norfolk. School: Bury, under M^r^ Becher. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Browne and Maul 19 June 1807. Born in 1790.

B.A. (2nd sen. opt.) 1811; M.A. 1814. Tancred Student June 1807. Admitted scholar 10 Mar. 1808. His father was Geo. Haggit, B.A. 1779 and Fellow of Clare. Elected Fellow (Finch and Baines), succeeding Peter Fraser, 12 Nov. 1813: K. Edw. VI, succeeding D^r^ Fisher, 13 Sept. 1814. Ordained priest, Ely, 1814 Sept.: evening lecturer and curate of Gt St Andrew's. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, and Steward 1814. Taxor 1816. On 27 Nov. 1817 he lent the College on bond £2000: this was repaid Lady Day 1825. In 1824 interest appears on a second bond for £1000: this was repaid 1828. Vicar of Parham with Hacheston, Suffolk 14 Oct. 1818: about the same time he married Harriet, daughter of Rob. Porteus (1786), nephew of Bishop Porteus, which vacated his Fellowship on 4 Nov. 1818. In the same year he was lecturer at St James', Bury St Edmunds. On 2 Jan. 1838 rector also of Hawkedon, nine miles from Bury. All these vacant together in 1847 when he died on March 1, aged 56.

Clough, Howell Powell: son of Thomas: born at Denbigh. School: Ruthin, under M^r^ Hughes. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Browne and Maul 20 June 1807. Age 18.

Resided till Lady Day 1809. Admitted scholar 10 Mar. 1808. Tho. Clough was rector of Denbigh and canon of St Asaph: he married Dorothea Lloyd of Hafodûnas, Denbigh. Howell was their second son. He married Barbara Westropp of Limerick. Nephew of Powell Clough (1758) and first cousin of Cha. Butler Clough (1810). (Burke, L.G. 251, ed^n^. 1871.)

Bates, Charles Cecil: son of Joah: born at St Andrew's, Holborn. School: Greenwich, under Rev. G. Mathews. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Browne and Maul 21 June 1807. Age not given.

B.A. 1812; M.A. 1815. Admitted scholar (K. Edw. VI) 30 Nov. 1809, having come into residence at Mich. 1808. Tancred Student Feb. 1811: resigned before term of studentship. Son of Joah Bates (admitted 1759, afterwards of King's). Licensed to Willington, Beds. (stipend £100) 1815 May: ordained priest, Ely, 1816 March. Vicar of Castleton in the Peak, Derbs. 27 March 1818 till 1853, when he died. M.I. in Castleton church, which states that he repaired the church, recast the lead, and built a new porch and buttresses. (Cox, Derbs. Churches, 2. 130.)

Griffith, Robert: admitted pensioner under Mess^rs^ Browne and Maul 25 June 1807.

In Study-rents for two quarters (3*s.* 0*d.* each): probably never resided.

Brown, Alexander: M.A. of St John's: admitted again under Mess^rs^ Browne and Maul 7 July 1807.

B.A. (St John's) 1803; M.A. 1807. Admitted here 27 Dec. 1797.

Allanson, Thomas: son of William: born at Brompton, Yorks. Admitted sizar under Mess^rs^ Browne and Maul 7 July 1807. Age 32.

B.A. 1811. Admitted scholar 10 March 1808. Ordained deacon, Peterborough, 1811 June: priest, 1812 May. Probably the Tho. Allanson who died at Great Gidding, Hunts. (where he was probably curate) in 1820, aged 44

(Davy). But another of the same names was P.C. of Dishforth, Yorks. 1818 and vicar of Kirby on the Moor, near Boroughbridge 1838.

Beetham, John Tidy: son of William, clerk: born at Bunny, Notts. Educated at home by his father. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Browne and Maul 3 Sept. 1807. Age not given.

B.A. 1812. Came into residence Mich. 1808. Admitted scholar 30 Nov. 1809. Vicar of Bunny, May 1823. Died there 10 March 1864.

Law, James Thomas: son of George, D.D.: born at Carlisle. School: Greenwich, under D[r] Cha. Burney. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Browne and Maul 14 Nov. 1807. Age not given.

B.A. (2nd sen. opt.) 1812; M.A. 1815. Came into residence Mich. 1808. Admitted scholar 30 Nov. 1809. Born 1790; eldest son of George Law of Queens', Bishop of Chester and of Bath and Wells, grandson of Edmund Law, Fellow of Christ's and Bishop of Carlisle. Ordained deacon, Chester, 1814 Sept.: priest, Dec[r]. Elected Fellow (Finch and Baines), succeeding John Buck, 10 Sept. 1814: fellowship declared vacant 22 Mar. 1817. Vicar of Bowdon, Cheshire (worth £250) 22 July 1815–21. King's Preacher, Lancs. 1818–21. Had dispensation 7 Feb. 1816 to hold also the rectory of Tattenhall (worth £500) distant 25 miles: and on 14 Jan. 1818 to hold with Bowdon the vicarage of Childwall, Lancs., worth £300, not more than 30 miles. Prebendary of Chester 9 Apr. 1818–28: prebendary of Lichfield 18 July 1818. In 1820 (Dec. 16) he married Henrietta Charlotte, daughter of the Earl of Stamford and Warrington. Chancellor of Lichfield Feb. 1821; and Master of St John's Hospital. Commissary of Richmond. Much interested in the Birmingham School of Medicine (Hon. Warden 1846): also in the Theological College, Lichfield. Died at Lichfield 22 Feb. 1876.

Author: The Poor Man's Garden, 1833: Acts for building Churches in populous parishes, 1841: Ecclesiastical Statutes at Large, 5 vols. 1847: Lectures on Ecclesiastical Law, 1861: Materials for a brief history of Queen's College, Birmingham, 1869: &c., &c.

Slinger, Matthew: son of Robert: born in Liverpool. School: Kirkby Lonsdale, under M[r] Dobson. Admitted sizar under Mess[rs] Browne and Maul 3 Dec. 1807. Age 21.

B.A. 1812. Came into residence Jan. 1808, apparently as a pensioner. Admitted scholar 10 Mar. 1808. In Holy Orders: but not beneficed and does not appear in any Clergy list, 1841 or later. Described as of Buckden, Yorks. Died at Cheltenham 10 March 1875, aged 88 (J.E.B.M.).

Skeeles, George John: son of William Drury: born at Peterborough. School: Rugby, under D[r] Ingles. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Browne and Maul 30 Jan. 1808. Age 19.

B.A. (7th jun. opt.) 1813. Came into residence Oct. 1809. Admitted scholar 6 June 1810. Bell Scholar 1810. His father was a Fellow of Pembroke 1779, rector of Polebrook till his death, 1800, and canon of Peterborough. The son was ordained deacon, Ely (lit. dim. from Norwich), 1813 March: priest, Norwich, 1813 Dec.; licensed to Great Saxham. Curate of Denham, near Higham 14 Jan. 1814: then of Horringer: of Great Saxham (again) 25 Nov. 1829: of Risby (contiguous) 22 Mar. 1823. Rector of Kirkby Underwood, Lincs. 2 Aug. 1831–33: of Cranwell 24 Sept. 1833. Died Dec. 1833, and buried in Bury churchyard (S.H.A.H.).

Wollaston, John Ramsden: son of Edward, clerk. Born at Charterhouse. School: Charterhouse, under D[r] Raine. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Mau and Kaye 1 March 1808. Age not given.

B.A. (5th jun. opt.) 1812; M.A. 1815. Admitted scholar 30 Nov. 1809. His father was "usher" of the Charterhouse and vicar of Balsham. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1814 March: priest, Exeter, 1815 May. Perhaps vicar of Elsenham, Essex 9 Aug. 1815–1818. Curate of Wrotham, Kent 9 May 1816; to receive £80 a year with use of vicarage house, garden and offices from Geo. Moore, the rector (Lambeth Reg^r.). P.C. of West Wickham, Cambs. 2 Apr. 1825–1842. Archdeacon of Albany, Western Australia 1850–1859.

Philpot, Benjamin: son of Benjamin: born at Laxfield, Suffolk. Admitted pensioner under Mess^rs Maul and Kaye 18 March 1808. Age not given.

B.A. (9th sen. opt.) 1812; M.A. 1815. Admitted scholar 30 Nov. 1809. Elected Fellow (succeeding John Kaye) 10 Sept. 1814. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1815 July: priest, 1817. Resided till June 1815. Lent the college in 1815 £2000: repaid Mich. 1823. Fellowship declared vacant 12 Oct. 1816. P.C. of Walpole St Mary, Suffolk 21 July 1817–1832. Archdeacon of Sodor and Man 1832–39. Rector of Great Cressingham, Norfolk 16 Aug. 1839–59. Vicar of Lydney, Glos. 1859–71. Rector of Dennington, Suffolk (patron, Lord Stradbrooke), 5 May 1871–8. Lived afterwards at Surbiton: and died there 1889. Author: Lectures on Ruth, 1854: Nine lectures on Prophecy, &c.

Jos. Shaw used to tell a story of the time of "the captivity," how D^r Browne, the Master, endeavoured to eject Philpot from his Fellowship by calling a College meeting suddenly when Philpot was absent in Suffolk and so could not be present: how a friend sent him a warning, and how he rode all through the night to Cambridge, arriving in time, to the Master's discomfiture. But, unhappily, he was elected a Fellow under D^r Kaye.

Armstrong, Matthew: admitted pensioner under Mess^rs Maul and Kaye 18 May 1808. Age not given. Came into residence Mich. 1808: resided one term, and probably migrated to Queens' where one of these names was B.A. 1813; M.A. 1817. Possibly the Matt. Armstrong ordained (no degree or College given) priest, Lambeth, 1811 March: licensed to the cure of Waldershare and Whitfield, Kent 18 Nov. 1818, to receive £50 for each and surplice fees. It is difficult to keep this Matthew clear from another, also beneficed in Kent, B.A. of Wadham 1779, and ordained deacon, Oxford, 1780: who became curate of St James', Dover, and of Hougham 12 May 1811 (Lambeth Reg^r.).

Finch-Hatton, George William: eldest son of George: born at Kirkby, Northants. School: Westminster, under D^r Carey. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess^rs Maul and Kaye 1 July 1808. Age 17.

B.A. 1812. Born 22 May 1791. Eldest son of Geo. Finch-Hatton (1764) of Eastwell Park, Kent, by his wife Eliz., daughter of David, second Earl of Mansfield: and grandson of Edward Finch, afterwards Finch-Hatton, Fellow 1728–46, fifth son of Dan., Earl of Nottingham. Married 1814 Georgiana, daughter of James, Duke of Montrose. D.L. for Kent, 1820. On 2 Aug. 1826 by the death of his cousin, Geo. Finch, he became 10th Earl of Winchelsea and sixth Earl of Nottingham. A rabid Protestant: opposed the Catholic Relief Bill of 1829, and charged the Duke of Wellington, in a letter, with the intention of "introducing popery into every department of the state": the result was a duel 21 March, in which the Duke fired and missed, and Lord Winchelsea fired in the air and apologised for his language. His intemperate language prevented him from becoming a leader in evangelical politics. Strongly opposed the Reform Bill and most liberal measures: for which Oxford made him a D.C.L. 1834. Died at Haverholme Priory, near Sleaford, 8 Jan. 1858—where his first wife died in 1835. (Gent. Mag. 1858, 211. D.N.B.)

Betty, William Henry West: son of William Henry: born at Shrewsbury. Admitted "post permagnam famam in scenicis partam," fellow-commoner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 5 July 1808. Age 17.

Generally called West-Betty. Born 13 Sept. 1791, son of Will. Hen. of Shrewsbury: his mother was a daughter of James Staunton of Hopton Court, by whom he was trained from infancy. First appeared on the stage in Belfast (his father had become a farmer in co. Down) 19 Aug. 1803: then at Dublin: in 1804 at Glasgow, Edinburgh, Birmingham and finally in London. During the next four years he appeared at London and in the provinces, everywhere received with unbounded enthusiasm. Numerous verses on the "Young Roscius" appear in the Gent. Magazine. On 26 April 1808 he retired from the stage having already acquired a considerable fortune. He was then prepared for the University by M[r] Wollaston of the Charterhouse, and probably came to Christ's, together with Wollaston's son, John Ramsden Wollaston (see above). Resided till Xmas 1810, when he left Cambridge: not (D.N.B.) owing to his father's death in June 1811. Reappeared on the stage 1812 and acted with much less acceptance than before till 9 Aug. 1824, when he finally retired at the age of less than 33 to enjoy the ample fortune which he had made. After 50 uneventful years he died 24 Aug. 1874, aged 82. Portrait (engraved) in the Combination-room.

The following is a fair specimen of the poetic outbursts in the Gentleman's Magazine. Roscius (the ancient) speaks:

> A youth by name West Henry Betty called
> My peaceful rest has in the grave appalled—
> His action elegant, his diction fine,
> His manners easy, and his form benign.
> O dangerous rival, why my spirit haunt?
> Gods! shall a Briton thus my name supplant?

and much more of the same sort.

Proctor, Thomas Beauchamp: son of Sir Thomas Beauchamp: born at Langley, Norfolk. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 6 July 1808. Age not given.

B.A. 1813; M.A. 1820. This must be Tho. Will. Hen. Beauchamp Proctor, born 1790: fourth son of Sir Thomas (1773): but he (and others of his family) must have dropped the name Proctor which his grandfather, Will. Beauchamp of Langley, assumed. Tho. Will. Hen. Beauchamp was ordained deacon, Norwich, 1813 June. In 1813 and up to May 1814 Tho. Beauchamp signed the register as curate of Fen Drayton. On 11 Nov. 1814 he became rector of Buckenham, and held it till his death 9 May 1863, aged 72. His merits are set forth on a M.I. in Buckenham Church, where he is called T.W. H. Beauchamp Proctor. According to Foster he was also rector of Chedgrave (contiguous) 13 Jan. 1817 (which he must have resigned in favour of his nephew Will. Hen. Beauchamp, admitted 1836), and also 6 March 1838 rector of Carleton St Peter, contiguous to Langley. But the history is not clear, owing to the variation of names.

Jenkinson, William: clerk: M.A. of St Catharine's Hall. Admitted under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 18 July 1808. B.A. (Cath.) 1798; M.A. 1801. Fellow of Cath. Hall.

Appears in Study-rents till Mids. 1812, charged 3*s.* 0*d.* each quarter. Why he came—in the same year with Will. Atkinson (see below)—does not appear.

Cox, John: son of Charles William: born at Kingston-on-Thames. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 29 Oct. 1808. Age 18.

B.A. (8th jun. opt.) 1813; M.A. 1816. Came into residence Mich. 1809. Admitted scholar 6 June 1810. Licensed to cure of Great and Little Abington 1815 May, stipend £60: ordained priest, Ely, 1817 Sept. Probably rector of Otton Belchamp, near Clare, 26 May 1820: where he signed last 8 Jan. 1834: from 1827 he was also curate of Poslingford, near Clare: to which he was instituted vicar 23 Aug. 1833 on the presentation of Col. Tho. Weston and wife: he had a curate there, and was probably non-resident. Probably he is the man who was instituted to the rectory of Fairsted near Witham 13 Jan. 1837 (in which year his last signature at Poslingford occurs): held it till 1863.

Thompson, John: M.A. of Sidney. Admitted under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 1 Nov. 1808.

B.A. (Sidney) 1802; M.A. 1806. He was second son of Francis Thomson (so in Sidney Admission-book) of Stanwick, Yorks., born 28 May 1779: educated for eight years at Harforth under Matt. Raine: admitted sizar at Sidney 23 Dec. 1797. One Joh. Thompson ordained deacon, Wells, 1803 May: priest, Rochester, 1804 Dec.: vicar of Meopham (a peculiar of the Archbishop) 25 May 1816, probably till 1854.

Stuart, John Crichton, Earl of Dumfries: grandson of the Marquis of Bute, eldest son of John Stuart. Educated at Eton, under D[r] Goodall. Admitted nobleman under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 19 Nov. 1808. Age 15.

M.A. 1812; Hon. LL.D. 1835. Resided from Jan. 1809–June 1812. Born 13 Aug. 1793, son of John Lord Mountstuart (1767–94)—himself the eldest son of John, fourth earl and first Marquis of Bute (1744–1814). Lord Mountstuart married Eliz., daughter and heiress of Patrick Crichton fifth Earl of Dumfries, who died 1803: when his grandson John Crichton Stuart succeeded to the title, his father being dead. On 16 Nov. 1814 by the death of his other grandfather he became second Marquis of Bute. Married (1) in 1818 Maria, daughter of the Earl of Guildford: and, on her death in 1841, (2) in 1845 Sophia, daughter of the Marquis of Hastings, by whom he had a son John Patrick Crichton Stuart. Died 18 March 1848. Brother of Pat. Ja. Herbert (1812): cousin of Cha. Villiers (1826): half-nephew of Dudley Coutts (1820), son of his grandfather by a second marriage, and 36 years younger than his father, Lord Mountstuart.

Lawrence, Alfred: son of Richard: born at Camberwell, Surrey. School: Harrow, under D[r] Butler. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 9 Dec. 1808. Age 18.

B.A. 1813; M.A. 1818. Came into residence Mich. 1809. Admitted scholar 6 June 1810. Afterwards Alf. Charnley Lawrence: by those names ordained priest, London, 1815 March; licensed to Sundridge, Kent, 2 July 1816 —to receive from Chris. Wordsworth, D.D., rector, £100 with Easter offerings and surplice fees. Rector of Sandhurst, Kent, 12 Sept. 1831–57. Married Emily, sister of Geo. Will., Earl of Winchelsea (see p. 361): father of Edw. Dan. (1848). Died about 1867 (Harrow Reg[r].).

Atkinson, William:

B.A. (Cath.) (8th wrangler) 1781; M.A. 1784; B.D. 1792. Elected Fellow at Christ's (in place of J. Preston) on 2 July 1808. This election is due to a piece of old history which may be found in pamphlets relating to D[r] Browne (Univ. Lib. Z. 23. 7). Browne induced M[r] Atkinson, then Tutor of Cath. Hall, to admit a friend, one Astley a member of Pembroke, who on leaving the college could obtain only a "liceat migrare," not a "bene discessit." D[r] Proctor, Master of Cath. Hall, refused to keep Astley. Browne's good faith in the matter was doubtful. It would seem that as soon as he became Master, he induced the Society to elect Atkinson, who may have been on bad terms with his own Master. He was Mildmay Preacher 1816–18, and held no other office:

which implies non-residence: but he never missed a College meeting till June 1825, after which he appears no more. His Fellowship however was not declared vacant till 5 June 1830. A letter of June 7 from his executrix, written at Stapleford, announced that he left his Chambers' Dictionary to the College Library and also a MS. essay on short-hand. He seems to have held no benefice. On 1 Mar. 1807 he was curate at Sawston (J. Langhorne).

Walker, George: son of Edward: born at Gestingthorpe, Essex. Kept terms at Trinity. Admitted here pensioner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 28 Jan. 1809. Age not given.

B.A. (7th wrangler) 1812; M.A. 1816. Admitted scholar 30 Nov. 1809. Admitted at Lincoln's Inn 25 Nov. 1812, aged 23. Not the head master of Leeds Grammar School, June 1818, who was B.A. of Trin. 1814 and Fellow. Perhaps the Geo. Walker, M.A., (no college given) licensed 21 Sept. 1817 to curacy of Stouting and of Postling, Kent, to receive £50 for each and surplice fees, with use of the rectory house (furnished) and garden at Stouting (Lambeth Reg[r].).

Haughton, John: B.A. of Trin. Coll., Dublin. Admitted under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 14 Feb. 1809.

M.A. (Christ's) 1809. One of these names, and M.A., was rector of Middleton, Lancs. 16 Mar. 1818, and died there 5 Dec. 1828: he was born 21 Feb. 1774 according to M.I. in chancel where he was buried. A John Haughton, perhaps a son, and perhaps B.A. (Pemb.) 1826 became P.C. of Cockey (to which the rector of Middleton presents) in 1828.

Andrews, William: B.A. of Oxford. Admitted under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 29 March 1809.

M.A. (Christ's) 1809. Son of Will. Andrews, born at Reading, matriculated at St John's, Oxford 15 July 1794, aged 19: B.A. (Oxf.) 1798. One of these names rector of Lillingstone Dayrell, Bucks. 21 Dec. 1832: one was vicar of Stowe, Bucks. on the same day (the name is spelt Andrewes). Lillingstone was vacant in 1848, and the rector became rector of Maids Moreton, Bucks., and afterwards took the name of W. Andrews Uthwatt: and this man was B.A. (St John's) 1816: the vicar of Stowe also appears as W. Uthwatt. Stowe was vacant 1876, and Maids Moreton (to which M[r] W. A. Uthwatt presented) in 1878.

Fitzgerald, John Fraunceis: Knight of Glin: son of John: born at Taunton. School: Winchester, under D[r] Goddard. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 22 March 1809. Age 18.

M.A. 1812. Resided till Mich. 1812. Born 28 June 1791, son of John Fitzgerald of Glin Castle, Limerick, Knight of Glin, by his wife Margaretta Maria, daughter of John Fraunceis Gwynn of Ford Abbey, Devon. High Sheriff for Limerick 1830. J.P. and D.L. Married 28 July 1812 Bridget, daughter of the Rev. Joseph Eyre of Westerham, Kent, by whom he had two sons and two daughters.

Hibbert, Robert: son of Robert: born at Kingston, Jamaica. School: Eton, under D[r] Goodall. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 3 July 1809. Age 19.

B.A. 1813. Born 28 Nov. 1790. Second son of Robert Hibbert of Birtles, Cheshire and of Chalfont Park, Bucks., High Sheriff of Cheshire, by his wife Letitia, daughter of Joh. Fre. Nembhard of Jamaica. Of Chalfont Lodge, Bucks. Married (1) Letitia, daughter of Harry Aug. Leicester of Chester, and (2) Charlotte, daughter of Joh. Drummond of Denham, Bucks., by whom he had two surviving sons. Died 17 Dec. 1829.

Darby, John Wareyn: admitted 5 Dec. 1809.

On the Boards for two terms. Admitted pensioner at Caius 7 May 1810. Son of John Darby, surgeon, of Diss: educated at Bury. B.A. (Caius) 1814; M.A. 1817. An ecclesiastical antiquary. Vicar of Wicklewood, Norfolk 1823–32: rector of Shottisham, Suffolk (patrons, Eliz. Darby, widow, and Mary Kett) 10 Aug. 1832–Aug. 1846, when he died. (See Venn, 2. 154.)

Harness, William: son of John, M.D.: born at Wickham, Hants. School: Harrow, under (1) Dr Drury, (2) Dr Butler. Admitted fellow-commoner under Messrs Maul and Kaye 24 Dec. 1809, after keeping some terms at St John's. Age 19.

B.A. 1812; M.A. 1816. Friend of Byron at Harrow: both were lame through accident: they corresponded in after life (see Moore's Life of Byron). Ordained deacon, Salisbury, 1813 June: priest, Ely, 1814 Mar. Curate of Kelmerton, Hants. 1812: of Dorking 1814: moved to London 1816 where he was preacher at Trinity Chapel, Conduit Street, and Minister of St Anne's, Soho. Curate of Hampstead 1823–6. Incumbent of Regent Square Chapel, 1826–44. Minister of Brompton Chapel, 1844–7. P.C. of All Saints', Knightsbridge 1849–69 (built with money raised by himself, his own gift being 1000 guineas). "His sermons were moderate, learned and tenable" (D.N.B.): and by his liberal views and high character he had much influence. He was clerical Registrar of the Privy Council from 1841. Prebr. of St Paul's 1866–9. Killed by a fall down a staircase 11 Nov. 1869: buried at Bath: M.I. at All Sts., Knightsbridge. Harness Prize founded at Cambridge 9 Feb. 1871 to commemorate him and to encourage the study of Shakespearean literature. Author: The Wrath of Cain, 1822 (against Byron's poem): Connexion of Christianity with Human Happiness, 2 vols., 1823: and several other sermons, &c. But his chief work was his edition of Shakespeare, 8 vols., 1825, with a Life "remarkable for its scrupulous impartiality": he also edited Massinger (1830) and Ford (1831). Life of Mary R. Mitford, appeared in 1870 after his death. (Life by L'Estrange (1871): D.N.B.)

Adams, Richard Newton: son of Archdeacon Richard Adams: born at Edinthorpe, Norf. School: Christ's Hospital, under Mr Trollope [for eight years]. Admitted sizar under Messrs Maul and Kaye 9 Jan. 1810. Age 17.

Resided till Xmas 1810 when he migrated to Sidney where he was B.A. (7th wrangler) 1814; M.A. 1817; B.D. 1824; D.D. 1830: Fellow there. Rector of Rempstone, Notts. 18 Dec. 1839.

Hoste, James: son of Dixon, clerk: born at Godwick, Norfolk. School: Walsham, under Mr Spurling. Admitted pensioner under Messrs Maul and Kaye 6 Mar. 1810. Age 18.

B.A. 1814; M.A. 1818. Tancred Student Feb. 1810. Admitted scholar 19 Dec. 1811. His father was rector of Hopton, Suffolk 1818–27. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1814 Dec.: priest, 1815 July. Vicar of Empingham, Ruts. 11 Jan. 1822. P.C. of Longham St Peter, Norfolk 1824, which he held till 1842. Vicar of Barwick, near Burnham 28 Jan. 1825–42. Rector of Ingoldsthorpe 5 July 1831. Died 1842, aged 52 (Davy).

Clarke, Anthony James: son of Nathaniel Goodin: born at Swanwick, Derbs. Educated by the Rev. Will. Leigh. Admitted pensioner under Messrs Maul and Kaye 9 May 1810. Age 17.

B.A. 1814; M.A. 1817. Admitted scholar 19 Dec. 1811. Brother of Nat. Ri. Clarke, Fellow 1808–10. Minister of St Peter's, Birmingham. Rector of Porlock, Somerset 3 Feb. 1831, presented by the Lord Chancellor. Married

Eliz. Langton of Langton Hall, Lincs. and had two sons and one daughter. Died at Porlock 22 May 1838, aged 48 (Gent. Mag.).

Wood, Benjamin: son of William: born at Walsall, Staffs. School: Birmingham, under the Rev. Ja. Cook. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 22 May 1810. Age 18.

Resided till Mids. 1811: then migrated to Peterhouse where he was B.A. (4th jun. opt.) 1814; M.A. 1817.

Clough, Charles Butler: son of Roger: born at Eriviatt, co. Denbigh. School: Rugby, under D[r] Wooll. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 4 July 1810. Age 19.

B.A. (St John's) 1815; M.A. 1825. Fourth son of Roger Clough, Canon of St Asaph and rector of Llansannan, by his wife Anne Jemima Butler of Warminghurst Park, Sussex: brother of Anne Jemima Clough, first Principal of Newnham College, Cambridge. Came into residence Mich. 1811. Resided till Lady Day 1812: and migrated to St John's. Ordained deacon, St Asaph, 1816 Apr.: priest, 1817 Sept. Curate of Mold 1816–25. Rector of Llanferras, co. Denbigh 30 July 1821. Chaplain to the Marchioness Cornwallis. Had dispensation 29 Apr. 1825 to hold the contiguous vicarage of Mold—each worth £300 a year. Archdeacon of St Asaph 1844–54. Dean of St Asaph 1854–9. Died 4 Sept. 1859. (Memoir of Anne J. Clough, p. 8.)

Newsam, James: son of William: born at Eckington, Derbs. School: Sedbergh, under M[r] Stevens. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 2 June 1810. Age 18.

B.A. 1815; M.A. 1825. Came into residence Mich. 1811. Admitted scholar 5 Nov. 1812. Ordained deacon, Chester, 1816 Feb.: priest, Sept.; licensed to Burneston, Yorks. Curate of Wilton, near Redcar, Yorks., N.R. where his signature is found 1839–42: possibly there till 1845.

Canning, Thomas: son of Thomas, clerk: born at Elsenham, Essex. School: Felsted, under the Rev. J. Carles. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 24 Aug. 1810. Age 18.

B.A. 1815. Vicar of Elsenham 13 Feb. 1818–1856: son of Thomas Canning, vicar from 1784–1811 (after a John Canning 1757–84: and another John Canning held the living from 1678 to 1731): his mother Hester died 1849, aged 78. Thomas, the younger (patron as well as vicar), was "a strong stoutly-built man, fond of shooting and boxing." Ordained deacon, London, 1815 June: priest, 1816 May. Parish tradition tells how when returning once from Stansted Fair he was attacked and robbed by gypsies, one of whom was afterwards captured "wearing the Canon's [sic] hat," and was transported. (Information from Rev. E. Sant, vicar.) He died unmarried 11 Nov. 1855, and was buried in Elsenham church: M.I.

Hildyard, Charles: son of Henry: born at Doncaster. School: Richmond, under M[r] J. Tate. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 19 Sept. 1810. Age 18.

B.A. 1815; M.A. 1818. Came into residence Mich. 1811. Admitted scholar 3 Nov. 1813. Probably Cha. Hildyard, clerk, son of Hen. Hildyard, clerk, of Stokesley, Yorks., N.R. who died unmarried at Marseilles, 1826 (Poulson, Holderness, 2. 427).

Mirehouse, Thomas Henry: son of John: born at Brownslade, Pembs. School: Harrow, under D[r] Butler. Kept terms at Clare Hall. Admitted here pensioner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 20 Oct. 1810. Age 20.

bendary of Sarum 16 July 1824. Rector of Harlaxton, Lincs. 1 Nov. 1826–1867. J.P. for Somerset. Died in 1867. His son Hen. Joh. admitted 1854: and Phil. Joh. in 1858.

Cook, Joseph: son of Joseph: born at Alnwick. School: Durham. Kept six terms at Trinity. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Maul and Kaye 31 Oct. 1810. Age 19.

B.A. (1st sen. opt.) 1813; M.A. 1816. Admitted scholar 5 June 1811. Third son of the Rev. Joseph Cook, of Newton Hall, Northumberland, by his wife Sarah Browne, niece of the last male survivor of the Widdrington family, so well represented here (Burke, L.G. 1511, ed^{n}. 1871). Elected Fellow (in place of Geo. Davys), by appointment of the Visitor, 6 Sept. 1814. The circumstances are entered by John Kaye in the Order Book, between the Orders of Feb. 15 and Feb. 19. "On Feb. 15 M^{r} Maul delivered in the single name of M^{r} Buck, Finch Fellow (see page 354), after the usual practice. D^{r} Browne said that although M^{r} Davys was a native of Leicestershire [i.e. Southern] he considered the present vacancy that of a Northern Fellowship, inasmuch as it was necessary to restore the statutable proportion of Northern to Southern Fellows, which had been broken through by M^{r} Bradburne's dispensation. In consequence of this remark M^{r} Kaye delivered in the name of M^{r} Cook. On the day of Election M^{r} Buck was elected and pronounced to be elected by the Master, who refused however to admit him. M^{r} Buck petitioned the Visitor, who on Aug. 25 dismissed his Petition, and on September 5 sent an Order to the Master [now Kaye] for the admission of M^{r} Cook." D^{r} Browne seems to have been right as to the balance of Fellowships: but the temper of the Society in 1814 was not judicial: whether the Visitor (D^{r} Chafy) was right in setting aside the election is less clear. M^{r} Cook was ordained deacon, Norwich, 1814 Dec., and was Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, and Steward 1815 and 1817—in which year he made a new arrangement in columns of the various items of the several persons admitted—an innovation which was not followed. In the summer of 1820 he seems to have gone out of residence: in 1824 he was elected to the non-resident post of Mildmay Preacher, with the usual (sinecure) accompaniment of Senior Greek Lecturer. Davy says that he was British Chaplain at Rome. In 1825 he was travelling in the East—including Sinai: and died 3 Mar. 1825 near the springs of Elim, where he was buried. His Fellowship was declared vacant 18 July. A stone in his memory was put up in the Chapel.

Benson, Henry Bristowe: son of Robert: born at York. School: Uppingham, under M^{r} Butt. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Maul and Kaye 5 Nov. 1810. Age 18.

B.A. 1815; M.A. 1819. Came into residence Mich. 1811. His father was vicar of Heckington, Lincs. and his son was his curate in 1816. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1816 Sept. Succeeded his father as vicar 21 Feb. 1822. In 1833 he resigned. For at least ten years (from 1841–50) he was living at Utterby near Louth: but I have not found the date or place of his death.

Rolls, Henry: son of Henry: born at Southam, Warwick. Educated at Warwick by the Rev. John Kendal. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess^{rs} Maul and Kaye 6 Dec. 1810. Age 28.

B.A. 1816. He acted as curate of Boxworth, Cambridge, between 1813 and 1816. Incorporated at Balliol, Oxford, 9 Jan. 1819, there described as aged 36. M.A. (Oxf.) 15 Jan. 1819. Rector of Barnwell St Andrew's, Northants. 10 July 1818: of Barnwell All Saints 29 Jan. 1819. Rector of Aldwinckle All Saints 2 Sept. 1820, till his death 24 July 1838 (Al. Ox. 1222). Perhaps brother of Edward (1815).

Disney, Algernon: M.A. of Peterhouse. Admitted under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 24 Dec. 1810.

B.A. (Pet.) 1801; M.A. 1804. Born at Flintham Hill 1 June 1780, second son of the Rev. John Disney, D.D., of the Hyde, Essex, by his wife Jane Blackburne, daughter of the Archdeacon of Cleveland: brother of John Disney who gave the University his ancient marbles and the endowment for a Professorship of Archaeology. A major in the army. Died 23 Jan. 1848. His name remains in Study-rents till Xmas 1815, with the charge of 3*s.* 0*d.* each quarter which implies that he did not reside. There is nothing to show why he joined the College as M.A.

Marsh, George Augustus Elliott: son of John: born at Battersea. School: Ely, under M[r] Waddington. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 31 Jan. 1811. Age 22.

B.A. 1815; M.A. 1818. Admitted scholar 5 Nov. 1812. Ordained deacon, Chester, 1813 Dec. Rector of Bangor Monachorum, with Overton, Flints. 26 June 1835–67. Rural Dean.

Macan, Turner: son of Turner, of Carriff, co. Antrim: born "in regione Gangetica." One year at Trin Coll., Dublin. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 15 Feb. 1811. Age 21.

Resided till Lady Day 1813. Married Harriet, daughter of the Rev. Whetenhall Sneyd of Newchurch, I.W. Died 1835. (Burke, L.G.)

Vale, Benjamin: son of Benjamin: born in London. Admitted sizar under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 28 June 1811. Age 23.

LL.B. 1819; LL.D. 1834. Admitted scholar (Finch and Baines) 5 Nov. 1812. Afternoon Lecturer at St Luke's (? Old Street, London) Feb. 1820 (Rivington's Ann. Reg. 145). Rector of Longton, Staffs. 16 July 1839: resigned 1863. Alive 1870.

Bromehead, Thomas Ayre: only son of Edw. Bromehead, for 64 years vicar of Reepham, where he died 1835—by his wife Catharine, daughter of Thomas Ayre: born at Re[e]pham, Lincs. School: Gainsborough, under D[r] Cox. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 28 June 1811. Age 19.

M.B. 1820. Resided till Mids[r]. 1813: "rusticated" (note in Butler's book): name in Study-rents till Xmas 1815. Name replaced under M[r] Shaw 22 Oct. 1818: remains on till 15 Dec. 1824. Set out in 1820 to travel in the East. Died at Konieh (Iconium), Asia Minor 9 Sept. 1825, aged 32 (Gent. Mag. 1835, p. 329).

Brooke, Thomas: son of James: born in Liverpool. School: Ashton, Lancs., under M[r] Sibson. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 1 July 1811. Age 21.

B.A. 1815. Admitted scholar 5 Nov. 1812. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, as student of Christ's, 1814 Dec. (lit. dim. from Chester). P.C. of Lane End, Staffs. 28 Oct. 1817. Rector of Wistaston, Cheshire 25 May 1825, till May 1873, when he died (Ormerod-Helsby, 3. 335).

Smith, The Hon. Robert [John]: son of Robert, Lord Carrington: born in London. School: Eton, under (1) D[r] Goodall, (2) D[r] Keate. Admitted nobleman under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 7 Oct. 1811. Age 15.

M.A. 1815. Born 16 Jan. 1796, son of Rob. (of the banker family, created by Pitt first Baron Carrington, of Upton, Notts.) by his wife Anne Barnard of South Cave, Yorks. Succeeded his father as second Baron in Sept. 1838. F.R.S. Lord Lieutenant of Bucks. Took the name Carrington by royal license, 26 Aug. 1836. Married (1) 17 June 1822, Eliz. Cath., daughter of Lord Forester, (2) on 10 Aug. 1840, Charlotte, daughter of Lord Willoughby D'Eresby, by whom he had three sons and two daughters. Died 17 March 1868.

Petre, Lord William [Francis Henry]: admitted nobleman under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 21 Oct. 1811. Age 18.

Resided till Lady Day 1813. Born 22 Jan. 1793, eldest son of Rob. Edw. 10th Baron Petre of Writtle, Essex, by his wife Mary Bridget, daughter of Henry Howard of Glossop. Succeeded his father as 11th Baron 29 Mar. 1809. Married (1) in 1815, Frances, daughter of Sir Richard Bedingfeld, by whom he had two sons and two daughters; and (2) in 1823, Emma Agnes, daughter of Henry Howard of Corby Castle, by whom he had four sons and one daughter. Died 3 July 1850.

White, Henry: son of Richard: born in London. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 5 Dec. 1811. Age not given.

B.A. 1816; M.A. 1819. Came into residence Mich. 1812 and resided till Lady Day 1816: but he was ordained priest at Chester 19 Dec. 1813: being probably in deacon's orders before residence. Probably the Hen. White who was rector of Claughton, Lancs. 20 Dec. 1813–1844 [?].

Montgomerie, George [Stephen Molineux]: "nonnullis apud Parisienses annis peractis," admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 12 Dec. 1811. Age not given.

B.A. (as G. S. M. Montgomerie) 1816; M.A. 1827. Admitted scholar (as of Norfolk) as Geo. Ste. Montgomerie, 5 Nov. 1813. Born 1793, fourth son of Geo. Molyneux of Garboldisham Hall, Norfolk (who, pursuant to the will of his grandfather, Geo. Montgomerie, assumed in 1780 the surname Montgomerie), by his wife Eliz., daughter of Michael White, Governor of the Leeward Islands. Ordained priest, Ely, 1815 Sept. Rector of Garboldisham 11 Nov. 1815. Died (unmarried) rector 17 Jan. 1850 (Davy).

Burnet, Thomas: admitted sizar 20 Dec. 1811. Readmitted 24 May 1820. Age not given.

*Graham, John: son of John: born at Durham. School: Durham. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 26 Dec. 1811. Age 17.

B.A. (4th wrangler; bracketed as Chancellor's Medallist) 1816; M.A. 1819 B.D. 1829; D.D. (per lit. reg.) 1831. Born 23 Feb. 1794. Admitted scholar: 3 Nov. 1813. Elected Fellow 5 Apr. 1816, in succession to Tho. Jackson (see page 337) who had been elected in the preceding year in order to keep a place for Graham: his fellowship was declared vacant 1 Apr. 1816, as he had never been admitted. Graham resided continuously, as appears from the Order Book —but was for ten years appointed to no College office, nor to the Tutorship which he might have held with Shaw. He was Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, Steward, and Mildmay Preacher 1826. He examined for the Classical Tripos 1825–8, but at no time on the nomination of Christ's College. In July 1828 he became Tutor on the resignation of Shaw and he held the office for two years. There was a tradition that he was even a better lecturer in mathematics than in classics. He became prebendary of Lincoln 6 Dec. 1828. On 8 Nov. 1830 he was appointed Master (on Kaye's resignation) without any contest. Shaw was probably indifferent: and he and Graham were always on good terms. Mortlock, who in later years consistently opposed Graham's reforms, had not been much in residence: Hildyard, another opponent of them, was still an undergraduate. The Society was reputed in the University to be ultra-Liberal, and Graham was doubtless judged to be a man competent to carry out those changes which were already being debated throughout the Colleges. But more than seven years elapsed before any record of attempted changes appears. A draft of a new set of statutes was then drawn up, probably by the Master: and on 24 Feb. 1838 the following Orders were made by the Master and nine Fellows:

"Agreed that, the Statutes of the Foundress having through the great change of circumstances which has taken place since they were framed become in many particulars inapplicable or unsuitable to the present times, it is expedient that the said Statutes should, if it be practicable, be reformed in such manner as will remedy this inconvenience, and promote the general usefulness and efficiency of the College:

"That the draft of a reformed set of Statutes, which has been produced and deliberately examined, is in our judgment well adapted for these purposes:

"That a petition be presented to the Queen's most excellent Majesty, praying her Majesty's gracious permission that instead of the Statutes of the Foundress this reformed set of Statutes may be substituted for the future government of the College."

The Master, M^{r} Shaw and M^{r} Croft were authorised to take the necessary steps for presenting this petition.

The Order was signed by John Graham, Jos. Shaw, John Buck, John Croft, Edward John Ash, Edw. Baines, C. Lesingham Smith, Edm. H. Hopper, Charles Davidson, and James Cartmell. Six did not sign—among them Mortlock, and three residents and officials, John Baldwin, Tho. Walker, and James Hildyard.

This draft of statutes has not been preserved. The attempt failed, and there is no record other than the Order given above. But Mortlock, the chief opponent, consulted with D^{r} Corrie, who made notes which were shewn me by the authoress of the Memoir of the late Master of Jesus. From his account it seems that in addition to the removal of obsolete provisions and the substitution of others, the new Statutes proposed to allow the marriage of Fellows, the admission [sic] of Dissenters: also a service in the Hall, on week-days only, instead of in the Chapel, of prayers in which persons of any religious creed could join. The recalcitrant Fellows took the ground that the Visitor should first have been consulted, and Mortlock appealed to the V.C., D^{r} Worsley of Downing, who seems to have been reluctant to interfere. Legal opinions were obtained—among them one of Sir W. Follett. In May the majority seems to have been willing to withdraw those proposals which were especially distasteful to the minority. The V.C. held that the proposed statutes were practically withdrawn, and that nothing need be done by himself and his assessors: one of them (D^{r} Thackeray) held that the Society ought to be convicted of a breach of Statutes. After much contention on 5 Nov. 1838 they agreed on a decree enjoining the Master and Fellows to abstain from seeking any alteration of Statutes without first consulting the Visitor. It is difficult to suppose that Graham had overlooked this obvious objection of Mortlock and the other opponents. Possibly he relied on the well-known liberalism of the Visitor.

D^{r} Graham was V.C. 1831 and 1840—the year in which Lord Lyndhurst was elected High Steward of the University against Lord Lyttelton, whom Graham naturally favoured: the address which as V.C. he made to Lyndhurst on his election (see Cooper's Annals, 4. 629) shews the dexterity in speech for which he was famous. He shewed it again when the British Association visited Cambridge a second time, and he was judged to hold his own as a speaker by the side of Emerson and Sam. Wilberforce. He was chaplain to the Prince Consort from 1841, and chairman of his committee at the election to the Chancellorship in 1847. Throughout the rest of his life he stood high in the favour of the Queen: he became Clerk of the Closet 1849. On 14 May 1848 he was consecrated Bishop of Chester. He signs last as Master 7 Dec. 1848: and he resigned before 18 Jan. 1849. His administration of his diocese was conciliatory. He lived to see the changes which he desired, both in the College, and in the University, carried out by the University Commission (of which he was a member) in 1860; he sometimes visited Cambridge, and preached at the installation of the Duke of Devonshire in 1862.

He married Mary, daughter of the Rev. Rob. Porteus (1786) and had eight children, two of whom were at Christ's, John (1853) and Albert (1864). In 1835 he gave £105 to the University Library Fund.

An estimate of him, written by one who knew and loved him (E. T. Vaughan in Coll. Mag. of Mich. 1893) tells of his oddities of manner, unusual in a Head of a House; of his "real kindness, large knowledge, clearness of thought and felicity of expression, sound and independent judgment": but also of impatience of opposition to his proposals for change in the College during the troubled years of his Mastership; and of the "constitutional indolence and dilatoriness" which prevented him from ever taking the leading position which his ability fitted him to hold.

He died 15 June 1865 at the Palace, and was buried at Chester.

Millett, George:

B.A. (Trin.) (as 15th wrangler and 1st Chancellor's Medallist) 1814; M.A. (Christ's) 1817. Elected Fellow (Finch and Baines) in place of Geo. J. Haggitt, 12 Oct. 1814: Lady Margaret, in place of J. Maul, 23 June 1815. Ordained deacon, London, 1817 June: priest, Dec.: in Sept. 1820 he took a marriage service at Leyton, Essex. He signs at most meetings and may have resided: but he was never elected to any College office: and his Fellowship was declared vacant 27 Mar. 1819. In 1829 he was living at Bovingdon near Hemel Hempstead: a little later he was at Hove, Brighton as a private tutor: he had as pupils Sir W. F. Pollock (see his Personal Reminiscences, 1. 37) and Edmund and Henry Lushington. In 1845 he became vicar of Silkstone, Yorks. till 1850 (when he died), and chaplain to the Bishop of Ripon.

Croft, John: previously admitted at Trinity.

B.A. (Trin.) (11th wrangler) 1814; M.A. (Christ's) 1817. Elected Fellow (Finch and Baines) in place of G. C. Leicester, 7 Nov. 1816: K. Edw. VI, in place of G. J. Haggitt, 18 Nov. 1818: Lady Marg., succeeding P. L. Fraser 18 Jan. 1832. Ordained priest, Norwich, 1819 June. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, and Steward 1819, 1827, and 1829. Mildmay Preacher 1827–9. Custos cistae 1832–9. Senior Proctor 1820. A good man of business: and often appointed by Order to act in place of Bishop Kaye, who was commonly absent from the College. He supported reforms—in the University and in the College. On 21 March 1834 he, Edw. Baines, and H. Gunning of Christ's, joined in the petition of 62 resident members of the Senate to Parliament for the abolition of every religious test required before proceeding to any degree (except in Divinity): see Cooper, Annals, 4. 581. He supported D^{r} Graham in his attempt to obtain new Statutes for the College (see above). He held the curacy of Fen Drayton, where he signs the register from 24 Feb. 1828, till Oct. 1835 when he resigned. In October 1838 he was presented to the rectory of Eaton Bishop, Herefordshire, and on 28 June 1839 his Fellowship was declared vacant. While he was in his year of grace, the rectory of Little Canfield fell vacant: and he desired to have the choice of taking it. E. Mortlock and Ja. Hildyard appealed to the Visitor, D^{r} Hodgson, who decided that M^{r} Croft had not the right to claim the option. There are about 15 documents bearing on this case in the Registry (19. 1)—chiefly letters from Graham to the V.C. and from Mortlock and Hildyard on the other side. It appears that Croft in the course of the discussion withdrew any claim to Canfield. Dr Graham thereupon said that he would not send his case to the V.C. Mortlock and Hildyard however pressed for a decision: and Graham was constrained, when he received it, to enter it with his own hand in the Master's book of Statutes. The College was not in a happy state!

Croft held Eaton Bishop a short time. In 1840 he was appointed to the important vicarage of Catterick, Yorks.: and also became Chaplain to the Archbishop. He died at Catterick in January 1869.

Leicester, Charles George Frederick: [signs Fred. Leicester: described in Admn. Book as Fre. Cha. Leicester].

B.A. (Trin.) 1815 (sen. Wrangler and Smith's Prizeman); M.A. (Christ's) 1818 (as Geo. Cha. Fre. Leicester). No facts in Trinity Admn. book save that he was admitted 21 Dec. 1813. Elected Fellow (Finch and Baines) in place of Geo. Millett, 28 June 1815: L. Margaret, in place of Ben. Philpot, 16 Oct. 1816. Curate of Hatfield Broad Oak under (1) Will. Dealtry, (2) John Carr, from March 1816–April 1827. Appointed Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, and Steward Oct. 1816—and apparently intended to reside: but on 7 Nov. he resigned these offices and on 2 March 1818 his Fellowship was declared vacant. He married (date and place not known) Margaret Maria, daughter of John Ferard, vinegar merchant, of Huguenot extraction: his eldest child (Catherine) was born at Hatfield 2 July 1818: six children were born there between 1818 and 1825, of whom the fourth, Will. Henry, was admitted at Christ's 1841. Possibly he is the Fred. Leicester who was vicar of Condover, Salop 9 Oct. 1826: and ceased before 1829. He reappears at Hatfield June 1832–May 1833. Died after a long illness at Brighton 8 Nov. 1833 (Gent. Mag. 1834 (1), page 115)—described there as of Hatfield Broad Oak. "He established a school for poor children near Hatfield, still called the Leicester School, though now rebuilt and forming an elementary school for Bushend, an ecclesiastical subdivision of the parish." (Rev. F. W. Galpin, vicar.) He lived in the old vicarage house (neither of his vicars being resident) and is described by an old parishioner as "looking very old and worn out": his little daughter was unable to walk, and always rode on a donkey.

Edwards, John Meredith: son of Shadrach: born at Bing-Weston [?], Salop. School: Birmingham. Admitted sizar under Messrs Maul and Kaye 26 Feb. 1812. Age 20.

B.A. (5th jun. opt.) 1816. Admitted scholar 3 Nov. 1813. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1817 March: priest, Peterborough, 1820 Dec. (by lit. dim. from Llandaff). One J. M. Edwards, B.A., was curate of Worthin, Salop in 1827. A J. Meredith Edwards was a chaplain in the navy: on board of the Daedalus in 1850 and of the Hannibal in 1860. No other of these names graduated at either University.

Wyatt, George John: son of Thomas: born at Brighton. School: Midhurst. Admitted sizar under Messrs Maul and Kaye 14 March 1812. Age 20.

B.A. 1817; M.A. 1820. Admitted scholar (Geo. Wyatt) 3 Nov. 1813. Ordained deacon, Rochester (lit. dim. to Lichfield) 1815 May.

Heaviside, Richard: son of Richard: [birthplace not given]. School: Eton. Admitted fellow-commoner under Messrs Maul and Kaye 16 March 1812. Age not given.

Resided till Mich. 1814: the name in Study-rents till Lady Day 1816. Served for a time in the 1st Dragoon Guards. A magistrate at Brighton. Plaintiff in an action against Dr Lardner. Died 1847 (Stapylton).

Wilson, John: son of Thomas: born at Workington. Educated there by Rev. Jos. Pearson. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 13 Apr. 1812. Age 21.

B.A. (8th jun. opt.) 1816; M.A. 1819; M.D. 1826. F.R.C.P. 1827: Censor 1831. Physician to the Middlesex Hospital 1831. Lived at 51, Oxford Street. Died 1858 (or 1859) (Munk, 3. 281). Author: The lost solar system of the Ancients discovered, 2 vols. 1856.

Ellis, William Joseph: M.A. of Clare Hall. Admitted under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 25 Mar. 1812.

B.A. (Clare) 1804; M.A. 1808.

Whichcote, Francis: son of Thomas, baronet: born at Aswarby. School: not given. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 16 Apr. 1812. Age not given.

B.A. 1816; M.A. 1819. Born 19 June 1793, third son of Sir Thomas of Aswarby, Lincs. by his wife Diana Turnor. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1816 Dec.: priest, 1817. Rector of Aswarby, near Sleaford, and vicar of Swarby (contiguous), also vicar of Deeping St James, near Peterborough—all on 17 Feb. 1818: held the two last till 1830 when his brother Christopher succeeded him. Chaplain to the Earl of Harborough. Had dispensation 29 Oct. 1822 to hold with Aswarby, worth £300 a year, the vicarage of Timberland, worth £200 a year, distant 16 miles: of which his father was patron: vacated it in 1841. Vacated Aswarby in 1851, when Christopher again succeeded him. Married 4 Nov. 1826 Eliza, daughter of Rob. Bree, M.D.

Allgood, Robert Lancelot: son of James: born at Nunwick, Northumberland. School: Oakham, under M[r] Doncaster. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 30 April 1812. Age 17.

Resided till Mids[r]. 1815. Name in Study-rents till Mich. 1816. Born 17 Sept. 1794, elder son of James, LL.D., of Nunwick, near Hexham, by his second wife Martha, daughter of Christopher Reed of Chipchase Castle. Of Nunwick, D.L. Married (1) in 1816 Mary Neville, daughter of John Reed of Chipchase, (2) in 1820 Eliz., daughter of John Hunter of the Hermitage, by whom he had four sons and three daughters. Sheriff for Northumberland 1818, as his eldest son Lancelot Joh. Hunter Allgood was in 1858. Died 25 May 1854.

Royds, Thomas: son of Thomas: born at Rochdale, Lancs. School: Chiswick, Midds. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 11 June 1812. Age 18.

B.A. 1816. Admitted scholar 3 Nov. 1813. Ordained deacon, Chester, 1817 April; licensed to curacy of Rochdale: priest, 1819 Sept. Said to have been unsuccessful in life. Died 1852.

Charlton, Charles: son of Charles, clerk: born at Carlisle. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 18 June 1812. Age 18.

His name appears in Study-rents till June 1813 with charge 3*s.* 0*d.* each quarter. Probably did not come into residence.

Stuart, Hon. Patrick James Herbert: grandson of the [first] Marquis of Bute. School: Eton, under D[r] Goodall. Admitted nobleman under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 27 June 1812. Age 17.

M.A. 1814. Resided till Mich. 1814. Name in Study-rents till Lady Day 1822. Born 25 Aug. 1794 after the death of his father, John, Lord Mountstuart, by a fall from his horse. Brother of the Earl of Dumfries (1808). Married 1818 Hannah, daughter of Will. Tighe of Woodstock, Kilkenny. Lord Lieutenant of Bute. M.P. for the Ayrshire Boroughs. Died 1859.

Hubbard, Augustus Ladbroke: son of John, clerk. Kept terms at Oxford. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Maul and Kaye 29 June 1812. Age not given.

B.A. 1816. Admitted scholar (Bucks,) 3 Nov. 1813. Educated at Eton (Stapylton). Son of John Hubbard of High Lodge, Great Missenden, Bucks.: admitted at Balliol, Oxford 12 Dec. 1810, aged 17.

Lambert, George: admitted sizar under Mess^{rs} Maul and Kaye 6 July 1812. Age not given.

Appears in Study-rents till Xmas 1813, charged 3*s.* 0*d.* each quarter. Migrated to Trinity.

Lagden, William Berdmore: son of Henry, clerk: born at Balsham. School: Hertford. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Maul and Kaye 15 Oct. 1812. Age 19.

B.A. 1817. Admitted scholar 15 Dec. 1814. Son of Hen. Allen Lagden, Fellow of Trinity, and rector of Weston Colville 1791: afterwards of Ware. Ordained deacon, London, 1817 Dec. Died at Leghorn 12 Dec. 1819.

Woolnough, Edward: son of John: born at Boyton, Suffolk. School: Dedham, under the Rev Will. Colchester. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Maul and Kaye 9 Nov. 1812. Age 20.

B.A. 1817; M.A. 1823. Admitted scholar 3 Nov. 1813. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1821 June. Curate of Whitton, near Ipswich: he signs the register from 30 Sept. 1821 to 29 July 1849: apparently he was in sole charge. Probably the same who was rector of Northenden, Cheshire, Jan. 1849 till his death in 1866. Archdeacon of Chester, 1865.

Bell, Beaupré Philip: son of Philip: born at Stow, Norfolk. School: Ely, under M^{r} Millers. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Maul and Kaye 5 Dec. 1812. Age 17.

B.A. (16th wrangler) 1817; M.A. 1820. Tancred Divinity Student Dec. 1812. Admitted scholar (Finch and Baines) 3 Nov. 1813. Born 21 Feb. 1796; son of Philip Bell, rector of Wimbotsham, Norfolk by his wife Eliza, daughter of Joh. Collison of Thornham. Elected Fellow (Finch and Baines) in place of Joh. Tho. Law 26 Mar. 1817. At a College meeting 23 May he protests against an Order to approve of the enclosure of Danbury Common. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1819 June: priest, 1820 June. Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist and Steward 1820. Taxor 1821. Appointed by the College 31 Oct. 1821 to the curacy of Fen Drayton vacant by the death of M^{r} Perkins (1793). But he died himself in College 21 Nov. 1821, aged 25, and was buried in the ante-chapel: M.I. His sister married William Maxey, father of Will. Maxey Allen.

Wilkinson, Thomas: son of Thomas, clerk: born at Houghton, Northants. Educated at home. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Maul and Kaye 18 Dec. 1812. Age 19.

B.A. 1817; M.A. 1820. Admitted scholar 15 Dec. 1814. Tancred Student, March 1816. Ordained deacon, London, 1818 May; priest, Lincoln, 1819 Dec. Probably curate of Kensworth, Dunstable from 1820 to March 1824, when he signed last: then curate of Pitsea, Essex: signs first 14 Apr. 1824: and for the last time in March 1827; but his address (from the College) is Pitsea up to 1829. I cannot trace him further.

Barnard, Mordaunt: son of Thomas, clerk: born at Litcham, Norfolk. School: Charterhouse, under D^{r} Raine. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Maul and Kaye 2 Feb. 1813. Age 18.

B.A. 1817; M.A. 1833. Tancred Student Dec. 1813. Admitted scholar 15 Dec. 1814. Ordained deacon, London, 1818: priest, Peterborough, 1820. P.C. of Barnoldswick, Yorks. 1820. Vicar of Amwell, Herts. 23 June 1826–64: also rector of Little Bardfield, Essex 1845–64. Rector of Preston Bagot, Warw. 1867–75. Removed to Brighton: and died there. Married twice: by his first wife had a son, Mordaunt Roger (1847): by his second wife, Percy Mordaunt (B.A. 1890). Author: The Education of the Christian Minister, 1821; A translation of the Odyssey into English blank verse, 1876.

Halliday, Edmund Trowbridge: [no facts: praelector, Edmund Mortlock]. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 26 Apr. 1813.

B.A. 1816. Second son of the Rev. Edm. Trowbridge Halliday, of Chapel Cleeve, Somerset, by his wife Jane, daughter of the Rev. Tilleman Hodgkinson. P.C. of Bromfield and Wilton, Somerset. Vicar of Wilton, of which he was patron, 1831–1843. Of Yard House, Taunton, Somerset, where the family had been settled for 200 years. Died 1843.

Hartley, William Stephen: [no facts]. Admitted 9 May 1813.

Admitted scholar (Lancs.) 15 Dec. 1814. His name appears in Study-rents, with a charge of 7*s.* 6*d.* a quarter, till Mids[r]. 1817. But it seems from an old Butler's book, which commences in 1813, that he kept only six terms: and there is a note "dead, May 1817." Perhaps he was son of Stephen Hartley who was vicar of Hope, Derbs. from 1805 to 1814: Richard Hartley of Christ's (1782) was settled in Yorkshire from 1791.

Thackeray, Charles: admitted 19 June 1813.

His name appears in the Study-rents for two quarters: never resided.

Earle, Edward Robert: son of James: born in London. School: Harrow, under D[r] Butler. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 1 July 1813. Age 18.

B.A. 1818; M.A. 1825. Admitted scholar 15 Dec. 1814. Rector of High Ongar, Essex 3 Apr. 1821 on the death of Edw. Earle; presented by Susannah Earle, widow, of High Ongar, and others. Rector of Wardley, with vicarage of Belton, Ruts. 6 Apr. 1838–1856. Died 1 Apr. 1856 (Harrow Register[2], 44).

Green, Thomas Fordham: son of John: born at Ware. School: Buntingford, under M[r] Dewe. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 23 Oct. 1813. Age 17.

B.A. 1818; M.A. 1821. Came into residence Mich. 1814: admitted scholar 26 Oct. 1815. Ordained deacon, Lincoln, 1819 Sept.: priest, 1820 May. Rector of Graveley with Chesfield, Herts. 28 May 1820, where he worked for 45 years. Had a paralytic stroke four years before his death 8 May 1869. Buried at Graveley.

Grenside, Christopher: admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 25 Oct. 1813. Age not given. Kept two terms: name removed: replaced 29 Sept. 1815, and remained till Mich. 1822: but he kept no more terms. Son of J. Grenside of New Broad Street, London: educated at Harrow under D[r] Butler. Rector of Great Massingham, Norfolk (patron, the Marquis of Cholmondeley) 1 March 1816, till his death in 1871 (Harrow Register, p. 6).

Hallewell, John: son of John, clerk: born at Boroughbridge, Yorks. School: Thorp Arch, under Rev. John Peers. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 29 Oct. 1813. Age 18.

B.A. (27th wrangler) 1818; M.A. 1821. Admitted scholar 26 Oct. 1815. Elected Fellow (Finch and Baines) succeeding John Croft, 16 Dec. 1818. There is a memorandum in the Order Book after the record of the election that Dan. Finch-Hatton (p. 377) understanding that the Society desired to elect M^r^ Hallewell, did not press the claim which he supposed himself to have on the ground of relationship to Sir John Finch. Ordained priest, Lincoln, (Buckden) 1820 May. Licensed to the curacy of Gt St Andrew's, Cambridge 1821 Nov.: resigned before Dec. 1822. He was Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist, and Steward 1821. He was never transferred to the Foundation, and held his Finch and Baines fellowship till 12 Mar. 1825: consequently he signs at elections only; and there is nothing to shew whether he resided. He seems to have held no benefice: in 1841 he was living at Stroud, Glos.: perhaps he is the Joh. Hallewell, M.A., rector of Chillenden near Wingham, Kent, 1844–58 [?]. If so he returned to Stroud. His name was removed from the Boards—probably through death—26 June 1871.

Farrer, William Dent: of Trinity College: admitted here fellow-commoner under Mess^rs^ Maul and Kaye 4 Nov. 1813. Age not given.

His name appears in Study-rents till Lady Day 1815—charged 3*s.* 0*d.* each quarter: I infer that he never resided.

Ball, Francis Leeson: admitted fellow-commoner 9 Nov. 1813. [Praelector, Jos. Shaw.]

B.A. 1818. An almost illegible note in the Butler's book seems to say that he kept three terms at Trin. Coll. Dublin, and then six at Cambridge. Was first Attaché to H.M. Legation at Mexico until 1839: Secretary of Legation at Buenos Ayres 3 May 1839–18—[?].

Langley, Samuel: son of Samuel, clerk. Admitted (from Oxford) pensioner under Mess^rs^ Maul and Kaye 13 Nov. 1813. Age not given.

Son of the Rev. Sam. Langley, of the Isle of Sheppey: admitted at Worcester Coll., Oxford 9 May 1807, aged 21. Admitted scholar (as of Kent) 15 Dec. 1814. Resided till Mich. 1815.

Dawson, Hon. William Mackenzie: admitted nobleman under Mess^rs^ Maul and Kaye 1 Feb. 1814.

Appears in Study-rents till Mids. 1814: matriculated 22 Feb. 1814: but I doubt whether he resided. Probably fifth son of John, Earl of Portarlington, by his wife Lady Caroline Stuart, daughter of John, third Earl of Bute.

Bailey, Thomas: son of Roger: born at Alvechurch, Worcs. Educated at Rock, Worcs., by Rev. D. Davies. Admitted sizar under Mess^rs^ Maul and Kaye 29 March 1814. Age 22.

Admitted scholar 26 Oct. 1815. From an obscure entry in the Butler's book he seems to have kept seven terms—possibly nine; and to have died before taking his degree.

Howell, Thomas: admitted 23 April 1814.

Matriculated as a pensioner 30 May 1814, and resided till Mich. 1814. Possibly Tho. James Howell of Prinknash Park, Glos., born 24 Dec. 1793: married 1817 Susanna M. McLeod.

Smith, Cowperthwaite: admitted sizar 8 June 1814.

B.D. 1824. Ordained deacon, Chester, 1807 May; licensed to Goodshaw, Lancs. Head Master of Stafford School 1813: and therefore desired a University degree. Kept three terms till Lady Day 1815, had his name on the Boards, and became fellow-commoner, 15 Jan. 1823: but kept no more terms.

Finch-Hatton, Daniel [Heneage]: son of George. School: Westminster. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 17 June 1814. Age not given.

B.A. (Dan. Heneage Finch-Hatton) 1818; M.A. 1821. Admitted scholar (Finch and Baines) 26 Oct. 1815. Younger son of Geo. Finch-Hatton of Eastwell Park: brother of George (Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham, admitted 1808). See under John Hallewell (page 375). Rector of Great Weldon, Northants. 19 June 1819, presented by his cousin, the then Earl of Winchilsea. Chaplain to the Queen. Married Lady Louisa Greville. Died 3 Jan. 1866. The last of the ten members of the Finch family admitted at this College, in six, out of seven generations.

Wilson, Joseph: son of Thomas: born at Poulton, Lancs. School: Macclesfield, under D[r] Davies. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 27 June 1814. Age 19.

Came into residence Mich. 1814. Buried at Great St Andrew's Church 1 April 1815. M.I. (on which his age is given as 18).

Dimsdale, Thomas Robert: eldest son of Robert, and grandson of Thomas, Baron Dimsdale: born at Hertford. School: Hackney, under D[r] Heathcote. Admitted fellow-commoner under Mess[rs] Maul and Kaye 2 July 1814. Age 18.

B.A. 1818. Born 12 Aug. 1796, son of Robert third Baron Dimsdale of the Russian Empire (a title conferred on his grandfather Tho. Dimsdale, M.D., in 1762, by the Empress Catherine, for having inoculated herself and her son; travelling specially to St Petersburg for the purpose), by his wife Finetta, daughter of Charles Pye of Wadley House, Berks. Fourth Baron Dimsdale 25 Sept. 1825. Married 23 Dec. 1819 Lucinda, daughter of Henry Manning of Wonford House, Devon, by whom he had two sons (who died before him) and four daughters. D.L. for Herts. J.P. for Essex. High Sheriff for Essex 1830. Died 21 Nov. 1865, and was succeeded in the title by his brother.

Wells, David Bowker: son of Samuel: born at Ramsey, Hunts. School: Rugby, under D[r] Wooll. Kept three terms at Trinity. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Maul, Shaw and Bradburne 10 Oct. 1814. Age 20.

B.A. (8th jun. opt.) 1817; M.A. 1820. Admitted scholar 15 Dec. 1814. Sam. Wells was of Peterborough (Rugby Register). Ordained deacon, London, 1818 Dec. at the request of the Bp. of Ely: licensed to Hatley St George and East Hatley, 21 Dec.: priest, Ely, 1819 Oct. Not found again before 1833 when he was curate in charge of Tollesbury, Essex (signs first 31 March): signs last 28 Sept. 1840. Curate of St Mary, Colchester; where he signs first as "officiating minister" 28 Nov. 1847, but as curate 6 Feb. 1848: for the last time 26 June 1855. He was alive in 1860. (Clergy List: no address.)

Fitz Adam, Adam: admitted pensioner 14 Nov. 1814 [Praelector: G. T. Haggitt, who during the year wrote names merely: the facts in a few cases written afterwards in another hand].

B.A. 1819; M.A. 1822. Born 5 April 1797: of Shifnal, Salop: son of James Fitzadam. Called to the Bar, and practised on the Midland Circuit. Married 27 Dec. 1827, at Wigan, Ellen Thompson, daughter of a wealthy Roman Catholic. Recorder of Wigan 1828: held that office till a short time before his death 5 April 1837. His widow died 1873. (M[rs] Fitz Adam, niece.)

Pritchard, Charles Arthur: admitted sizar 15 Nov. 1814.

Appears in Study-rents till Xmas 1815: not found in the Butler's book. Probably the Charles Arthur Prichard who was matriculated from Merton Coll., Oxford 14 Oct. 1815, as son of Charles, armiger, of London. Postmaster 1815–18: but no degree. He was at Harrow School, where his father is described as of Tyllwyd, Cardiganshire. Of Tyllwyd. J.P. and D.L. for Cardigan: J.P. for Carmarthen. Captain of Cardigan Militia. Took a prominent part in suppressing the Rebecca riots. Died 17 Nov. 1862 (Harrow Register[2], 47).

Browne, John Edward: son of John, clerk: born at Hingham, Norfolk. Educated at home by his father. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Maul and Shaw 7 Dec. 1814.

Tancred Divinity Student Dec. 1814. Came into residence Jan. 1815. Died in his third term, and buried in Gt St Andrew's churchyard, 6 Nov. 1815. The father was John Henry Browne, LL.B., Master of Hingham School.

Clarke, Thomas Ware [Were]: admitted pensioner 9 Dec. 1814.

Came into residence Jan. 1815. Kept three terms irregularly. Name removed 18 Sept. 1818. Probably younger brother of John Were Clarke of Bridwell House and Burrington, Devon, J.P. and D.L.: and son of Richard Hall Clarke, by his wife Mary, daughter and heiress of Tho. Were of Burrington. Is not mentioned in the pedigree in Burke (L.G. 242 ed. 1871) and perhaps died young.

Dent, Thomas: born in Westmoreland. Educated in London by M[r] Fanning. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Maul and Shaw 8 Jan. 1815. Age not given.

Came into residence Mich. 1815. Admitted scholar 10 May 1816. Kept three terms only. Born 1796 at Crosby Ravensworth. Engaged in business for 20 years at Hongkong and Shanghai: head of the firm of Dent and Co. Returned to England, and married a Miss Robarts by whom he had several sons. Became head of the firm of Dent, Palmer and Co.: and remained so till shortly before his death in 1872 (Rev. C. Dent, son).

Ash, Edward John: son of Edward, M.D. ("admodum doctus"): born in London and "optimae spei iuvenis." Educated at home by his father. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Maul and Shaw 16 Jan. 1815. Age 16.

B.A. (15th wrangler) 1819; M.A. 1822. Tancred Student Dec. 1814. Admitted scholar 10 May 1816. Elected Fellow (Lady Marg.) in place of G. Millett, 31 Mar. 1819, aged, apparently, 20. Ordained deacon by the Bp. of Bristol (Kaye) in Christ's Chapel 1821 Dec.: also priest 1822 May. Held no office till 1828 when he was Praelector, Junior Dean and Catechist: again in 1830. Mildmay Preacher in 1832. Junior Proctor 1829. Scrutator 1831. When Graham resigned his brief tenure of the Tutorship in 1830, Ash succeeded him and held it till July 1839: under him the numbers were never so large as in the easy days of Shaw: and Ash, together with something of the ability, had also something of the indolence of the Master, whom he supported in his attempts at College reform. "He cared for his men, and willingly took a good deal of trouble for them, in everything but the preparation of his lectures" (E.T.V. in Coll. Mag. Mich. 1893). Luckily he had able assistants in the tuition of the College, C. Lesingham Smith in mathematics, and Edw. Baines in classics. But the record in the schools from 1833 to 1842 is still very poor—15 wranglers, the highest being 14th, and two men in the first class of the other Triposes. On 24 Oct. 1838, on the death of John Maul, Ash was presented to the rectory of Brisley and the vicarage of Gateley in Norfolk: and next year he retired to his livings, being then little over 40. He died 4 March 1851, aged 52.

Norton, William Addington: admitted pensioner 25 Jan. 1815.

B.A. 1819; M.A. 1826. Ordained priest, Norwich, 1820 June: in the previous January he had been licensed to the curacy of Bawdsey, Suffolk: and again 2 Aug. 1825, perhaps till 1830: but perhaps vicar of Skenfrith, co. Monmouth, 5 July 1827–30. Rector of Eyke, Suffolk 5 March 1830, patron, the Earl of Stradbroke: also rector of Alderton, distant about 10 miles from Eyke, and near Bawdsey 30 March 1835. Both livings were vacant in 1856.

Starkie, Legendre Pierce [Piers]: admitted fellow-commoner 10 Feb. 1815.

Kept six terms from Mich. 1815 till Mids. 1817. Second son of Legendre Piers Starkie, of Huntroyd, Burnley, Lancs. (High Sheriff 1806) by his wife Charlotte, daughter of Benjamin Preedy, D.D., rector of Brington, Northants. His elder brother, Legendre, who was Sheriff 1815, died in 1818: and as he was succeeded at Huntroyd by the third brother, Legendre Nicholas, it follows that Legendre Piers was already dead—possibly in 1817, when his name was removed from the Boards.

Burdon, Thomas: admitted fellow-commoner 13 Feb. 1815.

His name is in Study-rents for two terms—but he did not reside.

Goodrich, Charles: admitted pensioner 6 March 1815.

B.A. 1819; M.A. 1822. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1818 Nov.: priest, 1819 Dec. Rector of Little Bittering, Norfolk 10 Dec. 1834: also curate of Hoo—both near East Dereham. He probably held Bittering till 1858.

Pedder, James: admitted 16 June 1815.

B.A. 1819; M.A. 1829. Pensioner. Son of John Pedder M.A. (Trin.), vicar of Garstang, Lancs. from 1794, and of Isabella Fletcher of Lancaster.

Ordained deacon, Chester, 1819 Sept.; priest, 1821; licensed to Garstang Feb. 1822. Succeeded his father as vicar 27 July 1835. Married Eliza Greenhalgh of Myerscough Hall, Lancs. Died 13 Dec. 1855, when he was succeeded in the living by a brother, John. The advowson was bought by a Richard Pedder, linen-draper, of Preston, before 1753, and five of his descendants held the living (Croston-Baines, 5. 424).

Hadwen, Roger Clifton: son of William: born at Dolphinholme, Lancs. School: Kirkby Lonsdale, under the Rev. John Dobson. Admitted sizar under M[r] Shaw 16 June 1815. Age 19.

B.A. (16th sen. opt.) 1819; M.A. 1822. Admitted scholar (K. Edw. VI) 12 May 1816. Ordained deacon, Chester, 1819 Dec.; licensed to Wensley, Yorks.: priest, 1821 April. Was living at Kirkby Lonsdale in 1829. Died at How Gill, Sedbergh, 1843, aged 48 (Davy).

Browning, Charles Calvert: admitted 19 June 1815.

Kept three terms, and failed to keep the Mich. term 1816, when his name was removed. Educated at Eton.

Dannett, William: son of Henry, clerk: born at St Helen's, Prescot, Lancs. School: Kirkham, under his father. Admitted pensioner under M[r] Shaw 19 June 1815. Age 18.

B.A. 1819. Ordained deacon, Chester, 1820 July: licensed to Radcliffe, Lancs.: priest, 1821 Dec.

Penfold, John Sandys: admitted 25 June 1815.

Appears for one quarter in Study-rents: not at all in the Butler's book. Probably never resided. Perhaps a son of John Penfold of St Alban Hall, Oxford, vicar of Steyning 1792–1840.

Purchas, William Jardine: son of John: born in Cambridge. School: St Paul's, under D[r] Roberts. Admitted, "classe relicta," fellow-commoner under M[r] Shaw 17 Oct. 1815. Age 25.

Resided five terms, Mich. 1815–Easter 1817: name removed: readmitted 4 Nov. 1818 and kept that term only. Had been a Captain, R.N. Lived on Parker's Piece (at Gonville House?). Married — Hills, niece of Capt. Marryat (novelist). Mayor of Cambridge in 1828 (as his father had been in 1820 and his great grandfather, John Purchas, in 1760). Died 2 July 1848, aged 69. M.I. to him and his father in Trinity Church, S. aisle.

Horsley, Francis: son of Francis: born at Calcutta. School: Charterhouse, under D[r] Raine. Admitted pensioner under M[r] Shaw 6 Nov. 1815. Age 17.

Minister of Ely Chapel, London, 1836. Died 13 Jan. 1837.

While at Cambridge he was a member—an original member according to W. W. R. Ball (Hist. of Mathematics, 120)—of the Analytical Society, of which Peacock, Herschel and Babbage were the founders in 1812 "with the object of advocating the general use in the University of analytical methods and of the differential notation" in place of the geometrical treatment which previously held the field.

Alex. D'Arblay appears frequently in his mother's Diary and Letters, vol. 4: at p. 388 she says of him (10 Nov. 1816): "never did I see in youth a mind so quiet, so philosophic, in mundane matters, with a temper so eager, so impetuous, so burningly alive to subjects of science and literature." At p. 433 is recorded his arrival 18 March 1818 to support his mother during his father's last illness: he came "to our arms and gratulations on his fellowship: which gave to his dearest father a delight the most touching": his father died 3 May. For her son's death, see page 473: having been appointed to Ely Chapel (which was "damp and ill aired" having been closed for some years) at the close of 1836 he caught influenza therein and in three weeks from his first seizure he died. Macaulay in his Essays (Madame D'Arblay) says that "it was thought he would attain high eminence as a preacher."

Died at San Remo of bronchitis 20 April 1882, aged 81: buried at Yalding: M.I. in churchyard. In Memoir by Bishop Barry, prefixed to a volume of Sermons to Country Congregations (1883), Baines is described by D[r] B. H. Kennedy (a contemporary at Shrewsbury and life-long friend) as "a very small man through life, but one of those small men who are well knit, active and springy, full of energy and genial life." As a young man at Cambridge a member of the "Apostles"—with F. Maurice, John Sterling, Edw. Romilly, &c. A Liberal in politics: "at some public dinner, hearing the peers called 'pillars of the constitution,' he grumblingly said 'Hum! caterpillars'." (B.H.K.). His activity in all parish work is described by Bishop Barry: and his "strong business-like power of work and of organisation." In theological opinions "in early years he had perhaps a leaning to the Evangelical party: in the middle and latter parts of his life he was drawn more closely to the views of doctrine and church-government held by the late Archbishop Tait. But at all times he belonged most properly, both in political and ecclesiastical opinion, to the old Liberal school at Cambridge—the school of Thirlwall, Peacock and Sedgwick—which had never identified itself with Evangelical theology and practice, and had begun to exercise influence before the first appearance of the great High Church movement. That movement he certainly viewed with great suspicion."

Appointed to registrarship of metropolitan carriages 1839–47. One of the founders of the Philological Society, 1842, and always an active member of it. Published in 1857 Dictionary of English Etymology—in which he attacked Max Müller's view of the nature of roots in language. The merits of this book (in which he maintains that language arises from the imitation of natural sounds, as opposed to the ultimate elements of Max Müller) were not seen, owing to the great temporary popularity of his opponent: but they have since been fully recognised. He lived a very quiet retired life—always suffering from weak health—but with great enjoyment and strong family affections. He was "always easy and comfortable, and free to talk about anything without any preoccupation of mind." (M^rs^ Darwin.) He had six children—among them Julia, a well-known essayist, Euphemia, Lady Farrer, and Hope who married Godfrey Wedgwood her first cousin. Died 1 June 1891, aged 88.

M.B. 1828. Born 1804, elder son of Rob. Waring Darwin, M.D., of Shrewsbury: brother of Charles R. Darwin (1827). Friend of Thomas Carlyle and Hensleigh Wedgwood. Lived in London. Suffered through life from weak health: but impressed others greatly. Distinguished by a great charm of manner and a strong sense of humour. Had "the same playfulness [as Charles Lamb] the same lightness of touch, the same tenderness. I remember his being called a universal solvent. He contributed to intercourse the influence that combines dissimilar elements" (Julia Wedgwood, letter to Spectator). "We came to that simply furnished, somewhat ascetic, London drawing-room looking out on the bare street, knowing that he was weary and ill, and had been alone and would be alone again, and yet went away with a glow reflected from his atmosphere, a sense that the world was better for his presence" (Mrs R. B. Litchfield—niece). "Men said he lived a dilettante life. They reproached him with the selflessness that made him somewhat languid. Others, they seemed to aver, were amateurs of this art or that: he was an amateur at living" (Alice Meynell). He died 26 August 1881 after four days' illness. "He was weary of life, which was a struggle with continual ill-health."

Holland, George Thomas: admitted pensioner under Mr Shaw 11 Feb. 1822.

Presented by the College to Croxton 13 July 1838, and went to reside there, "taking the duty morning and afternoon, with two sermons"—a most unusual thing. He married—and lost his wife—in his year's sojourn at Croxton. P.C. of Ch. Ch., Chester 20 Oct. 1839. Vicar of St Michael, Chester 1850 ; there in 1892. Married (2) Arabella, daughter of Ri. Bryans of Chester. Died at Buxton 29 Sept. 1893.

Darwin, Charles [Robert]: admitted pensioner under Mr Shaw 15 Oct. 1827. B.A. 1832; M.A. 1837; Hon. LL.D. 1878. Born at Shrewsbury 12 Feb. 1809, younger son of Robert Waring, M.D. and of Susannah, daughter of Josiah Wedgwood: grandson of Erasmus Darwin: brother of Erasmus Alvey (1822). Educated at Shrewsbury: at Edinburgh University from October 1825 until 1827. Came into residence at Cambridge Jan. 1828: had rooms, first in Sidney Street, then in College (those occupied, according to tradition, by Paley) in the middle staircase of the first court, right hand side: there is a medallion of him in the room. Intended to take Holy Orders: and of the books which he studied at Cambridge, he considered Paley's Evidences and Moral Philosophy the most educative. A popular man among his friends, with whom he rode, shot and collected beetles; E. T. Vaughan, who came into residence in 1830, bears witness to the respect for his knowledge and character felt by undergraduates. (Coll. Mag. Mich. Term 1893.) He never went to Sedgwick's lectures on Geology (always well attended) having been disgusted with the teaching of this subject at Edinburgh. Attended Henslow on Botany and went with him on his field excursions, also to his Friday evenings, and so became intimate with him, frequenting his house and walking with him: he also met there and came to know other older men, as Whewell. Admitted to the title of B.A. 26 Apr. 1831 as soon as he had kept the requisite ten terms: he passed the examination in January: in June he left Cambridge. Naturalist on board H.M.S. Beagle Dec. 1831–Oct. 1836: "by far the most important event in my life...determined my whole career"—enabling him to make observations of many kinds in the south part of America and the South Sea islands: the value of his work was recognised in England even before his return: "he will have a great name among the naturalists of England" (Sedgwick, 7 Nov. 1835). Settled in Cambridge, 10 Dec. 1836, to put in order his geological collections: lived in Fitzwilliam Street, but seems to have been treated as a fellow-commoner (informally) in College: remained there till March 1837, commencing his Journal of Researches (known in later editions as A Naturalist's Voyages): then he settled in London, where he published the Journal and for several years he took part in preparing for publication the geological and zoological results of the voyage—ending with the book on Coral Reefs, 1842. On 29 Jan. 1839 married his cousin, Emma Wedgwood. His work was hindered by ill-health, partly caused by his voyage and its hardships, which affected him through life. In Sept. 1842 he settled at Down, Kent mainly to avoid meetings of learned societies and general social duties: there for his remaining 40 years he lived a life of incessant study and observation during the few hours of each day in which his health allowed him to work. Successive books were "the milestones in my life." Some of these (for the full list see the end of Vol. III. of his Life by his son, Francis Darwin) were his monographs on Cirripedia (barnacles)—at which he worked between Oct. 1846 and 1854: as to which he doubted whether "the work was worth the consumption of so much time"—a judgment with which Huxley disagreed. From 1854 to 1859 he was preparing to publish on Evolution, The Origin of Species being a condensation of a larger book which exists in MS. The Origin of Species ("no doubt, the chief work of my life"), was published Nov. 1859. It brought him fame at once. In 1862 appeared the Fertilisation of Orchids—ten months' work on facts previously accumulated: in 1868 the Variation of Animals and Plants under Domestication at which he had worked for eight years: in 1871 the Descent of Man, which took three years to write: in 1872 the Expression of the Emotions: in 1875 Insectivorous Plants, sixteen years after his first observations: in 1876 Effects of cross-and self-fertilisation: in 1880 the Power of Movement in Plants in which his son, F. Darwin assisted him, and in 1881 the fascinating book on the action of Earthworms on which he had read a paper forty years before. The record of prolonged reflection on these subjects ending in slow and careful statement of the results, is most remarkable. "During the last 30 years (he said in May 1881) I am not conscious of any change in my mind, excepting in one point": viz. that up to 30 he enjoyed English poets: "now (1881) for many years I cannot endure a line of poetry." He had novels read to him and enjoyed them "if moderately good, and if they do not end unhappily." His mind, he said, "had become a sort of machine for grinding general laws out of large collections of facts." His estimate of himself was that, "with such moderate abilities as I possess, it is truly surprising that I should have influenced to a considerable extent the belief of scientific men on some important points." At his death, and now, more than a quarter of a century later, the estimate of the world has been that he was the greatest English naturalist of the nineteenth century.

The Senate House was crowded on 17 Nov. 1877 when he was admitted to the Hon. LL.D. degree. It is said that he was persuaded to come to receive the degree only by the assurance that at ordinary congregations almost no one was present. The undergraduates, who filled the galleries and cheered heartily, suspended (in place of the wooden spoon on the day of admission of Honour candidates) a monkey—quite to Darwin's satisfaction.

He had six sons and four daughters: two of whom died in infancy, the eldest son Will. Erasmus was admitted at Christ's in 1858, and the third son Francis (B.A. (Trin.) 1870) was Fellow of Christ's 1887–1904, afterwards Honorary Fellow. He would have been himself elected Hon. Fellow, had the Statutes of 1882 been passed in time. He died at Down 19 Apr. 1882, aged 73—and was buried in Westminster Abbey, April 26. Portrait (by Ouless) in the College Hall.

Oldknow, Joseph: of Notts. Admitted sizar under M^{r} Shaw 15 Oct. 1827.

Jennings, 2 May 1832: K. Edw. VI in place of T. Walker 6 July 1839. A strong Conservative, and therefore joined Hildyard in opposition to D^{r} Graham—but while Hildyard was bitter, Davidson opposed "intelligently and reasonably but scarcely less decisively" (E.T.V.). Fellowship declared vacant 18 May 1844 on his marriage 9 May with Mary E., daughter of J. H. Christie, barrister, of Lincoln's Inn. Admitted at the Middle Temple 30 July 1829: barrister 29 Nov. 1835: at Lincoln's Inn (ad eundem) 9 Nov. 1855. Distinguished at the conveyancing bar. Examiner of title in the Land Registry Office since 1869. Joint Editor of Davidson's concise precedents in Conveyancing. One of the Secretaries of the Univ. Commission. E. T. Vaughan wrote of him (Coll. Mag. Mich. 1893): "the few who were allowed to penetrate the veil of a singularly shy and modest nature, found in him a bright intelligence, a keen sagacity, and an unusually wide and discriminating love of literature."

Vincent, Henry: admitted pensioner under M^{r} Shaw 15 Nov. 1827.

Hildyard, James: eighth [sic] son of William, clerk: born in Yorks. School: Shrewsbury, under D^{r} Sam. Butler. Admitted pensioner under M^{r} Shaw (his last pupil) 5 July 1828.

B.A. (30th sen. opt.: Cl. Trip. I.: Second Chancellor's Medallist) 1833; M.A. 1836; B.D. 1846. Tancred Student, Dec. 1829. Admitted scholar (K. Edw. VI) 27 Oct. 1830. Battie Univ. Scholar 1831. Browne's Medallist 1830, 1831, 1832. Members' Prizeman, 1832, 1833. Born 11 April 1809, sixth of the ten sons of Will. Hildyard, rector of Winestead, near Patrington, Yorks., by his wife Catherine Grant: eight of the ten were educated at Cambridge, five were Fellows of various colleges, and another was Commissary of the University. Elected Fellow (L. Marg.) in place of B. Gilpin, 22 March 1833. Steward 1833, 1837, 1840. Catechist 1834. Praelector 1839. Ordained priest, Lincoln, 1834 Feb. Hebrew Lecturer 1840. Junior Dean 1841, 1844. Mildmay Preacher 1841–3. Junior Proctor 1843–4. Taxor 1844–5. A Tutor of the College Nov. 1840–July 1847. Examiner for the Classical Tripos, 1838, 1839, 1844; in 1844 he altered a bracket in the list, already agreed to by the examiners, so that Wratislaw was placed in the bracket above Keary. This caused great excitement in the University: and next year the College nominated as its Examiner W. S. Wood of St John's in place of Hildyard, who would naturally have examined again. He travelled in Greece, Turkey and Asia Minor. Edited two plays of Plautus—the Menaechmi (1836): Aulularia (1839). In College he was generally in opposition to D^{r} Graham: in 1838, with Baldwin and Walker, he supported Mortlock in the battle against Graham's proposed new Statutes. But he was not by character an obstructive. He was one of the assailants of private tuition in the University—a matter which caused strong feeling for many years. As tutor he introduced into this College, a compromise (which has in later times been occasionally adopted without much success): viz. additional assistance given within the College for a small fee. He also devoted himself, here and at his country living, to liturgical reform:

he urged the abridgment of the Morning Service and other changes. Numerous letters on this subject were collected and published by him in 1858 in two volumes which bore the title of Ingoldsby letters, which went through three editions in five years. But so important a matter required a more cautious advocate: he was contentious and always sure that he was right. On 4 June 1846 he was presented to the rectory of Ingoldsby, vacant by the death of N. C. Lane. He resided till the end of the year 1846–7, when he went to his living, and married a daughter of Geo. Kinderley of Lincoln's Inn. His fellowship was declared vacant 31 Aug. 1847. It is supposed that he had hopes of preferment; which came to nothing. In Jan. 1849, when the Mastership was vacant, at least five of the older Fellows wished to elect him, and he would probably have accepted the office. But the others mistrusted his judgment and his temper: and the contest ended with the election of Jos. Shaw, as a compromise. At Ingoldsby he restored the church well: and built a new and much too large rectory-house, after the fashion of those days. The College agreed (1846) to give £400 if Hildyard spent £1000: he must have spent much more. He died 27 Aug. 1887, leaving two daughters. For a list of his publications see D.N.B.

*Cartmell, James:

B.A. (Emm. as 7th wrangler) 1833; M.A. (Christ's) 1836; B.D. 1846; D.D. (per lit. reg.) 1849. Born at Carlisle, son of James Cartmell and Jane Monkhouse, 13 Nov. 1810.

Elected Fellow, in place of Cha. Otter, 21 May 1833. Steward 1834, 1841. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1835 June. Junior Dean and Catechist 1835, 1838. Praelector 1836. Senior Dean 1842, 1845. Mildmay Preacher 1843–5. Tutor (with E. Baines) Oct. 1839; with C. Hildyard Oct. 1841; with C. A. Swainson and A. H. Wratislaw Oct. 1847–49. A popular tutor, who took a sincere interest in his pupils: their position in the Tripos lists for these 10 years was better than it had been under Shaw or Ash. Elected Master (when Jos. Shaw resigned the office) 13 Feb. 1849–23 Jan. 1881. Married Frances, daughter of the Rev. J. T. Austen (senior wrangler 1817), by whom he had one son, James, afterwards Austen-Cartmell (1881) and three daughters. M[rs] Cartmell died in 1864.

His Mastership was very important in the history of the College. It covered the last 10 years in which the Statutes of the Foundress were still operative; almost the whole period of the transitional Statutes of 1860; and the preparation for the Statutes of 1882. He was selected to give evidence to the Commission of 1850: and his recommendations are interesting (see Report, p. 215 &c.): he suggested the connexion of College Fellowships with University Professorships; the establishment in each college of a teaching staff free from the condition of celibacy; and the creation of small temporary Fellowships free from College duties. These changes were only to a small extent carried out in 1860; and so far, he may be said to have been in advance of his time. But, in general, while he had a sincere desire for reform, he was cautious, and anxious not to move before public opinion was mature. From the experiment of 1838 he had doubtless learnt the need of unanimity in reform. Between 1852 and 1858 he thought out, and induced the College to accept, as large a reconstruction of its internal economy as was possible under the old Statutes: this was doubtless facilitated by the prospect of a new order of things. He was also a good financier and man of business. He had a thorough knowledge of the College estates and relied on his own judgment (which was generally justified) in their management. He carried out by degrees the conversion (almost complete) of beneficial leases into leases at rack rent, whereby the revenue of the College was for a time materially increased. His policy would have paved the way to permanent prosperity, but for the unforeseen fall in agricultural rents, which at the end of 20 years reduced the income of the College almost to what it was at the beginning of that time. He saw only the first clouds of coming trouble: when he died "felix opportunitate mortis," he might fairly have claimed the credit of having reconstituted the College within and without. He had a free hand in doing so: for the Statutes of 1860 left the Master almost as powerful at College meetings as he was before: without having the "vox negativa" of old days, he was under no obligation to submit to a vote the proposal of any Fellow. His far superior knowledge and experience in College affairs enabled him almost always to get his own way. He successfully opposed a proposal for the entire amalgamation of Christ's with Emmanuel—a proposal which found warm support in both Colleges. He took a considerable share in University matters: especially in the management of the Press: he was for many years Chairman of the Press Syndicate. He was also much interested in the relation of the University to the Town: and while jealously supporting the privileges of the University and the Colleges, he always strove for a better understanding between the two bodies. He died very suddenly 23 Jan. 1881 and was buried in the ante-chapel at the entrance to the inner chapel. Portrait in the Combination Room.

Name removed 7 Nov. 1864. Several years before—in 1854—he declined to pay rent to the College for certain land at Burnham: and the College agreed (11 Feb. 1856) to take steps to enforce the performance of Mr Bates' lease. Soon afterwards Mr Bates filed a Bill in Chancery in which he alleged that the whole tithes of Burnham (instead of the mediety thereof), together with other reputed College property, belonged to him as rector. The case came before Vice-Chancellor Stuart 23 Apr. 1858. Before the opening statement on Mr Bates' behalf was finished, his Counsel proposed that the Bill should be dismissed provided that the College would consent to its dismissal without claiming costs from Mr Bates. To this the Master (Dr Cartmell) who was present, agreed on behalf of the College, which confirmed his action, May 21. Dr Bates died 25 Nov. 1877.

Built a new vicarage-house, the College contributing to the cost £250 on condition that he gave £900, the old material and dilapidation-money. A further sum of £750 was obtained by loan from Queen Anne's Bounty. Remained at Bourn till 1878 when he was presented by the College (6 July) to Little Canfield, where C. Lesingham Smith had died. Resigned Little Canfield 1898: settled at Sutton, Surrey: where he died 14 March 1905, aged 86.

Drury, George: admitted pensioner under M^r^ Ash 17 June 1837. Age not given.

B.A. 1841. Born 2 Mar. 1819, son of Lieut. Geo. Drury, 33^rd^ reg^t^., who was wounded at Waterloo; and of Anne Hedding of St Neots. School: Ipswich, of which his great-grandfather was head-master, as well as rector of Claydon, distant three miles: he was succeeded as rector by his son: and he by his grandson. Ordained deacon, Norwich, 1843: priest, 1845. Rector of Claydon with Akenham 1846–95. A strong Ritualist (see East Anglian Daily Times, 4 Dec. 1895), and well-known throughout the diocese for his uncompromising advocacy of his opinions: he also had much personal charm. He established a Sisterhood at Claydon, which caused much excitement. In 1878 he was successful in an action for libel arising out of the burial of an unbaptised child in Akenham churchyard. He did much for the beautifying of his church, working with his own hands a stone pulpit and some stained glass: he rebuilt the chancel from his own designs. He officiated till four months before his death—2 Dec. 1895: buried at Claydon, 7 Dec.

Sharpe, Samuel Curtis: of Norfolk. School: North Walsham, under the Rev. S. Rees. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Ash 27 June 1837. Age 22.

B.A. 1841; M.A. 1848. Admitted scholar (Finch and Baines) 5 Nov. 1839; L. Marg. 2 Nov. 1840. Of Swafield, near N. Walsham. Curate [?] of Tawton, near Barnstaple. P.C. of St Peter, Halliwell, Lancs. 1848–54 [?]. Alive, without cure, in 1860.

Headlam, Charles: son of a "very learned" physician: born at Newcastle. Admitted pensioner under M^r^ Ash 5 July 1837. Age 19.

Kept seven terms: name removed Feb. 1840. Only son of Tho. Emerson Headlam, M.D., of Newcastle, by his wife Isabella, daughter of Sir William Loraine (1767), fourth baronet, of Kirk Harle. Dr Headlam (a younger brother of John Headlam, Archdeacon of Richmond, whose sons and grandsons are well known at Cambridge) had great influence in Newcastle, especially in political matters and died at a great age in 1864: he left a large fortune, which his son dissipated, on the turf and otherwise. Charles Headlam married his cousin, Gertrude Baldwin, sister of the founder of the Zingari cricket club. Died, without issue.

Wylie, Macleod: born in Clerkenwell. Admitted pensioner under Mr Ash 5 July 1837. Age 20.

B.A. (2nd sen. opt.) 1842. Admitted scholar—as of Somerset—(Finch and Baines) 3 Nov. 1838; L. Marg. 26 Oct. 1839. Of St James Square, Bath. A member of the Hendeka Club. Afterwards of Mitre Court, Temple. Employed in the British Museum: Under-Secretary 1849–50. Went out as an original settler of Canterbury, New Zealand: Lord Lyttelton's scheme "of colonising Canterbury with a body of settlers, members of the Church of England and representative of every grade of English society, captivated his eager and impulsive mind....He aided J. R. Godley, afterwards Under-Secretary for the Colonies, in steering the Canterbury settlement through its first troubled years." A Member of the N.Z. Parliament. Strongly advocated the claims of the Maoris. Founded two journals, which are still the principal journals. "Wit, eloquence and courage made him many friends." A Minister of the N.Z. Government: ceased to take a share in public work "from the virtues quite as much as from the defects of his temperament." Died at Wellington, 1896, aged 78. (Obituary in Times, 6 Aug. 1896.)

Hitchcock, John: admitted pensioner under Mr Ash 12 Nov. 1837.

B.A. 1842; M.A. 1847. Address, Chiltern All Saints, near Heytesbury, Wilts. Afterwards Birkland House, Portland Street, Leamington. Perhaps a school-master. Ordained deacon, London, 1841 Dec.: priest, 1842 Dec. but first found in any cure in May 1874 when he was instituted vicar of Harmondsworth, Midds. Died 18 May 1875, aged 64.

*Swainson, Charles Anthony:

B.A. (Trin., 6th wrangler) 1841; M.A. 1844; D.D. 1864. Born 29 May 1820, son of Anthony Swainson, merchant, of Liverpool, and of Margaret, daughter of Tho. Clay. Educated at the Royal Institution, Liverpool. Came into residence at Trinity College, Mich. 1837. Elected Fellow, in place of John Baldwin, 23 June 1841. An appeal was made against the election by J. D. Fletcher (see p. 453), but dismissed: admitted 7 Aug. 1841. Ordained deacon, Ely, 1843: priest, 1844. Junior Dean and Catechist 1843, 1847. Steward 1845. Praelector 1846. Tutor, with J. Cartmell and A. H. Wratislaw, 1847, with J. Smith, W. Bates and A. H. Wratislaw, 1849–July 1851. Whitehall Preacher 1849. Curate of St George, Hanover Square 1851, later of Mortlake. Married in 1852 Eliz., daughter of Cha. Inman of Liverpool. Fellowship declared vacant 22 Nov. 1852. Principal of the Theological College, Chichester, 1854–64. Prebendary of Chichester 1856–81. Hulsean Lecturer 1857 and 1858. Warden of St Mary's Hospital, Chichester, 1864. Norrisian Professor of Divinity, 1864–79. L. Margaret Professor, 1879–87. Elected Master in succession to Dr Cartmell, 9 Feb. 1881. Vice-Chancellor 1885–6. As Master he was called on to reorganise the whole accounts of the College in order to make the returns to the University required by the new Statutes of 1882. He had also much anxious work in providing out of reduced revenues for the obligations incurred by the College in earlier days when prosperity seemed to be at the door: in doing this he showed sound financial ability and knowledge gained by long experience at Chichester. In all College matters he displayed great tact and courtesy: indeed throughout life he was (in the words of his memorial in the ante-chapel) "amabilis, amatus." He overtaxed his strength by his work as Vice-Chancellor, though he held the office but for one year: and after some months of failing strength he died 15 Sept. 1887, aged 67. Buried at Grantchester. M.I. in ante-chapel.

His literary work, which was very considerable, was chiefly on the Creeds and Liturgies: for a good account see D.N.B. The works on the Creeds commenced with his Hulsean Lectures of 1857; he made the history of the Creeds his own by a work of permanent value in 1875. He thought the Athanasian Creed unsuitable for public worship—and published thereon a Letter to the Dean of Chichester (1870) and A Plea for Time in dealing with the Athanasian Creed (1873). His last important work was The Greek Liturgies chiefly from the original sources (1884)—a work which involved much labour and expense in the collation of MSS., and has been commended by Harnack as the foundation of all further critical enquiry into this subject. In 1848 he published while still Tutor a small volume of "commonplaces" delivered in the College Chapel by himself and his fellow tutor Wratislaw.

Clough, John Henry Gore: admitted (from Queens') pensioner under M^r^ Ash 24 Jan. 1838.

Founded the Gell Hebrew Prize in the College 1852 (with an endowment of £100) out of the large dividend caused by the Diseworth Fine. Active while at Cambridge in promoting mission-work: also founded at Rugby a fund for supporting a missionary in the Masulipatam College. Consecrated at Lambeth Bishop of Madras 29 June 1861. Arrived in Madras 25 Nov. 1861: his fellowship was declared vacant as from that day on 27 March 1862. His health, which had been weak in England, was good in India, and he held his bishopric till 1898. He revisited England more than once: but returned to India, there to finish his life where his chief work and interests had been. He died at Coonoor, near Madras 25 March 1903.

Bishop Gell had a remarkable influence over men of very dissimilar character by a quiet devout spirit and complete consistency of life. His activity in India was unceasing: "early and late he was to be found at work. But he was never in a hurry, never disturbed by the inconveniences or mishaps of travel, and his endurance of provocation was often a marvel to me" (sermon by his former chaplain, S. Morley, Bishop of Tinnevelly, after his death). He was honoured and loved by all with whom he had to do, Christian or non-Christian.

Elphinstone brought him before the Court of Arches 27 Nov. 1869 for wearing unauthorised garments and for illegal ceremonies in the Communion Service. He did not appear and was condemned on eight points out of many. This result being very unsatisfactory to the promoter of the suit, the case was taken before the Privy Council: and on the death of the promoter in 1870, another was allowed to take his place. The Privy Council decided against Purchas 16 Jan. 1871 on nearly all the points. As the practices thus condemned were continued he was suspended by the Privy Council on 7 Feb. 1872. During a very excited controversy which arose on the case Purchas still continued to minister at St James'. On 18 Oct. 1872 he died, and was buried in the cemetery at Brighton. and two daughters. Secretary of the Lincoln Diocesan Board of Education 1874–90. Prebendary of Lincoln (Welton-Painshall) 1882. He did excellent work in the Diocese, and in his own parish, where he was present in the school two hours every morning, giving the religious instruction himself. A man of remarkable simplicity, integrity, and modesty: distrustful of himself though he had good, if not brilliant abilities, and a sound judgment: much loved by his pupils in the College and by his parishioners. He was active in the restoration of his very beautiful church, if not always very wisely: his work was perfected by the present rector, the Rev. G. T. Harvey. He died at Navenby 3 October 1893, and was buried there.

Gunson, William Mandell: son of John of Baggrow, Cumberland: born at Bolton, Cumberland. School: Sedbergh, under M[r] Evans. Admitted pensioner under Mess[rs] Hildyard and Cartmell 12 May 1843. Born 27 Oct. 1822.

B.A. (28th wrangler: Class. Trip. 1st class) 1847; M.A. 1850. Admitted scholar 26 Oct. 1844. Admitted Fellow (Finch and Baines) succeeding J. Hays 8 Sept. 1847; L. Marg. succeeding Ja. Cartmell 7 May 1849. Praelector 1850, 1853. Steward 1854, 1859, 1860, 1866. Senior Dean 1868. Tutor (with Joh. Hays till 1864) 1851–70. He was a man of strong will, and great power of work: he had a kind heart under a rough exterior: in money matters he was very generous: and none knew of his generosity but the recipient. His Tutorship was memorable in the history of the College. Many tutors who preceded him had cared as much for their pupils and had dealt with them in some respects perhaps more wisely and sympathetically. But no one for many decades of the College had shewn the same power of getting work out of his men, by steady pressure on the industrious, and by stronger measures with the idle: the position of Christ's men in the Tripos lists—especially the Classical Tripos—began under him to be very different from what it had been for many generations. He took pains with his lectures: and if he never entered on the many problems connected with the study of Plato, Aristotle and Cicero, he had and could impart to his class a good understanding of what those writers meant. He resigned the tutorship in 1870 on a difference with the Master, of little importance in itself which brought to a head an estrangement which had been for some time growing: each desired his own way, but the Master was substantially in the right. Attempts to bring about a reconciliation were fruitless: and though he lived in College for eleven years afterwards he took no further part in its management except by attending meetings. But he worked assiduously for the University: he had been a very active member of the Council of the Senate from 1868: he served on several special Syndicates and on the Syndicate of the University Press: he examined for the Classical Tripos 1853, 1854, 1861–3 (inclusive), 1872–9 (inclusive). In 1881 his health began to break down: at Easter he left Cambridge for the last time and lived a solitary life on the property which he inherited from his father a Cumberland "statesman." The end came very sadly—on 30 Sept. 1881. His services to the College were commemorated by many old pupils and friends in a fitting memorial: the south oriel window in the Hall was filled with excellent stained glass (the work of Mess^{rs} Burlison and Grylls) representing the founders, benefactors and worthies of the College. Portrait in the Combination Room.

Maul, Spencer Woodfield: son of John, Fellow of Christ's: born at Brisley, Norfolk. School: Bury St Edmunds, under M^{r} Edwards [sic]. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Hildyard and Cartmell 23 May 1843. Born 28 Dec. 1824.

Remained in Cambridge for a year or more: then entered at the Inner Temple and was called to the Bar in 1865. Married 24 June 1863 his cousin Ellen Calverley of Oulton Hall near Leeds. Was rising as a lawyer when owing to concussion of the brain, caused by a fall on his head while skating at the end of 1866, he was disabled from any further professional work. Lived till 1884, engaged on various kinds of literary work. Died 17 Feb. and was buried at Folkestone.

For his character and work see Leslie Stephen (in D.N.B.) and (better) the Memoir prefaced to a volume of Literary Remains published (1885) by his brother-in-law Sir Walter Sendall: especially the notice by Sir John Seeley. His Verses and Translations (1862) and his Fly-leaves (1872) made him very popular both with those who love refined classical scholarship and with those who love Society-verse in the style of W. M. Praed. His English verses are still well known at Cambridge—none the less because of the (mostly mythical) stories of his habit of breaking College rules, and of his remarkable bodily strength and agility. He had (it is true) a great impatience of any rule of which he did not see the reason, and a great contempt for any mental or moral pretence. He had a strong sense of all the absurdity in the world: and this made him a humorist—of a peculiar type: not a sayer of specially humorous or witty sayings—but a humorist in essence: and this quality underlies all his writings: see Sir John Seeley's excellent account in the Memoir (especially pp. 104–110). But he was a perfectly lovable, simple-minded—and humble-minded—gentleman: and a most loyal friend.

Professor of Latin at University College 1863: when he set to work at an edition of Livy 1–10: book 1 (only) appeared in 1871. In 1865 he published Ecce Homo anonymously, but the authorship was soon known, though not avowed: the book called out wide attention and much controversy. On 17 Aug. 1869 he married Mary Agnes Phillott: and thereby vacated his Fellowship. A few weeks later he was appointed Regius Professor of History: this office would have enabled him to retain his Fellowship: he was elected Professorial Fellow of Caius 31 Oct. 1882: and Hon. Fellow of Christ's 12 Jan. 1883—at the earliest opportunity. He was appointed K.C.M.G. 1894. In his last years he suffered much from ill-health—all his life he was hampered by insomnia: and he died 13 Jan. 1895, aged 60. In early life his power of work was marvellous. While a young Fellow of Christ's he often read from 7 p.m. to 3 a.m. For many weeks he devoted this time to a systematic study of geography—as essential for a historian. His power of conversation—with one or two people at a time—was also wonderful: it was "marked by dialectical subtlety and terseness: and though not combative, he never shrank from thorough discussion." As a teacher of history he held strongly that "history was a school of statesmanship," it was to be a practical study: the problems which he set himself to solve generally arose out of present difficulties. "Historical narrative, without generalisation, had no value for him." This partly accounts for the fact that his largest work—The Life of Stein (1878)—was his least popular work: it was very hard to read: whereas his Expansion of England (1883) and his Growth of British Policy (1895) (posthumous) were singularly influential in forming public opinion upon the relation between England and the Colonies. "He became a warm supporter of Federation—not of any specific form of Federal union—but of the Federal idea." Among his other works was Natural Religion 1882—not the promised sequel to Ecce Homo: in it "the religion advocated is as devoid of the supernatural as the science from which it is distinguished." But he guarded himself from the assumption that the supernatural has no existence. The remarkably clear and pungent style which marked all his productions is unquestionably due to his love and wide knowledge (acquired while yet a boy) of the best English literature: his favourite poet was Milton: and he preferred Paradise Regained to Paradise Lost.

(D.N.B. (a very just and appreciative notice by D^{r} G. W. Prothero): also a memoir by the same writer prefixed to Growth of British Policy.)

Besant, Walter: son of William, merchant: born at Portsmouth. School: Stockwell. Admitted pensioner under Mess^{rs} Hays and Gunson 2 June 1855. Born 19 [14. W. B.] August 1836.

B.A. (18th wrangler) 1859; M.A. 1863. According to Sir Walter's Autobiography he was fifth son of William Besant, of the Civil Service, educated at St Paul's School, Southsea 1848–51, at Stockwell, London 1851–4, at King's College, London 1854–5. Admitted scholar 3 June 1856. Mathematical Master at Rossall School 1859: at Leamington College 1860–61. Professor of Mathematics, Port Louis, Mauritius, 1861–7; where he studied Old French literature. Returned to England on furlough June 1867; wrote a book on Early French poetry (1868): and in the same year was appointed Secretary of the Palestine Exploration Fund, 1868–85: Hon. Secretary till his death. Wrote for newspapers and magazines: published in 1871 (with E. H. Palmer) The History of Jerusalem: and in 1873 The French Humorists. Wrote "Middles" for the Saturday Review from 1873. Wrote on Rabelais about 1875. From 1881 edited a series of miscellaneous biographies, of which he wrote Coligny and Whittington—the latter a study of medieval London: later he wrote a life of E. H. Palmer, and of Richard Jefferies—for both of whom he had an enthusiastic regard. Having tried his hand on short stories in Christmas magazines he commenced about 1872 novels in collaboration with James Rice: of these twelve appeared up to 1882 when Rice died: the best known being Ready Money Mortiboy, By Celia's Arbour, The Golden Butterfly, My Little Girl, and The Chaplain of the Fleet. From 1882 he wrote alone, quickly and steadily, eighteen novels and several shorter stories, in eighteen years: one being historical—Dorothy Forster (1883)—which he deemed (probably rightly) the best: others had a historical setting—For Faith and Freedom, The World went very well then, St Katharine's by the Tower and The Orange Girl. Others deal with modern life, often in the East End—as All Sorts and Conditions of Men, and The Children of Gibeon: All in a Garden Fair (partly autobiographical); Herr Paulus, Amorel of Lyonnesse, The Master Craftsman, Beyond the Dreams of Avarice, The Fourth Generation, novels with a "purpose." While studying the East End for materials for novels, he grew convinced that its greatest need was a centre of organised recreation, and artistic culture: such a centre was drawn by him in All Sorts and Conditions of Men, and the People's Palace was actually built as the result, and opened in 1887: and the originator of the idea became Sir Walter Besant (1895). The Palace was taken over at last by the Drapers' Company and run on lines not exactly those of its creator. Besant was also the originator of a very different scheme—the Society of Authors; which had for its object the maintenance, definition, and defence of literary property; and the consolidation and amendment of the Laws of Copyright: he was the first Chairman of the Society (1884) and throughout his life he was its most steady and active supporter.

Another large work was the preparation of a new Survey of London (founded on Stow and Strype), which Adam Black and Co. undertook to publish. His knowledge of London, and his curious love of it, fitted him admirably for the work. Four volumes, of a popular kind, subsidiary to the Survey, appeared—viz. London (1892), Westminster (1895), South London (1898), East London (1901).

Besant married in 1874 the daughter of Eustace Foster Barham of Bridgwater, by whom he had two sons and two daughters. He lived in his later years at Hampstead, where after a long period of failing health, caused partly by too unremitting work, he died 9 June 1901.

Cartmell 1877–84: as tutor he brought about the combination (for educational work) of this College with Emmanuel, and subsequently with Sidney Sussex, which is now firmly established. Junior Dean, 1876, 1878. Reader in Comparative Philology 1884–91. Member of various Boards of Studies: Classical (Chairman), Oriental, Modern and Medieval Languages, Indian Civil Service Studies (for nearly 30 years Chairman): of various Syndicates: Press, Library, Local Examinations and Lectures, Higher Grade Schools Examination, Lodging Houses (Chairman), &c.; also of several Occasional Syndicates: among these, (1) on the Previous and General Examinations 1871, (2) Teaching Requirements 1875, (3) "Double Honours" 1877. Member of the Council of the Senate 1874–8, 1880–93, 1894–1906. Member of the General Board 1884. Member of the Financial Board until 1905. Master of the College 1887–1910. Vice-Chancellor of the University, 1891–3: in which capacity he was responsible for the proposal (which the Senate accepted) that the Vice-Chancellor's power of trying in his own Court persons "suspected of evil" should no longer be maintained. Governor of Repton School 1880–1905. One of the earliest lecturers to women at Cambridge; and a member from the beginning of the Council of Newnham College, of which he became President 1890–1910. The new building of that College was named after him and his wife in 1910. Fellow of the British Academy 1904.

[Peile was a distinguished classical scholar and teacher. He studied comparative philology under Benfey at Göttingen, and did much to introduce the study in England. When the Chair of Sanskrit was founded in 1867, he refused to be a candidate for it, in order that another learned student of the subject might be brought to Cambridge. His lectures on classical authors and on philology attracted large classes for many years. His Introduction to Greek and Latin Etymology (1869, 3rd ed. 1875) first presented to English readers the results of recent research; his Primer of Philology had a very large circulation; he wrote Notes on the Tale of Nala (1881), and articles on the alphabet and on each letter in the Encyclopaedia Britannica, 9th ed.; and also contributed many papers to the Athenaeum. After giving up the Readership he turned to researches in College history, wrote a History of Christ's College, 1900, and began this Biographical Register, which he lived to complete down to 1871.

As Tutor and as Master Peile was remarkably successful. He exercised a strong influence over his pupils; and guided the affairs of the College with great knowledge and wisdom, though he never permanently resumed the management of its estates, which had been delegated to a Bursar by his predecessor. Under him the College greatly increased its numbers and improved and enlarged its buildings. In University business he took a leading part, and did much to shape the reconstructions of the latter part of the 19th century. He promoted the widening of studies, of teaching and of research, and various measures for bringing more students to Cambridge and for extending the influence of the University outside. (See College Magazine vol. XXIV. p. 143.)

Dr Peile had bad health during the last few years of his life, but was able to assist at the quatercentenary celebration of the foundation of the College in 1905, at the tercentenary of John Milton in 1908, and at the centenary of Charles Darwin in 1909. He died at the Master's lodge on Oct. 9, 1910, fifty-four years all but a day from the day on which he came up as a freshman. He was buried at Trumpington, where he had resided since his marriage until he became Master. Father of Joh. Williamson (1889): Frank Kitchener (1890): and of Hester Mary, who married in 1890 the Rev. J. A. Kempthorne, now Bishop of Hull.]

In July 1880, D^{r} Ryle, appointed first Bishop of Liverpool, requested M^{r} Cox to abstain from certain ritualistic practices, to which his predecessor, the Bishop of Chester, had tacitly assented. M^{r} Cox protested and the Bishop declined to sanction a prosecution. In 1885 a M^{r} Hakes (not a parishioner) came forward to prosecute; and the Bishop did not use his veto. After some litigation, M^{r} Cox, who remained "contumacious" was imprisoned in Walton jail 5 May 1887. Not long afterwards he was released: and nothing more happened. M^{r} Cox's position was stated by himself in an article "Why I was imprisoned" in Murray's Magazine, July 1887. "(1) I cannot recognise the spiritual authority of what his Lordship calls the Queen's Courts of Law, in Ecclesiastical matters. (2) His Lordship cannot claim canonical obedience when he is simply enforcing the decrees of the secular courts. (3) Even when acting as a Bishop, canonical obedience is due to him only as to things within his discretion."

William Robertson Smith, eldest son of William Pirie, born at Keig, Aberdeenshire, on 8th Nov. 1846. Educated at home; University of Aberdeen; New College, Edinburgh; Bonn and Göttingen, 1868–1870. Assistant to P. G. Tait, Professor of Natural Philosophy in Edinburgh. In 1870 became Professor of Oriental Languages and Old Testament in Free Church College, Aberdeen, till June 1881, when he was removed from Professorship by the General Assembly on account of critical views on Old Testament. In summer of 1872 at Göttingen, studying Arabic with Lagarde. In 1875 became member of Old Testament Revision Committee. Travelled in Egypt, Syria and Palestine 1878–9 and in the Hejaz 1879–80, and described his journey in letters to The Scotsman. From 1875 onwards contributed articles to 9th edition of Encyclopaedia Britannica; in 1881 became colleague with the late Professor Baynes in editing this edition, the successful completion of the work in 1888 being largely due to him; as was also the inception of the Encyclopaedia Biblica. In January 1883 accepted Lord Almoner's Professorship of Arabic in succession to E. H. Palmer, when he joined Trinity College, where he remained until his election to a Fellowship at Christ's. In February 1886 resigned the Lord Almoner's Professorship upon election as Librarian of the University in succession to Henry Bradshaw. The Librarianship he exchanged in 1889 (upon the death of Professor W. Wright) for the Sir Thomas Adams Professorship of Arabic, which he held till his death in 1894. M.A. Cambridge; LL.D. Aberdeen; D.D. Strasburg; Litt.D. Dublin; Fellow of Royal Society of Edinburgh (at the age of 21). Publications: Old Testament in the Jewish Church, 1880; Prophets of Israel, 1882; Kinship and Marriage in Early Arabia, 1885; Religion of the Semites, 1889; in addition to many articles in the Encyclopaedia Britannica, among the most memorable being the articles on Angel, Bible, Messiah, Psalms, Prophet, Priest, Sacrifice, and Introductions to many of the O.T. books. He was also the author of some important Mathematical Papers—"On the Flow of Electricity in Conducting Surfaces"; on "Mill's Theory of Geometrical Reasoning" and on "Hegel and the Metaphysics of the Fluxional Calculus." Died 31 Mar. 1894, bequeathed his magnificent collection of Oriental books to the College Library, and after his death a fund was raised to continue the purchase of Oriental books. His portrait by Sir George Reid, P.R.S.A., hangs in the Combination Room. No man of greater intellectual power or a wider range of knowledge ever lived within the walls of the College. His services to Biblical science and Oriental learning were great and enduring. As a teacher he was extraordinarily thorough, fresh and inspiring. In him the passion for exact science, which is characteristic of our day, was united with a deep regard for the higher aspects of truth, and reverence for all that was great and worthy in the past.
